Ø Pray for Allan Parker to hear the voice of the Lord as he makes decisions both legal and organizational in this time of development.
Ø Pray for both Sandra Cano, the Doe of Doe V Bolton and Norma McCorvey, the Roe of Roe v. Wade. Pray for their health and for their families. During this waiting time pray they be kept strong in faith and know the grace of God for their individual needs.

Ø Praise God for excellent TV opportunities on Sky Angel. Pray these programs will be adequately funded.

Ø Pray that the testimony of women who will be "silent no more" concerning their abortions will change national attitudes towards abortion and awaken the conscience of America.

I thank each one who has displayed this Alert, or forwarded it to others. You have helped to raise prayer. Be encouraged it is touching every state and even other nations.

Thank you for encouraging others to pray with you. The need for concerted, organized, passionate prayer to cover every aspect of this case will not diminish till we receive a favorable ruling from the US Supreme Court and killing babies is no longer the national law of the land. Be part of the solution to this evil.

If you are able to coordinate prayer, statewide, countywide or in your cities or local church, please contact us at outpouringmin@aol.com.

Yes lord we agree with you. And we declare to the powers of darkness:
"your covenant with death shall be annulled' your agreement with the grave will not stand." Is. 28:18

To effect permanent change in all these situations, we have no other recourse than to pray fervently for a mighty move of God to revive the church and radically change society. Only God can save us and create a desire for His ways. Will you expand your heart and your praying; cry out for God to visit us. Lord Jesus, come. Transform us!

"I will restore your judges as in the days of old" Is. 1:26

Pray for the heart of the Supreme Court to change and agree with God's word.

Pray for these Justices by name. Pray blessing upon them. Pray that as they sit in their positions of authority they discharge God's justice.

United States Supreme Court Justices:
William H. Rehnquist, Chief Justice Justice, Clarence Thomas
Justice, John Paul Stevens
Justice, Sandra Day O'Connor
Justice, Antonin Scalia
Justice, Anthony M. Kennedy
Justice, David Hackett Souter
Justice, Ruth Bader Ginsburg
Justice, Stephen G. Breyer

Please be faithful as you are led to fast for some of these issues.

"Now to Him who is able to do far more abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, according to the power that works within us…" Eph. 3:20

Would you consider signing a Friend of the Court petition? By so doing you are joining with thousands across the nation who agree:

“It is not in the human or legal interest of any mother to kill her own child. A mother’s true interest is in her child’s life and her relationship with her child.
Roe v. Wade should be overturned.”

You can download the petition from the website, http://www.operationoutcry.org.
Both men and women over the age of 18 years can sign. These petitions will be part of the evidence in court. Please take a few minutes to do this.

From this same site you can download Affidavit forms to be filled in by those who have had an abortion. Please help to get as many affidavits as possible. Women who wish to share their abortion testimonies please connect with Operation Outcry at 1-866-4-OUTCRY.

Prayer Alert

Ayman and Hala

Dear prayer Warrior,

It's a very important time now. Feeling that God has a lot to be revealed on earth & HE is waiting for His Body to stand in the gap for Him & for His purposes. America has a great role to play yet, so uniting with God's Heart for the coming election is a must. Praying that President Bush will have his second term in spite of the challenges.

God is in Control. God is in Control. God is in Control.
Nothing is so difficult for Him.
Praise His Mighty Name.
HE is our Leader & Protector, A Wall of Fire surrounding.

Be blessed,

Ayman & Hala

Prophecy And Political Positions

Bob Neumann

It is now 12 years since the Clinton/Bush campaign and it is interesting how so called PROPHETIC WORDS are once again aligning themselves. President George Bush was GOD'S MAN! He had "won the war"....He was a Christian....He was ANTI-ABORTION..... and he lost. Actually he stopped his campaign in the last 30 days and allowed Clinton to catch up from 10 percentage points behind.

But then again....how many PROPHETS said Bill Clinton was "GOD'S MAN OF THE HOUR"?

That prophesied Bill would repent and "A LIGHT" would be in the WHITE HOUSE for the whole nation to follow. Much of what is said of GW today was said about TEFLON BILL years ago.

So what gives?

Are the "prophets" speaking for GOD....or are they "following" the party spin?

Conservative Republicans are once again proclaiming they are carrying GOD'S STANDARD into battle. Yet polls say that the "church" going voters are evenly split. Right down the middle.

"Liberal" Christians are still supporting John Kerry....and THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

To many CONSERVATIVE CHRISTIAN is spelled REPUBLICAN.

Maybe the question is whether GOD is limited by the plurality of AMERICAN VOTERS?

Granted the UNITED STATES of AMERICA is the center of the universe and everything revolves around polls and plebiscites issued daily by the people buying air time on TV and CABLE.

> Scripture says Eph 4:
> 13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:
> 14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;
> 15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:
> 16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.
> 17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,
> 18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:
> 19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all > uncleanness with greediness.

The United States of America is not "united" in much of anything, especially faith. Likewise if we really have "THE KNOWLEDGE of THE SON OF GOD" sin would not be so prevalent in our land.

In this "UNITED STATES" every four years we have this major contest for control of "political power".

We can dress it up all we want in religious jargon and prophetic prose but it is both worldly in content and vain in spiritual intent. Morality can not be legislated. People chose to sin or not to. Now there will be some people who will break laws both spiritual and national without giving it a thought. That is their choice. Now if people obey national law out of fear of penalty and/or imprisonment can it be called "UNITY IN THE SPIRIT"?

JESUS taught HIS DISCIPLE "IF YOU LOVE ME YOU WILL OBEY MY COMMANDMENTS".

Love and Obedience follow HIM. Political agenda really has little to do with ABBA'S KINGDOM.

Four years ago THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT showed me that from HEAVEN'S POINT OF VIEW there was no difference between the DEMOCRATIC and REPUBLICAN candidates. This flies in the face of many who backed one or the other. Better yet the guys who solemnly declared "GOD'S MAN" would win the election. So it didn't matter who won because GOD WINS.....TRUE....but was that the purpose of their "so-called" prophetic word?

Today we have many who make prophetic declarations that "GW is not perfect". Big deal, that applies to all humans. We are all sinners. All in need of grace. Recently I read someone say that President Bush is being "held hostage" by the sins of America. Scripture says JESUS paid THE PRICE and set the captives free. Recently someone said President Bush had "received Reagan's Mantle" on the death of the ex-president. Sounds good to many.... but has no meaning unless Mr. Reagan was an ELIJAH class prophet. Yet people caught it and passed it from prophetic site to prophetic site.

Preaching Prophetic Accountability today will be very unpopular. But popularity is something scripture does not point for us towards. Nor are we told to struggle for political power. To win elections to political office.

We are told to go to the ends of the world proclaiming the GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM and to make disciples. How far off track must a nation get before it falls off the spiritual cliff?

Passionate Pursuit

Victoria Boyson

> "The eyes of the Lord range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him" 2 Chr. 16:9.

I had a vision in which I was flying with God over the surface of the earth. We circled it at a tremendous rate of speed, causing everything on the earth's surface to appear as if it were one massive blur. Then, after some time we slowed down our flight and zoomed in to one lone woman who was on her knees crying out to God in desperation. I saw the Lord stand in front of this woman gazing down at her, but she did not seem to know He was there. As she prayed, the Lord breathed deeply to take in the fragrance of her prayers. He closed His eyes and raised His head; His chest heaved deeply as he inhaled the beauty of her prayers.

As He breathed in her prayers a radiant light began to emanate from inside Him. The light seemed to be electrified with waves of power surging through it. It burst out from Him and encircled both He and the woman in what seemed like a cocoon of glorious light. As I watched, I marveled at this remarkable moment and the Lord spoke to me and said, "It was her desperation for Me that drew Me to her."

In this vision, as we traveled around the earth straining to find someone whose heart was longing for Him, I felt the Lord's desperation. He was desperate to find one who was yearning for Him - someone whose heart was reaching out to find the One they love.

"They Want Me!"

I took part in a church service where the intensity of our worship was very high; you could feel the fervency of our longing for our Lord heightening. Many people were crying out to God in desperate anticipation of Him. "Come Lord Jesus! You are welcome here!" they cried. As our worship increased our longing for Him intensified.

I felt in my spirit that the Lord was truly moved by our desire for Him. He spoke to my heart like an emotional bridegroom, "Look Victoria, they want me!" He was enthralled by our longing for Him.

I burst into tears with my head in my hands, not because I was sorrowful, but because He was so happy. I was delighted for Him, delighted to see His heart made so full by the sincere and fervent worship of those He loved so much. It was as though at last we were beginning to want Him as much as He had longed for us.

Our hearts were captivated by Him because we were suddenly made aware of our great need of Him and of the empty longing we had inside of us without Him. We felt His desperation and His love for us. We knew that He wanted to be with us and our response to Him was "Come!"

Who is it You are Looking For?

In John 20:10-18, John tells us of one whose heart was fully committed to the Lord. To Mary Magdalene, Jesus was not just the Savior of the world, but to her He was a friend. And to this woman who had lived a difficult, forlorn and rejected existence, He represented hope, faithfulness and love. He was the only one who had treated her with love and respect. He made her feel that she really mattered to Him. Instead of seeking what He could take from her, He poured His life into her, and so she loved Him.

When Jesus was crucified and buried, it was she who woke before the sun to run to His tomb (John 20:1). And it was she who stayed by His tomb crying when they could not find His body. When the two angels stationed at the tomb asked her why she was crying she replied, "'They have taken my Lord away,' she said, 'and I don't know where they have put him'" (v.13). She was not confounded by the sight of the angels before her. Indeed, her only thought was for her Lord.

When Jesus appeared to her she did not recognize Him. "'Woman,' He said, 'Why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?'" "Thinking He was the gardener, she said, 'Sir, if you have carried Him away, tell me where you have put Him, and I will get Him.'" (John. 20:14-15).

Mary's Passion

Let's pause here for a moment and refresh our minds with reflections of Mary's relationship with Jesus. In Luke 8:2 we find that she was one whom the Lord had cast out seven demons and she followed Him from that time on. She had refused to be moved from her place at His feet by her sister Martha (Luke 10:40). She, in John 12:1-8 anointed Jesus for His death with expensive perfume and wiped His feet with her hair. Then, in John 19:25, we learn she was at the foot of the cross and saw the one she loved tormented and killed.

I can not imagine what it must have been like for her, watching Him hanging on the cross and then ultimately die. Imagine the dazed confusion she must have experienced. Questions rushing through her mind; Is this what He meant when He said something would happen to Him? Was this what He was talking about? She must have wondered if it was all a bad dream...or how it could possibly be happening to Him.

None of that seemed to mattered at that moment. All she knew was that the One she loved was dying. Then He was gone, how could she go on without Him? She carried all of this emotional heartache with her to the tomb on that Sunday morning.

Yearning only to see even just His lifeless form, she rushed to the tomb the very moment it was permissible. And when she arrived, she found more heartache still...His body was missing. This was too much for her to take; she could no longer bear it. Under the weight of her grief she broke down and wept.

Drawn by Her Passion

Jesus had yet to present Himself to His Father, but He was drawn by Mary's passionate grief for Him. So He went back to the tomb. "Mary" He said in John 20:16. He had planned to present Himself to His disciples in His glorified body, but He choose instead to appear first to this broken woman.

Not even His own mother whom He dearly loved would see Him first, but to a despondent woman whose heart was in desperate pursuit of Him would He first appear. However, she did not recognize Him...so He asked her, "Who is it you are looking for?" (v.15).

He knew who she was looking for; He did not need to ask her. Her passionate grief for Him was what had drawn Him to her, and Jesus wanted to hear her say it. He wanted to hear who it was she was searching for.

He wanted to hear her say, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him" (v.15). How her words must have revived Him. From the arms of His accusers, to the passionate pursuit of His friend.

She wanted Him desperately, even though she believed He was dead. "Just tell me where I can find him and I will take care of him." There was nothing she could do to help Him while He was on the cross, so she urgently wished to help Him now.

Jesus could stand it no longer and in earnest He revealed Himself to her. "'Mary' He said. 'Rabboni!' she cried." She had searched for His body, but now she finds Him whole. From desperation and agony to exuberant joy! She had found the One whom her soul longed for.

In her passion, she lunged at Him embracing Him. Jesus said, "Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet returned to the Father"(v.17), but she could not restrain herself. The dark night that she lived through had past and her morning had come.

"I will be Found by You"

The Lord is looking for those who passionately seeking Him, whose hearts are fully devoted to Him, who love Him. He is desperately looking for those like Mary who, in their brokenness, are in desperate pursuit of Him, who want to be with Him. When He finds one who is seeking Him, it becomes a fragrance to Him and He is drawn to them.

Our Lord is desperately searching over the face of the earth for those who long for Him. He wants to reveal Himself to them and to commune with them, to be one with them.

Our Lord promises that He will be found by those who are in passionate pursuit of Him. "'You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you,' declares the Lord" (Jeremiah 29:13-14).

The One your heart longs for will come to you! Turn your eyes towards Him beloved, He is desperate for you.

Parakeet Prophecy
Bill Yount

"God Used A Donkey, A Rooster And Now My Pet 'Parakeet' Is Beginning To 'The' Word Of The Lord! ... God Is Anointing Animals Once Again!" Job 12:7,8.

Job 12: 7,8. "But ask now the beasts and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee: 8. Or speak to the earth and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

Of all the words in the vocabulary that you can teach a parakeet to say, my son taught our parakeet to say two words... 'come here'. Our parakeet, named Skywalker, says continually those two words as clear as a bell... 'Come here! Come here!'

Since that bird moved into our house, I have to sit beside that bird cage in my chair where I study the word and pray. Recently I have heard the voice of the Lord speak to me through that parakeet... "Come here! Come here!" The King James interpretation is ("Come unto Me all who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest.")

I am tempted to start taking my parakeet to meetings and put the microphone up to its beak and let him give the prophetic word for the hour! And then give the altar invitation! (smile)

I was reminded once again through this prophetic parakeet why God called me with a fresh call five years ago. The Lord said. "Bill, I am not calling you to churches or to people, I am calling you to Me. And out of your time spent with Me will come forth what I want to do through you! I am not calling you to work for Me but to be with Me so I can work through you!"

At least one time in the last five years I have made my greatest mistake in following Jesus. I fell in love with my ministry more than Him. When that happened the Lord did me a great big favor and came down and personally hindered my ministry to get me back. He shut doors to ministry and the phone stopped ringing, meaning there were no invitations to minister anywhere for the next three months! God even had to prove to me and my family that He alone was our source of provision and not churches, people or even our ministry. If you want to know if you have a ministry from the Lord, just take a step back away from it for a time and if the ministry dies, it was 'your' ministry. But if it continues without you it is God's.

God spoke to me during this time... "Bill, I can actually do more without you than I can with you! Any questions? Your ministry has become your dream. But you alone are My dream come true... I enjoy just being with you. Come to Me!"

My ministry actually took off without me during those three months. I got unusual phone calls that God was using me through my tapes being played in church services when I had never left the house. My mother called and said, "Bill, I just saw you on TV. They replayed a tape from 10 years ago in Pittsburgh!" I am convinced God must prove to us that He can bear more fruit in our ministries when we spend more time with Him. I am convinced that He makes it all happen so He can end up being with us more and more as we are weaned from our ministry and even our 'prophetic words' spoken to us, to be in His presence and to get to know the 'author' of our prophetic words!

One morning during this three month sabbatical I was walking to my prayer room passing by our bay window that was filled with beautiful flowers called Irises. They were in full bloom and shouting with color and glory. As I walked past them, I heard the Lord whisper to me. "Bill, I want you to sit down on the sofa and behold the flowers." As I did, I found myself mesmerized by their beauty and started to say their name out loud... "Iris, Iris, and then out came, "I Rest!" It's the first time a flower ever preached to me. I kept gazing upon their beauty and studied them. I couldn't find one flower that looked like it was struggling. I couldn't find one flower that looked worried. Have you ever seen a flower that looked worried? (unless you don't water it!) These flowers were just being and growing into what God had called them to be with no struggle, no sweat and no worry! They even looked happy!

The Lord spoke through those Irises saying. "Bill, I am calling My people to rest in Me and believe what I have called them to become will come to pass in their lives. There is a rest to them that believe. They not only must believe in Me but believe 'Me' to bring to pass what I have spoken unto them. I am the faithful one who has called them who will also do it!"

I sensed that God got so excited with me just being with Him alone apart from ministry that I sensed Him speaking to the angels concerning my ministry... "Go and multiply Bill's ministry in the earth while I enjoy his presence with Me that he might learn when he takes time off to be with Me, his ministry will take off bearing much fruit. My ministry is still multiplying from that encounter of being with the Lord those three months. But recently God had to use a parakeet to get my attention again. And I believe the Lord is perhaps speaking to you also as I write this article. I can hear my parakeet chirping in the background. I believe the Lord is prophesying through Skywalker perhaps to the whole world... "Come Here! Come Here! Come Here!"

When God has to use a parakeet to prophesy to me, I better listen.

"I am going to take some time to go be in the presence of the One who takes care of the birds and flowers and ordains them to minister to us! ... How about you?"

"Come here to hear!"

Parabolic Vision

Mark Wattenford

I was wounded. My flesh had been torn and ripped from my body. I was naked and I was thirsty and hungry. I came out of the woods in my stumbling to find safety. I entered a clearing and found I stood before two gentlemen. The first one was clean and well looking and carrying a large bible. The second looked rather scruffy like myself. It seemed as though his wounds were the same as mine only now healed.

I begged for water and food and for someone to tend to my wounds.

I asked for water. The first extended to me a cup to drink, but it was a cup of vinegar. The second extended a cup and it was full of very fresh and cooling spring water

I asked for food. The first gave me a loaf of bread, but as I thought to eat of it I found it was fool of worms. The second extended to me, what seemed like bread that was glowing with light.

I asked for a coat because I was naked and cold. The first said to me, “Listen – this is how you should have faith that you should believe God for all your needs. He had a coat and behind him I saw he had a house that was full of coats, but he would not give me one. The second… was still naked himself, but as I asked for a coat an angel came to give him a coat for himself as he was also cold and naked, but he took it from the angel and offered it to me – saying, “It is best I give this to you to be warm as my love to do so will… in itself sustain me and keep me warm”.

My wounds were deep and they were bleeding and I asked that someone might attend to my wounds. The first said, “Where is your faith that you are not healed already” and the second said, “behold, I have received healing for myself… let me but embrace you and hold you close to myself and what healing I have received may also touch you. And then he grabbed me and held me close and embraced me so that I might partake of the same healing that had healed him. He simply held me in an embrace and he said no words to me, but as he held me I was healed and I was restored.

The first then said – “Do not let him touch you – he is dirty and he is filthy, he will defile you if you touch him” but I said to him… “though he may be dirty and filthy as you say… I say this to you… by his touch I am being healed”.

I asked the second man… “Are you a holy man?” and he said “NO”… “I am a man as yourself and I am not holy”. I asked the first man, “Are you holy” and he said, “Yes, I am a holy man”.

I asked them both, “Why have you come to me?”. They both said… “That you might be healed and be saved.”

To the first I asked… “How then shall I be healed and be saved?” – He said, “I have seen much and I have learned much and I now know how to make you whole if you will follow after me”. Of the second I asked, “How then shall I be healed and saved?” – The second said, “I have no way to either save you or to heal you, but what salvation and healing I have received I shall share with you”. “I can, with my touch, give to you what I have received for myself.”

The first said to me, “Do not trust this man, he is dirty and he is not clean – you cannot trust him to help you”. Again I said, how then shall I been healed and made clean? The first then brought out a “cloak” and said, “Put this on” and so I did. When I put it on I saw that, before others I was as clean as was the first man. I was seen as clean and healed to others, but as I looked down upon myself I was still bleeding and had wounds and I was filthy. I said to the first, “Others see that I am clean and healed, but I do not see I am for myself”. The first said, “the cloak will save you… as others see you clean so then will God see you clean and receive you”.

Then the second man said to me, “Put this on.” and it was a mantle… not appealing whatsoever to the eye. I did not want to put it on… it had no appeal to it, but I was naked and wounded and I needed to be covered. I then put on this mantle the second man gave me. It was not appealing and had no color or threads that one might adore, but as I put it on I looked down at myself and I was clean and my wounds were healed. Others looked at me and said, “He is poor and has nothing good to wear, but I looked again down at myself and I was clean and I was healed”.

I went to others I thought to be my brothers, but they said to me, “You are not welcome hear, because you are not arrayed in fine linen as we and you will defile our house. You should go and find fellowship with the lepers as they might receive you, but we cannot as you do not appear to be clean.

I looked to the second man and asked, “How is this?” “How can this be?” He said, “They also came to me one time and asked – “Do you desire to appear clean?” I said… no, I do not desire to appear clean… I want to BE clean. They gave me the same cloak to put on whereby I would seem to all others to be clean and healed and they said as long as I wore that cloak they would receive me and so would many others, but I could not wear it as every time I looked down upon myself I still saw I was naked, wounded and still dirty”. I told them, I cannot wear the clothes you give me to wear”. They said to me, “Then… you shall walk the earth naked and have nothing… you will be before all men as dirty and filthy and naked”. So then I said… “Then I shall be so… for unless I can see myself as not naked then I will not receive”. I desire to be clothed and not naked, but I myself must know that I am not naked else it is nothing to me. Then again the first man said to me… you must be clothed before the people and then you will no longer be naked. Then I said, “If I remain naked to myself then I am not clothed before any man… I remain naked”. I then left and I went out into the dessert and there I wandered for some time. The heat of the day parched me and the vultures tormented me day and night as though taunting me as a failure. Then, one day as I walked along, I found in the sand a cloak. It was of no reputation as beautiful or appealing, but when I found it… it had written within it, my name… as though it belonged to me. So then I put it on… and for the first time I looked down and I saw that I was no longer dirty, or filthy… nor was I wounded anymore or bleeding. Since, I have kept what I found in the dessert… it is the mantle of healing God provided for me. They told me also that if I followed them I would be healed and I would gain acceptance and men would honor me, but as I first tried to follow them I never became healed or clean. They only promised me I would be and everyday they would come to me and require I give them more so the promise would be fulfilled that I would be healed and clothed. I gave them all my money and all I had. When I had finished giving them my earnings then they required that I deliver to them those I loved, but never had I come to be healed or clean. I was without hope and they discouraged me greatly and I finally left them and accepted that I am not worthy of God to love me and I then went into the dessert to die, but in the dessert I did not die… I found life, for in the dessert I found the Lord I sought and He gave me this cloak I now wear. There is no appeal to my mantle for men to see, but… it’s power makes me clean before God and myself and it heals my wounds as I wear it. I offer to you what mantle I myself now wear. Take upon yourself this mantle of no reputation. It is not comely and will not attract men to you to ask where they may acquire the same. They will, if fact, avoid the desire of that which you may wear. There is nt grandeur in this mantle that men would seek it. It is, however, a healing and a cleansing mantle.

The first man then rose up in rage against the second and said, “Do not listen to him… he is not from God… he seeks to keep you unclean and to wrap you in garments that are not holy for they are not comely”. “Surely… if God would wrap you in holiness would it not also be very comely in appearance?” “Do not go after him… he seeks to deceive you. You must follow after us and we will clothe you with fine linen that men might marvel at what you wear.” I said to him, “I do not care what men may marvel at what I wear… I seek to be clean and that my wounds may be tended to". The second man then said to me… "Come,… I will show you healing and I will show you cleansing." So then I went with him. He brought me to waters that were pure and told me to wash in them. At first I desired to go into the waters with what I was wearing, but he said to me… you must become naked for you to wash. I did not want to take what clothes I had off, but I did as he instructed of me. Naked I stood and filthy, but I entered the waters he brought me to and immediately my wounds began to heal and immediately I was clean. I did not have to scrub myself as the moment I entered the waters I was made clean. I came up out of the waters and I was clean and the mantle I was given was called "humility" and it kept me clean so that I may not again be made filthy.

We then returned to the first man and others of his company to share what the waters could do and that the mantle was precious to keep us clean, but he said, "I AM CLEAN, what need have I of you?" As he scurried around and was preaching to us how he became holy a branch caught his robe and lifted it up… and underneath I could see he was not only filthy, but he was decaying as a corpse would decay and was a stench as is a corpse. In shock I said to him, "You are corrupt and you are as filthy as a dead corpse", but he said to me… "Be rebuked you evil man… for I am covered in righteousness… can you not see the beauty of my robes?" "And you… you still seek to wear that mantle of no esteem?" "Why do you wear such a thing?" No one will welcome you… no one will desire to hear your voice… no one will open their doors to you." I said to him, "Sir, I came that I might be cleansed in my own eyes. I did not come so that I may be cleansed only in the eyes of others. Again he said to me, "Leave those who have taken you into their company… they have nothing to offer you". "They are of no esteem and can give you no place in the world". Come with us and wear brilliant garments as we and take your place in the world. There is made a place for you if you will only fill it and men will honor you and come to you and they will seek out your counsel and you will be a wise man among the people. You will prosper and they will bring and give gifts to you because of your wisdom and you will live in comfort and your trials shall cease. Then he said to me, "Is it God that desires you to suffer?" or may we not show you that God does not ask of you to suffer, but He says to you that you should prosper and we will show you the way." "Listen to us", he said, "We know God… can you not look at us and know that we know God? Look at how we are arrayed… are we not arrayed in the splendor that is from God. How can you not look at us and know that we are from God? But I said to him, "I want to be clean" and he said, "But we are clean… can you not see this?" I said, "But as I saw the branch raise up your robe I saw that underneath you are not clean". and he said to me… "I am clean… men see that I am clean… you see the garments I wear… how magnificent they are… they make me clean". I said… "I am not at peace until I can look down upon myself and see that I am clean and it does not matter to me that other men may think I am clean… I want to know I am clean. Then he said to me… depart from us for you are a troublemaker and we want no fellowship with you".

Prophetic Declarations - Passover 2004
April 5, 2004

Purpose & Destiny Defined
Every arena of a believer's life is directly related to his or her purpose and destiny in Messiah Yeshua. Unfortunately, some do not know their God-ordained purpose and/or destiny to fulfill God's will in their lives. For others, the knowledge is gained but not empowered by The Anointed One and His anointing.

Webster defines the following:
Purpose: intention; something set up as an object or end to be attained; resolution, determination; aim; a subject under discussion or an action in course of execution.

Destiny: fate; a predetermined course of events often held to be a resistless power or agency; appointment set aside for purpose or predetermining; destination: a place which is set for the end of a journey or to which something is sent.

Destine: to decree beforehand: predetermine; to designate, assign, or dedicate in advance: to direct, devise, or set apart for a specific purpose or end.

CRUCIAL TIME OF WARFARE
This Passover (Heb., "Pasach") marks the beginning of God's release for His purposes and destinies to manifest in the believer's life, but not without a fight. This is a time that compromise and slack must bow their knees to the authority and power given to the believer. The trumpet (Heb., "shofar") is sounding an alarm to those who have ears to hear and hearts to obey the voice of God again, and in greater measure than what has been demonstrated in past years.

FACELESS CHAMPIONS
These "faceless champions" will be sent by God to thrust you into your purpose and destiny, for they are able to catch the vision that has been given to you, as well as speak into your life with power and authority, for they are devout by the standard of the Law (Heb., "Torah").

One who comes to mind as an example is Ananias, a devout servant of the Lord and reputable (well spoken of) by all the residing Jews nearby. He spoke God's will to Paul (Rabbi Shaul) and prophesied purpose, destiny. And commissioned Paul by the authority granted to him by God. In other words, he knew his sphere of authority and abided by it (Acts 22). This "Ananias" is not mentioned ever again in the Word. Wow!

Another example is Purah, one of Gideon's servants believed to be his armor-bearer, for he "followed" Gideon into battle against the Midianites, under cover of darkness to scout the enemy camp. (Judg. 7) Like Ananias, Purah is not heard of again in the Word.

These "faceless champions" are appointed by God with fresh vision and integrity, waiting to be assigned. We must discern and embrace these key people sent our way. Or, you may be an "Ananias" or "Purah," assigned to a "Paul" or "Gideon." Let us hearken to the voice of the Lord and expedite our God-ordained mandates, that we may become the "manifest sons of God."

One in Yeshua's Love,

Passover and Nationhood

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,
It was over 3,800 years ago when the God of Jacob sent His family down into Egypt to make them into a single nation. Speaking to His servant Jacob, He said: "I am YHVH, the God of your father; do not fear to go down to Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation there'" (Genesis 46:3). One of the Hebrew words for "nation" is "goy". It is first used in the Tanach in the Covenant that YHVH made with our forefather Abraham, "I will make you a great nation; I will bless you, and make your name great; and you shall be a blessing" (Genesis 12:2). One man, one God, one Covenant, one national identity; this was at the heart of YHVH's plan for the redemption of the creation. The God of Abraham set apart a man, and swore by His own name that his seed/sperm would become a great and holy (set-apart) nation.

When Jacob and his band of seventy souls arrived in Egypt, he found another family member already down there - Joseph. As we can see from the story recorded in Genesis, Joseph and his progeny had lost their identity and connection with their family of origin, and thus in a sense were a prophetic type of the second family (the so called Gentiles) of the house of Jacob. Perhaps this is why Jacob had to adopt Joseph's sons (ref. Gen 48:5), even though they were of the same bloodline. The adoption was significant for the restoration of the governmental order and unity of the clan. If they were to become a nation, they had to have their own land, and so since Joseph was in a position to do so, he gave them the land of Goshen, where they multiplied profusely. The Creator blessed them with fruitfulness, as they dwelt in one of the most fertile areas of the land of Ham.

However, eventually Jacob's family became slaves to their Egyptian overlords. And while in that state, they lost their vision of being a nation, a family and a people with a purpose and a Divine call. This is portrayed quite vividly in the scene of the two Hebrew slaves who (much like today's 'two houses') were fighting one another much to their own demise. The seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob was now characterized by individualism. This was only natural, since they were living under extreme conditions where self-preservation became their means of survival. So where was this great nation that was promised to Abraham? His seed, now turned slaves, were cursing the day they were born on. They had become nothing more than dead dry bones in the desert sands of Egypt. So helpless were they that they could not even respond to Moses, when he came to them preaching the good news of their deliverance (ref. Exodus 6:9)!

The Passover story is replete with pestilence, famine and one disaster following another. But when gross darkness covered the land, there was still light in the tents of the Hebrews (ref. Ex.10:23), as the anointing of YHVH's covenant word (which "is a light", ref. Ps. 119:105) was still upon them to become a great nation. How was this going to be made possible? It certainly was not going to happen by the nation's own strength. This was going to take a miracle, a Divine intervention. YHVH, therefore, dispatched a man with a message: "Let My people go". Moses was faithful to bring that word to the ruler of the slaves, but YHVH hardened the heart of Pharaoh, just to make sure that His people would know that their deliverance was not going to come by the way or the authority of man. Had Pharaoh given his permission, these Hebrews would have been forever indebted to their slave owner. They would have never been free and could never have taken up their divinely ordained position as the head of all the nations. In this manner, they would have been legally bound to Egypt.

YHVH had another plan to restore these slaves to freedom and to their national identity. He told His servant Moses to have each family take a lamb: "Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying: `On the tenth day of this month every man shall take for himself a lamb, according to the house of his father, a lamb for a household. And if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the persons; according to each man's need you shall make your count for the lamb. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats…. Pick out and take lambs for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb….then you shall take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning…. Now the blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt " (Exodus 12:3-5; 21-22; 13).

The moment the elders applied the blood and struck the lintels and the doorposts of the Hebrews' homes with it, the latter were all sealed into their deliverance, freedom and destiny, but even beyond that - their individualism had just ceased to exist. They were now united behind the one sacrifice, totally dependent upon the powerful right arm of the Almighty to bring them out. "Let My people go!" YHVH had already announced to all the rulers of Egypt who these people belonged to. These were a people who did not belong to themselves, they were and still are today "My people, ["ami" -singular] says YHVH". But now, through the blood of the lamb they were set apart to enter into the next phase of His plan. "'And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel" (Exodus 19:6).

As we, Ephraim and Judah, YHVH's two families, the two nations, gather together to honor Him during this year's Passover, let us leave our individualism and lift the cup of unity. Remember that we were all once slaves to sin and death and bound to the principalities and powers of this world's (kosmos) dominion. It behooves us to, "purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as you are unleavened. For even Messiah our Passover is sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth" (1 Cor. 5:7-8). May we walk together through the Door that is splattered with the blood of the Lamb, out of the houses of our bondage and into the liberty of the new corporate life of the "One New Man", the Royal Priesthood and Holy Nation Israel!

May you all be blessed during this Passover and Feast of Matzot (unleavened bread) with a sense of national unity! May the eyes of our hearts be opened anew to the fact that we are "My people Israel" in this generation.
Shabbat Shalom and Hag Same'ach
Ephraim

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity... It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down on the beard, the beard of Aaron, running down on the edge of his garments. It is like the dew of Hermon, descending upon the mountains of Zion; for there YHVH commanded the blessing--Life forevermore" (Ps. 133).

Passion Movie Released In Middle East

News Items

29 Mar 2004 Marc van der Woude MarcvanderWoude@xc.org JOEL NEWS * Prayer Alert

'The Passion of the Christ' has been released in several nations in the Middle East. Prayer News Alert forwarded two interesting reports from Qatar and Kuwait and calls to prayer for the global release of the film, that many additional Islamic nations will allow the movie to be released without censorship.

Report From Qatar:

To everyone's shock and surprise, 'The Passion' was released today here in Qatar. Until now we have only been able to show the Jesus film in Arabic to a handful of Qataris in the secret of a home setting. In the coming weeks, potentially tens of thousands of Arab Muslims will see this powerful portrayal of Christ's suffering and death. In two short hours, more Qataris heard the Gospel than I have been able to reach in nearly five years of living here.

The Arabic subtitles were completely accurate - they didn't water anything down or change any language that Muslims would not agree with. All of us watched the film in absolute amazement in what God had done. The Muslims sitting around us were being moved - gasping, crying and reacting with disgust to the brutality that Jesus faced.

Now - if you have heard anything about why the Arab Muslims would want to see the film, you know that it is because they 'heard' it was anti-Jewish and since they hate the Jews, they want to see it. How interesting that God is using this film to communicate the Gospel and the very opposite spirit that might be motivating them to go and see it. The message to love your enemies, and Jesus praying for them to be forgiven while on the Cross would hit the Muslim theatre-goer in a powerful way.

Please pray for these urgent requests:

1. That this film will be allowed to be shown for a significant period of time. It is being shown in three different theatres, up to four times a day. Fundamentalists will surely be in an uproar about this unprecedented event. Just when we thought Satellite television was going to be the most significant way for the Lord to sow the seeds of the Gospel, this film arrives in Muslim nations!

2. That this film will cause a major shaking and stirring in the hearts of many Muslims, leading them to salvation.

3. That God will lead us to men and women who have been/will be impacted by this powerful film.

Report From Kuwait:

The film is so popular here that they have been canceling the other films to show 'The Passion' in all the theatres at the cinema complex. I took a friend on the second night. The film was running in all three theatres. I would estimate that well over 50% of the people in the theatre were local Muslims including women completely veiled. You could see how this film had impacted everyone. On the second day, several of the local newspapers had the advertisement for the film on the front page.

It appears that even Saudi Arabia is getting a chance to see the film, albeit through pirated DVD's.

There are no movie theatres in Saudi Arabia anyway. God knows what He's doing. I was just reminded what the Apostle Paul writes: "It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill. The latter do so in love. The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely. But what does it matter? The important thing is that in every way (e.g. pirated DVDs) the true Christ is preached. And because of this I rejoice". (Philippians 1:15-18)

The release was very timely. The killing of Palestinian Hamas leader Sheikh Ahmad Yassin happened the morning after the film was released. The Arab response has been a whole new wave of hatred for the Jews, which was illustrated in a large public demonstration/march yesterday. At a time when the urge for Muslims to hate has been renewed, the Lord has brought 'The Passion' telling them - 'No, love your enemies! Forgive them!' The contrast is staggering.

[Note from JOEL NEWS: Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat watched 'The Passion of the Christ' at a private screening in the West Bank city of Ramallah, and made a positive statement about it.]

Just today a couple of local women asked me, "Do you have the New Testament in Arabic? Me and all my friends want to read it!" Another asked about where to get the Arabic Bible on the internet. This has never happened! The film is generating so much interest in Jesus and the Scriptures. Every Christian we are talking to seems to have a story of two just like this one. May it continue to increase.

There have been several articles in the paper, all positive and surprisingly silent in terms of emphasizing the Islamic belief that Jesus did not die on the cross. People are talking about wanting to go and see it. Pray that many would watch this movie and that it would spark an interest and hunger to know more of Jesus and the Bible. Pray that hearts would be drawn by the love of Jesus. Pray that believers would make the most of this opportunity to talk with their friends, to be available for those who will be impacted by what they see.

Cinema owners call on Christians

One of our contacts in Germany reports that cinema owners in Darmstad, Germany, called on Evangelical churches to be available after viewings of the Passion movie. The Christians were invited to see the movie for free if only they would be available to talk to visitors. They were allowed to use all the rooms in the cinema to talk and pray with people.

Mohammed Alkhereiji, Arab News Staff http://www.arabnews.com/?page=1&section=0&article=41235&d=15&m=3&y=2004

JEDDAH, 15 March 2004 - Pirated DVDs of controversial Hollywood blockbuster "The Passion of Christ" have hit the streets and are selling like hot cakes, according to street vendors.

The film is being sold outside of supermarkets, and out of the trunk of cars for the price of SR30 or less. A copy obtained by Arab News was of high quality.

A street vendor said on condition of anonymity vendors underestimated demand for the movie because the dialogue is in Latin and ancient Aramaic rather than English. "My customers don't like subtitled movies, but they are buying this one."

Arab censors giving 'Passion' wide latitude Gibson film packs Mideast movie houses

Cairo -- Arab governments across the Middle East are bending or breaking their own censorship rules for "The Passion of the Christ," the Mel Gibson film that sparked fears of anti-Semitism when it was released in the West.

In Egypt, where the film opened to large crowds Wednesday, "it's getting a very special treatment," said Mustafa Darwish, a film critic and former president of the Egypt Censorship Authority.

So far, the film has been released uncensored in Syria, Lebanon, Jordan, Egypt, Bahrain, Qatar, and the United Arab Emirates.

A longstanding ruling from Al Azhar University -- the ultimate spiritual authority for Muslims worldwide -- forbids the depiction of prophets in movies, and Muslims consider Jesus Christ a prophet. But authorities have made an exception for the controversial film depicting the final hours of Jesus' life. Only Kuwait has blocked its release, citing the ban on portraying prophets.

Gaber Asfour, secretary general of Egypt's Supreme Council of Culture, who gave his seal of approval to "The Passion," said the film's release is a sign of increasing artistic freedom in the country, which banned "Matrix Reloaded" and "Bruce Almighty" last year on religious grounds.

"You can say that we are regaining the spirit of enlightenment, which is essential to the cultural tradition of modern Egypt," Asfour said.

The laissez-faire attitude was clear at one Cairo movie theater, where an unusual disclaimer hung above the ticket window, proclaiming: "This movie reflects only the views of its creator."

However, Darwish and other observers say allegations raised by U.S. Jewish groups may have actually encouraged the film's welcome in the Arab world.

"They (the censorship authorities) think the film is anti-Semitic. That's why they are giving it such privilege," Darwish said.

Across the region, the film is packing movie theaters. Lebanese President Emile Lahoud has seen the movie, as has Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat, who called it "moving and historical." An aide to Arafat compared the pain Jesus endured to the suffering Israel has inflicted on Palestinians.

More than 142,000 people saw the movie during its first 11 days in Lebanon, shattering previous records set by "Titanic" and the James Bond movie "Die Another Day."

Lebanon is 30 percent Christian, which may help to explain the film's success there. But in predominantly Muslim Qatar, Syria and Jordan, the movie is also attracting unprecedented crowds. In Qatar, it is being shown on seven screens four times a day.

"We have broken all records," said Berthe Zeeni, marketing director for Prime Pictures, the film's Middle East distributor.

In Qatar, any movie showing a cross around an actor's neck was banned throughout the 1990s. So when the tiny Persian Gulf monarchy approved "The Passion," Mohsem al-Mokadem, the general manager of the Qatari Cinema Co., was shocked. "It is the first time that such a film has been released anywhere in the gulf," said al-Mokadem, who was a member of Qatar's censorship authority from 1980 to 1992.

Arab censors emphatically deny that they have treated "The Passion of the Christ" differently than any other movie.

"We considered it as we would any film, from an artistic point of view," said a Ministry of Information spokesperson in the United Arab Emirates, where the film also opened Wednesday. "We did not look at it from a religious or political point of view."

In Israel, some ultra-Orthodox rabbis and several right-wing parties have called for the movie to be banned. And no Israeli distributor has yet sought permission to market the movie, according to the nation's Film Censorship Board.

Officials at Al Azhar acknowledged that they have long forbidden depictions of prophets -- or even the voices of prophets -- in movies, but they said they have no intention of opposing the decision of government censors to allow "The Passion" to be shown in its entirety.

"I encouraged the movie because it withholds from Jews their claims that they are innocent of the Christ's blood," said Mohiy el-Din Abdel Aleem, a professor of media and journalism at Al Azhar University, when asked why Al Azhar had not objected to the movie.

Sheikh Muhammad el-Rawy, a member of the Islamic Research Council, Al Azhar's highest authority responsible for reviewing books and movies, said it would have been inappropriate to interfere with a movie that concerns the Christian faith.

"We do not accept the screening of prophets, but we cannot confiscate others' beliefs," he said. "We didn't review this movie because it does not concern Muslims."

Habib Malik, a professor of history and cultural studies at the Lebanese American University in Beirut, said the allegations of anti-Semitism that have surrounded the film are undoubtedly part of the film's appeal in Lebanon.

"Word got around that this movie was upsetting a lot of people in the Jewish community in the West, and people here are predisposed to be anti- Israel, and anti-Jewish in general, and I think that's one of the reasons why people have flocked to see it," said Malik, who first watched the film with Mel Gibson and a select group of intellectuals and religious figures in Washington.

Malik said he hopes that even if people see the film for the wrong reasons, it may still have a positive influence by exposing Muslims to different religious viewpoints.

"This shows what happened, and how the Jews trapped Jesus and let the Romans crucify him. This is the truth," said Maher Nissim, a financial manager who viewed it on opening night at the Ramses Hilton theater.

Salwa el-Badrawi, a stooped elderly woman in an Islamic headscarf who attended a pre-release screening, said she hoped the movie would bring religions closer together rather than drive a wedge between them.

"It shows that there is tolerance and tenderness in all religions," she said. "The movie shows Jews who sympathized with the Christ, while we Muslims also had a Christian person who helped the prophet Mohammed," referring to Waraqah, his wife's Christian cousin, who helped Mohammed interpret his revelations.

Man Confesses to Murder After Watching 'The Passion'

After watching "The Passion of The Christ" earlier this month, a Texas man confessed that he killed his girlfriend back in January. Dan Randall Leach II, 21, was indicted a week ago in Richmond on a first-degree murder charge in the death of Ashley Nicole Wilson, 19, the Associated Press reported. Her death in January had been tentatively ruled a suicide.

Earlier this month, Leach reportedly went to see Mel Gibson's film, which graphically depicts Jesus' final hours. On March 7, he went to church, announced that he needed to confess a crime and drove himself to the sheriff's office, "The Los Angeles Times" reported. Details of his confession were not revealed until his indictment was issued. "It's a very strong movie," Jim Pokluda, a sheriff's lieutenant in Fort Bend County, Texas, said. "It would make a man think twice about any sin that he has committed."

Elsewhere, well-known pastor and author Rick Warren said his Saddleback Church in Lake Forest, Calif., gained 2,500 new members in the few days after the Feb. 25 release of the movie, Discipling A Whole Nation (DAWN), a global Christian research and strategy network, reported.

Robby Dobbs of the Second Baptist Church in Houston said his congregation has had "hundreds of conversions" because of the film. Along with many pastors nationwide, Warren held church services in rented cinemas. Churches overseas are reportedly copying this style of evangelism. In Essen, Germany, the owners of the country's largest cinema allowed churches to speak for 20 minutes after each showing, DAWN reported.

Last week, "The Passion" topped the $300 million mark, becoming the fourth-fastest film to reach that figure. With $315 million after this past weekend, the movie is outpacing "The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King," which has earned about $375 million, Reuters reported. Playing in 3,214 theaters, the film will widen by 400 to 500 cinemas this Friday, with Gibson counting on a surge in business through Easter.

Jesus: controversial

Seldom has a film caused so much furor before its release as Mel Gibson's "The Passion of the Christ". The movie, filmed in Latin and Aramaic, depicts the last 12 hours in Jesus' life. The controversies centre on Gibson's claim to have filmed Jesus' suffering exactly according to the Biblical accounts. "The Passion of the Christ" has caused a global media response and heated discussions in many nations.

"Jesus beats Frodo"

The release was sensational: an audience of 2.5 million in 4,000 cinemas, which are booked weeks in advance. In the first five days, audiences paid US$ 125 million to see "The Passion of the Christ", beating the recent record Oscar winner "Lord of the Rings: Return of the King", which chalked up 'only' US$ 124 million in the same period. Film industry experts believe the film could total US$ 650 million, earning Mel Gibson US$ 250 million or more. That's quite a profit margin, considering the investment of US$ 30 million in production costs and US$ 15 million in marketing.

"My fingers trembled"

Theologian and Reuters journalist Uwe-Simon Netto watched the film. He writes "Two hours after watching the crucifixion scene, my fingers are trembling uncontrollably on my keyboard. My wife dare not speak with me. My pulse is probably still as fast as during the whole showing of Mel Gibson's film 'The Passion of the Christ'. If this film doesn't have lasting consequences for our declining Western society, woe is us! I hope that the millions who will follow me into the cinemas will, like me, sit trembling for hours, realising that after this film, only one thing helps: prayer."

Film crew members came to faith

Mel Gibson says that the Holy Spirit worked on the film through him: "Some agnostics and Muslims in the very mixed film crew came to faith in Christ through their work on the film." The filming left nobody untouched; James Caviezel, who plays Jesus, had the hardest job, but never complained ? even when they forgot his back protection in the flogging scene.

Saddleback: 2,500 new members

Willow Creek's Bill Hybels and Saddleback Church pastor and author Rick Warren are enthusiastic. Morris H. Chapman, Baptist pastor in Nashville and chairman of the Southern Baptists' Executive Committee, says "It seems that God has dropped something in our laps which could be the catalyst for a spiritual revival in our nation." Rick Warren reports that the Saddleback Church gained 2,500 new members in the few days after the film's release. Warren, along with many pastors in the USA, held church services in rented cinemas. Many cinemagoers remained weeping in their seats, and needed to talk. Robby Dobbs of the Second Baptist Church in Houston, speaks of 'hundreds of conversions'. The church had not only reserved several thousand cinema tickets, but also started a series of three sermons about the Passion of Christ, entitled "Who, Why, What?" Churches in other nations are picking up on this style of evangelism; in Essen, Germany, the owners of Germany's largest cinema allowed churches to speak for 20 minutes after each showing. Christian Alliance groups in various cities are planning how they can evangelise with the film, reports Swiss missiologist Dr. Marco Gmür.

Evangelical approval

Following a private viewing, the Pope apparently said "it is as it was". The film also finds broad approval in Evangelical churches. In February 2004, Mel Gibson spoke before 5,000 evangelical and charismatic pastors in a Calvary Assembly of God church: "Carrying the sins of the whole world ? that is simply unimaginable! Christ could have just cut his finger, but he did not. He paid the price in full. You see, I am neither a preacher nor a pastor, but I sense that my career brought me to this place. The Holy Spirit did something through me; I just directed the traffic. I hope that the film has the power to evangelise." "I've been pastor of the New Life Church in Colorado Springs, USA, for 18 years," says Ted Haggard. "I can't remember having anyone on stage who had such respect for God as Mel."

Now playing globally: outrage and praise for 'The Passion of the Christ'

By Brian Murphy
Associated Press
10:14 a.m. April 3, 2004

An Islamic leader says it reveals Jewish "crimes." European Jewish leaders are troubled by it. Israeli theaters don't plan to show it.

"The Passion of the Christ," Mel Gibson's crucifixion epic, is moving into cinemas around the world, and into the international tempests whipped up by terrorism, war and clashing religions.

"It's not going to help quiet things down," said Giorgos Moustakis, who teaches theology and Christian ethics at the American College of Greece. "There are fundamentalists in every religion – Christians, Muslims and Jews. Films like this get extremist feelings going. That cannot be good."

"The Passion" has gone global as Christians prepare to celebrate Easter week. But the coming week is also the Jewish holiday of Passover, which could sharpen the focus on what some perceive as the movie's anti-Semitism.

For many around the world, as in the United States, the core issues of the film are the blood-soaked depiction of Christ's last hours, and the emphasis on Jews clamoring for the Romans to crucify him.

Gibson and many clergy who praised the film deny it has any anti-Semitic overtones.

Many in the Arab world welcome the film, seeing it as an anti-Jewish message gaining worldwide currency at a time of escalating Palestinian-Israel clashes.

"The Jews are most upset with the movie because it reveals their crimes against the prophets, the reformers and whoever contradicts their opinions," said Hamza Mansoor, secretary-general of the Islamic Action Front, a hard-line political party in Jordan.

The film has opened to packed houses in Jordan, Syria and Lebanon. Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat watched the film at his West Bank compound with a group of local Muslim clerics and Christians from the United States, Canada and Britain.

"The Palestinians are still daily being exposed to the kind of pain Jesus was exposed to during his crucifixion," a top Arafat aide, Aub Rdeneh, said in a statement after the March 20 viewing.

Muslims revere Jesus as a prophet, not as the messiah, and some Arab countries have banned the film because a strict interpretation of Islam frowns on portraying its prophets as flesh-and-blood characters. But pirated DVD versions are circulating widely.

Moreover, the Quran insists that, regardless of what the New Testament says, Jesus did not die on the cross and thus did not save humanity.

The film will not be seen in Israel, either. Shapira Films, which has the Israeli distribution rights, "decided this was not the appropriate time to screen it," spokeswoman Orly Ben Eliyahu said.

But that does not mean it is being ignored in the Jewish state.

"Given the damage he's done to Christian-Jewish relations, I wouldn't want to be Mel Gibson on Judgment Day," wrote Yossi Klein Halevi in the Jerusalem Post.

In France, the film's opening Wednesday coincided with a European Union report which showed that among member nations experiencing anti-Semitic acts and threats, France had the sharpest increase – a six-fold jump from 2002 to 2003.

France's Liberation newspaper warned that the film could "exacerbate anti-Semitism." French Roman Catholic bishops worried it "could be used to comfort anti-Semitic opinions." Three Jewish brothers tried but failed to get a Paris court to block the movie as inflammatory.

The film, showing in more than 500 theaters across France, cannot be shown to children under 12. In Britain, the age limit is 18.

In Germany, Charlotte Knobloch, vice president of the Central Council of Jews, warned that the movie's "suggestive power ... will give a further push to the current resurgence of anti-Semitism."

The movie has equally firm defenders.

Miikka Ruokanen, a professor of theology at the University of Helsinki, called it "the best biblical film" and rejected accusations of anti-Semitism.

"It was about the human condition, about human suffering," he said. "Jesus happened to be a Jew and the same fate would have befallen the son of God in other societies."

Italian theaters will not screen the film until April 7. But Pope John Paul II saw it at a private screening in December, and later blessed Jesus' portrayer, actor Jim Caviezel, a devout Roman Catholic. Vatican officials openly praised it.

Not so the Roman Catholic archbishop of Paris, Cardinal Jean-Marie Lustiger, who described the film as "ridiculous" for its graphic attention to the beatings and abuses suffered by Jesus.

Others, too, recoiled at the violence.

"It is downright gruesome," Oslo Bishop Gunnar Staalsett said on Norwegian state television. "It made me out and out nauseous."

Finland's leading tabloid, Ilta-Sanomat, called it "one of the most cruel and violent films ever made."

But that is just what some advocates say is needed to draw attention to Christianity's core beliefs.

Bishop Marc, a spokesman for the Moscow Patriarchate, called the film "heavy-duty medicine."

"Many of our compatriots have plunged into materialism and are afraid of asking themselves the meaning of life and death – and these are the very questions that the movie sets forth," he said following an advance screening.

The movie opens in Russia on Tuesday.

In the Philippines, where some faithful are nailed to crosses in Easter reenactments, Bishop Ramon Arguelles wondered whether Gibson "may beat Mother Teresa" as an evangelizer.

Manila Archbishop Gaudencio Rosales, in a pastoral message, called the film "a serious labor of love, painstakingly made, of genuine artistic and religious value."

He cautioned viewers against reading an anti-Jewish message into the film: "Anti-Semitism may not be justified ever, the church teaches us, and the terrible crimes anti-Semitism has led to, culminating in the Holocaust of the last century, are surely crimes in the eyes of humanity and God."

Some European churches, like American ones, have encouraged the public to see the film, hoping it will reverse declining religious faith. A poll in December 2002 by the Pew Research Center found 59 percent of Americans consider religion "very important" in their lives. The closest Western nation was Britain at 33 percent.

In southern England, five churches – three Anglican, one Baptist, one nondenominational – joined forces to block-book 3,000 tickets and offer them free on the Internet.

"The film will open people's eyes to the Christian faith, so they can look seriously at Jesus as an option for their life," Anglican Rev. Eric Delve was quoted as telling the Church Times, an Anglican weekly.

"The average church program does not grab a lot of people. Hollywood has rather sanitized the life of Jesus in the past."

But the Rev. Geoff Crago, communications officer for the Anglican diocese of Gloucester, told the paper he doubted the film would revive religious faith.
"It's not saying the sort of things I believe are right for presenting the gospel in the 21st century," he said.

People Bubbles
Sandy Warner

SANDY RHEMA
HEARD: Joy bubbles are coming. People.

PARABLE: Today on the way to church, a little child blew a bubble outside and it floated in front of our car window as we passed by! I knew the Lord had sent that bubble just for me.

QUICKENED GIFT: Today a dear friend sent me an email called, "Special Delivery for Sandy." It was a computer screen wallpaper that she made just for me. It had a bunch of happy faced joy bubbles all over the screen. It was so precious!

CONFIRMATION: I was asked to teach today at church. When I drove up, there was a single joy bubble floating in the wind and it went past my car! I was so tickled at this gift from the Lord’s heart straight to my own.

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA
HEARD: Strength promised. Personality. Bubbles. O.K. I made you that way. Brings joy to My heart.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: MY SIMPLE GIFTS ARE TREASURES
How I delight to give you My pure and simple good gifts! It gives Me such joy when you have the ears, eyes and heart to know Me in this way. You have learned that in the invisible life you can not see, there is much going on in the back ground in order to bring you My simple, yet very loving and heart felt gifts through people. Merely passing by in your car, think about the string of events that takes place to send you just one bubble before it pops…

Job 38:25-27, 33 NLT
"Who created a channel for the torrents of rain? Who laid out the path for the lightning? Who makes the rain fall on barren land, in a desert where no one lives? Who sends the rain that satisfies the parched ground and makes the tender grass spring up?" …"Do you know the laws of the universe and how God rules the earth?"

Power Bubbles
Sandy Warner

SANDY RHEMA
HEARD: The city is alive. Praise Me night and day. Let Me bathe My light upon it. Dunamis power. Right here in My body. What do you see?

VISION: I saw a huge eye ball looking through a magnifying glass.

HEARD: I see lot’s of joy. Bubbles. Let Me be your strength. Just a minute, I see another one coming. Pop. It’s right above your head. Laughter.

Prov 17:22 NKJV
A merry heart does good, like medicine, but a broken spirit dries the bones.

SANDY RHEMA
HEARD: Power, resurrection life and new beginnings. All in Me. Laughter, power and wings. All gathering in one place. United. Triumphant. Take wings. Take flight.

HEARD: Party. It’s so funny they started to laugh. Joy. They waited in My Presence. It bubbled forth.

HEARD: To ignite. Explosion. Power. Awesome. Seeking. It’s not in anything you say. It’s My power. Rest in it. I assure you.

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA
HEARD: Lots of bubbles. I do all things well.

HEARD: Raining hard. Cloud burst. Lots of bubbles. Blowing everywhere. Carried by the wind. East they blow. Precious in My sight.

SANDY RHEMA
HEARD RIDDLE: Go in lightest.

EXPERIENCE: Today we blew bubbles at church during worship. Since I had been hearing so much about bubbles, I bought several packages of wedding bubbles. They are tiny little bottles a little over an inch tall. Each are filled with bubbles and a tiny wand. I had mentioned this a few weeks ago in prayer meeting and wondered what people thought about bringing them to church. I prayed about it, then kept them in the car waiting upon the Lord for the right day. When I arrived today I noticed that one of our intercessors had brought a bottle of bubbles. I watched him when worship started, but he was chicken!! Then amazingly a 1st grader had brought bubbles and started to blow them. I looked over at the intercessor and he got a big grin on his face and opened his bottle. I ran out to the car and got the packages and passed them around. It was a perfect day since we did not have a sermon and we all ended up being prayed for in a prayer tunnel. And while people were walking through the tunnel, there were others blowing bubbles upon them. It was a joyful time and we experienced the Lord’s Presence and joy in a precious way.

Later when I pondered what I had heard before church, I thought that "go in lightest" meant go with a light heart, where our burden is easy and yoke is light.

Ps 21:1-2 NKJV
The king shall have joy in Your strength, O LORD; And in Your salvation how greatly shall he rejoice! You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of his lips.

CONCLUSION

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER JOY THROUGH PRAISE
You are My chosen ones bringing life and light to your city with your night and daily praises. My anointing flows through you and this is My dunamis power. Let Me be your strength, and I will send you joy bubbles that pop above your head and in your heart. In My Presence is the fullness of joy. You need healing? A merry heart will do you good. Are you heavy with burdens and cares? Worship Me and I will lighten your load.

As men and angels gather together waiting upon My Presence, I will rain. The rain of My Presence shall come in a powerful cloud burst. Powerful electromagnetic charges shall fill the atmosphere and My people shall experience awesome explosions of My power. They shall experience such powerful surges they will not be able to contain them, and they shall burst forth with bubbles of joyous laughter as they shake and shimmer in My rain.

"Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob;" (Ps 114:7 KJV)

"You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore." (Ps 16:11 NKJV)

Promotion By Overcoming Presumption
Sandy Warner

I have been tearing out the roots of presumption in the prophetic. I am bringing My prophets to higher ground so they will overcome the traps that were set for them through presumption from the past. At times when they asked for My guidance, I was silent merely to teach them the vanity of their own presumption. Because of their saying, "The Lord said" when I did not say, the enemy laid traps and snares which are now coming to fruition. I AM allowing the ambitions and agendas of men to fall at this time so that they will learn the hard lesson never to assume again. It is painful, but it is also necessary in order to take them higher. It is here that they will learn to do it My way. There are no failures in My kingdom, only lessons that are repeated until they are learned so My prophets may pass onto promotion.

"And if you say in your heart, 'How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?' -- when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him." (Deuteronomy 18:21-22 NKJV)

"Who can understand his errors? Cleanse me from secret faults. Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins; Let them not have dominion over me." Psalm 19:12-13 NKJV)

Drifting With Purpose

Jan 16, 2004

The ark had no rudder, neither should you. Let it all go, dear one, let all ambition, agenda, and presumption go. As you lean upon Me, I will guide your boat with the currents of My Presence. Yes, it feels like you are drifting aimlessly, but as you let Me be your Captain, I do have a plan and it will fit perfectly into your life. As you lean back into your seat and rest in Me, My Word shall overtake you and you shall know that you know. Not one doubt. I shall plant you. You shall know My way and be greatly confirmed.

"The waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the earth. The waters prevailed and greatly increased on the earth, and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters." (Geneses 7:17-19 NKJV)

Harvesting Old Growth
Sandy Warner

Jan 12, 2004
I AM harvesting the old growth plantings. They have grown to be like giants in My kingdom and silos are stuffed with their grain. Each grain has been lovingly preserved and will be multiplied for an even greater harvest yet to come. I AM bringing to birth a great many mysteries in this hour. A great price was paid for this costly grain, and it shall pave the way for multitudes yet to come.

"The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing." (Psalm 92:12-14 KJV)

Paul Cain’s End Times Vision

Terry Sullivant

Paul has had several specific burdens and prophetic expectations for the Body of Christ today and in the days to come. He has had reoccurring visions concerning the end times, which he believes are rapidly approaching. About 30 years ago the Lord gave Paul a vision that has occurred to Paul more than 100 times and still reoccurs to this day.

It is a vision of the last days when sports stadiums all over the United States are filled with thousands of people. In this vision, people are being healed and miracles are happening to thousands in the name of Jesus Christ. People are turning to the Lord in droves and the whole nation is in revival. It seemed the whole earth was turning to Christ.

Television news reporters are broadcasting stories of resurrections and miracle healings. None of the secular reporters could get near the men on the platform. They did not know who the men were. Paul described them as "almost faceless men." He hears a TV anchorman saying, "There are no sporting events to report tonight because all the stadiums, ball parks and arenas are being used for large revival meetings and are filled with people crying, "Jesus is Lord, Jesus is Lord."

In these visions, Paul saw these men minister for three days and nights without food, water or change of clothing. Supernatural strength enabled them to continue for these long periods. In the vision, Paul is standing at the crossroads of life and sees a billboard that says, "Joel's army now in training." People are being trained to walk in obedience to Jesus. They have learned patience and endurance, have the power of God and having done all, they know how to stand against the enemy.

"They will have the mind of Christ," Paul said. "They will partake of the heavenly calling and be a new breed, God's dread champions." Those ministries will be filled with such passion for Jesus and the power of the Spirit that the host of darkness will dread their impact.

Paul said in the midst of the Laodicean church age of lethargy and apathy, that God was preparing in hiddenness an army to pull down enemy strongholds, and go forth in the power of God and have pure and undefiled religion.

"He's going to do this with a people who have stripped themselves and separated themselves from the world, the flesh and the devil," Paul said. "They will realize the end time is here and that things are in a mess and things at the end time are different. Just as it required total sacrifice on the part of the disciples to begin this thing, it will require an equal commitment from us to complete the task in the end times. Joe's mighty army, as described in Joel Ch. 2 is the army of God - not a wicked army, as some have thought. They are the ones with 'feet of iron not mixed with clay', with the wisdom of God alone, not imitators of other men of God. Some of the superstars of the Church will fall. The Lord will have an army of holy anointed vessels to usher in His kingdom so that no one man can take credit for it. It will be to the glory of God alone."

Prophetic Directives For 2004

Patricia King

Patricia King (Pat Coking)
http://www.extremeprophetic.com/ Patricia@extremeprophetic.com

Key scripture for 2004

"May He grant you according to your hearts desire, and fulfill all your purpose." Psalm 20:04

1. Raising Up of Praise Warriors

In 2004 there is going to be a shift of emphasis from prayer to praise. The prayer and intercession movement will be sustained and will continue to mature but intercessors will find themselves coming under a mantle of praise during prayer meetings and especially during times of "warfare prayer". High Praise will be the greatest warfare weapons of the church in 2004. The Lord is leading His body into to a new level of confidence in warfare that will bring forth a swift accomplishment of victory through praise. Believers will congregate for gatherings of praise, oftentimes for 24-hour periods. As a result, many individuals, local churches, and regions will experience immediate breakthroughs.

Key Scripture: Psalm 149:6-9

"Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand, To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people; To bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron; To execute on them the judgment written; This honor have all the saints, Praise ye the Lord!"

2. Evangelism Emphasis

The Body of Christ in 2004 is going to have a great stirring to evangelism and leaders will be receiving creative strategies for reaching the lost. Prophetic and power evangelism will be key tools for evangelistic harvest during this year. 2004 will see the first fruits of the harvest and there will be a significant further increase in 2005. Training and equipping for Prophetic and Power evangelism in 2004 will be an emphasis for many churches and individuals.

There will be a number of women who will come to the Lord through prophetic evangelism just like the woman at the well in John 4. Following their conversion a powerful evangelistic anointing will come upon them immediately. A great company of women will begin to be raised up in 2004 for harvesting: "Great is the company of women who proclaim the good news..." Psalm 66:11

There will also be a significant harvest of souls in Hollywood in 2004 with some key influential individuals coming to Christ. Inner cities will also be targeted by the Lord's harvesting power and strategies in 2004.

Individuals who have been involved in new age and occult type of spiritual activity are going to search in a deeper way for truth due to disillusionment. They will come to the Lord when they search with all their heart. The church will need to prepare themselves to love these individuals and gently disciple them in truth. At the same time there will be an increase in numbers of individuals who will join non-Christian "spiritual groups" in 2004 due the hunger in their souls. There has been fear in the church towards those with occult and new age persuasions. This fear will be overcome by perfect love. The church is being called to walk in clear, uncompromising discernment.

The Bible says is Isaiah 61 that the anointing is upon us to preach the good news to the poor. There is going to be a fresh focus in the church for the poor. A generous spirit will begin to flow through many Christians who will be filled with compassion for the poor and needy. A move amongst the needy will include not only the preaching of the good news unto soul winning but an increase of financial and provisional resource to meet their needs and the needs of the ministries who serve them. The last shall be first.

Key Scripture: John 4:5-30 (woman at the well)

Especially verse 28,29 "So the woman left her water pot, and went into the city, and said to the men, Come, see a man who told me all the things that I have done; is this not the Christ?"

3. Falling Stars

I saw a vision of falling stars. Stars are a light radiating body and usually are a prophetic symbol of believers who are letting their light shine before men (those who are visible to the public eye). The Lord revealed that in 2004 the church will see some leaders who have been in the public eye, fall. This will unfortunately be as a result of corruption, self-idolatry, and immorality.

When I received the vision, the Lord reminded me that in the natural, when we view a star falling, that it actually lost its light many years before we see the visible fall. The Lord further revealed that the falling stars (fallen leaders) exposed in 2004 actually lost their light (pure devotion, focus on the Lord, prayer and Bible study disciplines, Kingdom values, consecration) years before the public fall. Pride, self-dependency, self-exaltation, and compromise settled in over the years as a result of distraction from pure Kingdom focus.

Some of the "falling stars" will suffer greatly within their souls with deep remorse. They will have a difficult time forgiving themselves, being overwhelmed in their brokenness and contrition. Others will have no repentance within their hearts but will only have sorrow for being exposed. They will shift the blame off of themselves and onto others. The Lord will show mercy to the broken but will bring devastation to the hardened of heart.

Many Christians will lose trust and faith as a result of the public exposures. It is important for all believers to put their trust in God completely and not in man. A merciful and forgiving heart is necessary during the process of exposure.

God will raise up individuals who will carry an anointing for restoration, so that the falling stars will once again be ignited with fresh light and passion. This will be a process of restoration and great testimonies of the Lord's healing love will be shared by these restored individuals.

Warnings:

1. Distraction from pure and intimate devotion with the Lord is very dangerous for all believers. Stay focused and press into the Lord in 2004. If you have suffered distractions in your devotion time, then contend for the breakthrough. 2. Beware of critical judgment lest you fall. Mercy triumphs over judgment. 3. Individuals who get their focus off the Lord when they see the "falling stars" are in danger of having their own faith and walk assaulted.

Key Scripture: Isaiah 14:12-15 (especially vs. 12) "How you have fallen from heaven, O star of the morning, son of the dawn."

4. Beginnings of Purging Fire

A baptism with fire will visit many individuals and churches in 2004 who have been passionately seeking for purging in their lives. A purification season is going to visit the church as a move of purging begins. This purging process will begin to separate the "wheat from the tares". It is important for believers to allow the Holy Spirit's conviction to bring alignment in their lives this year as 2005 will bring about a more severe purging. Angels will be released in this process.

Key Scriptures: Matthew 13:24-30; 36-43 â?" Parable of the wheat and tares (especially vs. 41-43) "The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His Kingdom all stumbling blocks, and those who commit lawlessness, and will cast them into the furnace of fire; in that place there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear."

Zechariah 13:9 "And I will bring about the third part through the fire, refine them as silver is refined, and test them as gold is tested. They will call upon My name, and I will answer them; I will say they are My people, and they will say, The Lord is my God."

5. Increase of Miracles, Signs and Wonders

A significant increase of miracles, signs, and wonders will be witnessed in 2004. Healing miracles will especially increase in 2004 and many believers will step out to minister healing to the sick. The Lord is going to demonstrate the greatness of His power against sickness and disease.

Believers will become aware of signs from the Lord in their own lives. These will be token confirmations given by the Lord to individuals who are seeking His guidance. Supernatural phenomena, including angelic visitation, will also be witnessed by many. Both believers and unbelievers will experience these things from the hand of God.

There will be some significant theological and doctrinal clashes in the Body of Christ regarding the realm of the supernatural and concerning miracles, signs, and wonders. A posture of humility will be necessary to walk through the minefields of accusation, misunderstanding and opposition. The Lord will use this to perfect and mature the believers understanding concerning His Kingdom realm and last days' activities.

Key scripture: Acts 4:29-31 (especially vs. 30) "While Thou dost extend Thy hand to heal, and signs and wonders take place through the name of Thy holy servant Jesus."

6. Air Traffic Controllers in Babylon

The Lord is going to bring expansion of television, radio, and media ministry in 2004 to advance His Kingdom. The Word of God, as well as demonstrations and testimonies of the Lord's power, will be released through the air waves in greater ways than ever before. The Lord is raising up His "air traffic controllers" who through moving in a pure spirit, will challenge the corruption that is being released currently through these avenues. Many believers in 2004 will be stirred and anointed by the Holy Spirit to launch into television, radio and movie production. Many believers will be anointed as playwrights and actors for the Lord's purposes in 2004. There will be a fresh empowerment of prophetic and apostolic creativity in the media.

Webcasting/streaming will be also used in progressive ways in 2004 as an avenue for the Lord's Word and power to be released into the airwaves. Many Christian companies that labor in the area of web oversight, hosting, and design will grow exponentially in 2004 and must prepare for expansion.

The Lord will open doors supernaturally, divine appointments will await those the Lord has prepared, and finances will become available to accomplish His purposes. There are many individuals who the Lord has been grooming for these purposes who will now be brought out of obscurity into a place of visibility for His glory.

Those called into this arena will need to beware of the Babylonian mindsets and the accompanying spiritual forces that influence the airwaves and media at this time. The Babylonian kingdom in the realm of the spirit is seductive, self-seeking, self-exalting and lusts for wealth. There is a great warning for those who are being released to carry the ark of the Lord's presence into the midst of this environment. A pure focus and devotion for the Lord must prevail within the heart in order to escape the snares that await those who walk in this spiritual territory. The glory that belongs to the Lord must not be touched by man.

A company of intercessors will be raised up who will "carry the ark" into "Babylon". Intercessory prayer and praise will be the key to successful invasion and conquering of this territory (radio, television, media). Intercessory prayer and praise warriors will be placed strategically in position to usher in this move.

Key scripture: Isaiah 13:1-5 "1The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see. 2Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. 3I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness. 4The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle. 5They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land."

7. A Year of Rainbows

Rainbows are often are a prophetic symbol of covenant promises. The Lord revealed that many believers will see a fulfillment of covenant promises this year. Many of these promises were given a number of years ago through prophetic words and confirmed "rhema words" (Holy Spirit quickened words) that individuals have filed away. These words will be brought out of the files and meditated upon once again. The Lord will visit many with manifestations of rainbows as a sign that the promises will be fulfilled.

2004 will be a year of fulfilled promises.

The rainbows will also remind believers of the authority of Christ and His dominion. (see Revelation 4:2,3)

Key scripture: Genesis 9:12,13 "And God said,....I set My bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a sign of a covenant..."

8. Revelation of Bridal Rule

The book of Esther will be a significant book in 2004. The church is being called to take her position of authority in the earth along side of her King, Jesus. The church has been given authority in Christ and this year a greater revelation of the function of this position in the earth will unfold.

Particular individuals have been specially groomed by the Lord to step up to positions of interacting with members of political government leaders and giving them counsel from heaven. These anointed and God-appointed individuals will be respected and will have the power and authority from the Lord to make decrees into the spirit that will bring about shifts in the spiritual atmosphere of regions and nations.

The key to Bridal rule is intimacy with the King. The Lord is going to entrust His secret counsel to those who are intimate with Him.

The Bride will be given strategies in 2004 to overcome demonic powers that are oppressing the people of God. As Haman was overcome in the book of Esther so also shall spiritual assignments in believers' lives be overcome through Bridal rule. Haman and his sons were annihilated and all of their possessions and positions were transferred to Esther and Mordecai. This is a picture of where the Lord is taking the church.

Key scripture: the book of Esther

9. Focus on Israel and the Return of the Jews to Their Homeland

An exponential increase of Jews returning to Israel will take place in 2004. They will be gathered in from all the nations. The Spirit of the Lord is going to dispatch a detachment of angels to lead many Jews home. Some of them will be visited by divine encounters, visitations and visions and others will be receiving an unusual yet unshakeable desire to leave everything in order to settle in Israel. Jerusalem will especially become a place that will attract many although treacheries will increase in the land.

The Lord is going to raise up many Christians who will aid the Jews in returning to their homeland. Many Christians will find themselves changing their course in ministry and even employment in order to serve these purposes and this call will burn in their hearts. Many of these Christians will be misunderstood by colleagues, friends and family members, but the draw will burn within them with undeniable awakening.

The nation of Israel will be in headline news a great deal in 2004. Tumult and crisis will continue. Leaders of nations will be called to make some political decisions in regards to their relationship with Israel.

Key Scripture: Psalm 14:7 "Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad."

10. Children Being Raised Up as the Lord's Warriors

Children will be significantly touched by the Lord in 2004. The church is being called to focus on ministering to children. Little ones will be receiving clear visions and revelation of the Lord, His Kingdom, angels and other heavenly things. An assault is being launched by the enemy against the spirituality of the young ones. An increase of demonically influenced books, films, games, toys, music, television programs and other mediums will attempt to lure the hearts and minds of the younger generation into deception resulting in demonization. It is absolutely vital for parents and church leaders to be alert and for children to be taught clear discernment concerning spiritual issues.

Children will be used greatly in prophetic and power harvesting in 2004.

A new breed of children's ministers will be raised up especially from the age group of 14-34. A fresh apostolic anointing will visit these ministers releasing a new flavor in children's ministry. A new wine skin is being formed in order to meet the needs of the children today.

Warning: DO NOT NEGLECT THE CHILDREN

Key Scripture: Isaiah 8:18 "Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion."

11. Resource and Teaching Materials to Increase

Last year, 2003, I received a vision regarding Christian resource materials such as books, videos, DVD's, CD's, audiotapes, web directives. etc., being released throughout the earth in greater ways than ever before. I saw it overflow into the homes of the unsaved. This word was fulfilled.

The Lord spoke to me again this year and said, that there will be yet another increase in 2004. There will be more books published, more teachings, more prophetic directives ...more EVERYTHING. The earth will be soaked with the Word and power of God through the distribution of resources. Christian ministries will need to expand their resource departments in this year. There will much, much, more in 2004!

Key Scripture: Habakkuk 2:14 "The knowledge of the glory of the Lord will cover the earth as the waters cover the sea."

12. Political Upheavals

There will be many political upheavals on a global scale in 2004. At the same time, there will be demonic assaults on local churches and denominations on "governing levels." These assaults will have the potential for dangerous upheavals in the leadership. The Lord is calling for His people to be focused on Him and His Kingdom and righteousness in this hour. It is important to walk in humility and in complete obedience to the Lord at this time. Everything that can be shaken will be shaken. Focus will be important. Although the enemy will launch attacks which will be directed by assaults from spirits of jezebel and leviathan, the Lord will turn it around for good and will bring greater degrees of humility, dependency on God, and love in His Body. His people MUST stay focused on Kingdom values and not give in to strife, contention and control.

At the end of the attack season, a new breed of believers who adhere to "Kingdom government/rule" will emerge with a fresh revelation of Jesus as King over all.

Key Scriptures: Isaiah 9:6,7 "For a child will be born to us, a son will be given to us; and the government will rest on His shoulders; And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal father, Prince of Peace. There will be no end to the increase of His government or of peace, On the throne of David and over his kingdom. To establish it and to uphold it with justice and righteousness from then on and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord will accomplish this."

Hebrews 12:26-28 (especially vs.s. 26b,27) "...Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven...denotes the removing of those things which can be shaken...."

Compassion - the heart of Christ, love so overwhelming and so big ... there are no words to describe it. It is kind of love in which the "I" doesn't exist anymore, "me" and "mine" are altered and completely gone ... It is the very nature of Christ, the depth of His being ...

In my spirit there is a vision of One Day - the Day when we will be able to walk in it, where the talk will not be necessary anymore, where saturation and immersion will be so complete and so total that LOVE will walk on this earth again. Except, it will not be limited and contained in one person only, but it will have many willing vessels that will allow God to change their hearts, to transform their beings from earthy to heavenly.

Their minds will not be their own, but being Christ minded, they will open up the wells of their hearts, so that the fountains of the Living Water would flow out of them, and merging together they would become the River of Life that will saturate the whole earth.

Allowing Holy Spirit to do the work within us will motivate our hearts to love. It will open our spiritual eyes and ears, and will place us into the sphere of supernatural - the heavenly realm, where our greatest desire will be to be like Jesus. Then we will not desire gifts but The Giver Himself - the fullness of His Person, and the realization of our greatest calling will take place. Only then the understanding of The Call will be so complete, that nothing else would ever do to bring about this total fulfillment of our PURPOSE in the world.

Is our love for Christ strong enough to allow Him to truly live within us - to experience this constant heartbreak and travailing in intercession for the world? Is that love in us strong enough to reach out, even into the flames of fire itself - to pull out the worst of the worst?

For there is nothing else that could sway this humanity from the path of destruction they are on, but overwhelming and passionate love of God - the heart of Christ beating within our very own chest. For we are to be the mirrored image of Christ Himself. They don't know God whom they have never met, and all they have to go by is what and who they see in us. When Philip asked Jesus to show them the Father, He simply said in John 14:9 "... he that hath seen me hath seen the Father, and how sayest thou then, shew us the Father?"

Our Purpose and our Destiny is to walk in the Fullness of Christ. "Not me but Christ living in me" is the goal we should be after - the true state of mature sons of God. Jesus said that He was in the Father and Father in Him, and His prayer for us was that we too would be one in them. John 17:23 "I in them and thou in me, that they may be made PERFECT in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and has loved them, as thou hast loved me."

Perfection is NOT an imitation! Perfection is the REAL Christianity. It is called MATURITY, the wholeness ... It is His holiness and the very breath of His Spirit that is giving us His kind of life. Where wisdom, knowledge and understanding of His ways and His thoughts has become essential part of our existence and we are CONTINUOUSLY being guided by Him alone.

Than and only then "WHAT WOULD JESUS DO" will not be just a fashion statement, something that we wear on the outside, but it will be our way of life. The expression of the Father will clothe us from the inside out, His Glory will be upon us, and there will be no need anymore to ask WHAT WOULD JESUS DO; but we will be doing His will in each and every instance that will come our way.

Then, with the assurance that is born out of our relationship with Him, we could say with the POWER of the overcomer; "I SAY ONLY WHAT I HEAR FATHER SAY, AND DO ONLY WHAT I SEE FATHER DOES ..."

Fear and Torment
1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. NKJV

2 Tim 3:16-17 All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, 17 so that the man/woman of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work. NIV

Fear, Anxiety and Stress disorders flow out of a lack of receiving love. As we untie the cords that hold us and allow ourselves to believe and receive love then we cast out Fear.

Therefore the person that hasn't experienced unconditional love is open for the spirit of torment.

With that casting out of fear the spirit of torment leaves as well.

God said there is no fear in perfect love. While most of us know He is speaking about his love for He alone is perfect and gives perfect love to us, we also know those who have experienced deep wounds have a hard time letting God's pure love touch them. They're wanting desperately to experience this love yet hindered by fear of punishment and torment.

I believe the Father is showing me that thousands of hurt, broken, and needy vessels will be looking to the church very soon for perfect love. Yet, we the church, for the most part, are still bound ourselves and not free. We still need to find perfect love within the body of Christ ourselves. Remember perfect love cast out all fear. those who have not found that love have fear as a result. It is our problem, and it is time for the body of Christ to take a good look at the way we treat one another. Do we really love as Christ or not? Each of us must answer that question for ourselves, but remember we can't fool the Lord. He sees all and hears every conversation.

I submit the word below and pray that your heart is preparing itself. We are in a karios moment that has never been offered before. We have so much in America and yet we lack more than the church has ever lacked. We are not honest about who we are and how we think and feel as a whole. It must stop! I am right there with all the others. The Father has his finger upon my heart as well. (And I don't like what I see!) But, I want to be ready and used in this next move of the Spirit. Please hear me: He isn't going to use those that look good but, those who are truly full of His perfect love, which casts out all fear.

These new saints will have to know they are loved and that the Spirit of God has called them for such a time as this. We must be able to tangibly show them perfect love. We must teach, guide, and equip them so they can go and begin the process all over again.

This is the word I received tonight from the Father.

God is calling us, "Come to the mountain of the Lord!" Allow me to show you my perfect love, that you might heal and untangle yourselves so that you are able to love those who will soon come to your doors. Yes, I will open doors as I have spoken to many. But, will my church be healed and ready to receive those I am sending??

The time is now; the day is today! You must allow the Spirit of Grace to penetrate the hardness of heart so you can receive my pure love and find your own strength to love as I love. I am ready to pour out My signs and My miracles to the lost, to the weak, and to the perishing. You must make your heart my home where we become one with each other.

I AM and I am searching to and fro for those who are preparing their hearts to serve MY Kingdom, which cannot compare to man or man's schemes. You have not seen what I have prepared for those who will follow me into the place I am going.

Preach, "Prepare ye the way," then, watch and see who will follow the hard truth of holiness and love. Then march side by side and prepare yourselves for the greatest harvest ever to come into the fullness of my body.

Prophetic Inconsistencies
Bob Neumann

Dear People, In the last few days some people have noted certain "PROPHETIC INCONSISTENCIES" that have floated over and through the INTERNET. Now exactly how many "prophetic sites" are out there on the WWW I have no clue. More important is that I could care less. The reason at this time THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT has me involved with two "sites".....THE WATCHMEN-PROPHETS ASSEMBLY and END TIME PROPHETIC VISION. Why these two you may ask? Because somewhere on this "road" THE MOST HIGH GOD "tied" me with Bill Somers and Stephen Bening. Why either of these two men continue to put up with me is simply that ABBA has shown me a measure of grace and favor with both of these my brothers. Logic does not fit here.

So if you expect something short and simple you can delete and move on because what is churning in my spirit is neither. Today we are in a world where most people have no clue how GOD WORKS because they have listened and learned from MAN. So how a "PROPHET" is defined and how "PROPHETIC" is seen today in the AMERICAN/ENGLISH SPEAKING church is important. Today "prophetic" can be anything that "exhorts", "edifies", "encourages", "comforts", "confirms" the church-going individual. Few mention "correct" and "chasten" because it does not help people "feel good". Many "prophetic leaders" income requires making people "feel good".....and that is dangerous.

Scripturally we have a template of what is a "prophet" as GOD intended. The "IMAGE" of WATCHMAN goes steadily along with it. And we can blame Isaiah and Ezekiel for it all.....

[6] I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence,
[7] And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.
[8] The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:
[9] But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.
In Isaiah 62 GOD HIMSELF claims placing and appointing watchmen. Their job is to annoy THE MOST HIGH with prayer and intercession. WHY? Good question. Read all of Isaiah 62. GOD MADE PROMISES....and will fulfill them. PERIOD. But in HIS TIME. So we have to ask about DIVINE TIMETABLES....[11] The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?
[12] The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye: return, come.
Now Isaiah 21:11-12 shows GOD addressing the WATCHMAN...but the whole chapter really pivots around JUDGMENT and the FALL OF BABYLON. The Prophet Habakkuk mentions his role as "watchman"...

[1] I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.
[2] And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.
[3] For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.
"WATCHMEN" and "PROPHETS" according to these few verses answer to GOD. Not man. Some as Habakkuk and Isaiah are given dreams and visions of THE END TIMES that will surely come. So if they all "COME FROM GOD" it makes sense if they are "consistent". Now this takes me to EZEKIEL...and the CALL....

[4] And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.
[5] For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel;
[6] Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

[7] But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hardhearted.
[8] Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.
[9] As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.
[10] Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.
[11] And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.
[12] Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.
[13] I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.
[17] Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

What is interesting is that GOD sends Ezekiel as a WATCHMAN and PROPHET unto THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL...and tells EZEKIEL that they won't listen. Ezekiel was not meant to have a thriving, growing ministry. And he knew it. Thirty chapters later we are "told" why....

[1] Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
[2] Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman:
[3] If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;
[4] Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

Please understand that THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL had not listened to Ezekiel...or any other of GOD'S PROPHETS. Here GOD does something different. HE tells "the people" to pick their own watchman from among themselves. And when the JUDGMENT COMES...THE TRUMPET BLOWS...that "people's watchman" will be judged just as GOD JUDGES HIS OWN ANOINTED WATCHMEN. EZEKIEL hears right from THE THRONE ROOM but the "people's watchman" uses his/her natural eyes. Now Ezekiel 33 ends with a bang and 34 begins with one...

[27] Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.
[28] For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.
[29] Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.
[30] Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.
[31] And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.
[32] And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.
[33] And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

[1] And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
[2] Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?
[3] Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

Now that is just the beginning of Chapter 34....it deserves being studied daily.

So why are there "PROPHETIC INCONSISTENCIES"? Because we have two sets of WATCHMEN and PROPHETS. Those sent by and who "hear" THE MOST HIGH GOD...and those who were not.

In a nutshell, that is the whole problem....nice and simple. How to distinguish between the two is a problem. Now many people like to turn to Paul to explain the lack of consistency...

[11] When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
[12] For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
[13] And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

As far as I am concerned Paul did not write 1 Corinthians 13 as a "prophetic litmus test". Because "we" are all "immature" we are limited on what we see. This excuses all inconsistencies for most people. Explains the weird and bizarre that sometimes comes out of no where on the WWW. What Paul was saying that with faith, hope, and charity/love we can "grow up" and see "FACE TO FACE"...and to KNOW. Now who exactly are we to see "FACE TO FACE"?

Back to Paul...[12] But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.
[13] For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
[14] And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
[15] Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

Like verse 15? Compare it to Matthew 6...[1] Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.
[2] Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.
[3] But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:
[4] That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.
[5] And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.
[6] But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.
[7] But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.
[8] Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

[16] Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.
[17] But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;
[18] That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.
[19] Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:
[20] But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:
[21] For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Here JESUS has HIS WAY of GIVING...PRAYING....and FASTING. Those who do it there own way get their own rewards. As Paul said...according to their own works. Sure they "look" and "sound" religious....spiritual even. Only that is the problem, if you give, pray, fast as JESUS WANTS....no one would see or hear. No one would notice...except ABBA.

Who is exactly THE ONE we meet FACE TO FACE if we DO AS THE SON COMMANDS. NOT JUST ""WHAT""....but ""HOW"".

So how do we explain INCONSISTENCIES....simple....people saying and sharing things they either do not understand....or ......worse yet....make up as they go.

In the long run we all are to judge and weigh everything we "see" or "hear" by THE LOGOS and THE RHEMA. So we have to study the SCRIPTURE and listen to THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT. Then we can pick up our own cross and follow THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

Bonnie And Charlie

Bob Neumann

Dear Friends, A few days ago I brought up the TERM "BONNIE" coming from our "ancient" language. Sister Edith asked in a personal post "Who was Bonnie Prince Charles?". Historically there was a "character" called "BONNIE PRINCE CHARLIE". Today we have two named storms....BONNIE and CHARLIE....makes you wonder.

Historically "Charlie" was Charles Edward Stuart. Son of James II....king of England and Scotland. But Charlie was born in Rome. James II had been an unpopular king and was deposed by Parliament. For some strange reason they replaced him with "Good King William III " of the HOUSE of ORANGE. Which was the ruling family of the DUTCH... HOLLAND...THE NETHERLANDS. You see James II was Roman Catholic....William was a Protestant.

Bonnie Prince Charlie is called "THE YOUNG PRETENDER"...and was a descendant of Mary Queen of Scotts...who married the STUART King of Scotland. So Charlie was a direct descendant of HENRY 8TH....so legally was heir to both crowns. Now when Charlie led the Scotts in what is called THE JACOBITE Cause. The Highlanders believed in THE DIVINE RIGHT of KINGS. So many came to his banner.

What is interesting is that Bonnie Prince Charlie led an estimated army of 6000 men to within 150 miles of London.....Where George II now reigned. Prophetically what comes to me is that Scotland and her HIGHLANDERS met The ENGLISH at THE BATTLE OF Culloden Moor. Imagine the BRAVE SCOTS marching to their bagpipes claymore and targe in hand....kilts swirling...such a brave...BONNIE sight as they charged the British MUSKETS. It was a slaughter. The commander of the British was William Augustus, called THE BUTCHER OF CUMBERLAND. Because of this defeat England passed laws called THE HIGHLAND CLEARANCES that made it illegal for the clans to wear their Tartan, play the bagpipes, speak their language.

Swords and Muskets....ancient weapons....old metaphors.....logically it makes no sense having men charge sword in hand. Not long ago I watched a movie called KING ARTHUR. Men and women stood their ground against an invader that slaughtered everyone in their path. No place to run to...no place to hide. Sometimes you chose when and where you make your stand. Sometimes you have no choice.

Scripturally we have Ephesians 6....all the ARMOR is meant for is to allow us to STAND. To HOLD THE LINE....PREVENT THE DESTROYER from getting around or over you.

Why BONNIE PRINCE CHARLIE? Why now? The last major dream I had everything was coming in twos.... two storms....BONNIE and CHARLIE.

Sometimes you have to wait and see....but it is interesting.

Prophetic Perception And Discernment

Bob Neumann

I have been sitting on this "WORD" for several days. First of all it was not "complete", that there were "aspects" or "pieces of the puzzle" I had yet to be given. Sometimes "visions", "dreams", and "rhema" come forth from THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT in sudden BURSTS of intensity. And then there are times you have to get segments over a protracted time. In JOB 33 we are told that GOD SPEAKS twice in said dreams, visions.

[14] For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.
[15] In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;
[16] Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction,
[17] That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.
[18] He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

This goes with what Solomon spoke of in Ecclesiastes 3...
[14] I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.
[15] That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.

Over the years I have listened to liberal theologians and simple scoffers basically say the GOD had really nothing to do with SCRIPTURE. That THE WORD OF GOD is but the creation of men, so should be treated as nothing more than compilation of archaic stories and tall tales. What scares me is the vast number of "church going" people that accept and support the humanist gospel. Just because someone goes inside a building once a week does not assure you of the kind of "fruit" that you will find. But even the term I used here, "fruit", is a SCRIPTURAL "IMAGE". It is used repeatedly in both the OLD TESTAMENT and NEW TESTAMENT. In fact all that JOB refers to as "dreams" and "visions of the night" is the means that THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT places images before us. Joel says that DREAMS and VISIONS would be a sign of THE GREAT OUTPOURING of THE LATTER DAYS. When Peter quoted from Joel and announced that what was occurring in JERUSALEM was a fulfillment of THE PROPHET JOEL we see Ecclesiastes 3 make profound sense. The events of the early church had never been seen before. So the IMAGE had to become real for us to see what is yet to come.

Today we see "the prophetic" flowing all over the internet. Many who interact on "prophetic sites" share dreams and visions routinely. "Prophetic Declaration" became a popular topic years ago. But little "fruit" came from most of it. Over the years certain "images" have repeated themselves over time. Some so often that patterns become apparent.

Today in central Florida people are beginning to rebuild after the passing of a hurricane...a storm. Scripturally a term used in GREEK for STORM was SEIZMOS. In Matthew 24 SEIZMOS is translated "EARTHQUAKE". Storms and Earthquakes are popular dream and vision "images". Many will now claim that several weeks ago they were given a "dream" or a "vision" or a RHEMA WORD about CHARLEY. This is also a patterned event we have seen before. So the QUESTION I ask is simple....how does a person deal with dreams and visions? We are forwarded a "post" with a "dream" and told that it is "timely". Why? What is it about a "dream" that makes the PERCEPTION of it as "timely"? Then there are times someone shares something with you that they have discerned as being "anointed". Sometimes I have been told "REALLY ANOINTED". I suppose if THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT touches something it is both REAL and Anointed. But how does one discern a simple anointing versus the obviously superlative type like "REALLY ANOINTED". Or the label of "AWESOME ANOINTING"......

Which takes me to the reason for all this....as BONNIE and CHARLIE were yet to get names THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT was kind enough to give me several "images". In the time that has past I have slowly "connected the dots" and have reached this place where I can do two things. I can go to bed and forget it. And then live with my disobedience....or I can proceed. So I proceed.... The FIRST IMAGE was of watching a pair of hands moving three walnut shells on a table top. In worldly circles this is called THE SHELL GAME. The "hands" want you to bet money on whether your eyes are more efficient than the "HANDS". Supposedly there is a pea under one shell and the "patter" goes "IS THE HAND QUICKER THAN THE EYE". Most "stage magicians" have used this for centuries. The trick is called "misdirection". In reality the human eye is much faster than the human hand. IF it stays focused and is not purposely misdirected "somewhere else". Now that is THE FIRST IMAGE....THE SECOND IMAGE occurred two days last week.

Each morning for several days there was "really" dense fog. Pardon my use of "really" here....I couldn't help myself. But on two mornings it was so dense that while the sun was up....you could not tell which direction to look for it if you did not know where east was supposed to be. On both these days you could not see the sun in the east or the sky overhead. On each morning I found myself staring upwards thinking I could not tell anything about what the weather had in store for the day. Each of these days it was well past 9am before I could see that the skies above me and in all directions was rolling black clouds.

THE THIRD IMAGE is a repeat I had several nights ago of a VISION I had years ago that was sent out on the internet called "SMOKE AND MIRRORS". Which is why Ecclesiastes 3 is so important. What happened back then was happening again. "Someone" had come into an INTERNET assembly and caused strife, division, and a lot of trouble. Some defended this person because they "felt" the anointing. Others defended those who defended this person because they "wanted unity" among the brethren. When I took the situation to THE THRONE I got a VISION and a WORD. The RHEMA was "SMOKE and MIRRORS" and the VISION was out of the movie THE WIZARD OF OZ. Remember when they "met" the WIZARD? The smoke and the false image with flames and noise that frightened and misdirected all who went to THE WIZARD?

SMOKE AND MIRRORS is a term that speaks of using "misdirection" to "cloud the issue". Professional magicians use "smoke" to decrease visibility and "mirrors" to hide what is actually occurring under the platform the "trick" is being staged. The most famous entertainers do this so well that they defy the audience to figure it out. That also is part of the "ACT". Politicians like to use the term "smoke and mirrors" to define things that are all "flash" and no "substance". So do "con men". THE SHELL GAME is a "con". The person who is expected to depart with their cash is called "THE MARK". Another interesting TERM. The first few times is for "fun"....and the mark picks out the pea over and over. Builds up confidence....."settin up" is the term used. Now this whole thing....THE SHELL GAME has been in numerous movies and TV shows. Stage magicians do it all the time. So it should not be "NEW" to anyone....the key is that when the money is bet....the pea is removed from the table. THE MARK cannot win.

THE FOG was so dense that one could not see much of anything. So if you wanted to see if a STORM was approaching you could not. The delay in "knowing" allowed THE STORM TO BE OVERHEAD....and you did not know. Again you have a "NO WIN" situation. THE SMOKE AND MIRRORS is taking THE SHELL GAME to another level. In Las Vegas there are "ILLUSIONISTS" who spend massive amounts of time and money to create new "tricks" yearly. They have to in order to compete with other "ENTERTAINERS" for the tourist dollars. In essence using the phrase "SMOKE AND MIRRORS" speaks of manufacturing a "deception" of some sort. Watching David Copperfield make the STATUE OF LIBERTY vanish was "fun". Watching politicians make tax dollars vanish may be interesting for some....but it is hardly "fun". In scripture there are those who THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT touched with images through dreams and visions. But there is several warnings about that which is not of THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT.

[1] If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder,
[2] And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;
[3] Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
[4] Ye shall walk after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and cleave unto him.
[5] And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the LORD thy God commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.

I start with Deuteronomy 13 because here we have "signs" and "wonders" that "COME TO PASS".

Yet the warning is that these "signs" and "wonders" occurred so that "someone" could get the people to follow "other gods". In the NEW TESTAMENT we are also warned...but about "lying signs and wonders"...

[8] And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:
[9] Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,
[10] And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
[11] And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:
[12] That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Now this is the great passage from 2 Thessalonians....but it is GOD who sends "them" strong delusion". Now there is OLD TESTAMENT precedence here. THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, ISAAC, and JACOB decided it was time for AHAB to.....

[19] And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.
[20] And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.
[21] And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.
[22] And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so.
[23] Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

So much for trusting in professional prophets. In Jeremiah 23 THE LORD lays into everyone who are trying to deceive ISRAEL and mess around with Jerusalem. HE starts with PASTORS and works on down....

[13] And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.
[14] I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness; they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.
[15] Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.
[16] Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.
[17] They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.
[18] For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?
[19] Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.
[20] The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.
[21] I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.
[22] But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.
[23] Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?
[24] Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.
[25] I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.
[26] How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;
[27] Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

[28] The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.
[29] Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?
[30] Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.
[31] Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith.
[32] Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.
[33] And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.
[34] And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house.
[35] Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?
[36] And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.
[37] Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?
[38] But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;
[39] Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:
[40] And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

Now verses 20 and 21 are most important. Twenty refers to THE LATER DAYS....like JOEL does. It is the time reference for NOW...Verse 21 is interesting...the false prophets "ran" and "prophesied". But GOD DID NOT SPEAK or SEND THEM. This is a direct reference to Habakkuk 2.......

[1] I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.
[2] And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.
[3] For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

In verse 1 GOD IS EXPECTED TO SPEAK....in verse 2 the prophet /watchman /servant listens and writes what he is told so he can "run" with it. Jeremiah 23 says the boys who were "running" never heard from GOD...were never "sent". And verse 3 speaks of THE APPOINTED TIME. Now there can be a lot of APPOINTED TIMES....Jeremiah speaks of some throughout the BOOK....which one is ours?

[8] For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.
[9] For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD. Once again the image of "not being sent". So we come to the point of who has GOD SENT? Who had a "REALLY ANOINTED" dream, vision, word....and who did not? Joel 2 says a lot but gives no bench mark. In fact it is extremely inclusive...

[28] And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:
[29] And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

"All flesh" is definitively all encompassing....so is sons, daughters, handmaidens and servants. So we are about to enter a time of extreme deception. A major "con" is about to take place. That is THE SHELL GAME. The intention behind it is to confuse our focus, limit our discernment and perception so that THE FOG will keep us from "KNOWING" that THE STORM IS HERE. Now all that leaves is SMOKE AND MIRRORS....an elaborate "trick" that is set up. An ILLUSION to deceive those wanting entertainment. Or, is you want a political spin on it, to waste the time and energy of those seeking the TRUTH.

In the OLD TESTAMENT the images of PROPHETIC CONFRONTATION are very unsettling. GOD'S SERVANTS are out numbered, out gunned, and usually meet tragic ends. When Jerry had to face off with an ACCEPTED PROPHET he was branded a "false prophet" and got slugged. Now GOD knocked off the "bad guy" but did not prevent Jerry from getting hammered. Back in the AHAB story, the prophet Micaiah was in the dungeon and brought out to "perform" for Ahab and the PROFESSIONAL PROPHETS. Here he got "smote" like Jerry did and sent to the AMMONITES to be imprisoned. We never hear about him again. Last but not least there is the "young MAN OF GOD" in 1 Kings 13 that listens to an OLD PROPHET and dies for his disobedience. He "listened" to a man who said GOD SPOKE to him...when GOD DID NOT. Maybe it is time we chuck all the forwarded posts in the can. If we are "in tune" with THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT we do not need them. If we are HIS SHEEP...HE KNOWS US...and we follow HIM because we hear HIS VOICE. me....well I’m running....hard....

Prophetic Insight for America

Via Nita Johnson

[This material is extracted from Nita Johnson’s latest newsletter.]
From Sally Miller

I was trying to wake up and all of sudden I was taken into a place where I was stood up as an observer and this is what I saw:

It was dark all around then, a transparent map of the USA came into vision. There were lights all around the outline of the contiguous states and lights depicting various cities. Then, a coffin, draped with the American flag, was lowered diagonally over the heartland portion of America. (Incidentally, the coffin is used by Muslims not Christians.) The head pointed toward the very NW of the USA (Alaska), the end pointed toward the very SE part of the USA (Florida). I thought, "Who died?", and as soon as I thought this, I heard the words, "Death to America".

Then I noticed movement to the left of the vision, and I saw President Bush step into the picture. He looked at the coffin hovering above America, and his look was that of a Father pondering the near, possible death of a Beloved Child, and his heart was wrenched...wrenched. At the same time, from his heart, came a POWER and the power was pure love for America. It was pure and his heart was broken. I saw this love as a living essence... it was not a gushy feeling rather, it seemed to carry within it the very life of God. This Love was a personality.

Then I noticed movement to the right, and John Kerry stepped up. When he looked at America, his look and his heart were of cold, absolute hatred for America. I am not saying necessarily that Kerry hated America, but the spirit that drives him hates our Nation. I saw this clearly as this living hatred flowed from him. This is what made me shudder and shake for so long when I came out of the vision, and I still feel sick when I think about it. This hatred was alive. The power of the hatred was sickening. Just as I felt a living love coming from Bush, I felt a living, alive personality of hatred coming from Kerry.

(Again, I am not saying necessarily that this is John Kerry, the person...but I also can't deny what I saw and felt. It is the power that drives him.)

The next thing I saw, coming from the right side of the vision, were the 2 hurricanes, Ivan and Jeanne. You know how the Weather Channel shows hurricanes as angry red swirls? I saw these vibrating, violently angry swirls of hatred coming toward America.

It's hard to describe all of this, but, under this churning, living hatred named Ivan was written "Russia"; under Jeanne was written "France". Well, Ivan is Russian for John, and Jeanne is French for John. Then, I saw both of these hurricanes gather more and more power and momentum and thrust themselves into John Kerry. And the longer they churned in the waters, the greater was the hatred/death being thrust toward America, not by the person John Kerry but by the power that drives him.

What I feel is that a strong, strong spirit of death has been thrust against America. It's like there's been a "gathering" of powers that carry death. These will be funneled against America if Kerry or his equal is voted into office. I don't even know how to describe it. I do believe I was seeing the plans of the enemy and not those of God.

From
Jennifer Kirsch, a powerful intercessor from Canada

Hi Nita,

Last year at almost this exact same time I had a strong intercessory burden that lasted from September through October and then pretty much lifted. Last week this same burden came back and seems to keep increasing in intensity. I feel as though He has shown me some things but I'm not really sure the timeline of it all. So, wondering if you might have any insight.

The burden is to pray for protection for the "food supply of America". I feel as though something wants to come and bring widespread devastation to crops, vegetation, etc. and ultimately destroy the harvest. It will greatly affect America but will have ripple effects in Canada and around the world because exportation of goods will be reduced to a trickle. It feels like the threat is for the "harvest season" but the widespread effects will be felt most during the winter months. The devastation will push some farmers into bankruptcy and have a deep affect on the American economy.

As I was praying over the email you sent regarding Mobile, AL, I found myself continually drawn back to pray for protection of the food supply. I have since done some research but at the time I had no idea what kind of crops, produce, etc was grown in the southern states. I felt a threat specifically against Louisiana grain/wheat crops, a bean that they widely grow (soy), and trees of some kind. In Alabama it was livestock- specifically chickens, as well as crops. Then I saw a map of the States. A large area was highlighted in a murky yellow color. The highlighted area reached from the upper northwest corner of Florida across to Louisiana. It then continued upward through the Midwest States making a path all the way to North Dakota across to Wisconsin. I felt the harvest was in jeopardy of being wiped out all the way through this area.
I saw American farmers who had worked so hard, many for so many years. They were worn from the hard labor of farming. In one season they lost everything they had worked so hard for. I saw the pain and anguish in their faces, for they had no way to hold on after such a devastating loss.

As I was wondering about why the enemy would be able to bring such destruction during the harvest, I saw a number of uncovered wagons that were used in the old days. Soon a number of white men came and hurriedly began piling bags and sacks full of grains, produce, etc onto the wagons. I knew that the goods were not their own but that they were plundering the harvest that was being stored up for the winter months. They were stealing the supply from the natives, leaving them with no food reserves for winter. I saw a mother holding a child who had died from starvation in the winter months. The scene replayed and this time it was the whites stealing food from the African American.

Is America soon to reap the harvest of bad seed planted so many years ago?

Blessings and love,
Jen

Dear Mama

I was caught up in a vision over America. While I stood beholding the beauty of the country, I then saw a man walk into a gas Station smoking a cigarette and with His left hand he held so many sticks of cigarettes. As he got close to the pump of the gas station he dropped the sticks on the floor. He kept waiting expecting something to happen. The attention of so many people was drawn to him. Suddenly I realized that those sticks of cigarettes were bombs. I looked further and saw great confusion and the people around him began to say things in my hearing. Among them were great African American Ministers within the Nation. They were saying this nation is no longer safe for us. Our security system has failed us. Let us go to the Nation of Africa where there is peace. While that confusion was taking place the man who dropped those sticks stood by expecting those bombs to go off, but they didn't.

The Lord spoke these words to my hearing. "Pray for the Nation of America that their oil is not hurt. Pray for the security system of America to be strengthened. Pray against suicide bomber attacks on the Nation."

This is what the Lord told me. So, please Mama can you pray along with me? Pray that the Lord will avert the evil in the land.

YOUR SON,
RAY

From Sayo Ajiboye who heads our African Ministry Division

May I ask; what is "The root of America"? I came back early from school this afternoon and spent some time in quietness and prayer. It was like what Ray saw was repeated in a different picture format. This time around, it is like young men - more than one - were in many different locations and had bombs tied to their waists with instructions to "strike at the root of America." As these pictures continued, it was like a group of beings went almost "unseen" and removed what was like the pin of the grenades, the detonator of their weapons and these young men at the point of attack were wondering, confused, and caught out in the open with their weapons on them that would not work. It was very vivid and I came out of these series of impressions with the distinct question, “What is the root of America?”

I don’t have too many of these pictures but when I do they are so vivid and this afternoon stayed right in front of my eyes like a repeating slow motion film. I can still see it again.

I think that there is some linkage with November... I believe that the unseen beings are his watchers activated by the cry of the saints. Sayo

Dear Reader, these are all words that warn of impending destruction. Yet, all can be diverted with repentance and intercession. The Lord spoke to me in two very special times of intercession. At such times as these, the finger of God spells out my intercessions line upon line. He instructed me to pray the following:

1. Pray that Osama Ben Laden will be brought out to a place of vulnerability along with his key men so that America can capture them.
2. They are planning a major strike that would be far worse than 9/11 if fulfilled. But I want you to pray that I will thwart their intentions.
3. Pray that the purpose of God’s very heart will be fulfilled in the earth.
4. Pray that the hand of God will overturn the darkness and spread light across the earth.
5. Pray that President Bush will fulfill his destiny.
6. Pray that America will fulfill her destiny.
7. Pray for the heart of America to be turned to do God’s will.
8. Pray for repentance that God’s judgments might be overturned.

In a very powerful vision, I saw Gabriel, the chief Angel over all of Africa. He was dark and beautiful. He came to say, God will not let Hitler interrogate the earth. Even as he spoke I understood that the spirit of war that drove Hitler drives Osama. But God will not let him interrogate the earth. We will pray God’s will and He will answer!

Revival

A couple months ago I was in prayer when the Lord thrust me into travail for America. I felt the throws of a mother in birth pains. I labored under this for some time. Then I felt two critical birth pains grip me one after the other. I couldn't speak. It was the Priestly ministry of the Holy Spirit praying the Father's will through me in words too deep for utterance. Finally, I felt a release then I had a vision. I saw myself holding a healthy baby that looked to be about 10 lbs or more. Then the Spirit of the Lord spoke saying, two birth pains to go and revival will be in your hands, stay faithful.

We are working with all our hearts in faithfulness and obedience to bring America into revival. The Lord promised me four years ago that if I would conduct the Gathering of the Eagles for Him He would give us revival through our obedience. Those who believe help us carry a great burden for our Nation through their attendance, or their love gifts, and/or their intercession for us and America. Their names are being written in the Lambs book of life as those who paid the selfless price because of their willingness to do what others couldn't or wouldn't.

When revival falls it will be those selfless saints who the Church will look to and be compelled to thank for their sacrifices. Until then we continue in obedience to birth the greatest move of God's glory the world has ever seen.

We love you and trust you to stand with us in any way you can.

Loving Shalom,
Nita

Prophetic Intercession for the Nations

Jill Austin

Jeremiah 23:21-22 - I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran. I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. But if they had stood in My counsel, and had caused My people to hear My words, then they would have turned them from their evil way and from the evil of their doings.

Reese Howell was a radical intercessor during World War II whose prophetic revelation changed the course of the nations. Seeing in the heavens and knowing the plans of the enemy, he was able to then sabotage those schemes before they were fulfilled and release the plans of the Lord.

Can We Go into the Counsel of the Lord and Get Fresh Strategies and War Plans for Today?

I want to share a testimony about the power of prophetic intercession. This kairos hour in history demands that we must know the times and seasons. Can we go into the counsel of the Lord and get the fresh strategies and war plans for today?

During the Gulf War, I kept seeing the same battles taking place on television. I started to get very frustrated and said, "Lord, I don't want just natural television. I want Your 'tell-a-vision.' I want to see what is happening in the heavens over the Middle East. Lord, what is on your heart? There must be more information. I feel the American government is showing us bits and pieces, but Lord, what are You doing in the realm of the Spirit?"

On Sunday morning, my pastor of a congregation of 3,000, told us to stand and pray for Israel. All of a sudden I heard the audible voice of the Lord saying, "Michael." I asked, "Michael, who?" He said, "Michael, the Archangel." Suddenly I had an open vision of Michael fighting over Israel. I asked the Lord what he was doing. Instantly I saw the Prince of Persia and Michael in a fierce battle. The Lord continued, "The Prince of Persia is trying to pre-empt My time table, so that's why I've released Michael. The war will end in three days."

The Lord spoke again and He said, "Gabriel." I asked, "Lord, what's Gabe doing?" Immediately I saw Gabriel moving families and individuals so they wouldn't be harmed. The next night I was at a Baptist pastor's house and met a pastor from Israel. As I shook his hand I said, "I saw Michael over Israel. The war is going to end on the third day." He said, "Michael is the archangel over Israel." When the pastor was flying back to Israel on Purim, the war ended that very day, which was three days later.

Be Willing to Pray Dangerous Prayers

You see, you must be willing to have your antennas up twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. Ask the Lord strategic questions about your life, family, work, school, city, and world events. The Lord is raising up prophets in this hour who will go into the counsels of the Lord. Intercession, fasting, and worship accelerate the call of God on each of our lives. Are you available to go deeper into the war room of God?

Prayer: Lord, I'm so spiritually blind. Open my eyes so that I can see what is happening in the realm of the Spirit. I so want to pray dangerous prayers that can stop the plans of the enemy and release Your power. I want to hear Your voice and know Your ways. Help me to pray in a way that establishes heaven on earth so that Your will is done.

Hearing the Voice of God

Hosea 4:6 - My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.

I was at an Army base staying with a young couple for a weekend ministry assignment. Right before I left, the young wife approached me and said, "Jill, you've met three of my children, but did you know that I had a fourth child?" I replied to her, "No, I didn't."

She sadly turned to me, with tears welling up in her eyes and softly began, "I want to share with you how my baby died. I was sitting here on the couch, watching my sweet baby in a basinet across the living room. All of a sudden, a black figure walked across the room and just hovered on top of the basinet. I heard my baby struggle for breath, and then she died. I really didn't know what to do. Do you think it could have been a spirit of death?"

Gripped with sadness and shock, I turned to her and said, "Yes, I do." Her story devastated me. As I drove down the road weeping and crying out to the Lord, I asked Him, "All she had to do was rebuke the spirit of death! Why did that baby have to die because of her ignorance?"

In that moment, the Lord simply replied to me, "My people perish from lack of knowledge."

Prophecy and Hearing the Lord's Voice is Not Just Reserved for An Elite Platform Ministry

Beloved, hearing the Lord's voice is not an option. It is survival! The tragedy of this baby dying could have been avoided if she had rebuked that spirit of death in Jesus' name. We are all called to the prophetic lifestyle and to be naturally supernatural. Prophecy is not just reserved for an elite platform ministry. The Lord wants us to hear His voice in everyday life and know how to pray for our loved ones.

However, we must remember that learning how to hear the voice of the Lord is a process. Sometimes you will just get an impression, a prompting, a feeling, a picture, or a knowing. Here's the key: God wants us to love Him so much so that we are willing to risk, be foolish and step out with those impressions. If we are faithful in the little, He will give us more. Do you have your antennas up in the Holy Spirit? Or are you so spiritually co-dependent that you just wait for the next prophet to roll into town, so you'll get your word and transcribe it in your archives?

There must be tenacity in you where you wrestle with God to hear His voice. The Lord asks us to come to Him as little children. Often He will only give me part of the word. As I step out, I then get the next part of it. Don't wait for a full Technicolor vision projected on the wall before you start talking! Start with the small impressions and more will follow. I realize that it is scary to walk on water, but honestly, Beloved, it is more frightening to stay in the boat.

Hearing from God is Your Birthright

It's time to seize our inheritance as a prophetic people. Hearing from God is your birthright. Ask the Holy Spirit to teach you. People's very lives depend on our willingness to hear the voice of God. Be a divine detective and ask the Lord to take you through The School of the Holy Spirit! Willingness will take us farther in the Kingdom of God than perfection.

Prayer: Oh Lord, help me to grow up in You. I want to hear your voice and I want You to use my life to bring others to You! Teach me to take my prayers as seriously as You do and help me to remember that the power of life and death is in my tongue. Lord, teach me how to pray.

People In Need Are A Nuisance

Conrad Lampan

The disciples came to Jesus expressing concern for the welfare of the people that were listening to Jesus teaching. They were concerned because -they say- the people have been away from their homes for three days and have had nothing to eat. Read with me Matthew 14:15-16 15"This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food.16 But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."(NKJV).

From any human stand point the disciples were rightly startled! How in the world would they feed that crowd? On the other hand they might have thought "should WE feed them, anyway?"

Bear with me for a moment as we look into the scene: The disciples just came back from a triumphant "tour of miracles" and although they were probably tired their excitement surpassed their tiredness; they were so eager to tell Jesus everything they have done, and how even the demons were subject to them! They truly appreciated when Jesus told them to go to a deserted place and rest; they just wanted to be with Jesus privately and tell him about their trip. Basically they were just ready to boast about their super-successful ministries, and they surely did not want any interruption from a crowd turned nuisance!

BUT THE CROWD WAS THERE

The people were following Jesus, they had needs and nobody was going to stop them from following the one who could truly give them their miracle. A crowd in need can become a nuisance to those who want to just enjoy success. The disciples might have thought -as many seem to think today- that when the people are gone away we are not responsible any more; "out of sight out of mind" some would have their minds tell their hearts. But it is true that the needs don't go away or disappear just because we send them away.

When the disciples came to Jesus they went like: "Master, we are soooo concerned about these people, they have been following you for days and have not eaten anything! Now this is a desert place, and it is late, we are really concerned that they might go yet another day without food; see Mater they really need to go home" (Paraphrasis mine). What the disciples were concerned actually was about their own plans, they just wanted a quiet time with Jesus, and the opportunity to shine in their achievements, but the crowd was preventing them. I think they were not concerned about the people; they wanted to get rid of the people so they could go about their own plans.

YOU FEED THEM!

I could imagine the disciples' response when Jesus said that. I could just see them going like "Oh, me and my big mouth!" Now they were in real trouble. Without going now into how provision was made, and how the Lord was glorified through the miracle, I want to focus on some aspect many times overlooked: what is our responsibility?

Three days ago I received an email with some statistics about the church in these days (I have pasted below a copy of the tables). As I was reading it I started weeping, and I am still weeping in my soul not only because of what I read but also because I have seen those realities in my trips. Some would argue that some of those statistics are exaggerated; but I tell you I have seen it happen. While in Africa entire congregations have to meet under a tree, in the USA we keep building multimillion dollar building. I have seen in my own country Argentina the struggle of my Brother and his wife to help Street Children at the orphanage they founded. I read the other day the report from Rolland and Heidi Baker, all the struggles, the lack of help, and even the persecution from the churches! It has become a sort of pattern that many of those who do not move a finger for anything will dedicate their time to persecute those who do!

When I see and read how the church uses the gifts God has trusted us with, money, human resources, time, talents, I can't help but shudder thinking of the day we will meet with the Lord and have to give account of what we have done with all that. I heard once about someone speak about the magnificent sanctuary they were building, with imported marbles, and the best woods, and so on; this person was boasting about the building and someone else asked: why this much spending? the first guy responded "well we can afford it, so why not?" The sad fact is that many things are done in the church, especially in rich countries simply because they can afford it. However the question remains: is it necessary? The same is true about every other resource God gave us and not just about money. How do we use our time? Do we care spending more time in performing for ourselves, doing all kinds of activities aiming only to our personal enjoyment? One of the items in the statistics below states the fact that more money seem to be spent in going to conferences to speak about missions than the actual money sent to missions! I can believe it because I see it! One example: An appeal to help the orphanage in Buenos Aires (they have had a fire and are in need of rebuilding what was destroyed by the fire) brought in a few hundred dollars; out of a list of more than 15,000 people only 4 people responded!

Some would argue that the church should focus on spiritual issues and bring spiritual help not social help, but the fact remains that the church in these days for the most part is not even giving spiritual solutions to anybody. The truth of the Gospel is that Jesus tended not only to the soul and spirit, or to a future in heaven, but also to the body. Jesus sees us as a whole, with spiritual and physical needs. My heart is sad because of how we miss opportunities to be a blessing to others. We, Christians, the church have so many riches given to us, material and spiritual, what are we doing with it?

And for those who are reading this article and find in what I just said material to condemn the church and support their arguments against the church and suggest that God is done with the church, I have news for you: the Lord has not rejected His church. It is not the church that fails; it is primarily the individuals that form the church who individually fail bringing shame onto the whole body. If the church does not pray as it should it is the individuals that do not pray; if the church does not evangelize it is the individuals in first place who are not about their task; if the church does not fulfill its social function of being a factor of transformation, it is because its individuals don't do it. It has become easy to blame "the church" as if the corporate body had a life of its own separate from the individuals that form that body.

The fact remains that we -those of us who go by the name Christians- for the most part are behaving like those disciples; we care for our blessings, our welfare, our make me feel good stance, and about how we can make the most out of God's promises, while most of the time we tend to be very "forgetful" about our responsibility toward others. The statistics in the table pasted below are self explanatory.

The church has a responsibility primarily toward God, but then also toward the city where it is planted. Many think that their responsibility toward God is such that they do not have to care or do anything about those around them. The paradox is that our relationship with God will actually compel us to reach out to those in need of salvation, and also in need of help. If we are really developing a relationship with God then it would come simply "natural" that God's compassion would manifest through us reaching out to a world in need. Conversely if we cannot care less of what happens around us, that speaks volumes of what kind of relationship we have with God.

"The UNARGUABLE FACTS"
Doug Perry.

[- Kansas City businessman]

"Scary Stats"

We fully expect you to stomp away mad, but you might want to consider that our only effort here is to point out facts about how big the problem has gotten This is a compilation of the scariest, most embarrassing, most shocking statistics and information about the Church and it's affairs. Somebody is going to have to stand before Jesus one day and explain their role in this. We don't want it to be us - or you. We don't quote anything haphazardly without having good documentation and sources.

The FACTS:

38 countries are primarily unevangelized. (i.e. 1.6 Billion souls)

Assets of the Church:

US Christians control TRILLIONS in assets while at any given time 200,000,000 Brothers and Sisters starve.

78 countries each have Great Commission Christians whose personal incomes exceed US$1 billion a year.

Financial Fraud in the Church:

Annual church embezzlements by top custodians exceed the entire cost of all foreign missions worldwide. Emboldened by lax procedures, trusted church treasurers are embezzling from the Church $5,500,000 PER DAY. That's $16 Billion per YEAR! {For reference: TOTAL Christian spending on foreign missions is only $15 Billion. God forgive us!}

Criminal penalties against clergy in sexual abuse cases now exceed $1 billion, causing a number of churches, dioceses and denominations to be forced into bankruptcy.

Wasteful Spending by the Church:

95% of all church budgets in the US are spent on our own comforts and programs. Less than 1% is spent on evangelism to the most unreached.

40% of the church's entire global foreign mission resources are being deployed to just 10 oversaturated countries already possessing strong citizen-run home ministries.

More than 90% of all Christian materials are in English, but only 8% of the world speaks English.

All costs of ministry divided by number of baptisms per year. Cost per baptism in India - $9803 per person. Cost per baptism in the United States - $1,550,000 per person.

Every year the churches hold a mega census costing $1.1 billion, sending out 10 million questionnaires in 3,000 languages, which covers 180 major religious subjects.

91% of all Christian outreach/evangelism does not target non- Christians but targets other Christians in already-evangelized countries or people-groups.

Each year,180 million Bibles and New Testaments are wasted - lost, destroyed, or disintegrated - due to incompetence, hostility, bad planning, or inadequate manufacture.

Missions and the Church:

Some 250 of the 300 largest international Christian organizations regularly mislead the Christian public by publishing demonstrably incorrect or falsified progress statistics.

Christian triumphalism - not as pride in huge numbers, but as publicized self-congratulation - is rampant in most churches, agencies, and ministries.

It costs Christians 700 times more money to baptize converts in rich countries (eg. Switzerland) than in poor countries (eg. Nepal).

Percent of Christian resources in countries that are already more than 60% Christian - 99.9%. Percent spent in countries where less than half the people have EVER heard of Jesus - 0.01%.

It is estimated that Christians worldwide spend around $8 BILLION dollars PER YEAR going to the more than 500 conferences to TALK about missions. That's more than TWICE the total spent DOING missions.

Everywhere on Earth can now easily be targeted with at least 3 of the 45 varieties of effective evangelism.

818 unevangelized ethno linguistic peoples have never been targeted by any Christian agencies ever.

Out of 648 million Great Commission Christians, 70% have never been told about the world's 1.6 billion unevangelized individuals.

The 3 least cost-effective countries over 1 million in population for Christian outreach are: Japan, Switzerland, Denmark.

The 3 most cost-effective countries over 1 million in population for Christian outreach are: Mozambique, Ethiopia, Tanzania.

Denominations of the Church:

Currently there are over 33,000 Christian denominations in the United States.

A huge new Christian nonconfessional megabloc, the Independents or Postdenominationalists, is growing rapidly and numbers 19% of all Christians. These 386 million Independents in 220 countries have no interest in and no use for historic denominationalist Christianity.

>From less than one million in AD 1900, Pentecostals/ Charismatics/ Neocharismatics have mushroomed to 524 million affiliated (-with unaffiliated believers, 602 million).

Growth of the Church:

The country with the fastest Christian expansion ever is China, now at 10,000 new converts every day.

Persecution of the Church:

More than 70% of all Christians now live in countries where they are experiencing persecution. In some cases EXTREME persecution.

Global Population Issues:

124 million new souls begin life on Earth each year, but Christianity's 4,000 foreign mission agencies baptize only 4 million new persons a year.

Unreached Peoples

Out of 648 million Great Commission Christians, 70% have never been told about world's 1.6 billion unevangelized individuals.

Despite Christ's command to evangelize the world, 67% of all humans from AD 30 to the present have never even heard of his name.

Martyrdom:

Over the last 20 centuries, and in all 238 countries, more than 70 million Christians have been martyred - killed, executed, murdered - for Christ.

More Christians have been martyred in the last 100 years than all other years since AD 30 combined.

Had Enough Yet? It gets worse. We're stuffing the Fattest and starving the Hungriest!

This is meant to be just a plain, direct reporting of how miserably, horribly, devastatingly badly we - the Christians in the West - have mismanaged the massive gifts which God has entrusted to us.

Pink Sparkles

Mary Clark

This is something that I am sending to My children. Get ready to see the most extraordinary coming down in your midst, beloved. Get ready to see things that will startle and surprise.

I am in the process of revealing Myself in spectacular ways to My children. I plan to rain down something that will be considered totally unconventional. When I do this, beloved, know that I always have a reason for the things that I do, and this is no exception. This is a move of your God that is going to get the world's attention, but better than that it is going to bless My children with a new understanding of their God. So this raining down has a two-fold purpose. One: to show the world something what I deem important. Two: to establish My children in a wonderful place in Me where they will know some truths and walk in them most assuredly!

I am a God Who always does a splendid work for a very good reason. Know this when you see this peculiar happening! Know that I delight in you. I have a plan to move you forward in My truth, and the world will take notice of this demonstration. Yes! The world will certainly take notice of this wonderful demonstration that I plan to bring into your midst. I am excited about this work, beloved, and I want you to anticipate it with all that is in you. For it is good and it will bring a lasting work to the forefront of your lives – a work that will live on forever, enabling you to move in ways you never dreamed toward your goal of service to Me – toward your home, filled with joy unspeakable and full of glory – toward the arms of your most Beloved God and King!!!

Praying In The Dark
Ron Wood

(rewood@bellsouth.net)

"In the early morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house, and went away to a secluded place, and was praying there." Mark 1:35 NAS

In my youth, my first power encounters with God occurred in the dark. I would shut my bedroom door, turn off the overhead light, bury my face and muffle my voice in a pillow and cry out to God. To this day, I still enjoy praying in the dark; no distractions, no interruptions, alone with the Lord in a solitary place that is suddenly filled with Presence.

Yesterday's Anointing

In Mark chapter one, Jesus had just left a powerful meeting. To all intents and purposes, from every measure of religious expectation, he was now a success. The inaugural push of his ministry was off to a good start. Crowds were gathering. Publicity was growing. Spectacular results were appearing. He had begun healing the sick. Demons were being dramatically exposed and expelled. Yet to Jesus, that was already yesterday's anointing.

The realization that you're walking in yesterday's anointing can come after a decade, after a year, or even after a very short season. For Jesus, it came early. The power he had walked in yesterday was not sufficient for today. The fact that he was moving in divine momentum was irrelevant-- he wanted a fresh touch. He had the ear of the crowds, but he wanted the ear of his Father. He knew acknowledgment by priests and had recognition by evil spirits, but the honor of his Father's fellowship was superior to people's accolades.

Yesterday's anointing is the only anointing we can know because we can't write books about tomorrow's anointing since we haven't experienced it yet. It is difficult to describe something we've never seen before. It is difficult to grasp something we may read about even in the Bible but have not yet seen modeled in wholesome ways or proven in practice where it can be examined and shown to be effective. The familiar seems better.

Earlier this year, the Lord spoke to me at a small home gathering where I met with people hungry for prophetic impartation. He said to me, "You don't know what you don't know, and you'll never know it unless I reveal it to you." How that word humbled me!

Recently, the Lord spoke again to my spirit and said to me, "You don't NO what you should NO." He meant I didn't fully understand my transition season, that I had to stop doing some things in order to make the internal changes of thinking to embrace some new things. We humans are creatures of habit. We resist change. We carry our past gifting, our past methods, our past understanding into the present, beyond the point where God is still blessing them, and thus we limit our future to more of the past.

Jesus came away from a ministry of public power but knew the secret to power was secret prayer. Therefore, he went away to a secluded place. Praying in the dark is more than early morning prayers. It even means more than seeking God's face before sunrise.

For some, it may be late at night when you can escape the presence of people and find the presence of God. It is more than a place; it is a posture. Praying in the dark means sitting in the Lord's anteroom awaiting an appointment in the throne room, waiting with the light from yesterday now waning, waiting with the remembrance of glory from previous visitations now lifting, waiting with the words of revelation from prior holy moments now fading, waiting and wondering what is coming next and what your role might be.

Praying in the dark means serving God in the little things while you hope for the big things. Praying in the dark means dealing with the frustrations of weakness and ignorance and weariness while you seek the power to press on, the wisdom to know God's ways, the strength to prevail over enemies and obstacles and self.

Praying in the dark is more than mere praying words: it is heart-hungering, longing for communion with the One who is your source of light, your reason for being, the author and finisher of your faith, the creator, sustainer, and refresher of your spirit, intellect, flesh and family. Praying in the dark is seeking a God encounter, not just seeking what He can do for you. Praying in the dark is touching His face, not just His hand. Praying in the dark is pushing past what gains approval from men and finding the still, small voice that says, "You're mine and I'm pleased with you and you have nothing to prove."

Praying in the dark means praying by grace through faith, not sight. If you can figure it out, then you don't need faith. Faith only grows when you don't feel like fighting, but you stand true anyway. Praying in the dark is when you are surrounded by an absence of confirming signs yet you keep on praying because you know God is faithful.

Praying in the dark means praying in the mystery of the Spirit not just with the light of your understanding. Praying in the dark is when your mind has no illumination and nothing makes sense and you are perplexed and stymied. Praying in the dark means continuing to trust that He knows the way even when you don't have a clue. You're not trusting in your ability to be right, but the Lord's ability to make you righteous. You're not depending on your ability to hear, but on God's ability to speak.

Praying in the dark requires humility. It means living as a limited human being, not knowing everything, not having all the answers, acknowledging your limitations, respecting your boundaries, knowing your defined measure or circumscribed sphere, not having to do it all yourself, but trusting God to give you the resources, the team, the new level of grace and insight you need so as to succeed in doing His will tomorrow.

Training Teammates

Jesus wasn't content to be a mere success. After he prayed in the dark, he moved from personal success to identifying and equipping his successors. He did it as an example, then he let them watch him do it, then they did it while he watched. There is no success without successors. God's father-heart insists on bringing many sons to glory. God gives it away without keeping the good stuff back. The purpose of life is not to merely survive, but to reproduce. We know we've succeeded when the next generation can do it.

We short-circuit God's program when we become short-sighted and don't discover our part in equipping the next generation. This is a relay race, not a one-man sprint. David's crowning moment wasn't wearing his crown as king, but when he laid up wealth for his son Solomon to build the temple. The kingdom of God is multi-generational-- Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The Bible says, a good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children. By that definition, many wonderful preachers are not yet good men. The hand-off to the next generation is often fumbled. We make no room to bring anyone alongside, as though we might diminish our special place if we shared it. Truly great leaders know instinctively when to make room for the next generation.

Jesus didn't keep all the glory to himself. He reveled in the power of his kingdom and wanted to share it with others (Luke 10:17-21). He taught and fought so his kingdom would increase (Matthew 6:10). When Jesus prayed in the dark, he became a carrier of the light. When he walked into a church, the light of God exposed demons like cockroaches on the kitchen floor (Mark 1:21-28). You can't read Mark's gospel without seeing Jesus at war.

Jesus regularly went to church, not just to worship, but also to wage war. He didn't make peace with the spirits contaminating the religious leaders and controlling the religious institutions of his day. He expelled the demons that were plaguing the people in the church. Everyone whom Jesus sent out to preach was instructed to heal people of spiritual oppression. This is still true. His anointing hasn't changed (Acts 10:38), but modern people have become materialistic and oblivious of the spiritual things. Anytime the focus shifts in church from Christ and his cross to man and his rights, the formerly holy temple can become a defiled habitation of foul spirits. Jesus knows how to clean us up!

Mark's gospel is typical of Christ's task as a "termite inspector" and "evil spirit exterminator" for the temple (Mark 1:23, 39; 3:11, 15, 27; 6:7-13, etc.). Jesus and his disciples dealt with demons. When the kingdom of God comes in power, we will, too. If we persist in praying in the dark, the time will come when the darkness will have to flee.

Plunging Into The Depths Of Prophecy

Its my belief that in the last days God wants all of us to prophesy. Not just the prophets alone but every believer in his house. He said in the end-time he will pour out his Spirit upon us and we will all. Paul said we may all prophesy and this just goes to show us the possibility that everyone can move in the prophetic flow.

In the book of revelation we are told said the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of prophecy. This is the foundation of prophecy. With Christ the cornerstone we can all prophesy. Every Christian has the testimony of Jesus and therefore can prophesy.

The 2nd level of prophecy is the gift of prophecy. The people here are not prophets but prophesy often. They hardly predict future events but they often speak to comfort and edify the body.

The 3rd level of prophecy is the prophet's or prophetess` anointing. They do predict, comfort and correct the body of Christ. They are part of the government or ruling body governing the body of Christ.

If we must all flow in the prophetic flow we must be thirsty for our Lord, zealous for his work and ever ready to speak his word. We must have a ready heart and an ever believing heart. Above all we must be holy and must love his word above all earthly treasures

Press In Unto Me/A Baptism Of Power

5th April 2004

Acts 2:1 And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. Acts 2:2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. Acts 2:3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

Now is the time to press in unto Me saith the Lord. It is the season for the baptism of My fire. Press in unto Me, SPEND TIME WITH ME, My Beloveds for I would endue you with power from on High. I have called you and prepared you for a time such as this, but you must receive a fresh infilling of My Spirit. Do not be distracted, do not look to the left or to the right, FOCUS ON ME.

This is a critical time, My heavenly portal is open. My eyes are roving the earth looking for desperate and hungry hearts; hearts that have no agenda of their own, hearts that are "sold out" to Me; for My purposes ONLY.

I long to give you a fresh infilling of My power and anointing to prepare you for what lies ahead. SEEK ME, My fire will fall on you and through you, to touch the lives of the lost, the hurting and the oppressed. Soon events will transpire upon the earth that will cause the masses to seek for answers. I need a people, made whole, healed and restored to be My willing vessels of My glory, and YES OF MY POWER.

I am standing waiting My Children, ready to impart such an anointing of power upon you, such as has not been seen since the day of Pentecost. SEEK AND RECEIVE.

The Gates Of Hell Will Not Prevail

8th April 2004

> Mat 16:18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

I am raising up a people against which the gates of hell will not prevail. These are My sanctified ones, My Holy ones. I know their hearts, I know their walk, I know those who have counted the cost. These are those that have laid down their lives, their agendas, for My Kingdom and My Kingdom will come to the earth through them.

They will stand on serpents and scorpions and they will not be harmed. They have authority over the forces of darkness. They will proclaim My goodness, they will proclaim My Government upon the earth. Their faces set like flint, their feet as of iron, as they march across the earth proclaiming My Kingdom purposes.

Luk 10:19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

They are My generation of My glory, they are My righteous ones. Rise up now in your calling and fulfill your purpose, mighty warriors of the Lord Most High.

As great darkness covers the earth, a great light will be seen upon you. You will REVERSE the work of the evil one every where you go; you will bring life where there is death, prosperity where there is poverty, healing where there is disease, freedom where there is oppression.
The unrighteous will tremble and fear before the faces of My holy ones, through this, those of the kingdom of darkness will come into My Kingdom of Light.
Put on your armor of Light, lift up your shield of faith and go forth as you FOLLOW THE CAPTAIN OF YOUR HEARTS, THE LORD OF HOSTS.

…blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD , whose confidence is in him. He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit."
Jeremiah 17:7-8

Thought
We can only know fulfillment in our lives as God plants us in a meaningful relationship with Himself.

Message
The Hebrew word for blessing represents God's grace to us on every level and aspect of our lives. This level of fulfillment surpasses anything we could ever know in this life alone. In fact Paul prays that the Ephesians (3:14ff.) might know and experience the multi-dimensional love of God, and that they would realize that this level of love totally surpasses human knowledge. It is an experience that comes through faith in the work of Christ. This word for trust has a deeper meaning than we sometimes get on the surface. It is a level of trust that inspires one to give his or her life even to point of death. It is an undying devotion or trust in God. Notice that this passage begins with the blessing extended to those who will totally put their trust in God. Following verse 7 and beginning in verse 8 we will see 6 things that should be evident in the life of one who has totally put his or her trust in God.

1. The person who puts their trust in God will be firmly planted.
This planting by God is illustrated as a tree that is planted by a stream of water. A person who is in a trusting relationship with God will be firmly planted as a tree near a stream that has all the resources for a strong healthy life.

2. The person who is firmly planted in God will not be easily uprooted.
When a person is firmly planted by God that person will not be entangled or overcome by the cares of this life. But he or she will experience deep-rooted spiritual growth. (Remember from our last devotion that true success is to grow in a meaningful relationship with God). When the trials of life come, this person will not be overtaken, but will only grow deeper in his or her relationship with God.

3. The person who is firmly planted in God can take the heat.
Jesus promised in John 16:33 that in this life people will have trials, but he reminded us to be of good courage because He has overcome the world. The deeper we grow, the greater the pressure, but remember, he has promised to never leave us nor forsake us; He is always with us.

4. The one who is firmly planted in God will consider his or her spiritual health a priority.
Notice the passage states that the one planted by God always has green leaves. The healthy leaves represent a healthy spiritual life. God's desire is that we always be fruitful in every area of our lives. Matthew 6:33 states: "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." This word "first" in the Greek is the root for the English word priority. In order to bear lasting fruit we must be willing to give God proper priority in our lives.

5. The one who is firmly planted by God will not be ruled by the seasons of life.
Notice the passage says that the one planted by God will not experience anxiety in the different seasons. We know that we truly live in dangerous times as Paul reminded Timothy. But if we can be focused on God and look at things with an eternal perspective, we can experience the blessing of God's peace even in the time of drought, because we are planted in God, and we are drawing our strength from his limitless realm of resources.

6. The one who is planted in God will live a life of generosity.
The passage states that the one planted in God will never cease to bear fruit. Paul states in 2 Corinthians 2:6: "Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously." In order to bear fruit, we must be willing to live a life of generosity. One of the first commandments given to Adam and Eve was to be fruitful and multiply. God's desire for all of us is to bear fruit. His desire is that we would not just commit random acts of generosity, but that we would live a lifestyle of generosity; that our lives would be an example of his life-giving love and produce fruit of eternal value.

Before we pray, I want to conclude this devotion with a thought. In Genesis 2:7-8 we are reminded that God created man from the ground, and He breathed the breath of life into his nostrils. In chapter one we see that God spoke everything into existence by His own word. In Genesis 2:8 we see that God planted a garden. I believe this is significant because God was revealing to Adam the process of sowing and reaping and the process of relationship. We have stated that the will of God is for every person to know Him and to know Him well. The Christian life about relationship, and it is about God producing fruit in us so that others might see the work of God in us and be drawn to Him.

Prayer

My prayer for you today is that you would be planted in a fruitful relationship with the living God. God's desire is to do something good in and through your life. He wants all of us to bear fruit that has eternal significance. Lord, please help us to be planted in you, and to experience your grace in our lives. And that the grace you extend to us would be extended to others as you work through us. Most of all thank you for your intense desire to have a meaningful relationship with us. Please help us to afford you the opportunity to plant us in your presence.

Please Sir

Paul Davies

Please Sir, I want some more!

The following Revelation was received by Paul Davies in on 16th April, 2004. As with all prophetic words, these must be weighed and tested with a spirit of humility and repentance. Where Bible passages are referred to, the interpretations given are not intended to be seen as the interpretation of the passage, but as God speaking to his people's current situation by giving an interpretation.

It's all John Paul Jackson's fault. Him and Rick Joyner's team anyway. They started the whole interpretation thing, encouraged us to "have a go". Now, it seems to be the main way God speaks to me. Hope this blesses you.

I was feeling really rotten this morning, wondering why God wasn't speaking to me. Where was my supposed "prophetic calling"? It's been a real desert year so far, with very little encouragement. Even Bobby Conner's visit to our church, which I was desperate for, got cancelled. I've been really struggling to "seek the Lord", and feeling like a failure.

So I started listening to a tape – the Morningstar team talking about being faithful with the little God gives you, and "you have not because you ask not". So I asked (again): "God, give me revelation."

Later, I was feeding my little boy Banana cake, and he clapped his hands (please!) and pointed to the cake.
"Do you want some more?" I asked.
"Mmmm," he answered, clapping harder, and the phrase from the movie Oliver dropped into my head: "Please sir, I want more," and the Lord began to speak to me from the film.

1. Oliver is an orphan – He doesn't know who his Father is. He is desperate for real food.
    - The Church has not taught the majority of Christians to know and love the Father. We have therefore no understanding of the First & Great Commandment – the basis of our Faith from which all else flows. This is a fundamental truth that is an emphasis in the Spirit at this time (especially from Toronto), and we need to own and apply this into our lives in a functional sense.
2. He wants more, and the establishment throws him out into the street, and attempt to even make money from his misery.
    - The Church has generally not taken in those who were desperate enough to seek more. During the Pentecostal and Charismatic renewals of the 1900's and 1960's, those who sought power were cast out to fend for themselves. Many of these have fallen into the survival mode of the streets, where thievery and pick-pocketing rules. The established denominations have “profited” from the castaways – particularly in the area of “christian” literature, where nearly every advance pioneered by the castaways has been soundly criticised. A friend recently commented that most Christian books are written for profit, not because God commanded them. We would be far less judgemental if we hadn’t read quite so many of them.

3. On the street, he is taught to survive by the thieves and pickpockets.
    - This speaks of the common situation where ministers will ask for a set price before agreeing to visit a church or conference, or even worse, the stereotypical altar-call abuse. Our itineraries should be set by the Lord and funded by our trust in His provision. We are going to see a major change in this area in the next few years, as the Lord begins to convict the church on this issue. In the same way that self-promotion is a dangerous deception, self-funding implies that God cannot support His ministers.
    - We need to learn that worldly ways of survival or of achieving goals are not necessarily God's ways. His ways are NOT our ways - they are higher.
4. After a time, where he continues to seek to be loved, he finds the love of the Father (his grandfather), who just happens to be filthy rich.
    - We need to have as our focus learning to “let God love us”. John wrote: “We love because he first loved us” (1 John 4:10). We cannot love the people around us, and minister to their varied needs, unless and until we are receiving the Love from the Father. When we reach the place where we know who our Father is, we will not need to worry about material needs, as He who did not spare His own Son, but gave him up for us all – how will He not also, along with him, graciously give us all things,” (Romans 8:32)

This is what the Lord was saying to encourage me – and hopefully you as well – Keep seeking to receive the Father’s love – the rest will happen in its time!

Blessings,
Paul Davies

Passover Lamb's Journey

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

A few years ago, when the 14th of Aviv (YHVH’s Passover) fell in the middle of the week (Wednesday), just as it did when Messiah was crucified, I did a teaching on the last week of Yeshua’s life.

If you are interested in teaching a small gathering of friends about the Messiah's Passover, one of the first things should be to acquaint them with the relevant scriptures. Perhaps each one participating in the session can look up and read one of the following.

IT IS WRITTEN:

"Do not think that I came to destroy the Torah or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the Torah till all is fulfilled. (Matt. 5:17-18).

"Then He said to them, 'O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! Ought not the Messiah to have suffered these things and to enter into His glory?' So beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures (Tanach) the things concerning Himself" (Luke 24:25-27, emphasis added).

NOTE THAT YESHUA IS REFERING TO THE TANACH. (Torah and Prophets)

" Then I (Yeshua) said, `Behold, I have come----In the volume of the book it is written of Me----To do Your will, O YHVH'" (Heb.10:7, emphasis added).

"Then Yeshua said to them, 'all of you will be made to stumble because of Me this night, for it is written: `I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered'": (Zech 13:7, emphasis added).

" ‘Or do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will provide Me with more than twelve legions of angels? "How then could the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must happen thus?’ In that hour Yeshua said to the multitudes, ‘Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you, teaching in the temple, and you did not seize Me. But all this was done that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.’ Then all the disciples forsook Him and fled” (Matt. 26:31, 53-56, emphasis added).

Yeshua himself declared that there would be one very important sign that would bear testimony to the fact that He was the Messiah:

YESHUA’S PROPHECIES

The Sign of Jonah:

“Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, 'teacher, we want to see a sign from You'. But He answered and said to them, 'an evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth'” (Matt:12:38-40, emphasis added).

"'A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.' And He left them and departed" (Matt.16:4, emphasis added)

"And while the crowds were thickly gathered together, He began to say, 'this is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet'" (Luke 11:29, emphasis added).

YESHUA ALSO SPOKE OF ANOTHER SIGN, (compare the two signs) as there are always to be two witnesses.

The Sign of the Temple

"So the Jews answered and said to Him, 'what sign do You show to us, since You do these things? 'Yeshua answered and said to them, 'destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up'. Then the Jews said, 'it has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days? ' But He was speaking of the temple of His body" (John 2:18-21).

"Now the chief priests, the elders, and all the council sought false testimony against Yeshua to put Him to death but found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward and said, 'this fellow said: `I am able to destroy the temple of YHVH and to build it in three days'" (Matt. 26:59-61; Mark 14:58-62).

(Were these last two really false witnesses? Did Yeshua not say that He would destroy the temple? Read John 2:18-21 again.)

Even while He was on the stake they were reminding Him of His own words: "And those who passed by blasphemed Him, wagging their heads and saying: 'you who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross '"(Matt. 27:39-40; Mark 15:29-30).

When these signs were fulfilled there were witnesses who verified that fact. Who were those witnesses?

Because Yeshua proclaimed that these signs were to corroborate His Messiahship, it was in the interest of the priests to ensure, in every way possible, that those declarations of His would prove false. That is why they asked Pilate to place soldier-guards around the tomb and set a seal on the stone that covered the opening. This, however, backfired on them. As a matter of fact, the soldiers became the first eyewitnesses to the fulfillment of the signs. "Now while they were going, behold, some of the guards came into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened. When they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, saying, 'tell them, `his disciples came at night and stole Him away while we slept.' "And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will appease him and make you secure." So they took the money and did as they were instructed; and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day" (Matt. 28:11-15).

The mere fact that the priests had to pay the guards to lie was in itself proof that He was in the grave for the designated period. The disciples' memories were also jarred, when they found out that he was no longer in the grave. "After His resurrection, the disciples also recalled what Yeshua had said about the destruction of the "temple" and about raising it in three days" (John 2:22).

If Yeshua were the Passover Lamb, then the statutes and ordinances of the Torah would also have to apply to HIS sacrifice. Let us review some of the relevant scriptures.

YHVH’S APPOINTED TIMES

“And YHVH spoke to Moses, saying, 'speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: `The feasts of YHVH, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, these are My feasts. Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation. You shall do no work on it; it is the Sabbath of YHVH in all your dwellings'” (Lev. 23:1-3). Each feast day, regardless of the day of the week it happens to occur on, is patterned after the Shabbat and is called a Shabbaton. This is why Yeshua had to be taken off the cross and buried before the evening of the coming in of the “Shabbat” [that is, the ‘Shabbaton’]. “Therefore, because it was the Preparation Day [the 14th of Aviv] that the bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day [the 15th] the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away” (John 19:31; Mark 15:42; Luke 23:54). The fifteenth was and still is the Feast of Matzot - Unleavened Bread. It is a Shabbat-like day (a Shabbton), a High Holy Day. The feast days can fall on any day of the week. As mentioned, the week Yeshua was crucified on, the High Holy Day (15th of Aviv) occurred on a Thursday (Thursday was therefore like a Shabbat).

“These are the feasts of YHVH, holy convocations which you shall proclaim at their appointed times. On the fourteenth day of the first month between the evenings [the entire twenty four hour period of the fourteenth] is YHVH’s Passover” (Lev.23: 4-5). Please note that the fourteenth is not spoken of as a rest day or a holy convocation, therefore it is not a feast day (see also John 19:31). It was the day on which they were busy sacrificing and cutting up the lambs; from evening to evening, a day of preparation for the Shabbaton that was to follow (the fifteenth was the first day of the Feast of Matzot). “And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to YHVH; seven days you must eat unleavened bread. On the first day [the fifteenth of the Month of Aviv] you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no customary work on it. But you shall offer an offering made by fire to YHVH for seven days. The seventh day [the 21st of the month of Aviv] shall be a holy convocation [a Shabbat-like day]; you shall do no customary work on it" (Lev. 23:6-8; ref. Deut. 16:1-3).

It is very important to distinguish the difference between the 14th (YHVH's Passover) and the 15th the Feast of Matzot (which is the High Holy Day, a Shabbat-like day). And now that we have the day, we need a...

LAMB FOR THE SACRIFICE

"Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying: `On the tenth day of this month every man shall take for himself a lamb, according to the house of his father, a lamb for a household. `And if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the persons; according to each man's need you shall make your count for the lamb. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats. `Now you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month. Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at twilight [between the evenings]'" (Ex. 12:3-6).

Please keep this day (the 10th) in mind, for we will run into it again when we cover the journey of the Passover Lamb later.

YESHUA THE LAMB

“And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night" (Luke 2:7-8). The Lamb was born in a stable, in a feed troth, among the animals. Significantly it was shepherds, pasturing their sheep, who heard the message of the angles. "And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger" (Luke 2:12). It is thought that these shepherds (being in that region) were actually watching over the sheep that were to be used for the temple sacrifices. Later in the Lamb's life, John the Immerser exclaimed: "Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!" (John 1:29).

An Ethiopian eunuch who came to Jerusalem to worship was sitting in his chariot reading the prophet Isaiah and there he read the following: "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and as a lamb before it's sheerer is silent, so He opened not His mouth. In His humiliation His justice was taken away, and who will declare His generation? For His life is taken from the earth'" (Isa. 53:7-8; Acts 8:32-33).

"But with the precious blood of Messiah, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. He indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you" (1Pet.1:19-20).

"And I looked, and behold, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth. Then He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.

Now when He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. They sang a new song, saying: 'You are worthy to take the scroll, and to open its seals; for You were slain, and have redeemed us to God by Your blood out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, and have made us kings and priests to our God; and we shall reign on the earth'" (Rev. 5:6-10).

"After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could number, of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, saying: 'Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb'" (Rev. 7:9-17).

"They sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying: 'Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty! Just and true are Your ways, O King of the saints! Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. For all nations shall come and worship before You, For Your judgments have been manifested'"(Rev. 15:3-4).

"Now it came to pass, when Yeshua had finished these sayings, that He departed from Galilee and came to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan" (Matt. 19:1; Mark 10:1; John 1:28). "Now they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Yeshua was going before them; and they were amazed. And as they followed they were afraid. Then He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them the things that would happen to Him: 'Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and deliver Him to the Gentiles; and they will mock Him, and scourge Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again'" (Mark 10:33).

"Now they came to Jericho. As He went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great multitude, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the road begging. And when he heard that it was Yeshua of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, 'Yeshua, Son of David, have mercy on me!'" (Mark 10:46; Luke 18:35; 19:1 Matt. 20:29; Luke 19:28). Interestingly, YHVH used a blind man to declare that Yeshua was the Messiah Son of David.

"Then, six days before the [feast day of] Passover [6 days before the 15th, which would have been the ninth of Aviv], Yeshua came to Bethany [which means house of affliction], where Lazarus was who had been dead, whom He had raised from the dead. There they made Him a supper; [it was the Friday evening meal an erev Shabbat meal] and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him. Then Miryam took a pound of very costly oil of spikenard, anointed the feet of Yeshua, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil. Then one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray Him, said, 'why was this fragrant oil not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?' This he said not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it. But Yeshua said, 'let her alone; she has kept this for the day of My burial. For the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always'" (John 12:1-8).

The Feast of Matzot (Unleavened Bread) was and still is celebrated on the fifteenth. If we count six days before the fifteenth of Aviv, we arrive at Friday the ninth, this was the day on which Yeshua came up to Beit-Onya (Bethany) and had an Erev Shabbat meal with El'azar (Lazarus), Martha, and Miryam. Yochanan (John) tells us that the following day, which would have been Shabbat the tenth of Aviv, Yeshua rode the colt of an ass into Jerusalem.

Because this year's Passover does not fall in the middle of the week, we cannot follow through the days, but in spite of that technical complication, when you sit for your Erev Shabbat meal think about what had taken place on this very night so many years ago. Maybe find some perfume to scent the air…(fragrance of Messiah).

"The next day" (John 12:12)... [which was a Shabbat, the tenth of Aviv], they where on their way from Beit Onya to Jerusalem "Now when they drew near Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, then Yeshua sent two disciples, saying to them, 'go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Loose them and bring them to Me'" (Matt. 21:1-2; Luke 19:28-29) " ...a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Yeshua was coming to Jerusalem, took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out: 'Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of YHVH! The King of Israel!' Then Yeshua, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written: 'Fear not, daughter of Zion; Behold, your King is coming, Sitting on a donkey's colt'" (John 12:12-16; Zech 9:9).

On the tenth the priests carried the lambs for the Passover sacrifices into the Temple, as commanded by YHVH (see Ex. 12:3). The lambs were then examined for four days and if no blemish or defect could be found, they qualified for the sacrifice and were killed on the fourteenth. Yeshua the Lamb went up to Jerusalem on the tenth, and for four days was questioned and examined, and in the end no fault could be found in Him by the highest authority in the land (ref. Luke 23:4,14; John 18:38, 19:4,6). He was the perfect, complete and qualified sacrifice. "Now before the feast of the Passover, when Yeshua knew that His hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end" (John 13:1). Yeshua, knowing that He was not going to be around the following evening to celebrate the Passover meal, made arrangements to recline with His disciples the evening before, which was the beginning of the preparation day (the 14th). Remember it was the middle of the week. "When the hour had come, He sat down, and the twelve apostles with Him. Then He said to them, 'with fervent desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; for I say to you, I will no longer eat of it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God'" (Luke 22:14-16). Immediately afterwards He was betrayed, arrested, tried, and condemned to death by the priests and scribes, and then delivered to the gentiles (Romans) who mocked, scourged, spit on Him and eventually crucified Him. All this took place on the 14th of Aviv. He was slaughtered with all the other lambs that same day, which was a the 4th day of the week or Wednesday. At the end of that day, the day of preparation, Yeshua's body was put into the grave. He was laid in the tomb just before the Shabbaton of the 15th (the High Holy Day), which was the eve of Thursday (please keep in mind that in the Hebrew calendar the day starts in the evening). He was therefore in the grave that night (1st night), all day Thursday (making it one whole day, the 15th of Aviv); the night of Friday (2nd night) all day, Friday (second whole day, the 16th); Saturday (Shabbat) night (3rd night) and all day Saturday (Shabbat 3rd day, the 17th of Aviv). Then sometime after the Shabbat went out Yeshua rose from the dead. He was in the grave exactly 3 nights and 3 days.

The religious leaders were looking for a reason to denounce Him as a liar. Indeed, if He would not have stayed in that grave for three nights and three days they would have proven their point beyond a shadow of a doubt, and Yeshua could not have been the Messiah of Israel. The Good Friday and Easter Sunday celebrations only come to the aid of those who would declare Yeshua a liar. The sign of Jonah is Yeshua's answer to an evil and wicked and unbelieving generation.

THE OMER OFFERING

"And YHVH spoke to Moses, saying, 'speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: When you come into the land which I give to you, and reap its harvest, then you shall bring a omer of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest. He shall wave the omer before YHVH, to be accepted on your behalf'" (Lev.23:9-10). It literally says, "for your acceptance", or "that you may be accepted", in other words you and I can only go before YHVH if this wave offering qualifies us. When was this first fruit omer of barley to be picked and waved before YHVH?

"On the day after the [weekly] Sabbath the first day of the week, the priest shall wave it. And you shall offer on that day, when you wave the omwe, a male lamb of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering to YHVH" (Lev. 23: 9-12). Whenever the first ripe grains of barley were first noticed (which occurs around the time of Passover), the priests would cut them and wait for the nearest weekly Shabbat, and following that Shabbat, that is on the first day of the week, they would wave them before YHVH. On the year we are looking at, the first ripe omer of barley must have been ready, and no doubt they were brought before YHVH on the first day after the Shabbat (which 'happened' to occur within the seven day period of the Feast of Matzot), making Yeshua's resurrection and presentation of Himself before the Father, "for our acceptance", a fulfillment of the first-omer offering. Let me emphasize here that according to scripture the injunction to bring that omer is not connected to the Feast of Matzot, contrary to the commonly held view, thus there is no specific day designated for it, as only YHVH Himself can determine when the barley will be ripe (which explains the need for the counting). In Yeshua's year of sacrifice it occurred in such a way that while He was fulfilling the sign of three days and three nights, He could also become that wave offering before YHVH (see I Cor. 15:20, 23). That year, when He became the first barley offering waved before the Father, it happened on the 18th of Aviv. In Hebrew, one and eight are equivalent to the letters that make up the word "alive". Yeshua told Miryam of Migdal not to touch Him, because He had not yet been to the Father; He had to be that omer wave offering that you and I may be accepted and be "made alive with Him".

"And you shall count for yourselves from the day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering: seven Sabbaths shall be completed" (Lev. 23:15). The very reason for counting is that one never knows when the harvest is ripe for picking, again, each year the dates could vary, depending on weather conditions controlled by the Almighty alone. And if one reads carefully the scripture in Leviticus 23 one sees that there is no connection between the Feast of Matzot and the waving of the omer. (vs. 8-9).

Let us be as those who have understanding and join Yeshua's disciples and remember all that has been written. "Therefore, when He had risen from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this to them; and they believed the Scripture and the word which Yeshua had spoken" (John 2:22).

Hag Same'ach, and Shabbat Shalom

Ephraim and Rimona

"Great and marvelous are Your works, YHVH Elohim Almighty! Just and true are Your ways, O King of the saints! Who shall not fear You, O YHVH, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. For all nations shall come and worship before You, For Your judgments have been manifested" (Rev. 15:3-4).

P.S. What is so important about these fixed appointments, their time and place and are they relevant for today's redeemed Israelite community? In Colossians 2:16-17 Shaul says: "So let no one judge you in food or drink, or regarding a festival or a new moon or Sabbaths, which are a mere shadow of things to come, but the substance is of Messiah." Many use this mistranslated scripture portion to disqualify the feasts of YHVH. However, the literal translation of these verses is: "Let no one be your judge in regards to food, drink, feasts, new moons or Sabbaths, but the Body of Messiah, for these are shadows of things yet to come but the body of Messiah" (emphasis added). Thus, these Torah observances are prophetic, and by keeping them we are proclaiming something that is yet to be revealed in YHVH's plan. For this reason the Body of Messiah is "to judge" and discern these matters, as the verse points out. To those who would argue that the Torah laws were nailed to the cross, and that Yeshua has fulfilled them all, we would say that the apostle wrote this after the death of the Messiah. In other words, yes, they are shadows…but… of things yet to come and therefore are prophetic in nature! "For the testimony of Yeshua is the spirit of prophecy" (Rev. 19:10b).

Plumbline For 2004

Judith Grobelny

“COURSE & PLUMBLINE” FOR 2004 – PHILIPPIANS 3:7-16

Over several days now, while waiting before the Lord to enter the New Year with Him, the following are the pictures/visions and words I believe He has given me for this time.

COURSE SETTING FOR 2004 – Philippians 3:7-16 (Amp.)
I believe the Lord was showing this would be the goal and the guideline together – a plumb line by which to measure the set of our hearts and lives. There is a call to press closer to the ideal that is Jesus Christ Himself, to be ‘found and known as in Him’.

7. But whatever former things I had that might have been gains to me, I have come to consider as [one combined] loss for Christ’s sake.
8. Yes, furthermore, I count everything as loss compared to the possession of the priceless privilege (the overwhelming preciousness, the surpassing worth, and supreme advantage) of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord and of progressively becoming more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him [of perceiving and recognizing and understanding Him more fully and clearly]. For His sake I have lost everything and consider it all to be mere rubbish (refuse, dregs), in order that I may win (gain) Christ (the Anointed One).
9. And that I may [actually] be found and known as in Him, not having any [self-achieved] righteousness that can be called my own, based on my obedience to the Law’s demands (ritualistic uprightness and supposed right standing with God thus acquired), but possessing that [genuine righteousness] which comes through faith in Christ (the Anointed One), the [truly] right standing with God, which comes from God by [saving] faith.
10. [For my determined purpose is] that I may know Him [that I may progressively become more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him, perceiving and recognizing and understanding the wonders of His person more strongly and more clearly], and that I may in that same way come to know the power overflowing from His resurrection [which it exerts over believers], and that I may so share His sufferings as to be continually transformed [in spirit into His likeness even] to His death, [in the hope]
11. That if possible I may attain to the [spiritual and moral] resurrection [that lifts me] out from among the dead [even while in the body].
12. Not that I have now attained [this ideal], or have already been made perfect, but I press on to lay hold of [grasp] and make my own that for which Christ Jesus (the Messiah) has laid hold of me and made me His own.
13. I do not consider, brethren, that I have captured and made it my own (yet); but one thing I do [it is my one aspiration]; forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead,
14. I press on toward the goal to win the [supreme and heavenly] prize to which God in Christ Jesus is calling us upward.
15. So let those [of us] who are spiritually mature and full-grown have this mind and hold these convictions; and if in any respect you have a different attitude of mind, God will make that clear to you also.
16. Only let us hold true to what we have already attained and walk and order our lives by that.

DO ALL THINGS AS UNTO HIM

Colossians 3:23
The developing theme for 2004 is that of our service to the Lord – that in our hearts and with our actions we should seek Him and honour Him in all things.
I SEE the bridegroom standing ready and there should now be an increase in the passion of the Bride as He draws near. Pray for such increase. Labour for Him, towards Him, see Him in everything – it is as if His shadow now rests over us.

CONTINUAL TRANSFORMATION BY THE RENEWING OF OUR MINDS
Romans 12:2
Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. THEN you will be able to test and approve what God's will is – His good, pleasing, and perfect will.

VISION OF THE FATHER COMING NEAR TO SMELL A ROSE
I asked Him what was special about this rose that drew Him near to enjoy its scent.
He replied that it was the fragrance of His Son that drew Him. That as we let Him work into our lives the essence of the scriptures quoted above; as we invite Jesus to truly transform and renew us; as we gaze upon His loveliness and become ever more like Him. THEN our very lives exude the fragrance of His life which draws us deeper into intimate relationship.

CALL FOR 2004
This is the year to count the cost, to see and know who and what you are following and where you will be lead. There is only ONE WAY, one TRUTH, and one LIFE worthy of your time, effort, and honour. For it is true that you can have only one master, choose carefully who or what you serve.
To find your way through great darkness you will need reliable light that can penetrate that darkness, only THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD can do that.
What would you give for these precious commodities? What price would you pay for them? Will you give your all? Just as Jesus gave all for you?
Will you lay down your whole life at His feet, to serve when and where He desires, knowing that He knows the plans He has for you and promises that they are good?
When Jesus was born in a lowly place, the WISE MEN came bearing gifts. Once again in this season, THE WISE will bring Him gifts. Gifts of their heart, mind, strength – the very things He is most worthy of.

RELEASE THROUGH SERVING
Exodus 2:16
The next step in Moses' journey came through an act of kindness. He defended the oppressed – the priest's daughters – and 'watered their flock'. It was in tending to the sheep that Moses moved into his future – wife, burning bush, release of the captives, etc.
Moses had been in a place of affluence and good standing, but when it ended for him, he tended sheep. HE SERVED; he served the lives and purposes of others! In the place of service God prepared him for true leadership.

FOR THE NATIONS:

England, United Kingdom.
Saw streets begin to move and flow like rivers, or like automated walkways that move people around. The houses and streets I saw looked like those on the outskirts of an English town or village, and the streets began to 'flow' past the houses. The sense I had in this was that there is going to be a move of God on the streets in England.
Greece
Seeds have lain dormant in Greece, sown even as far back as Paul's apostolic journeys. Sense a spiritual climate change that will cause these seeds to explode into rapid growth. There will be a change from passive to active in the spirit.

Northern America/Artic areas

I saw a huge wave, the type surfers would love to ride, curling right over and about to break.

Israel

Bathed in golden light, as when sand is blown from the dessert, and I saw sand blowing in over Israel from the East.

USA

This was the strangest picture of all! I saw rabbits appearing out of burrows all over the place. There was a sense that there has been underground multiplication going on that will suddenly become evident. I sensed also that there are 2 sides to this – new life breaking out in God's people, many who have been prepared out of sight, will be released, but also other underground activity, that had been hidden work of the enemy, would be exposed.

New Zealand

I saw again the picture that has been there for many weeks, of the ridges of mountains down the centre of the islands. They become strong backbone as people step up and join together (especially Maori and European), choosing to stand together in God for His purposes for the nation. There is no blueprint for this, it will be accomplished by individual obedience to undertake the tasks and call God brings, a loving-heart response to our King.

EYES OF THE LORD

I feel and see the powerful but gentle gaze of the Lord as He looks at His creation. He is inspecting and looking closely at this time, much as we would look for something we had lost.

It feels as if He is looking, examining, and weighing things very carefully. This is going to affect individual lives and ministries in this coming year. Do not fear this; it is an act of great concern and kindness.

NEW INDIVIDUAL RELEASE TO WORSHIP

Psalm 150:6

"Let everything that has breath praise the Lord."

I see many 'making music in their hearts' in a fresh ability to personally worship their creator. Not dependent on music or church worship, but in all places, and at all times, carrying a song of joyful praise in their hearts.

Pour Out For Breakthrough!!!

Aug 13, 2004

Many are in desperate situations and need a breakthrough. Some need a natural breakthrough — finances, relationships, jobs, family, etc. Others need a spiritual breakthrough — direction and purpose, destiny, divine connections, creative ideas, gifts, development of talents, etc. Some need a combination of both in order to experience breakthrough.

2 Kings 4:1-7 is an awesome testimony of the Lord bringing breakthrough in a desperate situation. Through this passage, the Lord is speaking to us of His creativity in meeting our needs, both naturally and spiritually.

A certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the Lord. And the creditor is coming to take my two sons to be his slaves." (2 Kings 4:1)

This woman was in a desperate situation. Not only had her husband (her companion, her protector and her provider) died, her sons, whom she loved and on whom she would depend, were about to be taken away and faced a dismal future. According to Mosaic law, debtors and their children could be enslaved to work off their debts. Most of us cringe at the thought of our children facing hardship, much less being enslaved to make restitution on our behalf.

This woman's response wasn't to worry or act out of desperation. She sought the Lord (Elisha was the Lord's spokesman.). Many reading this are in equally desperate situations. In every situation, especially desperate situations, we must seek the Lord.

As this woman sought the Lord's counsel, she didn't boast that her husband was a mighty man of God or that he had an awesome ministry (although he was part of a company of prophets). She boasted that her husband feared the Lord. Because this man feared the Lord, he knew the Lord's ways. He was a servant because he feared the Lord. The Lord desires that we serve, not be served (see Matthew 20:28). When we truly fear the Lord, we will walk in His ways ... serving Him as well as others, seeking to bring Him glory rather than receiving recognition, and responding with radical obedience to all that we hear and see from Him.

So Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you" Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house but a jar of oil." (2 Kings 4:2)

The symbolism in this passage is quite interesting. Oil is symbolic of anointing. Each of us is anointed for God's holy purpose. Whether you feel anointed is beside the point. If you have a relationship with our Father through His Son and are sealed with His Holy Spirit, then YOU ARE ANOINTED. Jesus, the Christ, was the Anointed One and His Holy Spirit dwells within us. We are the temple, or house, of His Holy Spirit.

The Lord desires that we recognize and identify what it is we have in our house. He desires that we recognize that the Anointed One has made a deposit in each of us. We have an "anointed Holy Spirit" residing within each of us. The same Holy Spirit that empowered Jesus to demonstrate compassion, heal the sick, raise the dead, teach with power, resist the devil, and walk in complete obedience resides in our house!

What has the Lord anointed you to do? What does He enable you to do? What talents, gifts and abilities has He placed within you? Recognize these and thank Him for them!

Then he said, "Go, borrow vessels from everywhere, from all your neighbors — empty vessels; do no gather just a few. And when you have come in, you shall shut the door behind you and your sons; then pour it into all those vessels, and set aside the full ones." (2 Kings 4:3-4)

We are a vessel filled with Holy Spirit. We are to find empty vessels and pour into them. We are to pour into the lives of others behind closed doors. In other words, this is to be done as a lifestyle ... and not as an act of "ministry." It's about building and nurturing relationships ... simply because we care and not because we get something (fulfillment, status, recognition) out of it. Freely we have received of Him, freely we are to give of Him (see Matthew 10:8).

Consider David. God gave him special abilities to shoot a slingshot and play a harp. Both of these talents would be used in significant ways by the Lord. David didn't mope around feeling insignificant because he wasn't the national slingshot champion or first chair in the Israeli Harp Ensemble. He didn't even aspire for these things. He also didn't begrudge these seemingly simple talents. David honed these skills on the back side of the desert as He was faithful in the ministries to which he was presently entrusted (tending sheep and ministering to the Lord). In fact, his only audience and recognition came from the Lord ... and a herd of wooly sheep.

David poured his best out to the Lord. We are to do likewise. Whatever talents, abilities, or skills the Lord has given us, we are to offer them back to Him. We do this by responding obediently to Him in using them ... even if it means pouring them out to Him behind closed doors.

So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured it out. Now it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not another vessel." So the oil ceased. (2 Kings 4:5-6)

This woman demonstrated a quality that the Lord desires — obedience. She responded exactly as she had been instructed. She didn't rationalize concerning what she'd been instructed to do, nor did she try to "help" by adding something to what had been spoken. We demonstrate our love and trust of the Lord by our obedience (see John 14:21) — doing what He says, when He says it, and exactly as He instructs.

If the Lord has given you a special talent as a musician, don't despair that you may not be a recording artist or a worship leader; give your talent back to Him by playing/singing unto Him (in true worship) behind closed doors. If the Lord has given you a desire to write, don't despair that you may not be an best-selling author; give your talent back to Him by writing letters to Him and others. If the Lord has given you prophetic gifting, don't despair that you may not be a recognized prophetic voice in your generation; give the talent back to Him by speaking forth His words of life as you hear them from Him ... either in intercession behind closed doors or to an unknown friendly grocery store employee. If the Lord has given you a desire to teach/preach, don't despair that you may not have a national audience; give your talent back to Him by teaching/preaching to an audience of one ... and then two ... and then three.

Whatever your gift or talent, give it back to the Lord by responding to His leading. As we obediently pour out of our anointing behind closed doors, the Lord will multiply and bless.

Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest." (2 Kings 4:7)

As this woman responded obediently to the Lord, He met her need extravagantly. Not only was her debt paid, she and her sons had money on which to live.

We serve an awesome God who is able to do exceedingly and abundantly above all that we can ask or think (see Ephesians 3:20). Not only does He desire to meet all our needs, He desires to bless us abundantly. He will bless us and we'll experience breakthrough ... when we respond obediently to Him ... and pour out our oil into empty vessels.

Passion of Christ

Joe Ortiz

The Passion of Christ is not about Anti-Semitism, it's about love!

I, like so many throughout the country, went to see The Passion, Mel Gibson's movie about Christ's last 12 hours leading up to His death. I walked away feeling so many great and deep emotions; however, I did not walk away with any anti-Semitic feelings, whatsoever!

Those who see this profoundly developed piece of cinematic art will feel its impact with varying emotions, and they will pick out certain parts that touched them more than others. Three things touched my heart. First of all, I did not go to see this movie to critique it for its biblical accuracy as many doctors of doctrine plan to do. Nor did I go see it to find out if I could find any anti-Semitic inferences. Being a student and a writer of theological matters, I went to see if the Holy Sprit would be revealing something new, or deliver to me a more profound message about the crucifixion of Jesus Christ that I may not be aware of.

While there were many lines in the movie that are not included in any of the gospels, I can see where Gibson used these as a means to segue and or transition the audience from one scene to another. I never believed from the outset this movie was going to be a verse by verse narrative of the Gospel. Had Gibson altered the Gospel, he would have been discredited for his accuracy way before the movie was released. I will add that the visuals and acting were superb, by all the actors, considering the dialogue was in both the Aramaic and Latin. As a cinematic effort, The Passion far exceeds any movies of this genre.

Speaking of visuals, this movie is definitely not for the faint-hearted. The blood and gore realism, especially where Christ is scourged for almost 15 non-stop minutes, gives new meaning to the verse, "By His stripes we are healed." This is the part of the movie that will be talked about most

There were three specific scenes that deeply touched my heart the most, and even brought tears to my eyes. The first part was when Peter denied Christ three different times, as Jesus had told him he would. In the movie, after Peter had definitely denied Christ three times, Peter weeps bitterly and mutters the line "I'm not worthy." This is one of the instances where Gibson takes license by putting a line in the movie that is not in any of the Gospels. But here I believe Gibson trying to convey a unique message in this scene (maybe about his own feelings about God), bringing the point home that many of us who been under great stress and danger have actually denied Christ, only to later repent and receive His forgiveness knowing full well we definitely are not worthy.

The other scene that grabbed me was when the first giant nail was hammered into Christ's hand. It is a well known fact that it was Mel Gibson's actual hand that was used in that scene. Gibson, who has confessed his motivation for making the film was in great part due to his admitted past indiscretions, and the subsequent grace he admits he experienced from his faith in God. Gibson pounded more than a nail in that scene. He was profoundly pounding the fact to the audience that the gospels clearly proclaim that all of humanity is responsible for His murder, not just Romans and Jews!

The most profound scene in the movie (for me, at least) was when Jesus cried out one of His last words before He succumbed, which was, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?"--which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" The biblically uninformed may hang their entire reason to not believe in the miracle that was performed by the death of Christ solely on these words. Many unbelievers claim this verse alone proves that even God turned His back on Jesus, and that He really didn’t die very bravely or nobly, but actually died an ignominious death.

While many people’s spirituality will be affected after seeing this movie, most unbelievers (and some believers, as well) will still walk away believing that Christ most certainly was a great prophet and yes He suffered greatly for sharing his beliefs of love and forgiveness. Many viewers of what some are calling a gratuitously gory movie may even feel a certain degree of remorse for a while, maybe even some sorrow and empathy for the way Jesus was crucified, and say, “Boy, that was so gory and what a painful way to die.” Unfortunately, they will have missed the point.

Even many believing and highly educated theologians will also miss the point. They are so zealous trying to gain points with God through their religious activities, they are unable to stop and explain to the uninformed what this plea truly stands for. Was Jesus crying out because he felt He was unfairly and painfully scourged and crucified? Granted, crucifixion is recognized by medical professionals as being possibly the most heinous and painful way to die. But, did God really abandon Jesus on the cross?

What we (all humanity) need to understand is that in Jesus’ last human cry from the cross, a fact that most people fail to understand (including Christians) is, that Jesus’ true suffering came not so much from the excruciatingly painful ordeal He experienced, but the pain He had to endure as He became sin itself! This reality is symbolically presented to us in the gospel and through the scene where the sponge of water the soldier placed on Jesus’ lips actually contained gall. Gall stands for extreme wickedness, productive of evil fruit, bile), another word for sin. This scene (in both the movie and the Gospels) tells us that at the exact time of His death, Jesus was actually drinking all the sins of mankind! If we can for the moment think about the worst sin we have ever committed, multiply that a thousand fold, and then multiply all the sins of every person who has ever lived throughout History, and then heap all of that putridity on one person (who had never sinned before), then physical death was nothing compared to what Christ was feeling at that exact moment. For the first and only time in His fleshly existence, Jesus was separated from God because God and sin cannot co-exist. Now, through Christ’s death, and especially His resurrection, those who believe can now have true fellowship with God! This is the point that Gibson’s film failed to deliver.

Yes, Gibson pounded the point home very clearly and in an extremely graphic manner, the painfully excruciating death which Christ experienced. This alone is enough to make some people focus on their spirituality, whether they are Christian or Jew. However, and more importantly, this movie is definitely not anti-Semitic. For those (Christians and or Jews) who want to patronizingly harbor doctrinal and religious differences, even to the point of inciting religious wars, you will forever fail to understand what Gibson's accounts of the gospel was trying to convey to the masses.

No, my friends, this is not an anti-Semitic movie, where non-believers or the uniformed can use to foster religious wars. This was merely a movie that showed (in an extremely graphic manner) the physical aspect of the death of Christ. If we (Christians, Jew, or otherwise) can accept the reality that the true passion of Christ was not so much the physical pain he endured, but the fact that He (God in the flesh) took upon Himself all of the sins of mankind, in order to set us free to spend eternal life with Him.

Patience Of God’s Saints

Arlette Pollard

Revelation 14:11-13

May peace like a river
Flow through your life
May God’s love be your deliverer
From the strong arm of strife
May faith be the steppingstone
That leads you on high
Upon mountains of old
Where God’s beauty unfolds
Within your life, as light
To chase away the night.

Here is the patience of God’s saints
Those who walk not by sight but by faith
To you it has been given
To know the truth and the way
Of everlasting, abundant life
Is to rest in the arms
Of God’s eternal love.

With so many standing all alone
Vainly trusting in idols
For truth to walk upon
When, like a volcano, they are set to erupt
Because of fires ignited by anger’s cruel control
These will find no rest for their troubled souls
And because where there is fire
There is sure to be smoke
God’s saints will be forewarned
Of their need to stay positioned in the Lord.

May joy like a song
Be bound upon your heart
May grace bring understanding
Of the gifts God desires to impart
May love be the offering
That is shared with one and all
So those who turn from the dark
As they hear the Father call
May find comfort in the arms
Of those who bear the Father’s heart.

> “And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up forever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image; and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them.” Revelation 14:11-13

> right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." Colossians 3:1-3
> "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Verily, verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; and hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man." John 5:24-27

"Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die" are the words that Jesus spoke to Martha as she met with Jesus concerning the death of her brother Lazarus. Martha had proclaimed to Jesus that she believed that her brother would rise again "in the resurrection at the last day." But the day she confronted Jesus, her desire was not toward another day, but on this day, that her brother would remain a living breathing person who stood beside her. It was to this belief that Jesus spoke words of great mystery regarding the resurrection of life according to faith in His holy name.

Jesus responded to Martha's understanding of the resurrection by proclaiming that, "I am the resurrection and the life." But, as Jesus proclaimed He was the resurrection and the life, was it possible for the veil, which the law placed before her, to be moved aside so that she could glimpse an understanding of what Jesus was saying to her? Was it possible that Martha could gain even the slightest understanding of what Jesus meant by saying, "I am the resurrection and the life" before the day God lovingly placed the Holy Spirit upon her soul? Until the day Martha was born again, not of the flesh, but of the Spirit, how would it be possible for her understand the mystery of the words Jesus spoke?

Martha was a devout and sincere seeker of God; yet, until the Holy Spirit, the breath of resurrection life, moved upon her heart and soul, she still lived in subjection to the Adamic nature. She still lived governed by the law, which "made nothing perfect". She professed Jesus was the Son of God. And although the hour of resurrection life was upon her, at that particular moment, as Jesus spoke those words to her, the Spirit had not been made available, so she could not fully understand the depth of the words Jesus spoke.

If Martha's heart and mind received the words Jesus spoke from the perspective of the law, how could she have an understanding of the mystery of a spiritual kingdom? How could she comprehend, without actually partaking of the Spirit, a spiritual kingdom, where God's love and holiness reigns supreme over a man's soul? Without the Spirit to help her perceive spiritual truths, how could she comprehend a spiritual kingdom that is accessed only through faith in Jesus? How could Martha even begin to have any understanding of God's eternal, spiritual kingdom, which extends beyond the borders of eternity, which was being made ready for God's precious saints?

When Jesus told Martha that if she believed in Him, that she would never die, He asked her "Believest thou this?" Martha responded to Jesus by saying that she did believe He was the Son of God. Martha professed with her mouth that she believed Jesus was the Son of God, but if her perception of the Messiah was void of Holy Spirit knowledge, then how could she understand the full implication of the words He was speaking?

After Jesus rose from the grave and walked the earth for 40 days, appearing to many men, did the truth that He was the resurrection and the life begin to pierce into the inner recesses of Martha's mind? Or would she never really understand the message of resurrection life until the day, in the upper room, the Holy Spirit was poured out? The day Martha partook of the Holy Spirit, was that the day the eyes of her understanding were finally opened to comprehend the words that Jesus had spoken to her?

Before Jesus' death and resurrection, perhaps Martha could not comprehend the power and authority that God had placed upon Jesus' shoulders. Perhaps, because of the humble way Jesus talked to her, not as a King superior to her in every way, but as a person concerned for her welfare and those that she loved, she did not understand the power that had been granted Him by God the Father. But after the Holy Spirit moved in power within her life, as God established His kingdom authority upon the throne of her heart, and as His love moved in great authority within her life, then she must have been filled with joy as she remembered how He had spoken to her, in a mystery, truths of great revelation.

The law had been the schoolmaster that had instructed Martha in the ways of the Lord. The law had revealed to her an understanding of what God considered acceptable behavior for those called of His holy name. But when Jesus appeared in her life, as the Lord established His kingdom authority within her life through the Holy Spirit, then what she had known in part would now be known in fullness. What she had known about God's desire for a people consecrated unto Him, would be experienced in fullness as God's Spirit moved in power and authority upon her life.

When God's kingdom rule was established within Martha's life, so that all thoughts and opinions that were contrary to the purposes of God were cast off the throne of her heart, Martha would no longer understand relationship with God as a child who looked upon earthen tablets for understanding. Through the leading and teaching of the Holy Spirit, who revealed God's kingdom purposes, she would be raised up a mature daughter of the Lord. As God wrote His holy commandments upon her heart, she would become a mature daughter, wholly submitted to the Father. It is through personal relationship, as God moves in power upon a man's heart through the Holy Ghost, that God's children are taught to understand the ways of holiness.

> "For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." Galatians 2:19-21

When the Holy Spirit established God's kingdom rule and authority upon Martha's heart and mind, she did not die physically. But many thoughts, desires and opinions contrary to God's purpose and desire for her, did die. Many perceptions regarding the Messiah, the law, the kingdom of God, and how she was to be used of God, would pass away in power and importance in her life. She would live her life in a physical body, adorned in the glory of God, the Holy Spirit, so that the life she now lived was focused on the high calling of Jesus Christ.

Martha would be blessed of the Lord, as the Holy Spirit moved in power in her life, mortifying the deeds of the flesh, so that she lived wholly submitted to the Father. No longer her will be done, but the Father's. Martha may have filled her days thinking that outward performance, in serving the Lord, was to take the higher road. And it may have only been as the Holy Spirit moved in power in her life, crucifying, putting to death thoughts contrary to the Lord's purpose for her, that she would understand that, though each person's outward activities differed, all were joined equally to the Lord, through the Spirit.

As Martha lived out the days of her life, there may have been times when she thought back upon the prophetic picture that Jesus had portrayed, the day when He called Lazarus forth from the grave. And as she remembered that day, was she struck by the awesomeness of God, that He would reveal a mystery of such great proportion to her? Did she store up within her heart those moments when God blessed her, when He allowed her to behold mysteries that prophets had spoken of? Did she continually give thanks to the Lord, that her mortal body was indwelt with the Spirit of the living God, so that death had been overcome within her life? She must have walked in joy, knowing that she had received the Spirit of eternal life, and the knowledge that forever she would dwell with the Lord on high.

> "Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who hath > abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.” 2 Timothy 1:9-10

Martha had been chosen to be a partaker of God’s eternal kingdom, not because of the good works she had done, which those under the law may have applauded, but because of her faith in Jesus. The day Jesus said to Martha, whoever “believeth in me shall never die”, to which she had responded, “I believe thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world” her position in the kingdom had been established. Though her good works in the sight of men may have been many, she was not chosen to enter into the kingdom of God because of works, but because of her faith in the truth that Jesus was the Son of God.

Because Jesus’ precious blood was not shed to purify those things patterned after heaven, but the “heavenly things themselves”, God opened the floodgates of heaven so that Martha and others like her could partake of His eternal glory. Now any man whose faith is placed in Jesus, the Son of God, is invited to partake of the living streams of water that flow directly from God’s throneroom. The living streams of God’s Holy Spirit bless each partaker with God’s promised gift of eternal life, abundant life. Men immersed in the Holy Spirit will personally experience the glory, power and love of the Father in heaven.

> “Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.” Matthew 11:28-29

Jesus promised men that if they would “come unto” Him, that He would give them rest. His message of rest must have confused those who stood nearby, because men understood rest to be designated for the Sabbath day. Men understood that on the Sabbath day they were to rest from their labor.

Because Jesus did not rest on the Sabbath day, it must have been confusing to hear the words Jesus spoke, as He proclaimed to be the Son of God, but did not follow the law understood by men. Jesus seemed to go against the law understood by men, when He healed on the Sabbath. He went against the law when He plucked ears of corn on the Sabbath and encouraged His disciples to join Him. Men may have wondered how Jesus could give any man “rest” if He Himself did not rest on the Sabbath day. And why did Jesus proclaim that on the Sabbath day, “My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.”

Perhaps the rest Jesus spoke of did not pertain to a particular day, but to a position of faith, where men no longer have to perform outward acts and rituals to be found acceptable in God’s eyes? Perhaps the rest Jesus spoke of was when men understood they were found acceptable in God’s eyes, not because of what they had done for God, but because of what He had done for them. Perhaps rest is in the knowledge that a man’s sins are forgiven because Jesus’ blood, which was shed for them, has made restitution for their sins, redeemed them from the grave, so they can live eternally in His sight.

When a man is adorned in robes of righteousness, the Holy Spirit, then will a man experience the rest of God, finding in God there is peace for his soul. It is through faith, and being filled with the Spirit, that God will help him understand that he is acceptable in God’s eyes, not because of anything he has done, but because of what Jesus Christ has done for him. It is through faith that a man will experience peace for his soul, as he rests in the knowledge of God’s love toward him. A man adorned in the robes of righteousness, whose sins have been washed and made clean by the blood, does not need to continually offer up sacrifices for his sins, he may rest from those types of labor.

> “Then said they unto him, what shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” John 6:28-29

A man, whose faith in found in Jesus Christ, will rest in the knowledge that he is acceptable in God’s eyes because Jesus has paid the price for his redemption. Jesus proclaims that the “work” the Father asks of those called of His holy name, is that their faith be placed entirely upon Jesus Christ. Those who do the good works of God will place no other name above God. Those who do the good works of God will "labor not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life."

> "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." Hebrews 4:10-11

There had been a day when Jesus had entered the house of Martha and Mary. Mary, Martha's sister, had sat at the feet of Jesus, while Martha "was encumbered about much serving." Mary's position was to rest at the feet of Jesus, while Martha's position before the Lord was to be found doing much serving. Martha's position was different from her sisters. Martha thought her actions were more needed, and therefore superior to her sisters. The thoughts she thought upon influenced her to go before the Lord, and complain to Him about her sister.

Instead of the Lord agreeing with Martha, that yes, her actions were more needed and thus superior to her sisters, Jesus told her, "Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: but one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her." Martha did not serve the Lord with her mind at peace, rejoicing in the knowledge that the Lord Himself had entered her home. Instead Martha's heart and mind were troubled, as she thought upon what was the better way to serve the Lord. Mary sat at Jesus' feet. She was at peace because her thoughts were focused upon the Lord, and the fact that He had graced her home with His presence.

After Jesus ascended on high, taking captivity captive to His beauty and grace, and after the Holy Spirit was released from God's throneroom on high, so that Martha was filled with God's glory and majesty, Martha would forever enter into God's rest. From that moment on, it wouldn't matter if Martha was serving four hundred, or all alone picking corn on the Sabbath, she would be at rest; she would be at peace with the Lord and with others. Because from the moment the presence of the Lord made His home upon her heart, her focus would be upon Him. She would be able to sit at His feet, at rest, no matter what activity the Lord called her to perform.

God asks His children to labor to enter into His rest. He asks them to seek Him with a sincere heart, so they can, along with Martha, proclaim, "I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God." For whoever seeks Him, shall find Him, and receive their reward. Those who in faith call upon Jesus, will receive their reward of eternal life, resurrection life, which begins the moment the Holy Spirit establishes God's kingdom upon a man's heart.

When the Lord makes His home upon a man's heart, he will be taught of the Lord, how to rest in His arms of love. He will be taught of the Lord, how to do all things unto God, as the Spirit crucifies, puts to death, thoughts and desires contrary to God's good purpose. A man at rest in the knowledge of God's power, authority, goodness and mercy, will understand that God will be faithful to lead, teach, direct and guide him each step he takes in life. His good works of faith toward God will follow him each step he takes in life. And when a man walks with God in His kingdom of righteousness, submitted to His will, he will be rewarded with "peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost."

> "For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him." Hebrews 2:2-3

The works of the flesh that war against the Spirit are; adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, strife, envy, murder, drunkenness, and the like. And they, who do such things "shall not inherit the kingdom of God." Men, who do not enter into God's kingdom of righteousness because of unbelief, will walk according to the flesh, and the works of the flesh they will do. When the Spirit has not established God's kingdom rule and authority upon a man's heart, he will not partake of the holy fires that are contained within God's love. Without God's Spirit moving in power upon a man's life, the works of the flesh will continue to dominate his thoughts and actions.

A man, who has not entered into God's rest because of unbelief, may at times be compared to a volcano, which is set to erupt. He may appear outwardly, at times, to walk an orderly peaceful life. But within the inner recesses of his heart and mind, anger, rebellion and frustration with his life, are like the hot magma within the volcano. A man's anger, just like the heated magma, must be released at some point. When the lava, (called magma while still under the earth), is released into the air, ash and rocks are spewed forth, bringing destruction to whatever lies within its path, just as the words and actions of a man who spews forth his anger and frustration can cause destruction to whatever lies within his path. The smoke can be compared to the words and emotions behind his torment that ascends upward. Until he turns to the Lord, and cries out for God to heal his unbelief, his life will lay barren of purpose and hope.

How great a gift is God's Holy Spirit, which is able to still the storms that wage havoc in a man's life. Though for a time a man may suffer, as God's purifying Spirit does its perfect work in his life, he can be assured that at the appointed time, God will establish and settle his soul in peace. To those whose flesh is crucified, so that they live wholly devoted to God, blessed are their names in heaven. The angels rejoiced to see the day that God's glory would be poured out in great measure, bringing many sons into conformity to the Word. May those who love God's name be found with praise upon their lips, because of what God has done for them.

> "Who will render to every man according to his deeds: to them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, eternal life: but unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; but glory, honor and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile." Romans 2:6-9

Pollyanna Prophecy

Dale Sides

Oct 13, 2004
While writing on the subject of iniquity recently, I observed a verse regarding prophets and the words they speak to people. When I saw it, the Holy Spirit bore witness to me to write about this subject and to send it as a word of admonition and warning to my Brothers, the Prophets. By using my pen as a sword, I hope to share what I believe the Lord wants me to impart to you and the body of Christ. As this cuts deeply into the body of Christ, my hope is that this surgery removes only the canker, and as a result, leaves a more healthy body. No one enjoys surgery – it always hurts. Sometimes, however, it is necessary.

A particular section of scripture that speaks to all people and prophets alike is from Ezekiel 14. It reports of a condition that frequently happened then, and is frequently happening now across the body of Christ. It deals with prophets prophesying "Pollyanna" messages to people, when these people actually need confrontation from God regarding their sins, iniquities and transgressions.

"Therefore speak to them, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God: Everyone of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, and then comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him who comes, according to the multitude of his idols,'" Ezekiel 14:4

God will make an example of the person who goes about trying to get a confirmation of his own righteousness while having idols set up in his own heart.

"I will set My face against that man and make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of My people. Then you shall know that I am the LORD" Ezekiel 14:8

God's judgment is not just against the people that inquire of the prophets, but against the prophets themselves too.

"And if the prophet is induced to speak anything, I the LORD have induced that prophet, and I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel". Ezekiel 14:9

This verse says that if the prophet, in his heart, is inclined to just roll with the flow and not speak for God, that God Himself will give the word to the prophet, and that afterward He will destroy him and his ministry.

I have noticed, both in the United States and abroad, that there is nothing new under the sun with regards to this scenario. People are lining up by the droves down church aisles for "Pollyanna" prophecies that promise "peace," goodness, and absolutely no consequences. Verses in the previous chapter of Ezekiel refer to this as well.

"My hand will be against the prophets who envision futility and who divine lies; they shall not be in the assembly of My people, nor be written in the record of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter into the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the Lord God. Because, indeed, because they have seduced My people, saying, 'Peace!' when there is no peace – and one builds a boundary wall, and they plaster it with untempered mortar." Ezekiel 13:9, 10

These prophecies, in other words, are like walls built with untempered mortar. They will not stand.

Now these are strong words, and some may say that they apply to Old Testament prophets and not to New Testament times. However, God did not change, nor did His heart toward His people when Jesus came and made the Word of God incarnate. False prophets are not reserved for the Old Testament only.

But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction. And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed. By covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words; for a long time their judgment has not been idle, and their destruction does not slumber. 2 Peter 2:1-3

The problem is the same in both the Old Testament and the New Testament – false prophets are more interested in covetousness than in righteousness. They exploit people for a price. They prophesy to bless the people and not God. They have one hand on the person's head and the other one on their own wallet. Prophesying over people is a lucrative business. The documentation for this is Balaam, or the palm reader with the blinking lights on their house, or the psychic on the 1-900 line. These examples, however, are not wolves in sheep's clothing; they are blatantly advertising that they are for hire. The dangerous part is when false prophets disguise themselves as "real ministers."

Let's be quite frank. The Bible warns against false prophets in the Old Testament, the Gospels, the Book of Acts, the Pauline Epistles, the Leadership Epistles, in the Epistles of John, Peter and the Book of Revelation. Let's not act as if they do not exist now.

Prophets are standing in line, waiting to be called, to come to church and prophesy over the congregation. Often they say, "We want to teach your church about personal prophecy and we will demonstrate our anointing by prophesying over the people in the church."

(Pastors and church leaders, if you bring in this type of ministry to your church, you had better make sure these individuals are operating from the Spirit of God, or else you are going to end up with a bunch of demonized people operating spirits of divination that they received from these "prophets" who are dressed in wool suits.)

To the Prophets:

I honor you for your submission to the Word of God, but brothers you cannot guarantee that a word will come from you just because you show up. Revelation prophecy comes by the will of God (1 Corinthians 12:11; 2 Peter 1:21) and you cannot guarantee you will receive it. Spirits of divination are lining up to use you too. (Remember Balaam.) You are a spiritually sensitive person and these demons would love to get their hands on you and get their words through you. The greatest way for a false prophet to arise is for a genuine one to take a wrong turn.

To safeguard against this deception, remember that you are God's spokesperson and not for hire by a church or a person. The Bible chronicles much more prophecy concerning consequences for disobedience than it does for promises of blessings and prosperity.

Please take heed to this admonition. If these words are an offense to you, then most probably you have sinned in these matters. No genuine prophet of the Lord will balk at having his prophecies judged by other prophets. Are you above reproach?

A number of years ago I was in India hosting an Apostle's Conference and one of them asked me if I had a word for him at the end of the meeting. I was about to tell him "no", but the Holy Spirit told me that I was supposed to speak a word to him. When I began, a line quickly formed for others to "get in on the blessing." The only problem was that the word was not a blessing; it was a word of warning.

I did not "conjure" the word but spoke it accurately as the Holy Spirit gave it to me. Here was a mighty man of God standing before me; one of great acumen, reputation and accomplishment. But he was also a son of God and not above reproach. I must admit that I was a little hesitant to speak the word, but I did in the face of representing God and not myself. The word was a judgment of premature death if he did not control his appetite and lust for food. In a defensive posture, he began to argue with me. I told him to take it up with God. As he fell to his face in repentance, the line of others wanting a blessing dispersed instantly. Maybe other lines would not form so quickly if the prophecies were not all "Pollyanna."

I have heard a wonderful minister and renowned prophet from the United States say, "I am not a gloom and doom prophet." Wouldn't it be better to simply say, "I am just a prophet committed to speak as the Lord commands"? This illustrates the point exactly. Do you as a prophet have a predetermined mind-set before opening your mouth?

As indicated by the account in Ezekiel—if people have un-reconciled iniquities and transgressions in their life, they need to be confronted. They do not need to paste a plastic blessing over the corruption.

"Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their hearts, and put before them that which causes them to stumble into iniquity. Should I let Myself be inquired of at all by them?" Ezekiel 14:3

Your job is to speak to them as Ezekiel, a true prophet, did.

"Therefore speak to them, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God: Everyone of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, and then comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him who comes, according to the multitude of his idols, that I may seize the house of Israel by their heart, because they are all estranged from Me by their idols. Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: Repent, turn away from your idols, and turn your faces away from all your abominations.' " Ezekiel 14:4-6

Anyone can speak "Pollyanna" words of blessings and swoop down on the spoils and act as if they made something wonderful happen. It takes integrity and real belief in the Spirit of God leading you to speak words of correction, reproof or even a rebuke.

As a prophet, you cannot dictate what you will speak because it comes by the will of God. You can, however, determine the mind-set you carry when you operate in this office. Do not be as the prophets in the time of Ezekiel and prophesy "peace" when the person has un-reconciled iniquities in his or her life.

Make sure that you do not carry the reputation of "bless the mess" or "doom and gloom." Be obedient to speak the words the Lord gives you. When people hear words of reproof, as you are directed by the Lord, it will be a blessing to them when they obey because they will be reconciled to God.

Do not fall into the snare of being a "people-pleaser." Read, judge and spiritually discern the next two verses from Ezekiel 14 and make your determination about "Pollyanna prophecy."

"And they shall bear their iniquity; the punishment of the prophet shall be the same as the punishment of the one who inquired, that the house of Israel may no longer stray from Me, nor be profaned anymore with all their transgressions, but that they may be My people and I may be their God," says the Lord God. Ezekiel 14:10,11

Prophet? Or Profit!

Don Hawley

October 31, 2004

Note: Because I don't want this item to sound like a personal vendetta, I'm replacing actual names with letters of the alphabet. Some of you will know precisely who I am referring to, and some will not. In either case, I believe this information is valuable for the critical time in which we live.

I'll begin with a bit of background material on my favorite person in the Old Testament, the prophet Elijah.

Elijah
The final words of the Old Testament must be considered important.

"Look, I am sending you the prophet Elijah before the great and dreadful day of the Lord arrives." Mal. 4:5.

This passage is quite clear, and Jesus confirmed it's message in the New Testament.

"His disciples asked, 'Why do the teachers of religious law insist that Elijah must return before the Messiah comes?'

"Jesus replied, 'Elijah is indeed coming first to set everything in order.'" Matt. 17:10, 11.

Now remember that Malachi prophesied Elijah would return before "the great and dreadful day of the Lord." In prophesying about the future, Jesus also spoke about that day.

"The time will come when you will see what Daniel the prophet spoke about: the sacrilegious object that causes desecration standing in the holy place"--reader, pay attention! "Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. A person outside the house must not go inside to pack. A person in the field must not return even to get a coat. How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for mothers nursing their babies in those days. And pray that your flight will not be in winter or on the Sabbath. For that will be a time of greater horror than anything the world has ever seen or will ever see again." Matt. 24:15-21.

That day came to pass when in 70 AD the Roman armies surrounded Jerusalem and finally captured it. It truly was a time of great horror. History records that the crosses holding dying Jews were so thick it was like a forest.

Had Elijah returned before that event as Malachi predicted? Yes indeed, according to Jesus.

"I assure you, of all who have ever lived, none is greater than John the Baptist. Yet even the most insignificant person in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he is! And from the time John the Baptist began preaching and baptizing until now, the Kingdom of Heaven has been forcefully advancing, and violent people attack it. For before John came, all the teachings of the Scriptures looked forward to this present time. And if you are willing to accept what I say, he is Elijah, the one the prophets said would come. Anyone who is willing to hear should listen and understand." Matt. 11:11-15.

So Christ referred to John as "Elijah." Was John actually the resurrected prophet of the Old Testament?

"This was the testimony of John when the Jewish leaders sent priests and Temple assistants from Jerusalem to ask John whether he claimed the be the Messiah. He flatly denied it. 'I am not the Messiah,' he said.

"'Well then, who are you?' they asked. 'Are you Elijah?'

"'No,' he replied.'

"Are you the Prophet?' 'No.'

"'Then who are you? Tell us, so we can give an answer to those who sent us. What do you have to say about yourself?'

"John replied in the words of Isaiah 'I am a voice shouting in the wilderness, Prepare a straight pathway for the Lord's coming!'" John 1:19-23.

In other words, for those who could grasp it, John the Baptist was Elijah returned as promised. Not in the flesh, but with the same kind of message that Elijah preached.

So let's go back to the time of Elijah the prophet and refresh our minds as to his mission. You can read it in detail in your Bible; I'll merely pick out passages pertinent to our present discussion.

Elijah's great confrontation
In the third year of a deadly drought, Elijah presented himself to wicked King Ahab according to the Lord's command. Ahab blamed the drought and resulting pain on the prophet, but Elijah wasn't about to accept the blame.

“I have made no trouble for Israel,” Elijah replied. “You and your family are the troublemakers, for you have refused to obey the commands of the LORD and have worshiped the images of Baal instead." 1 Kings 18:18.

Then Elijah called for a showdown--in one of my favorite portions of Scripture.

"Now bring all the people of Israel to Mount Carmel, with all 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of Asherah, who are supported by Jezebel.
"So Ahab summoned all the people and the prophets to Mount Carmel. Then Elijah stood in front of them and said, 'How long are you going to waver between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him! But if Baal is God, then follow him!' But the people were completely silent.
"Then Elijah said to them, 'I am the only prophet of the LORD who is left, but Baal has 450 prophets. Now bring two bulls." Vs 18:19-23.

It was O.K. corral time in the Old Testament.

"Then Elijah said to them, 'I am the only prophet of the LORD who is left, but Baal has 450 prophets. Now bring two bulls. The prophets of Baal may choose whichever one they wish and cut it into pieces and lay it on the wood of their altar, but without setting fire to it. I will prepare the other bull and lay it on the wood on the altar, but not set fire to it. Then call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD. The god who answers by setting fire to the wood is the true God!' And all the people agreed." Vs. 22-24.

The false prophets shouted, danced wildly, and cut themselves until their blood gushed out. No fire; nothing. Elijah suggested that perhaps their god was on vacation, or in the bathroom.

After repairing the altar of the Lord, and thoroughly soaking his sacrifice with water, Elijah called on the one true God.

"'O LORD, answer me! Answer me so these people will know that you, O LORD, are God and that you have brought them back to yourself.'
"Immediately the fire of the LORD flashed down from heaven and burned up the young bull, the wood, the stones, and the dust. It even licked up all the water in the ditch! And when the people saw it, they fell on their faces and cried out, 'The LORD is God! The LORD is God!'" Vs. 37-39.
In the sight of such divine power the people collapsed, no doubt more from fear than adoration.

Elijah wasn't into the "political correctness" so prevalent today.

"Then Elijah commanded, 'Seize all the prophets of Baal. Don't let a single one escape!' So the people seized them all, and Elijah took them down to the Kishon Valley and killed them there." Vs. 40.

Jezebel

Only hours after his tremendous triumph over the forces of evil, we find God's champion Elijah running off into the desert like a frightened child! What so struck terror to the heart of this mighty warrior? A great army fielded by Ahab? No, he was petrified of one single person--Ahab's wife Jezebel. She was very unhappy to have her private corps of prophets slaughtered, and proclaimed she would have Elijah's head within 24 hours.

When the ship taking my family to the mission field docked in Beirut, Lebanon, we took a taxi into the mountains between Beirut and Damascus. This now is a Muslim terrorist training area, but it was peaceful back then. The ancient ruins at Baalbek, although unknown to most, are among the greatest anywhere on earth.

With the help of a guide, we were able to peel back centuries of history. The most recent construction was put in place by the Arabs, and I couldn't help but note it was relatively crude.

The Roman ruins are breathtaking, and the empire actually built greater buildings here than they did in Rome. Only six of the mighty pillars of the Temple of Jupiter remain standing, and one has to do a lot of backing up to get them into the camera lens finder. It boggles the mind to imagine 54 such columns, six stories high, holding a massive roof over all. The largest stone blocks ever quarried went into the temple, the greatest nearly 100 tons, and they fit together perfectly without mortar. The Temple of Jupiter was under construction for 150 years, and never completed.

Also impressive are the beautiful ruins of Greek temples that once graced the landscape.

Finally, our attention was called to those who first selected this as a holy site for pagan worship, the Phoenicians. These people were ethnically identical to the Canaanites. Legend has it that this site was the birthplace of the heathen god Baal. Baalat was the female version of the god Baal.

Baalat was known as the "queen of the gods." With all this in mind I have to believe that Jezebel, an ardent devotee of Baal, must have journeyed by royal caravan to worship at Baalbek.

Jezebel suffered a well-deserved end. She was mangled to death under the hooves of Jehu's horse, and her body eaten by dogs. However, like Elijah, she too makes a return in the New Testament. The Son of God said to the Church in Thyatira:

"But I have this complaint against you. You are permitting that woman--that Jezebel who calls herself a prophet--to lead my servants astray. She is encouraging them to worship idols, eat food offered to idols, and commit sexual sin." Rev. 2:20.

More about Jezebel later.

Further developments

All that I have outlined up to this point has been an introduction to what is happening in our own day. According to the apotelesmatic principle, a prophecy in the Word of God sometimes admits of more than one fulfillment. In other words, possibly we can learn valuable lessons from the times of Elijah.

One day the disciples of Christ asked their Master a pertinent question.

"Will there be any sign ahead of time to signal your return and the end of the world?" Matt. 24:3.

Jesus replied with a long discourse on what to expect in the days just before his return. Since many of us believe we are living in that time, how foolish we would be not to search his discourse for valuable information. Let's note a text we quoted previously.

"The time will come when you will see what Daniel the prophet spoke about . . . that will be a time of greater horror than anything the world has ever seen or will ever see again. In fact, unless that time of calamity is shortened, the entire human race will be destroyed. But it will be shortened for the sake of God's chosen ones. Matt. 24:15, 21, 22.

Remember that the last text in the Old Testament prophesied two things:

1. Elijah would return.
2. That would be followed by a great and dreadful day.

We noted that the Elijah message of repentance and turning to the Lord was preached by John the Baptist. And in 70 AD a "dreadful" slaughter of the Jews took place as the Romans captured Jerusalem.

According to Matt. 24:15 the prophet Daniel also foresaw that great time of destruction.

However, what happened in 70 AD couldn't be the final fulfillment of Malachi's prophecy, because Jesus said that it would be such a "time of horror" that the lives of the entire human race would be in jeopardy. The Roman attack on Jerusalem was merely a Middle East affair.

So, in our own day we should look for the final fulfillment of Malachi's prophecy. Before the final cataclysm that involves the entire world in unprecedented trouble, we should expect the return of Elijah. Will our "Elijah" be an actual person as was John the Baptist, or will it be some group with a clarion call to repent and turn to the Lord? We should know before long.

Now that we have tied Elijah's day with our own, we would expect to see similarities between the two eras. And we do.

Back then there was a lot of wickedness in high places, and governments today are thoroughly corrupt. Our own crisis approaches.

The records says that when it came to choosing between good and evil the "people were completely silent." People today are not much interested in making a real choice, even among those who profess to follow the true God. They are apathetic, lukewarm. God says he wishes they were either hot or cold. (See Rev. 3:14-22) Elijah's task, once again, will be to force the issue.

Jezebel

Jezebel is back and a real power to contend with. Decent people are happy that women have been accorded a respect and appreciation long withheld. However, in many cases the scale has tipped in the other direction. Often the Christian man is no longer the proper head of the family.

A few years ago I belonged to a small congregation that came under attack from a woman exercising a strong Jezebel spirit. She drew many unsuspecting women after her in a way that caused many marriages to waver. She related a dream she had, showing that the male leaders of the congregation were really disreputable creatures. They were just wimps, and she could do a much better job of leading out.

When three of us in leadership positions met for a weekend of prayer and consultation, two of us came under heavy physical attack. When I checked in with my physician he--as I anticipated--found no physical cause for my illness. Finally the Lord gave me a startlingly clear prophetic dream that confirmed what I had suspected. This woman, who considered herself a super saint, actually was being manipulated by a powerful Jezebel spirit.

A confrontation with leadership was initiated, and the woman left. Peace was restored to the congregation, marriages restored. Beware of Jezebel; she's back.

Prophets today?

Although we have been living in the dispensation of the Holy Spirit since Pentecost, a shocking number of Christians don't really believe in spiritual gifts. No wonder the church tends to be weak and ineffective. No wonder the devil is able to do his "roaring lion" thing so often unopposed.

On Pentecost, boldly empowered by the Holy Spirit, the apostle Peter explained that what happened that morning had been prophesied by Joel. Then Peter also prophesied of our day.

What you see this morning was predicted centuries ago by the prophet Joel:

"In the last days, God said, 'I will pour out my Spirit upon all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams.

In those days I will pour out my Spirit upon all my servants, men and women alike, and they will prophesy.'" Acts 2:16-18.

According to the Word of God there should be prophets in this our day. And apostles as well. The work of the Lord on earth will not be finished until the Body of Christ has apostolic and prophetic leadership--whether the church at large recognizes that fact or not.

Christians who do not accept the idea of prophets ministering in the last days, are hardly in a good position to recognize Elijah when he arrives.

A word of warning at this juncture. With a clever devil on the loose, we can't afford to be gullible.

"Dear friends, do not believe everyone who claims to speak by the Spirit. You must test them to see if the spirit they have comes from God. For there are many false prophets in the world." 1 John 4:1.

I believe I have heard from some true prophets, though not many. I think of an elderly gentleman I will refer to as "A," considered by many as the "dean" of living prophets.

I have seen him prophesy with great accuracy concerning details about people in the congregation, people he has never met. One such person was my good friend Eoin Giller, so that takes care of the skeptic who says, "Oh, they must be plants." At an evening meeting Eoin placed a hand on A to pray for him, but they did not meet or converse. The next day A proclaimed in public:

"I want to address the man who put his hand on me last night. Although we didn't talk, God gave me a vision concerning you at that time. Tonight you are sitting near the back with your wife whose name is Ella. You moved here to the Northeast from Arizona, where in your ministry you became involved with Indian magical arts. Recently you were fired from a conservative organization somewhat like the Brethren. They meant it for evil, but it will work out for the good."

Earlier that very afternoon Eoin had been put out of his work with the Seventh-day Adventist denomination for getting too much involved with the ministry of the Holy Spirit!

Now I realize that the devil has a great store of knowledge about each of us, and can pass it along to his false prophets. How do I know that A's accurate prophesying came from the right throne? God has given us another way to judge.

"Beware of false prophets who come disguised as harmless sheep, but are really wolves that will tear you apart. You can detect them by the way they act, just as you can identify a tree by its fruit. You don't pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles. A healthy tree produces good fruit, and an unhealthy tree produces bad fruit. A good tree can't produce bad fruit, and a bad tree can't produce good fruit. So every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire. Yes, the way to identify a tree or a person is by the fruit that is produced." Matt. 7:15-20.

I've seen A ministering on several occasions, and feel I've had a chance to evaluate his character. He didn't run around shouting, "I am a great prophet." Instead he was very unassuming, which didn't keep him from speaking boldly for the Lord. His outstanding ministry extended over several decades, so there were books and videos recording his work. However, he didn't spend time pushing such information; it was just available. He didn't prophecy often, but when he did it was time to listen.

Another respected prophetic voice today is that of B, whose ministry is headquartered back East. He is best known for his writings, in which he boldly presents whatever the Lord gives him without concern for "political correctness." Several years ago my wife and I spent 7 days at one of his conferences, and we were richly blessed. Although forceful, he projects no sense of egoism.

A word about prophets. All prophets prophesy, but not all who prophesy are prophets. Consider the following three classifications:

1. As Peter pointed out at Pentecost, there will come a day when every Christian has the potential to prophesy, at least once in his or her lifetime.
2. Some have prophecy as one of their spiritual gifts. Such individuals likely will prophecy from time to time as the Lord directs.
3. A rare few have the office of a prophet. They may not prophesy often, but what they share will be significant and they speak with authority. Such a man was Elijah.

False prophets

This might be a good time to talk about discerning false prophets. Here are a few clues I have picked up on. A false prophet:

1. Is quick to claim the prophetic office, but actually is self appointed.
2. Loves to see his name in print, and can come up with a great new prophecy each week. (True prophets don't hear from the Lord all that frequently.
3. Is not merely interested in fame, but also fortune. Such an individual spends much, if not most, of his time pushing his books, videos, and cassettes.
4. Extols the piety and power of fellow false prophets, and expects them to return the favor.
5. Really believes in his own excellence, and may convince many others of same.
6. Seeks popularity, and thus usually brings a message the people want to hear. (True prophets more often have a message of dire warning.)
7. May know he is not a true prophet, though most seem self-deceived.

God has always been bitterly opposed to false prophets, and those who assume such a position are in grave danger.

“I have not sent these prophets, yet they claim to speak for me. I have given them no message, yet they prophesy. If they had listened to me, they would have spoken my words and turned my people from their evil ways . . .

“I have heard these prophets say, ‘Listen to the dream I had from God last night.’ And then they proceed to tell lies in my name. How long will this go on? If they are prophets, they are prophets of deceit, inventing everything they say. By telling these false dreams, they are trying to get my people to forget me, just as their ancestors did by worshiping the idols of Baal. Let these false prophets tell their dreams, but let my true messengers faithfully proclaim my every word. There is a difference between chaff and wheat! Does not my word burn like fire?' asks the LORD. 'Is it not like a mighty hammer that smashes rock to pieces?'

“'Therefore,' says the LORD, 'I stand against these prophets who get their messages from each other—these smooth-tongued prophets who say, 'this prophecy is from the LORD.' Their imaginary dreams are flagrant lies that lead my people into sin. I did not send or appoint them, and they have no message at all for my people,' says the LORD." Jer. 23:21, 22, 25-32.

It is one thing to speak in generalities, it is another to be specific. Without naming names, I feel a need to warn against false prophets ministering at the present time.

C is one of the highest profile ministers in the United States. At one time, I believe, he truly was a power for the Lord, but notoriety seems to have turned his head. My wife and I used to send $40 a month to his ministry, but no more.

A few years ago my wife and I drove to Seattle for one of this individual's big meetings with thousands in attendance. We found seats in a balcony near the back, and just below us on the main floor were several seekers in wheelchairs. One man was lying on a small makeshift cot. We decided to particularly pray for this group as the evening proceeded.

The main objective of the evening seemed to be bringing in money for the ministry's newest overseas project, and much time was devoted to that endeavor. In a heavy-handed way, C let it be known he was after big money, even if it meant the giver had to go into debt (seed-sowing faith, you know). He urged people to come down front with a minimum gift of a $1,000 offering. That was bad enough, but what took place next was unforgivable.

A little elderly lady misunderstood, and eagerly brought her $10 offering up front. C proceeded to make a public spectacle of her. He made it plain to the crowd that he was after big bucks, and no one should insult God by bringing a small amount. Of course, according to my Bible, that little lady perhaps was bringing the largest offering in the sight of God. But what she got in return was humiliation.

That incident pretty much finished my interest in anything C had to say that night, no matter how boldly and smoothly it was presented. But there was more. Near the end of the show (and I use that word advisedly), nearly 50 men made a rapid and spectacular entry. Each was carrying an empty wheelchair, and one by one they were banged down across the front of the platform. The inference was clear; many people had been delivered from wheelchairs that very evening. Highly dramatic and effective. Except for the fact that not a one of the wheelchair patients below us had been touched in any way. I am forced to assume that the whole demonstration was a carefully orchestrated setup.

I'm embarrassed to admit it, but Bunnie and I attended another of this man's huge performances awhile later in Portland. As usual, after a considerable warm up, C made his flashy entrance, white suit shining in the spotlight. However, his grand entrance was slightly spoiled by a malfunction in the speaker system. We were seated near the control board, and saw the man working frantically to correct the problem. Instead of taking the matter in stride, C proceeded to humiliate this poor fellow in public as well. He said, "This guy probably won't have a job come Monday morning."

There was more, but perhaps you get the idea. Can you imagine the Savior acting in such a haughty, inconsiderate manner? I can't. This man thinks he's a prophet, but I don't count him in the ranks of the true ones.

D is another prophet known worldwide, whose headquarters is in Florida. I was considering flying to Florida to attend his meetings, but before I could do so he came to Portland for three days and nights. Bunnie and I were there anticipating a blessing the opening night. We never received it.

The service began with an hour-long harangue from D urging everyone to load up on his books, tapes, and videos. This was followed by nearly an hour pressing the congregation for heavy giving in the offering. Finally, he launched into a brief sermon, but by that time our eyes were glazed over. We couldn't think of any reason for returning another night. I was happy I saved the cost of flying to Florida.

Another very high-profile modern day prophet E has his headquarters in Canada. During his earlier years he was heavy into drugs, burglaries, physical abuse of his mother, sexual molestation, and did several stints in prison. However, he says that was all before he found Christ.

In 2002, his ministry being new to Bunnie and me, we drove to Canada for three days of "Miracles, Signs, and Wonders." E was joined by a well-known husband and wife prophetic team, and still another prophet who, reportedly, has been responsible for raising several people from the dead.

Starving sheep

Although the parking lot stretched for a city block, we had to drive around for some time before finding a spot to park. The sheep of God's pasture are hungry, starving. So eager are they for spiritual food, that they become gullible--easy picking for false prophets.

The opening night began with the four principles praising each other's power and goodness before the assembly. That lengthy process was followed by an equally long attempt to extract money. The female member of the ministering couple bellowed like a bull at the attendees, and made it plain that God would be insulted with any offering less than $100. I can't remember the actual sermon.

The next day was more of the same. There was a lot of talk about healing, but not only were the dead not raised, I didn't see a single case of what I would consider a verifiable healing. The "miracles, signs, and wonders" were all in the brochure.

That evening Bunnie wasn't feeling well, so I left her in bed at our hotel and went to the meeting alone. There wasn't a single empty seat in that large auditorium, and I had to stand behind the last row in the balcony. I hung in for about an hour, but finally couldn't take it any more. I did not sense the presence of God in that place.

Bunnie and I still had our hotel for a final day, so we bought some books at a Christian bookstore and spent our last day reading. That turned out to be a real blessing.

I think we have to consider that in Elijah's time the false prophets vastly outnumbered the true. Should we expect anything different today?

Significant group

There is a loosely-tied group of high-profile ministers that many consider to be today's true apostle/prophetic core. One must test them as individuals. I will mention one, perhaps the best known female prophet today. There is one aspect of her ministry that, along with her loudly shouting her messages, troubles me a bit. I have seen her minister in several locations, and her approach always seems to be the same. "God is particularly taken with the people in this area, and plans to especially use you in his final moves." Of course that goes over well with listeners, and she has an enthusiastic following.

I must mention one more prophetic voice holding forth today. F is a former Seventh-day Adventist minister, and I have been able to follow his present ministry from its very beginning. It is a fascinating progression.

F started a personal secular business, but it failed. Not only did it fail, but it left him more than a quarter-million dollars in debt. He stated on the Internet that he planned to erase this debt, and do good at the same time, by beginning a new Internet ministry.

It started out very simply, and for some time the first 1-3 pages of his transmissions urged readers to send in their money of support. The requests seemed rather blatant, but it worked. And as the funds rolled in he had a plan on how to invest them.

Instead of pushing his own wares, he began headlining the messages of the individual members of the apostolic/prophetic group I mentioned previously. Even now, each email transmission begins by urging readers to purchase the latest books offered by selected members of the group. This, of course, pleases the chosen individuals, and wins him more and more favor.

As his email list grew, and more and more money accumulated, he was able to help "sponsor" meetings of high-profile prophets/apostles. In other words, help with the finances. This was greatly appreciated, and F began to appear with some of those groups in public. The last time I heard, his email list was well over 100,000, and that must mean significant funds are available. He is now beginning an embryonic TV ministry of his own.

At first F was very meek, always holding others in the spotlight. But he has become bolder and bolder, and now makes it clear that he is prophetic. No matter whose message he is highlighting, he always introduces it with his own commentary.

It is apparent to me that F rapidly is becoming the gateway through which today's highest profile apostles and prophets will gladly pass to get before his large readership.* Perhaps it is significant that the name of his ministry prominently displays the name "Elijah." This bears watching.

Where shall we look?

If so much falsity is available, where shall we look for truth? God will be raising up his true last day prophetic voices, but we need the guidance of the Holy Spirit to discern them. One of the most impressive prophetic offerings I ever heard came from an unknown housewife in Battle Creek , Michigan.

I suppose some will find my message unduly negative and harsh, but so be it. We are entering the final conflict between the forces of good and evil, and it is a time to be on full alert. We need to apply the scriptural tests according to God's command. Only the indwelling Holy Spirit will be able to secure our feet on the sure path that leads to the Kingdom.

When faced with the daunting task of separating true from false, many just give up and ignore the problem. God has made it clear that we cannot afford to take that position.

"Believe in the LORD your God, and you will be able to stand firm. Believe in his prophets, and you will succeed." 2 Chron. 20:20.

Pursuit of Peace

Ron McGatlin

Many people are launching much force through many channels to take away peace. It seems we have entered into a season of terror. Troubling comes from many directions but always from people with an agenda, There is always one underlying reason for acts of terrorism and actions that trouble others. What is behind the desire of people who trouble other people? And is there things that should really trouble us and what could they possibly be?

There is only one basic reason for terrorizing or troubling others. That reason is always to control. To take control by causing or motivating someone to do something the troubler or terrorist wants them to do. A word for this kind of action when used to take some advantage of others is manipulation. It is an attempt to take control of people by taking control of their soul (mind, will, & emotions).

Every manipulative tyrant uses this form of control. Politicians and some preachers may call it stirring the people up but if it is troubling it probably is an effort to get people to do, to act, or perform some desired behavior. The enemy uses troubling fear to freeze or divert the energies of God's people or to cause them to act apart from the will of God in some way.

There truly is rest and peace in God. Greater strength and motivation comes through love and peace than through terror and troubling. Is it realistically possible for us to enter into that rest and peace in a season of troubling and potential terror attacks?

There is a new generation of sons of God coming forth on the earth that are walking in the peace of God regardless of earthly circumstances. These are those who will not break rank and can do great exploits of God. These are the ones known as Joel's army. There is no fear of man nor the devil in them because God is truly with them. How did they become that way? What is God doing to bring forth such an army? (Joel 2)

The reality of the substance of God has entered and filled their soul and body. They are the "Christ in you" generation.(Col 1:27) A generation of worshipers who live to be in the presence of God. Who spend their lives soaking in His manifest presence until there is nothing left of them and their soul is saturated with God. There only need is to be in the manifest presence. There only troubling is if the Holy Spirit should pull back His manifest presence from them.(John 14:21)(Psa 51:11)

Their affection is toward God and heavenly things. Their minds are stayed on God and His matters and His desires. Their personal desires have become so blended with God that they will walk in the world as Christ is in the world.(Col 3:2)(Phil 4:7-8)(1 John 4:17)

Soaking in the manifest presence of God empties us of all else and fills us with the fullness of the Father's love. The Father's pure holy love overwhelms and fills us. Pease floods our souls and there is no troubling nor terror all fear is gone - driven far away from us. We are kept in perfect peace consumed in His manifest presence.(1 John 4:18)

So now we know the "rest" of the story. The pursuit of peace is really the pursuit of the Father's love in His manifest presence.(1 Cor 14:1)

If God has a purpose in allowing terror attacks and troubling circumstances it is to turn us toward soaking in His manifest presence until we no longer exist in our troubling circumstances but live in Him and He in us in the realm of the spiritual - saturated in His love.

Look for the love - pursue love - it never fails.

Lots of love,
Ron

Prosperity Or Selfish Gain

Dec 9, 2004
Remain faithful in your walk no matter what you go through with others. Keep your heart right and live righteously , and I will bless your efforts. Everyone will pay the price for how they ministered to one another, whether it be out of a heart of love for the brethren or whether is was from a heart of seeking after gain. You lose and pay for your mistakes when you seek after worldly gain by using the brethren to make a profit.

Why do you follow after the multitudes who lust after riches, and at the same time use My word and the gifts I've given you as the tools in which you wish to profit by? I tell you this day that if you don't repent of using My people for your own gain that you will pay for your mistakes and greatly will you pay for from which you sow you will reap the fruit of.

This is the day that I am putting before you a choice to make. Will you continue in your dishonesty or will you repent and allow Me to prosper you? Don't you believe that My will for your life is prosperity and health? Then why do you strive to get ahead using worldly measures? Examine your heart whether you want to trust Me completely and be completely honest in what you are doing, or do you feel that you have to succeed on your own. For the error of your ways will find you out and you will lose in the long run.

I am talking about your finances this day. Are you in debt because you were careless in your measures of handling want? Cast all your cares upon Me for I desire to care for you. I want to take you from glory to glory if you will draw near and keep your eyes upon Me. Turn from mammon to Me once again. Yes, return to your first love, and I will bless you and those of your household. Yes, this is the day of repentance. This is the day to return........to check your heart, your motives and your love for one another. For without love you will not prosper in anything that you do.

Join together and seek My truth. Worship Me in the spirit of holiness, and I will bless you. Pay off your debt to one another. Be honest and dependable. Keep your word for it is better to say nothing than to say and not do. Do not allow the little foxes to spoil the vine. Stay focused on the basics of living a good life by watching your character. Do not be like the world, but follow Me for this is the day of repentance.

Put On The Lord Jesus Christ
Terry Suggs

Romans 13:10-14

Love does no wrong to one’s neighbor (it never hurts anybody), Therefore love meets all the requirements and is the fulfilling of the Law.

Besides this you know what (a critical) hour this is, how it is high time now for you to wake up out of your sleep (rouse to reality). For salvation (final deliverance) is nearer to us now than when we first believed (adhered to, trusted in, and relied on Christ, the Messiah).

The night is far gone and the day is almost here. Let us then drop (fling away) the works and deeds of darkness and put on the (full) armor of light.

Let us live and conduct ourselves honorably and becomingly as in the open light of day not reveling (carousing and drunkeness, not in immorality and debauchery (sensuality and licentiousness), not in quarreling and jealousy.

But clothe yourself with the Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah) and make no provision for indulging the flesh (put a stop to thinking about the evil cravings of your physical nature to gratify its desires (lusts).

Ephesians 2:10

For we are God’s own handiwork (His workmanship) ..Workmanship is translated from a greek word spelled poiema meaning that we are God’s poem, His workmanship and it is saying that it was created by an artist. We are created unto good works not through good works. The poem does not write itself.

We are recreated in Christ Jesus, born anew that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us (taking paths which He prepared ahead of time), that we should walk in them (living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live.

Ephesians 2:8-9

For it is by free grace (God’s unmerited favor) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ’s salvation) through (your) faith. And this salvation is not of yourselves of your own doing, it came not through your own striving, but it is the gift of God

Not because of works (not the fulfillment of the Law’s demands), lest any man should boast. (It is not the result of what anyone can possibly do, so no one can pride himself in it or take glory to himself.

God is in control of all that concerns us.

Romans 8:26,28

So too the Holy Spirit comes to our aid and bears up in our weakness; for we do not know what prayer to offer nor how to offer it worthily as we ought, but the Spirit Himself goes to meet our supplication and pleads in our behalf with unspeakable yearnings and groanings too deep for utterance.

We are assured and know that God being a partner in their labor all things work together and are fitting into a plan for good to and for those who love Godand are called according to His design and purpose.

Romans 8:29-32

For those whom He foreknew of whom He was aware and loved beforehand, He also destined from the beginning foreordaining them) to be molded into the image of His Son (and share inwardly His likeness, that He might become the firstborn among many brethren.

And those whom He thus foreordained, He also called; and those whom He called, He also justified (aquitted, made righteous, putting them into right standing with Himself). And those whom He justified, He also glorified (raising them to a heavenly dignity and condition or state of being)

What then shall we say to all this? If God be for us, who can be against us? Who can be our foe, if God is on our side?

He Who did not withhold or spare even His own Son but gave Him up for us all, will He not also with Him freely and graciously give us all other things?

Natural works and methods of men will not work in the kingdom of God. Flesh cannot not do it. Flesh cannot glory in God's presence or in any part of the works of God.

We are created unto good works not created through good works.

All we can do is have faith in the finished works of Jesus. Believe it and receive it.

To have faith is to receive what God has already provided and put aside for us when we were born into the family of God.

Everything you need has been reserved for us.

Philippians 4:19

And my God will liberally supply (fill to full) your every need according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

II Corinthians 1:20-22

For as many as are the promises of God, they find their yes (answer) in Him (Christ). For this reason we also utter the Amen (so be it) to God through Him (in His Person and by His agency to the glory of God.

But it is God Who confirms and makes us steadfast and establishes us in joint fellowship with you in Christ, and has consecrated and anointed us (enduing us with gifts of the Holy Spirit).

God said in Christ all the promises in Him have a Yes for the answer.

In the law of Moses it was sometimes no sometimes yes.

We are in Christ and in His Kingdom now.

All the promises are yes in Him.

He has appropriated and acknowledged us as His by putting His seal upon us and giving us His Holy Spirit in our hearts as the security deposit and guarantee of the fulfillment of His promise.

The burden is not on us when we have faith in the finished work of the Lord. God provided salvation, forgiveness healing and material things.

We cannot force God to do something for us by doing certain works or repeating the scriptures over and over. He cannot be manipulated into performing an act of grace.

We have entered into the rest of the Lord.

Hebrews 4:3,9-11

For we who have believed (adhered to, and trusted in and relied on God) do enter that rest, in accordance with His declaration that those (who did not believe) should not enter when He said, as I swore in My wrath, They shall not enter My rest; and this He said although (His) works had been completed and prepared (and waiting for all who believe) from the foundation of the world.

So then, there is still awaiting a full and complete Sabbath-rest reserved for the true people of God;

For he who has once entered God's rest also has ceased from the weariness and pain of human labors, just as God rested from those labors peculiarly His Own.

Let us therefore be zealous and exert ourselves and strive diligently to enter that rest of God, to know and experience it for ourselves, that no one may fall or perish by the same kind of unbelief and disobedience into which those in the wilderness fell.

For us there is a rest provided by God.

II Peter 1:3-4

For His divine power has bestowed upon us all things that are requisite and suited to life and godliness, through the full, personal knowledge of Him Who called us by and to His Own glory and excellence (virtue).

By means of these He has bestowed on us His precious and exceedingly great promises, so that through them you may escape (by flight) from the moral (rottenness and corruption) that is in the world because of covetousness (lust and greed), and become sharers (partakers) of the divine nature.

We are not limited to operating in the realm of the five senses. We are not limited to what we can see, smell, hear, touch, and taste.

We were born into the provisions of the heavenly realm. This is our inheritance in Christ Jesus. It is stored up for us.

Our faith can manifest what has already been accomplished for us by the Lord. Our faith brings it into manifestation.

The power of His name

Terry Suggs

In the name of Jesus

When we use the name of Jesus, we are saying that all that God is, is brought into our situation or circumstances.

This includes all of the titles and ways that God revealed Himself to His people.

Elohim – Unlimited strength, energy, might, power. Infinite strength. Absolute faithfulness. Divine Omnipotence.

Gen. 28, 3d1, 8, Exodus 2,6

Jehovah – Jehovah is above every other name of God. The eternal, self-existing one, without beginning, without end. God is now, what He always has been and what He will remain forever.

Exodus 6:3, Gen. 22

Adonai – Lord, Master, as in the relationship between a servant and master. Lord of Lords. Sovereign Master.

Gen 15: 1-2

El Shaddai – Almighty – The strong one. The God of power and might, sustenance, sufficiency, bountiful giver who makes fruitful.

Gen. 31, Isaiah 46, Gen. 17, Isaiah 66, Gen. 59

El Elyon – Most High God – Sovereign creator and owner of both the celestial and terrestrial worlds. Higher over all, above all, omnipotent and supreme. The strongest strong one, none is above Him. None is as great as He is in power or possessions in heaven and in earth.

Gen. 14, Gen. 15

El Olam – The everlasting God, Everlasting, God of the ages. From everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Gen. 21, Isaiah 40

El Roi – The God who sees. Behold the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear Him. I will guide you with my eye.

Gen. 16, Exodus 3:7-8

Jehovah Jireh – The Lord will provide, The Lord will see to it.

Gen. 22, Rom. 8:32, Gen. 21, Phillpns. 4:19

Jehovah Nissi – The Lord my banner (victory). The Lord shall fight for you. This name of God is associated with the conflicts of His people. A reminder that all power is with Him and all strength comes from Him.

Exodus 14, 15, Rom. 7:18, Rom. 8:37, 2Cor. 2:14

Jehovah Tsidqenu – The Lord our righteousness. The Lord is righteous. We trust in His righteousness alone. Righteousness is what we made or become in Christ.

Rom. 10:3, Jer. 23, Rom. 5:12, Psalm 92:15, Psalm 119,142

Jehovah Raah – The Lord my shepherd. As a shepherd leads and feeds His flock, looking after them with a watchful eye. So the Lord tends His own children. He shall feed His flock like a shepherd.

Psalms 23:1, Ezekiel 34:11-19, 1Kings 22, John 6:35

Jehovah Rapha – The Lord that heals. If you will diligently listen to the voice of the Lord God, and will do that which is right in His sight, will will listen to His commandments, and keep His statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon you, which I have brought upon the Egyptians. For I am the Lord that heals you. Moral ,Spiritual,

Exodus 17:15, Exodus 15:26, Numbers 12:23

Jehovah Shalom – The Lord My Peace. The word peace means wholeness, complete, perfect. The altar of sacrifice is where peace is found.

Jehovah Saboath – The Lord of Hosts (earthly and heavenly hosts). Hosts as of angels of God, The God of battles.

A Warrior.

Psalm 103, Deut. 4, Gen. 32, Gen 2, Colossians 1, Haggai 2:6-9

Jehovah Shammah – The Lord is present. The Lord is there. I will never leave you or forsake you.

Ezek. 48:35, Ezek. 10:18, Ezek. 11:22, Psalm 68, Gen. 28, Exodus 3, Matt. 28:19-20

By these different names God revealed Himself to His people in His Glorious Power, protection, provision.

He is:

Omnipotent – All powerful, infinite power.

Omniscient- All knowing – infinite in wisdom and understanding.

Omnipresent- He is everywhere present, everywhere active, without dependence on matter or space. God knows all that is taking place in His universe and controls all activities and all actions.

Sovereign God- God possesses and exercises supreme authority in all creation including man.

Eternal God- Infinite in existence, unbounded by space or time. God created time. He lives outside of time. Time, space, matter, energy and life came from God. All life depends on Him!

God is Holy- He is absolutely perfect and righteous and pure. The Lord swore by His holiness. That is His nature and essence. This gives us the fullest guarantee possible that He would not fail. Man changes, God doesn't change.

The goodness of God- Good is good unconditionally to all men.

The mercy of God – The outward manifestation of His pity and compassion by which He relieves the misery of the sinful and the suffering in their distress.

God's Love – Unconditional love, everlasting love. Jesus goave His life for our salvation.

You can trust anyone who will die for you.

God's grace – Underserved, unearned, unmerited favor, goodness, blessing, power, salvation, healing, and eternal life.

God is our Father.

These are all in the one name Jesus. It has pleased the Father that in Him may all fullness dwell. Colossians 2:9 For in Him lives the fullness of the Godhead bodily.

He is our high priest, our advocate before the Father.

Jesus is the name above every name that is named.

Just go in His name. Live in His name. Be healed in His name. Be blessed in His name. Be filled in His name. Be delivered in His name. Be set free in His name. Do miracles and signs and wonders in His name. Cast out devils in His name.

Take authority over every situation in His name. Take dominion in His name. Win the lost in His name. Be bold in His name.

His name represents all that He is.

Power Over The Power

Gary Todd-Coldiron

"Blessed be the Lord, who daily loads us with benefits…Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits." (Psalm 68:19, 103:2)

"And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through Your name. And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Behold, I GIVE YOU POWER to tread on snakes and scorpions, and OVER ALL THE POWER OF THE ENEMY: and nothing shall by any means hurt you." (Luke 10:17-19)

A duel for the ages is getting ready to commence. It will be a fight to the death between the dragon and his minions and God's people. Like any scheduled affront, both combatants will be supplied weapons. On one side, the devil will have restored power. He'll be given a key in order to procure reinforcements, a structured time period to battle in and the ability (power) to overcome his targeted enemy through the beast and scorpion-like locusts that rise out of the sea and earth:

"…I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit…there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: AND UNTO THEM WAS GIVEN POWER, as the scorpions of the earth have POWER." (Revelation 9:1,3)

"…Who is like unto the beast (that rises out of the sea)? Who is able to make war with him? …POWER was given unto him to continue forty and two months…And it was given unto to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and POWER was given him over all kindreds, and tongues. And nations." (Revelation 13:4,5,7)

God asks legitimate questions in Revelation 13:4: Certainly, He knows the answers to "Who is like unto the beast?" and "Who is able to make war with him?" already. I suggest that He asked the questions, though, because He wants His children to know the answers. Especially, in my case, that second one. So, who is able to make war with the beast? It's His Saints! Yes, it's a fact that Satan will have his power in the days ahead. Even in his defeated state, he is still "the Prince of the POWER of the Air" (Ephesians 2:2). The Anti-Christ and the released locusts will be newly endowed. But, nevertheless, God's end-times' people have and will have something better. They have power over the all the power of the enemy:

"…Behold, I GIVE YOU POWER to tread on snakes and scorpions, and OVER ALL THE POWER OF THE ENEMY…" (Luke 10:19)

Still, it appears that there's a point in this teaching that doesn't add up. For instance, the Lord finishes this promise by saying, "Nothing shall by any means hurt you." So, how is it that the enemy is constantly hurting Christians? I submit that it's because of the following truth: "The superior power that you possess will keep you unscathed, but only as long as you use it!" From my observation of present situations, multitudes are not using it. Therefore, they are being hurt.

The best defense is an aggressive offense

"And from the days of John the Baptist until the now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force." (Matthew 11:12)

During the fall of 2002, the Lord spoke to me during a prayer meeting and said that the Last Days' battle in the heavens was underway and that there were wicked angels under Satan's command already losing their place above and being kicked out onto the earth. Comparatively, He likened these strong Beings in size and power to our professional football players, saying that the demons we were used to encountering were more like a small boy in contrast. I was told that the Believers' intensity level had to be significantly increased if they desired to neutralize these fallen angels, and that the grade of force employed in the past would not be sufficient to better this higher level of grounded foes. The last instruction I received was to study the life of John the Baptist and to follow his unique example during this developing warfare.

That heavenly word has been proven as true over and over again since the day I first heard it. I don't guess any more: I know it's a fact. With that stated, allow me to ask you a question: "In the days ahead, are you going to overcome the enemy and be overcome?" I would argue that the choice is exclusively yours because God has given the overcoming promise of His word. Thus, I suggest that if you'll do nothing, you will be overcome. The devil has been given that power and the only way to beat him is by your offense. Consequently, by taking an aggressive attacking position through faith (I John 5:4) in the blood, the words of your testimony, and loving not your life unto the death (Revelation 12:11), you will undoubtedly overcome. Now, that may not fit into the soft-cushion theology of some, but just maybe the nonchalant belief system of many needs to be contested. Do you want to be in a sure position where nothing shall by any means hurt you? Then take power over all the power of the enemy. Your power is greater and it's mighty:

"For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds." (II Corinthians 10:4)

Concerning our text, so that you have no misunderstandings about what I am trying to convey, let me present it like this:

"Behold, I give you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and (if you will use that power) nothing shall by any means hurt you." (Luke 10:19)

Currently, what is identity of the power that we should attack?

"But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you. Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, AND SPOIL HIS GOODS, except he first bind the strong man? And then he will spoil his house." (Matthew 12:28-29)

The Biblical principle set by Jesus is to first bind the enemy and then spoil his goods. Know that Satan's goods are his power and his power is what you are ultimately after. That's because you have been given power over all the power of the enemy. If you take away the adversary's power, you've left him bound and impotent. Casting out and binding the devil is not enough; the decisive goal is to strip him of his power – to spoil his goods.

Understanding and considering this doctrinal premise, I recently asked the Lord how this information could be best made relevant in our day. He immediately answered and said, "The greatest power of the enemy manifest in the world today is Islam."

Consider that the power of Islam is hurting people everywhere. This hateful religion has declared war against the rest of the world, and it's been this way since the 8th Century. Throughout history, millions of Christians have died at the hands of deluded Muslims. These Saints were overcome unto death because they did not use their spiritual power over all the power of the enemy. If they had, nothing would have by any means hurt them. In places like Indonesia, the Philippines, the Sudan, Serbia, Ethiopia, Lebanon and many others, these killings are an ongoing fact. Presently, the United States is fighting against this evil (at least their extremists) in the physical, but that work is destined to bring only a partial success. If Islam is ever to be defeated, it will be through the diligent actions of a multitude of John the Baptist-type intercessors with an ongoing offensive mindset that is determined to bind the devil and spoil his religious goods.

Do you want Islam to suffer violence and end up in destruction? I do. I know that God does too. My friends: Have no sympathy for this false religion, which is far worse than any cult. Belief in it has sent and will send an innumerable crowd to a Christ-less hell. It will most likely be one of the main instruments for bringing about the massive amount of deaths incurred during the Great Tribulation. Its' belief system automatically puts half of its population in life-long bondage – women. It kills without mercy and spreads like cancer without resistance. And praying offensive-minded Christians are that only legitimate long-term successful opposition.

Where is your power located?

"Death and life are in the POWER of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof." (Proverbs 18:21)

It's a truth that the significant but lesser power of Islam is subject to the greater power of a Believer's words. That is how you've been granted power over the power. But not just any Believer's confession will do: Only those who love the principle of having this death and life power in their mouths will be effective. Look at the verse again: "They that love it shall eat the fruit thereof." Therefore, do you really love the fact that you have the power to respectively spoil evil and create life with your words? Will you count the cost and pay the price in a long, arduous battle (thereby proving your love) to win this kind of war? Have you comprehended that only through loving this fight will you be able to eat the fruit of its victory?

With that in mind, remember that true life comes through death (John 12:24). Jesus died and then was resurrected to life. When a Believer dies to himself, he receives life. Likewise, when you in faith speak death to something (as Jesus did to the fig tree), you have a right, no, an obligation, to follow that up with life speaking words of grace and then watch something beautiful grow from your justifiable words.

I sense there is presently a call being made in the land for fervent, unified intercession to arise within the body of Christ. I once had a vision of a man, standing in the middle of a whirlwind, violently chopping away with an axe at the roots of unfruitful trees. I then heard words of instruction saying, "Rise up and cut it off." Concerning the rising tide of Islam, I perceive that it's now the hour to "Rise up and cut if off." Like the physical "War on Terror," the spiritual "War on Terror" may take many years to win. This spiritual conflict between good and evil will surely require the front lines being manned by soldiers of God with patient determination and resiliency. Are you such a committed warrior?

Intimately, deep in the secret place of their hearts, I believe the Lord is wooing His children and tenderly saying, "Return to your first love, my children. Come back to Me and do the first works. I want you to, first of all, watch, pray, intercede and give thanks for all men. I desire that you seek the kingdom of God first. And remember that you should love Me first above all things."

Will you heed that holy summon? Speaking for myself, I am steadfastly determined to walk the steps of the militaristic John the Baptist and take the kingdom by force through faith-driven words. Righteous violence is right now building in my spirit. The enemy is currently emboldened with the swelling power of Islam and the spiritually potent Christian must step up to the plate and confront him. I want to be included in that combative number. Yes, I know that the battle belongs to the Lord, but the fight of faith belongs to us. Consequently, if we won't stand up and fight many will be hurt and, eventually, most will be overcome. Soldiers of God: The bugle is sounding. The time to attack is now!

Grace to you and peace multiplied with love and mercy from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.

A Glorious High Throne
Gary Todd-Coldiron

Jun 12, 2004

The Best of Benefits Past

"Blessed be the Lord, who daily loads us with benefits…Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits." (Psalm 68:19, 103:2)

A Glorious High Throne

"A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary." (Jeremiah 17:12)

Several weeks ago the Lord spoke to me in the early morning of my sleep and tenderly said:

"Gary, return to your first love. Do the first works again."

I instantly understood what He meant and where He was leading me. I know that He's my first love and that the first works go back to the fall of 1983. As a struggling young Believer then, I took two weeks off from the military to seek God for deliverance and direction. I received both because, as the verse in the Bible (Hebrews 11:6) I stood on promises, "He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him."

Going to Happy Church in Denver at the time, I received a wonderful healing in my soul the first Sunday of my leave. Sitting at home in the afterglow of God's touch that afternoon, I wrote down a list of three sets of verses because I wanted to learn how to intercede for others. They are:

#1 – I Timothy 2:1-4 (praying for all men)

#2 – Psalm 122:6 (praying for peace)

#3 – Zechariah 10:1 (praying for spiritual rain)

Lying on the couch taking in Christian television later that night, the host of the show I was watching asked for everyone to pray. Quite innocently, I rolled face first onto the floor and began to Pray in the Spirit. Suddenly, a voice spoke within and said:

"Interpret what you are saying."

I did. This, in essence, is what came out of my mouth:

"Son, what you wrote down earlier on that piece of paper was caused by Me and not by you. And I say unto you: If you will remember these three things when you pray, I will anoint your prayers and I will make your anointing known to everyone around you."

Such words sounded so strange to me then. I recall asking, "What do you mean, Lord, that You will anoint my prayers and make it known to others?" But the years have proven this promise out over and over. I've since been used as a leader in prayer wherever I have gone. I say this in the fear of God and humility, having nothing to boast about, but I know the anointing that I have and others do too.

Consequently, this "anointing" did take place just as He said it would.

Therefore, I understand that the first works of my calling, as He referred to, is to live a lifestyle of watching, praying, interceding and giving thanks. May I inquire, "What is yours?" I believe it's the same. All Believers have a priestly mantle on them. Jesus is the Great High Priest stationed in heaven ever living to make intercession and the word of God says, "as He is so are we in this world." And because God uses the word "first" in I Timothy 2:1 and Revelation 2:4-5, it has priority. Hence, we should in preference love Him first and do our first works again. Additionally, we should treat going before the Throne Room as a beginning action. It should also come first. That's the message of the following writing and our text, a verse that God gave strong emphasis to about this time last year.

"Stop. Now thoughtfully read the small but powerful verse below again and again. Consider it. Dissect it. Meditate on it. Make it your own for within these words you will find a great nugget of truth. Understand that a glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of your sanctuary:

"A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary."

Naturally, it was on a Sabbath weekend morning about two months ago that the Lord greeted me with the impacting revelation of this verse. Until that time, I had not remembered ever reading it before (though I know I had). Such an innocuously placed set of words situated deep in the heart of the Old Testament. If you were taking a drive in the country, spiritually speaking, you would say this piece of scripture from the book of Jeremiah could be found in the middle of nowhere. Though small and seemingly hidden away from notoriety, understanding the message it gives and acting on it can radically change your life. Know again that a glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

There are three insights to be gathered from this verse. They are the where, when and why of this piece of Scripture:

#1 – Where? A glorious high throne

#2 – When? From the beginning

#3 – Why? It's the place of our sanctuary

A Glorious High Throne

There is a spiritual place above in the third heaven that God wants us, His children, to visit with a frequent ongoing consistency. I get the feeling sometimes that He'd rather have us just stay there. In fact, the overcoming members of the church at Philadelphia will one day visit and never leave (Revelation 3:12). This wonderful destination of the believing righteous is the secret dwelling place of our Father in heaven. Also, our Savior, the Lord Jesus, standing at His right hand, abides there right now. This magnificent throne of our God is above us and it's full of His glory. That's why it is called in Jeremiah 17:12 "a glorious high throne." We have come to know this same place in the New Testament as the great "Throne of Grace."

"Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." (Hebrews 4:16)

Note the open invitation given to visit. We are told to come and do so with boldness. Followers of Jesus are encouraged to enter into God's dwelling place, His holy mountain, to number one, obtain mercy, and number two, to find grace. Thus, His people are to enter His throne every time they have a need, since grace is and always will be the answer to every need. Because all of us live in a state of constant dependence on the Lord, we need to visit this "Throne of Grace" every day. The saved sheep of the Shepherd are free to come in (to the Throne of Grace) to find grace to meet their needs (pasture) and to go out again (back to their earthly lives) at their will:

"I (Jesus) am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture." (John 10:9)

From the Beginning

Do you know that the Lord gives priorities to follow in His word? Consider that the words "first" and "beginning" really do mean something. The statement "a glorious high throne" we just addressed. Now we will place emphasis on the next part of the text "from the beginning." Let's use the following verses as an example:

"Jesus said unto him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." (Matthew 22:37-40)

Do we, as disciples of the Lord, have the right to ignore the first commandment and purposely give priority to the second? You know the answer to that; of course, we don't. Loving your neighbor without loving God first will get none of us anywhere. You have to give priority to the first commandment to be able to legitimately fulfill the second.

Likewise, a glorious high throne FROM THE BEGINNING has priority status. It's foundational. It should be a starting point for you in your Christian life. And when you make it foundational in your walk, it will become your sanctuary.

Is the Place of Our Sanctuary

"He that dwells in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." (Psalm 91:1)

Sanctuary: 1 a holy place 2 a place of refuge or protection (excerpt from Webster's New World Dictionary)

"For He has looked down from the height of His sanctuary; from heaven did the Lord behold the earth. To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those that are appointed to death. To declare the name of the Lord in Zion…." (Psalm 102:19)

Do you desire sanctuary? Do you long for added, even multiplied, protection, security and peace in your Christian walk? I know where this special place exists. It's found in His Throne Room – Psalm 91's "Secret place of the most High." It's that Holy Place that He has called you to visit at any time. It's the heavenly location where He will hear your groans, your cries for help in times of impending death, and will show you the mysteries of His great name. You see, it really is true: A glorious high throne, from the beginning, is the place of your sanctuary.

I love the word "sanctuary." Don't you? For the troubled and discouraged, don't you yearn for it to be your reality? With that said, it's high time to seek the Lord, my friend. Come to the Throne of Grace today. He's waiting for you. He's waiting for all of us. For, I say to you again for the last time, a glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of your sanctuary."

Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ. Be blessed in the Lord Jesus today.

What are His Daily Benefits that believers are instructed not to forget (Psalm 103:1-5)? They are:

1 – He forgives all of our iniquities
2 – He heals all of our diseases
3 – He redeems our lives from destruction
4 – He crowns us with loving kindness and tender mercies
5 – He satisfies our mouth with good things so that our youth is renewed as the eagle's

Each day agree with God's word and confess that you are forgiven, healed, redeemed, crowned, and satisfied. If you have repented and called upon the name of the Lord, and received by grace the free gift of salvation through faith in Jesus Christ, these benefits are your everyday reality.

Prophesy Over The White House
Sandy Warner

[Prophetic Door Open]

May 1, 2004
VISION [2/15/04]: I saw a large open door but it appeared like an open mouth. There was a large violin standing within the opening. Along the front framework of the violin was a wooden cross embedded within it.

HEARD: I am looking for the President of the United States. As long as you are looking upon the Lord of Hosts, my ear will stand before you.

HEARD: A fork in the road.
VISION: I saw a tuning fork. Then I saw the tuning of a violin. The tone was flat and needed to be brought up into harmony.

HEARD: Tuning. So how are you feeling? Wound.

INTERP: Pray for the wounds in the White House and for our government. Pray they will come into harmony according to the Word of God and righteousness.

HEARD: A set of plans. Clear vision. VISION: I saw a violin. HEARD: Authority in government.

HEARD: Salt. It's the right time. Umbrella. Warfare. Victory. We have an appointment. White house. Relationship. Prayer.

ANOINTED HANDS IN WORDS TO PONDER BOOK: PRAY
If you truly understood what takes place the moment you pray, then you would truly never cease. When you pray, it sends the angels to go forth and make a way. Many operations take place behind the scenes to dove tail My Faithfulness into someone's life. One of the basic foundations of such is prayer. Angels are prepared and ready. They listen, awaiting to be dispatched with assignment. Prayer looses them to fight through obstacles, frees them to go forth, prepares events, and sets things in motion.

Did you know that when you pray for others, it has eternal value? Some day when you come here, you will stand before all those you have prayed for and see how those simple requests made a difference in their lives. You will see entire destinies altered because you stopped to pray one simple prayer. Can you imagine it? If you only understood the power I have given into your hands to make a difference.

"Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints." (Ephesians 6:18)

CONCLUSION

Word To Ponder: Prophetic Door Opened To The White House
I have opened a prophetic door to the White House. Even as David played the harp strings for his king in the days of old, so I will play the hearts of the prophetic like an old violin, never outdated, but growing more beautiful in time.

As long as you are looking upon the Lord of Hosts, the ear of the President will stand before you. As long as the message of My cross stands in the doorway of your mouth, I will anoint your song to meet the ear of the Chief. And so it shall be, at My command and none other. Stay faithful prophetic ones, prophesy and pray over the white house!

Prov 21:1 NLT
The king's heart is like a stream of water directed by the LORD; he turns it wherever he pleases.

An Avalanche Of Salt
Sandy Warner

Apr 28, 2004
The demonic world is screaming as they witness the eruption of an avalanche of salt. This is not fire and brimstone as it sounds. Rather, this is the fiery eruption of generations of prayers planted in the ground, like coals smoldering beneath the surface. The cup is full and about to spew. Fueled by such a wealth of sacrifice, a compassionate army of salt shall tumble forth upon the broken. They shall cascade like a landslide upon the demonic world and upon those who are imprisoned by such. The demonic world will flee by merely seeing the approach of this great avalanche of salt. Erupt, spew and pour forth…. Go intercessors!

Matt 5:13 NKJV
"You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.

Isa 61:1-3 NKJV
"The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me, because the LORD has anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn, to console those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified."

Investing A Life Into A Life
Sandy Warner

Apr 26, 2004
Throughout generations, over and over again I have watched secreted ones invest their lives into leadership. Staying on the back burner that another may move forward, they plant their seeds of waiting upon Me. Secret prayers, long and quiet nights, faithfully recording My Word, supporting, warring, standing and believing, all for the love of another who is called.

These My humble servants have offered their very lives as willing sacrifices at great cost. Such great wealth I have bestowed into these precious ones who daily lay down their lives! They shall experience great honor and giftedness and watch multitudes of children soar into their destinies.

Prophetic Perspectives For 2005 And Beyond

Michael Quinn

Resurrection Life Ministries

1) A RED ALERT

This is the year of the warrior with particular emphasis on the role of the Native American believers as protectors from terrorist attacks. They will serve us in a special way as the Lord covers us with His Feathers. The church is going to have a PowWow with these believers and discover the true power of abiding under the Shadow of the Almighty. A new courage will be imparted to run to the battle without fear and put our feet on the necks of our enemies.

- Joshua 10:24-25, Psalm 91:4-7, Psalm 110:1 & Luke 10:19.

2) INCREASED FAITH TO RESTORE GRANTED

A grace will be released to deal with seemingly impossible situations in restoring fallen leaders in the Body of Christ. Deep roots of bitterness, pride & rejection will be removed. We will see that His love never fails.

- Luke 17:3-6, Isaiah 58:12, 1 Corinthians 13:8 & Galatians 6:1-2.

3) A DIVINE FACELIFT FOR HIS BRIDE

The Lord is going to shine His face upon His Bride and make us more like Him. He is going to continue to remove the veils over our faces that we might see Him as he REALLY is. His Manifested Holy Presence & the Light of His Glory will uplift our countenance as He releases a new joy to strengthen His people. As we behold Him, we will worship Him in the beauty of His holiness.

- Nehemiah 8:10, Isaiah 6:1-3, 1 John 3:2 & Revelation 1:16.

4) ALIYAH, SHALOM & TRUE SHEPHERDS

A number of Jewish people will be stirred to make aliyah (going back to Israel) in the immediate coming days as the Lord grants a short season of peace in the Land. Most of all these Jewish people will be given a peace by the Lord that He is sending them. Mantles of breakthrough will be picked up to empower for evangelism and reveal Messiah, Yeshua & bring His Resurrection Life. Many will return to Zion and be fed by true shepherds after His own heart who will minister healing to His people .

- Jeremiah 3:14-15 , Ezekiel 11:16-20 , John 20:21-23 & Romans 11:15.

5) FROM THE CALL TO THE CAUSE TO THE CONQUEST!

This is the time when we are to go on to conquer the enemy and take back what he has stolen. Governmental 24/7 houses of prayer will begin to spring up in a greater measure throughout the earth in the spirit of the Tabernacle of David. For Zion's sake we will not be silent!!! They will help restore what was lost and bring a great harvest. The Church will arise to hear the call to prayer and high praise & counter the Islamic call to prayer. A day and night crying out of His people will be heard by our Heavenly Father & justice will come quickly and righteousness will be restored . His purposes will NOT be aborted as we lay our lives down for the Glory of the Lamb.

- Amos 9:11,13; Psalm 149:6-9, Luke 18:6-8 & Revelation 12:11.

Power Purpose And Benefits

Clay Sikes

Power, Purpose, And Benefits Released In 2004

Word Given Sunday January 4th, 2004 The Church With No Name

My name is Clay Sikes. I am almost 56 years old and work as a real estate developer on the Georgia Coast. I do not think I am a called prophet, but historically, and from time to time have had accurate prophetic words flow through me. Until now, my barometer for determining whether I had accurately heard a prophetic word was "Did it happen?" I, like you, have often heard members of the Body of Christ say, "The best way to determine whether or not you have heard an accurate prophetic word is "Did it happen in your life?" While this is true for us as individuals, it is not necessarily true for us as members of a corporate Body. For example, many years ago I heard prophetic words flow from a man named John Williams. Those words didn't apply to me then, but many hit the mark for me today. At the time I thought much of what this man is saying is crazy and off the mark, and besides it didn't happen in my life, thus it must not be God! Now, I hear his voice speaking accurate prophetic words to me that were spoken in the mid 1980s that are applicable to my life in the year 2004.

Toward the end of 2003 the Lord began to deal with me about the Prophetic Words that flowed from me to others, particularly in a corporate setting in which this gift seems to operate. I do occasionally have something specific for an individual, but it seems that most of what God gives me is for corporate groups, and more specifically, those who have left the Institutionalized Church. Since what I say here is directed to more than one person, and every human on earth is different, I asked God to give me an explanation of prophetic words to a collective Body of believers. Since I lay no claim to strong prophetic powers, hadn't read any books or listen to any tapes on 'how to be a prophet,' I urge you to TEST THIS WORD!

Before I get to the actual prophetic word, I must first share what I feel to be God's answer to me relative to prophetic words to a corporate Body and just who the prophetic word is for. Obviously, it is not for everybody within the walls of the Church proper, but to a specific group that I think God is calling "The True Church."

(Who Is The True Church?)

In understanding this word, we must first understand just WHOM the word is for. This word is not for everybody, but rather for the True Church, and The True Church I feel, is an obedient people who are in right relationship with their God. The True Church is made up of True Sons and True Sons are those led by the Spirit of God (Romans 8:14). "The hour comes, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeks such to worship Him. God is a Spirit [not law]: and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth" [not in legalism – many confuse 'good works' with 'God works'] (John 4:23-24). The Father seeks "such" to worship him. Who or what are the "such" that God seeks to worship Him? The question is answered in the same scripture – "Those that worship Him in spirit and truth."

(What Is The Ultimate Form Of Worship?)

True worshipers worship the Father in spirit and in truth, and to understand "worship" is to understand how "spirit" and "truth" interrelate in this scriptural directive from God. It is important to note that the word "worship" in this scripture does not exclusively mean worship as in raising hands, dancing, and singing. The ultimate form of worship is not doing, BUT BEING: Worship, or true worship is hearing and obeying God. "Worship is presenting our bodies a living sacrifice" in seeking, hearing, and obeying God – "for the Father seeks such." One who physically lays his life down in obedience to God's instruction, as Christ did, expresses the ultimate form of worship. "No greater love can a man have than to lay his life down." Dying to self is the ultimate form of worship. All obedience in terms of seeking, hearing, and obeying IS WORSHIP, and worship in simple terms is exchanging our life for His. In losing our life we gain His, and there is no higher form of worship than dying completely and totally to self and self's ways, and thus gaining God's fullness of joy, righteousness, and peace.

(Notice How God's Government/Order Produces INCREASE)

With the aforementioned understanding, we begin to see who the True Church is and WHO IT IS NOT. Yielded vessels are the true church, and unyielded vessels are not! As previously stated, the Prophetic Word contained here applies to the True Church. To the degree we worship or (walk in obedience), to that degree does God INCREASE His "spirit" and "truth" (in us). The Kingdom of God is (always) forcefully advancing (INCREASING), and violent men take it by force. What does "take it by force" mean? Laying down our life, exchanging our life for His, yielding to God's increasing Spiritual presence in us. To the degree that we lay our lives down, to that degree will we walk in the Kingdom of God upon this earth, and what is the Kingdom of God but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

(What Determines Whether We Are The True Church)

The level of righteousness, peace, and joy we walk in reveals not only who we are, but of greater importance, where we are in our progressive walk into the Kingdom of God upon the earth. Peace and joy CANNOT BE FAKED. We can mask ourselves to the outside world, but the Spirit of God reveals us to ourselves on the inside.

No entity, satanic or human, can manufacture God's peace; hence the scripture in I Corinthians 14:33, "For God is not a God of disorder BUT OF PEACE." Said differently, God's order, and only God's order can produce God's peace. Anything in our life that is out of order will be void of God's peace. When we have no peace in a certain area of our life we should seek God's order in it! All disorder in our life POINTS US TO GOD'S ORDER. We may have to die in new areas, submit to new levels of authority, or simply find deeper Spiritual understanding and meaning to get there, but usually the common denominator found in obtaining God's order in our lives is A WILLINGNESS TO CHANGE, and not allowing our traditions to rob us of God's word to us.

"Of the INCREASE of His government and peace there will be no end" (Isaiah 9:7). God's government or God's order will increase in us to the extent we are yielded, and therefore to that same extent will God's peace increase (in us). It is not by chance that "peace" is preceded by "government" in this scripture. God's government/order will always precede God's peace because government/order produces peace. God has ordained government/order because the Kingdom of God is a government/order. All government/order (in God) begins with self-government in bringing our lives under the total authority of the Holy Spirit. Who is the true church? Those in total submission to the Holy Spirit of God; those not bound by human conditions, those who do not live in fear of men, and those who have entered the rest and whose lives are filled with the peace of God.

No entity, satanic or human, can manufacture God's peace; hence the scripture in I Corinthians 14:33,

"For God is not a God of disorder BUT OF PEACE." God's order will introduce peace to a situation as sure as the SON/SUN produces light. Who is the true church? Those who live with God's peace in their hearts; those who have learned that true peace transcends any circumstance we will ever face on this earth; those who are dead to their personal agendas.

Another gauge of "Who is the Church" can be found in the following scripture - "His sheep hear His voice, the voice of a stranger they will not hear." "His" in this scripture is possessive, meaning the sheep here do not belong to themselves; they belong to Him. If we belong to Him, we do not belong to ourselves, if we do not belong to ourselves, we belong to another. If we have truly exchanged our life for His, we will "hear" what God is saying.

(Synopsis Of The Prophetic Word)

This will be a year of training for what is to come and all training requires new levels of discipline. Many will recognize God's voice calling them to fast, pray, exercise, witness, be among those we have little in common with, in short, this will be a year in which God deals with us in seemingly small areas, yet have vast importance to the big picture. We are learning to be faithful over the little things that we may be made lord over much.

This will be a year of consequences for acts of the flesh! We will begin to see God call into accountability our acts of the flesh. Bad decisions will produce bad results. Presumption on our part, without a proceeding word from God, will have negative consequences. What we once routinely got away with, in the areas of presumption, we will get away with no more as God raises the bar of accountability in each of our lives. 2004 will be a year of discipline for those inclined to doing things from the flesh instead of the Spirit. The peace of God must rule our hearts; to stray from it is to stray from the will of the Father, and to stray from the will of the Father will enact the discipline of the Father. This is not for our destruction, but for our growth – who God loves He disciplines; were it not so we would be bastards, orphaned and without a Father. True Sons (and Daughters) will also begin to see this accountability fall upon their children, especially older children who have been running from God. Make no mistake about it; though it will be difficult on our flesh, this is God's blessing, not His curse upon the lives of our children and ultimately in our lives.

As well, this is a year of building…a year of building the New Wineskin. The New Wineskin is being built both in us (through God's correction) and by us (through our obedient acts). This is a spiritual building as the Sons of God are transformed into Spiritual Fathers, and the Fathers (by direct appointment from the Holy Spirit) transform those sent to them, into Sons. God is instructing us individually and collectively to BUILD HIS CHURCH!

2004 will be a breakthrough year for the Sons of God as they flourish in Spiritual endeavors with ministries expanding, gifts in operation, and God's wisdom and power turned up a notch. This will be a direct evidence of God's INCREASING hand in their lives. God is marrying His Sons to His purpose, which is true destiny and destiny will release an invigoration for life that we have not experienced before. This spiritual invigoration will be evident in the physical realm as well, as our physical bodies come into health, healing, energy, and strength. Our Sonship (or lack of) will be evidenced by His purposes placed before us in coming days.

2004 will introduce to the Sons the first fruits of the benefits of their inheritance from God, as he heals and restores bodies, finances, and relationships.

(The Prophetic Word)

Refreshing Spiritual times lay just ahead – your oneness with my purpose. My plan for your life is being fulfilled. Come apart from the flesh and act only as I direct - to do otherwise will bring hardship upon you! To adhere to My Spirit is to introduce you to a life you have not known; one of joy, power, and strength. I desire to release My Power and Purpose into yielded vessels.

True Sonship is maturing into a Paternal Spiritual Order as many Sons are becoming true Spiritual Fathers. Recognize those children I send you, and spiritually Father them as I direct; BUILD THE NEW WINESKIN. 2004 will be a breakthrough year for you spiritually as your ministry will begin to flourish – an evidence of my hand in your life. 2004 will be a year of breakthrough for you as you begin to experience the benefits (first fruits) of your inheritance in many aspects of your life, most especially IN YOUR NATURAL AND CHURCH FAMILY. You will also begin to see evidences of physical healing and restoration in your physical body, finances, and relationships.

You will begin to experience my power in unprecedented ways as you witness my hand in your life – favor, anointing, and blessing. You will also witness the fire of much tribulation in SOME around you as I deal with the flesh that must be dealt with. This will bring cause to your Spiritual Fatherhood as you minister MY WORD to them.

Examine your heart daily and purge yourself from all unrighteous acts. Stay transparent and pure before me to fulfill my plan for you during the coming year, for whom much is given, much is being required. You have bee given my authority to speak matters into existence (as I direct), and to tear down kingdoms not of my doing. Move on and up into the Spiritual place of my choosing. Yield yourself to me, hear my voice, and obey.

Put my assigned work and your obedience together, and let them remain a priority during 2004 and see the evidence of my hand in your life as never before! YOUR OBEDIENCE WILL RELEASE MY POWER AS THE BENEFITS I HAVE PROMISED FLOW INTO YOUR LIFE AS WARM HONEY FLOWS FROM A JAR. I WILL INVEST MY POWER INTO MY SONS AND THEY WILL EXPERIENCE ME AS NEVER BEFORE AS I JOIN INDIVIDUALS TO THE PARTS AND PARTS TO THE BODY FOR MY PURPOSE.

Prophet, Priest and King -- A Word for NOW, Not Only in the Future"

The Anointing

We refer to our Lord as Jesus Christ, but His name, simply, was Jesus (or Yeshua in Hebrew). The term Christ comes from the Greek translation of the Hebrew word for "Messiah," which meant "the Anointed One." Thus, it would be perfectly accurate to call our Savior, "Jesus, the Anointed One."

But where does the phrase "Anointed One" come from and how does it apply to the Lord? While anyone could anoint and refresh their head with oil (or anoint the dying for burial), only a special blend of spices and oils was used as "holy anointing oil," and then only in sacred ceremonies (see Exodus 30:22-31). It was copiously poured upon the consecrated individual, perhaps a liter or more flowing down upon his head, beard, and garments (Psalm 133). It was an obvious outpouring of oil, not merely a dab on the forehead as might accompany our use of anointing oil today. It was done with solemn prayer and reverence, for it was through this ritual of anointing that Israel's prophets, priests, and kings were identified and then dedicated to God.

The act of anointing a chosen leader with oil was a ritual pregnant with the hope of divine fulfillment. Indeed, it was a foreshadowing of the ultimate prophet, priest, and king to be unveiled in the ministry of the Messiah. His anointing would not be with oil, but with the reality the oil symbolized: the "Holy Spirit and...power" (Acts 10:38; see Luke 4).

The Priest and Prophet

Throughout the Old Testament, only prophets, priests, and kings received the rite of holy anointing. Likewise, for all the diversity we see in Jesus' ministry, everything He accomplished was rooted in the soil of His prophetic, priestly, and kingly roles.

Now, it is vital we understand the anointing upon God's Son, for in seeing Him we peer into the destiny of the church. For the ascendant ministry of Jesus, the Anointed One, continues, even as the Holy Spirit transfers the fullness of Christ, as He is in heaven, into His people on earth. In other words, all that the Messiah was as prophet, priest, and king is still alive and is still being released into our world through His true church. "For of His fullness we have all received, and grace upon grace" (John 1:16). This means God desires that His church - the body of the Anointed One - would manifest in the earth in three distinct, yet interconnected, ministries: that of Christ the prophet, priest, and king.

The priestly ministry of the Lord is one of intercession and redemptive sacrifice. The Messiah, as our great "High Priest" (Hebrews 3:1), rendered Himself as our "guilt offering" (Isaiah 53:10); He is the "Lamb standing, as if slain" before the throne of God (Revelation 5:6). Yet, because we are created in His image, we also carry His priestly role of intercession. We become His living house, which is "a house of prayer." He calls us to be a "kingdom [of] priests" and a "royal priesthood" (Revelation 1:6; I Peter 2:9).

As priests, we offer the sacrifice of His Son's death, both for our sins and also for the world around us. The Messiah is our great High Priest living in heaven; the church reveals the intercessions of the Anointed One on earth. It is the same anointing. The ministry of the priest has been fulfilled by Jesus, and embraced and followed by us.

Jesus was also God's prophet, and more: He was the Word of God made flesh (John 1:14). The Messiah understood God's word, not merely in its skeletal form of doctrines, but as the union of the Father's living consciousness with Jesus' own thought-life. Thus, the Messiah viewed life on earth as God would perceive it. Jesus' prophetic perception x-rayed into the secrets of men's hearts. At the same time, He saw into, and understood, the deep mysteries of God's heart.

His prophetic nature enabled Him to stand beyond the boundaries of time and pierce the enigma of ages past, as well as herald the wonders of times still to come. Yet, as His priestly ministry is extended to His church, so His prophetic ministry is imparted to us as well. As it is written, He gave "some as prophets" who, though imperfect, also burn with the flaming sword of God's word (Ephesians 4:11; Luke 11:49; I Corinthians 14; Revelation 11).

But Kings?

The church is learning, in varying degrees, how to serve Christ's priestly and prophetic ministry. Yet His "kingly" or governmental authority, outside of church proper, has not been accepted by many Christians. The idea of being granted such authority - of seeking to serve God in positions of political influence - has been deferred either to the Millennium or it has been outright scorned as heretical, "kingdom now" theology. Yet, we have never suggested that "the world must be conquered by Christians before Jesus can return," which is "kingdom now" theology. Nor are we trying to reduce the spiritual reality of the church to a political entity. Our quest is not to see the church become political, but the political become spiritual, where the integrity, wisdom, and justice of Christ Himself manifests in secular leadership.

For those of us who say Christ's kingly anointing is reserved only for the age to come, let me remind you Christ is king right now and our call is to grow up "in all aspects" unto Him who is our head (Ephesians 4:15). Right now, Jesus is seated as king on God's throne; He has received "all authority...in heaven and on earth" (Matthew 28:18). We are specifically told: "As He is, so also are we in this world" (1 John 4:17; see also Ephesians 1:18-23, Revelation 17:14). These are "present tense" promises, not only Millennial. We must, therefore, measure the stature of the church by the dimensions of Christ: Is Jesus prophet, priest, and king right now in heaven? Absolutely! Then it is God's will that He should be revealed as prophet, priest, and king on earth through the church. This is the very thing we ask each time we pray: "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven!"

All that Christ is in heaven will, in varying measures, be manifested in the true church before Jesus returns. Will there be a greater fulfillment in the age to come? Of course. But, dear one, even as He has emerged in the church as priest and prophet, so there must also be some fulfillment of governmental authority in this present age as well.

You see, what our Father desires to reveal through the church is not about us; it is about the manifest destiny of Jesus His Son. Just as some of us are called to reveal Christ the intercessor and others are sent by God to manifest the life of Christ the prophet, so the unveiling of Christ's governmental authority shall come forth in chosen leaders at the end of the age.

Our Goal: National Transformation

People argue, "If God is going to bring revival, He will do it through the church." Of course He will, but who says that the church cannot raise up men and women of integrity, honor, and wisdom and support them in their call to serve God in secular leadership? Indeed, if Christians are in government, and we live in a nation where the priestly and prophetic role of the church is unfolding, we must recognize the potential for God to use imperfect people to reveal the threefold anointing of Christ. Where we see Christian political leaders, even those who have made mistakes, let us come alongside them in intercessory prayer and the voice of the prophetic, and take faith for God to use them still.

Imagine the heavenly potential that is possible when, instead of dividing because of differences, the church honors the intercessory, prophetic, and kingly nature of Christ. Imagine when these three streams of anointing converge and, in unity, serve God to bring justice, mercy, and healing to their cultures!

We think of revival as something where people flop or hop, cry or run or dance as they experience an ecstatic, emotional release - and all that is fine. But personal revival is only the first step toward transforming a nation. We need godly people to serve in elected office. Indeed, there never was a revival in the Old Testament that did not come through the authority of the secular leader, the king!

Thus, we must have long-term plans, especially in democracies where officials are elected. We must recognize and cultivate the "kingly anointing," even when these future leaders are yet children. Again, when I speak of the kingly anointing, I am speaking of the principle of godly rule. Elected leaders must know how to govern with justice and pass laws with integrity. A president or governor cannot think of themselves as a king, but he or she must rule with the humility, character, and wisdom of Christ (see Luke 22:25-26).

Prophetic, Priestly, and Kingly Anointings Key to Transforming Our Nations

Each of us carries, in a certain measure, the Messiah's anointing as prophet, priest, and king within us. As we mature and deepen in our conformity to Christ, all three unveilings will be manifest through us in varying levels. But for most, there is a primary call that identifies our main strength. The naturalness we find in intercessory prayer indicates God is using us in the priestly role. The ease in unearthing revelatory truths from the Scriptures and the sense of clarity in discernment are evidences that your call is prophetic. The passion for justice, for divine order, and righteous government indicates emerging in you is the anointing of Christ the King.

Let us identify those Christians who are currently serving in government or running for government, and let us pray for the unveiling of Christ in their lives. They do not need to be perfect, only yielded. They will make mistakes, but will make fewer errors as the other aspects of the Messiah's anointing come alongside in both prayer and prophetic guidance.

Would you recognize true Christianity? It is identified by one reality: people becoming Christlike in prayer, the prophetic word, and in governmental authority (see Ephesians 4:15). Where the true church is growing in maturity, it will be united in the priestly, prophetic, and kingly anointing of Christ.

Lord, we pray for all who are in public offices, especially those who call upon Your name. Lord, help us to see the union of the prophetic, priestly, and kingly anointings as key to transforming our nations. Rule, O Lord, in the midst of Your enemies. In Jesus' name! Amen.

Prophetic People

Clo DiPilato

Dear Friends in Jesus,

I received a very stern word of the Lord this morning, and a sense of the times, and I feel I should pass onto you what God made very real to me by His Spirit. I know it's for me, but as part of a "prophetic people", I realize it is also for others, and I ask you to prayerfully consider this word, to see if you are also meant to embrace it.

It's not a season, and it's not a day, but it is an hour, saith the Lord. It's an hour when those who are Mine are going to have to know how to clearly hear and discern My voice so they can be led in detail by the word of the Lord. I will take it as personal affront to My relationship between Myself and the souls of My redeemed if you prophesy indiscriminately and flippantly and without having waited on a true word from Me because now is the hour when My sheep MUST know My voice, and I will consider it an affront to My authority in the lives of My people.

It is an hour when the very safety and well-being of My people, and My servants is going to wholly depend on their ability to recognize My voice, and wholly depend on their ability to obey Me. If the word you bring puts My people into a state of confusion or question, I will hold you accountable. I want My people walking in a sure place. I want the decisions of My people founded and grounded upon a sure foundation of a true word that I have spoken.

Even at this time, many are making decisions based on fear, and driven by fear. This is going to yield serious spiritual repercussions because the prophets who spoke the words of fear are going to reap a harvest of distrust and hatred because they went when I did not send them, either in speaking judgment OR peace, I did not send them because they did not wait on Me. They did not weep before me for a pure word. They just presumed to go. They made up something in their heads based on news, based on circumstances, based on their own evaluations of the times, and they thought they could bypass the place of deep prayer and waiting in My presence. They thought they could speak a word without truly being in a place to hear from Me, and they will reap a harvest of doubt and confusion and distrust because when My people see the fruits of wrong decisions based on wrong words and false prophecies, they will wail and cry against the prophets who spoke falsely to them. How presumptuous of the prophets to think they know what I am saying when they have not even spent time in My presence where they could truly hear from Me!

Yes, I will most certainly convict My people through the spirit of fear and trembling so they can get their lives right. But then I will lead My people in a plain path by the light of My word. I am the light and the salvation of My people, and it is a time when I am constraining my beloved to the sounds of My own voice, and it is a time of training to understand and hear even the slightest whisper of the Spirit because the spiritual raging from many realms is going to intensify, and if My people do not know how to discern My voice in the midst of the clamor even in the heavenlies, they will be led astray by foreign spirits, by counterfeit spirits, by religious spirits, by all manner of evil spirits unleashed to seduce My servants in this very hour, and to take captive a people that I desire to bring into a fullness of understanding My covering and provision in a very perilous time.

I do not want My prophets adding to the confusion! Hear the word of the Lord, I do NOT want MY prophets adding to the confusion. Be still. Be still. Be still. Be still, and know that I am God, and I can break through the floods of false words and false doctrines with a pure stream of My spirit, but I am challenging My true prophets in this hour to NOT FEAR to allow My people to LEARN MY VOICE FOR THEMSELVES!!

An hour is upon you that My people are going to have to function without always having the ability to call up a prophet on the phone, or run to a church service, or go to a home meeting to get a word. My people will need to know how to discern My mind, and hear My voice in the time of tribulation, or they will become prey to every beast of the field and every wolf in sheep's clothing out to devour the flock.

You must understand that in this hour I am far more interested in training My sheep to KNOW MY VOICE, than I am in validating and confirming your prophetic gifts and ministries!! If you are a true prophet, you will give yourself diligently to the pursuit of helping My people to understand that in the place of communion and intimacy with Me, I will speak to My own, to My beloved, and you will be content to be the confirming voice to the word of the Lord. You will not have to be constantly lauded and confirmed as a "prophet" or an "apostle." You will be very content to step aside, allowing Me to take My rightful place as the Head of MY body that I might impart My thoughts, and My mind to My people. You will begin to accept the responsibility, and understand the mandate of the Spirit is not to gather a following of those who delight in your anointings, but to be an instrument to bring My people to maturity so as fully mature sheep, not gullible little lambs, they indeed know My voice.

If you understand My dealings, and if you understand the present cry of the Spirit, you are going to be very slow to speak, and very quick to pray, and very quick to recognize when I am sending you forth with a confirming word to My servants. You will not usurp my place of covenant relationship with My people which I wrought in My son when I declared out of glory that it would be through Him that I would now speak to My people rather than through the prophets as I did in times past. (Hebrews 1)

That prophet that speaks for Me, and that prophet that I am sending in this hour with a word spanning the nations of this world down to the very heart and soul of a troubled man or woman of God is that one who has learned to decrease that I might increase so that indeed it IS the voice of My Son speaking through that prophetic vessel a pure word, and a sure word. Even as it was with John the Baptist, that one I am sending shall be as the voice of another, and the voice of another shall truly be the spirit and presence of Jesus, the testimony of Jesus coming forth from that vessel completely sold out to My purposes.

Beware of companies of prophets who love to spend more time with each other than they do with Me. Mark these ones, and beware.

Well, giving a prophecy isn't like writing a three part letter for a school assignment with intro, body, and ending. I feel the anointing lifting, so I am going to STOP right here.

I trust the Lord that this word will go forth with the seriousness of impact I am presently feeling. As one who moves in prophetic ministry, I am taking this word very seriously to heart for myself, and I feel deeply burdened within, and troubled by this word, and am praying for God's people to hear what the Spirit is saying.

Always in the Love of Jesus,

Clo DiPilato http://www.heraldofhiskingdom.com

Prayer to Adonai
Marie-France McDowell-Smith

DANI'EL's Prayer to Adonai, our God
(from the 'Complete Jewish Bible' ~ translation by David H. Stearn)

March 20, 2004

Praised are you, Adonai our God, King of the universe, who gives the Torah of truth and the Good News of salvation to His people Isra'el and to all the peoples through His son Yeshua the Messiah, our Lord. - from Stern's translation, copyright 1998

9:3 I turned to Adonai, God, to seek an answer, pleading with Him in prayer, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes. I prayed to Adonai my God and made this confession:

"Please Adonai, great and fearsome God, who keeps His covenant and extends grace to those who love Him and observe His mitzvot! We have sinned, done wrong, acted wickedly, rebelled and turned away from your mitzvot and rulings. We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our leaders, our ancestors and to all the people of the land.

To you Adonai, belongs righteousness; but to us today belongs shame -- to us, the men of Y'hudah, the inhabitants of Yerushalayim and all Isra'el, including those nearby and those far away, throughout all the countries where you have driven them; because they broke faith with you. Yes, Adonai, shame falls on us, our kings, our leaders and our ancestors; because we sinned against you.

It is for Adonai our God to show compassion and forgiveness, because we have rebelled against Him. We didn't listen to the voice of Adonai our God, so that we could live by His laws, which He presented to us through His servants the prophets.

Yes, all Isra'el flouted your Torah (Instruction) and turned away, unwilling to listen to your voice. Therefore the curse and oath written in the Torah of Moshe the servant of God was poured out upon us, because we have sinned against Him. He carried out the threats He spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us disaster so great that under all of heaven, nothing has been done like what has been done to Yerushalayim.

As written in the Torah of Moshe, this whole disaster came upon us. Yet we did not appease Adonai our God by renouncing our wrongdoing and discerning your truth. So Adonai watched for the right moment to bring this disaster upon us, for Adonai our God was just in everything he did, yet we did not listen when He spoke.

Now, Adonai our God, who brought your people our of the land of Egypt with a strong hand, thereby winning renown for yourself, as is the case today --- we sinned, we acted wickedly.

Adonai, in keeping with all your justice, please allow your anger and fury to be turned away from your city Yerushalayim, your holy mountain; because it is due to our sins and the wrongdoings of our ancestors that Yerushalayim and your people have become objects of scorn among everyone around us.

Therefore, our God, listen to the prayer and pleadings of your servant; and cause your face to shine on your desolated sanctuary, for your own sake. My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes and see how desolated we are, as well as the city which bears your name. For we plead with you not because of our own righteousness, but because of your compassion.

9:19 Adonai, hear! Adonai, forgive! Adonai, pay attention and don't delay action -- for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people bear your name!"

AMEN!

Preconceived Notions

Glenn Jackson

"Let all pre-conceived notions and thoughts as to what I have called each of you to be, pass away; and take as your only reality, the revealed knowledge of My will. For in this last hour I am raising up many who will walk in the "fullness" of all that I have for them, and they shall surely walk in a degree of power that has never before been seen in the earth - both individually and corporately - as My Body. It is indeed time for the world to see the unlimited power of Almighty God. It is time for My sons and daughters to go forth in the power of My anointing to devastate the works of Satan. For too long the "reality" of My people has been found in that which is temporal, but truly I say to you that day is at an end! For in this last hour, My Truth shall have the spotlight to Himself and all those who are conformed to His perfect image shall ride on the "coat-tails" of His glory, and truly I say to you "all" darkness shall be obliterated by the Light! And men, whose lying hearts have mocked and scorned Me, shall no longer be able to stand in the face of My "Reality"! For truly I say to you, Jesus is Lord of all, and the magnificence and majesty which shall be seen in this last hour, shall affect the earth as a "flood", and My glory shall indeed fill the earth"..

If I were to give you one word, My beloved ones, to define the chief characteristic of your ministry in your remaining time in the earth it would be "fire"! This fire will shed light where there is darkness, refine hearts wholly given, and consume "all" that is not of Me. It is a "Holy Fire" of purification that will reveal My presence and establish My true character in the hearts of all those who are truly seeking Me!"..

Those of My children who have given themselves wholly to Me, I shall make vessels of "fire". Fire that will both expose and consume all that is apart from Me - and bless all that is "for" Me". As they speak My words in the power of the "resurrection" and the authority of the "ascension" THEN the hearts of the rebellious ones shall surely be "cut to the quick", and the fire on the words which they speak in My Name shall both expose and "devastate" the deepest desires of their hardened hearts and darkened minds. Truly I say to you, it is time to proceed, and as "My" judgment of "My" household intensifies with each passing day you will see many, who were "thought" to be beyond reproach by My people, fall, and all of their works which did not proceed from obedience to My Word and My Spirit shall be exposed. For as the end of this age draws to a close, every one of My children must know beyond a shadow of a doubt that any form of dependence upon the darkened wisdom of the Evil One must end in death and corruption. For indeed My Church shall be spotless and unblemished before the nations, and they shall see the "reality" of My presence to a continually greater degree, until this sinful world can no longer contain the righteousness and holiness of My beloved children; and then I shall "catch them away", and darkness shall have its final hour. And so shall My eternal purpose be fulfilled as I have proclaimed clearly in My Word"..

Pre-eminence
Priscilla Van Sutphin

tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Main Entry: pre·em·i·nence Function: noun
: the quality or state of being preeminent : SUPERIORITY

Main Entry: pre·em·i·nent Function: adjective
Etymology: Middle English, from Late Latin praeeminent-, praeeminens, from Latin, present participle of praeeminEre to be outstanding, from prae- + eminEre to stand out : having paramount rank, dignity, or importance : OUTSTANDING

Main Entry: em·i·nent Function: adjective
Etymology: Middle English, from Middle French or Latin; Middle French, from Latin eminent-, eminens, present participle of eminEre to stand out, from e- + -minEre; akin to Latin mont-, mons mountain
1 : standing out so as to be readily perceived or noted : CONSPICUOUS
2 : jutting out : PROJECTING
3 : exhibiting eminence especially in standing above others in some quality or position : PROMINENT synonym see FAMOUS

Col 1:18 NKJV
18 And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.

3 John 9-10 NKJV Diotrephes and Demetrius
I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, does not receive us. 10 Therefore, if I come, I will call to mind his deeds which he does, prating against us with malicious words. And not content with that, he himself does not receive the brethren, and forbids those who wish to, putting them out of the church.

NT:5383 philoproteuo (fil-op-rote-yoo'-o); from a compound of NT:5384 and NT:4413; to be fond of being first, i.e. ambitious of distinction:
KJV - love to have the preeminence.

NT:1361 Diotrephes (dee-ot-ref-ace'); from the alternate of NT:2203 and NT:5142; Jove-nourished; Diotrephes, an opponent of Christianity: KJV - Diotrephes.

NT:2203 Zeus (dzyooce); of uncertain affinity; in the oblique cases there is used instead of it a (probably cognate) name Dis (deece), which is otherwise obsolete; Zeus or Dis (among the Latins, Jupiter or Jove), the supreme deity of the Greeks: KJV - Jupiter.

NT:5142 trepho (tref'-o); a primary verb (properly, threpho; but perhaps strength. from the base of NT:5157 through the idea of convolution); properly, to stiffen, i.e. fatten (by implication, to cherish [with food, etc.], pamper, rear): KJV - bring up, feed, nourish.(Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's Numbers and Concordance)

I heard the Lord say “ preeminence” so looked it up and asked what He wanted to say about this.

“I AM the Preeminent One! I AM the Head of the church triumphant.
I AM the Head of the church glorious! I AM arrayed in glory and filled with love and kindness towards all who love Me. I was, I am, and I will always be loving you unconditionally. My love is eternal and My fame is over anything else in heaven, on earth and under the earth. I will not give My name to licentiousness and greed. I AM KING FOREVER. I AM Your Covering. I AM your EVERYTHING. I AM the Resource of ALL you need. So why do people who call themselves by MY NAME, run to astrology, diviners, and sorcerers, for what they need or think they need? Why do they seek after other gods who murmur and lie? Why do people who call themselves “Christian” believe in false religions? I ALONE AM GOD ALMIGHTY AND THERE IS NONE LIKE ME!

Isa 8:19-20 NKJV And when they say to you, "Seek those who are mediums and wizards, who whisper and mutter," should not a people seek their God? Should they seek the dead on behalf of the living? 20 To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

Isa 1:21-23 NKJV The Degenerate City
How the faithful city has become a harlot! It was full of justice; Righteousness lodged in it, But now murderers. 22 Your silver has become dross, Your wine mixed with water. 23 Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; Everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards.

I have been traversing the house of the Lord in the land, and I have found many who mix witchcraft and sorcery with Christianity. They are impatient with Me, and have not sought after me, or taken My counsel, but have run a whoring after diviners and mediums. They think that I don’t see. And for many, they don’t even know that it is wrong to do so. They never hear the priests speak on it, so they just go ahead and do what is an abomination in My eyes. The people perish because there are no counselors. Where is the Shepherd who will teach My people right from wrong? And where are the people who will search out and meditate on My Word, that they may have LIFE?

Ezek 44:23 NKJV "And they shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the unholy, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean

Josh 1:8 NKJV This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.

People are starved for love and knowledge, and there are few who are willing to open their lives to reach out to others. So many are willing to come to church, yet if they need to BE the church, the rest of the week, they are so preoccupied, that they struggle with their inner man just to do the small things that would make a difference in the lives of others. There is a lot of self-will, but precious little self-denial. To want something is paramount to having it. And so many are unhealed and walking around wounded, yet they find difficulty finding anyone to help, who also don’t try to control them or who underestimate them. So many in the church are willing to just let others do the work of the kingdom without participating. Life has overburdened them, and they feel overwhelmed with life. You need to SHAKE off the lies of defeatism and unbelief.

If you want to know how to love others, just think of that other person as your son or daughter. How then would you help them or love them?
Look at how I have loved you. Have I given up on you? Have I abandoned you? Have I judged you? Have I been impatient with you? Have I ignored you? Am I not a God close by and not afar off? Is there no balm in Gilead? Have I not seated you in heavenly places in Christ Jesus and commissioned you to go into the world and make disciples of all men? Have I not said, that these signs will follow ALL who believe?

15 And He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. 16 He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned. 17 And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues; 18 they will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

I did not call only a select few to do miracles and healings. Stephen who was the first martyr, did all the works of the apostles. He was a disciple just like you. Step forward into the high calling of Your Lord Jesus Christ and know that I AM WITH YOU, whatever you do! I AM CHRIST IN YOU, the HOPE OF GLORY. NOTHING is impossible to those who BELIEVE!

If I AM LIFTED UP, I will draw all men to Myself. So make sure I AM STILL pre-eminent in your life, then reach out to others as I LEAD YOU, and draw them to ME. TEACH them how to hear My voice for themselves so that they will be able to hear and to see what the Spirit is saying. Do not try to take glory for yourselves. There is so much competition in the world, but it should not be in My church! It is because of your insecurities that you feel a need to be preeminent, but I am coming to heal all that afflicts you and to demonstrate My love to you, and to break every chain that has bound you. I AM removing the dross in your lives and I will RESTORE all that has been stolen, that you can be all I want you to be, and that you can feel My manifest LOVE. THE BEST IS YET TO COME!

Provocation

tearsofthefather@comcast.net

When I first looked at the clock it was 11:11 and I got distracted. So then when I looked again it was 11:55, then I heard the word “Provocation” and was led to look up provoke, and directly to these following verses:

Rom 11:11-12 NKJV Israel's Rejection Not Final
11 I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall? Certainly not! But through their fall, to provoke them to jealousy, salvation has come to the Gentiles. 12 Now if their fall is riches for the world, and their failure riches for the Gentiles, how much more their fullness!

Rom 11:11-12 AMPLIFIED
11 So I ask, Have they stumbled so as to fall [to their utter spiritual ruin, irretrievably]? By no means! But through their false step and transgression salvation [has come] to the Gentiles, so as to arouse Israel [to see and feel what they forfeited] and so to make them jealous.
12 Now if their stumbling (their lapse, their transgression) has so enriched the world [at large], and if [Israel's] failure means such riches for the Gentiles, think what an enrichment and greater advantage will follow their full reinstatement!

14 In the hope of making my fellow Jews jealous [in order to stir them up to imitate, copy, and appropriate], and thus managing to save some of them.
15 For if their rejection and exclusion from the benefits of salvation were [overruled] for the reconciliation of a world to God, what will their acceptance and admission mean? [It will be nothing short of] life from the dead!

16 Now if the first handful of dough offered as the firstfruits [Abraham and the patriarchs] is consecrated (holy), so is the whole mass [the nation of Israel]; and if the root [Abraham] is consecrated (holy), so are the branches. [Num 15:19-21.]
17 But if some of the branches were broken off, while you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among them to share the richness [of the root and sap] of the olive tree,
18 Do not boast over the branches and pride yourself at their expense. If you do boast and feel superior, remember it is not you that support the root, but the root [that supports] you.
19 You will say then, Branches were broken (pruned) off so that I might be grafted in!
20 That is true. But they were broken (pruned) off because of their unbelief (their lack of real faith), and you are established through faith [because you do believe]. So do not become proud and conceited, but rather stand in awe and be reverently afraid.
21 For if God did not spare the natural branches [because of unbelief], neither will He spare you [if you are guilty of the same offense].
22 Then note and appreciate the gracious kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's gracious kindness to you--provided you continue in His grace and abide in His kindness; otherwise you too will be cut off (pruned away).

The Voice of the Lord:
“ There are some in My church who have taken the road of perversion and not the truth of My Word, and who have discounted these words. REALIZE that I AM is not condoning the thinking that I have given up on Israel. Realize that the UNBELIEF they were cut off for is prevalent even in seminaries in America! And what have I said, but that you too will be cut off and pruned away if you fall prey to the lies of the enemy and his deceitfulness!

Do not think because you call yourself a Christian that it makes you one!
Do not think that there will be no consequence for saying that my SON was a mere man and not God and teaching it to others! [This reminded me of an assistant pastor in a former church who got up one Sunday and said, “ I wouldn’t be surprised if they found the bones of Jesus one day! “]
One by one, the truth has been stripped away from My church for centuries.
But I AM THE TRUTH. I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH, and the LIFE. There is no other way given under heaven by which men must be saved! Those who teach differently will have to give an account.

Perversion of scriptures has abounded, in men seeking their own will and understanding instead of seeking Mine! And the churches continue to teach, many of them from their own hearts, and not from MY HEART. There is such imbalance, that people are more and more losing life. To FOLLOW MY WORD IS LIFE! I came to GIVE you life, and that more abundantly!

Ps 33:4-6 NKJV
4 For the word of the LORD is right, and all His work is done in truth. 5 He loves righteousness and justice; The earth is full of the goodness of the LORD. 6 By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and all the host of them by the breath of His mouth.

Ps 119:42 NKJV So shall I have an answer for him who reproaches me,
For I trust in Your word.

Prov 3:7-8 NKJV Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the LORD and depart from evil. 8 It will be health to your flesh, and strength to your bones.

Israel was MINE from the beginning and I have longed to see the day that she will look upon Me, and realize the Truth. But there is much to be done before the fullness of the Gentiles is reached. And I am escalating the permeation of the gospel in the days ahead, that all mankind will have no excuse for not knowing the TRUTH!

Do NOT cling to the the gospel of exclusivity in thinking that you are the only ones I love, or the BRANCH that holds the gentiles in place is the same as the Root which is ISRAEL. I LOVE ISRAEL, MY PEOPLE. I WILL RESTORE HER and your hearts will REJOICE. I NEED YOU My beloveds to pray for ISRAEL and JEWS everywhere! I need you to pray for ALL who need to know Me! YOUR PRAYERS need to be for the LOST, and not just for your needs! If you reach out to others, I will reach out to you! GO and make disciples of ALL MEN! GO when I tell you to speak to someone, and do not hesitate!

Acts 10:19-20 NIV While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Simon, three men are looking for you. 20 So get up and go downstairs. Do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them."

DEMONSTRATE MY LOVE TO A LOST AND DYING WORLD! GO and MAKE DISCIPLES! Stop clinging to the comfort and safety of only knowing Christians! How will you make a difference if they never HEAR the TRUTH?
SOUND THE ALARM on My holy mountain. PRAY unceasingly! The WAR has begun. I AM IN NEED OF WARRIORS who will not give up! TAKE THE LAND, STEP BY STEP. AND TRUMPET MY WARNINGS TO ALL WHO WILL HEAR! It doesn’t matter that some will not, though sad. What matters is those who will hear and be changed! LOVE on those who will receive it! PRESS into ME for all that you do. Do not move presumptuously in anything ~ I AM the resource of all you need. So come to Me and get your marching orders from ME.

Some of you are in seclusion until I say to go! Some of you are being transitioned to a higher plane in Me, and need to be at My feet like Martha.
Stay there in that place that I’ve told you, until you are imbued with power from on High! STAY in My WORD and let Me share with you secrets of My TRUTH. REMEMBER how much I love you as these days grow darker My beloveds! REMEMBER that I will never, never, never leave you or forsake you! KNOW that the days ahead are GLORIOUS for the KINGDOM!

Presumption

Clay Sikes

Presumption: Warning!
by Clay Sikes

Presumption often rules the way Christians do things, and a fairly common practice in our efforts (works). For years, prophetic warnings have cautioned us that this method of determining actions will increasingly produce catastrophic results. Some have already experienced the disaster of actions based upon well-intended presumptive acts. Presumption is the lowest form of human knowledge and has no place in those being led into the powerful Third Day Church lifestyle.

As strange as it may sound, often God will use presumption to steer us toward the Spirit-led life. The fire from the failure of presumptive efforts tends to direct us to the necessity of hearing God before we move – a John 5:30 revelation, "Of my own ability I can do nothing…"

Who are those who no longer act on presumptive reasoning? Who are those who MUST HEAR GOD before taking an action? The answer is several fold: Those who have come to the end of themselves, who no longer make decisions from the arena of logic and reason, or from the arena of fear; those whose trust for the Lord is strong, and who have developed dependence upon a hearing ear. To these individuals, intellectual ascent has become a dangerous form of action.

True Sons do not move in presumption, having learned the benefits of hearing God. Sons are led of God's Spirit (Romans 8:14), and experience the benefits of their earthly inheritance. Those who have become disenchanted with being stuck in the Second Third (Pentecost), yearn to move into the Third, Third, The Feast Of Tabernacles, where simply being Spirit-filled has progressed to the keen desire of being Spirit led.

Presumption is the birthing ground for Ishmaels (works of the flesh) in our lives. We have come to the time in which it is impossible for Ishmael (works of the flesh) and Isaac (works of the Spirit) to live in the same house. One will persecute the other with relentless persecution. A great barometer in determining the level of presumption in our own lives can be gauged by the number of Ishmaels we have produced, or continue to produce.

The Word tells us that 'anything that is not faith is sin.' How can we have faith for anything we have not heard God say (to us)? Faith comes by having heard God speak. If we are prone to move without having heard God, we move by presumption; a dangerous place in this current world environment.

Prosper in The Famine
Davies Nderema

How To Survive & Prosper in The Famine Situation --
25 May 2004

PART ONE:
ALLOW JESUS TO GO BEFORE YOU

Let me begin with a prophecy which gave when I was praying; God said "The coming days will be tough days for those who don't live in the Word of God"

As we look around today, we find out many things happening. Today it is difficult even to travel. There are so many attacks on many ministries, churches and ministers more especially prophetic. When see what is happening Economically, Spiritually, Politically, Socially, Academically etc I have come up with one word "FAMINE".

The Bible says in the book of Genesis 26 that there was famine in the days of Isaac besides of the days of Abraham. In the second part of this message I am to share from this chapter.

In this first part I want to share my experience I had one day as I was praying and what Jesus instructed me.

As I was praying one afternoon, I was taken in the spirit and set for a journey. I found myself walking on a road and as I was walking all of sudden I saw wolves with their mouths wide open covering the whole road. I stopped because I could not go any further; the road was coved by grievous wolves with their mouths wide open. When I stopped I heard Jesus calling me "Davies come over hear" I said, I can't come there are grievous wolves covering the road. Then Jesus said "Call unto me to walk before you". I called on Jesus and said Jesus come and walk before me. Immediately I saw Jesus before me and all the wolves disappeared. Jesus and I walked for a distance, Jesus being before me and I following him. Then Jesus disappeared and I began walking alone. As I walked for few distance all of sudden I saw a huge mountain covering the road. I could not go further, therefore I stopped walking then beyond the mountain I heard Jesus calling "Davies come over here" I said to Jesus I can't come there because there is a mountain covering the road, then Jesus said call unto me to come and walk before you. I called Jesus to come and walk before me and all of sudden I saw Jesus before me and the mountain disappeared. Jesus and I walked for some distance then Jesus turned unto me and said "Davies whenever you call unto me and allow me to walk before you, you shall succeed but when you walk alone you shall fail in whatever you are doing. Then Jesus disappeared and I found myself in the place I was praying.

In this experience I found one thing for survival and success that is allowing Jesus to walk before us. It doesn't matter what situation you find yourself in even if it seems difficult or impossible but when you call unto Jesus to come and walk before you, the situation will disappear. One of the things to take note of is that Jesus asked me to call him to come and walk before me, that mean we need to call Jesus and allow Him to walk before us. Don't expect Jesus to come unto your situation if you don't call him to do so. Both wolves and mountains covered the road I was walking but when I invited Jesus to come and go before me both wolves and mountain disappeared. After this experience I was surprised on one thing; that is Jesus said call unto me to come and walk before you. It is only when you invite Jesus that He will come on your way.

You are going to survive and prosper in famine situation when you allow Jesus to walk before you in your situation.

God Bless You,

Prophetic Hymn

Ricardo Lemos

I was working on my yard this past Sunday when a hymn came to my mind.

It is an “oldie” – a beautiful and powerful one – and the interesting thing is that I believe I have not sung it or heard it for the past ten years or so.

Yet, despite it being part of a distant past in my life, I could not get it out of my mind as it kept coming back to me for the rest of the day.

Yesterday, a friend of mine called me and casually mentioned to me that this past Sunday a hymn came to his mind and that somehow he could not forget it for the rest of his day.

Amazingly, we found out that it was the same one.

As we continued talking about it, we realized that obviously God wanted to say something to us through the words of this hymn.

In fact, as I copied the lyrics and started meditating upon them, I could see the profound prophetic significance that the message, first written and sung over one hundred years ago, has for us today.

It is a severe warning and, at the same time, a truly comforting word regarding what I believe we are soon about to experience as individuals and as a nation.

Here are the words then –

MY ANCHOR HOLDS

Though the angry surges roll
On my tempest driven soul,
I am peaceful, for I know,
Wildly though the winds may blow,
I’ve an anchor safe and sure,
That can evermore endure.

And it holds, my anchor holds:
Blow your wildest, then, O gale,
On my bark so small and frail;
By His grace I shall not fail,
For my anchor holds, my anchor holds.

Mighty tides about me sweep,
Perils lurk within the deep,
Angry clouds o’ershade the sky,
And the tempest rises high;

Still I stand the tempest’s shock,
For my anchor grips the rock.

And it holds, my anchor holds:
Blow your wildest, then, O gale,
On my bark so small and frail;
By His grace I shall not fail,
For my anchor holds, my anchor holds.

I can feel the anchor fast
As I meet each sudden blast,
And the cable, though unseen,
Bears the heavy strain between;
Through the storm I safely ride,
Till the turning of the tide.

And it holds, my anchor holds:
Blow your wildest, then, O gale,
On my bark so small and frail;
By His grace I shall not fail,
For my anchor holds, my anchor holds.

Troubles almost ’whelm the soul;
Griefs like billows o’er me roll;
Tempters seek to lure astray;
Storms obscure the light of day:
But in Christ I can be bold,
I’ve an anchor that shall hold.

And it holds, my anchor holds:
Blow your wildest, then, O gale,
On my bark so small and frail;
By His grace I shall not fail,
For my anchor holds, my anchor holds.

Prophetic Insight
Nita Johnson

From Nita’s August 2004 Newsletter.

It looks like many different and diverging storms and forces are culminating together to create a world of darkness, uncertainties and chaos right before our eyes.

Jihad

I saw in a vision that the Arab world is calling their young men from all over the world to come and be trained for terrorist activity, they are calling it `Holy War'. Their chief targets are of course America, Israel and interests we have abroad.

Terrorism is reaching a new height because God is getting ready to judge it in order to free Nations and terrorist alike from the awful demon of Jihad. Blaming the war on Iraq is not the answer to ending the war on terrorism. Prayer is the answer my friends. By way of prayer God is going to intervene in such a manner that will send ripples of revulsion through Satan's Kingdom. Therefore, we must stand behind our President and pray him back into office.

Economy

The economy is not ready to fall yet. God is our support and will keep us in righteousness. If it were America's ingenuity alone we would have collapsed along time ago. If our foundations were secured in gold, still it would not be enough to hold us steady. But, God answers prayer and He loves to answer prayers to help America. So, pray and believe!

Iraq

At home there is unrest. The parties are fighting harder than ever to get their man into the Presidential office. Sometimes the war is so bitter I wonder how the Lord keeps us from the civil war I saw coming. It seems that we are being coerced to love one and hate the other. That is O.K. for the person who is balanced for he will never be moved by such forces. But, for those who are not, bitterness engenders strife.

1 wonder at the fact that it isn't enough for us to have war in Iraq, but the media and politics seem to be driven to bring that war home for the sake of winning their own war. Those who really do know better hammer away on non-issues until they become issues. The truth remains, Iraq is a war that had to be. God saw fit to judge a leadership that was destroying the very people it was supposed to be caring for. One report shows that there were few families in Iraq that were not afflicted with mental illness of at least one member because of the insufferable tyranny under which they were forced to live. Many other atrocities filled the nation's cup of sin until the Lord finally said: Enough! Further, the Lord was moving through our President to insure greater world security in the future. Having taken the step to act on behalf of the Lord's will let us not look back and second-guess our obedience. Rather, let us stand strong for right and support our President!

Judgment

America is still under a level of judgment and will be until the issue of the shedding of innocent blood is remedied. We will pray with you and fight for the Lord's mercy until rain pours down from heaven and heals our land. If we will pray, He will heal.

The True Battle

Powers that be are not sitting in the rooms of government. They are sitting in the heavenlies. New higher satanic powers have been released and positioned for the end times. Therefore, the people who are running the world behind the scenes through secret societies and closed summits have greater backing spiritually. Greater evil is being accomplished toward instituting the One World Government. Satan is closer than ever to completing his work toward a One World Religion.

Hordes of evil spirits have been released of late against the Church. These spirits are sent out in armies so vast that it is like a great cloud covering the earth. They are sent out to cause distractions in the Church. When He showed me this great horde, the Lord also shared His heart with me. He told me that His Church really does want Him. He said we are hungry for Him. But, the army of evil spirits is causing such distraction in the Church's minds and in their lives that they cannot get in touch with what they really want, which is the Lord. He also told me the remedy to this peril is healing the nation of the blood guiltiness. As we continue to repent we will push through the hordes and rise above the storms.

We are coming into a time of wolves, crocodiles and snakes. Let me explain;

When wolves want to attack their prey they will surround the heard of say, elk. They will watch carefully until they see the one who is weak. When they find the weak one they will cut it off from the rest and attack its face until they cut off its nose and mouth. This will cause the elk to suffocate and the wolf will devour it. I sense this defacing is character assassination, whether by another or by the spirit waging war against your mind. The devouring includes physical attacks against your bodies and health.

Crocodiles kill in another way. They spot their prey, swim up from behind and without notice grab the victim with their huge jaws and take them under the water to the river bottom. Once they settle on the bottom they will hold their prey there until they drown. After a moment if they still feel any life in its victim they will start wildly turning in flips around and around hoping to make their prey dizzy and disoriented. Then they will settle on the bottom again and wait to see if suffocation is complete. This they will do three times until they are sure their prey is dead. So, when the spirit of the croc strikes it strikes, to make you disoriented in your walk, confused and without hope. He tries to suffocate your faith through battles and attacks against your mind and make you feel alienated from the Lord. When He thinks you cannot breath anymore, he will devour.

Snakes represent sin. Satan deploys his snakes to tempt you to increasing levels of sin until he can bury your faith and righteousness in the pool of forgetfulness.

We are going to have to pray more and wiser to get the. job done. But, it is possible! We cannot only get the job done but we can prevail with a great victory! It is time for the body to stand for the faith they have received as a precious gift and contest the evil one. We can no longer avoid the war. So it is time to learn how best to fight and win the war. Don't yield to temptations to sin. And when darkness assails look to the Word and the Lord in prayer. Through Him you will prevail.

Revival

Because we will certainly be faithful, revival will come to America and the world. When the Lord visited me He told me that if I was not faithful to the commission He had given me. America would be destroyed by war and there would be no revival. However, if I will stay true to the commission He will send revival to America and to the world, healing His Church and delivering the lost before war comes.

I believe this will be the time He once spoke to me about well over 20 years ago. We will see no sick among us. There will be no feeble among us. We will see generations healed and the world will know Christ has come and He is Lord, as liquid love is poured out over the Church, healing divisions and making the body strong and full of authority, thus, bringing great glory and honor to the Head.

Miracles of every kind will abound. Joy will be our strength. And the magnetic love of our Lord will fill every part of our hearts and beings. Long awaited answers to prayer will be released in abundance.

One Final Note

Since we launched into the new commissions of the last few years; that being the call to help expedite Jewish people going home to Israel, the GOE's [Gathering of Eagles] in America and Nigeria as well as working with Israel and Italy to begin to facilitate Gatherings in those countries; we have come under increasing pressures in our ministry. I'd like to share a bit about these with you.

We answered the call to help get Jewish people home to Israel, I don't know the exact number who have made it home because you have helped us, help them. But, it has been sizable. However, immediately upon endeavoring to fulfill this undertaking, our ministry came under incredible financial attack. We weathered it for many months until the Lord finally spoke to me through revelation and told me to send out a notice to intercessors and let them know to pray with us. We did that, you helped us pray and the breakthrough finally came.

Next we were commissioned by way of a three-hour visitation from the Lord to begin the GOE's in America. He is the One that gave the title: Gathering of the Eagles. And He is the One who told me what to do and what would come of it all in the end. He is also the One that told me that if I were not obedient to this call America would be destroyed by war, never seeing revival. If we were obedient to do all that he said, America would see His glory in a wonderful outpouring of revival and war would be postponed. He reproved me for taking so long to embrace this call. (I sat down a couple weeks ago to really try to pinpoint when He first began to deal with me. I discovered that it took 3 years for me to finally say yes.) In the visitation in 2000, He told me that if I did not say yes that night it would be my last opportunity. America would be lost as He had not created anyone else for this purpose and He had no one else waiting in the wings to take my place. The decision whether America would rise of fall was upon my shoulders alone. I was stunned to silence. He reiterated this reality several more times in visitations and visions. Also, He sent prophets of a very high order, much higher than those in America to tell me the same thing. There are other ministries, about 3 or 4 who also have a part in saving America. But, because our part is to, at this point, deal with specific issues of the spilling of innocent blood, even if the others do their share but I do not, America will perish. I do not feel proud about this. I only feel the weight of the awesome responsibility of saving our Nation.

As a result of our obedience we have seen many powerful things transpire. The Lord always responds to our Gatherings by sending us supernatural signs to attest that we fulfilled what He wanted done in that particular GOE. We are only two minutes from the outpouring of revival. I sense that it will be no later than the fall of 2005. This is what I sense. It is not a direct word from the Lord.

We are now taking the GOE's to Nigeria and seeing even more outstanding results. The Christian President was re-elected when it was utterly impossible. His contender had 75% of the vote. He was also an Islamic extremist. After our GOE constituting several days of repentance and intercession the contender handed the Christian President the Nation and left the race for Presidency. He told his constituents to vote for the Christian Incumbent. He told them all that Allah told him to do this. The Christian won the election much to everyone's shock. Had he not won, Nigeria would be under an Islamic government today. Also, as a result of the second GOE in Nigeria 1000s of children who were being used for slavery from ages 3 years and up are being freed from captivity. The government is taking the lead in breaking into and arresting the perpetrators of child slavery. That particular GOE was days of weeping over the slavery issue. Incidentally, all of this is part of public news in Nigeria.

We are seeing unprecedented things happen in these Nations. We have seen a 5-year drought broken in Israel; we have seen party leaders in Italy take a trip across the seas to publicly apologize to the Israeli Kennesit for Italy's part in the Holocaust. This followed on the heals of repentance over this issue in Italy. This is all public news in these countries.

The Lord is moving and we are trying our best to be faithful to the call. Things greater than I, am writing will transpire before it is over. Not because I am so great but, because a handful of people, Pastors and Intercessors are being obedient to the call.

Well, Satan is mad! That is why he is once again hitting our finances so hard. He is also hitting the other leaders. There is not any area that has not been hit by the devil. The leaders know how to do warfare. It isn't a lack of understanding. It is that much of the warfare is taking place in people's minds. People are forgetting to support us, or thinking perhaps because we freely give everything away like the Bible tells us to do that we don't need support. Even Pastors have told us they thought we were independently wealthy. (The problem was, they were serious.)

It is the devil's handy work. Satan has appeared to me and to other prophets and told them He will stop at nothing to end my trouble making in his kingdom. He says we devastate his kingdom every time we go out into the field. The Lord told me the same thing. So the devil has decided he will finish up the warfare he is doing now and if that doesn't stop me., he will kill me. I know he can never succeed in the last endeavor as long as I am careful to be obedient until the day I am appointed to die as a martyr for Christ. But, Satan has made havoc of some things in the meantime.

Why is the devil so mad? Let me give a brief summery of reasons.

America is the most powerful nation on the earth. It is considered a Christian Nation representing the cause of righteousness and well doing. We also carry the mantel of Fatherhood to the Nations. When America is refined by the power of Reformation which incidentally was initiated in 2001 by Angels, it will champion the cause of Christ to such a degree that the world will stand in astonishment. Because of the goodness that still runs in the heart of our Nation Satan wants to destroy it. He does not want to see what will happen to his kingdom if America experiences the tidal wave of revival. He knows many other Nations will then be swept in by revival. But, we will not quit until Revival hits America.

Nigeria is the world's capital for witchcraft. If Satan wants his chief witches for any purpose, he goes to Nigeria to find them. I have been shown this by divine revelation, and, others who have seen into this mystery have confirmed it. On the other hand we are overturning Nigeria's darkness in massive ways every time we go there. Satan is losing; Jesus is winning. If he really loses Nigeria's witchcraft by revival, his whole kingdom will be devastated.

(I know there is much going on in Nigeria regarding the saving of souls through Reinhart Bonke however, what he is doing is evangelism and it doesn't involve infiltrating the kingdom's greatest darkness. What the Lord is about to do is turn the greatest darkness upside down in Nigeria.)

Israel - When Israel falls to our Messiah, the end of the age will have come and the new millennium will begin. So, why would Satan get upset if we prepare Israel for a great move of God? The answer is clear. His time will be over and the Lord will return.

Italy - Rome, Italy will be the headquarters of the new One World Religion. Satan does not want anyone messing with Catholicism and what he is doing through the Roman Catholic Church to prepare the world for this next step. But, nevertheless, the Lord is going to use the GOE's to empty the Catholic Church of multiplied millions of souls. What began in the Reformation through Martin Luther will be finished through the Reformation Anointing the Lord has given to the Gathering of Eagles.

The Reformation the Lord released upon the earth in the year 2001 will change world governments.

I am telling you all this because we need your help once again. We need you to join us in prayer and if possible send in your gifts of love to help us. If we can get enough people to join us in prayer over the following issues we can defeat this current attack just as we did last time.

Please pray for the following:

I. The World For Jesus Ministries and my family. Pray for our finances and health. Pray for God's favor, wisdom, and protection as we continue to work in this and other Nations.

2. Pray for the leaders of the GOE and their families. Their health and finances. Also pray for our Liaisons in Nigeria, Italy, and Israel. Pray for all the above concerning them and that God will continue to enhance and enlarge their understanding of the vision.

3. Pray for our intercessors. Pray for strength, vision, and faith. And that God's blessings will be upon them for their sacrifice for the World For Jesus Ministries.

4. Pray that God will continue to add new intercessors to us.

5. Pray for the finances and needs of our supporters. Pray that the Lord will open the windows of heaven for those who pray for us and who support this ministry

6. Pray for America, Nigeria, Israel and Italy, that God will complete the preparation of these Nations under the Spirit of Reformation for the upcoming revival. That He will give us an open door in these nations that no man can close That He will give us the anointing we need and the wisdom to know how to do all that is needful.

7. Finally, if the Lord speaks to your hear to do more than to fast and pray, arc you feel to give a special offering at this time, I want to say thank-you in advance.

May God richly bless you for your involvement with us, in the healing of the Nations. We love you all so much, and feel very privileged to be able to share with you the things of the Lord Thank you for your persistence in prayer, you loving support, and your obedience to stand in the gap with us. It means more to me than words car ever say.

Loving Shalom,
Nita

Nita Johnson Newsletter

Dear Friends:

It has been a long time since we have been able to communicate with you from our ministry office in the form of a newsletter. I am so thankful to the Lord that He has made a way to send you this brief newsletter to let you know of our progress in the journey upon which we as a ministry have embarked.

Many things have taken place. Although some things through which we have passed have not been easy, looking back we can honestly say; we have clearly seen the loving hand of the Father through it all.

A few years ago you may remember that we were commissioned to begin the GOE's. (Gathering of the Eagles) here in America. After a few GOE's we were invited to take them to Nigeria. Later the door began to open in Israel for us to begin to work with leaders there, then the Lord opened up Italy. This work has been very challenging. When we find ourselves living on the edge of our own inadequacy, it is impossible to take the glory that belongs only to Jesus when things turn out so beautiful in the end. Further, He uses these challenges to teach us the truth about Himself and the power of faith. We have been learning all these important lessons and are very thankful for them.

Although this will not be a typical newsletter it will be the beginning of restoring our typical prophetic letter of encouragement. This letter will be designed to briefly get you up to date and share some of the prophetic future with you. I trust it will be a ministry to you.

More about the GOE's:

First, I want to take a minute and explain why we weep over past wrongs concerning people groups who reside within our borders.

When innocent blood is spilled, it cries from the ground to the Lord until righteous judgment is passed. Innocent blood gives Satan a legal open door to fulfill his plans and purposes in any nation. That is why he requires blood sacrifices and often the innocent blood of Christians or infants during satanic worship. He is buying legal right to work his diabolical plans. When we repent of spilling innocent blood on behalf of the forefathers of this Nation as well as our contemporary's, we are allowing the Lord to pass righteous judgment in favor of mercy.

Incidentally, that is why Satan was so overjoyed at the crucifixion of the Lord Jesus. He thought he had won with this great act of treachery with which he had incited the people. He thought God would hate Israel and the Romans and would never extend mercy again because they spilled the innocent blood of His dear Son. As a prophet from Southern California saw, when the Lord's blood began to drip upon the earth and Satan found himself in his throne room turning to stone with every drop, He realized he had made the biggest mistake of his career. This innocent blood was different, instead of giving him legal license; it was taking away all legal license. But, by that time there was nothing he could do about it. He had lost!

Repentance accomplishes the same thing. As we repent for the sins of others just as Daniel did, we are applying the value of the Lord's innocent blood, thereby removing the guilt of our sin. This gives the Lord a path by which to heal the afflicted and the oppressor. Further, as only His noble and excessive mercy can do, He then turns to heal the Nation. Hence, we will weep over the wrongs of America until the Lord has found a path to heal the oppressed and the oppressor, and finally, our Nation.

We are nearing the end of weeping over the spilling of the innocent blood of the First Nations People. Through the eyes of our Lord and through easily located historical data, I learned of an American history I wish I never would have seen. Weeping before the Lord to gain His forgiveness for America's sins against these people has been a rich and moving experience in every way. I do not regret even one moment, however painful the burden of the truth has been to carry. If Christianity was designed to deliver the weak and erring from the ways of darkness, the Church failed miserably to understand and embrace the Lord's true heart concerning America's first people. I have learned much about Him through this journey, as have all the leadership of the GOE's. I have also learned about human frailty, ignorance, pride and greed. It is one thing to read about these things in relation to Kings and Presidents in other Nations, but it is another thing to relive the heartbreaking reality of the failures of our own Nation. It changes a person, and it has changed me.

When we finished the GOE in Washington DC, the Lord spoke to me that He would now take over and begin to make things right. He said: You have put the seed in the ground. You don't know how I will bring forth the plant of life for the First Nations People and for America, but I will do it. Just rest and watch. So that is what we are doing. In the mean time a "Resolution of Apology" to the First Nations People has been drawn up by Senator Brownback and is being submitted to the Senate for acceptance. It looks good so far. There are only a few roadblocks. Please be in prayer with us that it will be passed and that it will begin a new stream of healing to the American Indian and to our Nation. This resolution will be a landmark in American history and will give the Lord more room to move on behalf of our Nation.

We concluded our GOE in Washington DC last fall. We then traveled to Hawaii this past spring. We wept some more over the wrongs perpetrated upon the Hawaiian people. We saw amazing supernatural signs indicating God's good pleasure. As we finished He gave us more signs in the heavens and on the earth to let us know that Hawaii can and will now be visited with revival. Our next stop will be Alaska to weep over the sins committed against the Native Alaskan's. After Alaska, we will begin to forge through the rivers of innocent blood of the African American that has been spilled on our Nation's soil. The Lord will visit us with revival before the work is complete. As revival is poured out, we will begin to work in other ways to bring further healing to the people groups of our Nation.

As I mentioned before, I am being changed by this commission. We travel to other Nations and my heart breaks to see the misery of the helpless at the hands of their generational oppressors. I long to see the human spirit free in Christ, but I also long to see the human temple free to worship God in spirit and in truth, free from fear. Further, I long to see the oppressor free from corruption to worship the living God.

Our Italian liaison, who is also a pastor and I had lunch with a man who heads a very important ministry here in the States. We met in Italy of all places. I asked him some very pointed questions in hopes of inspiring my Italian brother to fulfill the work God has placed before him in Italy, with greater fervency.

He shared about a mission that he had embarked upon in the East. He spied out a child prostitute ring and learned that all his worst fears were a reality. I asked him what steps had been taken to remedy the situation. He said he has since rescued over 400 children from the horrid slave drivers. The children are now safe in Christian orphanages. All three of us wept as he shared his heart.

After our meeting I was thinking about what he said and as a result of our GOE in Nigeria the government rose up and began to infiltrate child slave rings all over Nigeria. We had nothing to do with this on the secular stage. All our work was done in the spirit before the throne of God. Nevertheless, multiplied 1000s of children are today being liberated from their captors in an ongoing aggressive campaign by governments -- now in other countries in Africa as well. My next thought was, you liberate a Nation from darkness you liberate its children. Lord, 1 see Your wisdom! I wept! Nations are slowly seeing change, but I am also being changed. His heart is not simply something I view for the sake of a mission. It is increasingly becoming my life. It is becoming a part of who I am.

The Call:

Many years ago I was in prayer. The Lord released a vision to me. I saw my life pass before me. Throughout the whole vision, I saw the most unbearable suffering that I would walk through. I was shocked - horrified! I wept and shook uncontrollably as I cried out: "No, I can't do that. No one can endure so much suffering and survive. Lord, I thought I would never say no to You, but I would never survive so much suffering. No one could survive it, I am sure!" Then I was lifted up and carried to overlook a huge hole in the earth. I tried hard to see inside of it. Around the hole there were multitudes of people. Suddenly, I realized I was looking right at the lake of fire in hell. Within moments I saw a huge hand come down and sweep the multitudes into that fiery lake. People were screaming in such intense agony it would beggar description. I was horrified. I was helpless to save even one of them. Then, my Savior spoke to me: "For these will you go?" At first I was stupefied.

How could I compare the suffering of this present moment with the suffering of multitudes in eternal hell? I could not. So, I cried anew. I poured out my soul to Him and told Him I would endure whatever it would take to see the multitudes saved from that terrible place. I didn't know then that I myself would undergo such changes during the journey to change the history of Nations. I am not the same person I used to be my friends.

Has Satan's oppositions and the challenges we have had to overcome as servants and a ministry made me more Christlike? I don't know, I certainly hope so. Whatever His righteous eyes would judge on that account only He knows. But I do know one thing; I see things a great deal more like He sees them these days. I also see people a great deal more like He sees them. I am learning to judge no man by the flesh. I am learning to regard no one more greatly than is right. On other hand, I am learning to regard others better than myself. The latter is imperative if you are going to save Nations. I read about the awesome revivals of history and notice they casually overlook the suffering of the revivalist. We read about those who were used to carry the Reformation across Europe. The suffering of the vessels seems to be inseparable from the glory they carried. But, they hardly seemed to care. It was the nations of lost souls that kept their attention and continued to be the fuel to the fire that drove them. I have learned that heaven works by a different economy than earth. Love and compassion for the ignorant, erring, and the helpless is heaven's worth. It is a gold more precious than anything on earth. A life lived for Christ and His heart for the needy is what impresses Him, not worldly fame. Not that I have ever sought worldly glory. I would have been quite content to simply stay in a life of prayer and let someone else be seen on the forefront. But, nevertheless, I am being changed deep within my friends. The deeper I embrace this call, the greater the change it seems to produce.

I don't mind the challenges and hardships of this present time. I will give my life as a martyr in Italy or Israel. The Lord has graciously given me the choice, although I find it very difficult at this point to make that choice, for I love both Nations. Having settled the greatest question of all; "will I love not my life unto death?" All other issues about the suffering to fulfill the call seem to be laid to rest. My greatest concern is that the Lord will know that there are enough people in America as well as the other Nations we are being sent to that desire to see His glory, that He will feel justified in sending it. You cannot possibly imagine the sense of responsibility we carry as a ministry over making sure we do everything we can to save America, which according to the Lord's heavenly messengers is what I was created to do.

Thank you, for walking with us. Thank you for believing in what we believe in. Thank you, for praying, and for staying. Thank you for supporting the work before you see the full fruit of changed Nations. We cannot do it without you. The more you are willing to help in any way that the Lord would ask you to do, the more heaven bears witness with you. Your rewards will be rich and intense very soon. We pray that you have already seen rich rewards. Now, may they increase.

Word of the Lord.
Date: October 8, 2004; 6:32 PM

The wrap around is what I am causing to occur at this given time. Multitudes will be affected by this procedure that I am causing to come to pass. Many will stand in great wonderment at this thing, and some will stand in perfect peace with this thing that I am about to do. Some will say this is not of Me, but all that know Me will say surely this is of the Lord. Many lives will be affected with what I am doing in this circumference. Multitudes will run to the cross at this great onset of the Manifestation of My Glory.

I am through with the mundane! Now I am entering into the supernatural realm in My Kingdom and I will flow continually out of this supernatural realm. Much hindsight will be acknowledged at this given time. For I am on My post, when all others have left their posts. I see all and I know all and I am truly about the Kingdom business.

Forces of darkness will be drawn back and My people will be set free from all bondages that have had them bound for generations now. This is the hour that I have been talking about for a decade now, and now is the time for it all to come to pass. I am preparing the way for the second coming of My son and all shall surely see Him come forth in all His Glory to gather My people on home.

MARCH ON CHURCH! MARCH ON! FOR THE ENEMY HAS BEEN DEFEATED AND MY CHURCH IS COMING FORTH VICTORIOUSLY ON ALL SIDES.

PROCLAIM LIBERTY AT EVERY PORT. FACE THE ENEMY WITH A SMILE AND THE VICTORY FLAG AND MARCH ON CHURCH! MARCH ON!

And

Word of the Lord.
Date: October 10, 2004; 1:00 AM

Much has been said about My Glory, but the church does not understand the totality of what I am saying to them. Heaven and Earth shall pass away, but little one, I tell you this night that My Word shall never come back to Me void. I have raised up a mighty army that will march forth in My Power and they will totally consume the enemy and all his foes. I have sent marching orders out and the army is getting ready to march. I have been preparing them for years now, and now is the time for this army to move forward into what I have called them to do.

I have called them to destroy the kingdom of darkness and destroy they shall. They shall be like My son David and they shall destroy the giants in the land and they shall overcome with the words of their testimonies. Many souls are being weighed in the balance, but I assure you that My scales are just and I shall redeem all that are mine. There is nothing to fear at this given time, for I have equipped this army with My power and My authority and I have sent them out with a forehead of flint and a backbone of steel. They shall surely conquer and divide saith the Lord, for I have spoken and so shall it be.

Arise church? Arise and go forth as more than conquerors through Jesus Christ, My one and only Son, who conquered the forces of darkness at His death and resurrection. Go forth empowered by the Blood of the Lamb. My fire shall be as a wall before you and I shall be your rear guard and the enemy shall have no place to attack.

PSALM 122:6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: "May those who love you be secure".

Lutuni për paqen e Jeruzalemit, le të begatohen ata që të duan.

Be om fred för Jerusalem! Låt det gå väl för alla som älskar dig.

Inoia he ata noho mo Hiruharama: ka whiwhi ki te pai te hunga e aroha ana ki a koe.

Erbitte Heil für Jerusalem! Ruhe sollen die haben, die dich lieben!

Demandez la paix de Jérusalem. Que ceux qui t'aiment jouissent du repos!

Lapriyè Bondye pou pa gen dezòd lavil Jerizalèm ankò. Se pou tout moun ki renmen ou yo viv ak kè poze.

Domandate pace per Gerusalemme: sia pace a coloro che ti amano,

Bed om fred for Jerusalem! La det gå dem vel som elsker dig!

Pedid por la paz de Jerusalén; Sean prosperados los que te aman.

Bed om Jerusalems Fred! Ro finde de, der elsker dig!

Bid voor de vrede van Jeruzalem; dat ieder die van de stad houdt, rust mag ervaren.

Könyörögjetek Jeruzsálem békességéért; legyenek boldogok a tégedszeretõk!

Biðjið Jerúsalem friðar, hljóti heill þeir, er elska þig.

Early Morning Awakening; Early Morning Privilege

Marie-France McDowell-Smith

January 31, 2004

I was jolted back into this dimension, and was immediately awake from deep sleep.
Flashing before me was a numeric, huge, glowing and bright '13'!
A white neon sign suspended against a background of black.
I heard 'danger, danger, danger - imminent', 'black, white, gold' - 'no go!'
My clock indicated 1:29 am central time (my clock is set ahead, and accurate time would be 1:15 am).
As I was disturbed; I got on my face to pray, intercede, and weep before the L-rd. After a period of time, I was impressed to record this event and to do further investigation as the Ruach haKodesh would lead. Recently, HaShem has taken me from studying the Psalms (for one year) to the book of Proverbs. And this is what I found in Proverbs:
Proverbs 1:15 My son, do not walk in the way with them; restrain your foot from their path
Proverbs 1:29 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord (HERE the Amplified Bible directs one to Prov. 8:13)
Proverbs 8:13 The reverent fear and worshipful awe of the L-rd includes the hatred of evil; pride, arrogance, the evil way, and perverted and twisted speech I hate.

When awakened to the following vision, I sensed GREAT DANGER! Not fear, DANGER!

Danger ~ NOUN: 1. Exposure or vulnerability to harm or risk. 2. A source or an instance of risk or peril. 3. Obsolete Power, especially power to harm.
ETYMOLOGY: Middle English danger, power, dominion, peril, from Old French dangier, from Vulgar Latin *dominirium, authority, power, from Latin dominium, sovereignty, from dominus, lord, master. See dem- in Appendix I.

Fear ~ NOUN: 1a. A feeling of agitation and anxiety caused by the presence or imminence of danger. b. A state or condition marked by this feeling: living in fear. 2. A feeling of disquiet or apprehension: a fear of looking foolish. 3. Extreme reverence or awe, as toward a supreme power. 4. A reason for dread or apprehension: Being alone is my greatest fear.
VERB: Inflected forms: feared, fear·ing, fears

TRANSITIVE VERB: 1. To be afraid or frightened of. 2. To be uneasy or apprehensive about: feared the test results. 3. To be in awe of; revere. 4. To consider probable; expect: I fear you are wrong. I fear I have bad news for you. 5. Archaic To feel fear within (oneself).
INTRANSITIVE VERB: 1. To be afraid. 2. To be uneasy or apprehensive.
ETYMOLOGY: Middle English fer, from Old English fr, danger, sudden calamity. See per-3 in Appendix I.
OTHER FORMS: fearer —NOUN

SYNONYMS: fear, fright, dread, terror, horror, panic, alarm, dismay, consternation, trepidation These nouns denote the agitation and anxiety caused by the presence or imminence of danger. Fear is the most general term: “Fear is the parent of cruelty” (J.A. Froude). Fright is sudden, usually momentary, great fear: In my fright, I forgot to lock the door. Dread is strong fear, especially of what one is powerless to avoid: His dread of strangers kept him from socializing. Terror is intense, overpowering fear: “And now at the dead hour of the night, amid the dreadful silence of that old house, so strange a noise as this excited me to uncontrollable terror” (Edgar Allan Poe, The Tell-Tale Heart 1843.) Horror is a combination of fear and aversion or repugnance: Murder arouses widespread horror. Panic is sudden frantic fear, often groundless: The fire caused a panic among the horses. Alarm is fright aroused by the first realization of danger: I watched with alarm as the sky darkened. Dismay robs one of courage or the power to act effectively: The rumor of war caused universal dismay. Consternation is often paralyzing, characterized by confusion and helplessness: Consternation gripped the city as the invaders approached. Trepidation is dread characteristically marked by trembling or hesitancy: “They were … full of trepidation about things that were never likely to happen” (John Morley).

WORD HISTORY: Old English fr, the ancestor of our word fear, meant “calamity, disaster,” but not the emotion engendered by such an event. This is in line with the meaning of the prehistoric Common Germanic word *fraz, “danger,” which is the source of words with similar senses in other Germanic languages, such as Old Saxon and Old High German fr, “ambush, danger,” and Old Icelandic fr, “treachery, damage.” Scholars have determined the form and meaning of Germanic *fraz by working backward from the forms and the meanings of its descendants. The most important cause of the change of meaning in the word fear was probably the existence in Old English of the related verb fran, which meant “to terrify, take by surprise.” Fear is first recorded in Middle English with the sense “emotion of fear” in a work composed around 1290.

Proverbs 1:33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

Proverbs 3:24 When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.
3:25 Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.
3:26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

Thank you haShem!

Pull Together and PRAY!
Sandy Brunson

Oct 27, 2004
In years past when our country was threatened by enemies around the world, the nation of America began to pull together on every front. Men joined the army, women took over many of the jobs the men left, boys and girls pitched in and helped in many ways, there was food rationing as well as other items as well. When the danger was high and "freedom's way of life" was threatened, people put aside their differences and many of their selfish needs and pulled together for a cause greater than themselves.

One of the ways such campaigns were launched was through the use of the famous "Uncle Sam" poster on which he looked directly in the face of the view and pointed his long finger directly at them. People responded. They answered the "call" and willingly gave of themselves to the tasks at hand. It was this "unity" of cause that strengthened the nation and empowered people to work together to build in dangerous and uncertain times. We saw some of that in the aftermath of the horrible attack on 9-11...but it should not be just temporary...it should be for the long haul.

God is calling His people, and He is calling us to a greater cause than even the freedom of the nation we love! He is calling all who have received Him as Savior and Lord to rise up to prayer for the souls of lost men and women around this world. He is calling us to take a stand for Him, His Kingdom and His way of life in this dark hour in which we live. If ever there was a time our God needs us, His people, to rise up under the "Banner of Jesus Christ", taking a stand for righteousness and truth in our own lives so that we can be pure vessels of honor for Him and of prayer toward Him...it is NOW!

I wish the times were simpler. I wish the dark storm clouds were not mounting up. I wish the divisions in our nation were not picking up as they are. I wish we could just have a sweet little Sunday School lesson, say "nice things" and go home and take a nap! But sadly, that is not the truth!

As we read the headlines, listen to the television reports, read the internet by-lines, only an ostrich could fail to see the 'handwriting on the wall." We are in for an unpleasant time around the world, and the once-protected nation in which we live and abide in "peace and freedom" has been drawn into the fray!

We who are Christians must come forth to lift up our voices in prayer in this hour! God has called His people to awaken! He wants us to rise up, to be alert, watching in prayer with our spirits, and to begin to help Him sound the alarm that Jesus is coming! As the people of God, we must be ready! We must be willing to answer every call that He sends forth in these perilous days!

God is calling each of us to answer that call in our hearts! The deeper we get to the times of peril and turmoil we are hearing about through the news media, the more obvious the message is to everyone. We who have the Holy Spirit within are to release Him into the earth by our prayers, our words, and our actions! We are in a very critical time with this election next week....and we must stand...having done all...to stand therefore for God and for His Kingdom! Pull together and PRAY!

In this critical time of election for the United States...all Christians everywhere should pull together and PRAY for the outcome of this election and the years to come will affect many things around the globe.

Pastor Jack Hayford who is presently President of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel has written:

"The next President of the United Sates will set the tone for the coming 25 years. As everyone knows, Supreme Court appointments are forthcoming. Our vote will set America's direction for four years to decide the next quarter century. I believe that this year's election will ultimately prove to be about the soul of our nation. This year we face a decision that transcends a person or a party: we are literally choosing how the laws of our land will be decided between now and the mid-21st Century. This year, "conservative" doesn't have to do with politics; it has to do with law and decisive standards. In short: Do we give our children a future that redefines sexuality, marriage, morality and spiritual freedom?

I believe myself to be calling out with words of prophetic importance – and in a spirit consistent with the heart and the Word of God."

Prayer Points
· Repent for national sins and ask God to have mercy on our nation. Jeremiah 14:19-21 II Chronicles 7:14

· Ask God to release His warring angels to fight for God's Agenda.

· Pray that forces of darkness opposed to the Will of God in America, the Middle East, Israel, and Europe be bound.

· Pray that the voices of evil, lies and deception in the media, educational institutions and on the streets be silenced.

· Pray that the truth will expose deception and evil plots.

· Pray that Believers will vote according to their Christian conscience and Biblical beliefs and not political affiliations.

Pull together....and PRAY!

Looking unto Jesus,
Sandy

Pentecost The Bride Coming Forth

Christine Beadsworth

24/05/2004
The Lord has been impressing two scriptures upon my heart in the past days:

(Zechariah 4:7 KJV) Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

(Psalms 102:13 KJV) Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

It seemed to me the Holy Spirit was highlighting an important event which was to take place in the spiritual realm and as I prayed for revelation and understanding of the times, I began to see an awesome parallel in the Word concerning the days we as the Church are living in. We are entering the appointed time in which God is pouring a double portion of favor upon His Bride! This is confirmed within these two verses as the word for ‘time’ in psalm 102 is ’eth’ which is the same as ‘kairos’ in the Greek, meaning ‘a window of time in which God moves’. The second word for ‘time’ in this verse means ‘ a fixed time or season, an appointed time, a festival’. So we see that the Lord is arising to meet an eternal appointment in this season. This is the time that was scheduled before the foundation of the earth and the appointment has not been canceled! This is the year of the Lord’s favour when He is coming to comfort all who mourn in Zion. The word translated ‘favour’ in psalm 102:13 is ‘to stoop in kindness to an inferior, to have pity on, to bestow’.

Zechariah says that the headstone is brought forth with cries of, “grace, grace”. This word can also be translated as ‘favour, favour’. What does favour do? It opens up the way for one to move or function freely. If you have favour with someone in a position of power, you are able to get doors opened for you in the direction you need to go!! Zechariah 4:7 shows us that a double portion of favour is going to make the way open for this headstone to be brought forth in the earth!

I began to be curious as to what this headstone was that Zechariah referred to. It is composed of two words:

Eben   - a stone, a plummet, a stone of fire, a precious stone

Rosha - the feminine word for head

So this headstone is feminine! This scripture is not referring to Christ, the head of the Body but to someone who is at a similar level of rulership with Him – His Bride. We see here the beautiful portrayal of the revealing of the Bride of the Lamb released to rule in the earth with a double portion of favour making way for her as she walks. Isaiah 61:7 says this:

For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

Esther pleased the king ore than all the other women and so he crowned her queen. Esther 2:17 says that she received grace and favour in his sight. Another way of saying this is, she received favour and favour – a double portion of favour!

When a Bride is crowned, she is given a position of authority in the kingdom and is empowered to rule.

The word for ‘virtuous’ here means ‘a force, an army, wealth, might, power, riches, valor, virtue, strength’. The Bride of Jesus is a virtuous woman; a warring, brave, strong army in the earth and she is the crown of her husband, Jesus.

(Isaiah 62:3 KJV) Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

She is a crown of glory, endued with favour, exercising righteous judgments in the earth and extending the Kingdom. It is the favour of God poured out in the coming season which will cause His people to go in and possess the land of their inheritance.

(Psalms 44:3 MKJV) For they did not get the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but it was Your right hand, and Your arm, and the light of Your face, because You favored them.

God opened up the way at the Red Sea and at the Jordan for His people to go through and in this day we shall see a double opening, double favour, double anointing. Not only will there be evidence of the spirit of Elijah, but also of Elisha(who had a double portion of anointing).This is why we will do greater works for the Kingdom in this day.

It states in Zechariah 4:7 that Zerubbabel was the one who would bring forth this headstone, the Bride, who is a righteous plummet in the earth. What or who is he a picture of? I believe the answer is found in digging deep into the meaning of his name. It is a composite of two words:

Zeru - to flow

Babel - comes from a root word meaning ‘ to overflow, specifically with oil, to anoint’

So, wrapped up within this name is a double portion of flowing or an overflowing anointing. It is this double portion of anointing that will be the hallmark of the Bride in this day; it is this which will bring her forth to a place where she is recognized for who she is. As the crown of her Husband, she will carry the seal of His approval and favour. She is going to arise and shine for the glory of the Lord is upon her.

(Psalms 92:10 MKJV) But You shall lift up my horn as the wild ox; and I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

The word for ‘anoint’ in this scripture is only used once in the Word and means ‘to overflow with oil’. The other words translated ‘anoint’ mean ‘ to rub in’ signifying a smaller quantity of oil being used. So the anointing described here is a double portion anointing, the same one which flows over Aaron’s beard and onto his garments:

Psa 133:1 A Song of degrees; of David. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments. As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

This outpouring of anointing is connected to the brethren being in unity; unity of purpose, heart and mind like the disciples on the day of Pentecost – they were in one accord in one place. It also describes the anointing as being a high-priestly anointing which is in actual fact a commissioning and anointing for a position, an equipping to carry out an office. In the same way, the Bride is made up of royal priests and just as Esther was crowned and thus equipped for her position, so too there is coming in this season, an outpouring upon those who take up their positions and appointments in Christ.

The oneness of heart and mind is underscored by the fact that it is a single headstone that is brought forth; a many-membered Bride, made up of mature sons with a single vision; to bring glory to their Bridegroom.

This headstone is also the plummet spoken of in Zechariah 4:10

(Zechariah 4:10 KJV) For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

A plummet is an instrument used in adjusting building erections to a perpendicular line or to the upright. So this headstone or plummet is going to be a standard of righteousness against which all building in the Kingdom will be measured and tested. That which is not upright will be torn down and rebuilt according to the standard of righteousness because righteousness and justice are the foundations of His throne. We see also from the above verse that the seven spirits of God will rest upon this plummet or headstone, which is confirmed by Zechariah 3:8,9

‘Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH. For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.’

So a hallmark of this bridal company will be that they operate in the power of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Wisdom and Revelation, the Spirit of Counsel and Might , the Spirit of Knowledge and the Fear of the Lord. Isaiah 12 gives us a further explanation of how this Manchild will operate:

(Isaiah 11:3 KJV) And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:but with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

This Branch, which is also a plummet and a headstone, will exercise judgment in righteousness because of the anointing. She will proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind. She will declare the year of the Lord’s favour in the earth!

In Zechariah 3:9, when God says, “I will engrave”, that word ‘engrave’ can be translated ‘ to open wide, to break forth, to let go free, to begin, to loosen’. The marking of God upon this stone will bring about a tremendous release to the Bride of Christ in this season. It will be a release marked by a double portion of divine favour. This servant that the Lord will bring forth is a bondslave Bride; One who has been set free but chooses to follow wherever the Spirit leads. She is the branch which grows and bears much fruit out of intimacy with the Bridegroom.

(Psalms 110:2 MKJV) The Lord will send forth the rod of Your strength from Zion; rule in the midst of Your enemies. Your people shall be willing in the day of Your power, in holy adornment from the womb of the morning: You have the dew of Your youth.

This rod or scepter sent forth out of Zion exercises God’s authority through the ruling reining Bride of Christ as she extends the influence of His Kingdom in the earth. The above verse says that God’s people will offer themselves willingly - they will say, “ here am I, Lord; send me”. It also speaks of them being set apart for His purposes in holiness, having been in a place of preparation for such a time as this – and from this womb, they shall be brought forth with shouts of ‘favour, favour’ into the fullness of their inheritance in Christ, a place of bridal rule and authority.

At this time, the feast of Pentecost or Shavuot is celebrated. There are very significant parallels prophetically for the Third Day Church in this feast. Firstly, it is celebrated 50 days after Passover. Fifty is the number of Jubilee, a set time of freedom from slavery and debt. Shackles are broken off and prisoners released at this time.

On the first Shavuot, God made arrangements with Moses to meet with His people, Israel:

(Exodus 19:10 KJV) And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their clothes, And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

As we go into this season of Pentecost, the Lord is requiring a sanctifying and setting apart for His purposes. It is not acceptable to approach this time lightheartedly for we are entering one of God's appointed times in the earth and we do not want to miss the day of our visitation. The people were given two days to prepare and on the third day, God showed up. The church has had two thousand years to prepare herself for this appointment – has she made herself ready – have you made yourself ready? Have you forsaken all others to surrender yourself to the Lord? Shavuot was God's betrothal to His people Israel and in the manner of Jewish wedding ceremonies, it had to take place under a canopy or chuppah. Exodus tells us that the people gathered at the foot of the mountain or in Hebrew, 'under, beneath, the womb'. So they were covered both by the cloud and the overhanging mountain.

We are in the morning of the Third Day and in like manner, the presence of God is going to descend with thunder and lightenings and a thick cloud upon mount Zion. He is coming to seek the hand of His Bride; His heart yearns to know whether His people will say 'yes' to Him. In a Jewish wedding, the marriage covenant or contract is called ketubah and is a written document which is presented at the betrothal ceremony. The betrothal is considered as binding as the wedding ceremony. On that first Shavuot, the Midrash tells us that when God spoke, the people saw the sound waves as a fiery substance which divided and went to stand before each individual as a tongue of fire. Each person had to say," I will" and commit to this covenant with the Lord. Then the fiery substance went and wrote on the tablets of stone. God engraved the ketubah on these stone tablets, which were afterward broken by Moses because of the people's unfaithfulness.

Exo 32:16 And the tables[3871] were the work[4639] of God,[430] and the writing[4385] was the writing[4385] of God,[430] graven[2801] upon[5921] the tables.[3871]

At Pentecost, the people were in unity in one place and the Holy Spirit was poured out in tongues of fire, which rested on each one individually. This is considered to be the birth of the Church as we know it and the ketubah is written on our hearts, which are turned from stone to flesh. Shavuot was the birth of the nation of Israel and also a covenantal marriage ceremony between God and His people.

In this season God is bringing forth His servant, the Branch, (the Manchild) out of Zion, and His Bride, who will rule in righteousness in the earth. Once again, as the cloud of His presence overshadows us, He is coming to receive from each one of us an answer. Will we be His vessels, brought to the Kingdom for such a time as this? Mary was overshadowed by the Holy Spirit and her response was:

(Luke 1:38 KJV) And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word.

He is the One who comes to baptize with the Holy Spirit and with fire! Are you ready to receive a baptism of the fiery power of God in this day?

At this time God is laying a banquet before us and we each have an individual meal to eat, His specific purpose for us in these end times. Will we say yes and consume it, will we align ourselves with His desired purpose for our lives, no matter what the cost? We are the one stone of Zechariah 3 on which the Lord wants to engrave our new name. This is our married name; we leave our maiden names behind and take on His Name and all that it embraces. Just as on the first Shavuot when God engraved the stone tablets, we are going into the season when He is engraving stones again!

(Revelation 2:17 KJV) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

The word, 'knoweth' here means 'to grasp or understand'. Only you will fully understand the extent of the Lord's purposes for your life. Others may not see what He is making of you but deep within your spirit will be written and deposited the blueprint of your destiny in the Kingdom. The word, 'name' comes from the Greek meaning 'authority, character' and only the one who 'receiveth' this new name or 'takes hold of' this revelation of our authority and character in Christ, will understand and walk in the light of that revelation. We are His Bride, destined to rule and take dominion in the earth. Paul says, " I press on to take hold of that for which Christ took hold of me". We must press in and possess our inheritance because that day which is spoken of is this day in which we are privileged to walk the earth. We have been brought to the Kingdom for such a time as this!

Psalm 110:2 tells us that His people will offer themselves ‘willingly’ in this day of His power. This word means ‘to volunteer as a soldier’. The word for ‘power’ carries within it the sense of bringing forth and travailing. God is wanting an army to bring forth and birth something in the earth. This mighty army which is the rod and branch that is sent forth from Zion is arrayed in the beauty of holiness. They have sanctified themselves, just like the sanctification for two days before Shavuot. The Bride has been making herself ready for this morning of the Third Day!

Psalm 110, which is a Third Day psalm, says in the last verse;

This seems unconnected to the theme of the previous verses until we discover that the word ‘drink’ means ‘to imbibe, banquet’. Here is the connection to the feast of our inheritance which the Lord is laying before us at this time. The root word for ‘brook’ is translated ‘to inherit, to be made to possess, to occupy’! So this Branch that is sent forth out of Zion will feast on her inheritance. She will experience the fulfillment of God’s promise to her – she will eat of the fruit of the promised land!

(Isaiah 25:6 KJV) And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

Pentecost is also called the Feast of First Fruits. When God met with the Israelites and covenanted in marriage with them, they were to be a sign or a type in the earth, a firstfruits of what was to come:

(Jeremiah 2:2 KJV) Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

(Jeremiah 2:3 KJV) Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the firstfruits of his increase

In Revelation, it speaks of another firstfruits company who have God’s name engraved upon them:

(Revelation 14:4 KJV) These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

God is once again bringing forth a company in a similar type to Israel, His earthly Bride.When He exchanged vows with them that first Shavuot, he promised:

(Exodus 19:5 KJV) Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation.

These words, ‘a peculiar treasure’ are from the Hebrew word for ‘jewel, wealth, to closely shut up’ and appear again in a prophetic scripture referring to these very days in which we find ourselves:

(Malachi 3:16 KJV) Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name. And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

God is in the process of ‘making up’ His jewels for His crown. This is the Hebrew word meaning ‘to appoint or bring forth’. This is His firstfruits company, His heavenly Bride, the one who is a crown to her Husband. She has been ‘shut up’ in a place of preparation but we are entering the time when He will openly display her as His treasure.

(Isaiah 62:3 KJV) Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

The wife of the Lord of Lords and King of Kings is a crown of fiery precious stones. In Revelation 21, the Lamb's wife is described as having a foundation of precious stones and being utterly beautiful to behold:

(Revelation 21:11 KJV) Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal

When a baby is born, there is a moment in the labour called the 'crowning of the head'. We are in that moment even now at this Pentecost season. God is bringing forth the crown of the Head , His jewels who are living memorials to show the Lord is upright and faithful to His promises.

Another picture of these jewels is seen in the the two wave –loaves of finely ground flour which are a firstfruits offering to the Lord at the time of Shavuot (Lev 23:15-17). They symbolize those who have been through much refining and purifying and are ready to be part of a firstfruits company in the earth, jewels which have been cut and polished to fit into a crown to glorify the King.

All of creation is groaning, waiting for the manifestation or revealing of the sons of God. The labour has reached the time of breakthrough – the crowning of the Head and the way is opening up; the headstone is being brought forth with shouts of 'favour, favour!'. Halleluyah! So arise and shine for the glory of the Lord is risen upon you!

(Isaiah 62:2 KJV) And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

The set time to favour Zion has come!

Power Through Compassion
Francis Frangipane

"The New Awakening Of Power Through Compassion"

A new awakening is coming to the church. It will be birthed by prayer and sheltered by humility, but its power will emerge through compassion. The strength of this fresh move is the deep yearning of the Lord Himself. Yes, even in the midst of hellish conditions on earth He has promised, "I WILL HAVE MERCY ON WHOM I HAVE MERCY, AND I WILL HAVE COMPASSION ON WHOM I HAVE COMPASSION" (Rom. 9:15).

Common people, flooded and compelled by the burning compassions of God, shall be used mightily in the coming years: they shall transform multitudes. Christ's compassions shall be especially revealed where human suffering is unrelenting. Let us remember, the Lord is not aloof from the human condition; mankind's suffering exists in the thought-life of God. The book of Judges reveals an amazing quality about the relationship of God's heart to human sorrow. Scripture says, "He could bear the misery of Israel no longer" (Judges 10:16). As a result, He rescued His people from their enemies.

Pray for Pakistan and India!

Today, the Holy Spirit says, "The more devastated the region, the greater My compassions shall flow." Africa and parts of Asia shall see multitudes convert from Islam and come into a powerful relationship with Christ. Indeed, during Ramadan, the Islamic holy month, many Muslims shall have visions of Jesus Christ and shall personally be converted, as Paul was converted from Judaism. Missionaries from Pakistan shall be used by God to touch many nations. The Holy Spirit says, "Pray fervently for Pakistan, for its President, General Pervez Musharraf, and for the church in Pakistan, for missionaries from Pakistan shall reveal Christ's compassion to many nations. Additionally, the Lord says, "Pray for and watch India." India's hour is drawing near. Satan would like to destroy these two countries before the great outpouring of the Holy Spirit falls upon them. Thus, the Holy Spirit commands, "Pray for Pakistan and India!"

Yet, this move of divine compassion will not be limited to poorer nations. In select cities and communities in the West, the compassions of God will also flow. Indeed, even now the Lord is preparing Christians from all backgrounds, including believing Catholics, Presbyterians and Episcopalians. Some whom God will use most mightily will come from denominations many Christians consider dead or apostate.

Many influential, but hardened businessmen and women will be touched and transformed by the compassions of God. Governors, mayors and other civic leaders will experience life changing healings; attorneys, doctors and scientists will testify to undeniable miracles. Transformed gang leaders and criminals, some of whom are currently in jail, will be used by God to start powerful churches. Yes, once seemingly hopeless criminals will be used by God to bring hope to devastated neighborhoods.

The Key to Power: Divine Compassion

Because the taproot of this revival will be compassion, it is important to isolate it from other virtues and inspired ministry gifts. For one can be a skilled teacher who functions authentically in communication skills, but not have true compassion. A leader might possess effective administrative skills, yet also be void of compassion. Simply because one is a gifted psalmist and leads many in Christian music and arts, that does not mean he or she was empowered by compassion in their ministry. Yes, even the most stirring of prophets or apostles may himself be stirred by something other than compassion. All of these gifts and ministries can be truly inspired within the parameters of their functionality, but not carry at their core the deep pulse of God's compassion.

Compassion, according to its Greek definition, is "a yearning in the bowels." It is not a function of the intellect, but a deeper reality of the spirit. Thus, it is important we do not let religious intellectualism rule us. True compassion emerges from the compassions of God; the human channel of His compassions must be united with the yearnings of God. Because most of us have been exhausted by the limits of our compassions, we must submit again to the opening of our hearts. Trust God to help, for we must learn to surrender afresh to the fire of compassion's quest.

Consider also beloved, that this "yearning in the bowels," this "the innermost being," is the very region from which Jesus said rivers of living water shall flow. This new level of compassion will not exhaust us with impotent sympathy, but will instead align our spirits with the power of Christ to heal, save and redeem.

Compassion is stronger than sympathy and more enduring than empathy: both of which are dimensions of vulnerability and identification--essential escorts that lead us to Christ's compassion. But compassion captures those feelings and transforms them into love-empowered actions.

Consider Christ as He healed the afflicted in the gospels:

"Moved with compassion, He stretched out His hand and touched him, and said to him, 'I am willing [to heal you]; be cleansed' " (Mk 1:41). Again we read, "Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes; and immediately they regained their sight and followed Him (Matt 20:34). And again, "When He went ashore, He saw a great multitude, and felt compassion for them, and healed their sick" (Matt 14:14).

Jesus was moved with compassion; He felt it, and He "healed their sick." Do we feel compassion? Are we aware today of compassion's inner pushing? Can you list when you too were "moved with compassion"? Too often, instead of compassion, we are moved by ambition, self-interest and pride. We desire to be seen by men, to be admired for the size and scope of our ministries or talents. In our zeal to fulfill our passion, we miss compassion. May God deliver us! To many, the multitudes are symbols of power and success. Yet, when Jesus saw the crowds, He did not see them as a means to personal fulfillment. Rather, "He felt compassion for them, because they were distressed and downcast like sheep without a shepherd" (Matt 9:36).

The people had Pharisees, but not shepherds; they endured the influence of doctrinal experts, the "lawyers," but they had no one who truly cared for them. Christ felt compassion, was moved by compassion and let compassion find its fulfillment in the healing and comfort of the sick and afflicted.

Unlocking the Bowels of Compassion

I am not speaking of others, beloved. We ourselves have locked our compassions and restrained the yearnings of God within us. In this day it is not enough for us merely to be friendly or nice; we must allow the Spirit to unlock the bowels of our compassion. The Lord has promised, not only will He have mercy on many and lead them into forgiveness and salvation, but that He will also reveal His great compassion. Let me repeat His promised, irrevocable purpose: "I will have compassion on whom I have compassion" (Rom 9:15b).

The Lord is with us to fulfill His great yearning to save and heal. He has set His heart to reveal His compassion in this hour; we must allow His compassions to move us. We have learned how to have church, to produce Sunday morning events that stir and excite. Now, however, the Lord says, "But go and learn what this means: 'I DESIRE COMPASSION , AND NOT SACRIFICE.'" He tells us to not look beyond the hardened or the hopeless. He reminds us, "for I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners" (Matt 9:13). Compassion is the pathway to power.

HEARD [3/02/04]: Come on baby. Keep going. DON'T QUIT.

[Hearing this reminded me that a few years ago as I was walking down the hall, I heard a loud voice speak an emphatic, "I QUIT!" That began a season of intercession for many on the front lines who were suffering from strong winds of opposition.]

[NOTE: The following dream took place several years ago after I went through a difficult storm that lasted 3 ½ years.]

DREAM: I was lying on the ground flat on my face. Suddenly Michael flew by overhead and I popped my head up and said, "Hi Michael!" I didn't meant to say this, it just popped out of my mouth. He said, "I need volunteers." I replied, "I'm sorry, but I am just too tired." He continued as though I had said nothing: "They need to be all washed up and ready to quit. They don't need to do anything but just watch." Then I had a vision where I saw myself flattened on a golf course and he came over and picked me up off my face and stood me to my feet. {Dan 8:18, 10:9. Golf course cross references with the post titled, "Perfect, Completed Faith."}

HEARD: Done and ready to quit. Tired. They've been on the front lines. He told me to ask you. A friend loves at all times.

EXPERIENCE [3/02/04]: Right before I went to bed last night, my lap top took its last breath.

VISION: I saw the word "Recovered" on a file in Microsoft Word.

{In computer language, if a computer crashes, when my writing program called "Word" opens again, it will boot up the last version saved, entitled recovered. However this vision was an object lesson, as my computer had literally died and would not open again.}

HEARD: Exactly. Look at Me, I am doing a new thing. Don't look back. Walk and keep your eyes open, I have something to show you. Put the "I quit" behind you.

REOCCURRING SONG: When I woke this morning I was singing the song, "Michael row your boat ashore." I was not sure what it meant, but I hadn't thought of that song in years and I knew it must be the Lord. I turned with anointed hands in my Bible to this scripture:

Ps 65:7 NLT
You quieted the raging oceans with their pounding waves and silenced the shouting of the nations.

IMPRESSION: I had the impression that just as Jesus calmed the sea when they were in the boat, so had the Lord sent Michael to bring the ship safely to shore through a raging storm.

Mark 4:39-41 NKJV
Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace, be still!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm. But He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?" And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, "Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!"

CONFIRMATION: Minutes after I wrote this post, we went out for errands. My eye caught a Kareoke sign that said, "Come sing with Michael!" The Lord sure knows how to give me joy, I just love the ways He speaks!

WORDS TO MICHAEL ROW THE BOAT ASHORE
Michael, row the boat ashore, Hallelujah. Michael, row the boat ashore, Hallelujah. Sister, help to trim the sails, Hallelujah. Sister, help to trim the sails, Hallelujah. River Jordan's deep and wide, Hallelujah. Milk and honey on the other side, Hallelujah. River Jordan's chilly and cold, Hallelujah. Chills the body, but warms the soul, Hallelujah. The trumpets sound the Jubilee, Hallelujah. The trumpets sound for you and me, Hallelujah. Then you'll fear the trumpet sound, Hallelujah. Sinner row to save your soul, Hallelujah.

CONCLUSION

WORD TO PONDER: WATCH DUTY
You have stood the test of time, dear one. I gave you grace to stand on the front lines in the storm and I upheld you all the way. It was only afterwards when I brought you into a season of rest that you found yourself flat on your face before Me. You have been so low that you have hardly noticed the change.

If you would but look up for a moment, you will notice that the raging waves are still and you are being sustained in My peace. The reason you have not yet applied this to your level of faith, joy and assurance is that you continue to look at your storm as it was. Beloved, the raging is behind you. Place your focus on Me for I have something to say to you.

Your "I quit" button has died, behold I make all things new. I have brought you safely to the other side. I AM doing a new work for a new place in a new journey to a new land. Now I am needing volunteers to watch and pray. I am not asking you to stand guard duty as in your past, but watch duty. You have yet to experience the difference. Open your eyes and see. Look before you, dear one, there is new land for the taking.

Ps 89:8-9 NKJV
LORD God of hosts, Who is mighty like You, O LORD? Your faithfulness also surrounds You. You rule the raging of the sea; When its waves rise, You still them.

One Way Out

There is one way out of a mess. Trust and obey.

Josh 5:6 NLT
The Israelites wandered in the wilderness for forty years until all the men who were old enough to bear arms when they left Egypt had died. For they had disobeyed the LORD, and the LORD vowed he would not let them enter the land he had sworn to give us--a land flowing with milk and honey.

Remember Samson

Jun 9, 2004

Remember that Samson lost his eye sight because he was lured and then deceived by the pleasures of this world. Keep watch over the gates of your eyes which open to your soul; this shall keep your visions, insight, perspectives, understanding and focus from being decayed, devoured and destroyed. If you value your spiritual sight, nurture it. Nourish it with righteous living, one that pleases Me in all that you do and say.

Judg 16:4, 5 NLT Later Samson fell in love with a woman named Delilah, who lived in the valley of Sorek. The leaders of the Philistines went to her and said, "Find out from Samson what makes him so strong and how he can be overpowered and tied up securely. Then each of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."

Warrior Mindsets
Sandy Warner

Jun 7, 2004
My faithful warriors, you have fought long and hard battles and so many have paid the price. Much has been accomplished in the heavenlies by your stand and I AM so grateful for your sacrifices.

I AM adjusting your training and bringing you into alignment with My purposes. You know that I AM Sovereign and nothing happens without My permission. Always remember that when you suffer backlash, something is wrong. Bow low in humility, wait before Me and raise not your own hand to avenge yourselves. I will clearly show you My path and My plan and you shall ultimately see victory. So many wars are yet to be won and My ways are an enigma to the mind-sets of the world. Lay down your preconceptions. Allow your King to go before you for I AM your Shield.

Rom 12:17-21 NKJV
Repay no one evil for evil. Have regard for good things in the sight of all men. If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all men. Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath; for it is written, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord. Therefore "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; If he is thirsty, give him a drink; For in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Prevailing Truth or 'Flawed' Truth

Rick Joyner

We need to not just have the truth, but to love and to walk in it. Truth is one of the most precious gifts that we have been given - a great treasure that deserves to be honored and protected. However, truth is not just a philosophy of life or the knowledge of the facts of history, but truth is Christ Himself. Truth is a Person. Walking in truth is walking in intimacy with the Lord. We can know all doctrines accurately and yet still not be in obedience to the will of the Lord.

Again, this is not in any way to imply that we do not want to be devoted to sound and accurate doctrine. If we love the truth, we certainly will be devoted to this. However, many interpret standing for truth as not compromising what they believe in, but their beliefs are seriously flawed and often in conflict with the Scriptures. The overwhelming majority of Christians seem to believe what they have been taught rather than searching the Scriptures for themselves. Those who really love the truth will care enough to research what they are taught and search the Scriptures for themselves.

Developing Sound Bible Study Disciplines

I have become increasingly alarmed by how few Christians have never developed sound Bible study disciplines. There are good Bible teachers, but few actually teach others how to study the Bible. This will become an increasingly devastating problem in the times ahead. There is a saying that if you give a man a fish he has one meal, but if you teach him how to fish he can feed himself for the rest of his life. The ministry of the teacher, which is given to the body of Christ, is not given just to teach, but to "equip the saints" (see Ephesians 4:12). A true, New Testament, Ephesians Four ministry does not just impart truth, but also a love for the truth, which compels those who hear to hunger and thirst for truth enough to search the Scriptures themselves.

Spurgeon once said, "I can find ten more who will die for the Bible for every one who will actually read it!" This is likely to still be true. If we really love the truth, we will search the Scriptures ourselves with a passion for its treasures. These treasures will be far more compelling than the other frivolous things that sap so much of our lives. The real test of what we are devoted to is found in what we give our time to.

More than Facts

Even so, more than searching for facts, we are searching for the Lord Himself. It is not just hearing the Words of the Lord that we are after, but hearing the Word Himself. As we devour the Scriptures, we want to do it with our Teacher. We do not want to just read books, but we want to read the books that our Teacher has assigned to us.

A prophetic friend, Paul Cain, once said to us, "Almost every heresy is the result of men trying to carry logical conclusions to that which God has only revealed in part." As I pondered this concerning some teachings that I consider to be heretical, I became convinced that this was a very accurate assessment. Most heresies are the result of those carrying a teaching to a conclusion that is beyond what the Scriptures state. They become increasingly defensive, holding to their position until they become fanatical in defending it. Then they inevitably tend to begin judging others by how they relate to that position, which cannot be defended by the clear teaching of Scripture.

When a cause goes this far, at best it becomes a form of legalism. As Paul the apostle explained in his letters to the Romans and to the Corinthians, the law does not deliver anyone from the lusts of the flesh, but it actually excites them! Clear evidence that this is the case are the studies that have shown how the denominations which forbid the drinking of any alcohol have the highest percentage of alcoholics of any people group. In contrast to this, the Jews, who do not forbid the drinking of alcohol tend to have the lowest percentage of alcoholics.

Loving Truth Enough to Look Beyond Our Wounds and Prejudices

The pain with almost anyone who has been an alcoholic or raised in a family with one makes such a thing as Jesus actually drinking wine, unthinkable. The Scriptures are clear - Jesus did drink wine. He is also going to serve it at the great wedding feast. However, those who tend to see more through the wounds of having been subjected to an alcoholic will be tempted to think that the other Scriptures referring to wine in a positive matter must mean something else, which has caused them to come up with many diverse and often foolish explanations for those Scriptures. This is a dangerous tendency and will erode their credibility with any thinking person, as many denominations have done.

The point I am trying to make is that we are almost certain to be deceived if we allow pain or mistakes to determine our doctrine. In prophetic symbolism, flies often refer to lies. As we studied a few weeks ago, the devil is the Lord of the flies and flies swarm to wounds. Probably more deception has come from people responding from their wounds to form a doctrine than the effect of all of the cults combined. We must base our doctrine on sound biblical truth and not carry what we think are logical conclusions to that which God has only revealed in part.

So let us all resolve to love the Word of God, seeking in it to hear the voice of the Word of God Himself. Let us also do this with a heart that loves truth enough to not bend it for our own prejudices or desires.

Discerning Love
Rick Joyner

As we have discussed, the harvest at the end of the age is the reaping of everything that has been sown in man. Both the good and the evil are now coming to full maturity. However, without spiritual discernment, evil will sometimes appear good, and good will sometimes appear to be evil. How can we distinguish them?

I followed with interest the debate among Christians about whether the movie series from The Lord of the Rings was either good or evil. Some thought that it was a powerful prophetic word from the Lord and some thought that it was from the devil. I personally thought the truth was somewhere in-between, but it was the reasoning that I was interested in and felt that it was very illuminating.

There were many profound insights into the nature of good and evil in Tolkien's books that were powerfully articulated and the movies did a good job of projecting them. I think these insights were also very relevant to the times to which we are coming. Even so, this was not Scripture and I do not think that such things should be taken too seriously. I do not doubt Tolkien's personal faith and I think he made a great contribution to our times through his work—especially through his influence with C.S. Lewis. But both of these men had some views and ways of trying to convey what they believed that should be questioned. However, like all such works, the wise will just eat the meat and throw away the bones. The immature and unstable will throw away the meat because it has bones in it.

One of the great lines about discernment in the first Lord of the Rings book, The Fellowship Of the Ring, was when Frodo had to choose between going with a man who was in fact leading him into a trap or Strider. Of the one with the evil intent Frodo said, "He seems fair but feels foul." Of Strider, who was trying to save him, but came across as far more hard and insensitive, he said, "He seems foul but feels fair." Frodo wisely followed Strider and was saved from his enemy. Likewise, when we judge too superficially we will likely be fooled.

Though I have not seen any studies to verify this, I personally believe there are more Christians who are now estranged from the church than who are growing in real body relationships which are essential for true Christian maturity. Most of the Christians I have met that are no longer in a church were either wounded or disappointed by the church, and therefore gave up on it. From these I have often heard, "I love God but just don't like His people." This may sound glib, but as John explained, this is a basic deception as we do not really love God unless we also love His people. The Scriptures also go to great lengths to explain that love is not to be based on whether people are lovable or not. Also, love itself is not what many believe it to be.

As we studied last week, all true discernment must be founded on love. However, what often seems like compassion can be the root of a diabolical deception. We must always keep in mind that the fruit from the good side of the Tree of Knowledge is just as deadly as the evil side. Humanistic goodness is a very basic affront to God and is rooted more in the pride of man than genuine compassion. Humanistic goodness will also result in further bondage, not freedom.

It was once said of the great Russian novelist that "The world has never been viewed through a more discerning eye than that of Leo Tolstoy." Except for the Lord Jesus, and the writers of Scripture, I would tend to agree with that statement. He had a remarkable understanding of the motives behind the actions of people. In his classic novel, War and Peace, Tolstoy used a poignant illustration to highlight what has now become a distinction between modern conservative and liberal politics. I am not writing this to try to sway anyone's vote or politics, but simply to use this obvious example in the world to understand true compassion and discernment.

In this story Count Pierre has great feelings of compassion for the serfs on his estate. However, his policies and practices were motivated more out of his feeling of compassion than wisdom, which flawed his methods, and so the condition of his serfs deteriorated. In contrast to this, Prince Andrey, simply out of his devotion to sound business principles, greatly elevated the condition of his serfs. To the serfs, Pierre seemed to be more fair, but they were not nearly as well off as those who worked for Andrey. Which one had more love for their serfs?

One cannot help but to draw the parallel between these two characters in Tolstoy's novel and the liberal and conservative political parties. In America the Democratic Party may say all of the right things in relation to its concern for minorities, but it does not take much discernment to see the tokenism and its policies often leave the people they claim to be helping in much worse shape. In contrast to this, the Republicans do not talk nearly as much about this issue and seem to even be hard and insensitive to them, but are actually doing far more for minorities. Republican administrations have been much more prone not to judge anyone by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character and abilities and have elevated more minorities to real positions of power and wealth. It is likely that the first black, Hispanic, and women Presidents will be Republicans.

This is not to say that some Democratic Party policies and programs in America have not helped minorities. I am personally very thankful for the devotion to civil rights that the Kennedy and Johnson administrations had. It is my personal opinion that Affirmative Action, even as badly as it is administered and applied, is better than doing nothing and should be kept until someone develops something better. However, in general, the policies and programs intended to help minorities in the United States have been archaic for decades and because they are generally so poorly managed they are now often counter-productive, hurting the very ones they were intended to help.

It was because of this tendency for the people and the governments who talk the most and do the least that Winston Churchill once said, "If you are not a liberal when you are twenty you have no heart. But if you are not a conservative by the time you are forty you have no mind." Bleeding hearts seem so much more righteous, but tend to squander more resources and actually end up hurting more people than they help. In contrast, the practical and pragmatic who tend to be doers instead of talkers usually do far more good for people. However, our goal is not to quit caring, but to let our love be guided by sound, godly wisdom.

As we addressed last week, true discernment is founded on love, but humanistic love is not love at all. Such is usually a selfish attempt to either manipulate others or appease our own conscience by works in place of the righteousness of God which has been provided for us by the cross. Likewise, having feelings of compassion can make us feel more righteous, but as James wrote, "faith without works is dead," (James 2:26), and so is love without works. Those who seem to talk the most about love will usually be found to be doing the least. Those who are really doing something to help others rarely talk about it and therefore may not seem to be motivated by love at all. But as the Lord told us, to judge by fruit and not words is true love.

Preach The Pure Gospel

Clo DiPilato

> For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. 1 Cor. 17-21

The Word of the Lord on November 23, 2004

Oh ye sons and daughters of Zion, hear the word of the Lord. I long for a people who live the deeper life, but preach the pure gospel.

You are fat, and you are full and you have feasted on the rich things of My Word, and the deeper life in My Spirit, and you have desired to walk a closer walk with Me, and I have taken note, and as it has been done unto Me, I have been well-pleased. But I desire that you preach the pure gospel.

I have seen your submission to all my refining processes. I have seen the willingness to suffer affliction and at times even persecution for My Name sake. I have seen that you've allowed Me to take you to the potter's house, where I've broken you in My very own hands that I might again place you on the potter's wheel, to make you yet even a purer vessel. I have taken note, and as it has been done unto Me, I have been well-pleased. But I desire that you preach the pure gospel.

I have seen the acts of selflessness, and the obedience when it was hard to obey. I have seen when you have put others before yourself. I have seen how you have been like Abraham when he allowed Lot to freely take the well-watered plains of Sodom . When you had it in your power to have first choice, when you had it in your power to contend for position, you did not but instead you preferred your loved ones over yourself. I have taken note, and as it has been done unto Me, I have been well-pleased. But I desire that you preach the pure gospel.

I have seen when you've been willingly led through the waters and through the fires in order to heed My voice speaking to you. I've seen the confessions and commitments and consecrations you've made to Me and My purposes in the midnight hours on the clock, as well as in the circumstances of your life. I have taken note, and as it has been done unto Me, I have been well-pleased. But I desire that you preach the pure gospel.

I do have a people in the earth who are getting ready to rise, and declare that I've accomplished a GOOD WORK within them. These ones are about to exit the spiritual rut of "ever learning, and never coming to the knowledge of the truth". They are exiting the endless cycles of preparation to be commissioned into service by the Spirit of God to preach the pure gospel.

Mark those that walk among you, and see if you do not discern the changes I am bringing to the hearts of many who had waxed cold in evangelical fervor as they pursued the deeper life in the Spirit. Mark them, and see if I am not again restoring to them a burning desire to preach the pure gospel. Mark them, and see if they are not entering even now into union with Me to be My agents, and My ambassadors of reconciliation.

In their seasons of refinement, they were not out of My plan. They were not anathema from My purposes. They were wholly in My provision to turn the search light inwardly that My character and nature would be planted as the pure and incorruptible seed of My word within. I have been doing My inner work, line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little and there a little. I have been preparing them for a day in which they would preach the pure gospel.

Many have lamented that My church has not been the soul-saving station they have desired for it to be. But I have a controversy with you. Yea, My Name is called Jesus, for I will first save My own people from their sins. I will heal the sin-sickness and wickedness of soul. I will restore the inner man to wholeness. My church has been a hospital to My people, but now I would declare unto My people, it's time to rise up, take up your beds, and WALK that others might very openly see what I have done secretly within you, and how I have saved you, and how I have healed you, and how I have cleansed you, and how I have delivered you, and how I have set you free, and how I have caused you to rise up to walk more abundantly in newness of Life!

I have done all these things in My Church, and for My people that they might by conviction and demonstration and power, preach the pure gospel.

I have done a work within My Church, within My people, and I am ready even now to release My armies into the earth because even though you yet see MUCH WORK to be done within the Church, and even though you are disappointed on every side by failings of My servants, and even though you often take issue with how man chooses to do things within My Church, know that there is a very present unveiling of the One who is pure, sinless, harmless, holy and undefiled, and He shall be magnified in the saints.

Even though at times you are finding fault with my truly anointed servants who indeed rise and fall to their own Master, even in that context shall I be glorified in the saints in this hour!

Woe to that one who continues to fix his eyes on the sins and weaknesses of a pathetically frail and weak humanity that is not much more than dust blown about, flowers that fade, grass that withers and vapor that vanishes in comparison to the high and lofty One who sits upon the throne of Israel.

Why are you so concerned about the sins and weaknesses and failings of others? Have you truly for yourself resisted unto blood striving against sin? And yet, even know that your striving will never accomplish that which is about to be released into the earth through the preaching of the pure gospel.

The light of His glory is going to shine so brightly, and the fire of His presence is going to burn so intensely that those things of flesh which escaped the floods, and escaped the potter's wheel, and escaped the furnaces of affliction will be ultimately consumed by just the touch of an ember off of even a speck of the residue of what I shall do when the power of God begins to be revealed by the preaching of the pure gospel.

My people have waited for their maturity and perfection so that they might preach the pure gospel. I would say unto My people that when the pure gospel is preached, My reward shall be the impartation of My life that shall bring the desired inner results within your own souls.

It is by the foolishness of preaching that I have ordained that men might be saved. There is no gift nor gimmick nor skill nor talent that will ever unseat the preaching of the gospel as My highest and best and very favored plan to cause new life to spring forth in the kingdom.

The gates of the gardens enclosed are about to swing wide open that the fragrances of the chief spices may catch the breeze of the Spirit of God, and flow out through the pure preaching of the gospel. The springs shut up, and the fountains sealed are about to issues rivers of living waters carrying with every wave the preaching of the pure gospel.

The winds and the waves are coming to every life, and according to your faith shall it be unto you. It can be unto you the winds of adversity, and the waters of judgment, or it can be the wind of the Spirit bearing you up to boldly declare the pure gospel of Jesus Christ, moving along, and causing the ebb and flow of the cleansing waters of the sanctifying Word.

It is a time of a witness in the earth. It is time for the gospel of the kingdom to be preached in all the world for a witness. This is that transition which I have promised. You have come to the kingdom for such a time as this. You have spoken consecration. You have spoken preparation. You have spoken transition.

Has the plowman plowed never to sow His seed?? Has the sower sowed, never to see His harvest??

I have sown my character into My people. I have sown My substance into My people. I have sown My word into My people. I have sown My very life into My people. That which I have sown is now springing forth, and the day of unveiling has come. It shall be lived through your life, but it shall be declared through your mouth. Reckon within that I have done a full work. I have sanctified you. I have set you apart, and I have made you a vessel unto honor. Accept the declaration of My confidence in that which I have done in your life.

Know that where you feel you still fall short, I will make up the difference. I am the Good Samaritan who pours in the wine and the oil, and pays the debts of those who fall among robbers and thieves when they choose to travel from Jerusalem DOWN to Jericho. How much more shall I make up for every lack in my servants who choose to travel UP from Jerusalem into My presence that they might receive a word from My mouth, and preach the pure gospel!

My hour has come! I am being glorified in My Saints, and I shall be openly declared among those, and by those who fear and know My Name.

Oh ye sons and daughters in Zion. Heed the word of the Lord. Live the deeper life, but rise up and preach the pure gospel.

Thus saith the Lord.

In His Love,

Peace That Passes Understanding

Betty Seiley

Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go. Have I not said, and will I not do it? Have I not spoken, and will I not make it good? For God is not a man that He should lie, neither the son of man that He should repent. As you rest in, rely on, and trust in Me, your enemy will say, "How can this people rest, how can they have such peace?" The peace you have is yours because you rest in me, because you have believed my love and protection for you, because My Beloved has sought Me with her whole heart. I have heard your prayers and supplications, your weeping, your love songs, and I have danced with you in those dark nights which I have brought you through. You have risen above the terror that flies by night and the arrows that fly by day. I have delivered you from the noisome pestilence, and from the snare of the fowler. You are Mine, I have called you by your name. Thus says the Lord, Who created you, O Jacob, and He Who formed you, O Israel, "Fear not, for I AM with you, you are mine. You are precious in My sight, and I have honored and loved you with an everlasting love. Fear not, for I AM with you. I will bring your descendants from the east and gather you from the west, I will say to the north, Give them up! And to the south, Do not keep them back!" Bring My sons from afar, and My daughters from the ends of the earth, everyone who is called by My name, whom I have created for My glory, I have formed you, yes, I have made you.

My peace I give unto you, not as the world gives, but My peace I give you. This peace was bought with My Blood. If my peace could be obtained any other way, peoples from far and wide would come bearing gold, silver, great wealth to obtain it. But my peace cannot be bought with earthly riches. My peace is priceless and precious, and I give it to you, My Precious Ones, freely. Lean on Me, trust in Me, I will never leave you nor forsake you, for I will be with you to the end of the world, and you shall spend eternity in My abode, in My Father's House, with Me. This peace of Mine will keep your hearts and minds, and it is past understanding. I am the Prince of Peace, says the Lord. You are My beloved, My bride, you are like Me, because I have fashioned you to be like Me. It is My Father's will that I have a fitting bride, who is like Me, so He forms and fashions you, a holy habitation for me, as lively stones, each one placed in My body by My Father's unfailing hand. So be at peace in your hearts and minds. Commune with Me. Abide in Me. Long for Me. Obey Me, for your obedience to My will is for your good. That is what I am interested in primarily, your good. I ever live to make intercession for you, I love more than you now understand, but, as you seek My face, you will come to know more and more of the width, length, depth, and height of My love for you. My love is like a great calm ocean upon which you can just lie back and relax and float upon My love. I will hold you with the right hand of My righteousness. Give yourself over to my love and care for you. You will rest.

Philippines Update

Timothy Snodgrass

Nov 29, 2004

The weather in the Philippines has been fierce this week, and it appears that yet another typhoon has just developed dead-center over our heads in the capital island of Luzon. If you look at satellite images of the Pacific (see below link), you will notice that a second typhoon of monster size is developing, which could easily form into the second record-breaking-sized typhoon this year. Storms of this size seem to leave a trail of seismic-havoc in the Pacific. Within the last 48 hours, we have already seen two 7.0+ earthquakes (7.2 in Papua, and 7.0 Hokkaido). Keep a close eye on the Pacific this week.

I was hoping to get caught up on answering emails today, but it looks like I'm going to have to head home before the roads get too flooded, whereas the sky is now black and torrential rain is coming down so thick that you cannot even see the buildings across the street. But before I leave, I would like share a dream I had last night about the president. I was in a room standing in front of President Bush and his wife, and noticed that they were very well dressed, preparing to attend a meeting. I approached the president and whispered in his ear, "Cancel all your engagements for the "2nd", and explained to him that we had received intelligence that a physical attack was being planned against him. When I awoke, I looked at my calendar and noticed that December 2nd is only days away. Continue to pray for the safety President. Was the "2nd" in the dream referring to December 2nd? Or perhaps January 2nd? I am not sure, but there was a clear urgency to continue interceding for the safety of the president and his entire family.

Blessings,

Perfected Unto Maturity

Hollie Moody

Psalm 47:2 ~ "For the Lord most high is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth."

Malachi 1:6 ~ "A son honoreth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honor? And if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?"

2 Corinthians 5:11 ~ "Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences."

Luke 9:52-56 ~ "{52}And sent messengers before his <Jesus'> face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Sa-mar-i-tans, to make ready for him. {53}And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. {54}And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Eli-jah did? {55}But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. {56}For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village."

John 13:34-35 ~ "{34}A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. {35}By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another."

1 John 3:2 ~ "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is."

A number of months ago, I saw in a vision four large angels standing at the corners of the earth. Each angel had their arms up at chest level, palms pushing outwards against what appeared to be a clear, flat surface resembling glass. It appeared as if they were holding something back from entering into the earth.

I looked past the clear, flat surface and saw hordes of demonic beings pressing frantically and furiously against the other side of this surface.

Something caught my attention and I turned away from the demonic beings to look into the inside of this flat surface. I was looking at the earth. I saw a burning pillar of fire with the shape of a man within it. I felt that this was the Lord.

I suddenly found myself standing at the foot of the burning pillar of fire. I was at the feet of the Lord. I looked all the way up the pillar of fire and what I saw filled me with a sense of awesome wonder. I also felt a certain measure of trepidation and fear, and found that I was trembling in the presence of the holiness of the Lord.

The Lord within the burning pillar of fire had His feet planted firmly in the center of the earth, yet was also high above the earth, reaching into the heavens.

I then watched and saw as individual flames shot out from the pillar of fire. The flames shot out into all directions and appeared to enter into places where people were gathered together. Some of these people were gathered into groups within buildings. There were also other people milling close to these buildings, but who were not within these buildings.

"Who are these people?" I asked the Lord.

"These are My children," the Lord replied. "They are gathered together in My Name."

"Why are some of the people inside the buildings and others outside of the buildings?" I asked the Lord.

"Some of My children have joined themselves to local congregations," the Lord explained to me. "And some of My children have left local congregations, yet still desire fellowship one with another. Each gather in My Name, and are part of My Body.

"My Body is not static," the Lord continued. "My Body is constantly growing, constantly maturing. Many of My children in these days criticize My Body, and compare it to how it was at its conception. Yet I say unto you, My child, and unto them, that it was never My will for My Body to remain as it was at its conception. Just as babies mature and grow into adulthood; just so has it been My desire for My Body to grow into maturity."

I watched as the flames of the Lord's presence illuminated each building. Each of the people gathered both within and without the buildings was also illuminated. The flames began to fully reveal what was contained within each building and also within each of the people. In almost every building and person, I saw what appeared to be a mixture of both light and darkness.

"What is this light and darkness I am seeing within the buildings and the people?" I asked the Lord.

"The light is purity and truth," the Lord explained. "The darkness is wickedness and false doctrine."

As the flames entered into the buildings and touched each of the people, I saw some of the people fall prostrate on their faces.

"Why have some of the people fallen to their faces?" I asked the Lord.

"They are aware they are in the presence of My holiness," the Lord replied. "The awareness of My holy presence is terrifying."

"Why haven't the rest of the people fallen to their faces?" I asked the Lord.

"They have no fear of Me," the Lord answered.

I watched the people who had fallen prostrate to their faces. The flames of the Lord's presence burned brighter upon them. At first, the people to whom this was happening appeared to be in agony. As I continued to watch, though, I saw as these people began to change in their appearance. The fire of the Lord entered into their hearts, and began to burn outwards from within each of them.

Gently, the Lord touched these people and they rose to their feet. As they stood upright, I was struck by how calmly determined each of them seemed to be. I also felt a great love and gentleness emanating from each of them. I also sensed a great maturity within each of these people.

"What has just happened here, Lord?" I asked the Lord.

"These people have been brought through much testing and many trials," the Lord replied. "They were in the process of being perfected. I now send them forth to My children in the spirit of a father and in the spirit of a mother. They will tear down what is not of Me, and will build back up according to My commandments and instructions. They will be fully motivated and consumed with love; both love for Me and love for My children. They will have no hidden motives or agendas. Their sole desire is to do My will.

"There are those who will seek to tear down when I have not sent them to tear down. They have not been perfected unto love," the Lord continued. "Some of them will have heard My voice, and will know My will, but they will not perform My will perfectly; for they know not My heart. It is not My desire to destroy My children or My Body. It is My desire to destroy sin and wickedness, and to save and perfect My people and My Body. Any who comes declaring a different message than this, has not been sent by Me."

Then the Lord touched the mature appearing people yet again and spoke quietly to every one of them. I watched as these people, both men and women, began to approach the people gathered outside of the buildings and appeared to begin to minister to them. Others entered into the buildings and approached each person gathered within the buildings and began to minister to each of these people.

As the mature appearing men and women ministered to the people, I saw a changing and a transformation beginning to occur. Many of the people who had not at first fallen prostrate on their faces, now began to do so. When they finally rose back to their feet, it was as if their appearance and spirit had changed in the same manner as had that of the mature appearing people. I now saw that the light emanating outwards from within them was a clear light, with no darkness contained within it. The people who had not fallen prostrate on their faces continued to contain both light and darkness within them.

I then watched as the Lord changed from a burning pillar of fire into a mighty tree. The tree reached high into the heavens, and its branches overspread the entire world. I watched as the people who had no darkness within them approached the tree, and then somehow became part of the tree. Great clusters of fruit began to appear upon the branches of the tree. The branches of the tree were so filled with ripe fruit that the branches of the tree were bowed from the weight of the fruit.

I noticed that the people and the buildings who still contained darkness within them had no fruit or very little fruit. I then saw great multitudes of people approaching the mighty tree. As they came up to the tree, they began to pick and to eat the fruit from the branches of the tree. They also picked the leaves of the tree and rubbed the leaves on their body.

"Who are these people, Lord?" I asked the Lord.

"These are the lost," the Lord replied. "When My children and My Body have been brought to maturity, they will draw to Me those who are hungry for truth and righteousness.

"This is a critical time for My Body and My children," the Lord continued. "I have given a short season of peace, but perilous times are ahead. Behold!" The Lord cried out. He pointed towards the howling, frenzied demonic beings on the other side of the clear glass surface.

"Know this, child," the Lord stated as I stared at the demonic beings. "These demonic beings will be released upon the earth. They each have a specific region of the earth to torment, and they have specific plans of attack to carry out.

"I am striving to prepare My children and My Body for the unleashing of this coming evil. It will be through the maturity of My people, who will walk in unity and in love and in the power of My Holy Spirit, that this coming evil must be resisted. This forthcoming attack will be severe. I warn My children, My people, to prepare themselves.

"One of the greatest weapons I am giving to and preparing My children to use to resist and withstand this forthcoming attack," the Lord said to me, "is love. When My children return to a holy fear of Me, they will obey Me and My commandments. They will know My heart, and they will understand how to live and to walk in love for Me and towards one another. The enemy will not be able to overcome those who walk in love. I adjure My children to use wisdom and maturity in this forthcoming demonic attack. And I command My children to walk in love."

Colossians 3:14 ~ "And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness."

Push

Shawn Bolz

Calling Everyone Who God has been given any Revelation: PUSH!"

This word is about revelation of the heart, not necessarily promises of God that take the sovereignty of God to fulfill. We are now coming to the end of a spiritual season in the body of Christ. God has clearly identified the year 2003 as a transition into a new seven year season through many respected prophets. Some of you may be coming out of a seven year season while for others this time frame is providing varying aspects of spiritual growth and development. What we all have in common though, is that it is time to birth revelation we have received from the Holy Spirit.

Many saints are envisioning spiritual babies being born in this pivotal season. This baby that has been seen represents the prophetic revelation that God has given to individuals and corporate groups for stewardship, and it is birthing time! We need to begin to release the revelation into the spheres of authority that we walk in. God wants us to be stewards over the revelation that we have received so that He can release us into a greater dimension.

It is not about releasing prophetic words to corporate groups or taking a platform in the prophetic arena because of our revelation. This may happen, but is not the focus. This is a season where the hidden pearls of revelation are to be stewarded in prayer, in journaling, in deep intercession, in writings, in music, in poetry, in families, in home groups, in churches, in business, etc. Don't look for great influence to be gained but look for the kingdom to be advanced! The present level of spiritual influence will determine the level of your corporate release.

We Need to Empty the Womb!

We have to birth the revelation in this season so that we can have an empty womb prepared for the conception of the new season.

We need to take the truths that God has manifested in us by encountering Him and give them away, even if it's back to Him. It is not enough to have just a yes in our heart in this season; our yes only qualifies us for the race! It is time to actually put our feet on the track, line up, and wait for the Holy Spirit to sound the starting shot. Its time to run like we never have before!

It is also a time to create life with the revelation that God has given us.

I heard the Lord say: "To the measure of faith!" And I knew He was saying run in the revelation according to how much faith you can run in it…but RUN!

We are being admonished to faithfully put to use the full measure of the deposit of God that He has given us, so that we can be fully equipped to receive our full portion in this next season.

In John 3:18 John expresses a very profound proclamation: "Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth."

We must walk in truth and with actions faithfully so that we can become a fruitful womb again for His very purposes to impregnate us. How we deal with the measure of revelation he has given us now will help determine how much we can carry in the seasons to come.

Refreshing the Truth

As we allow the revelation that God has given us to come forth, even if our only outlet is intercession, then we will be refreshed in the revelation ourselves. God will allow us to go deeper in the revelation.

I believe that many will feel a sense of crossing a finish line for the season they have been in, while others it will create a deeper hunger for more revelation.

The Word will begin to come alive again as we can read it with a fresh perspective! Bobby Conner put it to our team this way, "It will be like reading it for the first time, and you will go so much deeper in it than you have ever gone. Even scriptures known to you will take on a new life and new meaning."

Books from the library room in Heaven are about to be released

In the great library of heaven there are books that are set aside that will now be release and written on earth. Scribe angels are handing out pens and these pens can empower people with a revelatory ability to relate the deep things of the heart onto paper. It is like Psalm 45:1---My heart is stirred by a noble theme as I recite my verse for the King, my tongue is the pen of a skillful writer.

Others will also find themselves writing in book form but it will not be to release to the public even though it may feel like a completed work. God wants to be so thorough in this season by giving us the ability to relate to Him that He is allowing people to write entire documents in order for their own spirits to be awakened by what God has put in them. Some may write poems and songs, others might write essays, while some will write whole books as God stirs their heart with noble themes just for the King.

Be it Done Unto Me According to Thy Will

This is a time that we need to have a completely humble heart of obedience to walk forward. If God is going to clear our womb it means he is going to refill it with His precious presence. For those who have not been barren in the church, this is a time to birth so that the whole barren church can hear the cries of new life in the church! It will inspire many to a holy place of hunger.

Now is the time… So push!

Prophetic Words for the Body of Christ for 2004

Faith for Breakthrough - Preparation for 2005

2004 is a year that God is going to bring you into preparation for the move of God in 2005. 2004 is a year to get your house in order for restoration. 2004 is a time and a season where God is going to begin to increase your faith.

The Lord says, "I am going to move you to a new place where shackles are going to break off of you."

The Lord says, "Believe Me in 2004 to move into your destiny, to build the foundation, lay the structure for the move of God in 2005."

In 2004, it is going to be a time God is going to refocus you. He is going to re-sharpen you. He is going to re-fire you.

The Lord says, "In 2004 I want to establish you in a land. I want to establish My covenant with you, if you will stand and believe. Don't look to somebody else to stir you up."

The Lord says, "Look at Me for I am going to cause you to rise up." The Lord says it depends on you and your choices. "This is a year of choices," says the Lord. The Lord says to you, "Arise and shine. You shine!"

Societal Intervention in 2004

In 2004, it is time for societal intervention. If we will move into society, God will loose signs. He will loose wonders. I am establishing the kingdom of God.

This is a year of re-sharpening in your understanding that God is the Most High God.

"Arise and take back your destinies. I have called you to arise and say to those places, that the enemy has tried to establish, in your land and in your life."

A Word for the Middle East

The Lord says, "Look and see what I am going to do, for I am getting to move in the Middle East in a way that you cannot imagine, for the Body of Christ is going to rise up and I am going to begin to release treasure out of the Middle East to the Body of Christ."

Promises in 2004

You are going to work and get out of debt. 2004 is a year to have faith to get out of debt.

The Lord says 2004 is a year of saying the promises of God to Him so He can manifest.

If you fight the battle right in 2004, 2005 is going to have pleasure and treasure and strength and restoration like you cannot imagine.

The Lord says this to families, "You make a list of who you want Me to be in your family."

A Word to the United States

Word to the United States: God is going to release the tenacity of an Abraham Lincoln, who failed over and over and over but none of those failures stopped him.

"At the end of 2004, if you had believed Me," says the Lord, "If you have truly pressed towards the mark for the high calling, then you will see that I am going to do things that astound and amaze you. Have scary faith."

This is a season and a year coming up where God is looking for reformers who He can move to change cities and nations.

Don't wait for things to happen in 2004. Make them happen. There are some people in 2004 that are going to lay a foundation for wealth that is going to come in 2005, for there are ideas and dreams that God is going to release to the Body of Christ.

Break the Spirit of Unbelief in 2004

God wants to break a spirit of unbelief in 2004 off of the Body of Christ.

Humbling of Nations

I see a repositioning of nations. The Lord says look to Europe. There is going to be a humbling of some nations, for terrorism is going to begin to move across Europe. "I am going to shake Europe," says God, "And prepare it for re-evangelization."

"This is the year that leaders who have opposed Me are going to suddenly die. As you prepare for the battle, I want to shift and put in more righteous leaders."

"Battle for the U.S. Senate"

The Lord says for the U.S., "I am going to shift the Senate. I want to shift it to where I am in power and control, but," the Lord says, "You must battle for this, because the enemy is coming to steal this." The Lord says, "Look and see for I am getting ready to expose more hidden sin in government leaders."

Evangelism and Harvest

The Lord says, "Look and see for I am going to start anointing young radicals that are firebrands in My hands. I am giving this generation an anointing of evangelism," says the Lord.

"Put in the sickle for the harvest is ripe. 2004 is a preparation for harvest, but 2005 there is going to be a harvesting of nations greater than you can imagine and greater than you can dream.

Shaking

"I have not yet finished doing what I am going to do in the Middle East. There is a domino effect. Right now, I am judging nations. I am shaking nations. There are going to be more earthquakes, for I am shaking My hand over the Middle East and I am getting ready to humble those who believed in a god that could not hear, that did not have ears to hear, but I will open My ears unto them and I will show them that I Am that I Am."

New Place of Ownership in the Earth

The Lord says, "I am calling My people in 2004 to a new place of faith and belief. I want to break the poverty spirit. I want to break the spirit of debt and unbelief so you can come to a new place of ownership in the earth because the earth is Mine."

Persian War II
Timothy Snodgrass

Persian War II: The Terrorism Dilemma

November 1, 2004

Terrorism seems to be the number one thing on people's mind lately. Recently at a conference in Luzon, I accidentally introduced a government official from the Department of Tourism as being from the Department of Terrorism. The audience broke out in laughter, and it lightened the mood for the evening's message. That night I threw away my notes, and the Holy Spirit began to unfold divine insight regarding the terrorism dilemma and the new Persian war.

SIGNIFICANCE OF INAUGURATION DAY

Over the next three months as we approach U.S. Inauguration Day, the threat of terrorism is a real concern which needs to be dealt with not just by governments, but by the church. Prophetically speaking, there is an immediate danger during the next three months of attacks being carried out on such a large scale that the stability of the U.S. economy would be adversely affected, throwing the financial realm into a downward spiral. During the first week of October I received an alarming vision of U.S. flags being lowered at half stance shortly after national elections. Regardless of the level of our military intelligence, the war on terrorism will not be won by world governments, but by the prayers, fasting and obedience of the saints behind the scenes – or the war lost by the lack of it.

THERE IS HOPE FOR THE PEOPLE OF PERSIA

Over approximately the next three years, I believe that the war which began on 9-11 will reach a climax in Persia. Our focus must now shift to Iran, the world's number-one launching pad of terrorism of Muslim Extremism. Recently I was taken in the Spirit and shown an encouraging vision of a large stadium filled with young people singing the Song of the Lord in Persia. Thousands of youth were lifting their hands, openly worshiping the Lord in Tehran. The veil of darkness had been rent over Iran and Iraq, from Baghdad to the tip of the Gulf, and the young people were singing 'Redeemed, redeemed, redeemed by the Blood of the Lamb'. I could only remember the chorus for a few minutes after awaking, because the music was not of this world; although I tried desperately to remember it, my mind had no reference for it. The melody was so beautiful and unworldly that it sent waves of joy and elation rippling through my innermost being, leaving a fire and unquenchable desire to see the vision come to pass.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE RELEASES THE CAPTIVES

If we, as Christians, point our finger at Bush for militantly confronting the dark strongholds in Iraq, we must first point our fingers at ourselves for not standing in the gap for our Arab brothers and bringing down those strongholds ourselves through prayer and strategic fasting. In our September 15 report I described a vision of accelerating judgments, exponentially increasing between now and 5767 on the Jewish calendar, climaxing with mushroom clouds rising over cities prior to the end of 2007. We must win a victory in Iran first through prayer, fasting and sacrificial obedience to the directives of our heavenly Commander and Chief; otherwise, I believe a physical war with Iran is inevitable within the next three years. The United States would obviously suffer greatly in this war, and without divine intervention it would quickly spread into the Asian-Pacific region.

TERRORISM A SPIRITUAL BATTLE

The future Iran war can be won in the Spirit before a missile is ever launched if we are willing to pay the price. Easily said; but the truth is, the Church is not actively and aggressively working towards the goal of peace in the Middle East with all the spiritual weapons at her disposal. The Iraq war could have been won before a shot was ever fired, for perhaps only 0.01% of the cost, but the church did not discern, act, strategize and send in their divinely commissioned 'generals' in time. Thousands of lives perished; chiefly Iraqis, who died without ever hearing the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Army of the Lord is the most powerful organization on earth, and the most under-funded organization on earth. The enemy knows if he can block funds from this army, lives will perish. During the next three years, organizations which are training and sending out apostolic and prophetic intercessors into the hotspots of the world need financial backing to accomplish their goals, or the consequences will be disastrous. The stewardship structure of the church must experience radical reformation, so that funds can be channeled flexibly, at a moment's notice, to the branches of the Lord's army which have immediate need of funding for assignments. Organizations which do not bend to this wind of reformation will quickly see their finances dry up in the days ahead, but those who seek wisdom and divine counsel will discover fresh new streams of provision in the desert. God is also calling Christian businesses into new levels of prosperity for the purpose of financing and equipping this end time army, in order that entire nations can be blessed through their stewardship.

ASIAN AMBASSADORS BEING SENT TO PERSIA

One trademark of the Philippine Islands is their wide variety of technical colleges and medical schools, in which a large portion of graduates find their way into the Middle East; Saudi Arabia, Iran, Iraq, Kuwait and numerous nations in the Moslem Block. Dark skinned Filipinos can easily blend in to these nations, traveling into areas that most Western nationals would never dream of entering. Being based in Luzon for many years, I have been very blessed to see many hidden 'generals' in the Spirit launched not only into China, Taiwan, the Korean Peninsula and other hotspots of Asia, but directly into the heart of Muslim Fundamentalism in the Middle East. Do not underestimate the strategic importance of the Philippine Islands, and the islands of the South Pacific. The enemy wishes to destroy these islands through earth upheavals and natural disasters, but we have an army of people here praying for the covering and protection of the islands of the Pacific.

IF THE CHURCH ACTS, PEACEFUL RESOLUTION CAN BE ACHIEVED

We are working towards a successful resolve in the Persian Gulf, and a peaceful solution in China, Taiwan and North Korea. Yet none of these international dilemmas can be resolved by government alone; it will take miracles, change of direction, and total reformation within the church. Yes, we should expect unprecedented spiritual awakenings; yes, we should expect waves of healing, signs and wonders in the near future. Yet all of these manifestations are useless if we do not respond specifically to the marching orders sent from heaven. Regardless that anointing makes our backs tingle, if the church continues to spend more money on Coke and soft drinks than on funding world missions, we are in deep trouble during the next four-year presidential term. Before we can see a change and reformation within the government, we must first see it within the church; reformation of character, apostolic structure and accountability, stewardship, divine strategies, and reformation within the entire way we think and do things.

DILEMMA OF THE NEW PRESIDENTIAL TERM

Iran must not be allowed to be a producer of nuclear weapons at all costs, for those weapons would almost certainly find their way into the hands of terrorists around the globe. If you are a Christian and know how to pray, I suggest that you take this matter very seriously, for time to act is short, and the veil of darkness is about to be rent over Iran, either peacefully through intercession, or through a military strike. A physical war with Iran would almost certainly escalate beyond a conventional war into a nuclear conflict, and Israel would be the first target. I do not envy the decisions the president will have to make in the not-to-distant future. Iran already has the reactor, and it is only a matter of time before she begins producing nuclear weapons. On Sunday, the conservative-dominated Iranian Parliament shouted 'Death to America!' after unanimously voting to advance their nations nuclear program. The security situation appears to be growing more critical by the minute. There is only one solution to this Persian dilemma: to wage the battle in the Spirit first, sending ripples of the anointing across Persia to defeat the strongholds of darkness, bringing Iran into divine order before a shot is ever fired. Just as the Berlin Wall fell by divine intervention in November of 1989, the Persian Wall can fall just as easily.

Blessings,

Timothy Snodgrass

Preserved Within Our Earthen Vessels

Betty Nelms

4 Feb 2004

What have we preserved within our earthly vessels?

What have we preserved within our earthen vessels that will ensure our inheritance rights and our final outcome ?

Jeremiah 29:11

For I know the thoughts and plans I have for you, says the Lord, thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome.

We see in Jeremiah chapter 29 that God's people have been carried away captive to Babylon from Jerusalem. All the while God is extending mercy and hope to them, because of his great love for them.

God was ministering to them in their (deserved) circumstances that it was only for a set time and that he was wanting them to have hope for a final out come that was for good , not evil.

He warns them about listening to false prophets and diviners, tells them to build houses, plant gardens and enjoy the fruit of them. Marry and multiply, because they are going to be there for a while.

He admonishes them to seek the peace and welfare of the cities in which they dwell. He assures them of his promise to visit them, that their trials and captivity are limited to a set time frame, it will come to an end !

God has given them a wonderful Word to hang on to. He is planning their release from captivity and giving them a promise of returning and possession of their home land ,the promised land.

8: God promises them he will break the bonds and that their oppressors yoke on them and that they will not always be enslaved .

10: God promises to save them, he is with them to deliver them. He tells them he is correcting them in measure, but they will not be destroyed ! He says they are being judged and are not guiltless and that they will not go unpunished.

God deals with his people because he loves them. He judges and corrects sons and daughters. If not they would continue in their destructive sins and perish. 15: Here God asks them Why do you cry out when your pain is the result of your sins? Without God's help their situation is incurable and deadly. So God intervenes.17: Yet God goes on to say."I will restore health to you, and I will heal your wounds.

31: 1 At that time ,says the Lord, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people.

12 God tells them they will be redeemed, they shall, be radiant with joy over the goodness of the Lord. Their lives will be like a watered garden and they shall not sorrow any more. God is going to turn their mourning into joy !!!! He will satisfy their lives with his goodness.

32:41 God tells them he will rejoice over them to do them good and will plant them in the land and in truth with his whole heart and whole being.

42 For thus says the lord, As I brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them !

44 For men shall buy fields for money and sign deeds, seal them, call for them selves witnesses etc. because he is going to release them into total restoration.

Restoration

33:6 God promises that in the restored Jerusalem he will lay upon it health and healing, and I will cure them and reveal to them the abundance of peace(prosperity, security, stability, and truth.) He will cleanse them, forgive them, enrich their lives with good!

In the midst of their circumstances

32: In this chapter the Word of the lord comes to Jeremiah while Jerusalem is being besieged by the army of Babylon. Jeremiah is locked away and being questioned about his prophesying.

He tells of God telling him to buy a field FOR HIM SELF, FOR THE RIGHT OF INHERITANCE IS HIS !

Here they are in the worse crisis, terrible circumstances and going into captivity and yet God says something so strange and out of place, go buy a field for your self! So Jeremiah does what the Word of the Lord says and buys the field, pays money for it (pays the price) signed the deed, called witnesses etc.

Preserve your deed, your inheritance!

32: 14 Thus says the Lord of hosts, the god of Israel: " Take these deeds, both this purchase deed, which is sealed, and this unsealed deed and put them in an earthen vessel TO BE PRESERVED."

The Israelites had been given a land that was promised, a land that flowed with milk and honey, they entered, took possession of this promised land, yet they would not obey God's voice. There fore all this calamity came upon them.

25 Jeremiah says, " Yet, Oh Lord God, you said to me " " Buy this field even though it was given into the hands of the Chaladeans.

27 God responds," Is there any thing too hard for me ? " God would ask us the same thing today, " Is there any thing too hard for me ? " Have you taken hold of my Word and promises concerning your situation ? Have you bought the land I have given you, sealed it in your heart and preserved it for a time of need ?

God tells us in so many ways to do the same thing, regardless of appearances or circumstances, what have we redeemed that is part of our inheritance, preserved within our earthen vessels to draw hope from ? What of His Word and His promises have we stored up. Leaned upon, rested in? When the trials come, sickness comes, what will we have preserved to assure us of God's promises and keeping ?

Matt.13: 44 The Kingdom of heaven is like something precious buried in a field, which a man found and hid again (are we hiding the precious ?) Then he went in his joy and sells all that he has to buy the field.

45 Again, the Kingdom of heaven is like a man who is a dealer in search of fine and precious pearls.

46 Who upon finding a single pearl of great price, went and sold all he had and bought it.

2 Cor. 4:7

We have this treasure(preserved) in earthen vessels

We possess this precious treasure (The Gospel. God's Word) in frail , human vessels of earth, that the grandeur and exceeding greatness of the power may be shown to be from God and not ourselves.

10 All the pain and sufferings we may go through is so the resurrection life of Jesus may be shown forth by and through our lives and bodies.

13 Yet, we have the same spirit of faith as he who wrote, I have believed therefore I have spoken. Ps.116:10

16 Therefore , do not be discouraged, exhausted, wearied out from fear. Our inner self is being progressively renewed day by day.

17 For our light, momentary affliction, this slight distress of the passing hour is ever more and abundantly preparing and producing and achieving for us an everlasting weight of glory, beyond measure, excessively surpassing all comparisons and all calculations, a vast and transcending glory and blessedness that shall never cease.

18 Because, we consider and look not at the things which are seen or apparent, but look to the unseen; for the things which are seen are temporal, brief, or fleeting, but the things invisible are deathless and everlasting.

When the rubber hits the road , so to speak in crisis circumstances, what have you stored up, preserved within you that you can draw upon as precious promises of God even when things look really bad ?

Are there things preserved within your earthen vessels ahead of time to draw hope from and faith and truth from ?

God's Word is truth and reality, no matter what the situation, what it looks like or feels like.

Buy the field of promises and hope, pay the price, seal it within your heart for what ever the need might arise. Have it well preserved within .

We were bought with a price, sealed by His Holy Spirit, preserved and kept by God, given promises of total salvation in every area of our life.

We need to bury these truths within our earthen vessels for times of need.for they will come. Why would God give us these promises if there would be no need for them ?

Preserve them to assure our selves that he has plans and thoughts for good towards us. Health, prosperity , total redemption and wholeness in every are of our lives.....

The field was bought before it was to be possessed and used. The purchased deed before it was needed. We need to do the same.

We store up God's Word and precious promises and draw from them, from " our own preservation place "when needed. They must be there first. Sell out to doubt and unbelief, buy the field of promises, you have the right to inherit it all !

Preparing Your Inner Man for Divine Flow

Mark Virkler

There is a river that flows within the Christian. You can tune to this flow purposefully, and ensure that you are releasing fully and completely the Holy Spirit within you. Jesus teaches us how when He speaks about this river within in John 7:37-39.

If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture said, from his innermost being will flow rivers of living water. But this He spoke of the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were to receive." (Jn. 7:37-39, emphasis mine)

Here is a prayer you may want to use to posture your inner man properly for this divine flow to burst forth upon your life easily and effortlessly:

"Lord Jesus, I am thirsty for You. I come to You, I believe in You. I believe that You live within me and flow out through me as a river. I tune to flow within me right now, knowing it is Your river. Thank You, God, for Your energizing life within."

Now simply fix your eyes upon Jesus, tune to flow, and release. You can express this flow through writing, music, creativity, speech, art, or through any other faculty you yield to the anointing of God. Make this the natural inner attitude you hold as you walk through life, and you will release the anointing of God in all you do.

Prepare Ye The Way Of The Lord

www.apostolic-prophetic.com/

"The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it." (Isaiah 40:2-5)

We have discovered that the warfare is accomplished in the finished work of the cross, and that we are ambassadors vested with authority to decree and enforce the will of the Sovereign, now we shall discover the purpose for this authority and warfare.

Obviously John the Baptist was a living fulfillment of this "crying in the wilderness", but I believe that even today the voice worth listening to is in the wilderness. There are many 'echoes' on the mountain tops of Churchianity, but the 'voice' is forged in the wilderness. No, I'm not speaking of those people who can't seem to get along in any local congregation of the saints, and because of being wounded or rejected they have isolated themselves. (I realize I just stepped on some toes, but the Third Day anointing is a corporate manifestation, you can't flow in it alone.) The wilderness I speak of is a personal wilderness, a stripping away of the thought of having a life of your own. The Life of Christ being lived through a person brings forth the 'voice'. And just what does the voice cry out?... "Prepare YE the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God."

The word translated as prepare is panah in Hebrew, meaning to TURN, by implication to face, to APPEAR. John had to TURN from his position to perceive the voice and behold the APPEARING of the Son of man in the golden candlestick, which is the Church; "And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks..." (Rev. 1:12) In recent years I have had to TURN from many inaccurate belief positions, for I was looking for the 'voice' and the 'appearing' in the wrong place. I was looking for that 'highway' in the city of Churchianity... after all, highways are in cities aren't they? Well, the highway worth traveling is found in the desert of a life that has TURNED from the encumbrances of soulish mentalities to embrace the simplicity of Christ, that His appearing may manifest in US.

The voice says "Prepare YE the way of the Lord" because WE are the WAY, WE are the highway upon which His appearing manifests. The word translated as 'the way of' is derek in Hebrew, meaning a road, figuratively- a course of life or mode of action. It is in the course of our everyday lives as workers, moms, business people, and students, as we are confronted with difficulties in life, we have a tremendous opportunity. That opportunity is to either reveal the 'man of sin' (the soulish Adam nature) or to manifest the appearing of Christ that "the glory of the Lord (nature of Christ) shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together." Let us not forget that the context of these verses is WARFARE; "Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished..." (Isaiah 40:2-5) You see, the warfare that our enemy wages is NOT about US, it is about attempting to prevent the appearing of Christ!

However, the wisdom of God is exemplified so wonderfully in this Scripture, "But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would NOT have crucified the Lord of glory." (1 Cor. 2:7-8) The wisdom of God is so far surpassing that He actually utilizes the warfare of the enemy to bring forth His purposes and the appearing of Christ! That difficult desert wilderness that is filled with trials, tribulations and enemies that you are facing is in reality the very thing that can bring forth the glorious appearing of Christ for "all flesh to see". "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to us-ward. For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the revealing of the sons of God." (Rom. 8:18-19) Yes, all of creation, or as Isaiah put it, "all flesh" expectantly awaits the glorious appearing of Christ, revealed in mature (huios) sons of God. When that verse states, "the glory which shall be revealed to us-ward" it is easy to take that as something merely shown TO us. However, the Literal Bible words it thus; "the coming glory to be revealed IN us.", which is much more consistent with the overall theme of the New Covenant, "Christ IN you, the hope of glory..." (Col. 1:27) I challenge you to do a word-study and see how many times glory is spoken of in the context of suffering and warfare. Indeed, it is the plan of the Father to make our enemies our enablers!

In fact, if we move a bit further into our text, it would almost seem that the Lord Himself is acting the part of an enemy; "All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field: The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the Spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass." (Isaiah 40:6-7) Yes, it would seem that the Spirit of the Lord breathes a wind of adversity that causes the grass / people to wither! Somehow this doesn't fit so well with the 'needs-oriented' gospel that is preached so prevalently today. However, there is purpose in this wind of adversity, "The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the Word of our God shall stand for ever." (Isaiah 40:8) In other words, the wind of adversity causes all that is NOT the Word (Christ) to wither away, so that what is left is Christ. It is the same principle that we find in purifying gold; when fire is applied, the dross comes to the surface to be taken away. It is the same principle found in Matthew 3:11-12, "He shall baptize (immerse) you with the Holy Ghost, and with FIRE; Whose fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly purge His floor, and gather His wheat into the garner; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." It is in the wind of adversity, the furnace of affliction, the baptism (immersion) of fire, the heat of warfare, that the 'PREPARE' we read of in "PREPARE ye the way of the Lord" happens. Yes, WE are the 'way of the Lord', however we must be PREPARED, for indeed "we must through much tribulation enter into the Kingdom of God." (Acts 14:22)

It was the same process for the Jesus Christ, our pattern, as we read in John 14:2-4 where He details this preparation; "I go to PREPARE a place for you... I will come again, and receive you UNTO MYSELF; that where I AM, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know." (John 14:2-4) Since we were children, every good Sunday School teacher has taught us that Jesus was speaking of going to heaven to prepare our mansion (my wife is wondering who's going to have to do the cleaning in that mansion! Sorry, that's my attempt at humor.) Consider however, that in the above verse, Jesus tells His disciples that they know where He is going and they know the way also. It is obvious that they did not know the way to heaven, and the word translated as mansions, mone in Greek, actually means a dwelling place, a residence, an abode. Now then, Eph. 2:22 says, "you yourselves also are being built up with the rest, to form a FIXED ABODE (dwelling place) of God in the SPIRIT." (Amplified Bible)

Once again, the disciples did not know the way to heaven, but they DID know the way to Golgotha, the place of crucifixion, for it was just outside the city. Also, Jesus says that He is going to "receive you UNTO MYSELF"... no mention of the sweet by and by. You see, He was going to was the CROSS, because the cross was the preparation for the PLACE for us to dwell, and the place for us to dwell is IN HIMSELF, "that where I AM, there ye may be also." Again in John 14:6 He reiterates this truth, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no one cometh unto the Father, but BY Me." The word translated as BY, which is dia in Greek, is a primary preposition denoting the channel of an act; THROUGH. Yes, the cross was the PREPARATION for the place IN HIM, and we too must share in that preparation; "That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto his death." (Phil. 3:10) As we enter into the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto his death, then in our lives "every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain." Yes, those areas we consider to be weaknesses and 'low points' in our lives shall be raised; the mountains of pride will be brought to humility; the crooked and rough areas shall be brought into order.

Now then, the PURPOSE is not adversity, affliction, warfare, suffering, etc., that is the PROCESS or the PREPARATION. We must be very careful not to mistake the preparation / process for the purpose, for if we do we may find ourselves mired in the trap of false humility, which is the most dangerous form of pride. The purpose is that "the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together." The preparation is simply the BREAKING of this earthen vessel so that the glory of Christ WITHIN us may shine forth! "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed IN US." (Rom. 8:18)

We can rest in the assurance that the Lord is sovereign over our 'preparation', and that He will bring His purpose to pass, "...for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it." (Isaiah 40:5) Let us press forward in apprehending His glory, as the VOICE of the Lord rises up within us declaring, Prepare ye the way of the Lord!

Repentance To Glory

The Call To Excel
Mar 9, 2004

Come into that secret place for that is where you will truly find Me and abide with Me, and I will commune with you and speak to you My plans of how you will defeat the enemy. Many have been trying and scheming, not realizing that the only way that you can defeat the foe is by staying close by My side and resting in My faithfulness to set you free. Realizing that you can do nothing without Me gives you great strength for when you are weak, I AM made strong in you.

For I have come to take over the battle and to free you up so that you can relax and rest and worship Me unceasingly. For this is truly the day of the latter rain outpouring, and I AM preparing My bride like never before. Many have felt that their time of ministry was over, but believe Me, it has just begun. For I will take you higher in My power as I strengthen you by My Spirit. I entrust to you My royal robe, My scepter, My authority, and I put upon your brow My crown for I come to bless you with the anointing and power of the King...... yes, a kingly anointing of an apostle.

For I have made you all kings and priests, but now I AM calling you higher into the place of power and authority and might. You know who I AM talking to, those who do not go for the title but the humility of a meek and humble servant. For those who are great are those who are called to serve others, those who are called to edify others, and cause others to excel in their giftings.

Yes, a true apostle is one who does not lord over others. They might oversee the work being done, but they will not in any form draw attention to themselves. One who walks in the apostle's doctrine is one who patterns themselves after the lordship of Christ. If you have the gift and calling, My authority will be upon you and will be recognized by those sensitive to My Spirit.

I AM calling the body to repentance of robing Me of the glory. All glory goes to the King of kings and Lord of lords, and you are the vessel I choose to move through. But you must be a pure vessel. Why give the enemy the right to rob you of My glory being upon you? For isn't that what you truly desire is to have My power flow through you to heal the sick, raise the dead, free those from captivity? But you can't have that if you allow a mixture of mammon to penetrate your lives. For I AM grieved with those who sell what I freely give. What gives you the right to do this? Don't you know that you limit the full scope of your calling and gifts by doing this?

If you think you are touching lives now that there is mixture, much more when you are free! For the gifts I don't take back, but you limit the power flowing through them by your lack of sanctification. Yes, you are to be set aside as a sacrifice that is pure and holy before Me. I call you this day to repentance. Accept this gift by humbling yourself before Me with a heart that is open and teachable.

This is an important aspect of your ministry. Do not continue to rob My people. I don't even desire to prosper My people so that they can pay to be taught My word. What is the calling of the five-fold minister, but to equip the saints for their ministry to reach the lost?

Separate yourself from the world and its ways. My kingdom is not about business, but it is about Me. I AM calling the faithful this day to pour out a kingly anointing upon them that they may walk in the apostle's doctrine and to walk in power and authority. And just because I call you to be meek and humble doesn't mean that you are weak, but powerful to the pulling down of strongholds. This day I AM gathering My bride that they may overcome the snare of the enemy and to rise up in My power and might.

Cast off all deception. It is your choice whether to believe the Truth or a lie for My Spirit is your guide. I have promised you freedom, and only by walking in the balance of grace and truth is this possible. So rise up, mighty warriors. Put on My robes of Glory, My crown of righteousness, and march on for you are the redeemed, says your King.

Rising to the Forefront

Diana Mourey

My Mature Church is Rising to the Forefront by Diana Mourey 01/01/04

This will be a year of expediency and of great magnitude concerning the things of the Lord. Sharpen the pencil within your hand, for it will be a year of taking note of the things of God. There will be a revelation of the knowledge of God covering the earth in this hour, for the Church has been hidden a way, the true Church as God would have it. It has been ridiculed. It has been scorned, and even rightfully so, for it has been seen of the world in its immaturity.

But my mature Church is rising to the forefront, for I am bringing it into the knowledge of God and his expectation, and this will come forth to some even supernaturally as My Mantle falls upon them. Some of you have been in years of being taught and have faithfully endured my teaching you, and you shall take what you have learned and teach others, but it will be at an accelerated pace because of My Spirit of Revelation being released.

Expect a good year, for it will be a year of Enrichment and Fulfillment, for I am rewarding the faithful for their endurance. And you shall see the results of your tears and intercessions, for your Harvest is at hand.

Though things of the world will seem in much turmoil, it's only a sign of My End Time Movement. The stationing of My Army is at hand, and you are about to enter into the Supernatural as never before, and has this not been what your heart has cried out for? Much ado is taking place in the heavenlies. Assignments are being handed out with Proper Authority being set in place. Angelic activity will be increasing upon the earth as even God has set the trumpet to His Mouth and has said, "IT IS TIME"!!!!!! There will be an increase in PHYSICAL HEALINGS as I loosen and assign My Healing Angels to go forth to the Earth.

The world will see the doings of My Church. Many will still scorn, but many will turn and fall on their faces and worship the One True God. Even as my Word states, "They will know you by your love one for another," there will be a supernatural flowing of love, not just to each other, but out to the world, a Compassion that they can't explain away, but it will bring repentance and deliverance, not only to the world, but to My Body. Divisions will be healed. Restoration to relationships will occur over night, for a Spirit of Forgiveness is being released upon the Earth. This will be an exciting and fulfilling year for My Body. Get ready to receive your Mantle and to fulfill your part, as I would give it!!!!!!!!!

Revelation for the Coming Year

Timely Prophetic Words and Revelation for the Coming Year (2005)"

This past Day of Atonement, during Fresh Fire's Miracles, Signs & Wonders Conference, three members of the ministry's apostolic team decided to wait on the Lord: Todd Bentley, Charlie Robinson (a seer prophet and itinerate minister with Fresh Fire), and Kevin Paterson (prophetic teacher and scribe/editor for Fresh Fire books and articles). God was faithful to release some profound revelation for the body of Christ.

For the understanding of our readers: the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur), since the time of Moses, has been recognized by the Jews as one of the most important sacred days of the Biblical year. This day takes place at the end of the 10 Days of Awe, which are set aside for repentance and restitution, starting on the first day of the Jewish civic New Year and ending on the tenth day (The Day of Atonement).

In Leviticus, the Lord instituted this day for the atoning of sin (on the tenth day of the seventh month) saying, "This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once a year" (Leviticus 16:34). The Jews have observed that day ever since the Lord instituted it.

This article will outline the insights recently received from the Lord on this day and then establish their scriptural foundation. Much of the Truth of these words, like natural seed, needs time to develop and mature. These revelations apply to 2005 and to subsequent years. We believe that future revelations will provide greater clarity to those you read here. Although we have drawn out some of the meaning of the visions and experiences described, we have left room for you as the reader to seek the Lord for complete understanding and for the application in your life.

VISION: THE NEW CAR

In one of the first visions on the Day of Atonement, in the spirit, Todd heard the revving of an engine and the screech of wheels -- then he saw the car called Fast. The Lord was driving the car. He got out of the car and tossed the keys to Todd saying, "Todd, this one is not for lease. It's ownership." He knew that the Lord was giving him the car (because ownership brings authority) and was inviting him to get behind the wheel and drive. This car called Fast was to be driven in the fast lane so that people could get to their destiny quickly -- it's a vehicle of acceleration. The Lord said, "Todd, if you are going to handle this vehicle, it only drives on one highway -- the highway of holiness. It handles well on the highway of holiness. That's how you get in the fast lane."

In another scene of this prophetic experience, there was a slick, very convincing, salesman in an old car lot. In this lot all the cars were called Oldsmobiles. Todd was amazed that more people were looking at the Oldsmobiles than the 2005 "Fast" model. The car salesman would tell people: "You don't need one of those Fast cars. These Oldsmobiles are fine the way they are -- they've been good for all these years already, haven't they?"

INTERPRETATION: CAR VISION

It was a 2005 model vehicle -- at the time of the vision; the month was September -- the time of the year when the new models of each car manufacturer were being introduced. These cars have new gadgets; people who really love cars can't wait to see what the new model looks like. Spiritually speaking, cars are usually symbolic of ministry or the work of the Lord -- an aspect of our life that travels and moves about in the world. We believe that this year is a time when the Lord will begin to introduce new ministries to the world and new ways of doing His work. He's also going to raise up ministries or vehicles in the body of Christ that will advance His kingdom with speed and great acceleration. What would've taken 20 years in the Body of Christ, in peoples' lives, or in their destinies, will now only take six years. Kingdom advancement, or destiny acceleration, that would have taken six months will now take place in six minutes. Things are speeding up in the move of God and the car is full of fuel and oil -- it's ready for the fast lane.

It's significant that the Lord said this car only travels on the highway of holiness, the road described in Isaiah 35:8: "A highway shall be there, and a road, and it shall be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it, but it shall be for others. Whoever walks the road, although a fool, shall not go astray." For the church or for ministries to advance and accelerate with the great speed the Lord has destined for them, holiness and purity is absolutely necessary -- this car only travels on the highway of holiness. We believe that this year the Lord is calling His body to a higher level of righteous living -- He will be convicting and purifying hearts with greater intensity, so that His people can take the "fast lane" in this new season of the church.

Although the Lord is offering His people keys to the car called Fast (new revelation and ministry models from heaven), the enemy, like the Oldsmobile salesman, is trying to persuade Christians to be satisfied with the old way of thinking, ministering, doing church, and thinking about God. He wants the church to remain in its old religious ways, "having a form of godliness but denying its power" (2 Timothy 3:5). There are just some people that can't part with the old -- that demonic salesman is at work today, trying to convince people to be satisfied with the old. However, God is always doing a new thing -- He wants us to forget the old ways (Isaiah 43:18,19) and allow Him to show us the totally new model. He's revealing this model to the church to help them get the work of the kingdom done with great ease, speed, and power. We haven't seen this new model before. It's not that we are to abandon old truths -- they stand forever. We are talking about traditions, methods, and packaging. We are talking about a new wineskin, the new structure the Lord wants to give the church to contain the new wine He is starting to pour out. In 2005, God is about to reveal a new vehicle and He's calling us to get behind the wheel.

A NEW WINESKIN; A NEW WAY TO IMPACT CULTURE

However, until we start to drive, we can't tell how it's going to handle and what the trip is going to look like. We don't know how all the gadgets work yet -- we don't really know how to walk out His new model for doing church and for fulfilling the great commission. But the Lord will teach us. The change is good because familiarity is too comfortable. God wants to bring us out of the place of comfort where apathy can breed. A lot of people never step into the new thing because they fear the unknown and because they get so comfortable with what they've always had. They've grown attached to their plush leather seats (their padded pews), and they like the way the seat and instruments settings are (the system, program, and church structure) and don't want to set them again. Human nature doesn't like uncertainty; we want to know what everything is going to look like in advance, including revival and a move of God. But God won't tell us all the details in advance before the revival baby is born. Natural parents also want to know everything in advance: the child's gender and what it will look like; whether it will be healthy; how they are going to look after it. They want the assurance that nothing will go wrong and that they will be able to handle every situation -- they want to be in control. However, God just wants us to trust Him as He unfolds our future and the church's destiny. He is introducing the new model and He is discontinuing the old model.

It is interesting to note that GM just discontinued the Oldsmobile (the oldest surviving car brand in the U.S.) in 2004. Ransom E. Olds offered his first automobile to the public in 1897. In 2000, Oldsmobile sold less than 300,000 cars, so GM gave it the death sentence. The last Oldsmobile, a burgundy-looking Alero sedan, rolled off an assembly line on April 29, 2004. To understand the prophetic analogy, we need to take note of why the Olds died. One Wall Street analyst said, "GM doesn't have too many divisions. They have too little imagination." Analysts say that Oldsmobile always had the latest bells and whistles and were owned by engineering managers and other prosperous individualists. Doctors drove Buicks; tech people drove Oldsmobile. It is said that in the seventies, as GM lost its way, Oldsmobile seemed to abandon its tech innovation and individuality, which, eventually, led to its final demise.

In the same way, the scrap yard of Christian ministry is littered with worn out shells of churches and ministries that have not kept up with the new things God was doing. They did not adjust or develop new ways of reaching the world or doing ministry. Today, as the world changes, God has divine strategies as to how we're to impact each culture and how we can receive a new wineskin to dispense his love and power to the world.

ISAIAH 35: KEY CHAPTER FOR 2005

While waiting on the Lord, Todd heard from Him that the message in Isaiah 35 would be a map and guide for the church in 2005. The chapter emphasizes four main themes: Refreshing and blossoming in the wilderness, the healing movement, the glory of God, and a grace for holiness. Let's look at each of the themes:

1. Flowers Will Bloom in the Desert

As we waited on the Lord, He began to unfold greater revelation from Isaiah 35, about the coming restoration of His people. God reminded Kevin of the common understanding of the first verse: "The wilderness and the wasteland shall be glad for them, and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose." This scripture gives great hope to those who have been walking in desert places or whose lives and ministries have been dry and without visible fruit. The Lord has begun that restoration process in many lives and ministries in recent years. The renewal/revival movement over the last decade has been one of the first fruits. However, this restoration work will accelerate this year in many lives and ministries.

However, as Kevin was meditating on this verse, the Lord also began to unfold greater treasures of revelation in it. God directed him to turn to the verse in the Amplified version of the Bible (which unfolds the full meaning of the original languages). This version makes a powerful expansion of the verse: "The Wilderness and the dry land shall be glad; the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the rose and the autumn crocus." The Amplified version is the only one that adds the phrase about the autumn crocus. In the natural we know that the rose usually begins blooming in the spring and summer, while the crocus is a late-blooming flower that blossoms in the autumn season.

In scripture, the flower can represent glory, or human glory: "…All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of the grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls away" (1 Peter 1:24). >From the first verses of Isaiah 35, we believe the Lord is saying He will take those in dry desert places and restore their glory. Even in the desert place of this world, surrounded by barrenness and death, God's people will shine with His glory. People or ministries have already begun to blossom in the spring season (spiritually speaking); some of them are the early bloomers, the pioneers or the ones the Lord has already begun to launch into their destiny. However, this year, the Lord wants His people to know that He is restoring the broken ones who have been taken out of commission and He is also bringing many people and ministries into their long-awaited, fruitful destinies. The autumn crocus represents those who have waited for their promises to be fulfilled, for their lives and ministries to bloom. Many have begun to think that they have missed out on their destiny. However, it is time for them to realize that their greatest fruitfulness and destiny is yet to come. The autumn crocus is coming to life and ministries are about to bloom. This autumn flower is purple in color, the color of royalty. We believe a new kingly anointing and authority is going to fall on many this year that have been lying in the desert, in a place of dormancy. An aspect of this kingly release will be the apostolic anointing, a glory that will come on many lives this year to begin laying foundations and building.

Another part of this restoration is spoken of in verse three and four: "Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are fearful-hearted, 'Be strong, do not fear. Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God; He will come and save you.'" According to this passage, we believe that God is also releasing life to those who are broken, weak and fearful. Many have been ravaged by the enemy's strategies in their lives and are afraid to hope again. Often, they have been injured or stolen from, through no fault of their own. However, the Lord will bring vengeance on those works of the enemy and rescue those wounded in kingdom battle. This is the year of recompense! The Lord will even begin to restore, not only ministries, but money stolen from God's people through financial or investment failure/accidents or various forms of injustice.

2. The Glory of God

Not only shall the desert blossom with life, according to Isaiah, "The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the excellence of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the LORD, the excellency of our God" (Isaiah 35:2). God's people won't just bloom; the Lord will begin to let them see His glory (His goodness, his greatness) in their lives. In recent years, God's prophets and leaders have preached the message of God's glory, with signs following. However, the Lord will also begin to pour out His glorious, manifest presence in greater measure on lives and in meetings, this year.

3. The Healing Movement

Chapter 35 of Isaiah promises that healings and miracles will be manifest among His people: "Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb sing" (Isaiah 35:5,6). The Lord has already begun, in recent years, to restore the healing ministry to the church, as described in these verses. However, we believe that in 2005 God will begin to expand the healing movement and establish healing rooms and the healing ministry, even in desert places -- denominations and movements that have never embraced Jesus' ministry of healing for today (or have not practiced healing ministry for decades). The healing "waters shall burst forth in the wilderness…The parched ground shall become a pool..." (Isaiah 35:6b, 7a). This year God will cause a bursting forth of healing ministry in some of the driest places -- people and movements that opposed the message of healing for today will begin to embrace the healing word.

4. The Highway of Holiness

The greatest emphasis from Isaiah 35 for this year, Todd senses, is that of holiness, as already discussed earlier. God is calling His people to greater sanctification, to travel the fast lane on the highway of holiness. God's fire will begin to fall this year; He will refine His church. The message and emphasis of holy living will spread throughout the church. God will also release His conviction power as well as a grace for holy living. He is going to require a different standard, a higher standard. As the Lord starts a deep cleansing of His Church this year, it will be fully empowered for the reformation and great harvest to come.

The Lord also confirmed this coming emphasis to Kevin, waking him up in the middle of the night to speak the words: "The days of Awe. The days of Awe." God began to show him that although the official Day of Atonement (the last of 10 days of Awe) was coming to a close, the Church is now entering a season of Awe. Just as the Jewish "Days of Awe" emphasize repentance and holiness, so would the next year. The word "awe" speaks of reverential fear of God; it also conveys the meaning of having awe or great wonder at the awesome works of the Lord. In 2005, we will see increased holiness in the church igniting greater supernatural wonders.

SONRISE OVER AUSTRALIA

In another vision, Todd was surrounded by a golden beam of light. The Lord drew his attention to Malachi 4:2, which speaks of the Son of Righteousness rising with healing in His wings. In the vision, the Son rose over Australia. It was a new day. The Son of Righteousness represented Christ's healing anointing, His rays of healing.

[The Lord then reminded Todd of a similar vision a while ago in which he was standing on a sea of glass like crystal. Shafts of light from the Son of Righteousness (about five inches by five inches) would hit the sea of glass and ricochet off, like light rays refracted through a prism and becoming light full of various colors: red, blue, green, emerald etc. A couple of these beams hit his body. The beams, traveling at the speed of light would arrive first; the sounds of heaven would follow, arriving later, at the speed of sound. The healing rays of light from the Son of Righteousness would hit him, transmitting physical healing and more. He said his whole being vibrated and thundered with sound, as if 50,000 voices were all singing in harmony, singing different songs at the same time. Yet he understood every song. They were singing, "I love you; you are accepted; you are beautiful; you are worthy" -- all the words that the Father sings over His children. Todd knew the Father was singing over him who he was in God, assuring him he was worthy, accepted, loved and beautiful. Every time one of these beams hit him, he would hear the heavenly choir singing these songs of the Father's love. The natural mind couldn't understand these thousands of songs at once, but Todd's spirit man was able to understand and feel the love and acceptance. They were healing rays that would touch the heart's broken places.]

Recalling the previous vision gave Todd immediate understanding of what the first vision represented for Australia. He knew that the Son of Righteousness and healing, love, and acceptance was rising over Australia -- it was the dawning of a new day, a day of acceptance, a day for healing revival in the nation.

AUSTRALIA VITAL KEY IN THE COMING REVIVAL

Then Todd saw Indonesia in his spirit and recalled the recent terrorist attack on the Australian embassy in Jakarta, Indonesia. A scripture from Isaiah 64:3 came to him; this scripture talks about the nations trembling in His presence. Then the Lord said, "Even as nations and economies have trembled and been shaken by terrorism, stock market crashes, etc., whole nations will tremble in my presence." God revealed that the terrorist attack in Jakarta was a result of the enemy becoming aware of God's destiny for Indonesia, Malaysia, and other countries in South East Asia. God said that Australia was a vital key in the revival coming to the other countries in the region and in reaching the Muslim people. That beam of righteousness was shining into that region. A natural shaking had come as a result of the terrorist attack, but now we are going to see nations shaking and trembling in His presence. Even in recent years, nations have shaken with fear as a result of stock market crashes and terrorism; but now the power of God's righteousness is going to do some shaking. The whole chapter of Isaiah 64 is key for this upcoming year, especially the first three verses:

"Oh, that You would rend the heavens! That You would come down! That the mountains might shake at Your presence -- as fire burns brushwood, as fire causes water to boil -- to make Your name known to Your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at Your presence! When You did awesome things for which we did not look, You came down, the mountains shook at Your presence." Isaiah 64:1-3

The Lord is going to restore righteousness to His people and wreak judgment on the spiritual enemies that have afflicted His people and left the church devastated and desolate (Isaiah 64:9-11). In the coming season, the church will walk out a strong prophetic revelation of holiness and the fear of the Lord. Isaiah 64:3 describes the presence of God coming down with great holiness and bringing a shaking.

REVELATORY ENCOUNTERS FOR IRAQ

In a prophetic encounter, Todd also saw that this year God was going to give dreams about Iraq to Christians -- strategic dreams like He gave to Joseph, the father of Jesus. In the book of Matthew, around the time of Jesus' birth and childhood, God gave dreams over and over again to warn them, keep them safe, and give them direction. The Lord is going to give dreams to the church, Christian leaders, and even soldiers, to keep them one step ahead of the enemy and the terrorists. He will even uncover terrorist plans and potential threats. Todd saw a rising tide of Christianity in Iraq.

Muslims in Iraq will also begin to have dreams in which they will see Jesus and be saved. These encounters will be similar to those that other Muslims are having all over the world; many of them report seeing "the man in white" in their dreams. Researcher, Lorraine Orris, reports that dreams played a part in about half the conversions of Muslims that she researched. The tide of Christianity will rise in Iraq as God gives dreams to the lost and begins to show signs in the heavens and wonders on the earth. In the same way the Magi followed the stars and the signs in the heavens to find King Jesus, Muslims will be led to the King. To support these new Muslim conversions to Christianity in Iraq, Todd sees God giving dreams to key ministries, calling them into Iraq and giving them a mandate for strategic church or ministry plants which will greatly strengthen the church there.

The Lord will also use persecution of believers in Iraq like He used it in Acts 8:1,4 where believers went everywhere preaching the word. Todd feels like God is turning the difficult situation in Iraq for good; the Lord is going to use it for His purpose to cause the gospel to be spread all over Iraq and the Middle East. The church in the Middle East will grow when God accomplishes His purpose in Iraq.

FIELD OF DREAMS

In one recent, awesome prophetic experience, the Lord took Todd into an area that looked like a deserted battlefield. In his spirit, Todd knew he was walking in the field of dreams. All around him he could see bombed out tanks and discarded or lost empty artillery shells. Pieces of armor littered the field; he could see a helmet and shield almost hidden in the sand. Here and there cannons and different types of instruments of war (from about the 1700s or 1800s) dotted the landscape.

Todd realized that most of the weapons and armor were either lost, discarded, covered, or hidden by the sands of time. He had a strong impression that many warriors had abandoned their posts; they had run away from their promises and dreams. Some had become so hopeless, disappointed, and discouraged from the battles in life, they threw away their treasure.

Todd saw the Father walking in the field of dreams. Todd watched the Father reaching down tenderly, picking up an old piece of armor. As He dusted off the sand, God's breathing began to change to deep sighs, filled with emotion. Todd sensed His heart as He embraced each piece, taking it close to His chest, holding it there, just as if it was a child. Then He said, "Son, these are lost dreams, these are prophetic promises."

"WHAT DO YOU HAVE IN YOUR HEART?"

Then it dawned on Todd that many saints of old had thrown away their prophetic destinies because they ended up despising prophecy. They just abandoned them. Others tried to keep their prophecies by fighting the good fight of faith, but when the battle became fierce they ran away. When the temptations of the world came, the Christian warriors just left their post, all their prophetic words and dreams. Whole churches and movements, cities, nations, and individuals walked away from their vision, abandoning their dreams!

Then the Lord said, "Todd, I want you to walk with me for awhile in the field of dreams because I want to speak with you about my heart's desire for this season. It's time to redeem prophetic promises again for individuals, churches and movements, cities, regions, and nations. I want believers to dream some old dreams! I want them to dream some old visions! The dreams and visions are not lost forever. I want to resurrect them! My word will not return unto me void! It will accomplish the purpose for which it came out of my mouth" (Isaiah 55:11). Then, God began offering the old, discarded, lost dreams and visions to Todd. But he knew instinctively these dreams were intended for every believer -- the Lord was inviting each one of us to dream with Him. And then He asked this question, "Todd, what do you have in your heart?"

FINDING OUR TREASURE

Many of us don't really understand just what is in our hearts; the treasure that the Father has placed inside us. We need to recognize and see our treasure because, "…where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matthew 6:21). So the question is this: "Where are our spiritual eyes?" We can't see in the invisible realm or discover our treasure if we don't know where our eyes are. This year the Lord wants His people to learn to dream with Him and to redeem lost prophetic promises. The apostle Paul spoke about how God would enlighten the eyes of our understanding, or the eyes of our heart:

"…the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints." Ephesians 1:18

The meaning for 'eyes of our understanding' is: mind, will, and intellect. Also, the 'eyes of our understanding' is translated, literally, as the 'eyes of our imagination.' This is the same realm that little children naturally live in; the realm of the imagination.

Scripture says, "…Meditate within your heart on your bed and be still" (Psalms 4:4). Many of us in the church today have shut our imagination down. When we've imagined something, we've called it pride and arrogance. It's like we don't want to dream because it could be a dangerous thing to do. However, when we exercise our spiritual senses by dreaming with God or fantasizing by the power of the Holy Ghost, we will discover our treasure, our heart's desire. This year the Lord has lost dreams that He is offering to us -- they can be ours when we learn to dream by faith. There is something inside each of us the moment that we were born again -- a seed of desire, a treasure that God planted. God says He will do exceedingly abundantly above anything we can even ask or think (Ephesians 3:20).

HEAVEN UNVEILS HIDDEN TREASURES

In many other ways the Lord also communicated that He would be unveiling His hidden mysteries and secrets for those who would fear Him. He is about to reveal, to our generation, mysteries that have been hidden since the beginning of time. While Todd was waiting on the Lord, an angel appeared, his robe covered in diamonds, rubies, and precious stones. He looked like a man; the stones of the 12 tribes of Israel were imbedded in His robe. In the vision, the angel came to what appeared like a bank vault. He opened the vault and white, blinding, golden beams of light shone out. The vault held the hidden treasures of wisdom and revelation. It also contained the unsearchable riches of Christ from Colossians 2:2,3, which speaks of "the knowledge of the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." This year God wants to reveal those treasures that are hidden in Christ, but He will only disclose them to those who seek God's face and then come into face to face encounters with Him. God is inviting His people, in a greater way, to have revelatory understanding of things that are only going to be revealed in this generation.

The Lord then began to speak about Matthew 13 for this year. The passage compares the kingdom of God to a treasure hidden in a field. The fact that it is hidden suggests that to find the treasures of the kingdom we must seek them out. In this next season God is calling His people to seek after His treasures, the increase in wisdom and revelation -- those who seek will find. In the parable, the field cost everything to the treasure seeker -- yet he gave everything for the joy of what was hidden there. In the same way, we are called "as servants of Christ" to be good "stewards of the mysteries of God" (1 Corinthians 4:1-2). A steward is defined as "One who manages another's property, finances, or other affairs." A good steward is one who is found faithful. The Lord is looking for those he can entrust to be stewards with His gifts of revelation, those who will be faithful to hold to the integrity of the word of God, and those who won't step back for fear that they will be misunderstood with what God shows them. The Lord wants them to be stewards who will speak out the mysteries He has called them to share, and hide in their hearts (and pray about) those mysteries He has told them not to share.

In another prophetic experience, Todd was given a rolled up parchment scroll. On it he saw written "John the Beloved." Then came a voice saying "eat the scroll." This vision indicates that God is about to reveal hidden treasures of revelation as well as greater understanding of themes in prophecy, especially dealing with prophecy in the book of Daniel or Revelation. As in the case of John, the disciple who was closest to Jesus, the one who leaned on His chest, those who develop intimacy with Jesus will be the ones to receive great revelation from Him.

THE FAST FOR REVELATION

Todd also received word from the Lord that He is calling a fast, like the 21-day fast of Daniel, for those who want the increase of understanding and revelation, the treasures that are hidden. Daniel fasted for the purpose of getting understanding and revelation. He fasted for three weeks to get understanding of the things that he had already previously seen and heard in revelation and vision. We sense that God is saying that He will increase wisdom and understanding for those who would do the 21-day Daniel fast. He will even uncover mysteries.

Rooted And Grounded In Him

Susan Cummings

For the last few days, I have sensed a grieving of the Lord in my spirit. The sense of sadness and of disappointment follow me whatever I do throughout the day. I have waited till the Lord chose to show me why He has been brooding and what was on His Heart. The following is the result of that waiting.....

The time that I have given to My People to draw close to Me has ended. I repeatedly called, and cried out to them to come to Me. I gave time and more time, for them to fully turn back to Me and to allow Me to cleanse and heal them. But how many heard Me and actually came? Why My Children haven't came to Me? Why have they chosen to walk in darkness instead of My Light and Love?

I gave time for them to repent, and to turn from their wickedness and their sins. I gave them much, for My Grace is available to all, but they trampled on My Grace and turned away from Me. The time that I gave them was not used for preparation, but for their rebellion. I warned of the time closing and none even bothered to look and see if it was indeed too late.

Now the time has come and gone. I showed My Prophets the New Day that they have now entered. I made them cry out and warn the people of their choices, and the reaping of those choices. But, did any listen to My Prophets? Did any humble themselves or despise their sins? No, they cast aside My prophets and told them to be silent, and discredited them.

I gave time for My Prophets to warn and to be that witness but few heard the decrees or even listened to the alarms. They only went further into their dark caves of security. But their security is not IN Me, and it will fall upon them. For I will shake the foundations of the earth and even the caves will not protect them.

I allowed even more warnings to come, as nature responded to My Hand, and travailed to birth forth in the earth. Nature has travailed and waited to see My Sons birthed forth into the earth. It has longed for the day of deliverance from the bondage of sin. But even then, men did not repent and seek Me for the days ahead. The time that I have given has been wasted, and not appreciated as My Grace. Men do not want Grace, they want darkness, so now that is what they will receive. I will no longer warn, but now I will roar. Nature will also roar, by My decree as it responds to Me.

I have called out through prophets, apostles, pastors, preachers, teachers, men, women, and children. But who heeded My Voice? All who were truly from Me, were discounted and pushed to the side, or many of them were corrupted and made into the harlot, just as the people who loved the darkness were. No more will my Voices be corrupted or silenced! I will be heard, and all men will give an account!

I am a Just, Loving God. I have been calling to My People over the generations, seeking for those who would love Me, and walk fully with Me, and who would walk Holy in the earth. There has been a remnant in each generation. Now, at the end, I find none who see what I am doing, and who can stand fully in it. So, I am revealing it to My Prophets, the ones who I now will raise up, who will be faithful with My Word. Who will not let one of My Words fall to the ground.

I am raising up the final voice in the earth, that will cry out in the destruction, and speak froth the Truth.

For I warned men of this hour of My Justice, but few failed to believe that I would judge My Own. Few know that as a loving Father, I chasten those who are Mine, and who are in sin. I love My People, and I will have a Holy People. I have begun the cleansing of My House.

I have warned and will no longer warn anymore. They have had the final warning and now comes the reaping. I have begged My Own to be found In Me, to come to Me, and sit with Me, and learn of Me, and be changed into My Likeness. Those who refused will now be purged. Those who now refuse the purging will be separated with the chaff and the goats forever. I will not be mocked!

Men will have what they want. If they choose their own way, they will go fully into it, and be wholly given over to it. If they choose Me, then I will embrace them and bring them into My arms. There is no other choice. No longer will, I allow uncleanness to be called by My Name, or to rule over My People. In My House, I am the Lord, and there will be no other.

Those found rooted and grounded IN Me, in this hour, will be sheltered from the waves and the purging that will scourge this land. For though the waves beat upon My House, it will surely stand, and all found IN Me, will stand with Me till the end.

The waves have begun. Waves of fire and blood have been decreed and have begun their march across this land. No man will be able to hide, for all will give an account and choose whom they will serve. The trumpets have sounded and the decrees have been uttered and the release has begun. The destroyer now passes over the lands.

Those found rooted and grounded In Me will not fear nor flee. They have chosen to be hidden In Me. And this thing will I not deny them, for they fully embraced Me. My Glory is what they will see. For they did not love their lives more than Me. It is to them that I will show My Mercy.

Rain
Vicki Camp

1-6-'04
"As the deer pants for the water brooks, So pants my soul for You, O God." - Ps. 42:1b old chorus;

It's beginning to rain-nnnnn, Hear the Voice of The Father,
He's saying, Whosoever will, Come drink of this Water,
I have promised to pour My Spirit out ... on My sons and My daughters,
If you're thirsty and dry,
Look up to the sky,
It's beginning to RAIN-nnnnnnn.

"Ask the Lord for rain In the time of the latter rain. The Lord will make flashing clouds; He will give them showers of rain, Grass in the field for everyone." -Zec. 10:1

(In The Spirit I am shown a cliff, collapsing,,,a mudslide..... this stark dirt cliff hillside sliding off.,,, very large wet mudslide coming down..)

I tell you children, there is more than abundant Rain in My storehouse,,, as you ask of ME.... So much so will I give that your very lives will slough off all that muddies in you,,, and around you as well.

Beloved, ask Me for Rain in this time of My latter Rain and I will fill your vessels to flood-stage of ground swell out-flow. My Word washes your inner and outer being; My Rain will sparkle your spiritual skin and rain-ment raiment, reflecting Christ, even Me....and then shall We, you and I radiate and shine My glory, even as My Sunshine of great hope to those in need of healing.
Ask of Me and then ask again for more, and again, and then keep asking for more of My Rain, My Spirit downpour ......For I tell you of a truth, I AM COMING in Holy flood-stage portions.

*There is much still to be accomplished yet before I am done with you; Much to be accomplished and finished in My earth and the world which surrounds you. Look to ME ALONE as your firm foundation. Do not trust the strength of man's arm for it is mere sloughing power, which will slide away into un-notice when My affluence converges into sweeping flood ......Where my Deep Water flows........ to the Watering of my field, My garden, Watering My you.*

Ask of Me and then receive My Rain this season...
Prepare you now, for I have Named you vessels of honor ...... bring them on says Your God,,bring yourselves ON, and see if I will not pour out even beyond your man senses of knowing. Miraculous flood gates are opening from My Fountainhead Depths, which reach to Heights beyond your present reasonable reasoning, my children. Ask and receive My great joy gifted upon and into you, to then be poured out of you.... Bring yourselves ON, present before Me you vessels of My honor given.

In days ahead when sliding comes and earth loses it's firmness,,,people will come staggering from your east, west, from your north and south will they come, dazedly looking for salvation, looking for Me Who is their only Hope -- and they will find you, Beloved. Receive of my watering fount now, shine of my rain-ment refresh, more and then the more and then the more I will pour out at this time, of My vast measure,,,, ask and receive,,,,,,,, for in these days I WILL and so it WILL BE that My Glory draw the lost, lame, dazed ones to salvation......Through you shall they see and hear Voice and Song, My Beloved washed and shining ones. You who are My reflections speaking forth My Glory Image message, "Jesus Christ, Hope, Healing, Salvation."

*Ask thirsting ones, for I am desiring now, to fully drown you in My rushing Love flow wherein Truth will dawn in newness joy received into you; Even as the dew glistens upon the grass of early* morning .... Dawning Christ even fuller upon and into your being; Be thorough soaked inside, seeping to the outside; Upon your countenance bursting outward; My irresistible beauty pure, drawing Force, I AM.

Know this; You are marked of Me,,, My Mark, My Name never to be lifted or removed by man or evil entity as you stay In Me ,,,, Marked of Me, vessels of honor, imprinted of My Blood covenant given upon the lintels of your being.

Ask, thirsting ones.. Be soaked, drenched, bathing and refreshing repeatedly -- not once, but repeatedly receive ... My Holy Power Rain, even My Spirit falling fresh. Thus our journey ahead is fortified.
Know assuredly, I say, that this time and season,,, you, my Beloved are My target; You are TARGETED of My Holy water drops of arrowed downpour meat. Receive My sustenance. I will pour out upon you and into you My children, for My purposes, for Our purpose.

Now, today hear My speech, inculcate My doctrine,,,, opening wide your spiritual and natural mouths, hearts, arms, hands, and feet of deer leaping anticipation -- You are My joy, and this IS My delight, filling and flooding My Beloved....ask of Me...Receive Me while My eye is upon you in this time space of My flooding water; My Spirit Immanuel.

(I now am shown and see a huge bright half ball of the sun, half arisen of a mist morning, shining up and out from the other side of a field I'm looking across -- a field covered with water - beautiful to see ,,,,, a field that looks like photo's or film I've seen of rice paddy's for there is crop of grains here showing their top parts,,, a place flooded ..... very bright white Sun light reflecting upon this gently moving water of field and crop .. of the Sun, many colors upon this glass like water's surface....)

Immanuel = 'God with us' ......

"Ask the Lord for rain In the time of the latter rain ...." - Zec. 10:1A
"Let us know, Let us pursue the knowledge of the Lord. His going forth is established as the morning; He will come to us like the rain, Like the latter and former rain to the earth." - Hos. 6:3
"Be glad then, you children of Zion, And rejoice in the Lord your God; For He has given you the former rain faithfully, And He will cause the rain to come down for you -- The former rain, And the latter rain in the first month." - Joel 2:23

An Old Sepia Snapshot Viewing

~generations~ “ Israel served the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had known all the works of the Lord which He had done for Israel. “ – Josh 24:31

the vision received 1-27-‘04
pre: Unusually, I was shown this scene in sepia, brownish tints, as in old photos - no other colors. Later I realized this helped me identify the era.
One other very odd thing in this sepia effect vision, was that this was all seen as having a fore-ground netting, as it were - the whole scene, like the design on U.S. currency, I thought -- those tiny dots or crisscrossed lines on the faces or portions of our paper bills....

I was shown an old room, such as pioneer days or some earlier era. There was a fireplace burning logs and glowing warm. A woman on my left, just left of this fireplace, was sitting in a high backed wooden rocking chair - she had an old fashioned long dress, dark hair in a back-neck-bun tied. She was pleasant and full faced, but plain looking in the way that women were in those days.
This woman in the rocking chair had something in her lap she worked on like knitting, sewing or some little hand-project like that – this whole scene was warm tones and cozy with the log fire burning,,,,,even though I wasn't seeing it in color.

Then, she arose from her rocking chair, passing in front of the fireplace to my right, to where I now saw an old man was also sitting in a wooden chair. But not a rocking chair – rather, some kind of roomy old wooden chair, straight low-back, with wooden arms. He had white hair - longish, like to shoulders or longer & thick with some wave to the hair. This old man had evidently fallen asleep and the top of his body was slumping to the side facing me, thus I only saw the top of his head with some of this white hair falling over, as he rested with his arms on the chair….

The woman reached out and touched him gently, and he awoke sitting upright, wherein I could now see his full face..... white beard and moustache, of what I would name a van dyke style of a sort (?),,, that is, no hair on his cheeks. His moustache was also thick, and had very slightly turned up points.

The only other thing I noted about him was that he had those long leather boots, like riding boots on. I was shown a close-up of his face, ...then a close up of his legs, bent knees, with the long leather boots... - end of vision.

This man had looked familiar to me, but not anyone I could put my finger on to actually identify. I had no insight from Lord of what this very unusual vision may mean, yet.

Later, I sat down on the couch to watch the TV news -- with this vision to back of my mind/heart, when suddenly I thought, "Buffalo Bill" or "William Cody" = the vision older man! This was one of those 'out of the blue' drop-ins that I believed was from Lord, and felt I better check for photo's on the web...... which I did. The photo of William Cody as an older man, looked very right to me, plus many photos had him with those leather riding boots too! One close-up of an older Bill Cody face/portrait, caused me to suck in my breath due to the likeness of the man I had been shown.

Then, because of the money sensing I had (that odd netting seen over this whole scene), I went to look up U.S. currency to make sure I was thinking/remembering right (I didn't even have a $1 bill, nor any paper money in my purse to ck. this... ;-). Anyway, I punched in the wrong thing in my internet ‘search’ ... all this while pondering the surprising revelation re: Wm. Cody. The FIRST web site I ‘hit’ was a commercial one selling minted objects -- and now right in front of my eyes on that page , was a ,,,,, "Buffalo Bill Bowie Knife" for sale........with William Cody’s picture engraved on it! (fyi http://www.americanmint.com/)
I was holding my breath again,

“All right, Lord ! ...... there is no way this “accident” could be coincidence - this is Your even more confirming to me of the vision man’s identity …Thank You so…and please reveal and tell me more concerning your message, in this vision You’ve shared….”

some mini-sketch
*Bill Cody: Knowing not much about William Cody (1846-1917), I read a little about him - quite an accomplished younger man in the 1800’s and later also, of heroics and legend, gold rush, wrangler, scout, wagon trains, pony express (at age 14!), soldier, plus even the more in the Old West way for some in those days past.

Then of course most notable in remembrance was his "Buffalo Bill Wild West Show" of latter 1800's & earliest 1900's fame when he was a whiter haired elder as I had been shown him in the vision (almost 100 years past, now). A grand Show; Cowboys and yes Cowgirls, Indians, sharpshooters, trick horses of wonder with their riders, his show having re-creations enacted of ‘life out West’.

Cody, Wyoming – “Enamored of the land in Big Horn Basin. In 1895, Wm. Cody began to establish his town “ — Cody demonstrated great vision for his town, with strong efforts of statesmanship (evidently he hounded anyone with influence :-); In his same skill in the how-to’s of ‘putting a show together’, Cody WY. became….. & later was enhanced (dams, irrigation) by the help of his friend, President Theodore Roosevelt (1901-‘08) …...

William Cody, in the end (good and not so perfect) was a kind man in heart, loved and enamored of the American people as a ‘father figure’ of the Old West.

some insight received
After holding this vision before The Lord for a few days I’ve been given to understand that the main vision point, or message point of this unusual vision received, is the older white haired man being re-awakened at the finish.

“The silver-haired head is a crown of glory, If it is found in the way of righteousness.” – Prov. 16:31

re-awaken; Visionaries, pioneering spirit, gifts/fruits of Holy Spirit, integrity, elder grown kindness, white hair-wisdoms, acts of spiritual power, found of these ones today who match in ways to Wm. Cody; apostolic/prophetic ‘fathers’ (men and women) of our heavenly Father’s Heart. These are ones who have roughed ahead/forward (scouts, wagon trains etc.) persevering. I believe this vision depicted the ‘now’ need for these ones to be re-awakened.

Simply put, this was one view I was shown, of a ‘particular breed’ of leading and example for all of our going forward as The Church – in this same type spirit of Cody in some aspects of the Old West in America,,, but for us being of precious and mighty Holy Spirit.

re-awake again -- ‘fathers’ of white-hair Godly wisdom, experience, power, influence, integrity with present Godly sight and foresight. This vision most obviously depicted our older generation, but wait… not of gender or years of natural age alone, for these are mature ones (white haired) spiritually, stock of a particular breed = ‘father’s’ of our Father’s Heart, In Christ. I’m remembering John the Baptist age in ministry, and our Lord Jesus earth-age ministry…..

"....... He (Jesus) began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing Him were astonished, saying, "Where did this Man get these things? And what wisdom is this which is given to Him, that such mighty works are performed by His hands!" - Mk. 6:2

At a point in God’s timing, these re-awakened ones with Lord’s exemplary heroic teams/army/crews/peoples, will be presented on ‘stage’ for all the earth, in a likeness to what William Cody did in the smaller way in his own day ....

"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea ...." - Mt. 13:47a
The netting aspect over-all shown I believe has to do with this kingdom net Word of Jesus, and the tie I sensed with paper money, is wealth = spiritual wealth to be shared out and imparted into The Church, by these awakened ‘fathers’,,, having Our Father’s Wisdoms in God’ Righteousness,,, even of our Christ’ heritage,,, wealth indeed !

".....unsearchable riches of Christ, and to make all see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ;…” - Eph. 3:8

The woman and the man in this vision, had different chairs -- his being low-straight backed and I was actually wondering as I saw this vision, how in the world could anyone ever sleep in such - you know? Thinking,,,, only an old man could easily........could drift off and doze in such a straight and hard chair, due to the room’s warmth (wood fire heat) …old men may do this easily, yes. His chair was more like a side chair with arms, not a comfort type chair at all.
These, their two chairs, may represent their different ‘seats’ of which they function from.

The vision woman represents the Church in resting = rocking chair, comfortable sitting (fire/cozy), with hand-work projects ! (probably good work[s] of her ‘hands’, but more is needful at this time, for her...). This woman, the Church in this vision depiction, is the one who arises to gently re-awaken the white haired Bill Cody, or better stated – re-awakens The Father’s father’ ministries .....She re-awaken's these ministries (a particular brand of apostolic/prophetic visionaries).... because it is needful for 'her', the Church to have these persons awake, not dozing ,,,,,,, now.
As the vision ended – the older white haired man responds to her touch and awakens to the need in her = e.g. the need that is in ‘The Church' presently.

One more, in finishing: “Buffalo Bill” ; The great noble animal, the Buffalo of America became an almost extinct animal due to human incursion and greed, but right now in our present day the Buffalo is enjoying favor of come-back, as we re-awaken to the Buffalo’s great value, worth to ‘keep alive’, on-going-ly so, for generational posterity and prosperity. In our U.S., I will venture that our original dwellers, The American Plains Natives have understood this…. all along.

”Wake Up. Re-awaken,,,, Buffalo Bill’s / William Cody’s …. of our Lord Jesus Christ. For our Lord and She/we need you now.”

* input to this vision from Lloyd Phillips, Director FLintNet, Missoula MT.
http://www.flintnet.org ;

I thought of Bill Cody immediately from your vision description. I thought of an old photo I have somewhere of him surrounded by lots of young kids. I believe he had on the long riding boots of this same picture, and had a loving face towards the kids, as they in turn were looking endearingly to him.

Cody was a real scout, had been a pony express rider as a boy, served in the Civil War on the Union side, and was the world's first superstar. During his Wild West show days, he issued all of his riders a copy of the bible and expected them to carry it with them everywhere. Cody really was a man of integrity, and thought setting an example for youth - and others to follow was of prime importance………

This vision made me think of our Spring conference we are helping to host this March with 4 other churches in town (Missoula MT.)……our Spiritual Father's conference. These are specifically older apostolic & prophetic fathers who are being brought in just to pass down their wisdom.

The apostolic is like the scout, and Cody also was able to bring that apostolic lifestyle before the masses (church & world) in a way that they could get a taste of what it was like. This is something that needs to happen with the apostolic, bring it out of obscurity and actually bring it before people in such a way that it is seen for what it has done, and is doing.

Receiving And Conceiving

Get ready My dear saints to receive and conceive all I have in store for you. Believe Me, I Am not stopping. I Am not stopping here. I will bring you more and more. Just when you think you have reached fullness and can't expand any more. Just when you feel like you have to explode with my glory, a gentle release will come as you overflow, overflow. Overflow with all My goodness, grace, and glory. Oh yes! My Glory! My glory will shine on you so profoundly you will glow, glow, glow. You will glow like that of a blushing bride. MY BRIDE. MY BRIDE of course. You will glow with an overabundance of glory. I tell you in My Word that it is a sin to share your bride. But in My case ,it is a sin not to share My Bride, for it is in My Bride and Our Covenant that We together will reach the world.

I say share, share, share. Share My Blood. Share My Name. Share My Word. You will uncontrollablly share and spread My Glory. You won't even need to think about it. It will just happen as you overflow. Overflowing as it becomes a vapor spreading throughout the atmosphere. You will be smack dab in the middle of My Glory Cloud. Some will feel lost in the fog but you will clearly see. You will see, oh you will clearly see what I Am revealing to you in the days to come. For those who stay close behind the veil won't be left out in the cold and caught off guard.

Stay intimate with Me My Bride as I reveal My deepest and innermost thoughts, plans and desires. Romance Me to enhance ALL We can be together. For these are the last days just as I promised. Eye has not seen, nor ear heard what I Am about to do.. Overflow, overflow onto and into everyone who comes in your pathway. Once you pass it on, there will be an ignition, lighting the pathway of MY GLORY that will set off a chain reaction of MY Never Ending Glory. It will explosively ignite MY WORLD that I CREATED for MY PURPOSES. YES, MY WORLD For MY PURPOSE. UNITY, UNITY. YES! In one accord. YES! Once and for all. YES!!! My Bride, My Children, dancing, singing, loving. Peace, love, joy and more joy. Joy unspeakable!!! YES!!! What a reception We will have, Oh My Bride. Oh Bride of Mine! Gloory! Gloooory unspeakable!!!! I feel like dancing already. Oh saints, picture a groom dancing with open arms, I mean really dancing with compassion, dreaming of the day to come.

Now picture Me, your Creator, your Father, your Everything, waltzing in heavens wide open spaces. Imagine, Me dancing in My own Glory for that glorious day ahead. That glorious day just over the horizon. It may sound like a fairy tale for a prince but the world will see I Am the King! The King of Kings. The Alpha and Omega. They WILL see I Am the Great I Am. I Reign! I Reign! There is only ONE GOD, ONE KING and it is I, the Great I AM. There will be no mistake . No mistake at all when I Am done. When I Am done, not one, not one suffering soul will be able to say, I told you so. For I told them so. I told them so. You told them so. Conceive the depth of all I say My faithful ones. Yes, it is your duty, your call, to make Me known to all. Make it your number one compassion, your desire, as I anoint you with my fire. Make Me number One on your To Do list each and every day. I'm making My list and checking it twice. I expect you to do the same and put ME at the top, middle and bottom of your To Do list. Any and every which way, you MUST fit me into you schedule. This WILL become your priority. You think you have been patiently waiting upon Me, when all along I have been more than patiently waiting upon you, My, loved ones.

I'm sweeping Myself off My own feet with such passion for Our Glorious Day. Envision My Joy. My Joy Unspeakable! You knew this day was coming as I gave you My Word. I said it, and it WILL come to pass sooner than you think. You thought your expectations were high and that you were prepared, but I say, sweet one's of Mine, get ready and stay ready. Don't let your guard down when it comes to keeping yourself covered with My Blood. I tell you, your life lies in the Power of My Blood. Cover yourself from every angle. The enemy comes to kill, steal and destroy and he will try every angle to get at my children. Make much of My Blood. With out it you are easy prey. Again I say, receive and conceive the depth of what I say for the time is nigh and statistics are high. Draw a line of My Blood, a Bloodline, around yourself. Verbally apply My Blood to yourself and everything near and dear to you. Do this daily! Make this a daily habit, until it becomes second nature. It MUST become part of your vocabulary. Apply My Blood, Receive My Blood out loud, for crying out loud My Blood will be a matter of life and death. For life and death you MUST depend on My Blood. For within My Blood you will receive not only salvation, but with it comes life. Full life! My life! My Life in you. My Life in you ignites and burns out ALL infirmities! MY BLOOD DESTROYS the destroyer. Satan cannot cross the line of My Precious Blood. It's not just that he can't cross it, he runs, runs, runs. Oh, how he runs, tripping all the while,(tongues), ha, ha, ha. I say, rest in Me, but do not relax or slack off in the application of My Blood. Must I repeat this. Must I repeat this My precious ones. If you could only fathom how important of an asset My Blood really is you would never miss it. It's your total protection, inside and out. Your life, the life I gave you depends on My Blood and the application of it is of vital importance in these last days. I tell you plead, claim and receive My Blood all the way around.

I tell you.. MY BLOOD is your SAFETY RING! It's your LIFE PRESERVER! Think of it as a free alarm system that never fails to stop the enemy in his tracks. I paid for it in full and I expect you to put it to full use. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE,... By the Power of My Blood, I command you to apply it just as you would your shoes. Don't leave home without it. This is your key, vitally statistically speaking, to life here on earth. I created you for a purpose. My Purpose. Here on earth, as My Covenant Partner in all things for My glory. My glory expels in wondrous praise. It dances up to Me and I roll it back down to you. What a flow. What a flow. I love to see it come and go, to and fro. Around and around. What goes up must come down. Full Circle of My Glory. Everything I AM comes full circle. Everything I do comes full circle. Soak it in. Soak it up. Saturate yourselves with my Blood and My Glory. Oh Yes! My Full Circle of Glory. There is nothing better! Oh Glooory! Hallelujah! Hallelujah to The Lamb. Yes The Lamb, I AM, who was slain before the foundation of the world! Behind the veil is where you want to stay, My Beautiful Bride. It goes without say, with an overabundance of glory, so receive and conceive. Now with joy unspeakable rest in My peace with bless-ed assurance I Am soon to come.

R and R
Danny Korakas

Sep 17, 2004
"Now all the people gathered together as one man in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded Israel. So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, of men and women and all who could hear with understanding, on the FIRST DAY OF THE SEVENTH MONTH. Then he read from it in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate from morning until midday, before men and women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were ATTENTIVE to the Book of the Law." (Nehemiah 8:1-3)

When we think of R & R, we normally associate it with "rest and relaxation." This term was coined in the military as troops would need a season of rest and relaxation before heading back into battle. As Christians, we need these same seasons of rest in the Lord as we battle through the adversities in life.

The problem with many believers is that they don't necessarily need a natural or physical time of R & R, but rather a spiritual R & R. What we truly need is REVIVAL AND RENEWAL. I have passed many churches and read a sign along the roadside claiming that a "revival" is inside. Well, I am all for the fact that we recognize that something is dead in our midst that needs reviving! But, do we really understand what a genuine revival is? First of all, revival is not a series of evangelistic outreaches or a special speaker. Revival is a response of the Holy Spirit bringing healing and life to a sickness or deadness that we have allowed in the life of the church.

We need to also understand that we do have a part to play in genuine revival and renewal. It WILL come to those who earnestly DESIRE it. I would like to distinguish this message on "revival" from that of an "awakening." An awakening is a move of Holy Spirit that awakens the unsaved to their sinful nature and draws them to salvation through Jesus Christ. (America has had two great awakenings where multitudes of people were saved and brought into the kingdom. I sincerely believe that we are on the brink of another "Great Awakening" within three years.) What I want to focus on is the reviving work of the Holy Spirit that moves upon the "saved" that are DESPERATE for a move of God within the church.

While we cannot simply program an awakening, we can, however, choose to move into revival and renewal. Some may think it is arrogant to declare and prophesy that revival can be "programmed." I can declare this with a clear conscience in the knowledge that if we simply follow God's program and principles set forth in His Word, we will indeed inhabit and experience true revival and renewal. PERSONAL and corporate revival is the essential ingredient of our part to play for another "Great Awakening." It is only when we have been revived from our dead and wounded spiritual condition as the church that the Lord will entrust to us the most precious of gifts — the souls of men. I know this is a hard statement, but the Lord is grieved by His newborn and children having to hear the "stories" of man and his accomplishments rather than hearing the Word of God and experiencing HIS glory.

In Nehemiah 8, we see clearly the blueprint and model that the Lord has given us for revival and renewal. The center of genuine revivals will consist of two things — the Word of God and intercession leading to repentance. The high view and value of the Bible is the centerpiece and foundation of personal and communal CHANGE. If we survey the scripture along with church history, we will soon find this fact to be true.

"Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, 'I have found the Book of the Law in the HOUSE OF THE LORD.' And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan and he read it. Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the book of the Law, that he tore his clothes. Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, "Go, inquire of the Lord for me, for the people and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is the wrath of the Lord that has been aroused against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do all that is written concerning us."" (2 Kings 22:8, 11-13)

Two things stand out in this great revival during the reign of Josiah. One is that the scriptures were found in the "house of the Lord." It seems that many in "spirit-filled" circles have been drawn to the supernatural stories of what man has done rather than the supernatural Word of God. I have witnessed many conferences where speaker after speaker expounds upon "their" stories ... with little to nothing concerning the Word of God. I love to hear wonderful testimonies of what the Lord is doing through people as much as anybody. However, if it is void of the Word of God as its foundation and premise, it is void of real supernatural power and life changing anointing.

We may leave these events all fired up or encouraged, but does it REALLY change your life in a supernatural or permanent way? The Bible must regain the preeminence and be found in the house of the Lord if we are to experience the revival and renewal that the Lord desires for His people. It is this reviving of our love for the Word of God that will protect us from the end day deception that will grip humanity. The Bible states that Satan will come as an angel of light and that even the elect may be deceived if it were possible. The spirit of Antichrist is a religious spirit, and the "great deception" will be based on religious deceptions.

In Nehemiah 8, the tremendous revival and renewal of God's people was birthed through a desire and hunger for God's Word as well. This revival took place in the 5th century BC after the Israelites returned from the Babylonian exile. The Temple that had previously been destroyed was now rebuilt through the efforts of the PROPHETS Haggai and Zechariah.

Prophetically, this points to a religious system that must be destroyed and rebuilt in our day as well. The religious system of man-made doctrines and traditions must be brought into submission to the Word of God. Many church leaders have "stiff armed" the baptism of the Holy Spirit while these same men sit on padded thrones upon elevated platforms facing those whom God has given them to SERVE. Is this the position of a servant? At least the Baptism of the Holy Spirit is in the Word of God. Many have a preferred parking place for the pastor and "first lady" right next to the entrance of the church. Is this servant leadership? This is not a an assault on church leadership, but a word of edification and understanding into the heart of Christ for the leadership pattern that He gave as an example.

The FIRES of revival are fueled by servant leadership. A fire will soon suffocate without oxygen. Likewise, the acceptance and desire for TITLES such as "reverend" which means "most revered," rather than simply serving in the FUNCTION that the Lord has given us, has caused a suffocating in the life of the church that has quenched its flame. "Flowing Robes" and icons are not REAL to a lost and dying world. The Bible says that we are to "submit to one another in the fear of Lord" as brothers and sisters in Christ. The demand for submission as a means of spiritual maturity is unbiblical in that authority must be earned rather than demanded. The Lord is no longer tolerating the creations and glory of man within the church.

The Lord is no longer tolerating the SELLING OF HIS ANOINTING." It is not that cheap! He is no longer turning His eye to a "clergy – laity" mentality. The harvest of souls that is coming will need a leadership that they can identify with and feel comfortable around — somebody just like them.

Although the Temple would be rebuilt under the encouragement of the prophets, the wall of the city would still be broken and in ruin. For almost a hundred years, the people of God would be CONTENT living among the rubble of 'Broken Walls." This rendered the Temple vulnerable and defenseless to attack. God desired for a strong WALL to be built around the Temple and the Lord chose Nehemiah to fulfill His purpose for revival.

Today, you and I are representative of the Temple in that the Spirit of God dwells within us. We find in scripture that "walls" many times point to intercession and prayer. Our natural and spiritual "temples" are likewise vulnerable to attack without well-built walls of intercession and prayer. The fires of revival that we witness in scripture and that we study in church history were all sparked by INTERCESSION. (Read Nehemiah 1:1-11)

Nehemiah recognized the natural and spiritual condition of the land and God's people. When he heard about the condition of the walls and the attacks of enemy, Nehemiah purposed in his heart to do something about it. God had answered the fervent prayers of a common cup-bearer (servant) and used him in a mighty way to encourage and fan the flames of revival and renewal in his generation. The tremendous task of rebuilding the walls would only take 52 days even in the midst of adversity. This was astounding! The Lord also desires to use you in astounding ways. He is simply looking for a "man who will stand in the gap and build a wall. (Ezekiel 22:30)

In verses 1-8, we see the peoples love and appreciation for the Word of God. The significance of this is in the fact that once the Word of God was found in the "house of God," it was soon proclaimed in a PUBLIC setting. The people of God gathered together in public places to read and hear the Word of God. This seems so out of step in our modern religiosity. However, this was the format of the Great Awakenings that ushered in countless thousands of souls into the kingdom here in America. The Lord is releasing scribes, writers, and prophets who will once again proclaim the Word of God in public settings. What! What are we so embarrassed about?

It would be Ezra the scribe (the same Ezra who penned the book named after him) who would proclaim the Word of God. He was a contemporary of Nehemiah and helped lay the foundation of Revival thorough his love and proclamation of God's Word. The fact that Ezra did not have to force or manipulate the people through interesting stories shows their love and appreciation of the Word of God. These people listened attentively for 6 hours! Are we this hungry for the Word? It seems we have a hard time listening to just one chapter being read in church. It should be no wonder there isn't revival and renewal in the church today.

The Bible says that "In the beginning was the WORD, and the WORD was with God, and the WORD was God." Scripture is clear in that Jesus Christ is the Word. He was the Word incarnate. With this understanding, we must conclude that our love for the Word of God is a direct reflection of our love for Jesus. If we are not passionate for the Word, then we are not truly passionate for Jesus. If we do not long for the Word when we gather together as believers, we are not longing for Jesus. If this is case, then what is our motive for fellowship? Is it man-centered or Christ-centered?

In Nehemiah 8:9-12, we witness the response of the people who were impacted by God's Word. God's Word brought the people to a realization and conviction of their sins. The Bible says that the Word of God is "like a mirror, revealing the heart or intentions of man." The people were weeping because of the realization of their failed and mixed-up priorities. Tears of REPENTANCE are the heart and soul of revival and renewal. Without the heartfelt weeping or grief over our sins and the sins of our communities, there will be no revival and renewal.

It doesn't end here though. Through the tears of repentance comes joy and gladness! Ezra and Nehemiah told the people that it was now time to stop their weeping. The time of repentance was over and a special feast was about to begin. Remember, it was the first day of the seventh month, which was the FEAST OF TRUMPETS! It was the start of the New Year and a time of new beginnings in serving the Lord. You see, God was faithful and just to forgive the people of their sins. Revival and Renewal had come! It was now a time of celebration before the Lord and one another. According to God's Word, the people were to give gifts to the poor with joy in their hearts in how God had blessed and prospered them.

This revival and renewal brought an overflowing joy and gladness in the hearts of God's people. They came to realize God's great and awesome love for them and how much He cared about their every concern in life. Joy and gladness is the result and reward of revival and renewal. This is really what the lost and dying are searching for. The Bible says "that the JOY of the Lord is our strength." Out of the fire and ashes of repentance comes the joy and strength to go and reap the FALL HARVEST.

The joy of the harvest season is upon us as we move toward the Fall Feast of TABERNACLES. In Nehemiah 8:13-18, we read that through the reading of the Word of God, the people received a revelation and value of the Feast of Tabernacles that was soon to come. We will also need this revelation as we prepare to partake of the greatest fall harvest of all — a "Great Awakening" of SOULS!

Islam, The Black Stone

Danny Korakas

Byzantium, whose capital was Constantinople, was not only rivaling Rome for religious influence, it had Rome's lust for the luxuries that the world had to offer. The caravan routes moving across the Arabian peninsula had suddenly become a source of wealth in the transport of goods from India (spices, wares, jewelry, and slaves) and other parts of the orient and Asia.

If poetry and speculation was Mecca's pastime, commerce had become its soul. Caravan owners could now afford to hire mercenaries for protection against desert Bedouins as their businesses prospered. Sixth century Mecca had now established itself a small economic upper-class. The caravan trade would continue to be very dangerous, but very lucrative as well.

Muhammad's first wife (Khadeja) financed and operated caravans. Ironically, women owning businesses would soon come to an end as Muhammad instituted his program and Islam progressed. The peninsula now ruled by tribal chieftains would soon succumb to their new found wealth and the ancient desert values of family and relationships would become secondary to "profit." The greed of the elite few had caused an environment of widows and children left destitute and a large population gripped by debt. The atmosphere had become dry as kindling and only a spark was needed to start a ravenous fire that is still burning today. A man named Muhammad, born around 570 would hold the match in his hand.

Muhammad was born in Mecca, and Mecca was in the "religious business." Hundreds of years before Muhammad, Arabs traveled each year to Mecca to visit the "Ka'ba." The Ka'ba is a shrine that has been rebuilt numerous times due to desert rains and floods. It is 10.5 x 12 meters and 15 meters high. The door of the Ka'ba is in the north-eastern wall and is two meters above the ground. Inside there are three wooden pillars that hold the roof up, which can be accessed by a ladder. The floor is covered by marble and its walls were cut from the mountainous grey stone surrounding it. East of the door, in the corner, 1.5 meters above ground, is where the "Black Stone" is found. The stone is now in several pieces (three large and three small parts that are connected by a type of silver strand) The Ka'ba, to this day, is still the centerpiece of Muslim worship. It is this icon housed in its shrine that is circled during the Hajj which we will study in another article. There is another stone (the stone of good fortune) that is built into the western corner of the Ka'ba, but is far less sacred to the Muslim. The Ka'ba is covered by a black curtain called the "kiswa." It is made traditionally in Egypt and is changed annually at the time of the hajj.

At the time of Muhammad, people would come to the Ka'ba to worship the sun, moon, stars, and a pantheon of other Arabic gods. The "jinn" or "genii" were feared by the Arabs as being a type of wild and evil spirits. Allah, as we wrote in the introduction, was a type of general overseer of the gods. The god "Allah" appears on pagan inscriptions 500 years before Islam and Muhammad. It is worthy to note that a fire at the time of Muhhamad destroyed it partly and the reconstruction resulted in major alterations. The size was increased and the door set up higher to prevent unwanted visitors. Rebel activities in 683 AD destroyed the Ka'ba again and the fire made the Black Stone split into the present fragments.

The tradition of the black stone was supposedly set into a wall of the Ka'ba by Abraham. However, there is no Biblical record or any other historical evidence to give justification or credence to this legend. Around the black stone were three female goddesses (explained in the introduction) where human sacrifices were sometimes performed. Muhammad chose to keep the goddesses intact during the building of his movement. He needed to do this in order to avoid an overwhelming rebellion and possible assassination. However, once Islam took hold and dominated the areas of Mecca and Medina, the old pagan gods and goddesses were abolished by Muhammad in favor of a monotheistic doctrine – The only god being Allah.

The Ka'ba and the "Black Stone" have for centuries been worshiped by Muslim converts as sacred. It origins cannot be traced to God, Allah, or to Muhammad, but to pagan gods and goddesses. Historical records and Arabic poetry prove this fact. The question we must consider in the Islamic doctrine is why would a monotheistic god, "Allah," require the worship of a foundation that was built upon ancient pagan deities and rites? Even the hajj itself has not changed from its pre-Islamic pagan roots. On Muhammad's "farewell hajj," he adapted the ancient pilgrimage into a ritual of a new religion. He announced plans to lead the event himself, taking with him all nine (9) wives still alive. Isn't it ironic that the Koran (the words given to Muhammad) limits a man to four (4) wives. A "holy prophet" with a double standard? What a contrast to the absolute TRUTH and character of the Lord Jesus Christ.

"He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna to eat. And I will give him a WHITE STONE, and on the stone a new name written which no one knows except him who receives it." (Revelation 2:17)

Islam: The Whisper of Satan
Danny Korakas

The Ka'ba, at the time of Muhammad, was safeguarded by the "Banu Quraysh." The Banu Quraysh were tribal shepherds, traditional or cultural robbers, and caravanners. These people had their origins in the northern Arabian peninsula. A certain Quraysh chief named Kosai, moved south and conquered Mecca about the year 400 AD. Kosai built a type of council house next to the Ka'ba and instituted reforms to the Arabic calender to better facilitate the pilgrimage to the Ka'ba that represented a myriad of ancient Arab pagan gods. It would be Kosai who would be Muhammad's great (3x) grandfather.

Some of the Quraysh continued to live as bedouin in the desert areas and maintained their ancient ways and culture. There were many others who became prosperous merchants and bankers and their reputation went before them. The farmers and common men of the area regarded them as "kings." The word Quraysh in Arabic means "Shark." From their arrival in Mecca to the present, they are fulfilling this translation with decisive ruthlessness. They would go on to conquer much of the known civilized world.

Kosai's descendants did not always get along. Two of his sons disputed over food concessions during the pilgrimage to the Ka'ba. This was only settled at the last minute as families from both sides lined up for battle. Some quarrels would never be resolved without bloodshed. Kosai's rich grandson, Hashem, made pilgrimage into a lavish and grandiose event, supplying food and water to the pilgrims. This garnered Hashem wide admiration from the people, but angry resentment from his nephew, Umayya. The division between these two family factions brought the Islamic movement to a halt in Europe when all seemed probable for a complete European conquest. This division still divides Islam today.

In Muhammad's day, the Ka'ba still held its importance in Arab worship and was the cause of much contention. As the Islam movement began to gain traction, Muhammad and the Quraysh came to a COMPROMISE on the gods and goddesses that the Ka'ba represented. Muhammad agreed to let the goddesses al-Lat, al-Uzza and al-Manat remain in the Ka'ba – though inferior in power to Allah. Muhammad stated that Gabriel had told him, "These are exalted females whose intercession verily is to be sought." However, as time went on, Muhammad became unhappy with this development and sought Gabriel again. It was then that Muhammad disowned these verses and stated that they had been "Whispered by Satan." These verses are now known as the "satanic verses."

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." (John 1:1)

The difference between Muhammad, the founder of Islam, and Jesus Christ, the founder of Christianity, is clear. There were never any changes to the Word of God: Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever. The living Word of God was in the beginning with God; His origins are divine and His words have never been COMPROMISED.

Jesus said, "Everyone who is of the TRUTH hears my voice." (John 18:37" Whose voice was Muhammad hearing?

Renovation and Restoration

My people look to Me for I am indeed doing a new thing upon the earth today. I am doing a work of restoration in the hearts of My people, for much has been torn down and rooted out as I have searched deep into their hearts, but now I am raising them up again to the newness of My life in them and rebuilding that which remains. I will have a holy people who's hearts are pure and are devoted to Me. Many of you may look back now and mourn what you have lost, but I say look to Me, for what I shall give you shall be more than what you expected that you will wonder why you mourned over what is now gone. I am building bridges in relationships where there once was a gap. I AM a God of Love, and if My people are to walk in My ways the love shall be the norm because it is the glue that will hold My church together in unity. It is the perfect love that will cast away all fear. All that has been torn down and rebuilt in your lives has been out of My love for you. You cannot move forward this season except you be in My will. Do not fret thinking that you will miss Me because you are My sheep who shall know and discern My voice.

Hosea 6:1 Come let us return unto the Lord, for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

Repentance And Restoration
Yolanda Ballard

(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)

Escape from the clutch of the evil one, and I will lift you up, for many find themselves in a place that they have not been before, and they do not know how to get out of it. But I AM calling you to escape from the clutch of the evil one and run towards Me, and I will set you free from the giants of your life. Yes, many have been in the midst of insurmountable tragedies in their lives. It seems like one mountain of troubles after another, a never-ending trial effecting every area of their life. But it may seem that I have left you fatherless, but the fact is the other way around. You have pulled away from your first love and have found yourself deep in the clutch of the evil one.

If you aren't worshiping Me and basking in My presence, then you have lost your focus on what it is all about. I called you to be Mine, to walk with Me and to be My bride, but many have lost their zeal and have allowed themselves to be entertained by the things of the world to the extent that they have become complacent to My word and communion with Me. And this cannot be. You cannot both have Me and My presence and the ways of the world. For I have called you to be a holy nation, a peculiar people, one that is set apart from that of the world. And now there are many that have allowed themselves to get entangled that it is hard to them apart.

I AM calling you to repentance to come apart from the unclean thing. Cry out for mercy that I will clean your heart from the effects, and that I will set you free from the desires and lusts that have led you astray. For this is the hour where the trials will either make you or break you. I AM separating the men from the boys, those who are willing to pay the price to crucify their flesh and those who choose to continue to be mesmerized by the things of the world. You have to make the decision whether you want blessings or curses, life or death and the fruit thereof.

Walk with Me and I will bless you and restore to you all that the enemy has robbed you of. But if you continue in your ways this day, you will surely die. Do not believe the lies of the evil one by giving up on My promises. Do not listen when he says that he has better for you for he is a liar and a thief, and he only comes to steal, kill and destroy. I've come to give you life and that abundantly, but you must serve Me, deny yourself, pick up your cross and follow Me.

Crucify the lusts of the flesh, the eyes and the pride of life. Draw close to Me and I will draw close to you. Keep My word deep in your heart and use it against the evil one. Put up your shield of faith and reapply each piece of armor for I paid the price that you would be fully clothed enabled to stand against the powers of darkness. Reposition yourself with Me seated at the right hand of the Father, the position of power, high above all powers and principalities. Let out a victory cry and join ranks once again and worship Me. Then the enemy will be blinded by My glory. Your enemies will be scattered with confusion and will turn on each other, and you will escape and run and be free once again stronger than ever.

Rise up, My holy ones, for it is time to dance and to shout and rejoice for I said I would never leave you or forsake you or to allow you to fall into a snare. Apply My word each day to your life and My blood, and keep your eyes on Me, and I will lead you through. Do not allow the shame or condemnation to defeat you, for they are only lies of the evil one. Cry out for greater grace and My mercy and be restored. For I AM calling My bride together, even those with boots on, to close up the gaps and build the wall, to sound an alarm, to blow the shofar and be united in one faith under one God for I AM and evermore shall be, and I will not be defeated. Those I died for I will not lose in the fight. They are sealed with My Spirit. If you will to do My will, I will carry you through and MY victory will be yours, for I AM your Lord and King.

Worship Intercession

Jun 24, 2004
Blessings to you! I feel a stirring in my heart that we need to refresh our vision that the Lord has given us concerning pressing in for breakthrough, for worship and intercession, to release the heart cry of the Father as a mighty roar, to usher in the end time harvest of souls.

I know many have gone through severe testings lately that we have truly been through the fire, but in the process many may have lost focus of what it is all about. Its all about Jesus and His will being done. Its all about worshipping the Lord with all our heart and losing ourselves in His presence. He wants to live His life through us. He wants to intercede through us, travail through us, and even roar through us. If we will allow Him to do this work in us, I am sure that we will never be the same.

I am in the process of updating my website. I have a section called Streams of Glory where I will be posting other people's prophesies concerning worship and intercession. I don't know about you, but I need to be stirred up once again to truly seek the Lord, to worship Him, and allow Him to move through me as before, and even in a greater measure.

So I am asking you to send me your favorite prophesies that you have received from the Lord concerning the above. Send me even those you have received from other people that is really dear to your heart. Let's stir ourselves afresh to truly seek the Lord and to worship Him and allow Him to intercede through us. This is the end times and not much time left to truly press in for the lost. And I know the anointing for this comes as we truly worship the Lord.

Send me the prophesies at my personal email address:

Thank you so much!

Revival And The Emerging Apostolic Movement

Todd Bentley

Prophetic Words for Canada and Beyond with Todd Bentley (http://www.freshfire.ca/), Jim Goll (http://www.ministrytothenations.org/) and More...

The following prophetic words were given by various speakers at Fresh Fire's Apostolic Keys Conference in Abbotsford, B.C., Canada, last month. We have selected the most significant, timely and "now" words which will give you a greater sense of what God is doing and about to do as a new reformation transforms the church into a powerful Apostolic movement. As this movement matures, the church will be poised for the greatest revival and worldwide harvest the world has ever seen. The prophetic words focus generally on both revival, the apostolic emergence and, specifically, on the nation of Canada.*

APOSTOLIC ROUNDTABLE

During the conference, FFM hosted a round table discussion in which various prophetic/apostolic leaders commented and answered questions about the emerging apostolic movement. Here are some significant excerpts:

Keith Abrahams: I think what we are seeing happening very rapidly in the body is a shift from legal structure to relational structure. What God is building is a flexible wineskin, but it has all to do with function; it has all to do with relationship. What I am seeing in the body is a cross-pollination between networks and also between different leaders. It's all by God's Spirit joining our hearts together.

Bruce Friesen: With my heart for Victoria and Canada, I see God developing an apostolic nation running with the redemptive gifting and calling of the nation which is healing, reconciliation and peace. That is what Canada is to bring to the nations. The U.S. is to bring justice and freedom to the nations. People need to hear about these redemptive gifts and apostolic callings within the nation. On a national level, I see God raising up those who are hearing what He is saying about the call to be corporate.

Todd Bentley: There is coming a linking of many different apostolic ministries that go in and out of many different eagles' nests and are connecting together, covering grounds in a region, and literally, that is how we are going to take it across the nation.

James Goll: In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, I saw, written out before my eyes, the letters A M P. I watched it and the "M" moved in front of the "A" and then spelt MAP. AMP and MAP. I asked God "What is this?" And God said, "When the apostolic "A" is made "P" personal, (and that word right there is really important), I will put those apostolic renewal centers on my MAP. I will amplify my voice and I will put them on my MAP. When the apostolic is made personal, there will be Mighty Authority in the prophetic in that place. I will amplify my voice, and I will put those apostolic renewal centers on my map." It's not primarily structural - it's primarily relational. It's when the apostolic is made personal that there will be mighty authority in the prophetic because the prophetic will be secure, and they will move out and God will amplify His voice. People are drawn to the voice of the Lord, and He will put those places on His map. They won't have to put something big in a magazine. God will put them on His map, and people will come. If He builds, it they will come.

Bill Johnson: I approach the (apostolic) gifting so functionally that I don't even stop to think about it (whether a woman can be an apostle). If somebody is producing the fruit of it, I don't mind if they are given the title. Structure is only there to produce life. That is the only purpose for order. It is not to give title for personal identity; it's not so I feel better about myself or understand my placement in Christ - that is apart from a title. My identity in Christ is out of intimacy, and it's personal. How I function is according to the grace upon me. That being said, it would be very difficult for me to say that Heidi Baker does not have an apostolic anointing. My goodness! I mean regardless of what I thought yesterday, today she produces five to six thousand churches. You've got to turn your head and say, "Well, she is producing more fruit than all the guys that I thought were apostles are producing, so, maybe I need to review (my beliefs)."

That approach to scripture is very difficult and makes many of us nervous, but if you do look at Acts 15 as a model for the way we approach truth, (you'll realize) they did not look at the scriptures and then try to find experiences that ratified the scriptures. They heard the testimony of the move of God among the Gentiles, and then they found the scripture to back it up. We have a culture that is so opposed to experience that we have dumbed down the gospel to what we presently understand instead of looking into where the Spirit of God is moving and then allowing Him to teach us how it is that He has put that in His book. I don't think there are as many things in here that are static as we once thought. It might make us a little bit nervous, but truth is always built, line upon line, truth upon truth, but it's three-dimensional. It evolves in its impact and application. And we have to understand that these things are shifting according to the Spirit that will never contradict Scripture, but we have to make adjustments with Him. If His hand is on somebody, and I don't acknowledge and recognize it, then I am a fool for it.

Traditionally people have gathered together around specific truths, causing the formation of denominations. In this hour, people are gathering around fathers and mothers and that defines the nature of our function .

Keith Abrahams: I think the issue of women (in ministry) is very, very important in the end time church. I think it is very biblical - in the past there has been a lot of controversy over it. Lots of women have been put down in the church. But I believe that in the church of the last days we are going to have a lot of woman (in ministry). I just returned from Europe, and I had the opportunity to speak with a pastor from the Ukraine. Most of the people on his apostolic team, in the largest church in Europe, are women. Now I think we need to back up (re-examine) Scripture . . .

Todd Bentley: Somebody emailed our ministry and asked a valid question. He said, "Todd, you are going to have all these men - prophets and apostles - get together and talk about the emerging apostolic movement. My fear would be that there wouldn't be a representation of the Goths, the Punks and the Ravers - the whole underground world that God is moving in today - the movement that offends and scares most people in the church. You know - the punked and colored hair with all the earrings and piercings in every part of the body. Is there not room for true apostle and prophets in that sub-culture? From that question I realized that we need to be very careful in the whole new emerging (apostolic) movement, not to just package it how we think it should look. I am going to make some statements now: There are punk apostles; there are biker prophets; there are ravers that are apostles; there are skinheads that are part of this prophetic movement...I don't have any here right now. I'd be the closest thing. We must not forget that these (sub-cultures) have a voice in this whole prophetic movement too. The teenage apostles and the teenage prophets are being raised up, and it's also happening in other spheres of life too.

JIM GOLL -- FINAL CONFERENCE SESSION:

In the beginning of the book of Acts, Jesus went about doing and then teaching, so this night there has been an example set before this great congregation. There has been an example of doing and teaching. And the Lord says this is the model of the book of Acts of the Apostles. For there has been the calling for the strategic keys of an apostolic age to be released. The Lord would say that this is significant, that this is important. That this consecration would occur in the middle of this celebration, for it is a doing and a teaching. It's a catching of fish and a releasing of them to go forth and to multiply. And the Lord would say to you Todd, "I am going to surround you with elders. I am going to surround you with the elders of My counsel. I am going to bring them around you, those that are even twice your age and even some that are three times your age. I am going to bring them around you, both men and women, and they are going to be a safety net. They are going to be put around you for the birthing canal of which you are, and they will look in upon you, and they will wonder, and they will be fascinated, and they will wonder how in the world is all this happening in five years.

Generational Honor

The Lord would say, "I am going to bring the authentic joining of the generations, and it should happen, and this is but a paradigm shift, a paradigm shift, a paradigm shift, for you shall be a product of the multiplication anointing, that even as three prophets were joined together this night, each representing different generations of my Spirit - one from the Latter Rain and one from the Jesus Charismatic Moment and now one from the new Apostolic Reformation - the Lord would say, "This, My people behold; it is an example before you of what I will do when humble hearts, full of hunger, shall cry out to the Lord and will honor the generations in Jesus name. To honor the generations in Jesus name. For wherever three generations become joined in a generation, I will show Myself strong. I will show Myself strong."

For this is the very reason why moves of God have been cut short in times past. It's because there was not honor in the midst, but rather, there crept in the spirit of competition. But the Lord says, "I am changing the scenery. I am changing the platform of ministry. For it shall be honor. Honor will rule the day. It will not be the spirit of insecurity that breeds competition, but it shall rather be that My people shall be renewed in their minds, and they will know that they are rooted and grounded in My great, immense, immeasurable love, and I am going to open the ears of my people, and they shall hear again about my great love. And you say, 'Oh, but I thought there was a deeper truth.'" But the Lord would say, "I am the deepest truth that there is! I am the deepest truth! I am the truth! And there is none other. For I have been looking for abandoned people that will be able to bring to me a structure that I could fill."

Apostolic Revival

But the Lord would say, "So many times My people have erred because they have built a structure for themselves to fill, and then I have to tear down the very structures that I even called them to. And I have to oppose that of which they began to do in the spirit. For have you not read in the book of Galatians, 'Oh you foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you? You who began in the Spirit, do you believe that you can be perfected by the works of the flesh?'" But the Lord would say in this hour, "I am raising up an abandoned remnant of people, and they shall not put structure as their foremost emphasis but they will rather put 'I Am' – the Architect. 'I Am. I Am.' The 'I Am' is the architect. For Abraham went forth looking for a builder. For many men and women are going to cemeteries to go learn how things are laid out neatly and in order, and everything is dead there. It is all laid out neatly and in order. But I am now calling forth the people that will look for the Architect that lives in heaven."

The Lord will have you know, "I will raise up many authentic, apostolic renewal/revival centers in the earth." The Lord would say, "It shall be my jealousy that shall be revealed. For I am the Head of My body, and I will not share that position with any person. I am the head of the body and no man or no woman and no gift can take my position. And when they attempt to, I am put in a position where I have to make a difficult decision. For I am for my people, and I am for my body, and I am for the progressing, processional of the glorious presence of my Son being released in the earth. But there are times when running around in the earth realm there are decapitated bodies. Running around like chickens with their heads cut off, not really knowing where they are going, but flopping around and making a big scene." But the Lord would say, "In this hour I shall raise up dread champions again. Dread champions and giants of faith and humility. Giants of faith and humility. They will not care that their name is on a ministry. That they will care not that they have a business card with a title; they will not care about fame in the earth realm. They will care only about the fame of the one name that is exalted in heaven and shall be exalted in the earth. For I am coming in this hour, and I am going to revisit My people with My hot jealousy. And so I shall surround you with elders of counsel (not elders of control) who will be coaches and cheerleaders to help you grow. And so I have set before you this night, a combination - more than a conference, a strategic event. I have set before you a paradigm shift, and I am offering more than the visitation of 50 and 60 years ago. I am offering a page that has never been written." That's pretty good! Hahahahaha!

The Convergence Movement

A convergence is happening in this hour. Converge. The word converge means to blend, to tend to move toward a point together, to come together and to unite in interest or focus. The word convergence means to act in a moving towards a union - a movement of two eyes, resulting in impingement of corresponding retina areas. For example, if you put your hand over one eye, you think you see everything but you really don't . . . it takes both eyes looking from different directions coming into focus together before you see all things clearly. A convergence is part of what is happening in this period of time. It is Psalm 46:4 that says, "There is a river whose streams" (, that's in the plural), "whose streams make glad the city of God." In Isaiah 65:8 it says, "As the new wine is found in the cluster and one says do not destroy it, for there is benefit in it…"

So, in this hour the Lord is bringing diversity together in unity. It is not uniformity, and it is not conformity, and it is not control...but the Lord is bringing diversity and unity together in this hour, and there will be new wine that is found in the cluster. You are going to hear the word convergence in the business community. You are going to hear it in the secular public education, and you are going to be hearing it in the kingdom of God in the church community; it's going to be like a buzz word from heaven that is going to descend on earth because it is a heavenly sound coming down to earth, and earth beings are simply going to vibrate with the sound of heaven on earth. It's a convergence of heaven coming down to earth. I tell you the kind of agreement I'm looking for is first of all not you and I coming into agreement, but it is me coming into agreement with Him. It is you coming into agreement with Him. It is not an ecumenical movement; it is a God movement in which we are coming into agreement. It is an agreement movement - us coming into agreement with His priorities, us coming into agreement with Him. You see, when we come into agreement with Him, we come into a convergence with one another."

Hispanics and Taiwanese

It is an hour when the Hispanic church is going to rise on the scene. There are going to be some great champions of the faith. It will be they that have been shaped behind the scenes. But then the Hispanic church is going to arise in this hour, not only in South America but across North America. The Hispanic people are going to arise because God is restoring dignity to the oppressed, all of the people groups that have not had dignity. Some of the greatest church growth is going to happen in the Hispanic community. And watch out - there is going to be a move of God in the nation of Taiwan, Taiwan. It will be an authentic, apostolic, evangelistic breakthrough. There will be radical itinerant Holy Ghost terrorists that are going to arise from out of Hong Kong and out of Taiwan, and they are going to go throughout Southeast Asia for such a time as this. It is an hour when we love not our lives unto death and overcome the Evil one in our day, and we realize that we have a license from God to die to self and to live unto God. It is an hour of the convergence of ages when God again fills His house. In 2 Chronicles 5:11-14, when the Levites are in place, the revelation is decreed, "The Lord is good and His loving-kindness is everlasting."

Restoration and Convergence

It shall be the 500 years of priestly service and the restoration of the office of the priest, followed by the 100 years of the restoration of the office of the prophet, followed now by the Day of the King. It is a period of time of the convergence of the ages where the Lord will take the anointing of the fresh fire of the Holiness movement of the 1880's, and He will wed it and mingle it together with the authentic Pentecostal fire of the turn of the century. And He will bring and wed that together with the wave of signs and wonders of Aimee Simple McPherson and John G. Lake of the 1920's, and He will mingle that together with the (restoration of) His manifest presence (as well as) understanding and prophecy and presbytery, the singing in the Spirit and this whole realm of understanding of the five-fold ministry gifts along with the restoration of the church that was birthed in the Latter Rain Movement.

He (the Lord) will mingle it (the previous movements) together with the great outdoor, outside the camp, healing evangelists of the 1940's and 50's. He will wed it together with the evangelical burden for the lost, and He will wed it together with the best of the charismata anointing where each one has a special gift from God, and they employ it in serving one another. He will wed it together with the zeal of the Jesus People Movement, and He will bring it together with the sound theology of the third wave. He is going to mingle it together with the revelation of the prophetic movement, and it's going to all get mixed together in this incredible concoction. Then it's going to get mingled together with the understanding of the international family of affection and the apostolic revolution, apostolic reformation. All of these ingredients of convergence will be brought together. All of the best ingredients of the past will be brought together because the best will be served at last. The best will be served at last.

Days of Glory

We are crossing over a threshold into the days of His glorious presence. In the history books that will be written, this time period will be called 'The days of His glorious presence.' God will invade cities with a transformational glory. These are the days of convergence where bright luminaries will come again, and they will shine where mysteries of the King will be revealed and where dread champions are once again raised up as giants of faith and humility. But they will point the way, not to themselves, but to the One who is greater than them.

Vancouver. The Lord is also going to cause a strategy to come forth to lay siege to the city of Vancouver. For the city of Vancouver has lain under a shroud of an occult spirit. But the Lord is going to release an apostolic strategy to lay siege to the city of Vancouver so the shroud of the occult spirit will be pierced. It will be as though the Lord comes with these two-edged swords and cuts through this false shroud of the occult spirit that has surrounded the city of Vancouver. That thing is going to be pierced. And there is going to be brilliant displays of power that is going to occur in the middle of the very city of Vancouver.

British Columbia and Prince Edward Island. There is going to be an upsetting of governmental things in British Columbia. The government shall change in British Columbia and Victoria Island shall not be a place where it shall be of witchcraft and new age practitioners hiding. But it is going to be a place where the victory of God is going to be seen in a governmental seat. And the victory of the Lord is going to visit some place called Prince Edward Island where there is going to be an apostolic move. I don't even know where in the world this is. There is going to be an apostolic move of God that is going to come upon Prince Edward Island. It is going to be an invasion, an invasion. Something similar to what occurred in the Hebrides Islands in the late 40's and early 50's. It is going to overwhelm some place called Prince Edward Island. It is going to come upon it. It is going to be a glory cloud that is going to be seen. Mark this down and pray this into being. This shall happen. It shall be seen. There are going to be actual cloud formations over this island, and signs will be seen in the heavens, and wonders will begin to occur in the earth beneath.

Lightning and New Music. (The Lord says,) "I am going to be moving in the heavens. I am going to be moving in the skies that are literally above your eyes. I am going to be releasing amber light. I am going to be releasing displays of My brilliant presence in ways where lightning is going to flash horizontally and not vertically, and it's going to go crisscross across the skies. People are not going to understand what this is, and they are going to say, 'This is a new phenomenon - we don't even have a word for this.' It's not going to be witchcraft nor will it be New Age nor will it be the occult." For the Lord says, "It is My angels that are appearing on the scene. It will not be as it was when Lucifer fell from the sky and they said, 'We saw him fall like lightning.' But it will rather be that the angels of the Lord are coming to encamp. There shall be new encampments of the angels of the Lord of Hosts where the sounds of the orchestra of heaven are going to be released into the earth realm. There is going to be music that has not been heard in the earth realm for generations, and it is going to be heard because Jacob's ladder is going to be coming down again."

Inuit Revival. And even as I spoke before, there will be this move of God which will mature. It has already begun. It is amongst the Inuit people, and it's going to be transformation - whole villages coming to faith. Whole villages coming to faith. Watch out in the northern arctic regions and in the regions in the Northwest territories and in all the regions called Territories where you have not legalized them to be provinces. The Lord would say, "I am going to move in the Territories; I am going to move in the Territories, and I am going to claim territory in the territories. I am going to cause for a throne to be built over the territories, a throne that I am going to sit in, where apostolic rule is going to be released. I am going to use these Native peoples of this land, and there shall be a redemptive work that will happen in their midst, and they shall help lead the way of an apostolic reformation across this nation. They will have a heart of understanding for the persecution of the Jewish people."

Canada and Calgary. And the Lord says, "I am going to turn the heart of Canada. Oh Canada, Oh Canada, Oh Canada. I am looking for lands to be lands of refuge. I am looking for cities that will be places of hiddenness and refuge. Oh Canada, oh Canada, will you allow me to stretch out My wing where I can even hide My people? Can you believe that there is something greater than the prairie fires of the Latter Rain Movement that shall emerge once again? Can you believe that I will raise up something among the end times hand maidens and servants? Would you believe that I am going to look upon those that would sometimes be called the outcasts, and I am going to look upon them, and I will say that they are no longer the outcasts? But I shall raise them up to be the upper cast. And I shall place new spheres of authority." The Lord says, "The city of Calgary, Calgary, Calgary. I am going to unseat the high places that are around the city of Calgary, and there will be a displacement. It will be a move of displacement where the occult powers of the air shall be displaced by praise, praise, praise, praise. And there is a convergence that is going to occur in the city of Calgary where praise warriors are going to come together to lay siege to the city of Calgary. And I will release My horses once again. I will release My riders on My horses, and it will not be as it was prophesied in times ago that the horse and rider will be hurled into the sea. But I will have My horses, and I will have My riders and they shall be stationed, fixed upon My war horses. They will not be tossed off, but they will march forward." This will be a day when the dread army of the Lord appears on the scene once again.

New Revelations. Now I declare that there is a new sound that is coming down from heaven. Ears are going to be opened, and they are going to be hearing sounds that they have never heard before. Many of you are going to hear the bells that are on the garments of the priests, and it is going to be a call for you to come into the Most Holy Place. Your ears are going to be opened, and you are going to hear a wake-up call in the middle of the night. Some of you are going to be awakened at 3:33, and you are going to want to know: "What in the world is this?" The Lord says, "I am going to show you great and mighty things which you do not know." He says, "Call upon Me. Call upon Me. Call upon Me. I want you now in the night seasons. I am going to be releasing my angels even as it was in the book of Zechariah in the fourth chapter where the angel of the Lord was released and came and aroused Zechariah. The word of the Lord came and he asked, "What is this?" So many of you right now, by the authority of that word that is going forth are going to be aroused in the middle of the night by angelic encounters for such a time as this. Visions are going to appear, and you are going to ask, "What is this?" The Holy Spirit Himself is going to be a divine interpreter, and He will interpret for you what the vision means because the Lord says this: "This is the hour when mysteries shall be revealed. This is the hour when mysteries shall be revealed. This is the hour when mysteries shall be revealed."

Resolute and Unstoppable

Victoria Boyson

In the last days the Body of Christ will become one with Christ. Just as a bride has her eyes fixed on her bridegroom, we will see and live only for our Lord. And our passion for Him will draw us together as one body. We will truly become one in the Spirit together with our Lord. We will indeed become the Bride of Christ as our passion for Him increases.

Many live as enemies of the cross of Christ...their minds are on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven (see Phil 3:18-20 NIV).

Paul wrote to the Philippian church of a dilemma he was having: a conflict of interests between the longing in his heart and the reasoning of his mind. He told them, "To live is Christ and to die is gain." (Phil. 1:21) He was torn between his desire to live and remain on this earth to serve Christ, and his desire to be with Christ.

"If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know! I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better; but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body." Philippians 1:22-24

He had so positioned himself in Christ in the spirit realm that his heart was charged with a deep longing to be with Him in Heaven. He wanted to be with the One he loved, and yet it was for the One he loved that he remained on earth. To serve the cause of Christ and the Kingdom of Heaven, he must remain on earth.

Kingdom Minded

While serving Christ on earth, Paul knew that his citizenship was in heaven. He lived his earthly life for Heavenly purposes. His mind was set, not on what he could gain for this life, but in the next. He knew that the real prize was in living his life to build for the eternal kingdom to which he belonged, though on earth. He was Kingdom minded; his mind was set on the eternal Kingdom.

His heart was set on the things to come, not on the things of this earth (see Col. 3:2). His heart was with his King. He aspired to please the One he loved, whether in life or in death:
"So that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death." Philippians 1:20

Paul's love for his Lord spurred him on to plant the seed of Christ in the hearts of others, as many as would receive. He lived his life not for himself, but to proclaim the life of Jesus. He lived for the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ. He laid down his own ambitions and desires for that of his King. His life was poured out so that others would receive Jesus.

A Higher Purpose

A life of sacrifice lived for the Lamb of God is a life profoundly lived. To lay down our lives, out of passion for our Lord, is to live a life of elevated intensity and with great purpose.

To live for Jesus makes us resolute and unstoppable. We are not living for ourselves, but for a much higher purpose. That is why, in noble gentleness, we do all for the sake of the King of Heaven. Any battle we face, we fight - not for ourselves, but for Him.

When our eyes are fixed on our King, we will fear nothing. The love we have for Him overcomes any fears we may face. And like a good soldier who readies himself for battle by reminding himself of what he is fighting for, we must focus on Who we are fighting for. We fight not for earthly gain, but our cause is eternal. We fight for the One we love...the King of Heaven.

This is not an oppressive task, but it is liberating! We can live free now. We can live free from fear and the need for competition with one another. We can live free from jealousy, for we are all working for the same cause and have the same goals. And if our brother succeeds in edifying the kingdom, then we should be overjoyed for him. When he succeeds we all succeed, for we are one in Christ.

A good soldier does not fight against his fellow soldier to become a greater hero than his friend, but he fights for and with his fellow soldiers to build them up so that the cause they are fighting for will be aided. We are to build up one another so that the Body of Christ as a whole will work in unison with one another for the glory of our King.

Champions In Christ

If we live and operate in this earthly realm - being earthly minded - we are playing by its rules and we will lose. We have no authority to operate in it, and we become its victim and lose our victory.

However, if we live according to the Heavenly realm, with our minds fixed on Jesus, we walk in the victory that He gave us (see Col. 2:15), and we operate in the level of authority Christ did. We will then live by the rules of Heaven and, by the authority of Heaven, we are made victorious through Christ's victory.
"And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross." Colossians 2:15

For we have been given fullness in Christ, who is the head over every power and authority (see Col. 2:10), and Christ is the fullness of God on earth (see Col. 2:9). If we live in Christ, we live in the victory He won for us at Calvary; we are made champions of the earth; we truly become the head and not the tail. You are the fullness of God when you walk in Christ!

Heirs with Christ

As we walk in the victory and authority of Christ, we become unstoppable! So we must focus on Christ, living in Him.
"Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your heart on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things." Colossians 3:1-2

If we, who are set apart for Christ, try and live according to the rules of this earthly realm, we are nothing according to its standards and have little power to influence it. But if we live our lives for the Kingdom of Heaven, we are heirs to the promises of God and seated with God in Christ (see Eph. 2:6).

"For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God." Colossians 3:3
Our life is Christ; we live in Him, and it is only by living in Him that we can truly live. You are no longer who you once were, but you have been made a new creation in Christ, and you are hidden with Him in God. Your life outside of God is no longer in existence; you live now only in Him.

"...giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints of light. For He delivered us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins." Colossians 1:12-13

We have become a part of the Kingdom of the Son, and God has qualified us to share in the inheritance of that Kingdom. It is only through becoming a part of the Kingdom of the Son that we will walk in the authority of Christ. It is only as we are united with Christ that we walk in the authority of His bride.

As a bride takes her husband's name, she becomes a new person; she assumes His name and whatever honor and authority that goes with it. So it is with the Bride of Christ, we must assume our place by His side and reign with Him, ruling with the authority He has given us.

We must become His passionate bride, driven by an all consuming passion for our Lord. Our greatest desire must be to be one with Him. Driven by passion for our King, our lives will be consumed by Him, and only then can we truly live.

Beloved, let us become one with Jesus and see our burning passion for Him ignite the world!

Your Lover's Gaze
Victoria Boyson

One morning I had a dream, and in this dream I was engaged to a man who spent all of his time with other people and not me. I felt very rejected and continually tried to win his attention, but to no avail. Then another man came to me who adored me and made me feel deeply loved. He took my cheeks in his hands and turned my face towards himself. He said, "Why do you want to be with someone who cannot truly love you? Come be with me."

Through this dream I realized that the acceptance we seek from people will leave us feeling empty and rejected. But we have a Lover who adores us! He wants to embrace us and shower us with affection. He wants to spend every moment of every day with us. It is with Him, in His presence, that we will be made complete. He is the love of our life.

We'll Never Fully Receive Man's Acceptance

Jesus is pleading with us to stop seeking man's acceptance, which we will never be able to fully receive, and to focus our attention on Him, for He is the only one who can fulfill us. When we take our eyes off Him and focus on man, we will be left feeling empty and alone, rejected and hated.

What do people have that we want anyway? Our Lover has everything we need and more. Come with me and relish in your Lover's arms. Enjoy the comfort of His grace. "Taste and see that the Lord is good" (Psalms 34:8).

"Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth - for your love is more delightful than wine." Song of Songs 1:2

Just Experience Me

Years ago, during a time of prayer, I was overcome by the Lord's presence. His presence so filled me again and again that I did not know what to do. I cried out to Him, "What do you want me to do Lord?" He said in return, "Just experience me!"

When I am with Jesus I feel totally complete, lacking nothing. I am stronger than a stallion and more beautiful than the fairest maiden. "I found the one my heart loves" (Song of Songs 3:4) and in the richness of His presence I am made whole. Nothing man can do for me can compare with this. So why do we care if this world loves us or hates us; we have all that we need in the arms of the One who loves us.

"I held him and would not let him go" (Song of Songs 3:4). He is irresistible, and when He turns my face to meet His gaze, I stand immobilized by the depth of His love for me. Once in His presence I can never get enough of Him; I do not want to leave Him. I do not want to sleep or wake, I only want to stay in His magnetizing gaze.

"Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does in the field; Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires" (Song of Songs 3:5). "Do not arouse or awaken" me while I sit at His feet. Now that He has me, I will not be awakened or aroused from His immobilizing embrace. And I finally release the longings of my heart and surrender myself completely to His heart. I am truly adored. He wants all of me, and I surrender everything to Him and He gives me perfect peace.

"My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places on the mountainside, show me your face, let me hear your voice, for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely." Song of Songs 2:14

He finds you attractive, and in His presence you are the most beautiful person on earth. When you are in His arms, there is no one else on the earth. Indeed, there is no earth when you are one with Him. Your feet do not touch the ground, because there is no ground. There is only He who loves you like no other.

What do you have world, that can compare to His glory? What can you offer me, that compares to His love? If it were formulas and strategies I desired, you could help me. But I want nothing except more of Him. If you cannot give me that, then you have nothing to offer me. Show me where my Lover is, He is what I want! "Have you seen the one my heart loves?" Song of Songs 3:3

Are you hungry? Is your mouth watering? Come with me to the well of grace…

The Samaritan Woman

A woman met Jesus at a well. She was thirsty, and Her thirst drew her to the local water supply. It was at this well where she met Jesus and now she would never thirst again. "Then leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, 'Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Christ?' They came out of the town and made their way toward Him" John 4:29-30.

The eyes of the villagers were opened when they saw this forlorn woman who, being rejected by many, was transformed by Jesus' grace. She was no longer afraid of the people; she did not seek their acceptance because she didn't need it anymore. She had been accepted by the Giver of Life, so what could their acceptance gain her after she had received the living water the Lord had provided for her? She did not fear their rejection any longer. Rejection could not touch her, because she had received what they could never give her.

She had been transformed by Jesus. "Come see a man," she told them. Jesus told her everything she had ever done, and then He covered her in a blanket of His grace. A life full of deadness was raised to life again. No more forlorn, but now loved. Once rejected by them, now she led the town's people to find what she had found: Life!

They saw the change in her. They heard her words and something deep inside of them was awakened by the desperate hope of acceptance. Could they know Him like she knew Him, they wondered? Would He accept them, as they were, an abandoned, rejected society of Samaritans? Could He be the one who their hearts had longed for? Could He fill their emptiness?

Turn Your Gaze

Can He fill the emptiness in your heart? Yes…He longs to! Let Him turn your gaze away from a world that will only cause you pain. Surrender your heart to Him, He longs to adore you. You've been rejected by so many, and you feel unattractive and unloved. But He wants you to see yourself through the mirror of His grace. "You are truly beautiful," says the Lord. And suddenly you are radiant, filled with His love.

Look at the words of this wonderful song, "Turn your eyes upon Jesus, look full in His wonderful face. And the things of earth will grow strangely dim, in the light of His glory and grace." The Lover of our souls wants to take you in His arms and gently turn you towards Him. "Look on me" He says, "you are mine and I love you. I am the Giver of grace, do not seek acceptance from any other source." If we seek Him first others will receive us, because He will wrap us in His grace.

Do not let anyone arouse you from His arms of grace. Let His gaze bring healing and wholeness to the deepest regions of your heart. He is the one your soul longs for. He is yours and you are His. He is all you need. You were made for Him…

"Arise, come, my darling; my beautiful one, come with me." Song of Songs 2:13

Restoration Before Revival
Kriston Couchey

August 2, 2004

> Matt.17: 10 Then his disciples asked him, saying, Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first? 11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elijah truly shall come first and restore all things.

Analogy Of Restoration

The Lord has placed on my heart an analogy I believe reflects His plan for the restoration and revival of His church.

The analogy is one of a Hotel built in the old west during the age of the horse and carriage. Initially the character and structure of the building reflect the age in which the hotel is placed in service. Over time, the original character and structure are barely recognizable as fads and styles from different eras are added on to the point of making the hotel obsolete for modern use, as well as unrecognizable from the age for which it was built.

Finally, the hotel is unprofitable and is ready to be torn down in order to make room for a business that can sustain financially on the property.

The owner makes a decision to “restore” the hotel to the original character and structure of the old west. He begins by determining what is “age” appropriate and removes all portions of the building that do not express the “character” of that “age”.

Some foundations were added to the original structure and were laid for later additions. These additions are torn down, and the foundations are broken up and removed. The original foundation is once again the sole support for this structure.

There were walls and rooms added within the structure that make the original openness of the lobby shrunk to a small entryway. These walls are removed and the openness is returned.

The original hotel rooms were later divided into two or three smaller rooms. The purpose for the division was for selfish gain. These dividing walls are removed and the large rooms are once again opened.

Each individual room had added on its own shower and sink. These are removed and the centrally located washroom is rebuilt. All customers must now use the communal toilet and cleaning facilities.

The windows, doors, handles, lights, trim, window treatments, and decorative designs must all be replaced with pieces that reflect only the age for which the building was built.

Once the restoration is complete, the hotel is now reopened for business, and a revival of hotel life and traffic flourishes because of the beauty of the restored edifice.

The Kingdom Age There is an “age” to which the temple of God is being restored. The “Kingdom Age” appropriate “character” traits that reflect the kingdom of God will again be seen in the structure of His house. Restoring this character and structure is the first priority of the Lord. He has brought refreshing to strengthen us for the task of restoring His temple (people). But true revival awaits the restoration of the habitation God desires to indwell.

The Question What is it within our character and the way we structure ourselves that keeps “revival” from happening? Do we assume that what we are building is “age” appropriate? Or do we just keep adding on to the original building preaching and prophesying revival and not seeing it because we ourselves are it’s biggest hindrance. Could this be why the “Hotel” is obsolete and people no longer want to come and find rest? And the ones who were coming are now leaving?

Remodeling Much could be said about what must be torn down and removed. Much could be said about what must replace what is to be removed. Be aware that most "remodeling” is “modeling” something currently popular but different then the original design.

Restoration is the key that opens the door to revival

Fulfilling My Highest Purpose
Kriston Couchey

August 7, 2004
My Understanding of My Highest Purpose Fulfilled
Any one exposed to and receiving prophetic ministry has probably received "destiny" words that give promises and clarity concerning the purpose for which they were created.
My understanding of a spiritual destiny being fulfilled has been the obtaining of the highest place and authority the Lord has promised.

The Road to your Destiny
Unlike the world's idea of success and fulfillment, the way in which a believers purposes are fulfilled is by coming to place of realization that position and authority are not the highest purposes of a Christian. Many (including myself) have pursued and clung to the hope of a great destiny without realizing we are simply repeating the request of the Sons of Zebedee.

Matt. 20:20 Then came to him the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons, worshipping him, and asking a certain thing of him. 21 And he said unto her, What wouldest thou? She saith unto him, Command that these my two sons may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy kingdom. 22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I am about to drink? They say unto him, We are able.

There Is a Cup To Drink

There is a cup to drink. A cup of death to self and self exalting dreams. We ask God to fulfill our destinies and are shocked when the first thing He asks is for us to stop ministering to people and working for Him and come away with Him into a wilderness of obscurity and helplessness.

We find we are powerless to do anything apart from Him and the passion He places in us. We become dependant on Him and His great mercy in the midst of our failure. We are no longer concerned with a great destiny anymore, but we begin to live to please Him in all things. We learn to trust what He says in spite of what our failure and sin would say.

Realizing our Highest Purpose

After walking with the Lord as our sole source and comfort, we realize that our highest purpose was not to become great in position and authority, but it is now to become great in our Love and Obedience to Jesus, the Lover of our souls.

Our Highest purpose has now become to stand before Him blameless and holy, willing to give all for Him. The lesser purposes of place and authority can be released to us with the confidence that these will no longer be the driving force of our lives.

Reconciliation Conference Births Historic Event
Jim Uttley Jr

Ever wonder whether reconciliation and restitution work? A recent historical event in California is proof that it can happen as a direct result of prayer and people committed to justice take action.

On May 18, 2004, the Eureka City Council made history when they voted unanimously to return 40 acres of Indian Island to the Wiyot Tribe. Just seven days later, on June 25, nearly 500 people attended the official deed-signing ceremony between the City of Eureka and the Wiyot.

In a waterfront ceremony bathed in history and reconciliation, Eureka's mayor presented the deed to 40 acres to a tribal chief, the same land where the tribe was massacred 144 years ago.

Amid cheers, Mayor Pete LaVallee signed over the deed to Indian Island property to Cheryl A. Seidner, chairwoman of the Wiyot tribe. Then they exchanged gifts.

According to the Associated Press, Mayor La Vallee said, "I think what we are doing is reinventing history. You can't say you're sorry. but 144 years later, we can say it wasn't right and honor the culture of the tribe and its roots."

As the historical record relates, on February 22, 1860, a band of white men invaded the Wiyot village at night, killing scores of elders, women and children as they slept. The massacre of the Wiyot was actually one of three that were carried out that day. "More Indians were killed on South Spit and at the mouth of the Eel River," stated Tribal Chairwoman Seidner.

"We lost our regalia, our elders, our weavers and our dreamers, all the things that make a community," Seidner said of the massacre. "We have not danced since that day. We have to relearn. I can't wait for that first dance."

The tribal leader credits a reconciliation conference in 2001 for creating an atmosphere that made the deed signing ceremony possible. In May of that year, a group of pastors of the Humboldt Evangelical Alliance (HEAL), invited the Native American ministry of Wiconi International of Vancouver, Washington, to facilitate a time of healing and reconciliation between evangelical churches in Humboldt County, the Wiyot and other people of the land. Wiconi led a three-day event at the Arcata First Baptist Church.

During this event over 75 people came together to pray over the Indian Island site that was the center of pain and hatred toward Native Americans.

Fern Noble, a Cree, and Native Representative for the International Reconciliation Coalition in Los Angeles spoke. "We can't allow ourselves to fall into the wound...we must allow the Holy Spirit to heal the wound so we can all come together as one, as God the Creator intended."

During the 2001 weekend conference, members of HEAL honored the Wiyot Tribal Council of Table Bluff Reservation with gifts and a commitment in writing to work with the tribe to get back this sacred site.

First Baptist's pastor, Dr. Clay Ford said that when he first heard about the massacre, he along with some colleagues wanted to apologize to the tribal leaders in the same spirit of Jesus when he took on the sins of the world.

"It's dawning on more and more Christians to see the need that there is for us to repent for the sins of the past," Ford said. "I wrote a proclamation of repentance acknowledging that though we personally weren't there when the massacre happened, we represented Christian people and churches who did nothing, as far as we could tell to make things right. And we apologized and asked for forgiveness."

From the proclamation, Rev. Clay read, "...we present to you the first fruits of our commitment to partner with you in buying the land, and building that center," the mayor read. "With hearts full of love for you and desire for your full restoration as a people, we present this gift of $1,000. And we pledge our ongoing intention to pray for you and to work with you in this endeavor until its completion."

Many churches and individuals continued to raise funds and pray for the Wiyot tribe.

According to Tribalwoman Seidner, it was this event that created an atmosphere that made this return of land possible. "As I have been told, this has not happened in any city in the state of California, and I'm hearing that this might be something really new across the nation. I don't know. I can't tell you that for sure."

Reflecting on the significance of this event, Richard Twiss, president of Wiconi International, and keynote speaker at the 2001 conference said, "The restoring of these traditional homelands is the fruit of following traditional Indigenous protocol in presenting the redemptive message of faith and hope in Jesus Christ, as Healer, Great Spirit and Chief Shepherd of all tribes and nations."

According to Twiss, as the traditional ways of indigenous peoples are honored, "hearts will be healed, people born-again from above and the land once again blessed for the Father's glory." He cites the example of the Apostle Paul who looked for "common ground" in presenting Christ.

Real Estate

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite

Nov. 25, 2004

We want to wish all those who gather together on this set date to give thanks to our Creator, YHVH the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, a very blessed time of family fellowship.
Ephraim and Rimona

The expression "Jack of all trades, master of none" is a familiar one. It almost fits the professions of YHVH also, although in a manner of speaking He is a “Jack of all trades” but of course a master of them all. Many people today are dabbling in real estate in order to earn a little extra money on the side. Well, wouldn't you know it, YHVH is into that business too! First He is seen creating the property that He will own and then He takes possession over all of it. Psalm 24:1 states: "The earth is YHVH’s, and all its fullness, the world and those who dwell therein.” In Psalm 89:11 we read: "The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours; the world and all its fullness, You have founded them”. And in 1 Corinthians 10:26 it says: "The earth is the Lord's and all its fullness."

We see in these scriptures that YHVH has never lost the title deed of ownership of the earth to any devil, but we do see Him dividing it up and giving it to men. "Then Elohim said, ‘Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth’" (Gen.1:26).

According to these scriptures, it is evident that man, "Adam" meaning both male and female, had an equal role in overseeing, ruling or subduing all living things. Subduing does not mean exploiting, but actually just the opposite. It stands for imparting life and light to the living creatures. But when it comes to property rights, nothing was said about until after the nations (goyim) were divided. Thus we read in Genesis 10:32: "These were the families of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, in their nations; and from these the nations were divided on the earth after the flood." Genesis 10:25 says: "To Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided." And: "When the Most High divided their inheritance to the nations, when He separated the sons of Adam, He set the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the children of Israel" (Deuteronomy 32:8). Now why would Yah do that? Israel was not even around at the time of Peleg (or were they? Peleg was the son of Eber whose name is carried by the Israelites – Hebrews - and is one of the forefathers of Abraham).

Right from the start Elohim began to put in order the true intent of His plan, which is seen later in the covenant that He made with Abraham the father of Israel. "Lift your eyes now and look from the place where you are--northward, southward, eastward, and westward; for all the land [eretz] which you see I will give to you and your descendants forever. I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth [eretz]; so that if a man could number the dust of the earth, then your descendants also could be numbered. Arise, walk on the land [eretz] through its length and its width, for I give it to you" (Gen.13:14-17). Ownership was given simply by being present. This is somewhat like the old Turkish (Ottoman) law that determined that ground, claimed (by planting or building), entitles one to ownership.

Abram was living somewhere between Ai and Bethel when YHVH spoke those words to him. I would like to take the liberty to expand on the meaning of this blessing based on its context: "Arise walk in the earth through its length and its breath and I will give it to you." The Hebrew word "eretz" can be translated earth, land, field or ground but it actually comes from a root meaning "to be firm”. It is legitimate for the translators to use any of these English words at their discretion, according to the context. My understanding of the context, in light of the massive blessing of multiplicity, is that the seed would be as the dust of the earth (eretz), and dust, as we know, usually covers everything. I believe that

Yah did not limit this blessing to Abraham only and to a specific land (Canaan), but also to his seed and to the entire earth (incidentally, notice the similarity: “earth” – “eretz”). YHVH’s intent was to sow the seed into all the earth (eretz), thus perpetuating the blessing that He made with Adam and Noah to “fill the earth and rule over [subdue] it."

Later on in the life of Abraham we hear YHVH saying that his seed would be like the stars of heaven (ref. Gen.15:5). Again He is talking in terms of numbers but also of position, as the stars were put there to rule the night, along with the moon, and to be for signs and for seasons.

Abraham, in the form of his own multiplied seed, was also told that he would be a nation (goy) and that this goy would be a goy of kings and priests. “And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel…” (Exodus 19:6); "YHVH will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be above only, and not be beneath” (Deut. 8:13). The irrevocable destiny of the life of the forefathers was to have dominion, to subdue and rule this planet earth.

The Patriarchs are very much alive today in their progeny, whether their children know it or not. For did YHVH not say that He is the "Elohim of Abraham, Isaac an Jacob, the Elohim of the living?" (Mat. 22:32). This is why we need to have our eyes open to present truth, or reality.

YHVH is a covenant keeping Elohim and we in this generation are the witnesses to that faithfulness, loving-kindness and mercy. That being so not just by what we say, but more so by who we are. Worshiping in spirit and in truth is being who Yah has created us to be and at the same time also recognizing this incredible living truth – that we are the seed of Jacob "the workmanship of YHVH." “But when he [Jacob] sees his children, the work of My hands, in his midst, they will hallowing My name, hallowing the Holy One of Jacob, and fearing the Elohim of Israel” (Isa. 29:23). We are His living stones, hewn from the rock (natural) who is "Abraham our father and Sarah who gave birth to us in pain" (Isa. 51:2). "For He spoke, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast. The counsel of YHVH stands forever, the plans of His heart to all generations… Blessed is the nation whose Elohim is YHVH, the people He has chosen as His own inheritance" (Psa. 33:9,11-12 8). "Because YHVH loves you, and because He would keep the oath which He swore to your fathers, YHVH has brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of bondage” (Deut.7:8). Why did He do that? So that we (Israel) might be gathered, redeemed, filled with His Spirit and be that channel of His life and light to the earth. This is our inheritance; this is the commonwealth of Israel.

"Let Your mercy, O YHVH, be upon us, just as we have waited upon You" (Psa. 33:22). "For those who wait on YHVH, they shall inherit the earth" (Psa.37:9, 34).

“Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell [shevet achim] together in unity…in this God commands the blessing life eternal” (Psa. 133).

Rejoice Expect And Receive

Begin to act on the many words that I have given you. Do not keep them locked in your heart or in your journal, but take them out, each and every one of them. Lay claim on them for I have given them to you, they are yours, take possession of each one. They are not merely words, they are MY words. Lift each word from the page, they are yours, lay hold and claim them. Know that as you bring to My remembrance My many words and promises, that I have heard your cry. I have not gone back on My word, I cannot for I AM bound by My Word. I have seen every question and I know your frustrations - Know, My Beloved that I have and AM paving the way. The preparations have been well under way but many spiritual battles needed to be won in the heavenlies. Not one dot or tiddle could be missed as I prepared the way. Be sensitive to My direction even to the smallest insignificances, they are 'vital'. I say to you, Do not fear that you will miss ME or MY direction, knowing that I shall bring all to pass I have spoken in your life. That time is nigh, expect!

Expect and Rejoice.... Rejoice Beloved, I say rejoice! See all bondages and chains dropped. See the door fall open under your praise. I say rejoice...rejoice in the midst of your circumstances, rejoice in Who I AM, rejoice in who you are - the sons and daughters of Almighty God. The enemy cannot come to your door in the midst of rejoicing. I say again, rejoice!

Look, look beyond your surroundings. You are looking at what is not happening and you are missing out on the blessings that are happening in your life right now. There are blessings all around you but you are concentrating on what you are not seeing and what is not happening. Look beyond...You are asking for a time but time is in My hands and My timing is perfect. Therefore, rest in ME, rest in My timing see what I AM doing and see the 'present blessings' and be ready for your coming breakthroughs.

I AM that sittith upon the throne, beacons to you My Beloved. You are My vessel in which I work and move through, therefore expect mighty works in your life. Stir up the gifts I have given you for I AM spurring you on ... These are awesome days and I AM an awesome God and awesome things will be done in My Name through you!

My eyes have gone to and fro looking for someone who was willing to put aside all things, you said "here am I." I have prepared you and you have gone through the fire, you have known what it is to be in need and you know the hurts of the outcasts. It is time to exalt those who are humble, lowly and meek for this is the hour of the uncomely parts. The hour for shepherds to become kings and peasants to become priests. As Job, it is time to be raised out of the ashes. I will confuse the mighty while bringing up My own from the most unlikely of places ... They will look upon these and say "no not him, no not her" for they will know from where they have come and yet I will say: "Yes! I have chosen these and only these who have been prepared by ME will stand in the days and months ahead."

This is MY greatest hour... this is YOUR greatest hour. Rejoice and Expect! As you seek My face this day, I AM closer than I have ever been. Even though you might not feel My closeness, I AM there. Be sensitive to "all" that I bring into your life from this moment on and ask My Spirit to reveal "all" that is said and done. The plan that I have for you is now unfolding like a beautiful rose, allow My Spirit to speak to you this day, no word is too small. The day and the hour is upon you. You have come to full term and there is an anxiousness about you which is normal when giving birth, especially at full term. Do not let any anxiousness turn to discouragement, prepare for this new birth ... and wait upon the Lord for it is at this critical moment that you will want to 'push' in your own strength ... but again I say, wait upon the Lord and I will bring it to pass. You have been faithful to My Word and I will be faithful to My promises. I will move quickly ... be ready for Me .... IT WILL BE QUICKLY!!!

Stand firm for the enemy would try to steal the calling I have placed on your life but I have overcome him - he would try to delay the calling but My timing is perfect. It is when you least expect me to move that I will do it.. concentrate on Me, I AM the reason you are called. The calling is not the most important, it is your relationship with ME that is of the utmost importance. I desire that you would see me as One who loves you and desires to do all I say I will do... I no longer want you to speak of Me as the 'can do God' but the 'Am doing God.' Lest you forget My Beloved Who I AM... I AM HE who led a disobedient people out of the wilderness into the land of promise. "How much more will I lead you who are obedient to My instructions?" The time for dismay is over it is time to "Rejoice, Expect and Receive!"

Your Rightful Place

My Daughters It Is Time To Take Your Rightful Place
March 8, 2004
faithbuildersmins@sbcglobal.net

My daughters, the doors are being thrown wide open... The day has arrived for you to take your rightful place in the plan for MY Church. I have been cleansing, purging and filling and now you WILL break forth into this new life that I have called you to ... You have held fast and you have stood the test of time and now your new beginnings are breaking forth. I am putting a new song in your heart and mouth and it shall break forth in praise and worship for all your Father has done. Break forth and sing, O Barren Woman, who is no longer barren but who will bring forth many into My Kingdom.

I have been luring you into My bosom, into My presence in a newer way. I wanted you to know My love so there will be no doubts about the calling or anything else I ask of you. Feel My love so deeply, lay all else aside and seek My presence as I give you confidence and security and strength In Me ... knowing the I AM is with you always. My women of valor, I want you to have the reassurance that HE who calls you is the I AM who will take care of you. Everything is right ahead of you, don't let the vision get so far out that you are not seeing what is nigh at your door.

I have called you to a holy calling, a call gone out to a chosen few. You answered the call because of your love for Me ... My heart is stirred because of that love and I AM well pleased - therefore - I will do all that I have promised and you will not be ashamed for putting your trust In Me. My daughters, because you were chosen, because you were willing and obedient, because you were steadfast and immovable in the trials laid before you, because you listened to ME always - I AM turning everything around for you and for Me to receive the Glory. You were put in the melting pot with the heat turned up.

You were then put on a shelf so My Spirit could mold and refine you, fit for My service. Some of you are already in My desired place for you but for others I will now move you to where you are to be .... then ..... you shall experience the Glory of your God. NOW, now is the time when I will complete what I have started in My daughters because the time has come for you to take your rightful place in these last days.

You have waited for so long and now you will see that waiting upon My presence brings liberty to those who are bound. You have listened to Me to not move out in your own timing nor your own power but to seek the One Who breaks the chains, the bondages and Who proclaims 'true liberty' to the captives. I seek those who I can use, who are willing to "count the cost." of discipleship and follow wherever I may lead. Continue to wait, My Child, for the time is near. Wait upon My Spirit to bring the deliverance that is required, knowing that it will be "fully" manifested in the time of My choosing.

I have pulled back the curtains and opened the windows, to begin to pour out to you provisions and blessings. The blessings that I AM pouring 'in' you and 'on' you. The pouring in you will find more valuable to you than the pouring on you. You will treasure the pouring in while the pouring on is needed for your sustenance. Receive 'both' the pouring in and the pouring on.....'Reverence' the pouring in and 'Welcome' the pouring on, for the windows of heaven are opening to you and for you.

Hear the Word of the Lord and angels saying "She is coming forth, she will enter the fullness, she is of those chosen and the number of the harvest shall be great." Who will ascend the mountain of God, the Holy Place? Those whom I have chosen. Those with a clean heart - those who have sought My heart! As you come forth, you will be surrounded by an awesomeness of Who I AM and what I AM doing in these days. A move like no other has ever seen or experienced in this day. The enemy has tried to stop what I AM doing in your midst but he has failed. He has sought to conjure up accusations against you but I say unto you "I AM annihilating his efforts." There is a door opening that I have set before you that will be the "final break away" from the old ways. I will establish you in the forefront of what I will be doing. You will be the first to see what I AM doing in the earth. You will be ready to welcome the many as they enter the places I have prepared for them. I give you My peace because My high calling is on your heart. I AM on the throne and My scepter is pointed toward you. Hear My voice as I give you My instructions. Hold on in anticipation of what I AM about to do - it is time to take your rightful place.

Reassembled
Sandy Warner

Sep 1, 2004
Broken and disassembled, My body is scattered in parts and pieces all over the world. Even when in a crowd, they are suffering the coldness of isolation. Broken, alone, and separated, the comfort of fellowship has become a rarity. How it grieves My heart to see My loved ones in such disarray!

Although the enemy has desired to plunder My people through isolation, I have used the wilderness seasons to raise My eagles to search for food and train them to climb higher. Birds fly in flocks and eagles fly alone. This is the way for training leaders. I have raised a generation of leaders, who will nurture the great harvest of newborns. And how they will love their children! The chatter, the activity, the questions, the hungry hearts will be like a balm to My isolated ones who have suffered years of detachment. The shame of those years will melt away within the deep pools of My children's hugs. Lost confidence and joy shall return as I reassemble My body back together again. United in kindred hearts of loving appreciation, I shall remove the stumbling blocks and bring My own into one big family.

Heb 10:24-25 NKJV
And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.

One Mass To Be Restored
Sandy Warner

Aug 27, 2004
Together in one mass, I will bring My people as a unit, moving forward by rank and file. As they go, they shall occupy their promised land, standing against that which opposes their future and hope. I shall strengthen them like the strength of an oak tree, able to withstand winds of opposition. I will keep them, bringing forth thousands and bearing them up. They will be known as the company with triumphant faith. For seven years they shall recover and be restored in installments, piece by piece. For I know the plans that I have for them and that is to give them a future and a hope.

Your Ship Is Coming In
Sandy Warner

Sep 3, 2004
Yes dear ones, you have suffered hardship. These have been necessary for your training in leadership. Your ships are coming!
Friendship, fellowship, worship, relationship, kingship… leaders see with your very own eyes, your ships are coming in! Many ships are filling the horizon, laden with fruitful gifts, supplies, answers to prayer, launched ministries, home runs, more grace and more power than ever imagined. My angels have been collecting the prey and are bringing these ships overloaded with what has been taken back from enemy territory. You are about to receive a bountiful harvest.

"And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives. And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all…And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD;" 1 Samuel 30:18-19, 26)

Red Alert

LaNora Van Arsdall

God Is Giving A 'Red Alert' To The Body Of Christ!"

RED ALERT

November 27, 2004, I awakened from sleep to realize that I had received a message from God while I was napping. Ringing in my ears were the words "RED ALERT."
I said, "Speak, Lord, I am listening."
He said, "Tell my intercessors to get back on the wall...many are taking their rest after the election. The boundaries of the nation are being daily infiltrated with weapons. Some of the weapons are actually people." (This made me think of suicide bombers.)

"If my intercessors will arise, I will anoint them along with my prophets to dismantle the plans being made in darkness. I will cause these evil strategies to be uncovered by the rising glorious Light exploding from the prayer closets and prayer rooms of my servants.

"I am looking for somebody who will lay aside personal desires and agendas, who will be willing to sacrifice in a place of hiddenness and anonymity for the greater glory of this final harvest. Great will be the reward of those who take up the call to spiritual border control in intercession.

"Not only is this true for the natural borders of the nation, but also for the spiritual borders of the Kingdom. For just as the nation is in grave danger of infiltration, so is My kingdom...the final deception is beginning. Many people's love will grow cold...those who have not sought Me and bought eye salve that they may see and understand, will fall.

"Do not be surprised when you begin to see the 'known and the respected' lose their testimony. There is a skimming off the top that is coming." (This will be similar to the events of the 80's when many top leaders were falling.)
"Pray for the spirit of repentance. Pray for grace."

Now Through End of January is RED ALERT

Between now and the end of January the security status is Red Alert. Let us answer the Lord's call, go into our prayer closets, and shut the door. We have a duty to enforce Heaven's government by the law of love. If we dismantle the plans of darkness...still we must hold our position tightly. May the Lord grant us divine wisdom.

After receiving this word, I was told by a pastor in Sierra Vista, Arizona (bordering Mexico), that he had spontaneously begun to weep in the midst of his sermon last week...he found out that this also happened to another pastor across town. The other pastor said the Lord told him that nuclear weapons had just crossed the border of Mexico.

Refiners Fire

Aquilla Adams

I come to you today as the Refiner's Fire, to refine your nature and image to conform to Mine. I do not speak of the old nature, that which is dead and passed away and has been crucified with Christ, but I speak of My nature in you to walk in My holiness and righteousness. I come also as a fire to ignite the flames of your heart into a more passionate pursuit of Me. For their has been much lukewarmness among My Bride because she has been distracted and ensnared by the cares of this world, yet I come to burn away the wood, hay and stubble and that which remains, to refine and process. You are My Beloved Living Stones whom I have fit together to form the house of God. None of you is more important than the other, for you are all working for the purpose of the furthering of My Kingdom. Come now as willing sacrifices and lay yourself before Me. I AM the Alpha and the Omega, and yea, I know your beginning from the end. I know where you have come from and where you are going. Listen with the ears of My Spirit to My direction as I will lead you forth in the direction you are to take in My righteousness.

Selah.

Refocus!

Kriston Couchey

Nov. 25, 2004

Refocus on Me! Says the Lord. Like Peter whose faith wavered as he looked at the troubled waters, refocus on Me and my provision for circumstances. Do not allow the old ways of the flesh and it's deception to distract and cause you to look for peace elsewhere.

This is a battle warred in the spirit in order to get you to walk in the flesh. Look to me and praise and worship Me as I bring rest to your soul.

Do not look at your weak flesh and falter, but look to Me and receive strength to bring your flesh under submission. The times of abiding in My presence are times of strengthening and encouragement. Drink of My Presence and you shall be filled and restored.

Refuge

Mike Tucker

Psalm 2:1-12

Recently I was reading 'The Lion of Zion' words given through Rosie Lovejoy as published on Bill Somers' prophetic web ring. Just before I began reading Part V titled "Jacob's Troubles Are About To Begin" the Spirit of the Lord spoke in me 'Release the Colorado words'. I then jotted down this task and found it peculiar that the release came at that precise moment. After I read Part V I knew why the words were retained till that very moment. Please read this Part V published on 08/29/04 as a preface (I too have seen a number of dreams and visions depicting terrible destruction upon the US).

The Living Eagle

In the early 90's I was given a dream concerning a magnificent sky-filling Eagle. This was not the same eagle made by the works of man as seen in other dreams (representing a carnal USA). But was in fact the living Eagle of God.

As I was sleeping, a dream came to me. I saw a beautiful mountain range in the distance and a mighty Eagle standing on the range. So massive was this Eagle, that each talon gripped the top of separated and distant mountain peaks. The wing span of the Eagle stretched out across the whole mountain range and under its wings my spirit knew this to be God's cover.

The Four Trees

02/1991 - I dreamed I saw a garden and in its middle were four trees. As I looked upon the trees, the first, the third and the fourth tree wilted and died. The second tree remained whole.

At the time that this dream was received, I knew in my spirit that this dream represented America and felt that 3/4ths of America would perish. I also knew that the interpretation was not complete, yet left it at that until the Spirit of the Lord disclosed it or fulfilled it. The full answer came this year and is disclosed in the next dream and vision.

Refuge in Colorado

For many years I have prayed a simple prayer to the Lord concerning Jacob's Troubles. A prayer asking only 'When and where Lord? When and where?' with regard to where I should go when these events unfold. This year He answered.

02/2004 - I dreamed I saw a simplified map of Colorado. As I gazed at the map a hand appeared and pointed to the SW region of Colorado on a specific point. Then these words were spoken "In the first year, go here. WRITE THIS DOWN". Then I woke up.

I must say, I was so elated to finally have some answer to a decade long prayer. When the words were spoken in the dream, my spirit innately knew the timing to mean the first year of Jacob's Troubles. A few days later I was looking at a US map on my office wall trying to pinpoint the location that I had drawn in a notebook. As I was looking at the US map a vision came forth. Overlaid across the entire continental USA, I saw four trees each laid across a quarter section of the land. Then the first tree, the third tree and fourth tree wilted before my eyes. The second tree running along the Rocky Mountains remained whole. I had not considered the four trees being so directly tied to this refuge dream until the vision was given. Then the whole thing made perfect sense. 3/4ths of America, literally, will fall. Yet God has prepared a covering for His people in the region of the second tree, that is, the Rocky Mountain stretch.

Sanctuary Landing

03/2004 I was pondering and praying on further meaning of the Refuge dream, that is, was I to go to a place already prepared? What were the details? Buy land, buy provisions? Was I to help start a place, etc. Its funny how some answers from the Lord spawn a lot more questions. During this pondering a simple vision came to me.

I saw a gateway on a road. The gateway had solid grounded posts with an arching sign over the road that read 'Sanctuary Landing'. I saw scripture written upon the posts about refuge and Christ.

When I went to write this vision down, I wrote down the name 'Sanctuary'. The Holy Spirit then corrected me and said 'Its name is 'Sanctuary Landing', emphasizing the 'Landing' part. I found this curious and looked up Landing in the dictionary to see why the word was so important. The dictionary read 'A place where passengers or goods are discharged from vessels... A DESCENT FROM AIR'. And then it hit me, of course, the earlier Eagle dream represented a landing.

RV

07/2004 I dreamed I saw the side of a recreational vehicle slightly modified with flower boxes at the windows and secured to the ground. Then I knew this to be my home in Colorado. At that point I saw the words 'Buy an RV' encapsulated in light rays.

This word is specific to me and my little family and is not necessarily a sign to anyone else to rush out and buy up RVs. Each must go as they are called. However, this dream does indicate to me that not only is an RV a practical solution to the many questions I had surrounding the Colorado Refuge dream, but that perhaps mobility will be important during those times.

MANY PLACES

09/2004 I was sleeping and I heard the Lord speak to me in a dream, "I will show you more.." and then a number of places in a mountainous region began appearing before me. Each with a particular geographical marker to remember. Some had forests or towns or lakes or particular peaks.

After waking, there were too many locations and points to journal. But the Holy Spirit spoke in me, "You will remember".

Regarding any place of geographical safety, I suggest that it would be of little use to go anywhere unless one is hidden in Christ (Col. 3:3) and takes spiritual refuge in the Lord (Psalm 27:5). I am reminded of scripture that speaks of people trying to evade troubles through their own means absent of God's covering:

Isaiah 24:17-18 "Terror and pit and snare confront you, O inhabitants of the earth. Then it will be that he who flees the report of disaster will fall into the pit. And he who climbs out of the pit will be caught in the snare. For the windows above are opened and the foundations of the earth shake."

Some may scoff at the notion of God preparing a geographical place of safety for His people, but consider this... Even Joseph and Mary had to abruptly flee to Egypt with the baby Jesus in order to escape persecution from Herod. Did not the anointed David seek refuge in Adullam's cave and various strongholds from Saul's pursuit? And again, what if Noah declined to build the Ark because he felt having a good relationship with the Lord God was enough? Hearing and obeying has its place too.

"Draw near to Me, absorb My will, follow My direction and I will keep you in the day of trouble.", says the Lord of Hosts.

Great Hailstorm

11/2003 I dreamed I was standing in a field. Then it began raining milk all about. After the milk stopped raining, I saw a large bowl in the sky. It poured out from Heaven and a massive hail storm begin to fall. The hail stones were huge and so thick was the fall it was like a dense blizzard. And while the stones fell all about me I begin to sing, "Sing unto the Lord a new song, Sing unto the Lord His praise, Sing unto the Lord a new song, I will sing unto the Lord all my days...". The hail did not touch me, but it destroyed much around me.

Rehoboth

Musa Opiyo

May 1, 2004
Genesis 26: 22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not; and he called the name of it Re-ho-both; and he said, For now the Lord hath made room for us, we shall be fruitful in the land.

Out of the dry and desolate places I shall gush forth a mighty stream. I speak to those of My children who observing their lives have not seen much fruitfulness proceeding from their lives. You have come to a place of defeat. You have given up and you have said, "I have not the abilities with which to do that which you have called me to do." Beloved, you have come to the wonderful realisation that it is not by might, or power or strength, but solely on My Spirit by which you shall accomplish the work I have set before you. Others have come to a bareness in their walk to where there is hardly any evidence of My work in them. Have I ever asked you to look in the natural for evidence? Is it not your evidence that I am not a man that should lie nor the son of man that I should repent? Whatsoever I speak shall not return void. My words shall not fall to the ground but they shall accomplish what they were sent to do.

Others hardly feel My presence close by. You feel as though you have come to a spiritual dead end. Watch now for the place to which you thought I was absent is where you shall see My glory manifest. For it is in this place that I have brought you to test your faith. You have stood strong in the midst of adversity. You have come to learn that your source is none other than the Water Of Life. Now I say unto you Rehoboth. Arise and be fruitful. For I shall bless you in the very midst of the arid conditions. It is here that I shall reveal myself in a most pleasant intimacy. You shall look up and you shall see that your redemption draweth nigh. You shall see a cloud the size of a man's fist grow into an abundant spiritual rain. Arise and be fruitful. That which was dead shall spring to life again. I am taking away the old and ushering the new. For it is My abundance upon you, says the Lord.

Revelation Is Sufficient

http://www.watchman.net/

One characteristic of the last days is people will run to and fro and knowledge will be increased (Daniel 12:4). They will be ever learning, but in spite of this abundance of knowledge they will never come to a realization of the truth (II Timothy 3:7). The accumulation of knowledge in the Information Age is highly sought after and prized, yet it is possible to know all the right answers and still not come into an experiential knowledge of Truth.

Please note that when Simon Peter confessed, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God", Jesus did not congratulate him for figuring this out through intense study and research, as if THAT would have made any difference. Instead, the Lord tells Peter that he is blessed: not just for knowing Who He is, but for the WAY in which he came to know Who He is. How did Peter know that Jesus is the Son of God? Because it was revealed to him by the Heavenly Father.

Here, Jesus contrasts "flesh and blood" knowledge with Truth which is revealed by God (and of course, Jesus is Truth [John 14:6]). The two are as different as night and day. In the matter of flesh and blood knowledge obtained from human, earthly sources we may have reason to boast in our ability to study, investigate, reason, and decide. This is the Tree of Knowledge. In the case of revelation, we have definitely no room to boast, for revelation is simply that which is revealed to us from heaven by the Lord. We cannot work to obtain it nor do we merit it. Additionally, no man may give it to us. Its source is God working in us through His Holy Spirit. This is the Tree of Life.

If in our quest for spiritual growth our idea is only to learn a few facts about the Bible, glean tidbits of information from this preacher and that teacher, fill our brains with facts and fill our libraries with more books and magazines, we run the risk of fooling ourselves into thinking that we know and understand God - when it could be that we are ever learning "truths" without knowing the Truth. Have you met someone like this? They seem to have all the right answers, but they have the wrong spirit. They tenaciously cling to their minute opinions and cannot be persuaded otherwise. Their knowledge has not changed them, except to make them worse: for now they are puffed up in the vanity of their own mind (I Corinthians 8:1,2). True spiritual growth is characterized by grace (not works) and an increased knowledge of Jesus Christ (II Peter 3:18). And, we maintain that this knowledge of Jesus Christ cannot be obtained by study, but is only granted by way of revelation.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

What do we mean by revelation? We affirm that there is really only one revelation, and that is The Revelation of Jesus Christ. People use the term "revelation" rather loosely and flagrantly, flippantly categorizing every new thing, random thought, impression, leading, feeling, teaching, vision, voice, or dream as "revelation". They consider every notion that flashes across their brain to be "revelation". Not only is this fraught with danger, it is extra-biblical.

We simply say that Jesus Christ is the only thing God reveals to us. "In [Christ] are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge (Colossians 2:3)." It is not that God gives us revelation into five, ten, one hundred, or one thousand things. None of these "things" by themselves really matter. Rather, He has placed all those "things" within Christ, and reveals Christ to us. He will not reveal anything to us apart from the Revelation of Jesus Christ. To possess the Son is to possess all that pertains to the Son, for the Scriptures declare, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things (Romans 8:32)?" Christ is the sum of all spiritual things, the fullness of God in a bodily form (Colossians 2:9). Again, it is not that God desires to give us revelation into these many things, but for us to have the Revelation of Jesus Christ. By apprehending Him we will subsequently gain insight in those "things". To seek revelation into the "things" apart from the Revelation of Christ fails to give Christ the preeminence. We dare not circumvent the knowledge of Him in the pursuit of "things", even spiritual things, for they are all summed up into Him.

Jesus Christ is the Mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations, but is now made manifest to the saints (Colossians 1:26, 27). The Old Testament proclaims the Mystery and prepares the way for the Revelation of Jesus Christ. It is full of types, shadows, and symbology. The New Testament reveals that which was previously hidden. It explains the types and shadows of the Mystery and gives us the Revelation as substance and reality.

Nevertheless, the Lord will not manifest or reveal Himself to the world at large because the world in general will not love or receive Him (John 14:21-23). So, He establishes the Ecclesia, the called-out-of-the-world assembly of those who have been given the Revelation of Jesus, that they may translate it into the Testimony of Jesus by bearing witness to what they have seen and heard. Indeed, God has purposely hidden the knowledge of Jesus Christ and will only grant it to individuals by way of revelation once they have humbled themselves as children. This fact is so foundational to our understanding that we will quote it here:

"In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that Thou hast HID these things from the wise and prudent, and hast REVEALED them unto BABES: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered to Me of my Father: and no man [through human, flesh and blood knowledge] knoweth Who the Son is, BUT THE FATHER [Who He has chosen to reveal it only unto babes]; and Who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal Him. And He turned Him unto His disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them (Luke 10:21-24, emphasis and bracketed comments mine)."

Although we are using many words to explain this, in actual experience it is neither complicated nor difficult. It actually takes longer to explain it than it does to comprehend and participate in it. Basically, the difference is between "learning" and "seeing". Not, "blessed are the minds that have studied and learned" but "blessed are the eyes that SEE."

The whole purpose of prophetic speaking and writing is to bring further revelation of Jesus to the Church and to the world. We refer to this as the Testimony of Jesus. "It is the truth concerning JESUS that inspires ALL prophecy (Revelation 19:10, Knox, emphasis mine)." A majority of what is called "prophetic" today is merely eschatological, that is, inspired by the study of end time events, but not necessarily inspired by the Spirit to bring us into a further revealing of Jesus Christ. We do a disservice to the Church if we muddy the waters between that which is prophetic and that which is eschatological: for the Church is not established upon her understanding of end time events, but upon her revelation knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Even the Book of Revelation itself is not primarily the revelation of what the end of the world will be like (although we do learn that), but the Revelation and Testimony of Jesus Christ (Revelation 1:1,2). We are immediately confronted with a vision of Jesus Christ standing in the midst of the Ecclesia: it is quite different from the image of the suffering Messiah, despised and rejected of men. So, this is a further unveiling or revealing of the Lord Jesus and is genuinely prophetic. The rest of the book, its symbols, and its meaning may be unclear, and we may disagree with the interpretations thereof, but the main gist of the book, the revealing of Jesus Christ as the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords, the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last, is beyond dispute.

THE FOUNDATION OF THE ECCLESIA

Why is it vital that we have this Revelation of Christ? Because the Church that Jesus is building, the Ecclesia, consists of all those who have this Revelation. Without the Revelation we cannot know the Way to the Father, and thus can have no membership in the Ecclesia, for Jesus is the Way (John 14:6). How can we know what the Church is apart from knowing Jesus Christ? How can we apprehend the Body if we do not apprehend the Head? The Church is not built upon Peter the individual, but upon all those who know Jesus Christ by revelation (Matthew 16:17,18). Apart from this we cannot be numbered among the Ecclesia. This IS the Church: those to whom the Father has revealed the Son by the Spirit.

Whereas Peter was a good Jew but a plain fellow, Paul, formerly known as Saul, was a self-proclaimed "Pharisee of the Pharisees", religious, devout, learned, and righteous according to the law of Moses, zealous for the things of God and the traditions of the Jews. Yet, we find him to be persecuting the Church of Jesus Christ, erroneously thinking that God was pleased with him. How is it that Saul, with all his learning, did not understand Who Jesus Christ was? Simply because it had not been revealed to him by the Heavenly Father. Indeed, it was the Pharisees and other religious leaders and teachers who rejected the Lord and had Him crucified. They lacked the Revelation. They had the written Word memorized, but there stands the Word made flesh and all they see is "the carpenter's son", a demon-possessed man, a blasphemer, a magician. This demonstrates how worthless religious flesh and blood knowledge is.

One day the grace of God determined to grant Saul the Revelation of Jesus. That is to say, Saul was not seeking revelation, he believed he had it already. He and his peers had concluded that Jesus was not the Son of God. So Saul was on his way to Damascus to arrest the followers of Jesus and bring them back to Jerusalem in chains. How zealous he was for "truth"! Without warning a bright light appeared to him, casting him to the ground, and a Voice called to him saying, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?" Saul asked, "Who are you?" And the Voice replied, "I am Jesus, the One you are persecuting!"

All it takes is a millisecond of time for the Revelation to strike you down. I recall when I first received the Revelation of Jesus Christ. I had had many religious and spiritual experiences up to that point, more than the average person. I had been a pastor and teacher for many years. I thought I really knew the Lord. But one day God revealed His Son IN me. I was sitting in the backyard reading the Word and without warning, in my heart of hearts, I "saw" (not with my eyes, but inwardly) Jesus seated at God's right hand, and I saw myself raised and seated with Him in heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6). That day was like walking out of one room and into another, closing the door behind me. I got a glimpse into another world. I finally knew what before I had only talked about. Though not as outwardly dramatic as Paul's experience, inwardly a massive earthquake had taken place and my foundations were ripped to shreds. It was the beginning of the end of my career as a preacher for Organized Religion. I saw the real Jesus and realized He was nothing like flesh and blood had said. Hallelujah!

When Saul met the Lord, Jesus didn't say, "Why are you persecuting My people?" With the simple words, "I am Jesus, the One you are persecuting," Paul received revelation into the Person of Jesus Christ as well as the Church. To persecute the followers of Jesus is to persecute Jesus Himself. Why? Because Christ and the Church are one! It would be a few years before Paul was able to pen the beautiful passages of Scripture describing the Body of Christ, but it all began with this initial Revelation of Jesus Christ there on the dusty road to Damascus. The Revelation of Jesus is the foundation of the Church.

BEING A "CHRISTIAN" VERSUS KNOWING THE LORD

How did Paul learn the Gospel? Who taught it to him? "I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ (Galatians 1:11,12)." What a glorious statement! Five words uttered by revelation are worth more than ten thousand words obtained through flesh and blood. Dear friend, do you really know the Lord? Is this knowledge based on revelation, or is it merely your idea, or what you've been taught by flesh and blood? Now is the time to examine your foundation and discover if you have been building on rock or on sand. We now know how it is possible for one to do many mighty works in Jesus' Name, yet not know the Lord: revelation is the difference between religious activity and true knowing (Matthew 7:23).

It is quite possible that we have been "Christians" for many years and not known the Lord. I used to find that hard to believe but not anymore. I can truthfully say that I have been a "Christian" all my life, but I have only KNOWN the Lord a few years. Calling yourself a Christian these days is almost the same as calling yourself a Republican or Democrat. It has become more of a label for social convenience sake than a true testimony that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God, dwelling within me.

A. W. Tozer wrote: "I see and hear of things that Christian people are doing. As I watch them operate within the profession of Christianity I do raise the question of whether they have been truly converted."

In the 1980's I used to go out with other brothers and sisters knocking on doors and passing out tracts. We would ask, "Are you born again? Are you saved? Are you a Christian?" But these terms in recent years have become so watered-down and vague that most everyone who has ever attended a steeple house on Christmas or Easter claims to be a born again Christian - but they don't have the Revelation of Christ! That the potential exists for us to do things in the name of Jesus without truly knowing and being known of Him ought to put us on our face before the Lord, praying for experiential knowledge of Him by way of revelation. There's no other way to truly know Him. God has made sure of that.

How much of what we hear being preached and peddled around the world in the Name of Jesus is but the regurgitations and ramblings of people who can only repeat what everyone else is saying? Where is the Revelation of Jesus Christ? Who is the man or the woman that refuses to confer with flesh and blood, but only speaks according to what they have seen and heard by revelation through the Spirit? Most teachers are teaching what was taught to them, and their teachers learned it from their teachers, and so on it goes until we no longer have Spirit-birthed revelation, we have third and fourth-generational head-knowledge, yesterday's manna and hand-me-down flesh and blood doctrines. As one of my brothers puts it: there are many echoes in the land, but few voices. There is an ocean of difference between repeating what you have heard and speaking of what you have experienced! Is it any wonder that there is much learning, but no experiential knowledge of Truth? If we speak of ourselves then we can only impart knowledge. But, if we resolve to only speak by revelation, we can impart Life. Only revelation can change a person.

Immediately upon hearing this message some may be tempted to ask, "What do I have to do to get this revelation?" The answer is nothing, because it is all of grace. Along with Paul, we may certainly pray for "a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, the eyes of our understanding being enlightened (Ephesians 1:17,18)." Beyond that, we need only trust that the Spirit will indeed reveal the Lord to us if we humble ourselves as children as ask. Once we realize that revelation is all that matters, and God is the only one who can give it, we will stop trying to impress people with our knowledge, powerful speaking, or title. Instead, we will humble ourselves and ask the Father to reveal His Son in us.

THE TESTIMONY OF JESUS MEANS THE LOSS OF ALL THINGS

What about Paul's commission to preach the Gospel? He did not seek credentials, ordination, or affiliation with a human organization. He did not wait for anyone to confirm the call on his life. He did not seek for hands to be laid on him. But "when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by His grace, to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus (Galatians 1:15-17)." Preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ was renegade enough, but to preach the gospel to the Gentiles was a departure from the norm for even the Church at that time. It would later prove to be quite controversial and divisive. Prudence would dictate that it would be better to check with the other apostles and get their opinion and feedback before striking out in a new direction. Yet, Paul says once he obtained revelation he had no need to confer with flesh and blood. Why, because he was a maverick, an independent spirit, a rebel? No, it is only because the Revelation of Jesus is sufficient guidance. Flesh and blood cannot add to or take away from the Revelation.

Paul's testimony before Agrippa expounds upon this initial conversation with the Lord. He says the Lord told him, "I have shown Myself to you for a reason - you are chosen to be my servant and a witness of those revelations of Me that you have already had, and of those in which I shall yet appear to you (Acts 26:16,17, 20th Century NT)." This was Paul's commission - to testify as to what he has seen, not what he has theorized about, and not what he has heard someone else say. He was to bring the Revelation of Jesus to the world. And so he did. How rich was his understanding! How profound his writings! And oh how great his sufferings!

And what of all that Paul learned as a devout student of Gamaliel? What about his former rank and influence among the religious elite of his day? "What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for Whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ (Philippians 3:7,8)." When a person has the Revelation of Christ they will gladly and with great joy suffer the loss of all things. A person who has the Revelation will willingly lay down their life for what they have seen (Revelation 6:9;12:11).

The Revelation of Jesus Christ will be the stone of stumbling and the rock of offense to Organized Religion (I Peter 2:8). When Stephen was called to give an account to the religious leaders his testimony convicted them so that they ground their teeth in anger. With face shining as an angel, being full of the Holy Ghost, he lifted up his eyes and saw Jesus Christ standing at the right hand of God (Acts 7:54-56). What a blessed, holy moment; what a vision! - but just look and see what the revelation cost Stephen. They dragged him outside and stoned him to death.

To be sure, when you really and truly meet Jesus of Nazareth, when you "see" Him for the first time, when He reveals Himself to you, it will immediately put you at enmity with those who claim to see but do not see: mostly, the religious and "spiritual" ones, the denominations and Towers of Babel which dot the landscape of Christendom, the scribes and Pharisees of Organized Religion.

How blessed are they which do see and hear the Lord! Many are seeking power, anointing, spiritual gifts, title, office, position, and audience. But revelation is sufficient. If we have the Revelation of Jesus Christ we don't need anything else. And if we don't have the Revelation, nothing else will make any difference.

Restoring Joy

Chuck Pierce

Restoring Joy: A Ten Day Prayer Focus"
by Chuck D. Pierce

Dear Radiant Saint:

May the Lord bless you during this season! As we approach the holidays my heart is filled with gratefulness toward you. The prophecy of Zacharias seems amazingly relevant today. He prophesied about the change that was to come upon the earth. He decreed that a Deliverer would come. This prophecy is really speaking to me as I am praying for you.

Luke 1:71-75 says:
"That we should have deliverance and be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who detest and pursue us with hatred; to make true and show the mercy and compassion and kindness [promised] to our forefathers and to remember and carry out His holy covenant [to bless, which is all the more sacred because it is made by God Himself], that covenant He sealed by oath to our forefather Abraham: to grant us that WE, being delivered from the hand of our foes, might serve Him fearlessly in holiness (divine consecration) and righteousness [in accordance with the everlasting principles of right] within His presence all the days of our lives." (AMP)
May the JOY of His delivering power overtake you. Sing this with me:

Joy to the world, the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven, and heaven, and nature sing.

Joy to the world, the Savior reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat, the sounding joy.

No more let sins and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make His blessings flow
Far as the curse is found,
Far as the curse is found,
Far as, far as, the curse is found.

I love the third verse of this Christmas Carol! I am pondering and processing your faithfulness in light of the meaning of the year ahead! This is a year for things to come FULL CIRCLE!

FULL CIRCLE -- AN END OF SOME THINGS, AND THE BEGINNINGS OF OTHERS

In the Hebraic year of 5765, the character "7" is Shin, and means to come full circle, consume, and destroy. That means we will come to an end of some things and begin other things. That also means that old cycles will attempt to hold us captive and keep us from breaking fully into our future. Therefore we must destroy some old patterns that would love to resurface in our life cycle. The Lord will give you a second chance to confront and deal with that thing that defeated you in the last season!

I am decreeing that you will go UP your mountain called ZION which will cause you to be favored with the Lord's presence all year. I am decreeing you will not go AROUND any wilderness SINAI mountain again.

Our life cycle is, Biblically, like a circle. You are on a boat, rowing backwards into your future. Your past connects to your future. But your future is opening now into your cycle of victory. This allows all of your expectations in and of God to be fulfilled. I am declaring no more thorns to infest your ground. May every curse let go from deep inside your thought processes.

A TIME FOR JOY

Joy comes from the verb "gil" or "gul." That means to go in a circle or to be excited, dancing around for joy, or rejoicing. In the New Testament, joy is linked with grace. Another word for joy is agalliasis. This word expresses exuberant joy or exultation.

JOY is a positive attitude or pleasant emotion or delight. Joy includes gladness, contentment, and cheerfulness. Joy should be holy and pure. This joy rises above circumstances. Joy embraces the highest emotion of God and His character.

The joy required of the righteous person (Psalm 150; Philippians 4:4) is produced by the Spirit of God (Galatians 5:22). This kind of joy looks beyond the present to our future salvation (Romans 5:2, 8:18; 1 Peter 1:4,6) and to our sovereign God, who works out all things for our ultimate good (Romans 8:28-30).

This kind of joy is distinct from mere happiness. Joy like this is possible, even in the midst of sorrow (1 Corinthians 12:26; 2 Corinthians 6:10, 7:4).
Sameah means "to be bright or to shine." Joy expresses His Glory. Proverbs 13:9 says, "The light of the righteous rejoiceth" -- literally, "is bright."

Joy has a bodily expression. The Hebrew words mean "to spring," "leap," hence, "exult" and "rejoice"; and "rinnah" means "shouting." Joy is the response of the mind to any pleasurable event or state (1 Kings 1:40; Esther 8:17).

Joy as a religious emotion is very frequently referred to in the Old Testament. Religion is conceived of as touching the deepest springs of emotion, including the feeling of exultant gladness which often finds outward expression in such actions as leaping, shouting, and singing.
May every religious spirit that is robbing your joy let go! May your communion with God be full and expressive.
"In thy presence is fullness of joy; in thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore." (Psalm 16:11)
This is a time to experience a new release of JOY. Therefore, the following 10-Day Prayer Focus: Restoring JOY and Gaining Strength to Break Old Cycles will prepare us to enter into the beginning of the year.

10-DAY PRAYER FOCUS: RESTORING JOY AND GAINING STRENGTH TO BREAK OLD CYCLES

Day 1: Read Psalms 4, 5, 51, and 35. Let the joy of the Lord fill you. Praise Him that He is your source and the object of your joy.

Day 2: Read Zephaniah 3. Hear Him rejoicing over you. Receive His love. Let Him pour His grace and mercy over you.

Day 3: Read Luke 1-2. Rejoice! Ask the Lord to deliver you from grief or trauma. Thank Him that He has come to deliver you from any prison the enemy has devised.

Day 4: Read Matthew 13. Ask the Lord to uncover the true joy of life to you.

Day 5: Read Acts 3. Ask the Lord to remove any spirit of infirmity that is holding you back from accomplishing His purpose. He is coming to the Gate Beautiful.

Day 6: Read John 2, Luke 10, and Mark 2. Rejoice! Clap your hands. Be willing to go into the fullness of joy. Do not stop participating halfway through the wedding feast. Ask the Holy Spirit to remove all of your religious ritual that has robbed your joy. Break any power of pharisee-ism. Thank God for the new wine.

Day 7: Read Luke 1:14,44; Acts 2:46; Jude 24; Hebrews 1:9; Matthew 5:12; Habakkuk 3:18; 2 Corinthians 7:13. All of these verses will connect you into joy. Memorize two verses. Stand up and twirl. Express to the Lord that you love Him.

Day 8: Read Isaiah 9, 11. Thank God for the shifting government. Thank Him and rejoice that change is coming. Thank Him that your territory will rejoice. Read Joel 2 and 3.

Day 9: Read Psalm 16. Declare that the fullness of God's purposes will overtake you.

Day 10: Read Revelation 1-5, and 12. Receive strength to go through the open door that has been set before you. Declare the accuser of the brethren is bound. Receive power, wealth, and favor.

HOW TO PRAY FOR ME PERSONALLY IN THE COMING YEAR

I consider that the Lord has given me a great honor to represent Him and you as a prophetic voice around the world. The prophetic voice is going through a metamorphosis and is getting ready to emerge. Many have grown weary of a lack of integrity and immaturity in the prophetic. However, I have seen the prophetic since 1986 being like a butterfly emerging out of a cocoon.

When the butterfly emerges, there is great beauty. A metamorphosized beauty is linked with holiness. Psalm 96:9 says,
"O, worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness! Tremble before Him, all the earth."
God is removing the old garment from His prophets, transforming their minds and spirits, and preparing them to speak a clear word in season.

This is a generation that is arising that will enter into a holy clarity of God's expression in the earth. Thank you for praying and believing in the gift the Lord has given me. Pray that I seek and gain wisdom for us and declare BOLDLY the word He gives me with grace!

As I have said earlier, let us hear from you and pray for you. We realize you have probably had many testings this year on your path. However, recognize that you are on a path of life. It is set before you. We urge you to press along that path and endure that path until you reach the end.

There are big boulders and potholes in the way and, often times, the path needs to be cleared out before you can begin. There may even be boulders all along the way. However, our Father in Heaven is going to watch after you from the beginning of that path until the finish-line, because He already knows the end. With this reality we should never lose faith or hope along our path.

The real issue along the path is to have a reality of who God is and what His purpose is from the beginning until the end. A verse that I want to remind you of is Jeremiah 33:3 from the Amplified:
"Call to Me and I will answer you and show you great and mighty things, fenced in and hidden, which you do not know (do not distinguish and recognize, have knowledge of and understand)."
Let God show you things that you do not know so you can walk in victory.

I am including my top TEN priorities for the next year. I would love to have you support me in doing these:

- Keeping my prophetic gift sharp by leading prayer meetings at my church, praying, and discussing prophetic paradigms with my apostolic leaders.
- Mobilizing the prayer army in America through prayer focuses and speaking engagement in states and regions.
- Assisting key apostolic anchor churches from region to region.
- Interceding to see new breakthrough in the Workplace. I am called this year to see the supply for our future released. Therefore, I will concentrate on training intercessors for breakthrough concerning a Transference of Wealth. I want to see the Lord's people increase and double their supply and influence.
- Doing conferences and seminars that will assist the Body in shifting their paradigms.
- Developing Eagles of God prophetic prayer missionary teams.
- Visiting other nations with Dr. Peter Wagner as he gathers apostolic leaders. I will also be working to see the International Coalition of Apostles, where I serve on the Apostolic Council, come into a whole new realm of victory and authority.
- Writing three books: A 50-State Tour book with Dutch Sheets, Shifting a Nation: The 50 State Prayer Tour; a book with Pam, In a World of Chaos...Don't Miss the Simple Things (this book I am very excited about). And one other book, The Issachar Anointing: Understanding Times and Seasons.
- Taking a team to retrace the disintegration of the power of the Church in the world. We will be going to Moscow, Istanbul, Rome, and Jerusalem. I will represent us as we decree a reversal of lost power.
- Gathering and participating with intercessors and leaders from all over the world in the culmination of our 40/70 Prayer Focus. This will be held in Rome and Pozzuoli, Italy, in September 2005.

Thank you for supporting my staff who help me accomplish all I do. You help support the most efficient staff in the world. Finally, thank you for praying for my family. In the midst of a very demanding year, I have watched each one of them prosper. They are a wonderful bunch who seem to be moving forward on God's path.

Pray that I have the time to enjoy watching each one of them further mature in the Lord. Daniel marries Amber Sauce next weekend. She will finish her last semester at Texas Woman's University and he will continue his call to the Police Force. They will reside in Denton.

Rebekah will continue her studies at University of North Texas.

John Mark is working and involved in bowling and the band Strategy of A Launch.
Isaac and Ethan are in Texas Tech's Distance Learning Program. Isaac also is a member of Strategy of A Launch.

Joseph, Cynthia, and their four live in Denton where they serve on staff in Youth and Children ministry.
Pam supports us all and makes sure we accomplish the call of God on our lives. She is a Saint!

Blessings,

A Time For Treasures To Be Released -- Key Dreams And Visions For The Year Ahead

Dear Watchful Worshipper:

As Hanukkah comes to a close, I am praying that your LIGHT fully manifest and be set on the hill around you to radiate for all to see. I am also praying that as we approach the Holiday Season that you will be filled with strength and power. I hope you are enjoying the 10-Day Prayer Focus on Restoring Joy and Gaining Strength to Break Old Cycles. I want to wish you a great Holiday. I wanted to share with you some things I feel the Lord is saying. I am including several dreams and visions for you to ponder over the next 21 days.

I am studying the Wise Men from Matthew 2 during this season. Bethlehem was the place, and God's perfect timing was during the days of Herod. God always has a perfect timing to shift things. His timing seems to be connected many times with a change or shift in civil government as well as a shift in spiritual government.

We need to expect big changes this coming year. We have entered the fourth year of a seven-year war season. Things will escalate in both heaven and earth to press us toward the fullness and completion of God's plan for this seven years.
Remember, the war is over God's covenant blessings and plan being released and established in the earth realm in this generation. You are warring for personal, corporate, and territorial blessings. We are also warring for the mantle of God to be released upon the next generation. Watch every anti-Christ force very carefully.

KEYS FROM MATTHEW CHAPTER TWO FOR 2005

Matthew 2:1-12 says:
"Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, saying, 'Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East and have come to worship Him.'"

- When you see the heavens shifting, be willing to follow God in a whole new way.
- There will be a great change in worship expression this year.

"When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born."

- God is troubling civil leaders. Many civil leaders will begin to request revelation from God's chosen people.
- We must be careful of an unholy alignment that occurs between civil and religious leaders.
- God's prophetic apostolic people must be uncompromising in speaking God's truth during this coming year.

"So they said to him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written by the prophet: But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the rulers of Judah; For out of you shall come a Ruler Who will shepherd My people Israel.'"

- There will be prophetic revelation uncovered this year.
- Review prophecies from your region that have not been fulfilled.
- Watch for realignment of events to bring forth God's plan this year.

"Then Herod, when he had secretly called the wise men, determined from them what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, 'Go and search carefully for the young Child, and when you have found Him, bring back word to me, that I may come and worship Him also.'
"When they heard the king, they departed; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy."

- Our spirit must be filled with joy this year, even in the midst of trying circumstances.
- We should expect to see God's glory manifesting in a new way.
- We should expect God to lead us to some new places this year for divine connections.

"And when they had come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh."

- We must poise our heart to worship at all times this year and be willing to worship in unusual ways as the Lord manifests.
- We must be willing to give in incredible new ways.
- God will open up treasures to us so our giving can increase.
- There will be a kingly release, a joyous release, and a resurrection release once we break old cycles and see in a new way.

"Then, being divinely warned in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed for their own country another way." (NKJV)

- We must allow God to bring us revelation in the night. Dreams and visions are very important this year.
- We must be willing to go a different way this year.

THE LORD WILL LEAD FORTH WITH HIS REVELATION AND INTERPRETATION THIS YEAR

The Magi was used as the name for priests and wise men among the Medes, Persians, and Babylonians. There will be supernatural movement in the earth realm in the prophetic realm. You will hear much from diviners, soothsayers, magicians, diviners, astrologers, those who prophesy by the stars, and those who predict by the new moon. However, the Lord will raise His prophets up this year to lead forth in revelation (Daniel 1:20, 2, 5:11).

Listen carefully to revelation that is coming forth in the sphere that you operate in. Much revelation will be released that encourages, exhorts, warns, and directs this year. I am praying that the GIFT OF INTERPRETATION mature in the body of Christ. Below is some key revelation that has come forth in the last month or so.

DREAMS ARE ONE WAY OF GOD SPEAKING REVELATION TO YOU

When a dream comes forth in the Body of Christ this year, we want to be sure we press in for the interpretation. In When God Speaks, we have three chapters on dream interpretation (see below for book). This is so important for this year.

A DREAM: "GO UP THE STEEP MOUNTAIN"

from Susan Stanfield, my [Chuck's] assistant

I was driving on a highway, headed toward a hotel up the road, when the road started up an enormously steep mountain. The road must have been a four-lane road, like the road from Monument to Castle Rock, Colorado, and I was in the far right (slower traffic) lane. It started raining heavily and I saw a semi-truck in my lane up ahead.

Before I could shift down and signal to change into the left lane free of the truck, an SUV from behind me whipped around me and popped into the space between me and the truck.
I remember thinking the truck would have to really slow down and I needed to still change lanes, when all of a sudden the truck slowed to a halt, and the SUV in front of me lost traction and began heading back toward my vehicle, fast. All I could do was get on the shoulder out of its way, and then I lost traction and slid/steered all the way down to the bottom, into another four-lane highway, into a sea of darkness, pouring rain, and headlights.

Even though I thought for sure I'd crash into oncoming traffic, the Lord took me through without a scratch, with the only mishap being I was now facing traffic that was stopped at the red light at an intersection. I wondered if I should pull up on the esplanade to get out of their way, but knowing I had to make the trip up the hill, I must have headed out again because I then found myself in the hotel.

I was in my room (that was sort of like "my area" rather than a four-walls designation) when my hotel-neighbor walked in. She was a large black woman and she indicated her trip up the mountain had been awful, too. She said, "I'm going to start a song and then you're going to finish it."
She sang something like, "When you start up the mountain and it looks like you can't make it to the top..."
I finished up with, "Then you keep going one inch, one inch, one inch at a time and you don't give up."

INTERPRETATION: "THIS WILL BE A YEAR OF CHANGING LANES"

This will be a year of changing lanes. The Lord is going to put some roadblocks in our path, but supernaturally shift us from one seemingly closed path into another path. We will be fearful at first, but all of a sudden we will see that the Lord has fully planted us on a new path. However, on this new path will be an intersection of choice. At this intersection, if we will trust the Lord, He will supernaturally make decisions on our behalf that will "get us up the steep hill that was ahead of us."

Do not let the steepness of your path stop you in any way this year. God will also intervene with some unusual people in our lives this year that will help us get moving in a new song that will break old cycles. Listen carefully for the beginning of the song of deliverance and you will complete this season with great joy.

"There will be a gradual advance, and I will be working in mysterious ways that you do not understand, even while you sleep."

A VISION: "DO NOT FEAR TO BE SHEARED"

at the FMC Meeting (November 16, 2004) by Chuck Pierce

I saw a LOOM. On the loom was a half-completed, wool garment. This garment had a beginning pattern that was forming.
The hand of the Lord took out the spindle and spinning wheel to ready Himself to spin more wool. He then also took out shears. He began to find sheep that were grazing, held up in stalls, or some that even seemed to be ready for slaughter. However, I could see the faces of the sheep and they were many people I knew. He would raise them up and begin to shear them.
He took that which was sheared and used their wool to begin spinning and weaving it into the garment that was half finished.

INTERPRETATION: "BRINGING COMPLETION TO WHAT HAS BEGUN IN THE PAST"

God has a mind to finish many things this season that have been begun in the past. Do not fear. Many of you think that you have been put on a shelf or sent out to pasture, but the Lord is about to find you and take you off the shelf or out of the place of confinement where you've been.

Many of us have had things held up for a season. However, during this season you have been forming a new mantle. The testings you have been going through have caused you to be prepared for the future.
Do not be afraid, for the Lord to now strip and shear you, for He is ready to use the testimony of your testings. What you have grown through will become key in the pattern for the new season.

The Lord will even remove what has seemed to be fruitful. This removal will only last about five months because He is taking what has been fruitful and weaving it into a more fruitful plan. He is now weaving the garment for us to wear into war for these next few years. Don't worry about being vulnerable. The Spirit of God will give you favor in the vulnerable place. He will hold and protect you until you fully see this new pattern that is arising.

There will be a divine connecting with others who are also being sheared. The mantle that God is preparing will win the war in the future. This is not a time to move quickly into war. Wait for the mantle and the connections, and God will multiply it into a troop. God will be finishing many things this year, and tying many loose ends -- you will no longer be confused.

The Lord has been preparing a corporate army. He is also preparing the weapons for this army. We cannot use the weapons of victory nor the armor from the last season. The garment He is preparing will lead us into harvest. Don't be afraid to lay down what God says to lay down. Get ready -- God is developing what you will wear in days ahead.

"TREASURES OF DARKNESS ARE BEING GIVEN UP AND RELEASED"

A Word by Keith Pierce at the December Firstfruits Gathering (December 4, 2004)

I hear the Lord saying, "Treasures of Darkness. Oh, Treasures of Darkness. Oh, Treasures of Darkness come forth to My people. Come forth to My people. Come forth to My people. This is a season that the mountains are breaking. This is a season that the circumstances are changing. This is a season that the bronze gates are unlocking. The hinges are breaking, the heavens are opening, and the treasures of darkness are being given up and released! Watch for closed gates to begin to open up in the next 60 days.

"I am speaking to My Shebas right now and saying, 'Shebas, fill your boats. Shebas, fill your boats with precious cargo and start your journey to the house of faith.' For I will open the doors of the Church and I will release keys that will unlock the gates of hell.
"I will change the favor of the Church and there will be a supernatural shift this year of those who are controlling the keys of the gate. I will remove keys from some and give them to others. I am sending many to come and test what the Spirit of God is doing in My House."

The Spirit of God, in all of His power and all of His wisdom, is going to begin to speak to the Queens of Sheba to begin to load their cargo and bring it to the house of God to unload. Watch for key women that God brings into your path over these next several months.

"I WILL INTERVENE IN A MOMENT'S TIME"

A Word and Song given to LeAnn Squier at the November Firstfruits Gathering (November 6, 2004)

I hear the Lord saying, "A moment of favor is worth more than a year of labor and toil in the field." We need to grab hold of this principle.
I asked God, "What does that mean?"
He said, "In one moment I can drop something into your spirit; in one moment I can drop something into your dream; in one moment you can respond to me.

"In one moment you can say I'm tithing on my gross, not on my net. In one moment those decisions, those words can open ways that have never been opened. It is not by might, not by your power, not by your strength, but by one moment of divine favor. Listen carefully this year and receive from Me. I will intervene in a moment's time.'"

DREAM: "TREASURES IN THE HOUSE"

Listen carefully to the next generation this coming year. Abby Squier, the daughter of John and LeAnn Squier, had the following dream. She came to her mother and said, "We had moved into a new house (which by the way, they have done this year) -- an older house, sitting on a hill.

"When we came inside the house, in the middle of the floor was a pool. We began to reach down and pull treasures out of the pool. It looked like those big gold doubloons. We gathered them up and began putting them in a box."

INTERPRETATION: "YOU WILL BEGIN TO RECOVER AND UNCOVER THAT WHICH IS ALREADY IN YOU"

The Lord would say, "In My house are many treasures. I am putting those in your keeping at this time. Matter of fact, I have already hidden them in the place of your dwelling. Come into a new abiding place with Me. If you will allow Me to dwell in your midst and My Spirit to be richly at home in you, you will begin to recover and uncover that which is already in you.

"I am taking you to some past places and circumstances where you missed certain treasures that I had put in your path. When you come back into that day where you diverted from My path or failed to press into My fullness, I will show you the pool that was filled with My treasures that has been waiting for you. I have been keeping them safe until now.

"This is a year for you to recover. You will gather what you have missed and you will bring them into safe keeping and a new dimension of stewardship. What you gain now must multiply. What you gather now will be your supply for days ahead. I am pulling you back to an old place so I can advance you into a new place. In you are great treasures. In your midst you will find the treasures and supply for your future."

GET SUPERNATURAL WISDOM AND STRATEGY

Keith Pierce then began to prophesy the following:

"I am releasing a new power inside of you. This is a power that will propel you outside of your present comfort zone and the walls of what you know as church. This is a power that is propelling you into the streets, highways, and byways. There is an anointing that I am releasing that will even be upon your shadow. As your shadow passes by, bondages will be broken.

"Even right now there is a strategy that is hidden in the shadow, because I AM overshadowing My people in a new way. This is a shadow of conception. This is the shadow of victory. Within this shadow is a powerful sound.

"There is a new sound of the anointing that will unlock that which has been held back this hour. This sound is the sound of a new trumpet. This is a sound that will cause the wickedness, that has held captive the treasures of My city, to be overthrown."

COME UP INTO HIS WISDOM

Marty Cassady then began to share that, several years ago, the Lord took her to the desert and she spent 7 days before the Lord, asking Him about wisdom.

She began to prophesy, "There is a supernatural wisdom that is overshadowing My people. There is wisdom in your desert. Wisdom has built her house. She has hewn out her seven pillars. Wisdom is a place. Wisdom is that place that exists in the spirit realm for My people to abide in. Lift up your head! Get your head up, for I AM releasing wisdom to My people. Wisdom will overthrow demonic forces."

Receive new strategies; strategies to overthrow the enemy in your life, on your bank account, on the savings account. Lord, we agree with you and say, "We come up! We come up! We come up into Your wisdom."

Releasing The Captives

Yolanda Ballard

(A Message of Hope)
Count your blessings one by one. Don't let the enemy rob you of them for there are many. Many this day fall into the category of being ungrateful mainly because they lack the quality of counting their blessings each day and thanking Me for them. Not saying that these are an unthankful people, but that they have fallen into a snare set by the enemy and that they cannot see or even experience all that I have blessed them with.

I have come to set free these captives and to give them life more abundantly. Yes, I have come to set them free and turn the tides on the enemy. For these people are a mighty army that the enemy has tied up their gifts and even their fruit have gone dry. The enemy had carried them away captive, because a part of their armor was not used properly, and the enemy was allowed to get into their life unaware of.

Even though there was an opening he could get in, he didn't allow it to be known that he was even there, because of deception on the part of the prisoner. But I have come to bring life by exposing the enemy's plans by shedding light on all areas of deception and exposing the enemy.

Yes, I have come to set the captives free and to raise them up so that they can stand strong once again. I have come to restore their first love and to give them zeal and fill them with My joy once again for this is their strength.

Do not be afraid or even alarmed because of the state of the church this day for I have come to do a separation, those who are ready to go on with Me and those who are just going through the motions of being sincere. For My fire will do this separation, and those who remain standing are those who are My true overcomers who I will move mightily through.

The battle has been long, and it has been heavy, but I have been preparing you through it, though it may be through financial lack or even attacks on the physical body, all has been necessary for the preparation. For I AM truly raising you up, and I AM filling you with My gifts, and I AM sending you out for war that is even greater than before for you are My "dreaded foes" toward the evil one.

You are the ones that no matter what the enemy throws your way that you will not give up on My promises, because you only see Me through your shield of faith, and you have prepared your sword that which only is true comes forth from your mouth, and this pierces the heart of the evil one, because he cannot get you to even believe a lie.

You are set free and are stronger than before, because now you are aware of the enemy's tactics having been held captive for so long. And now experiencing My true presence you are filled with My glory and light. Yes, you are My "dreaded warriors" toward the evil one, and you will reign victorious in Me.

I love you and I see you perfect through My Father's eyes. You are My bride, and I raise you up to stand bold. You will not be defeated. You will pull down strongholds by your worship alone. You will dance upon injustice. You will triumph with the shout of the trumpet, for I AM letting out My war cry across the land.

I AM uniting the camps to be one in Me. I AM stirring the gist that they may speak life and health and peace for I come to gather in My harvest and I come to romance My bride in a time of intimacy. So gather together in My secret place and prepare for I AM going to do a new thing but you must be ready.

Rest in Me for I AM faithful and I AM in control. All things have always worked for the good of My people. What the enemy meant for harm I AM now turning for good for "I AM" this day and forevermore.

Renewed Minds

Ron Powell

14 July 2004
And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: Neither give place to the devil. Ephesians 4:23-27

My Children,
The enemy likes to see you distracted and out of focus. He likes to stir dust to bring confusion, but I desire that you be sober, alert, and attentive to My will, prospering in every area of your life. I enjoy seeing My children grow stronger and walking in the path of My providential will. I enjoy seeing you grow in My power and might, doing the work of your Father undistracted.

I tell you, In these last days I am renewing many minds and refocusing those who have been distracted. I am taking back the territory of those depraved minds and “fixing” them to do My will. This will bring joy to your heart as you see the unreachable responding to the gospel message. You will rejoice over this change. Hope will be restored to many in these days, says the Lord. This change will be of Me, miraculous in nature, and your rejoicing will come because you know that it has come forth from Me. So rejoice, beloved! Rejoice in the coming work of the Lord your God, knowing that it is for your good, and for the betterment of My kingdom.

Blessings,

Repent
D J Weiss

Acts 17: 30,31
"30 In the past God overlooked such ignorance, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent. 31 For he has set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to all men by raising him from the dead."

Today I am going to be blunt - life is short and I only have a few paragraphs to use. I got today's verses from my older brother, Michael, who writes a periodic devotional. It spoke deeply to me because of the fact that the Lord has also been speaking a similar message to me, yet I had not shared it with Michael. When I saw the origin of the verses, I remembered that they come from the passage in Acts 17 where Paul is speaking with the philosophers in Athens. While I was prayer walking this morning I was listening to some things the Lord had laid on my heart and praying for Athens. You see, when I left there, I left a big part of my heart there - not just for the Olympics, but for the people of Athens.

I was thinking about these things this morning and praying how they might apply to me. Then I had a conversation with a lady who I know through transformations and she said something about the church and repentance. Then, when I got home and read Michael's devotional, I could hear that old "three times is a charm" bell ringing in my heard. Here is what Michael said - "How do you know if you are in this group? (of people who need to repent) 1)If you have already made a list of other people who need to change, you need to repent. 2) If you "know the good you are supposed to do and do not do it", you need to repent. 3) If you have hardened your heart to the suffering around you, you need to repent." (partial list.)

God's command that Paul shares here is for "all people everywhere to repent." It's simple: All people would be you and I and everywhere means just that. And repent means to do a 180 and walk away from an old attitude. Repent means that we need to change our hearts, our minds, and our attitudes. And it is not other people, it's us. You and I. Every single one of us needs to repent. Church - God has looked over more than just the ignorance of the unbelievers of this world; He has overlooked the lazy, prideful, selfish, judgmental, comfortable living of the church as well. His patience has allowed us to go on living in our comfort while thousands of people everyday perish for lack of knowledge of Him.

The foundational reason for facing repentance is that it breaks us out of strongholds in which we find ourselves. When Paul shared those words with the Athenians, he was standing on the Areopagus. He was about 100 yards from the Acropolis. The Acropolis had been built 500 years before Paul's time as a stronghold for the city. It sits 100m above the city and in a time of war the citizens would flee to that stronghold. Church - we are in a time of war, yet many have (with or without knowledge) retreated to the wrong stronghold. We have submitted our hearts to the strongholds that protect the enemy camp. One of the those strongholds is money - Jesus said it is the ROOT of all evil. Another is the stronghold of complacency - we just do not care that the world is perishing all around us. And another is the stronghold of pride - "at least we are not like THOSE people over there."

This is what repentance does: it breaks through strongholds. When you let down your guard, when you go before the Lord on your knees and ask Him to forgive you of enjoying your blindness to others needs, when you open your heart up to His healing touch - then the Lord will break through the strongholds that bind you and will help you to see the world as He does. He sees the world through eyes of love, compassion, and mercy and He longs to see all of His children - those who acknowledge Him and those who don't - come to Him and walk in the light of His love. The Father has set a day of justice when we will all face Him and be held accountable for how we handled these things. Step out of the stronghold of the enemy and walk into the over-powering presence and might of the Great King over all the Earth.

1 Kings 19:18 NKJV Yet I have reserved seven thousand in Israel, all whose knees have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

1 Peter 1:4-5 AMP [Born anew] into an inheritance which is beyond the reach of change and decay [imperishable], unsullied and unfading, reserved in heaven for you, 5 Who are being guarded (garrisoned) by God's power through [your] faith [till you fully inherit that final] salvation that is ready to be revealed [for you] in the last time.
1 Peter 1:6-9 NKJV
6 In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved by various trials, 7 that the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ, 8 whom having not seen you love. Though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory, 9 receiving the end of your faith — the salvation of your souls.

“I have a great plan for those who call on My name. I have an awesome plan for those who are willing to surrender their lives totally to Me. The enemy has some demons he has reserved for the end times battle. But know that I also have reserved some angels for these times. And those who are with you are MORE than those who are against you! I love My BRIDE and I will not abandon her regardless of circumstances. Know that I will be with you through anything you might go through. I am here with you that you can call on Me whenever you need.

There are saints in heaven and angels perched to see the end times scenario played out. They have been awaiting this time and are praying you through along with the prayers of My Son. The worship in heaven is impacting your world, even as the worship on earth is being escalated. It is time for the worship to flow out into the streets and byways. “

I had earlier seen a vision of going out with a flag and worshipping in the parking lot of a mini mall as if to say…THIS LAND BELONGS TO GOD ALMIGHTY! And I felt the pleasure of the Lord in the vision, as if He was saying well done!

“When I said, I was taking back the air waves, that includes radio, TV, and all that makes a sound in the open air. I will advance my worshippers even as you make advances on a chess board, the enemy has been advancing, but it is now time for MY worship warriors to advance into the destiny I have for them. I will give FAVOR as you go out into the marketplace . I want your voices heard and displayed for all to see and hear the love you have for ME.
I will use it mightily to tear down the ramparts of the enemy!

Come to Me and get My plan, and I will show you the first steps. Some of you have already been sowing seeds for this for years. Now there will be a coming to fruition of all that I’ve spoken over you regarding the raising up of worship and praise. I will call forth assemblies of worship and dance and there will be a heavenly invasion as you do this. There are angels coming on assignment…many of them deliverance angels who will as you praise and worship, will go forth to tear down the enemy’s strongholds.

Worship will advance until just during the worship, so many will be healed and delivered, without anyone laying hands on them. People need to see ME as the Savior instead of man, and it is time for that demonstration! I will honor those who honor ME. I will give FAVOR to those who are willing to be unashamed of Me! I love you My beloveds, and I am not ashamed of you!
Be unafraid as I call you forth in these days ahead, to share My love and hope with those around you, to share your faith and the reasons for it; to share your testimony, praise and worship of Me."

36 And Esau said, "Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and now look, he has taken away my blessing!" And he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"

Num 18:9-14 NKJV
9 This shall be yours of the most holy things reserved from the fire: every offering of theirs, every grain offering and every sin offering and every trespass offering which they render to Me, shall be most holy for you and your sons. 10 In a most holy place you shall eat it; every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you. 11 "This also is yours: the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel; I have given them to you, and your sons and daughters with you, as an ordinance forever. everyone who is clean in your house may eat it. 12 "All the best of the oil, all the best of the new wine and the grain, their firstfruits which they offer to the LORD, I have given them to you. 13 Whatever first ripe fruit is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours. Everyone who is clean in your house may eat it. 14 "Every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours.

5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite is but for a moment? 6 Though his haughtiness mounts up to the heavens, and his head reaches to the clouds, 7 Yet he will perish forever like his own refuse; Those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?' 8 He will fly away like a dream, and not be found; Yes, he will be chased away like a vision of the night. 9 The eye that saw him will see him no more, nor will his place behold him anymore. 10 His children will seek the favor of the poor, and his hands will restore his wealth. 11 His bones are full of his youthful vigor, but it will lie down with him in the dust.
12 "Though evil is sweet in his mouth, and he hides it under his tongue, 13 Though he spares it and does not forsake it, but still keeps it in his mouth, 14 Yet his food in his stomach turns sour; It becomes cobra venom within him. 15 He swallows down riches And vomits them up again; God casts them out of his belly. 16 He will suck the poison of cobras; The viper's tongue will slay him. 17 He will not see the streams, The rivers flowing with honey and cream. 1 8 He will restore that for which he labored, and will not swallow it down; From the proceeds of business He will get no enjoyment. 19 For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor, He has violently seized a house which he did not build.
20 "Because he knows no quietness in his heart, He will not save anything he desires. 21 Nothing is left for him to eat; Therefore his well-being will not last. 22 In his self-sufficiency he will be in distress; Every hand of misery will come against him. 23 When he is about to fill his stomach, God will cast on him the fury of His wrath, and will rain it on him while he is eating.
24 He will flee from the iron weapon; a bronze bow will pierce him through. 25 It is drawn, and comes out of the body; Yes, the glittering point comes out of his gall. Terrors come upon him; 26 Total darkness is reserved for his treasures. An unfanned fire will consume him; It shall go ill with him who is left in his tent. 27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him. 28 The increase of his house will depart, and his goods will flow away in the day of His wrath.

Job 21:30 NKJV For the wicked are reserved for the day of doom; They shall be brought out on the day of wrath.

Rom 11:2-5 AMP No, God has not rejected and disowned His people [whose destiny] He had marked out and appointed and foreknown from the beginning. Do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel? [Ps 94:14; 1 Kings 19:1] 3 Lord, they have killed Your prophets; they have demolished Your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life. 4 But what is God's reply to him? I have kept for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal! [1 Kings 19:18] 5 So too at the present time there is a remnant (a small believing minority), selected (chosen) by grace (by God's unmerited favor and graciousness). 6 But if it is by grace (His unmerited favor and graciousness), it is no longer conditioned on works or anything men have done. Otherwise, grace would no longer be grace [it would be meaningless]. 7 What then [shall we conclude]? Israel failed to obtain what it sought

[God's favor by obedience to the Law]. Only the elect (those chosen few) obtained it, while the rest of them became callously indifferent (blinded, hardened, and made insensible to it). 8 As it is written, God gave them a spirit (an attitude) of stupor, eyes that should not see and ears that should not hear, [that has continued] down to this very day. [Deut 29:4; Isa 29:10.]

2 Peter 2:4-11 Doom of False Teachers
For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; 5 and did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, one of eight people, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood on the world of the ungodly; 6 and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, making them an example to those who afterward would live ungodly; 7 and delivered righteous Lot, who was oppressed by the filthy conduct of the wicked 8 (for that righteous man, dwelling among them, tormented his righteous soul from day to day by seeing and hearing their lawless deeds) — 9 then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment, 10 and especially those who walk according to the flesh in the lust of uncleanness and despise authority. They are presumptuous, self-willed. They are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries, 11 whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring a reviling accusation against them before the Lord.

2 Peter 2:15-17 NKJV They have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; 16 but he was rebuked for his iniquity: a dumb donkey speaking with a man's voice restrained the madness of the prophet. 17 These are wells without water, clouds carried by a tempest, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.

2 Peter 2:18-21 NKJV Deceptions of False Teachers
For when they speak great swelling words of emptiness, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through lewdness, the ones who have actually escaped from those who live in error. 19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by whom a person is overcome, by him also he is brought into bondage. 20 For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning. 21 For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.

2 Peter 3:7 NKJV But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

Jude 6-7 NKJV And the angels who did not keep their proper domain, but left their own abode, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day; 7 as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in a similar manner to these, having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

Jude 11-13 AMP
11 Woe to them! For they have run riotously in the way of Cain, and have abandoned themselves for the sake of gain [it offers them, following] the error of Balaam, and have perished in rebellion [like that] of Korah! [Gen 4:3-8; Num 16:1; 22:1-24:25.]

12 These are hidden reefs (elements of danger) in your love feasts, where they boldly feast sumptuously [carousing together in your midst], without scruples providing for themselves [alone]. They are clouds without water, swept along by the winds; trees, without fruit at the late autumn gathering time--twice (doubly) dead, [lifeless and] plucked up by the roots;
13 Wild waves of the sea, flinging up the foam of their own shame and disgrace; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of eternal darkness has been reserved forever.

Jude 12-16 NKJV Apostates Depraved and Doomed
These are spots in your love feasts, while they feast with you without fear, serving only themselves. They are clouds without water, carried about by the winds; late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots;
13 raging waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame; wandering stars for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.
14 Now Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men also, saying, "Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints, 15 to execute judgment on all, to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."
16 These are grumblers, complainers, walking according to their own lusts; and they mouth great swelling words, flattering people to gain advantage.

Resistance
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

Letter 208 [Last Article], with its content about the national identity of the second stick Joseph/Ephraim, has stirred up an ancient spirit that despises and loathes the national identity of the (whole) House of Jacob. Even though YHVH divided the Israelite nation into two nations (ref. Ezekiel 37:22), His prophetic intent had always been to restore and bring those two nations back together again. We hear a lot about anti-Semitism, which is directed at our brother Judah and the present State of Israel, but now that the second stick, or nation, of Ephraim is being restored and exposed we should expect that that same hate-filled spirit would also try to assault the Ephraimite camp. We have several good examples of this spirit of hatred manifesting in the family of Isaac: Jacob's brother, Esau, wanted to kill him over the birthright. Joseph's brothers wanted to annihilate him over the same issue. The Israelite nation, making its way out from the house of bondage, was accosted by the Amalekites (descendants of the firstborn of Esau's family), who tried to exterminate them.

In the Psalms, King David points out that there are ten nations (all descendants of firstborn) who are trying to prevent Israel from becoming a nation: "For behold, Your enemies make a tumult; and those who hate You have lifted up their head. They have taken crafty counsel against Your people, and consulted together against Your sheltered ones. They have said, "Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation, that the name of Israel may be remembered no more" (Psalm 83:2-4).

Why would these nations want to keep Israel from becoming a single nation, or at least (to begin with), two nations? The answer is evident from the above-mentioned examples; they are jealous over a position that YHVH has conferred upon His chosen firstborn. This status has to do with His kingdom-order in the family of Noah, called the "Melchizedec office" of King and Priest. It is a position that was held by twenty three Elders from Adam to Jacob, while in the generation of Abraham YHVH made an adjustment in the position, granting it to a nation rather than to an individual (as it had been hitherto). YHVH made a covenant with His servant Abraham, that out of his sperm, through his wife Sarah, the Patriarch would father a chosen nation. This chosen nation would be the firstborn nation amongst all the nations of humanity.

Even before Abram (as he was called then), we see this plan already intact, as in the days of Paleg (another firstborn whose name means "to divide") YHVH divided the nations according to the twelve tribes of Israel: "When the Most High divided their inheritance to the nations, when He separated the sons of Adam [which would have been during the days of Peleg], He set the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the children of Israel. For YHVH's portion is His people; Jacob is the place of His inheritance" (Deut. 32:8-9). Today we cannot afford to ignore YHVH's plan for the redemption of creation, and the fact that we have a very active spiritual enemy who does not want this to come to pass. Remember, our battle is not against flesh and blood: "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places" (Ephesians 6:12).

Each time YHVH set off a restoration work in the People of Israel, the enemy immediately stepped in and tried to hinder the work. Daniel for example, knew the times of the restoration and proceeded to intercede and repent, but was opposed by the Prince of Persia and the Prince of Greece (two of Satan's most powerful princes, who help him govern the dual religious and political system of his kingdom).

In the days of Ezra the enemies' tactics were to try and join forces with the Jews, hoping in this manner to confuse and keep the workers from succeeding in carrying out their task. When Ezra declined their proposal, they made an attempt to get the authorities to bring the work to a halt. In the days of Nehemiah, for instance, the king gave permission and sent letters to the governors of the province authorizing Nehemiah to come and seek the wellbeing of the Children of Israel, and to restore Jerusalem. However, "When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard of it, they were deeply disturbed that a man had come to seek the well-being of the children of Israel" (Nehemiah 2:10). Why were they "deeply disturbed"? Why, when the king gives permission to restore YHVH's dwelling place, does this attitude flare up in the hearts of these two men?

Let’s watch the progression of the attitude and activity of Sanballat, and of others who were spurred by the enemy through pride and jealousy, to stop the work. “But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they laughed at us and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?" (Nehemiah 2:19).

Notice how the word is spreading to others, and in spite of being aware of the king’s injunctions they lie in order to discourage the workers. Their attitude has now progressed from jealousy to lying, and then to laugher and malice. Incidentally, these attitudes are not only directed toward Nehemiah and the workers, but indirectly also toward the king.

The attacks, however, only helped Nehemiah and the laborers to organize themselves and work more cooperatively, and so did the enemies’ tactics and attitudes change also. “But it so happened, when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, that he was furious and very indignant, and mocked the Jews. And he spoke before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, ‘What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they complete it in a day? Will they revive the stones from the heaps of rubbish -- stones that are burned?’ Now Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, ‘Whatever they build, if even a fox goes up on it, he will break down their stone wall’" (Nehemiah 4:1-3).

Since Sanballat wasn’t getting his way, he had become furious and indignant and continued mocking the Jews. He also began to gather up an army of people around him in order to carry out his sinister plan. The workmen, however, through prayer and keeping a watchful eye on the enemy, managed to press on with the work.

“Now it happened, when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the walls of Jerusalem were being restored and the gaps were beginning to be closed, that they became very angry, and all of them conspired together to come and attack Jerusalem and create confusion” (Nehemiah. 4:7-8).

Things are getting progressively worse, as more are added to the ranks of the enemy, and are being filled with fierce anger toward what YHVH is doing in the restoration of the City of the King, His dwelling place. The development from jealousy to hatred is short only of murder. Up to this point the enemies have not succeeded to stop the work, but now they must come and create fear and confusion amongst the workers: “And our adversaries said, ‘They will neither know nor see anything, till we come into their midst and kill them and cause the work to cease’" (Nehemiah 4:11). In order to move right into the camp the wolves are now going to cover themselves in sheep’s’ clothing, this being the most dangerous of all of the enemy’s tactics. They will call you brother and say that they are standing with you in the work, but this is just a cover up for the jealousy, hatred and eventual murder, which they are harboring in their hearts.

Do study how Nehemiah and the others responded to each progressive attack of the enemy, as there is much to be learnt from this on how to proceed in the work of the restoration of the two nations/sticks and the whole House of Israel. Warn those who are cooperating with the enemy of a faithful covenant-keeping Elohim, that it might be wise to take the advice of the great sage Gamaliel, whose attitude was summed up in the following words: "And now I say to you, keep away from these men and let them alone; for if this plan or this work is of men, it will come to nothing; but if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it -- lest you even be found to fight against God" (Acts 5:38-39).

Restoration
Danny Steyne

Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted. {2} Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. (Gal 6:1-2)

Now when Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went up to him and asked, "Are you for us or for them?" "Neither," he replied, "but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come." Then Joshua fell facedown to the ground in reverence, and asked him, "What message does my Lord have for his servant?" (Joshua 5:13-14)

“Danny, you know that if you hang out with that guy, many of the others are going to have a difficult time with you, you are going to ostracize yourself from the major pastors in this city!” The words were reminiscent of earlier words where I had walked through a difficult season of life and others withdrew from me because of events that unfolded in my family that weren’t very pretty. I recalled that time as “the time all my friends abandoned me!”

This “brother” had been through it all. It seems that he wasn’t the perfect pastor, and he made some pretty poor choices at critical times that resulted in some parishioners getting angry with him. But then there were the variables, like rent being tripled on the church facility they had from the owner for no apparent reason… like a “brother” who devised ways to bring about this pastors demise … or the leader in his church who didn’t want their sin to be called sin… or the speaker who came in and managed to hide the fact that he was living in adultery… or simply just the apparent withdrawal of favor. I would be foolish to believe this brother was perfect… I know myself… I know many others… amazingly God made us all human! I am sure there were things he did that weren’t exactly right… but perfection is not the mark of Grace… God’s Presence in a less than perfect life is! God had and has a destiny for this brother, and it is the mark of a believer, and a mark of a leader, to restore and heal and encourage this brother towards the goal of His Destiny in Jesus.

Restoration. It’s a difficult process. It could cost you relationships, it could cost you reputation… hey, for Jesus, it cost Him His life! And yet restoration is the “final” focus for us as believers. It is the coupe de grace that God will reveal to the ages of His great and power love that works as described in Ephesians 2:7… “in order that in the coming ages he might show the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus.”

Restoration is the “timing” of the Lord for His return. It is the evidence of the Lord’s presence in our midst. It is the fulfillment of His destiny in our lives and in the lives of those around us. If I can be so bold, it is what happens when God is in a people, because it is the evidence of Heaven on earth. “He must remain in heaven until the time comes for God to restore everything, as he promised long ago through his holy prophets. (Acts 3:21)

And yet restoration has taken a back seat to criticism, judgment, opinion, and debate. These four attitudes are communicated as “discernment, wisdom, correction, and righteousness” but really have nothing in common with God’s purpose for restoration.

Who is the real enemy? Where does he hail from? “Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ. For the accuser of our brothers, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down.” (Revelation 12:10) The real victory comes when accusation is hurled down! The heart of the Father is so much more for the broken than what our human self-righteousness can achieve by our criticism, innuendos, and judgments.

Maybe, just maybe, the heart of the Father is like what is in His Book. “Then I saw this pastor, this Christian leader, who was so broken and fallen, finally standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan was standing at his right side to accuse him. (I actually had a few things to say too!) BUT THE LORD said to satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD, who has chosen this one, rebuke you! Is not this man a burning stick snatched from the fire?"

Now this pastor was wearing a lot of horrible stuff, that seemed to be really not fitting for the very Presence of God, I mean he was broken, and dirty, and seemed like he had really messed up… but there he was standing before the angel in all his filth and humanity. The angel said to those who were standing before him, those who “are spiritual”, those who are close enough to see and realize the humanity and failures, they are the ones he said to , "Take off his filthy clothes."

Then he said to this pastor, "See, I have taken away your sin, I’ve removed the past from you, I no longer count it against your future, I no longer remember the frailty of your human failures… AND I will put rich garments on you, garments of destiny, garments of your future, garments of all that I have proclaimed over your life from eternity past that satan thought he could destroy through accusation, and ostracizing you and causing others to find you contemptible ." (It reminded me of another man who ate pig slop and was embraced by a Father who gave him his own robe to cover his filth!)

Then I said, AH HA… “Did you see that, did you see what the Father did for this man! It’s time to prophesy life to him again… it’s time to …Father can I join in with blessing what you are blessing… will Heaven join me in the celebration of this restoration if I give this man who so many have loved to hate a word of encouragement and hope … "Put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him, while the angel of the LORD stood by and watched… and smiled… and rejoiced… because this man was NOW in the place of his destiny… Clothed in his destiny … Empowered for His Destiny!!! (see Zechariah 3:1-5)

I once heard a seasoned messenger of God say, “The reason God hasn’t given the church discernment is because they would use it to criticize and destroy each other!” I absolutely know this to be true, both personally, and by observation. It is the rare servant who will use discernment to assist and help the brother who has fallen, the one who has stumbled, the one who is nowhere near the destiny that God has for their lives… but that is the call of God for us as believers.

“Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted.” (Galatians 6:1) The focus for most has been the “watch yourself” not the “restore gently”… and as a result many unrestored lay in heaps by the side of the road, waiting for a “good Samaritan” to come to their aid.

You see, people who have been damaged in reputation and who no longer hold the favor and attention of the “righteous” are blemishes on the good reputation that you may have. At least that’s what I’ve been told. And it is certain, that is what I have witnessed. You become guilty by association; you become “tainted” by the hand that you are trying to restore!

I love Jesus. He is so un-pharisaical. He is so radically committed to this process of healing and restoration in people’s lives that He doesn’t care what others think about Him in His practice of the Father’s Heart! It seems that Jesus was not interested in earning either a reputation or a crowd! In Matthew 11:19 Jesus Himself portrays the attitudes of others who have judged Him… “ The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and "sinners." ' But wisdom is proved right by her actions." In the story of the Samaritan who was wounded and laying on the side of the road, the favor of God only rested on the one who did the Father’s Heart… the one who picked up, carried, helped, comforted, healed, and restored the fallen, broken man.

The story was never about us in the first place. It’s not my reputation that matters… if Jesus could make of Himself no reputation (Philippians 2:7)… what on earth am I trying to do by making a reputation for myself. I would much rather follow in His footsteps than any other footsteps or ministry or church or pastor or friend!

And so, we are called into this ministry of “associating” with the broken, with the warriors who once wielded swords, but now only have the ability to nurse their wounds. “All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation.” (2 Corinthians 5:18-19)

Hang out with the broken. Hang out with the ones who no one wants to hang out with… you might find Jesus there! You might find His ministry there.

You see to “restore” someone, means to absolutely bring them back to the place of their destiny and cause them to be fit again to do that which they are for! This is the ministry we’ve been called to, but yet so often run from for fear of being labeled or ostracized or or or…..

I love the ministry of Jesus. I just absolutely can’t find a greater example of any ministry that touched everybody. To those who thought they had “it” he made sure they knew that He didn’t think they did. To those who had nothing, he made sure they knew that they had everything. Blessed are the poor… blessed are those who suffer… blessed are those who thirst…. blessed are those who hunger.

The ministry of Jesus has always been a ministry of reconciliation and not a ministry of condemnation. That is the ministry we have been called to. It’s a ministry of reaching out to the broken, to the barren, to the fallen, to those who may have even experienced a season of “fame” next to us, but who through their own decision or the decisions of others, or simply because we live in a fallen world, they ended up somehow existing in the unenviable place of “outside the camp.” These are the ones I want to hang out with! I think Jesus hangs out there! I think we can sense the very robes of eternity walking through our midst when we have no fear that others will judge us because we know the One who judges justly, and He did this stuff too!

I call them bones. Once with flesh, once with life, once with purpose, once living in the destiny to which they were called, but now apparently devastated… now apparently without hope… now apparently without life… even the marrow has dried out!

I love these bones. These bones represent to me the most significant of all miracles in the Bible. They represent to me the army that couldn’t breathe that becomes the army that will overcome, overpower, overthrow the gods of this age and breathe life into this world!

Listen to the words recorded by Ezekiel in regards to the washed up, the used up, the never again, the devastated, the useless, the broken, the fallen, the dried out!

“The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and set me in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry. He asked me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I said, "O Sovereign LORD, you alone know."

Then he said to me, "Prophesy to these bones and say to them, 'Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD! This is what the Sovereign LORD says to these bones: I will make breath enter you, and you will come to life. I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin; I will put breath in you, and you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone. I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them.

Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the breath; prophesy, son of man, and say to it, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe into these slain, that they may live.'" So I prophesied as he commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet--a vast army.

Then he said to me: "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of my people. They say, 'Our bones are dried up and our hope is gone; we are cut off.' Therefore prophesy and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: O my people, I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them; I will bring you back to the land of your destiny. Then you, my people, will know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. I will put my Spirit in you and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD.'" (Ezekiel 37:1-14 NIV)

There it is … the people that will rise up as the army, aren't the ones who are perfect … they aren't the ones who have managed to avoid all appearance of death… they are the ones who have walked through the valley of death. These are the ones and who found that there, in that awful place, the One who is close to the brokenhearted, the One who loves raising the dead, the One who hands out the ministry of reconciliation and restoration… has given them their destiny back.

He has brought them to a place of victory and power and fullness because they have walked into the battle, they have already died, their reputation is meaningless now, their accomplishments of the past are merely works of the flesh… they have died and their life is now hidden with Christ in God… they are the walking dead men and women… they are the army of Ezekiel … they are the Army of Joel that strikes fear into the heart of the enemy, because having been slain, having been in the crucible of fire and death, the loved not their own lives… but retained the life of God in them and rose as an army that knows that God is faithful… God sustains… God restores… God gives hope… God places us back in the destiny that He ordained from the foundations of the earth, because the story is not about you or me… but GOD who is all and in all, and through whom we live and breathe and have our being!

The story is about Him… and He has chosen the foolish to confound the wise… He has chosen to give us this ministry… He has chosen to take the weak things … He has chosen an Army of Bones … against the counsel of the Pharisees, against the counsel of the naysayer, against the counsel of the self-righteous, against the counsel of the self-proclaimed prophets of purity… To those who are the broken: He has chosen you oh dry bones… He has chosen you. Stand up … it's time for life to come back into you. Stand up… it's time for you to be restored to your destiny. Breathe in… feel once again eternity, destiny, and purpose fill your life and restore you to the place God has called you to walk in.

To those who willingly stand in the way of restoring one who is broken: There is an army rising around you… but it's only made up of broken soldiers … it's time to fall on the Rock and be broken… "Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit. He who falls on this rock will be broken to pieces, but he on whom it falls will be crushed." (Matthew 21:43-44)

The time of restoration is upon us! The Kingdom of Heaven is here! The army of Bones is rising!

The Revelation Of The Favored Son ... The Tribe Of Joseph Is About To Rise!

Throughout the world, something unprecedented is happening, the dead are being raised in more frequency than I have witnessed in my lifetime. In fact, it seems that with believers in the Western World, there is a pre- occupation that "resurrection power" must now be released in the Western World in fulfillment of the promises of Jesus to do the "greater works".

Something else has also been happening, supernaturally, and beyond the norm. Believers have been gathering together in homes, churches, communities, and conferences spanning the denominational and non- denominational churches without desire for specific recognition.

The favored son is being revealed. The Tribe of Joseph is beginning to stand up!

Genesis 37:3 tells us that Joseph was loved more than any of his other sons and because of this "favoritism" he was given a robe of many colors. That robe was far more than just a multi-colored robe, it represented far more than favoritism, it represented Joseph’s authority over each of his brothers. Each tribe’s had "color" in their robes, specific color that represented them and their uniqueness, Joseph’s robe included each of their colors and all their unique nesses, Joseph’s robe gave him authority beyond the parameters of his own tribe, into the tribes of his brothers. Even his father was unwittingly declaring prophetically that his dreams of having authority over his family would one day come about. Joseph was being set apart from his brethren, he was being set up not only to a divine purpose, but also to a divine difficulty that would facilitate the making of a man of character who could handle the anointing and authority of God flowing through his life.

Joseph’s life was full of difficulty, but he never wavered from his purpose and his heart remained free from bitterness. His life was filled with hardship and choices of character and integrity that brought him repeatedly to the place where only God could vindicate. I am sure that God’s timetable was often much longer than Joseph’s, but he allowed no acrimony in his life. The sign of a Joseph Generation is that they will not allow pain and hardship in anyway to taint their love for God and his purposes for them in the earth. They truly will become "better" not "bitter".

Joseph’s willingness to endure persecution and hardship and even the loss of his family resulted in the favor again of his father, he received a double portion of blessing that came back to his family. The blessing that he received far outweighed all the other blessings that were given that day through Israel. As the people of God left Egypt the "Tribe of Joseph" ceases to exist under his name, and the tribes of Manasseh and Ephraim rise up as mighty tribes of the sons of Joseph. Their allotted portions in the promised land are as significant as any of the other tribes, not only that, but when they ask Joshua for more, he gives it to them. Favor surrounded the life of Joseph, but the early years seemed to be years where there was no favor.

Today there is a generation rising,. A generation that has walked through the pain and difficulty of carrying promises without evidence of fulfillment anywhere in sight. Repeatedly they are called upon to serve and they serve well, but it so often seems that just when they reach the point where destiny is going to be fulfilled, they are brought back to a place of obscurity and hardship and their message is forgotten. But that is where Joseph’s are made! And there is still a tribe of Joseph that must arise!

Those that passage through those times with joy and without bitterness are those who will reach the place of promise and destiny and form the "Tribe of Joseph"!

The Anointing Is In The Bones
Prior to Joseph’s death he asks that his bones be carried back to the land of Promise. This was more than simply a nice burial gesture, the Bible speaks of bones in a unique way.

"Once while some Israelites were burying a man, suddenly they saw a band of raiders; so they threw the man's body into Elisha's tomb. When the body touched Elisha's bones, the man came to life and stood up on his feet." ~2 Kings 13:21

Joseph understood that something of God rested on his life. He had no ability other than that which God gave him, and all the hardship and difficulty had allowed for a measure of God in his life that he wanted to leave as an inheritance for his people. Joseph wanted the anointing of His life (the favor & wisdom & wealth of God) to be taken with the people of Israel to the Land of Promise (even today much of the worlds wealth is held by the Jewish people) , the anointing followed him!

The ancients believed that "power" and "anointing" rested in the bones. Enemies would burn, crush & break bones to prevent "power" and "anointing" from continuing on beyond the life of their adversary.

The bones of the righteous were to be buried with respect and dignity, the bones of the wicked were to be burned, crushed, given to dogs and eradicated from the earth.

The Valley Of Dry Bones
Generations pass, the bones of Joseph, the bones of the righteous , the bones of those who have carried the heart after God, with no bitterness, those with powerful anointing, lay before the prophet Ezekiel. The nation is in a shambles, is there hope anymore? He looks at the bones scattered before him, the desire is for that anointing to once again fill the earth. The Spirit whispers, "prophesy son of man,. prophesy!" The bones come together, the sinews and muscles and flesh form around the bones, but resurrection power has not yet happened.

"Prophesy to the breath!!!! Let resurrection power come!"

And as he did, the vast army arose. The Army of Joel 2, the Army of the Lord ,. The Tribe of Joseph,. The generation of Resurrection Power.

We are living in the time where BREATH is being poured out , RESSURECTION POWER,. The BREATH OF GOD, God has been pulling things together prophetically, but now the four winds are beginning to blow by the Spirit on the corpse that surrounds the anointing, the anointing of the ages ,. The tribe of Joseph is about to rise,. This generation is the Joseph Generation,. The Anointed Generation. The one that wears the colors of many tribes, and many nations ,. These days, right now, are the days where God is awakening that generation with the Breath of Life , it is time to prophesy to the corpse, LIVE, BREATHE , Ressurect.

Now is the season where the Tribe of Joseph will arise, not in one denomination, not in one group or movement, but spanning the globe, "Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the breath; prophesy, son of man, and say to it, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe into these slain, that they may live.'" So I prophesied as he commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet--a vast army. ~ Ezekiel 37:9-10

Unprecedented Days

Unprecedented Days - Also Coming To USA

We are living in the midst of the most remarkable period in world history. Around the world... and across the street are evidences of God's eternal purpose being born out in the lives of men and women. A simple movie about the "foolishness" (see 1 Corinthians 1:18) of the Cross has sparked "controversy" (or maybe it's conviction) around the world. People everywhere are talking about Jesus...

Nations are being touched... I recently read that over a million and half people have been saved through the ministry of Heidi and Rolland Baker in Mozambique ... almost a quarter of a million Muslims have bowed the knee to Jesus in Iraq, Jordan, Syria, Tunisia, Afghanistan, Sudan, Morocco and Pakistan ... China is seeing twenty-five thousand come to know Jesus every day! New Zealand has broken out in Revival... thousands coming to know Jesus in recent days... AND NOW... NOW it is time for us.

We are living in the time of Harvest... around the world and across the street... in the homes and in the businesses... in the bars and in the barrios... in the the Nations... AND IN OUR NATION! What a time to be alive.

This past weekend we met with a core group of those who want to see the fulfillment of the promises made to us, both as a nation, as well as individuals and families. I believe we literally are standing on the threshold of the most powerful move that has ever visited our nation...and for the first time we are looking in! It was for this Harvest that we are created.... it is for this explosion of power that we have waited... and now it is here!

Your time of inheritance has come... the fullness of the Spirit is to rest on you... Praise and Worship are to explode from your gates and draw all men to the footstool of (not another movement, not another man, not another set of wonderful meetings, not another impotent model that has the appearance of God but denies His Power!)... but the footstool of the Lamb!

The bones (the remnant... the dry, ... those who have withdrawn from the "phony religious stuff" and who want to see the real deal ....the ones who long ago sat down, withdrew into caves, and said, "This can't be all God intended, I've heard of greater things happening in the Nations, and I want it for the USA!") ... these bones are being gathered... for the most exciting prophesy that is breathing out NOW ... LIVE... BREATHE... ARISE... OH MIGHTY ARMY!

Yesterday as we broke bread with a table of leaders and prophets... the words of Bob Jones summed it up... "And now it will happen here!" (USA)

Restoration Movement

Mike Dowgiewicz

Mike & Susie Dowgiewicz Jul 22, 2004

There's a Movement throughout the World to Restore the Foundational Principles of the Early Church.

Why Now? Because God Keeps His Promises!

It hasn't gone unnoticed in the last fifty years that God is fulfilling His promises to the Jewish people as He restores them to Israel. " Therefore say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "I will gather you from the nations and bring you back from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you back the land of Israel again""(Ezekiel 11:17).

Through His compassionate mercy, the Lord is also restoring the Hebraic foundations of the early Church. Jesus Christ (Yeshua Ha Mashiach) came in the fullness of time "to give his people the knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins, because of the tender mercy of our God, by which the rising sun will come to us from heaven"(Luke 1:77,78). Now, in conjunction with the "tender mercy of our God" to the Jewish people, the Hebraic foundations are being restored to a Gentile Church around the world.

Biblical Basis #1 for the Restoration

"Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord, and that he may send the Christ, who has been appointed for you - even Jesus. He must remain in heaven until the time comes for God to restore everything, as he promised long ago through his holy prophets" (Acts 3:19-21).

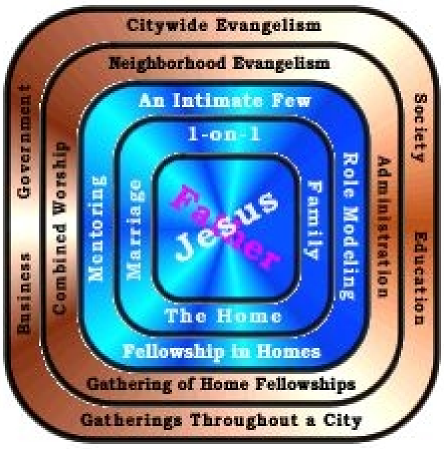
God's Purpose for Restoration Ministries:

1. Awareness

Proclaiming through written word and instruction the Hebraic foundations of thought and practice upon which the earliest Church was founded.

2. Equipping

Enabling God's people to live out the restorative truths so that His purposes may be fulfilled in and through His people. Each of the books and training materials produced by Restoration Ministries is one segment of a family of information related to the Restoration. Each publication is designed to stand alone and to equip the followers of Jesus to apply these truths and principles to their lives. The real strength of each publication is found in both its content and its interrelationship to the other facets of the restoration.



The above diagram represents the Hebraic priorities of the early Church. These priorities begin with Jesus at the center and flow out from there.

Priority #1 - Jesus and You

A biblically Hebraic understanding of your relationship with Jesus as a pilgrimage begins with the day you lovingly put your full trust and reliance in Him as Lord of your life. Unflagging trust in His Lordship and faith-filled obedience to His Word reveal His undeniable reality to you as His disciple. Only through an ongoing walk in the love of Jesus can you love others in the manner He has prescribed. The publications of Restoration Ministries International are worthless to you without the centrality of a loving trust in Jesus as the focus of your life. Only the Holy Spirit can accomplish this in you and empower you to live a life of love, endurance, patience, and thanksgiving (see Col. 1:10,11).

Priority #2 - Your Home:

A. Marriage - The Christ Whom you seek to penetrate all your relationships needs to be present first in your home. The essence of a Hebraic-Christian marriage of the early Church could be, "If you want to know the extent of my relationship with Jesus Christ, look for it in the love He has given me for my spouse." God desires couples to view the love in their marriage as a visible representation of their relationship with Jesus. So vital an illustration of intimacy is marriage that God refers to Himself as the husband of His wife Israel. Jesus is called the Bridegroom of His bride, the Church. Just as marital love is a commitment meant to deepen and grow throughout the marriage, so is the Covenant union with our Father meant to increasingly draw His child (whether single or married) into a deeper trust-filled relationship with Him. God has designed a husband to draw strength from his wife, his nurturing companion. She is the suitable life partner given him by God to complement him as they follow His purposes and plans together.

B. Family -God is restoring the home as the primary building block for Christian growth. The Hebraic followers of Jesus of the earliest Church recognized that their relationship with their Lord and the relationships in their homes were inseparably linked: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up"(Deuteronomy 6:5-7). Children are a heritage and reward from the Lord. Fathers are to "bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:4). God's purpose for a child is best guided by parents who know their children's personalities and inclinations intimately. Such profound awareness guides parents to shepherd their children into the life decisions and vocation just right for each of them. Shalom beit, the peace and harmony of the home, is an essential goal for each home. A home should be a refuge and sanctuary for each family member where love can prosper.

Priority #3 - Fellowship in Homes

God is reestablishing a key element of the earliest Church: the home fellowship as an extension of the home for spiritual growth and supportive relationships. The earliest believers met in homes with glad and sincere hearts to break bread and to "spur one another on toward love and good deeds"(Hebrews 10:24). The home fellowship relationship of the early Church is a seven-day-a-week commitment to one another. Key purposes of a home fellowship are to support and uphold righteousness, and to develop increasingly supportive relationships that point each other toward greater dependence on God. Marriages and families torn apart by death or divorce can be nurtured in the "extended family" of the home fellowship. Within this environment mentoring by sages and role modeling by those who have lived a life for Christ can guide those younger in their walk with the Lord. Through the family and home fellowships, God is restoring sacrificial load-bearing love to relationships. The nation of Israel's ability to respond to God's purposes was based on their relational progression from individual, to family, to clan, to the twelve tribes that comprised the nation. Following this pattern, the Church is built on the individual, family, home fellowship, congregation, and congregations throughout a city. The ultimate outpouring of this relational model into their city will enable congregations to impact their society, education system, business spheres, and government.

The Israelites

God has promised great blessing to those who bless the seed of Abraham, the Israelites. Over 80% of His promises to them regarding their restoration to Israel have already been fulfilled. When God pours out on them a "spirit of grace and supplication" (Zechariah 12:10), they will be cleansed and will see Jesus the Messiah (Yeshua Ha Mashiach) as Lord. The Gentile Christian community must remember Paul's warning:"I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, so that you may not be conceited: Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in"(Romans 11:25). Gentile believers can pray, and through humility, work to undo the past injustices carried out by the Church against the Jewish people.

Remain Strong
Musa Opiyo

June 13, 2004
There is a current attack against My Body of believers and warriors to undermine their efforts through fear and intimidation. The enemy is using examples of past failures and defeat to paralyse your faith and to bring discouragement at your door. Yet have I not said that greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world? I AM the Almighty. I AM he who formed the heavens and the earth by the power of My hand. When I say that I am for you and not against you, you have no reason to fear because your faith in Me shall over-ride all fear.

Many of you are in a situation where, like Gehazi, Elisha's servant, you see the armies of hell marching toward you and have already despaired and resigned to giving up hope. Yet look up for your redemption draweth nigh in the form of the unseen chariots of fire who shall overcome and fight the battle with you. I have not left you without hope. I have not put you in a situation where I don’t think you will succeed because it shall not be your strength but the strength of the Holy Spirit within you. Fight the good fight of faith. You are a new breed of winners and overcomers who shall take the forces of hell by storm.

Blessings,

Obey Your Thirst
Musa Opiyo

June 22, 2004
The Lord reminded me today of the slogan used by Sprite, the soft drink company that says, "Obey Your Thirst". While pondering about this, the Lord had this to say:

"You have been through the times of tribulation and pain where in many instances the flow of My presence has felt like a trickle, yet I would say unto you today, obey your thirst and cry out to Me and I will 'obey your request' and fill you to the overflowing with My living waters. Do not seek again fulfillment from the broken cisterns of your life that run dry, for they have run their course and have fulfilled what they were made to do, but look to Me to fill you again with the fresh clean water of My Word, My power and My Spirit. Times of refreshing are on the horizon, says the Lord."

> Rev 22:1
> And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and from the Lamb.
> Isa 55: 1-3
> Ho! Everyone who thirsts, Come to the waters; And you who have no money, Come, buy and > eat. Yes come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend money for what is not bread, and your wages for what does not satisfy? Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good, And let your soul delight itself in abundance. Incline your ear and come to Me. Hear and your soul shall live; And I will make an everlasting covenant with you- The sure mercies of David

In Christ,
Musa Opiyo

Encouragement
Musa Opiyo

I just thought I would encourage you today with the following:

Early this morning we dropped my sister off to the airport as she was going back to our home country of Kenya for a family reunion. I noticed that because of the fact that it was summer, the skies were already bright at around 4 am, quite different from when I had traveled in the winter with darkened skies then.

I remember taking off and looking out the window, seeing a grim atmosphere of rain and clouds, yet as we flew above the clouds, the sky suddenly lit up with the sunshine. I realised that no matter what the weather condition down below, the sun remained shining overhead.

Whatever storms or experiences you are going through in your life right now, as you let the wind of the Spirit carry you to the loving presence of God, the sun is always shining. As your perspective is kept upward, as you look up for your redemption, the sun (Son) shall always shine down upon you according to his loving mercies and favor.

For the Lord is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

Blessings,
Musa.

Resurrection And New Beginnings

Patsy Shelton

This Season of Resurrection and New Beginnings

Aug 4, 2004

Take a deep breath My people and get ready for incredible things in this eighth month. I will both do a work of resurrection and the new beginnings that many have waited and longed for will begin to be manifested in this time. I am beginning a season of resurrection and new beginnings.

I will resurrect that which My people had thought was dead. Prophecies that have lain on the shelf even for years will not begin to come to pass, saith the Lord.

Dreams and visions that I birthed within the hearts of My people that have not come to pass will be birthed in this time. Discouragement has overtaken My people and they have thought that these dreams and visions were even birthed out of the realm of their own souls since they had not seen them manifest. But manifest they will. In this season, saith the Lord God, I will begin to cause the foundations to be laid for dreams and visions to come to pass. But, do not despise the day of small beginnings. The dreams and visions of My people will begin to manifest in small ways but I will cause them to flourish and they will come to maturity. Dreams and visions will no longer tarry. I have ordained them to be birthed into the earth in this time.

The previous season was a season of preparation, testing, and positioning. Many of My own I have moved them out of their comfort zones so that I could reveal to them the inner most parts of their hearts. Preparing, testing and positioning so that they would be able to flow unhindered into all that I have prepared for them.

Awake My people, awake to this new day. Awake into a new spiritual realm that no other generation has experienced before. Awake to the season where promises that I whispered in your ears even years ago will now come forth touched by My Glory. Everything that I will do in this time will be cloaked in My Glory.

Amongst My people there will be joy unspeakable and many will be drunk in the Holy Ghost. I am serving royal wine. Wine that has been fermented and will cause drunkenness. Some will choose not to drink of this wine for fear that they will loose their dignity but others that are lost in My love will not be able to get their fill of this royal wine.

A new sound and a new song will come forth in this season of resurrection and new beginnings. There will be joy, gladness, and jubilation in My camp. There will be singing, shouting, and rejoicing as I begin to do these marvelous things for, through, and in My people. I will hold back no longer but I will release those things that I have promised that I would do. Ah, I have not forsaken nor forgotten My own, saith the Lord God.

I will breathe new life into sick bodies. I will breathe new life into finances and I will breathe new life into the spirits of My own. This new season will bring forth the miraculous and the knowledge of their God will cover the face of the earth. I am going to do things in unprecedented ways and there will be no question that it is I that have done these things.

So awake and take heart for I have opened doors that no man can shut. Each door that I open will lead to the fulfillment of their purpose, calling, and destiny. Each door that I open will lead to another door and each door that opens will be greater than the previous door. Each door will lead to a higher level and promotion. These doors that I will open, these doors of new beginnings, will cause My own to soar into realms of My Glory.

Some of My people in this time will make the transition from the realm of faith into the realm of My Glory where nothing is impossible. Living in My Glory where faith is not needed but rather it is a place of partaking of My Kingdom. Appropriating the inheritance that I have prepared for them from the foundation of the earth. Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which I have prepared for them that love Me. But now in this season of resurrection and new beginnings eye will see and ear will hear the things that I have prepared for My own for now, now, now saith the Lord, it will spring forth.

That which My people have believed me for and longed for in their hearts will begin to manifest in this season of resurrection and new beginnings, said your God.

Returning And Rest

Becky McLendon

I submit a little from the notes I wrote while on our trip to Colorado and New Mexico this week. I have been reading as much as I could on holiness: God's and "ours". It seems in all the Lord has had me read, the two main things about holiness in the people of God are this: 1) by faith TRUSTING and OBEYING God in our every step, and 2) by faith, RETURNING to God in repentance for sins we do. As His people we do not "commit" sin (habitually practice sin or "keep" it in our hearts), but it is obvious that we do act sinfully. When we act sinfully, we CONFESS our sin, and He is faithful and just to forgive that sin and cleanse us of ALL unrighteousness. The forgiveness is instant. The cleansing (sanctification) is a long process that, by FAITH, we yield to and DESIRE that His truth be established EVEN IN OUR INWARD PARTS. Amen.

But yet in it (the desolate cities/land) shall be a tenth, and it shall return (turn back, turn oneself, turn around, return, spiritual return to God, conversion, turn from sin, from anger, from worship of idols, to restore, cause to return, refresh, movement back to point of departure...and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance (something stationary, monumental stone, a monument, a pillar, a column, a stump, a trunk, a stock or stem) is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof. Isaiah 6:13

God's "tenth" is the "whole tithe brought into His storehouse." One sheep in every ten is marked by the Shepherd with a swab dipped in wine. (dyed in the wool) for His keeping. God's tenth are those who RETURN to Him. The one leper of the ten who returns to the TRUE PRIEST. The "tenth" do not continue in their sin, but rather they continually practice REPENTANCE (Returning to God) no matter how far they have wandered. Remember in that dream where I went to the edge of the cliff and said, "STOP, BACK UP, and TURN AROUND. Go ALL THE WAY BACK TO WHERE WE STARTED". This is the returning which is continually practiced by God's "tenth." Read Isaiah 1:21 - 2:24 also.

Now faith is the SUBSTANCE (concrete that has set up and can be walked on and used for a basis or foundation.) Abraham and Sarah represent this kind of faith. In spite of their "side trip" with Hagar, they did conceive the son of promise. By FAITH this happened. The life we live in the flesh we live by the faith which proceeds from God to usward to accomplish what He has purposed in us. We are truly called according to His purposes. He plants the faith in us; we respond, thereby living the life of faith:

that of continually returning to Him and pressing IN to Him. It is the CONTINUAL PRACTICE OF returning to God and entering His rest that makes us His. It is the one who does not habitually continue in sin, but rises up to sin no more, who is His tenth. Should this one act sinfully, he makes a continual practice of returning to God. The end result is holiness.

For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: . . . . Isaiah 30:15

The ones who are of God's tenth are quickly reproved and chastened when they do sinfully, leading them directly to His feet in confession. Why can't we get away with sin? Even the "hidden sins"? GOD IS IN THE MIDST OF THEE, so says the word, and YE SHALL BE HOLY AS HE IS HOLY.

Our God is patient and longsuffering, as we can see in Is. 30:18:
And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him.

One day, in the twinkling of an eye, we will become what He has said of us. From the swiftness of His dealings with us to conform us to the likeness of His dear son, I would say that day is upon us even now! Have you felt His graciousness and mercy towards you of late? WOW.

More to come.
Shalom
Becky

Revival
Daniel Black

Vision Of The Angel Named Revival

I saw as the President made his speech the other night, as now I am able to release this message, A Great and Large angel. I asked the Lord who this was and He said this is the Angel named Revival. The Revival Angel, says the Lord, will begin o be released out over this nation and then the world as this war progresses and a GREAT WAVE of the harvest will be brought in. For this nation it will be the third Great Awakening. In the other nations, the multitudes will now come in even GREATER numbers than ever before. For as many as have come to the Lord in the past per day, that number is going to double in this coming day. The Islamic nations will not know what hit them because the angel will release a great hunger for them to KNOW who GOD truly is. They will get tired of the ritualism and the religious spirit will have a major loss in those nations.

The Lord also showed me that a great darkness will be released also to try to come against the Angel named Revival, but the Lord will raise up His end Time Army and will come against this darkness. This end time army is the young people of today, the young people right now who are being trained in certain youth ministries that are in tune with the Spirit and are not fun and games ministries any more!

Visitation Is Coming
Daniel Black

Oh, oh, oh! I hear Him. He is coming with a mighty visitation that will stay as a habitation! Oh, its brewing in my Spirit. I feel it as though we will be riding on the wind. He says to rise on the wings of dawn! Yes. His Spirit is rising up! Oh, can you feel it. The dawn is coming. The glory is coming. Oh. Oh. Wow, thank you Jesus! Thank you Father! Oh, please, just begin to welcome Him, welcome Him in, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes! He is entering in. His Spirit is being released into homes now. Holy, Holy, Holy, Holy are You Lord God Almighty! Worthship is what we bring to you! Oh to sit at your feet. Please never leave! Kiss us with the kisses of Your Mouth Oh King! Beautiful, Beautiful. Isn't He beautiful? Isn't HE beautiful. Oh Yes He is!!! Your love is more delightful than wine! More pleasing is the fragrance of YOU than any perfumes, Oh my God! Oh let us enter Your chambers now, oh King and God! Take us away with you, away with You, away with You.

"I am visiting you to restore the intimacy lost. Don't stop me now! I am coming, I am coming to you, my love! I am coming to you. Please be waiting when I come."

He is visiting us with the Song of Songs Visitation. I encourage you to begin to read this again. Personalize these books and let the intimate relationship begin with the Father.

The King's Grace And Favor In 2004
Daniel Black!

takeustotheriver@juno.com
INTRODUCTION The following is the Word of the Lord for 2004 for His Church and America. God has been speaking to me a lot lately about His grace and favor for us, and releasing me into it, my God! It has been a powerful season and it is a season about to be released in 2004!

HEALING The Lord said, I am bringing healing to my Church. I am reuniting my Church and making it

ONE. Ha-ha! Yes, I say unto you be ONE in the Spirit. You may not agree in theology, but you will agree upon this ONE thing, yes just this ONE, and that is Me, says the Lord! I am sick and tired of your division and petty arguments, it is time to grow up, NOW! I am calling you into maturity! I am healing the divisions now. Yes, even now you will become ONE in Me. I am also calling forth the Catholic brothers! Come forth, come forth out of blindness and into fullness!

GRACE The Lord said, I am imparting my grace upon My Church and America. In order for you to come into the fullness of what I have called you into, You MUST have My grace. My grace will give you strength to go ye therefore into all of the world in My name and to do a mighty work therein. It is only by My grace that you can heal the sick, cleanse the leper, raise the dead and cast out devils. It is only through My grace, says the Lord. In hearing this, the Lord also spoke to me about watching our backs when it comes to the spirit of pride. He said we need to begin to clothe ourselves in His humility because our own humility is false and will fail us! So we MUST begin to rely upon His grace and humility if we want to walk in the fullness of what He has called us to.

KING'S FAVOR Intimacy, He said. 2004 is a year to be released into My intimacy! Get ready to be released into the "bedroom" seasons this year. It is here that you will find My Favor and I will begin to soak you therein within this favor. He said this visitation is for only a remnant who TRULY seek His face. O that it would be for the whole Church, but they do not love Me.

REVELATION 2004, as spoken by many prophets, is the year of the release of revelation. The revelation of GOD and His LOVE will be released this next year upon both the saved and unsaved. It is through this revelation that He will draw all the earth unto Himself. I AM GOING TO COVER THE EARTH WITH MY GLORY-ha! The Lord said ask and you will receive. He said the best thing to ask for is what Solomon asked for over almost 3000 years ago, He said wisdom. Ask for My wisdom. O do I want to give you My wisdom!

RELEASE IN 2004 God is breaking the strongholds that have held you bound in 2004! I say unto you I am RELEASING YOU! I am setting My favor upon You my Beloved! Receive breakthrough! I release you out of that bondage. I will loose you from your sickness and disease. 2004 is the year of total health within My Church! It is the year of Jubilee. It is truly the year of the Lord! I will give you the breakthrough you need!

AMERICA He said the best thing to do is cover America with intercession. O that I want to release fully another season of the "Great Awakening" that you experienced hundreds of years before! O pray! O Pray! Pray for America, I said pray for America! I said pray for America to be healed. I want to bring a new and fresh touch again! I want to bring breakthrough in the government, O and I will, but you must pray! If you pray I will COME. If you build a HOUSE of PRAYER in America I WILL COME! I will bring change in society. I will change the laws. I will change the government. I will bring a 180 degree turn in the culture and breathe new life into the dry bones says the Lord!

Removing Wedges

Hollie Moody

Oftentimes when something is occurring within the Body of Christ, I react like a thermostat. I seem to "feel" what is occurring in the Body of Christ either mentally, physically or spiritually.

What I have been feeling in my mind, my body and my spirit lately, is an attack of a spirit of division. This attack is coming about mainly through our minds and imaginations. It is affecting every area of our life, and all of our relationships.

For weeks, I had felt confused, disoriented, angry, ill, resentful, envious, and depressed. Every person in my life, I seemed to not be getting along with; yet I couldn't say why, or understand what the nature of the problem could possibly be.

I sought the Lord as to what was happening, and I feel He spoke and showed the following to me. I submit it for your discernment, and also your possible encouragement if you have been undergoing the same attack. What occurs in one section of the Body, or with one member of the Body, always seems to also be occurring in other sections of the Body, with other members. If you are under attack, you are not alone, and perhaps the Lord is revealing to us the enemy's method(s) of attack so we can counterattack.

Removing Wedges
I saw a large group of people who appeared to be one unit. They were all walking forward. For the most part, the majority of people in this group were walking in step with one another. There appeared to be small groups contained within this large group. They appeared to be family units.

As I watched this large group of people as they were walking, I saw small demons beginning to slip into the large group of people wherever there was a small opening or gap between the people.

One of the demons would begin whispering in the ear of a person. Another demon would begin whispering in the ear of the person next to the first person. These two people would then begin to stare at each other furtively from the corners of their eyes. As they caught each other staring at them, they would move further apart from the other person.

As I continued to watch this, I could see the suspicions and confusion begin to grow between these two people until they were as far apart from each other as was possible to be.

I looked around the large group of people and began to realize that this was occurring to some degree with almost every person in the group. Soon, there were large gaps between most of the people in this large group. Instead of walking as a unit, they began to stumble and trip. The large group of people began to appear disorganized and divided.

When I prayed about what I had seen, I felt the Lord spoke to my heart that the enemy is driving wedges into the Body of Christ, and that these wedges are affecting every relationship in our life. For the most part, these wedges are coming in the form of mental attacks, or imagination.

The enemy is whispering lies to us that bring back to our remembrance former hurts, wounds and offenses. Our own feelings of inferiority and insecurity may be helping to fuel these lies, and we may be imagining all sorts of things about others that just are not true.

This may be causing us to withdraw ourselves from others, and to separate ourselves from them. This in turn appears to be causing disunity and division not only within the Body of Christ, but also in most of our relationships with others.

If you have been under such an attack as this, claim the promise in 2 Corinthians 10:3-5 ~ "(3) For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (4) (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds;) (5) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ."

I also read the book of Colossians; which deals so much with relationships. Chapter 3, verses 12 through 15 spoke to my heart about the will of the Lord for His people:

"(12) Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering;
(13) Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.
(14) And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. (15) And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful."

To counter-attack the negative thoughts the enemy has been whispering in our ears to stir up our imaginations against others, do what we are commanded to do in Philippians 4:8 ~ "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

If we do this, we have the promise in Philippians 4:7, that "... the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

Through prayer and setting our thoughts on things of the Lord, let us remove any and all wedges the enemy has inserted in our midst.
In Him,

A wedge is an action, procedure, or idea constituting the earliest stage in a division of unity. It is used to force something apart or cause something to split.

Redeemed From Among Men
Arlette Pollard

Revelation 14:4-5

Blessed is the spirit of a man
Whose life is held securely in the hands
Of the King of all kings
Who guards the hearts of the redeemed
Blessed is the spirit of this man.

Blessed are the songs of a man
Who sings of the glory of the Lamb
Each word of praise unto the Lord
Will bring revelation that restores
Ancient pathways on God’s holy course.

Blessed is a man found without guile
Who finds joy in walking an extra mile
Who turns the other cheek
Finding in weakness there is strength
To ascend above the darkness undefiled.

Blessed is He who came in the name of the Lord
The Son who reigns with God, forevermore
Who purged the heavens with His blood
So God’s glory poured down from above
Allowing men to partake of God’s divine love.

Blessed are God’s precious saints
Who were resurrected from death through faith
Who watched as their world of darkness passed away
As law bowed down to faith
Each adorned in the beauty of grace.

> These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.” Revelation 14:4-5

Oh faithful virgin daughter of Israel, God’s remnant now adorned in purity, your voice resounds within the heavens, as you sing with thankfulness of your inheritance received through faith. Throughout eternity your songs will be heard by those who look to God for direction, as a declaration of the blessings of glory and grace that are obtained through faith. To those who would walk upon the earth today, your faith has become an encouragement to the purpose of enduring all things, so as to attain the cherished prize. May God open the ears of those who call upon His holy name, to hear your songs, oh virgin, chosen of God, so that others may sing with you, songs that will bless the “Holy One, the creator of Israel,” the King.

O virgin daughter of Israel, you who sought a country in which to dwell, where peace would reign and the lion would lie down with the lamb, blessed is your holy name. It is said, faithful daughter of Israel, that you, “confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth,” having desired a better country than that in which you dwelt. It is said that through faith you subdued kingdoms, endured sufferings, passed through the Red sea as by dry land, and yet, while “having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise” while alive.

Holy are the precious firstfruit, the remnant virgin daughter of Israel, whose faith gained them entrance through the gates of the heavenly city where they dwell forever with the Lord of all creation. Blessed is each man who obtained a position among those who first ascended on high, with Jesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life. Blessed are the saints who were judged and found worthy to be adorned in glory, so that they could ascend on high with Jesus Christ, to the bosom of the holy land promised of the Father. Through eternity, your voices will be heard day and night praising the Lord of all creation, as you dwell together in peace within the holy city, the New Jerusalem, where the Spirit is the prize greatly cherished. Zion, New Jerusalem, the holy city where God dwells with His people, has been established upon a firm foundation, who is Jesus Christ, and built up by the hand of God, so that it reaches beyond the borders of the heavens.

From out of the mouths of the precious saints of Light come songs of praise and thanksgiving. They are without guile. They have partaken of God’s glory, and have been forever transformed. Having been redeemed by the Holy One, they sing of what they have partaken of. Eternally they shine as stars in the heaven expressing God’s glory through the brilliant beauty of holiness, love and mercy.

O virgin daughters of Israel, God judged your heart according to faith and found you worthy to stand in the congregation of the righteous. As you rose from your graves, following after the Deliverer to your place prepared, God lovingly adorned you in His glory. You were not as the virgin daughter of Babylon, who was judged and found guilty. You were not as the virgin daughter of Babylon, who loved wickedness and delighted in hiding deceit within her heart. You did not play the harlot by “taketh strangers instead of her husband!”

> “Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate. Take the millstones, and grind meal; uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers. Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man. As for our redeemer, the Lord of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel. Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.” Isaiah 47:1-5

Within God’s kingdom of righteousness, there is no throne found for the virgin daughter of Babylon. When judgment was established within Zion, according to the righteousness of Jesus Christ, the virgin daughter of Babylon was found guilty and cast into outer darkness. Her nakedness was exposed so that all could see the depravity of her works, the wantonness of her actions. Forever God’s judgment stands true, which determines that the virgin daughter of Babylon is to never see the light of His love and mercy, as it shines down upon the living who dwell in Zion.

O virgin daughter of Israel, whose heart sought after the beloved, who did not play the harlot by pursuing other lovers, you have been greatly rewarded for your faithfulness. When God established His throne of righteousness according to Jesus Christ upon the earth and within the heavens, He welcomed you into the inner court of His eternal kingdom, where songs of joy greeted you. God showed His longsuffering and mercy toward you, O virgin daughter, even toward you who did for a time play the harlot, by becoming another man's, as He continued to come alongside and call out "yet return again to me." Though for a season some of God's children "hadst a whore's forehead" He continued to endure with them for His name's sake. He continued on in longsuffering toward you as He called out, return again unto your husband, oh backsliding children.

God, who is full of mercy, did not desire to give His children a bill of divorce, so that her lands remained forever defiled. He did not desire to see His children defiled with the daughter of Babylon, so that she never stepped foot within the land promised. He continued to call out, if you will "only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God" then He would gather them unto Himself in the city of the New Jerusalem. And as He promised, He has fulfilled. Those who remained faithful unto the beloved, and those who turned aside for awhile to give themselves to other lovers, yet repented and turned back to the Lord, have been resurrected from their graves, to dwell forever in the land of righteousness and joy.

As Jesus Christ ascended on high establishing God's kingdom of righteousness, judgment was passed upon the virgin daughter of Israel. Those found walking in faith toward the Father were judged righteous and established within the city walls of New Jerusalem. Those who were judged guilty, having remained the harlot by continuing to desire other lovers apart from the Lord, would be forever separated from the Father. Judgment was determined according to faith, and those found worthy would be adorned in the glory of God's Spirit of beauty and majesty.

> "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." Galatians 3:24-29

The glory that was placed upon the faithful virgin daughter of Israel has now been made available to all mankind. The hand of Jesus Christ has opened wide the gates to the kingdom without end, so that all who hear the Lord's voice and turn toward Him are to be welcomed. All who hear the Father's voice speak to their heart, who turn in faith toward Him, are to be adorned in robes of righteousness, which is the glory sent down from above, the Holy Spirit.

Though each man upon the earth comes to the baptism pool, a natural man, after being immersed in the living waters sent down from above, he will walk away a spiritual man. Each person will come to the baptism pool under the banner of man, or woman, Greek or Jew, but after being immersed in the living waters, the Holy Spirit, they will walk away under the banner of Jesus Christ, each one equal in the eyes of the Lord. Where there was once separation because of race, age, sex, or position, there will be union through the Spirit. Each person, having become a member that is holy joined unto the Lord through the Spirit, will begin to understand that the thoughts that separated them from men have been torn down.

Each natural man, Greek, Jew, male or female, will walk to the baptism pool, defiled by the flesh, because all men are born into sin. None are holy, none seek after God, only God is good. But because they heard the Father call, and faith becomes them, God has determined they are to enter the gates of His righteousness, as He places the garments of His holiness, the Holy Spirit, upon their lives. The only way through the gates of salvation is to be born again of the Spirit. To be baptized into the body of Christ, a man, male or female, Greek or Jew, must receive the Holy Spirit.

God's hand is positioned to help men rise up with the mind of Christ. All who are called of the Father's name are to become mighty men of valor. Whether male, or female, Jew or Greek, God stands ready to help men wield the Sword of the Spirit, not according to man's natural strength, which obtains wisdom from thoughts aligned with darkness, but according to the righteousness of Jesus Christ. All men, Greek or Jew, male or female, will be encouraged of God to rise up into maturity, able to wield the Sword of the Spirit according to the righteousness of Jesus Christ, so they are able to slay the wicked serpent.

In God's strength, as man, Jew or Greek, male or female, holds onto the Sword of the Spirit, the demons of darkness will be forced to flee. When the Sword of the Spirit is wielded in righteousness, then will thoughts, which once denied the goodness of God, be slain and fall as dust to the earth. As the Sword of the Spirit is wielded in the hands of a child of God's, in the strength of Jesus Christ, then will thoughts and opinions be exposed as vanity, losing the ability to oppress and hinder what God desires to raise up. God desires to raise up mighty warriors able to endure the temptations of the evil one, so that His name is honored among all names. It is God who tears down, and it is God who builds up, all praise and honor unto the Lord.

A man, (Greek or Jew, male or female) filled with the Spirit, will have once walked just as a woman who gives herself to many other lovers. The natural man desires to be loved and finds it natural to seek after other lovers, besides the Holy One, God the Father. The natural man will find it is easy to look to Babylon, the city where darkness reigns, to find lovers to pursue. He will find it natural to be joined to thoughts and desires that stand far outside the city gates that lead to God's throneroom of holiness. All men are born into sin, all men have had impure thoughts. God alone is holy, and God alone is able to transform a man (male or female, Greek or Jew) and his thoughts so that he walks as a chaste virgin, most beloved of God.

> "Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? God forbid." 1 Corinthians 6:16

Within the city streets of Babylon, the city of darkness where unbelief and depravity are the lampposts that guides men's feet, are heard many voices willing to sell their wares to anyone who is willing to buy. Fornication, pride and vanity are songs sung by those who dwell there, which easily ensnare souls not yet submitted to the Holy Spirit. Those who dwell within Babylon, the city of darkness, whose prince is the serpent of old, find it natural to pursue after many lovers, in hope of finding true, and lasting love. Yet, anyone or anything that is exalted above God will become a lover that will wound and harm the soul of one who walks in darkness. In the city of darkness there is no peace.

God desires His children to be joined in holy union to Him, through the Spirit. When God's children have been joined to the Son, through the Spirit, they are not to look back to Babylon, the harlot city of darkness. To be joined to thoughts or activities which belong to the harlot city of Babylon, is to grieve the Holy Spirit, and will bring suffering upon God's child. Those who are members of Christ, through the Spirit, will be changed according to the good purposes of God. As the Spirit of Holiness moves upon a child's thoughts and desires, he will be more purposely transformed into the One he is wed to, the Son of righteousness. And it is absolutely imperative that no child of God purposely hinder God's good work, by thinking that it is possible to occasionally walk down the city streets of the harlot, the city of darkness, and partake of any wares that are sold there.

> "Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we Him no more. Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us > the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.” 2 Corinthians 5:16-19

All men have walked the harlot streets of darkness. All men have been defiled as they engaged in enticing and alluring thoughts that paraded up and down the harlot city streets of Babylon. But the enticing words that offered purpose and worth, will always find its end in death and destruction. When joined to the body of Christ through the Spirit, all filthiness and defilement will be washed away, as the healing hand of God purposely restores and renews a man’s soul. A man’s thoughts will be restored by the life transforming power of the Holy Spirit, so that he is a living testimony to the purposes of God.

As the Spirit transforms a man (female, male, Jew or Greek) so that his thoughts are aligned with the mind of Christ, he will no longer be enticed by the lusts of the flesh, so that he is defiled by the wantonness that roams freely within the harlot city of darkness. He will mature in the ways of God, so that he knows that to partake of anything within the city of darkness is to bring suffering into his life. He will become what he has partaken of, a holy demonstration of the Spirit. Words of guile, used to entice others away from God’s holiness, will cease to flow from his mouth. He is a holy virgin, having been made clean in Christ, most beloved and accepted of God, and his actions will reflect the One who has bestowed upon him His holy name.

> “For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews of Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many.” 1 Corinthians 12:12-14

> “Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to Him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.” Romans 7:4

Report From Florida

John Lallier

It now 3 50 am and I'm led to write. The Lord, most of the time has me read the bible, but now he wants me to write.

In June an angel came to me and said everything will be ok till 7 30, July 30 2004. I saw storm after storm and on 731 the first storm came.
Then storm after storm came and went, 4 hurricanes and tropical depressions hit us and floods and high winds did 20 billion dollars of damage.

The angel showed me the bible pages turning faster and faster, in Sept of 2003 the Lord in a vision told me to sit for a half hour. After studying my bible a half hr is 21 months [my interpretation, I could be wrong] the bible says Satan rules for one hr, and then it says 42 months, so I cut it in half and come up with 21 months, everybody can count., in 2005 I believe the first trumpet will start, please go to rev chapter eight there was silence for a half hr, and then the 1st trumpet, well I believe we are in the half hr, right now,

I went to Daytona beach yesterday, the town is dead., I stopped in at a couple of motorcycle shops and they said it was really slow., Bike Oktoberfest starts from the 21st to the 24th and the city added 5 more days to try and draw people earlier to help the economy, it now starts on the 15th to the 24th,

In Orlando and in Oviedo and all over Florida nothing is happening. business is dead, the hurricane deductible took all the money from Florida's business men and churches. Florida is in depression. My business is dead. The insurance checks are slow. FEMA does a lot of talking but no action. I have talked to people who applied for help and all have been rejected, [they made to much money and didn't qualify]. How can a business stay in business with no help, no customers and no help from FEMA?

And now earth quakes in Calif and fires, flooding in the east coast and Mt. St. Helens. The prophets saying Yellowstone is next.

America is under a curse from God, read Deut chapters 28, 29 and 30, even after all the judgments I talk to people and they still don't want anything to do with God and are not repentant. This is not Mother Nature, its Father God in all of this, but people still don't want to wake up. 45 million Americans don't have medical insurance and we are told everything is ok. I believe the next 42 months will be even worse, and nobody wants to hear it.

In a vision this week I was trying to warn people and they spit in my face and came against me. My own family members are with them that came against me, just like Jesus said it would be like.

I saw in a vision a church with a very dirty bathroom and it made me sick and nobody to clean it up, in another vision this week the lord gave me an inheritance, I received an old peace of property and the building was old and it had old file cabinets and human dung in the files and I had to throw it all out. There were homeless bums in the old house and I had them leave [church rats]. I had to try to air condition the old house and the job was very difficult. I believe the Lord showed me in that vision I'm going to be sent to the old church order to do a cleaning, I'm not looking forward to it, but if the Lord wants me to do it I'll do it.

I love America and was born and raised in this great land and I have seen America change for the worst. God is looking for a few good men to stand for him, and to glorify him. and to help him bring the holy spirit back to the churches and bring the fear of the lord, and bring wisdom and love and mercy and for his men to be just and not selfish, not looking for a name, just humble and God serving and leading all to Christ and God getting all the glory, the Lord is looking for nobodies, and I know their are a lot of nobodies out there. Are you willing to make a stand and stay a nobody? This is the last move of God before his wrath comes down, please get on his side now, turn from the world and be spirit led. This is my message at 3 in the morning, its now 4 30 am, turn to Christ now

Redeemed From the Earth
Arlette Pollard

Revelation 14:2-3

The heavens rejoiced
And the earth was glad
The day Jesus ascended on high
And as He arose there was heard a great voice
Singing praise to the Holy Lamb
Hallelujah, the Lord is glorified.

The heavens were rent
And the earth subdued
As the song of salvation filled the sky
Thunder gave praise to the messenger sent
Who restored God’s kingdom as new Holy are the thoughts of the Lord on high.

The stars in heaven
Were cast down to the sea
As God’s voice shook loose the night
His Word was to reign over all of creation
Through His Son who gained man’s victory
Worthy is the Lord of everlasting Light.

The redeemed of the Lord
Fill the highway of heaven
With songs of praise and joy
Forever they will soar
High above the dragon’s court
Let all of creation rejoice.

> “And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: and they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.” Revelation 14:2-3
> “Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts. Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light. Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens. Let them praise the name of the Lord: for he commanded, and they were created.” Psalm 148:2-5
> “For the Lord shall comfort Zion: He will comfort all her waste places; and He will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.” Isaiah 51:3

Zion, the city of God, whose government reigns supreme above all the earth, is a safe habitation for those adorned, in the glory of the risen Son. Zion, the New Jerusalem, the Kingdom without end, governed according to God’s righteousness, is the dwelling place of men whose souls have been redeemed and delivered from the graves of death and sin. To stand within God’s holy city, is to have received a new heart, which has been circumcised by God’s Holy Spirit, so that it beats in perfect unison to the desires of the Lord of heaven and earth.

Forever and ever, within the city of God, Jesus Christ sits at the right hand of the throne of God as the holy high priest, who made restitution for mankind’s sin according to God’s divine purposes. As Jesus Christ ascended on high, after having first descended into the lower parts of the earth to take captivity captive to the knowledge of God, His precious blood was shed abroad within the heavens, so that a better covenant between man and God could be established. God ordained Jesus Christ to be the minister of His holy sanctuary that extends beyond the boundaries of heaven. Jesus Christ is the purposed high priest of God, whose sacrifice was laid upon the altar of the tabernacle that the Lord has pitched, and not man.

> “For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens’ who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people’s: for this He did once, when He offered up Himself. For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated forevermore.”
> Hebrews 7:26-28

According to the law of carnal commandments, which dealt with the desires of men who walked led of the Adamic nature, priests of many infirmities were required to sacrifice bulls and goats to make atonement for the people’s sins. Because the sacrifices could not permanently make the participants perfect before the Lord, the sacrifices were to be offered year by year continually. Under the first covenant God established with men, a continual sacrifice was to be presented upon the altar, in the temple built with human hands, because it was impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should permanently take away the sins of men.

The law of carnal commandments was a “shadow of good things to come”, which required the high priest to sacrifice upon an altar the blood of bulls and goats. But, through Jesus Christ a better covenant would be established within the heavens and upon the earth, so that the children called of God stood justified by faith, before God. As God’s perfect plan of redemption for mankind was implemented upon the earth, and within the lives of men, the shadow, which was the law according to the first covenant, would cease to exist.

As Jesus Christ ascended on high, His precious blood purging the heavens and the earth, the shadow that guided God’s children upon the earth was done away with. As the Son of righteousness filled the heavens and earth with the glory of God, a new covenant would dictate to mankind God’s divine governmental authority. The government that was established upon the better promises obtained through Jesus Christ, mandated that the law of carnal commandments were to cease. When the divine law of grace, which was executed through Jesus Christ, was established between God and mankind, the carnal commandments of God were to end.

From before the foundation of time, God’s plan and purpose was for all things in heaven and on earth to be gathered unto Jesus Christ. And as Jesus Christ ascended on high so that the Light of resurrection glory shined down upon the earth, dispersing the shadow of the law of carnal commandments, God’s plan of redemption would be implemented. Through the Holy Spirit, given through faith in the risen Christ, man would be able to walk past the gates of the graveyard, and into God’s eternal kingdom, where grace, mercy, love, longsuffering and power are songs that fill the air.

Through Jesus Christ, salvation was established in Zion. Through the sanctifying blood of God’s Holy Son, the city of God was made ready for those of faith. As Jesus Christ ascended on high, He led those who had died, with their faith in God bound securely upon their hearts, to the land promised of God. Those who had never received the promises of God while alive, who died with their hope placed securely in God, would be given the gift of the Holy Spirit, so they could ascend on high with Jesus Christ to their place prepared. Jesus Christ, who bore God's righteous government upon His shoulders, demonstrated God's perfect judgment, as He descended beneath the earth, and led the captives on high.

As Jesus Christ ascended on high, the everlasting Light of glory would dispense a new covenant built upon better promises, within the heavens and upon the earth. As Jesus Christ established God's kingdom of righteousness, not one stone would be left unturned. All that could be redeemed from the four corners of the earth would be redeemed.

As Jesus Christ ascended on high, all of God's faithful would be resurrected from the four corners of the earth. And as the faithful remnant of Abraham rose on high, the joy of the Lord would fill the heavens, encouraging all of God's creation to trumpet forth the good news of what had been accomplished through God's faithful Son. From the hills and valleys of the promised land was heard the music that accompanied God's joy, to welcome home the faithful, who had died looking to the Lord as their only salvation.

> "Jesus saith unto her, woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth." John 4:21-24

From the seed of the tribes of Israel, came the Messiah, Jesus Christ. Through Jesus Christ the kingdom of righteousness was established. Jesus Christ is the deliverer who leads men's souls from out of the realm and region of darkness, and into the comforting divine presence of the Lord. It is Jesus Christ who ascended on high to sit at the right hand of God, so that the full counsel of God could be administered in justice and mercy. Those who had died in faith, awaiting their deliverance unto the promised land of inheritance, would be judged of Jesus Christ and found worthy to pass through the gates of salvation.

The kingdom, where God's grace paves the walkways of the righteous, will stand throughout eternity. And because of the perfect sacrifice of Jesus Christ, the law of grace, which establishes God's eternal kingdom, will continue to be the final authority on all matters of justice. When the hour had come upon the earth, when the remnant of the tribes of Israel, who laid in wait within their graves, would be judged, it would be according to the righteousness of Jesus Christ. The remnant, who remained faithful onto God, would be declared righteous according the divine council established upon Jesus Christ, and would be released from their captivity so they could ascend on high with Jesus Christ. Having been found worthy to be counted among the number of the faithful, they received their reward of eternal life with God.

Those who remained standing upon the earth, as Jesus Christ ascended on high, their faith placed securely in God, were also reconciled to God through the Holy Spirit. Because of the redemptive blood of Jesus Christ, the dispensation of God's covenant of grace was established within the heavens and upon the earth, so that those of faith also received the blessed hope of inheritance. Those who have partaken of the heavenly nature, the Holy Spirit, are those who have been translated into the kingdom of God, causing their thoughts, emotions, and actions to become more and more aligned with the nature of God. Having been fitted into their position in the kingdom through the Spirit, a man’s heart and mind will be brought more into submission to the will of God.

> “Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints of light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of His dear Son: in whom we have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of sins.” Colossians 1:12-14

The “saints of light” who rose from their graves, having been judged and found worthy of eternal life, would be joined through the Spirit with those who remained upon the earth. When the Holy Spirit was poured out in the upper room, men of flesh and bones became partakers of God’s eternal kingdom of mercy, truth and grace. Men of flesh and bones, filled with the Spirit, are joined to those who ascended with Jesus Christ, through the Holy Spirit. They have become one new man, through the Spirit.

All men born again of the Spirit, whether in heaven or upon earth, have become partakers of God’s eternal kingdom. All men who are partakers of the Holy Spirit have been redeemed with the precious blood of Christ, and have been clothed in the righteousness of Jesus Christ.

The first partakers of God’s Holy Spirit would be used of God to help others move into the kingdom of revelation power and glory. So that others could be redeemed from out of the realm of unbelief, where darkness hides from the Light, God imparted spiritual gifts within these men’s lives, so they were equipped to share the gospel of the kingdom of God. Through the generations of mankind, the kingdom advances as more men are added to God’s eternal kingdom. From each generation, faithful children are used of God to help others gain entrance to God’s kingdom of glory and resurrection power.

> “For it pleased the Father that in Him should all fullness dwell; and, having made peace through the blood of His cross, by Him to reconcile all things unto Himself; by Him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.” Colossians 1:19-20

In Jesus Christ the fullness of God’s purpose for mankind exists. In Christ is found redemption, so that men are able to experience deliverance from the earthly, carnal nature, which causes their hearts to rebel against the goodness of God. In Christ is found entrance to the kingdom of eternal light and life. In Christ is found the complete divine counsel and wisdom of God. In Christ men find heavenly sustenance, which will not perish with time. In Christ is found God’s love that has been extended toward mankind.

> “And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: and they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.” Revelation 14:2-3
> “In whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace; wherein He hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence; having made known unto us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He hath purposed in Himself: that in the dispensation of the fullness of times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in Him: in whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of Him who worketh all things after the counsel of His own will: that we should be to the praise of His glory, who first trusted in Christ.” Ephesians 1:7-12*

* “Dispensation” – Greek – 3622- management, administration, job of administration; what is put into effect, plan.

The “saints of light,” who ascended on high as Jesus Christ ascended sing of the song of redemption. They sing the song of salvation. Their songs fill the heavens with the joy of those who have been delivered through hardship, persecution and labor. As a reward for their faithfulness toward God’s holy name, they have been taught a song that was written by God just for them. The beloved remnant of God, from the tribes of Israel, will continue to sing a song that is known just by them, throughout eternity.

Praise the Lord that His mercy endures forever. All glory to the Lord who at the appointed time established His covenant of grace between mankind and Himself. Now, because of the divine government He has established on earth as it is in heaven, all, Jew, Gentile, male, or female, who hear His voice and turn toward Him, are able to grab hold of His hand of mercy, so that they are led safely past the gates of death and destruction, into His kingdom of righteousness.

Many men, who have walked through the gates of salvation, and who have partaken of manna sent down from heaven, continue to help others enter God’s kingdom of righteousness. May we also learn to pay heed to the administrative authority of God’s divine government, so that we lay our heavy burdens down before Jesus, and trust that He is able to lead, teach, chastise, edify and encourage. May we give no heed to the flesh, which looks to the wisdom of the world for insight into truth, as we keep our focus upon the authority of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May all men lift up holy hands and praise the Lord.

> “Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain forever.” Jeremiah 17:25

Righteousness

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

The question of how we attain righteousness always seems to be at the forefront of the discussion about the Torah. Can we be righteous without Torah? It has always puzzled me why Paul, an expert in keeping Torah, so much so that he was found “blameless” in the eyes of his contemporaries, was still regarded by YHVH as a man full of iniquity and sin whose righteousness was as “menstrual rags”. All of Paul’s righteous living and good works were ultimately defiled by his own sin nature.

However, when Paul came into the revelation knowledge of the righteousness that is in Messiah he still did not abandon Torah, as is evidenced by the following: “Do we then make void [destroy, do away with, abolish] the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish [fulfill] the law” (Rom 3:31). “Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good… For we know that the law is spiritual” (Rom 7:12,14).

In chapters five through seven of the Gospel of Matthew is found the portion known as “The Sermon on the Mount”, in which Yeshua reiterated aspects of Torah and expounded on them in great detail. He began his dissertation by saying: “Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy… but to fulfill…” (Matt 5:17). Why did Yeshua go into such great detail to explain to His audience the Law of Moses? Surely he knew that there was not one person sitting out there who could ever live up to its standards or keep it completely, so why would he bother going into such specifics to explain the commandments of His Father? The answer is found in His introductory statement: “I have not come to destroy but to fulfill”. In actual fact, in this manner Yeshua was introducing Himself to his listeners. Bearing the righteous nature of His Father, He was the only one able to fulfill every requirement of the Law. Did He actually expect the people, whom he knew to be sinners by nature, to keep all His sayings? Didn’t He Himself proclaim that man’s heart was wicked and evil? “For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: All these evil things come from within, and defile the man” (Mark 7:21-23). Wasn’t His very coming to earth intended for the elimination of the sin nature? He was “the lamb that takes away the sin of the world”.

Yeshua was the righteousness of Torah incarnate; in other words, the righteousness of Torah is the righteousness of Elohim. They are one and the same. Yeshua was righteous by nature. He did not have to keep Torah in order to become righteous. He manifested Torah because it was natural for Him to do so. Man, on the other hand, is under the spiritual powers of rebellion and disobedience and has taken on that nature. Man cannot change his fallen condition by trying to be “like God”, or “like Christ”, through keeping the written Torah (and I might add the ‘Beatitudes’ too). This will only result in religious pride, self-righteousness and judgmentalism or criticism of others.

Yeshua declared that anyone who teaches disobedience to the commandments would be least in the kingdom of heaven, but then He made a reference to the religious leaders and said: “For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven” (Matt 5:20). Remember, Paul was a Pharisees and a rabbi. Yeshua’s denouncement of the Pharisees must have been a surprise to the people, as they held their religious leaders in great respect because on the outside they saw only the beautiful whitewashed sepulchers that they were (notwithstanding the proverbial dead men’s bones on the inside, ref. Matt 23:27). So why did Yeshua expound Torah to the masses? What was Yeshua referring to when he said that "He came to fulfill", while there was still a lot more to be fulfilled regarding His Father's words in the Torah and the Prophets, even after the Messiah's death and ascension?

The issue of Yeshua's entire dissertation was to reveal the righteousness of Torah, resident in Himself, as He was the Son of a righteous and holy heavenly Father. If we go back to the Garden, Satan suggested to Adam and Eve that they could become "like Elohim" if they would only eat of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. But what our first parents did not realize was that disobedience to their Creator would take them in the opposite direction. They received what they wanted, but now they had a different spiritual boss (actually a different spiritual father) to demonstrate to them who they were going to look like. They came under another law called the "law of sin and death". They now had the knowledge of good and evil and were not aware of anything other than "self". This is what Paul meant when he wrote: "For without the law sin was dead. For I was alive [to self] without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died" (Rom 7:8-9). In their self-life Adam and Eve were trying to live by the good, but the evil was right there with them as it was the very nature of the fruit of which they had partaken. Paul, in explaining this phenomenon, says it this way: "For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do" (Rom 7:19). He therefore adds that it is "foolishness" for man to try to live the righteousness of Torah without a change in his nature.

If we say we love Torah and want to be Torah-righteous, the only way to do it is through the channel that YHVH provided, that is through faith in what He has accomplished by His Son's death, burial and resurrection. Abraham our father was reckoned righteous because he believed YHVH. We can only enter into that same righteousness if we believe what YHVH accomplished by sending His only begotten Son. This is the message of the "good news" to those who by faith receive the free gift of grace. Our eyes will no longer be fixed on ourselves, but on Him who is our new creation life and righteousness. Thus, when we know Him, we know who we are as well. "For you are dead, and your life is hid with Messiah in God. When Messiah, who is our life, shall appear [be revealed in us], then shall we also appear [knowing who we are as new creation beings] with him in glory" (Col 3:3-4). "But of Him are you in Messiah Yeshua, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption" (1 Cor 1:30). "For He made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him" (2 Cor. 5:21). "That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit" (Rom 8:4).

Rejoice In Knowing Truth

Yolanda Ballard

(roarnworship@netzero.net)

Count the ways that you can worship Me this year. Many are preparing ahead so that they can prosper in their soul this season, but I say that you are to prepare for what is ahead so that your spirit may soar like an eagle far above all power and principalities. Yes, this is the day to count the ways that you can worship Me this season and all through the year.

This is the day to count the ways that you can reach out to your brother in My Spirit. Yes, reach out to the brethren with love and encouragement so that they can overcome in the onslaughts of the enemy so that they don't get caught up in isolationism. So many have been burned out by the constant attacks of the enemy and just need an encouraging word. Give them that much needed time of respite by keeping them lifted in prayer. Do not become offended when it seems like they aren't responding to your reaching out to them. Just trust Me that I will bring them through to victory.

This is the day to rejoice and to look ahead to what I will bring forth in your life. Don't give up on My promises to you when you see no positive results to your prayers, especially when it looks like things are getting worse. Just stand on My word which is the truth for everything else is a lie. Don't go by what you feel or see, but go by what you believe in your heart through My word given to you.

Yes, this is the day to rejoice, because the enemy is defeated in your life if you stand on what I did at Calvary. Don't lose vision of My victory when you see things growing worse in the nation. Yes, many are trying to take Me out of Christmas, but you know the truth in all that. Just keep worshipping Me in the ways you feel led to do, and be bold in your faith and testimony of faithfulness to Me.

Remember that the best is yet to come. You know the end time revelation. You know who is under your feet. You know your place in the heavenly realm seated with Me at the right hand of the Father, so rejoice. Reach out a helping hand to those in need and encouraging word to those who feel defeated. Share My love, peace and joy for you have reason to be glad.

They may try to take Me out of Christmas, but they can never take Me out of your heart. So rejoice and know that I AM in control and that I reign as King of kings and Lord of lords forever. This is a new day and a new hour. I call you to put the past under your feet with the enemy of your soul. Wash yourself with My word and My blood. Pay off any debts whether in material, financial or in spirit to one another. Make amends with one another.

This is a new year. Make sure your heart is clean. Be sensitive to My leading in showing you areas that need to be made right. Rejoice for this is the day to break the chains and to run freely. Yes, this is the day to be free, says your God.

River Of Love

Tony Mccleave

Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance (Ezra 8:21)

Then we departed from the river of Ahava...to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way (Ezra 8:31)

The book of Ezra is an account of the return of some of the Jewish exiles from captivity in Babylon and the rebuilding of their ruined temple. With so much emphasis in the body of Christ today on the "river", "river church's", there remains a remnant who have yet to embrace this wonderful outpouring of God's spirit in the world today, perhaps because it is too good to be true that if we just hang out in the presence of God without actually working for our salvation good things may begin to happen in our lives. That's exactly what Ezra did.

Ezra was a man who had prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord and to do it (Ezra 7:10). But he knew the place to find answers to his problems were at the "river of God's presence". Having found favor with the king to do whatever he needed to rebuild the temple (a place for God's presence), "He gathered the people together to the river that runneth to Ahava" (Ezra 8:15). This particular river was in Babylon, the place of bondage, not in Jerusalem the place of promise. In Hebrew, Ahava means Love. Ezra was inviting people to come and hang out at the river of love to get answers and direction even in the place of their so-called bondages. As a matter of fact in Ezra 9:8- Ezra declares 'And now for a little space grace hath been showed from the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage". Ezra knew the importance of hanging out in the river...the place of God's love, reviving and direction for his people, his family and his ministry.

It is most interesting that while hanging out at the river and pitching a tent there for three days (consecration, fasting, seeking) he realized there was a need for worship. If you are ever in a fellowship where there is a lack of worship, there is probably a lack of hanging out at the river.

Even with the problems we face in this world today, whether here in the USA or believers in Iraq, Moslem Africa and Indonesia, or even Israel and Palestine, we should be assured that our answers lie in the River of His love. We need to position ourselves to be besides the refreshing shores of His presence as often as we can...no excuses! Our victory is in Christ; He is our refuge from the storms of life, our shade from the heat.

Ezra declares in Ezra 9:9 "For we were bondmen, yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem ", praise God! God has extended mercy to us in the sights of our enemies, they can see his favor in our lives, his blessings upon us when we choose to hang out at the River of Love, at the feet of His refreshing, at the place of His habitation. There is a wall between us and them, an impenetrable fortress, a standard, and God delights in giving us His kingdom...righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost.

It is indeed a river of life...liquid life flowing from the very heart of God, life to our bodies, to our minds, to our families, to our finances, to our cities, and nations. Life to our leaders on the job, in government and around the world.

Pitch a tent next to the river of Love and life and just stay awhile. Nothing would make God happier and please Him more!

Rest In Me
Priscilla van Sutphin

Feb 18th, 2004

Looked at the clock and again it was 11:11 hmmm Father, do you have something You want to say? Heard, "Rest in Me" So what do You want to say about it Lord?

Matt 11:28-30 NKJV Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

Isa 30:15 NKJV For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel: "In returning and rest you shall be saved; In quietness and confidence shall be your strength." But you would not, Isa 30:15 AMP For thus said the Lord God, the Holy one of Israel: In returning [to Me] and resting [in Me] you shall be saved; in quietness and in [trusting] confidence shall be your strength. But you would not,

So many of My own who are called by My name, do not know how to come into My rest. They have remained outside My rest by not fully trusting Me with all their heart and soul, and strength. To believe means to put ALL of your trust in Me. If you could do everything yourself…why would you need ME? My people are loaded down with self-sufficiency, giving in to the harsh task Master of their souls. They make themselves prostitutes trying to make things happen, and don't see that if they would just TRUST in ME fully. All I am is available to them.

Did I not say, that I am a good Father? If you ask for bread, do I give you a stone? If you ask for something that will help you to build MY KINGDOM, and not your own, will I not freely give? NOTHING is impossible for ME. I want you to change and EXPECT good things to happen. I want you to expect me, just like a wife would expect a good husband to provide all she needs to run her house…I want YOU to expect ME, Your heavenly Husband to provide all you need. You do NOT have to strive. You do not have to run around like a chicken trying to do, when I have called you to just put ME first, and all these things you need, will be added unto you. I am not a selfish Father!!! I am not stingy and self-seeking like some earthly parents. I am not loving you conditional to you being perfect. I PAID the price for anything you have done, that you can just receive MY LOVE and kindness. I'm not saying nothing bad will ever happen, just that in anything, I WILL SEE YOU THROUGH IT! I am your husbandman, and I am not a bad husband. I am not a neglectful husband. I am ever in LOVE with My Bride and I will always provide for her. I will protect her like a husband protects his wife and a father his children.

Some of my own have bought lies about My limitations that are keeping them from receiving the fullness of WHO I AM. Some don't believe I'm the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. They think My power is limited. Well won't it come as a surprise when I shock them into belief?!!! I am coming as I have never come before. GREATER things you will do. SO now is a time to fill up on the WORD…eat and eat and eat My Word. And for those appointed to work in the harvest…is the worker not worthy of his wages? I will provide all that is needed. There is NOTHING I will not give to the passionate believer, who is hidden in the shadow of My wings! HEALING and MIRACLES are increasing…The world will KNOW that I am real, and that I ALONE AM GOD. Man may limit Me, but I am not limited. I am ALMIGHTY GOD. EL GIBOR, and NOTHING is IMPOSSIBLE WITH ME! So come My beloveds and rest in ME. Shut out the world for a time and soak in My presence. I have so much to teach you….so much to share with you. Just come!

Ps 37:7 NKJV Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him; Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass.

Ps 55:6-8 NKJV So I said, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest. 7 Indeed, I would wander far off, And remain in the wilderness. Selah 8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest."

Ps 94:12-13 NKJV Blessed is the man whom You instruct, O LORD, and teach out of Your law, 13 That You may give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit is dug for the wicked.

Isa 28:12 NKJV To whom He said, "This is the rest with which You may cause the weary to rest, "And, "This is the refreshing"; Yet they would not hear.

Isa 57:1-6 NKJV Israel's Futile Idolatry The righteous perishes, and no man takes it to heart; Merciful men are taken away, while no one considers that the righteous is taken away from evil. 2 He shall enter into peace; They shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. 3 "But come here, You sons of the sorceress, You offspring of the adulterer and the harlot! 4 Whom do you ridicule? Against whom do you make a wide mouth and stick out the tongue? Are you not children of transgression, offspring of falsehood, 5 Inflaming yourselves with gods under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks? 6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is your portion; They, they, are your lot! Even to them you have poured a drink offering, You have offered a grain offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

Isa 57:20-21 NKJV But the wicked are like the troubled sea, When it cannot rest, Whose waters cast up mire and dirt. 21 "There is no peace, "Says my God, "for the wicked."

Isa 57:20-21 AMP 20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, for it cannot rest, and its waters cast up mire and dirt. 21 There is no peace, says my God, for the wicked.

Isa 63:14 NKJV As a beast goes down into the valley, And the Spirit of the LORD causes him to rest, So You lead Your people, To make Yourself a glorious name.

Jer 30:10 NKJV 0'Therefore do not fear, O My servant Jacob,' says the LORD, 'Nor be dismayed, O Israel; For behold, I will save you from afar, And your seed from the land of their captivity. Jacob shall return, have rest and be quiet, And no one shall make him afraid.

Abrupt Change
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Feb 21st, 2004, 11:11 pm

“I AM the LORD and there is no other. I cause to live and I alone hold the keys to death and hell! I will NOT suffer My righteous servants to be rendered helpless.
I AM a Father to the fatherless.
I AM strength to the weak.
I AM the Lord God of Israel and to My Kingdom there is no end.
I bring higher and I bring low. I AM the Eternal Living Flame of FIRE.
And I will not suffer My true prophets to be shamed any longer without consequence.

I will remove every shackle, every stronghold of the enemy and I WILL judge between the righteous and unrighteous.
I WILL winnow the wheat in My barns. I WILL separate the wheat from the chaff.
I AM the ALL-CONSUMING FIRE and My fire will cleanse My temples and the people of My face will cry HOLY, HOLY, HOLY!!
I WILL execute MY ORDER and My justice and I will cause My servants to be made living flames of fire and they will harvest many souls for the Kingdom! They will not break rank when they run through defenses. They will walk with Me and know me as I’ve never been known for many, many generations.

Let me soak you in oil of myrrh and aloes, in rub you with saffron, and sprinkle you with perfumes of My incense. I Am the Rose of Sharon an the Lily of the Valley. You will grow fat as stall fed calves and your mourning will be turned to dancing!

I AM longing to dance with you My bride - To take your hand and to lead you into battle in ways of old – through singing and rejoicing and the dance!
Winter is passing and the spring is almost here and the sound of turtledoves rejoicing is in the air.
There is turbulence in the heavens but the saints of old are rejoicing for the days they have longed to see are fast upon you.

Will you come aside and dance with ME? Will you LET ME LEAD?
LET ME kiss your face and dry your tears? LET ME search your hearts and mend them. LET ME lead you in paths of righteousness for MY name's sake!
LET ME rearrange your lives as you rearrange furniture in a household. Give ALL your cares to Me for I care FOR you! A bruised reed, I will not break, and smoking flax I will not quench!"
THEN I heard HIM say,
"ABRUPT CHANGE!"
"ABRUPT CHANGE!"
"ABRUPT CHANGE!"….DECLARING it over the earth!

Blazing Trails

Feb 20th, 2004

I have some drawing of my own to do in the sky and in the earth! Only I have all things at My disposal to make such a display. I have the northern lights, and I have volcano dust and all kinds of chemicals to use to write a message in the sky. I have all glory and power. I have angels who can do anything to do My bidding. Nothing is impossible for Me. I wrote on a wall in Daniels time, and I will demonstrate My glory in this age with magnificent displays. I showed Moses and Egypt My mighty WONDERS. And I will show them in this hour!

Man thinks He can control everything in the universe…that he can control the weather. He can control politics and even LIFE itself in cloning humans.
Do you think I will sit idly by? NO, I WILL NOT! And I have not. Reports of strange weather will come in from all over the globe. Strange happenings, and all manner of SIGNS in the heavens and in the earth. But will man bow to the Almighty One? You shall see.

Will man humble himself in the eyes of the Almighty? Will he find himself instead fighting against Me with all his might? I see the end from the beginning and nothing is a surprise to Me. I have foreseen everything and nothing takes me by surprise. However I have many surprises for you My beloveds! Stunning surprises and awesome delights. Watch what I do in your children in this hour, and your grandchildren!!!! There will be angelic visitations upon the young and stunning displays of healings and miracles through even the youngest child. I will explode inside My people with My glory and there will be a tremendous change in your ability to FOLLOW Me.

Recognize that this display will cause much anxiety to the enemy of your souls as this takes place. Do not expect all people to be stunned into silence lest you underestimate your opponents. Every stronghold of the enemy in your life will be annihilated and brought low. Your thinking will take on My thinking. Your walk will take on the quality of My walk. The things that you thought were so important but were not, will fade away in your mind. And only what is important to My KINGDOM will remain important to you. Life as you know it will be over in a moment of time. NEW LIFE will flow down from the throne room of heaven in an unprecedented way and man will fear those who are called by My name. And as they feared ME, they will fear you in this hour, because you will know things about them, that no one else knows.
You will know their pains and their hurts and the roots of all their rebellion will be seen by those who have prepared their hearts for ME.

This blessing upon you will not be do to your striving, but due to MY LOVE, having it's way with My Bride. I am trampling the grapes of wrath. I am the One Who sits in the heavens and laughs! I am the One Who created it all, so is anything a surprise to Me? NO. I am and have already planned for My response in all this. I have a plan, written in mysteries of the past and I will now bring those mysteries to pass. And for those who choose to come to Me in this hour, despite their past, there will be GREAT GRACE. You can REST in this glory, and receive My fire, or you can resist it and find yourself resisting ME.

Do not despise the many with horrendous backgrounds of rebellion that will come and lay down at your feet!

Know that ALL MANKIND is precious to ME, as they are made in OUR IMAGE! Be filled with LOVE as you come into My presence.
Expect outpouring of MY LOVE that will empty you of yourself as I reveal Myself to you. Expect to be filled up to the brim with all that I am, that YOU CAN WALK ACCORDING TO MY WAYS. I WILL NOT PASS YOU BY. This is not a contest. There is no sibling rivalry in My KINGDOM!
My Kingdom runs on LOVE. The kingdom of the evil one, runs on fear!
Remember that PERFECT LOVE, casts down all fear! So My LOVE will drive out all that has caused you to fear intimacy with Me and with others. You will TRUST Me, as MY LOVE overpowers you! Trust will become complete in you. Peace will become perfect in you. REST will be perfect in Me. JOY will overtake you as you see the fruit of the HARVEST of all time! Startling miracles will take place, and that is already started! All you have to do is worship ME My Beloveds, and I will rain on you. I will pour out My love in you. I will pour out My manifest presence and soak you in perfumed oils that you may smell like a new Bride. I am coming to you! I will, I will, I will not leave you nor forsake you in this hour! My FIRE will go before you wherever you go. I will lay low the enemy of your souls. And as the opposition arises, I will hide many of you in the shadow of My wings, in very peculiar ways. Others who are willing will lay down their lives as a living sacrifice for they will not fear what MAN can do to them. They will KNOW ME. The battle of all the ages is beginning to take shape and form.
REMEMBER WHOSE YOU ARE! REMEMBER BEFORE WHOM YOU WILL STAND ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT AND DO NOT DENY ME BEFORE MEN. THOSE WHO KNOW ME, WILL DO GREAT EXPLOITS, AND THEY WILL NOT BE AFRAID OF LOSING THEIR LIVES. THEY WILL NOT LOVE THEIR LIVES, EVEN UNTO DEATH!

Dancing in the Winds

John 3:8 NKJV "The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

“Everyone born of the Spirit is carried by the Wind of God. You are called to walk in the light as I am in the light. Only the Ruach Elohim can help you to do that. My Spirit is the Wind that carries you. When you have intimacy with the Most Holy Spirit…then you are able even to dance in the Wind, and to fly in the winds of adversity by staying in HIS presence. When you shun His presence by ignoring His call, it is so grievous to Him, and HE shys away, but not far, hoping you will turn and listen for the sound of His voice. He has emotions because I have emotions. I made emotions in man to reflect My emotions. And when you walk in the Holy Spirit, then your emotions will line up with MY emotions. When I laugh, you will laugh. When I weep and travail, you will weep and travail. When you ALLOW ME to be sovereign over your will, mind and emotions, then I can live through you all I want for you to do and be.

But if you choose to not submit to My Lordship in your life and go the way you think is best, then you are not walking in the light nor carried by My Wind, but instead can be blown by other “winds”. “

[sidenote: in looking up what people in Central American culture believe about spirits, and what the

Mayan worship was about. I stumbled onto an article that explained how Natives who encountered supernatural forces, not knowing what to call them, they would call them “bad wind”. So to this day when something happens out of the ordinary that is bad, they will say it was due to “bad wind”.]

"I AM the LORD of everything in heaven and on earth. Nothing is hidden from ME. So it is much better for you to start your day with ME as head, and worship and praise ME and get in the Spirit so that I can order your day and show you what the day will bring, and prepare you for anything you may encounter along the way. Put on your armor, especially in these times as you put on your clothes. Clothe yourself with MY GLORY and My strength, so that you do not get weary in the everyday tasks of life. LOOK to ME for all the strength you need, and you will receive it. Look to ME for all the wisdom you need and you will receive it. I am soon coming to ASSURE that walk in the spirit and remove all the hindrances and distractions and despotisms that have kept you from walking in the Spirit fully with Me.

Mercy and truth will kiss each other in your heart and mind and you will be Transformed by each truth spoken, and each revelation of Mine. Stay close to Me, My beloveds for the winds of the enemy seek to blow away any he can in these days. Guard your hearts and do not give in to doubt and fear. Do not given in to the ploys of religious spirits who seek to condemn you and others, and to cause depression and defeatism. You are not defeatable if I live in you, and you walk in the Spirit. No matter if you get scattered or feel like you are imperfect, it is YOUR HEART that I judge.

Many are condemning themselves because they fall into the same sins, yet their heart is desiring to do what I want. Others don’t even care if they sin, and are given to all forms of evil because they think like Nicolaitans. They need the TRUTH that sets them free. I JUDGE BY THE HEART. I do not quench the spirit of man by condemnation and guilt. I heal and deliver. I ALONE PAID the price for your sins. All it takes is coming to ME and confessing them and repenting in your heart. The spirit is willing but often the flesh is weak, just as it was with My disciples. Soon My glory will increase suddenly so that all the chains of the enemy will fall off, and you will never be the same, nor will you go back to being what you were.

Do not condemn yourself, or your brothers and sisters. Pray for all to be able to receive what is coming. Pray their hearts will WANT to receive healing and deliverance. Pray they will not be too PROUD to receive.
Glory is coming. Glory will overtake you and make you into the BRIDE I want you to be. IT will NOT BE BY MIGHT, nor the power of man. It will not be by your STRIVING to be better. It is ONLY by MY GRACE and GLORY poured out on you that you can overcome. THAT TAKES MY PRESENCE.
So come into My presence with JOY in your heart and lay down everything at the cross. LEAVE it at the cross.
I assure you that you will be so filled with JOY, that your heart will LEAP in delight in My presence and you will WALK with ME the rest of the days of your life, and then forever. So REJOICE MY BRIDE for YOUR BRIDEGROOM is drawing nigh to you and HE will overtake you with HIS LOVE and affections and you will be overwhelmed by this love. You will be in delight in His presence and you will DANCE and REJOICE, full of JOY inexpressible and overflowing.

Rev 6:3-4 NKJV Second Seal: Conflict on Earth
When He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come and see."4 Another horse, fiery red, went out. And it was granted to the one who sat on it to take peace from the earth, and that people should kill one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

Rev 12:13-14 NKJV Now when the dragon saw that he had been cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male Child. 14 But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent.

The dragon has loosed his warfare against the sons of men and intends to take out everyone he can. He plans to rob and steal all the souls he can before revival brings in the harvest of souls. PRAY the blood over your loved ones daily! Do not give the enemy any room to move. Speak My Word with the authority I have given you! Put on your armor DAILY.

There will be more civil unrest and ethnic hatred and fighting. Know that I am with you and will uphold you with My righteous right hand. Do not let the events in the world rob your peace of soul. I AM AND ALWAYS WILL BE THE SAME. I AM ALWAYS WITH YOU. LEAN ON ME when you feel apprehensive and fearful…let me fill you with My love. The dragon seeks to cage My beloveds and to put you in a dungeon of despair, defeatism and despondency, depression and death. He wants you to give up on the promises I've made. He wants to ruin My plans but HE CANNOT! I will not be thwarted from fulfilling MY WORD and MY heart is ever towards you, My beloveds.

There are many dragons loosed on the lands. I am about to slay the dragon of Buddhism in a giant way. I am about to bring a dissatisfaction with the false god of many nations who worship him. The idols will fall and utterly be ruined!

Isa 2:8-11 NKJV Their land is also full of idols; They worship the work of their own hands, That which their own fingers have made. 9 People bow down, and each man humbles himself; Therefore do not forgive them. 10 Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust, from the terror of the LORD and the glory of His majesty. 11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

Isa 44:24-25 NKJV Judah Will Be Restored
Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, And He who formed you from the womb: "I am the LORD, who makes all things, Who stretches out the heavens all alone, Who spreads abroad the earth by Myself; 25 Who frustrates the signs of the babblers, And drives diviners mad; Who turns wise men backward, And makes their knowledge foolishness; 26 Who confirms the word of His servant, And performs the counsel of His messengers; Who says to Jerusalem, 'You shall be inhabited,' To the cities of Judah, 'You shall be built,' And I will raise up her waste places;

Zech 10:2 NKJV For the idols speak delusion; the diviners envision lies,
And tell false dreams; they comfort in vain. Therefore the people wend their way like sheep; they are in trouble because there is no shepherd.

There are people everywhere caught in the dungeons of the enemy. I am looking for those who are willing to join My army and fight for them to be free. I have been training many in hiddeness for this hour of glory. There is much work to be done yet in sending the TRUTH of My love all over the world. Many are already fearful and cowering and won't go out to the lost.
I have called you to be a light set on a hill and to not hide your light under a basket, but to let it shine before all men.

Isa 42:22-23 NKJV But this is a people robbed and plundered; All of them are snared in holes, and they are hidden in prison houses; They are for prey, and no one delivers; For plunder, and no one says, "Restore!"23 Who among you will give ear to this? Who will listen and hear for the time to come?

Who is willing to go for Us? Who is willing to give up their comforts for the sake of the Kingdom? Do you watch the news? You don't have to go far always to find those who are in need. But I have need of you , many of you, to send you all over the earth to set the captives free. Some of you will be sent in like stealth bombers, invisible to the powers of darkness until it is too late. Some will be sent on suicide missions. But you will not fulfill that call to be a martyr until I say. You will fulfill the call on your life until I say it is time to come home.

Rev 12:11 NKJV And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.

Rev 18:24 NKJV And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who were slain on the earth."

Rev 19:2 NKJV For true and righteous are His judgments, because He has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication; and He has avenged on her the blood of His servants shed by her."

Are you willing to drink from My cup? Are you willing to lay down your life, as I laid down Mine? Will you rise up and lay hold of your inheritance in Christ for this hour? Will you cling to this earth, or to the eternal?
I am waiting My Beloveds.

I know many who are hidden and have been in waiting to go, but have been hindered. And I tell you this is the hour you will see Me move on your behalf, that you can do what I have called you to do! Do not think I have forgotten you! I have only been training you. For some think it is a glamorous life, because they have seen TV evangelists who SEEM to have all they need to do all this. But I am telling you, this is not a glamorous call. It is a call to DEATH to SELF. I will help you if you but ask ME. I will help you by My grace to say yes in your heart, even if your flesh is unwilling, I can work the changes that will make you into living flames of FIRE.

Rising Up

nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com

John 10:10b (NKJV)—I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.

We all know about the fall of man. We fell into infirmities and diseases, poverty, fear, unhappiness, etc. Jesus came to not only reverse the fall but also for us to rise above Adam’s condition before the fall. Unfortunately, up till now, we are still struggling to come out of the pit that we all fell into. It is now time to rise out of the pit and continue right up to the fullness of God.

Luke 15:17-18—"When he came to his senses, he said, `How many of my father's hired men have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! 18I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.

We cannot begin to rise until we come to our senses. In what way did the prodigal son come to his senses? The prodigal son initially thought that the father had finished with him. That was why he remained in the pit feeding on food meant for pigs. Then one day he remembered how loving his father could be. If he had thought that his father was a wicked man he would never have gone back. On the contrary, he immediately reasoned that his father’s loving nature means that the father could never reject him. And so he rose up to travel back to the father.

Prov 8:30-31—Then I was the craftsman at his side. I was filled with delight day after day, rejoicing always in his presence, 31 rejoicing in his whole world and delighting in mankind.

1 John 4:16—And so we know and rely on the love God has for us.

John 3:16 (NKJV)—For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

1 John 3:1—How great is the love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

To understand the extent of God’s love for man is what it means to come to our senses. In Prov 8:31 we see that before the fall wisdom (that is, Christ) delighted in mankind. Can you imagine how pained his heart was when man died to God? Can you also see how delighted Christ must have been to go and raise man up from the dead? After all the love God has demonstrated towards us, we still find it hard to fully comprehend the extent of God’s love for us.

Last week I wrote about going back to the garden of God. The reason why we can go back to the garden of God is because Jesus shed His blood as atonement for our sins. We rejected the word of God in Eden and became enemies of God. Jesus reconciled us back to God by His shed blood. By this reconciliation, Jesus placed us back in a position where we can receive the word of God. And as many as receive God’s word the very same word gives them the right to become sons of God (John 1:12).

How does this right to the sonship of God come about? The word of God is Spirit and it is life (John 6:63). Everyone talks about being filled with the Spirit. The Spirit is in the Word: fill your heart (not head) with the Word and you are already filled with the Spirit.

Eph 3:16-19—I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, 17 so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, 18 may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, 19 and to know this love that surpasses knowledge-that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

If the word of God operates in your heart then you are ripe for Eph 3:16-19. Eph 3:16-19 ends with “the fullness of God”—the ultimate goal of every knowledgeable Christian. It is the Spirit or word of God in your heart that begins the long process of rising up to the fullness of God. The Spirit or word of God strengthens your heart with power. A lot of people do not know what this means. Only someone who has experienced and overcome tribulation understands what it means for one’s heart to be strengthened with power by the Word or Spirit of God. The reason why I can write this article is because I have experienced long-drawn tribulation and yet miraculously was not crushed.

Acts 14:22 (KJV)—Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

The only way to “continue in the faith” in the presence of much tribulation is through the strengthening of the heart by the word or Spirit of God. For example, in my own experience, some wicked people that are closely related to me added some witchcraft poison to food and offered it to me. I ate the food and entered into a long period of sickness. In the night witchcraft demons would be using the poison now inside my body to seek to kill me. Apart from God’s promises in Scripture, God ministered to me personally that the poison would not harm me. Even with all these promises, because of intense pains, I doubted if I would survive the attack. As God continued to minister to me through His Word, I finally came to my senses. I clearly understood that God loves me so much that He cannot allow my enemies to triumph over me. Has He not personally promised me that? Once I came to this realization, I started the slow but steady climb out of the pit of witchcraft poison. And I will definitely climb out of every pit in my life, and go right on to the fullness of God. It may take some time, but God loves me so much that He delights to see me through the whole process.

Back to Eph 3:16-19: After one’s heart has been strengthened with power, the next thing is for Christ to dwell in the person’s heart through faith. “Through faith” is synonymous with “figuratively speaking” (Heb 11:19), an indication that Christ is not really living in your heart, but you call what is not as though it is.

Rom 4:17-18—As it is written: "I have made you a father of many nations." He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed-the God who gives life to the dead and calls things that are not as though they were.
18 Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as it had been said to him, "So shall your offspring be."

What does it mean for Christ dwell in our hearts through faith? It means to know that we have the right to be sons of God (John 1:12) and that God has called us His sons (1 John 3:1). It means that God has put Christ (who is the Spirit—2 Cor 3:18) in our hearts to make us exactly like Jesus. In reality the Christ that is in our hearts is the word of God that we believe—that is why it is faith matter. Everything that applied to Jesus applies to us because we are sons of God.

1 Peter 2:21—To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

1 John 3:2-3—Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when he appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. 3 Everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself, just as he is pure.

Back to Eph 3:16-19: Now that we have started thinking like a group of Jesus' one component that needs to be put in place is love. First of all, like Jesus, each of us must be rooted and established in love. We will not accomplish this by mere self-determination; instead we receive it from God. Thank God for giving you the right to be His son and for calling you His son. Pray that since a son of God should be characterized by love, He should fill you with His divine love.

Apart from developing the attribute of love inside us, we also need a clear knowledge of the extent of love that God has for us. This knowledge will produce in us the faith that moves mountains. It is this faith that will pull us up to the fullness of God.

John 5:20-21,26—For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. Yes, to your amazement he will show him even greater things than these. 21 For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son gives life to whom he is pleased to give it.
26 For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son to have life in himself.

Restoration Is Upon The Horizon

Deborah Gliebe

Great Move Of Restoration Is Upon The Horizon

Peculiar Anointings
God is opening up His storehouses - several - meaning new anointings, the day of multiple visitations is at hand in many nations. There will be different manifestations of the anointing, peculiar anointings, some of which have not been seen in our lifetime. Be ready for the unexpected!

Slaying Power & Visitations
Where martyr's blood has been shed - great visitations are coming. Slaying power of the Spirit is coming in FULL! A RAY where entire church bodies will be under the power of God having visitations, angelic visitations as Jesus enters their presence; Children will be healed and restored.

Youth Arising - ...
A move of the youth is coming into the land. Keep your eyes on the youth of America, England, as well as other foreign lands. Some will be preaching services and telling of their encounters in the Throne Room. Children and teens will be healing the sick, casting out demons and bringing words of correction to the body. Simple truths out of the mouth of babes! All night praise meetings will also happen, especially in the youth. Be ready ... as these things shall begin to break loose.

Intercessors, Rise Up!
God is having us touch the top of the scepter - prayers, petitions, breakthrough, new anointing, fresh visitation upon intercessors for total breakthrough. I saw a vision of intercessors in pursuit such as on horseback, pursing spiritual enemies and God giving them the breakthrough to overtake and destroy darkness and bring in the victory.

Pastors - Leaders - Gatekeepers
I saw pulpits standing empty symbolizing some are void of anointing. I then saw three pulpits - symbolizing Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the Trinity; The Godhead and Kingly anointing being put in place! I saw the Son, Jesus, behind one pulpit symbolizing son-ship, the link between man and God, coming into the place of new depths in Jesus, and the person of Christ, with great Revelation. I saw the Holy Spirit behind one symbolizing His Holy Power being embraced by a lost and dying earth - the earth being full of His Glory.

Great Demonstration

Healing miracles signs and wonders upon the horizon. Some entire churches to be filled with Hot Oil - the passion of Christ. They told me too much zeal (lies), after witnessing their first healing miracle, they told me, "We didn't need that any more!" God is coming with a sword and fire to demonstrate who He is.

Vision

I saw an angel of the Lord sorting out and throwing out doctrines, deceptions, false teachings, religious control, tongue waging, etc. This angel was sorting two piles, SIFTING out the unclean. The Holy Spirit was searching motives - a large junk pile was to the right and a very small pile of gold remained to the left.

The children shall be filled and the fathers shall take their place as Priest and heads. Fathers that had never known the Holy Spirit's power will openly embrace Jesus and His Holy Power.

Many, thousands upon thousands of deliverance's all over the earth as multitudes come to the Threshing Floors, getting saved and receiving major deliverance from Satan's strongholds.

Prophesy on the Rise

The Spirit of Prophesy is coming into fullness as a rose fully bloomed, the fragrant Rose of Sharon, and as fresh dew coming upon the mountain. 'Open your mouth,' says God, 'and I will fill it.'

Releasing My Glory
Musa Opiyo

Dec 23, 04

In this day I am releasing My Glory upon My people in greater measure than they have previously known. I am responding to their hearts' cry and the hunger of My beloved that I would reveal Myself and make My will known to them. Let it be known that My Glory is not reserved for a chosen few but for all that will come to Me hungering for My presence. When you lift your praises before Me I dwell in the praises of My people and so I cannot help but release waves of My Glory.

You are My children and it pleasures Me to see you bask in My presence yielded to Me. What you have received in small measures you shall now get in floods, for I am flooding My Glory into your hearts and into your situations and I am turning them around for My benefit. I am visiting you with fresh vigor because I have heard your praises, your prayers and your cries for Me and now I am responding to that call, says the Lord.
Blessings,

A Season Of Abundance and Release
Musa Opiyo

Dec 19, 04

I am breaking the strong gates of iron that have been over My people. I am bringing release says the Lord from the hand of the oppressor. No longer shall you be stolen from or overpowered, for now I am come with My strong hand to rid My people of the giants in their land. I now call you, My victorious people to rise to the occasion and walk in My freedom. Walk in the Jubilee season for what has held you back has been destroyed. You have My anointing that has broken the yoke of the enemy. No longer shall My people groan under the spirit of heaviness for I have released My Joy over you. Rejoice, even shout for joy, for I have overcome all your trials and all that has beset you and I have given you the victory. As you stand in My authority and walk in My presence, you will see the dark clouds of discouragement and despair dissipate as My Son (Sun) shines upon you. Along with My Son I am raining down My Holy Spirit afresh upon My people to give you a season of refreshing.

For many of you, you have been in the desert where you have been tried and tested by My Spirit. You have come to know that it is not by might or power but only by My Spirit that you can live, breathe and have your being. You have by experience come to know My Spirit as your Sustainer and your source of Strength. That I AM your Provision. That I AM your Everything. Yes, you have come to understand the concept of Me being the vine and you being the branches and the fact that without Me you are disconnected and without stable ground. It has not been easy but I have led you by My wisdom as you simply trusted in My ability to lead you day by day. You are now coming to a season of abundance both spiritually and physically yet My beloved the principle of complete trust in Me is still vital. The enemy wants to distract you and lead you into passivity while he plunders you, yet I call you to be alert concerning his wiles. As you remain in Me and allow Me to be your source, I will lead you to your abundance and give you the wisdom. I will open your eyes to what the enemy is doing so that you pray accordingly and take action. For indeed the year of 2005 will be a year of abundance, an expansion and an explosion of more. It is also a year that I am training My people to war in the Spirit on a higher level than they have known.

Be ready! Be strong and courageous and do not lose sight of the vision. In all your endeavors I am with you guiding you by the Holy Spirit if you will listen to My voice and take heed. Great things are coming for My people says the Lord.

Releasing My River

Jeannette Rodgers

Today is the day for the trickling to cease. For I desire to pour out My River of Living water upon you and in you that it would flow through your very being. Now is the time that you must make room for all that I AM about to do. For I have great things for my chosen. For long have I awaited for you to let Me make way. You have said I wait upon the Lord, but I have been waiting on you. Make way, Make way for My rivers will flow from your belly and everywhere My River flows will be Life. My river contains strength, power, wisdom, grace, mercy, healing, peace and all that I AM.

For the place you have been, has been a place that I prepared so that I might dig a deep ditch within you that I may fill you up with my Living Water. My eyes have been upon you .in a dry parched land you have been; but today I say to you the River is being released. It is My hand that has been digging things out of the way that you would flow in all that I have called for you. It is My holy shovel that has been digging all around you preparing and removing. You will be revealed as MY Fountain of Life with My water springing up within you and overflowing.

For now is the time that I am calling for; to reveal Myself. My waters will flow through my chosen ones and places that have allowed Me to dig out self, dig out tradition, dig out motive, dig out your plans, dig out old ways, and dig out rocks and stumbling blocks. Oh, I have been digging in you. I have been digging in certain places. I have been digging and digging so I could fill you up and over the top with more and more of Me. Yes, when you said YES LORD fill me up, I had to dig you out first before I could fill you up with Me. Many will say Yes, but few will stand still for the digging. You say; Lord, how much longer and why must it hurt so much . and; I say to you; My child, when One is digging, the Shovel must be thrust into the ground first and things must be then taken out as a way of making ready for all that will be poured in. My holy shovel is made of Love. Those things that I have dug out; removed from you, from your life, from the church; I have dug out those things that were and are necessary.

I am answering to a people who have been calling for a River. how long must I trickle because I cannot release the River if you will not make room. Make ready for Release! I will pour out like never before. My glory will fill up the place that has been prepared. My water is crystal clear, it is pure...it heals, it speaks truth, it is power, it is Life.

No more trickles . Let My river flow Let it flow through you, let it flow through Israel, let it flow through Judah; let it flow in all places and I will bring life to you and through you.

I have much for you .I have already shown you .I wait on you .Trust Me.. You will not drown; Trust Me to move in Greatness before your eyes like you have never seen. Trust Me, that you can, and you will because I AM.

No more trickles It is the time of the overflowing River of Life to pour out in ways that you have longed for and that I ..even I ...have longed to release. I say this day, I wait for you!!

I am releasing My river!!!

The New Reformation And The Coming Revival
Nita (LaFond) Johnson

Occasionally, the Lord in His divine wisdom and foresight releases His presence into the earth for the purpose of changing and transforming not only the Church but also world governments. This touch upon humanity is out of His mercy and designed to prepare the world for the next stage of His purposes and plans. Let me share a few examples of such interventions as are recorded from the past.

The first Reformation began in the days of Noah. The Father had come to an end of His longsuffering with humanity. In His infinite knowledge He knew that if He were to wait another ten thousand years to discipline the peoples of the earth -- still mans propensity toward evil would not diminish but only increase. Hence, He determined that it was time to act, so He did. He raised up a just and righteous man, who had incidentally come from a long line of righteous men, through whom He would begin a Reformation in the world. Through this mans obedience He would save the world from complete destruction. Further, when the floodwaters would retreat Noah would be the one who would establish a new righteous government in the earth and would raise up a new generation of people who would seek to live pleasing to the Lord. By this means the Father did away with the old and gave birth to the new, albeit through much suffering in His own tender heart.

Once again the world fell into corruption. So, after Noah, God raised up another man through whom He would establish a righteous Nation in the midst of all the evil. This man He called Abraham. He would come to be called the father of our faith. This new Reformation although it began small, would become the cornerstone of all the works of the Lord in future generations. Abraham lived a nomadic life but through His testimony and righteous government within his own clan, he effected world governments and generations to come because unbeknownst to him, he carried in his bosom the Spirit of Reformation.

We do not see the next intervention of Reformation until the establishment of the Nation of Israel at mount Sinai about 430 after Abraham. The man that God used was Moses. The event was the giving of the law. Paul alludes to the power of this one act of the Father and its international effect when he wrote in Romans that there were those who lived righteously although they did not have the law. The Spirit of the Lord affects willing hearts far and wide when He visits the earth.

Time continued to march forward, and some 480 years elapsed until King David who brought Israel into to a new era of national recognition as a formidable power in the earth and national prosperity, established his son Solomon on His throne. Solomon brought forth the next Reformation. The government he would establish was actually written by the prophet Samuel, and nurtured and cultivated by his father David. Israel would now as a Nation become monotheistic, running its government and national culture around the God of their fathers. The instrument the Lord used in Solomon's hand to bring forth reformation was the building of His Temple wherein the God of Israel would dwell among men. However, Israel was not the only nation affected by this fantastic outpouring of Gods self-revelation. All the Nations of the earth were touched to various degrees sending humanity spiraling upward in awareness of the God of Abraham and His righteousness. The Queen of Sheba personally took the revival of Israels God to her own people. Egypt, Lebanon, and other Arab nations were genuinely affected by the outpouring of the revelation of the God of all creation. The Lord not only gained a people for His glory from Israel but also from the international seedbed of the world populace.

The next time we see the Lord reveal Himself in Reformation is some 400 plus years later, more specifically 480 to 500 years after His last words to my people. This revelation began in the person of Jesus Christ and exploded upon the peoples of the earth in the outpouring of Pentecost. Paul himself referred to this vital outpouring of God's self-revelation as a ?Reformation in Hebrews, chapter 9, verse 10.

After many generations of supreme darkness covering the earth, again in 1517 God raised up a man named Martin Luther through whom He would transform the then known world, which we now call Europe. As in times past, this Reformation affected not only the Church, raising it up out of the slumber of Catholicism but also world governments. Kings and Queens came to the light of His shining and took the wealth of Gods love back to their kingdoms. The earth moved from a basic tyrannical type of government to various levels of socially aware, Imperialistic administrations. This outpouring of light did not touch all nations initially. Italy, for instance was touched very little and only in the extreme north. However, nations that experienced this powerful awakening were changed and brought into substantial revolutions in many areas such as industry, international trade, music, art, and philosophical thinking.

I was shown in a series of visions the impact that this particular Reformation had on the Church and the world. Such things as the Gutenberg printing press, the waterways by which goods are shipped via barge across England, and my Dear Friend, even America are a direct result of the reformation the Lord sent to the earth through Luther. America was founded and its governmental principals established on godly ethics revealed in God's Word because Christians looked for a place away from the persecutions of Europe where they could worship Him in freedom. The Reformation brought with it light and understanding of God's Word, His ways, and plans as well as fantastic inventers such as Benjamin Franklin. So, all nations have eventually been the beneficiaries of this impact of God. Again, the world benefiting from the light enabling it to come out of the dark ages of depravity, the Church benefited from the light that awakened it from its long slumber of traditions and false doctrines to behold the living Christ.

I was taken up into the Spirit and shown what occurred in the days of Noah. The Bible says that the fountains of the deep were broken up as the floods came upon the earth. As I watched this utterly amazing display of God's power in the breaking up of these earthly fountains I was so awestruck at first I could not speak. I heard and saw the depths released, the plates of the earth broke apart and released their pent up waters from within the earth and sent them exploding upon the earth with such ferocity as to stagger the imagination. I felt like I was in some sort of sound chamber as all around me the sights and sounds of this cataclysmic event were exploding. Even this is as the time of the days of Noah. Meaning that certain things that will transpire in this hour will send the same shock waves into the world as was seen in the days of Noah. Earthly and spiritual foundations will be utterly shaken out of their place.

Reformation shakes the whole earth. When God visited the earth in the days of Noah, the whole earth shook. When He came down upon mount Sinai the mountain and the earth shook. When He visited on the day of our Lord's crucifixion, and again on Pentecost the rafters, and the earth shook. He shook the earth in the days of Martin Luther. Kingdoms toppled and kingdoms were established.

In contradistinction, when the Lord sends revival the Church is blessed. If the revival is powerful enough cities and at times even countries are blessed. In 1905 when Pentecostal renewal came upon the world it experienced blessings under the spirit of revival. But we did not see the caliber of epoch events that occur when the Lord sends reformation.

I am writing this article for a very good reason. In 2001 the Spirit of Reformation was re-released upon the earth. The new Reformation was attested by heaven itself through visitation and in a remarkable display of the supernatural. It was after this event that the Lord gave me visions and began to speak to me about the difference between reformation and revival. This Reformation will open the new Apostolic Age upon the earth. It will open the life of the Spirit in the commonwealth of believers who desire it, and it will see the Kingdom and government of God brought to living panorama in the earth. It will also bear in its bosom the spiritual birth of the Nation of Israel. Governments will be changed and nations will be awakened for His glory during this hour. Melchizedek will be the new government in the Church. Through the Spirit of Reformation God is preparing the nations for revival of mega proportion. I repeat, not only His international Church but also the secular world, will be strongly affected by this Reformation.

When we take the GOE (Gathering of Eagles) into other countries as well as here in America we see government-shaking events occur. Not to the glory of any man do I say this, but to the glory of God. His Spirit of Reformation comes upon a Nation and things that the Church had begun to think were dyed in the wool and beyond change, begin to change with His Spirit. Even strong powers such as Islam must bow the knee to the sovereign power of the Almighty when He sends forth His word of Reformation. That is what He is doing today. Powers are bowing before His supremacy because He is beginning to reveal His Godhood to man in a new dimension. It is called His End-time Reformation!
The seeking Christian will find His place in God in dimensions such as Moses, Elijah, the beloved John, and Paul knew. In fact a whole vast company of believers will experience various levels of this high and holy grace, walking as kings in the earth for Gods glory alone.

I was told perhaps 15 years ago that God would begin to remove the old regime of leaders in the Church to make way for this mighty reform at the dawn of this new era. While I was overseas I received word that two of our most powerful fathers in the Church have been taken home. This is a sign.

In 1517, the Reformation awakened the Church; in this Reformation the Church will open the very fountains of heaven upon the earth before it is over. Isaiah 61 will be a living reality in the heart and life of every willing believer. The Nations of the earth will be like so many torches in the earth revealing the light of His majestic glory. Israel itself will be enveloped with His flames. Pray for the fullness of Reformation to be released and prepare yourself for the glory of the Firstborn will be seen in this hour and you will know the stream of heaven itself upon your soul. The Church will no longer be a people standing afar off declaring we have seen His works. But we will be a mighty force in the earth that know and administer His ways. The world will see His signs and wonders and stand in awe, but the Church will know their God!

Isaiah 61:1-4

> The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek He hath sent me to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of prison to them that are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified. They shall build the old waste, they shall raise up the former desolations, of many generations.

Gathering of The Eagles, End of Year Report
Nita LaFond Johnson
December 1, 2003

The year 2003 has turned out to be a very busy year. The Lord has graciously blessed our endeavors with many surprises and wonderful results, both at home and abroad.

Gathering In Nigeria

I would like to begin our report by sharing a bit about the Nigerian Gathering. This year's GOE occurred in Ibaden, Nigeria. This city is strategically located two hours from the grand city of Lagos and, is the cultural capital of Nigeria. The Lord spoke to me before our departure to Nigeria this summer and told me that this particular Gathering would be a Jubilee Gathering. Needless to say, although I didnt really know what it would ultimately mean, I was greatly encouraged by this promise. I wondered how the Lord would outdo Himself after the tremendous results He gave us from the first Nigerian GOE last year.

Both Sayo, who is our Nigerian liaison, and I felt strongly that it would please the Lord for us to deal with the slavery issue. You see the world purchased most of its slaves from Nigeria during that horrific era. Slave ships would pull up to the coast along the pristine Nigerian beaches, -- disembark and meet with slavers~ who were Nigerian. Prior to their arrival, the slavers would have scouted through the jungles, stealing potential slaves from villages that would become known as slave villages, and bring them to the coast where they would be sold and shipped off all over the world, including to America.

The Lord provided us with a professor who shared with all who attended what the years of slavery produced in America as well as Nigeria. His report was both enlightening and painful to hear.

However, we all patiently absorbed what he had to say. Following his talk we entered into a time of deep contrition over the ghastly deeds that had been perpetrated upon the Nigerian populace. Further, Nigerian leaders who felt prompted to do so came up and repented for the atrocities committed against their brothers and sisters. Then Pastor Lenny and Pastor Eugene made themselves vulnerable and came forward as representing America and forgave the Nigerian slave clans for the suffering that their ancestors had experienced as a result of being delivered into the hands of the cruel plantation owners in our Nation. The Lords response to their humble obedience to His Spirit was amazing. His Spirit overwhelmed them as they spoke. Within minutes He alone had complete control of the service. We, on the other hand, were all astonished as we trembled in His mighty presence. Tears of anguish fell from leaders as the Lord revealed His own heart and swallowed up the agony of generations. It seemed that this was the primary purpose for this timely Gathering.

The shocking fruit that came out of this Gathering was both tragic and wonderful in its import. Recently the government of Nigeria discovered a large, ongoing slave ring. Albeit unknown to any of us, this ring has been in operation for a long time. Their more current victims however, are children from three years of age and up. I dont want to go into the horrible, heart gripping details of their present mode of operation, it is far too painful. The wonderful part is that this ring has now been discovered and is being broken up by the government. The perpetrators are being convicted for their criminal acts against the innocent. In the last few days I have further learned that many such rings that practice horrible and brutal slavery of three and four year old children and up, have been discovered and closed down. They are expecting the release of up to 15000 children this year. None of us have any doubt that the Lord was referring to this very breakthrough when He promised that it would be a Jubilee Gathering, a Gathering that would set the captives free.

Back to Lagos

As we all returned to Lagos to fly out after the GOE a most interesting thing occurred. As we entered upon Lagos, the Lord began to reveal the specific sins of the city to me. As we drew near an area where a particular sin ~ such as heavy drug trafficking was taking place, he would blanket me in the spirit of the sin. It was a very difficult two hours as we dragged through the city at a snails pace heading toward the place that would be accommodating us for the night. One sin after another was revealed in this same way. I saw Lagos through His eyes, and I was totally undone.

Let me give you some examples. As you drive through Lagos you cannot help but notice children along side of the road marketing every thing from fruit to radios. They approach your car and try to sell you their products. I had previously felt such pain when I saw this as I thought the children were being forced to do this kind of thing. What I learned from the Lord was that the children had bought into the corruption and loved it more than their parents. The proverb: the parents eat sour grapes and the childrens teeth are set on edge, would fit here. The parents loved the corruption, and subsequently taught their children to love it. They now love it more than the parents. He revealed that even the Church in Lagos mocks Him with their corruption. He allowed me to know that very few Christians live nobly before Him.

After all the many revelations He took me to His seat of judgment where I found Him sitting behind what looked like a Judges bench made out of mahogany. He told me that His judgment was upon Lagos. Further, He informed me that He was going to dump the city into the sea because of the corruption. He wasn't nice about it. For perhaps only the third time in my life I saw no pity or compassion in His eyes. I heard no mercy in His voice. His continence was one of absolute disgust. I too was submerged in His Spirit of controversy. My heart was filled with the same disgust that filled His own heart. He told me an earthquake would rip through the city dumping half the city into the sea. The rest of the city would immediately follow. Sayo, who was sitting beside me, was overwhelmed with grief for his city. He told me that this judgment was already occurring. The sea was slowly swallowing up Lagos, and try as they might the government had not been able to find an answer to the terrible problem. He later saw that the remainder of the city would be swallowed up by a tidal wave as the Lord confirmed the whole prophetic experience to him. He was so concerned that he took the prophetic word around the city and shared it with pastors. After which he called them to a special meeting to decide what to do about the predicament.

While Sayo was making his rounds of Lagosian pastors I was on my way back to America. After I arrived and had a partial nights sleep the Lord awakened me and began to show me the depths of corruption to which the Church in Lagos had fallen in a series of visions. Finally, after the I saw the last vision, I thought: I need to somehow turn the Lord's lofty and righteous heart from one of judgment to one of mercy or the whole city will be destroyed. I said right out loud: This could amount to close to 20 million souls destroyed in a single day. At that point I became desperate. I prayed until I heard direction. I sensed Him saying to return to Lagos and spend time there praying. So, I did! When I emailed Sayo of my decision he wrote back and told me that he had a meeting schedule with many pastors across the city and asked that I return in time to take part in the meeting, which I did. This turned into four nights of intercession and repentance over the corruption of the city. On the last night the Lord appeared to me and told me that we had won a stay of judgment for the city. He comforted us by telling us that we were to continue to prepare the Nation for Revival.

DC Gathering

In October during the Feast of Tabernacles we had our DC Gathering. During the first meeting Messiah appeared to me and told me that we would see greater breakthroughs in this Gathering than in any previous Gatherings. Consequently, I began this strategic GOE feeling very encouraged.

We finished our time of intercessions regarding the First Nations issues in the Continental United States, in this Gathering. The Lord greatly used every leader as well as many who attended. In the last meeting in which we dealt with this critical issue Pastor CoraLee Barber finished the time of intercession with a beautiful song of the Spirit, after which she moved into the dance of the Spirit. It was wonderful to behold. The power and presence of God was exciting. Earlier in the GOE several of the Eagles went for a walk and stumbled upon some First Nations Chiefs near the Capital Building. They were there awaiting a parade to the Capital in which they and others would participate to escort a huge bronze statue of ?Sakajawea: the First Nations woman who led Lewis and Clark to the west coast during their expedition. This statue was a memorial to the contribution of the First Nations people in the establishment of our Nation. Little did we know that at the very moment that CoraLee was moved in the dance of the Spirit thereby completing two years of intense intercession for the American Indian, these same Chiefs were dancing in their own historic parade to the Capital building!

Further, one of our leaders discovered that construction was begun on a museum designated as another memorial to the Native American right in the heart of Washington, DC the same month we began our intercessions for the First Nations people. This museum will be completed the same month we complete our intercessions for the First Nations people in Alaska in 2004. We don't feel this is an accident. We sense that the Lord is using the efforts of man to attest to the fact that our years of intercession is bringing the issues up front and center in Washington and wrongs are beginning to be made right.

After we finished this issue, we moved on to governmental issues. Among others, one critical issue facing our Nation is the abortion plague. It turned out that the week we were in DC, the Anti-Partial Birth Abortion Bill was to be voted on. My friends, we prayed and we prayed as the Lord gave us His wonderful grace. When we felt the release we all sensed that the Lord had intervened. We learned later in the week that we were right. The bill was passed. Unfortunately as I am sure you all know by now, we did win that battle, but the war is not yet over.

*Our next Gathering of the Eagles will be held in Hawaii during Pesach, or Passover, 2004. Prayerfully consider joining us as we continue to walk through the journey of preparing America for the glory of God. ******

As we continue to work through this important assignment, keep in mind that we are preparing the way of the Lord. The healing will come when revival is released. The healing of the Nation and the revolution of the Church will follow our labor of intercession.

Israel

We are still meeting with ministers in Israel introducing them to the Gathering of the Eagles. We are discovering wonderful men and women of God who are Messianic Jews as well as Gentiles who have a true burden for the Nation and its people.

We have also had the privilege of meeting with Arab Leaders who have open their hearts to us and helped us better understand the serious situations between Jewish and Arab Christians affecting the Church. Israel is a land speckled with many people from many Nations and there is a great deal of division in the Church as a result. Please pray that God will affect a cure. Also, pray for the Arab people. Many Arab Pastors feel like the Church has abandon them, preferring to minister to the Jewish alone. After meeting with several Arab Pastors and hearing the same hurts from each one, my heart is grieved for my Arab brothers. Jewish Christians also by-enlarge have many needs, but the Lord does not desire that we minister to Isaac and not to Ishmael. Both need our love being demonstrated through our intercession and our financial help. There is much work to be accomplished through the Gatherings in Israel even among the Jewish and Arab Churches.

Each person we talk with is interested in what we are doing and desires to see the Gatherings come to Israel. So, please persist in your prayers that God will continue to bless our efforts and fully open the door to a Gathering, and help us to know when, and how to fulfill His vision of preparing the Nation for His glory.

Italy

I visited Italy twice this year for the purpose of taking the Gathering of the Eagles to that Nation. A British Minister who has started many Churches in Italy, and who has lived there for nearly 50 years doing the work of the Lord, invited us. His son in law, Salvatori Loria is one of the men we are actually going to be working with, however. He is a Jewish believer and fully believes in what we are doing through the Gatherings. During this last trip we met with most of the pastors of one denomination which is predominately found in Sicily. They are all interested in seeing the Gatherings come to Italy. During the next trip in the spring, I will meet with more pastors as well as spending a day in prayer with those that met with Salvatori, David and me during the last trip. In the north, in the boot of Italy we are working with some gals that have made many sacrifices to spearhead a Christian Publishing House in that Country. Italy is almost deplete of this blessing unlike America. They are introducing us to ministers with whom we are working to prepare the entire boot for the Gatherings. Please keep Italy in your prayers, as well as those with whom we are working and their families and ministries. They have all come under special fire of the evil one since they began to work with us in this important mission. So, they too need our love and prayers. This is a very strategic Nation. Italy will see a tremendous outpouring during this great move of God. Millions will turn from Catholicism to the living Christ. And, Italy will see what it has never seen before, a huge populace of devoted Christians singing the praises of God and laboring in His fields for the spreading of the eternal Gospel.

Well that sums it up for the Gatherings for this year. God is moving and we are abounding in joy over the great things He is doing.

Please continue to keep us in your prayers as we pray for you. Keep our finances in your prayers as well and believe with us for the favor we need to accomplish the Lords will among the Nations.

One last thing, please keep our GOE Leadership in your prayers. We need them all but the storms they have been through to work with us have not been easy for any of them. My desire is to see the Lord show Himself strong for each of them in special areas that they will know He is pleased with their sacrifices. Also pray that He will keep them safe from harm meeting all their needs according to His riches in glory!

Directive America
Nita Johnson

November 3rd, 2003

What does the future now hold in its bosom for America? 9/11/2001 we experienced a major blow to America's pride. America, the Lord, as well as Nations throughout the earth felt the pain of the impending sword as we bravely suffered the wound. You see, with only a handful of exceptions Nations looked to America as a Father of Nations. To see us so vulnerable made them feel all the more susceptible at their own borders.

Moving ahead, America soon responded by overt action against Osama Ben Laden in Afghanistan.

We brooked no delay in gathering the troops to rifle the enemy and bring down the kingdom of our assailant. At home we hardly had time to properly mourn our loss before our focus was shifted to respond to the attack.

America's people were standing behind our President rooting him and the troops along every step of the way. For the average American, it was news to discover the tyranny with which Osama ruled the people of the land. We would later learn that we did that Nation a favor by our aggression. Enlightening!

We have moved along with the shoals of time: the waves of human government seemingly shifting us this way and that, still strong and steady, albeit a little wiser for the battles. We were soon met with another challenge. This challenge was to be found deep in the heart of Iraq. This war, if fought, would be labeled 'preemptive'. But would that prove to be the proper title? Would history prove this analysis to honestly speak of the aggression on Iraq? More importantly, how will heaven look at our actions?

What might the future of America hold if we remain on our present coarse? Many questions. I hope to answer a few of them in this article.

YOUR THOUGHTS ARE NOT MY THOUGHTS!

The Lord says in Isaiah 55:8 "For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways." I sense most of the Church may read that Scripture but deep inside they do not believe it. They think the Lord's thoughts about recent history; as well as current events are as their thoughts. I talk with so many Christian Leaders around the world, including prophets, apostles and teachers. So many have different opinions about all that has and is transpiring. You can go to the Web and find so many different "thus saith the Lord" articles all insisting that their thoughts are the Lord's thoughts that it can make your head swim. What is the Lord saying?

Different prophets may say some even seemingly opposing things, but are revealing two sides of the same issue and both are correct. On the other hand, we have differences of opinion; one or both may be contrary to what the Lord is actually saying. The question remains, what is He saying anyway?

I do not necessarily know what the whole prophetic community is saying. And, I do not profess to know all that the Lord is saying, but I do know a few things that He is saying about all that has transpired since 9/11 and may transpire in the near future. I would like to offer those things to you for your encouragement.

WHY 9/11?

This is not necessarily an easy question to answer, for the answers run very deep, but I will offer a few brief explanations.

First, the Lord spoke to me in a vision in 1999 that America had a "Security Breach." Unfortunately hindsight can be wiser than foresight as 9/11 proved that America had a huge Security Breach. That might have been all right if our National relationship with God had been solid, but it wasn't.

In 1990, the Angel of the Lord came to me during a prayer meeting and showed me the attack against the Pentagon. I was standing face to face with this beautiful creature when he told me that it was a judgment from the Lord. Another word we may use to properly depict the nature of this event would be 'discipline'. For it was disciplinary in nature and not meant for our destruction.

Surprisingly enough, the attack on the Trade Towers was first and foremost a discipline upon America for the many abortions that have occurred in our Nation. Again, just days prior to the event, I was given that instruction in a powerful vision I will not go into here.

After the fact, I was shown in another vision that all that had occurred was to set the stage for a realignment of our government with righteousness. Understand my Dear Reader, that the Lord did not say, that we would hereafter have a perfectly righteous government. The Lord was willing to add lots of grace to that equation.

I have received emails from prophets since that date telling me to repent of my backslidden ways because I will not say that America has exhausted the grace of our dear and holy Father. But, how can I say such a thing when America has a praying Church and a forgiving Father. It seems that it might border on sacrilege to be so trite with His goodness.

America does still have much for which to repent, for we have done much wrong since the very beginning of our inception. But, we also have a God whose mercy is beyond our human comprehension and will forgive us as many times as we will humble ourselves and with sincere hearts repent.

As I indicated in my book, "Prepare For The Winds of Change II" we are currently cycling through a cycle of judgment and will continue. We are in the last days and the Lord must discipline the Nations, including America.

Further, the Lord was dealing with the Nations of the world. By revealing our vulnerability He was shaking the foundations of world kingdoms. You might say this was a wake-up call to all people everywhere to repent and turn from their National and personal self-sufficiency and come to the Lord. I think many missed the message!

OUT OF THE RUBBLE

Out of the rubble of our momentary suffering came a National strength that was almost electrifying. We didn't sit around forever nursing our wounds but we quickly, through the leadership of our President, arose from the ashes, humbled ourselves before God and responded militarily to our enemy and to all those who would think ending America's Leadership role among the Nations would be such an easy task. The Nation of Afghanistan is in better shape for our immediate actions, and so are we. Really I think few doubt the validity of our military response. So, I wont tarry on this issue.

One final word here: some think we did not as a Nation humble ourselves enough before God. I agree. However, He accepted what He saw and blessed us for it.

I want to keep moving forward to light on the issue of Iraq for a bit. To war or not to war against Iraq, that was the question. If we went to war against Iraq would the Lord be with us? Was this the Lord's highest and best? Would He protect our backside when all was said and done?

The Middle East and Europe

First, let us take a moment and look at the realm of the spirit. Stationed over the Middle East are four very powerful evil beings. I saw them on one of my trips to Israel. Annie Schisler whose article we have on our website was also given to see them. These evil Powers are there for the express purpose of bringing the world into the One World Government and under the reign of the Antichrist. If you were to turn your head and look toward Europe you would see 4 more diabolical Powers hovering in the air working together with the four in the Middle East. These are relatively newly positioned ruling Monarchs. Another Reigning Power who has been there for millenniums actually rules over these European Powers as well as over the whole earth in conjunction with the Catholic Church. Again, I have been face to face with him on several different occasions. He is one of the three most powerful evil beings in the whole earth. None of these Evil Powers like America and they all hate Israel.

War on Iraq

Over Iraq, if you were to continue in your spiritual journey, you would see the spirit of the antichrist working to set up his world kingdom but still for the moment seated in a special way over Iraq. I personally saw him ruling over Iraq and making plans for world dominion. (Which will undoubtedly occur with a transfer of his throne first to Europe then to Israel.) You would also see the spirit of Lawlessness Zechariah wrote about. And finally you would see, the spirit of Harlotry written about in the book of Revelation. All these powerful evil spirits rule over Iraq and are working in conjunction with the four evil Powers functioning in the Middle East.

When I realized that we were seriously talking about going to war, I set myself aside to pray undisturbed until I heard the Lord's counsel. As it turned out, once I felt I had received His full counsel

He would not allow me to publish it. He told me to stay in my closet and say nothing to the general populace of the seeking Church until He said otherwise. It was not easy as I opened many emails sent to me by seekers wanting to know what the Lord was saying. Many reminded me that I have always been on the cutting edge of the Lord's prophetic word to His Church and that I owed it to the Church to release what He was telling me. But, I obeyed the Lord regardless and remained silent. I saw many words being released that did not line up with His true counsel; this hurt me. But still I remained silent.

At this time I am being allowed to release only a part of what the Lord gave me in those long hours of seclusion.

Was it the Lord's will for us to storm Iraq when we did? I want to begin answering that question by saying that my hours alone with the Lord totally revolutionized my prophetic perspective. The answer is yes.

First, it was time to strike Iraq! We were sent to confront wickedness in high places in the natural as well as the spiritual. As a military might, dealing with Iraq, we can only deal in the natural. Concerning the spiritual, if anything can be done, it must largely be done by the Church, or by the sovereign will of God. But, in this case, it could only have been done after the cleansing of innocent blood from the land through war.

Let me make a brief side note. The spilling of innocent blood can only be cleansed by three means: first, through repentance. Secondly, innocent blood can be cleansed through God's judgment by means of war. Third, if all else has failed He will remove the people from the land and let the land enjoy its Sabbaths uninhabited. (Lev.26) Consequently, in this case America was through this war, cleansing the land of Iraq of the spilling of innocent blood to some degree. I also saw this in a vision.

Second, I saw in several visions that many Nations had aligned themselves with Iraq behind closed doors and were poised for a strike against America. I think some of this alignment was revealed through the process of international talks surrounding the attack on Iraq. I want to caution the reader that this secret alliance between such Nations as Germany, France, Russia, China and several other Nations including Arab Nations etc. is not a light matter. The plan was to devour Israel on the way to attacking America. If we had not made a preemptive strike upon Iraq, we might be defending America against this international coalition at this very moment.

Third, I saw in a vision that Iraq was working together with other Arab Nations to strike Israel unexpectedly. Thousands of lives were saved because of America's actions.

Fourth, I had some very powerful prophetic experiences wherein he showed me the innocent lives that had been taken en mass by the regime of Saddam Hussein. I was virtually taken to mass graves and was given to see what was later released through our own media. I saw much that was not revealed as well. After these experiences I was sick for days.

Fifth, there is a time for war and a time for peace, a time for judgment and a time to withhold judgment. This was Iraq's as well as the regime of Saddam Hussein's time for judgment. Again, I was carried away to Iraq while I was in the pulpit leading a congregation in prayer at perhaps the very moment we made our first attack on Iraq. I was given to see the Angel of the Lord moving across Iraq marking people on their heads with blood using what looked like a paintbrush. As they were marked, they fell dead from war. I screamed in agony crying out to the Lord to give me understanding of what the Angel of the Lord was doing. He said: "These are being marked for destruction, be at peace child." Peace immediately filled my heart. I saw many visions that America was being sent to execute judgment upon Iraq and Saddam Hussein. I argued with the Lord incessantly through the days and weeks of intercession. Finally, I saw the spirit of the Antichrist himself ruling over Iraq. I saw the destruction he was planning if not stopped. When I saw him, I was overwhelmed with the incredible evil such as I have not known on earth. This so distressed me that I began to pray anew. I told the Lord I will not pray again to oppose Him, nor argue with Him pertaining to His will regarding this war if He would only make His instructions clear. The Lord then spoke to me audibly saying: I will destroy Babylon (Iraq) as we are near the end of the age. It is in My word. I didn't at the moment think this war would fulfill that purpose, but that another war would ensue that would wipe Babylon, (a major portion of Iraq) off the face of the earth. But, I was given to understand that this was a strategic judgment from the Lord's hand.

I continued in prayer for many days until the Lord gave me a supernatural sign in the natural heavens that He would be with us in Iraq and protect us from imminent war with the other Nations I had been shown in visions during the weeks in solitude. (That isn't to say that war with Europe will not come, it will, and in fact it must, but not now.)

Dividing the Land of Israel

I am not going to go into a lot of detail here as I wrote a fairly extensive article on this subject which can be found on our website. However, I do want to briefly cover it as it pertains to America and this President.

Contrary to popular thought, President Bush is moving within the Lord's will in dividing the land of Israel. Now before you get very upset and seek to argue with me, remember I am Jewish by my natural bloodline and I carry a very strong identification with my people. For me to say something like this goes against everything I have ever believed. But, this is because I had not fully understood the mind of the Lord. The Scripture even reveals that there is a time when such an act would be accomplished out of the Lord's own goodness. (I Kings 12:21-24)

Through many astounding prophetic revelations as well as the Scripture the Lord revealed that He was doing a magnificent thing through all of this. This thing is of Him! Following the land division, Israel will experience a great revival. It will be a repeat of the history found in 1 Kings 12. The key to protecting America in this critical undertaking is to make sure the work is done according to God's whole counsel and not to add man's wisdom or purposes into it.

* See my article on this subject for a full treatment of this critical issue.

On Coarse

I am attempting to help the reader see that the coarse we are on is not defiantly working against God's holy will. We are moving in the plan and purposes of God for yet a higher purpose in the end.

President Bush has been chosen by God to act in a way, as it may seem foreign to many Christians for the purpose of holding back Satan's plan to bring forth the One World Government prematurely. It is the Lord's objective to grant a worldwide Reformation and revival before the great and terrible day of the antichrist is unfurled upon mankind. * Read my article on Reformation and Revival.

Nations will rise up against America, but God will have His way first if we will only continue to pray. I received a vision of two terrorist attacks becoming four. These attacks would create great damage to America. I recently received an article that Al Qaeda is telling the Moslems to get out of Washington, Los Angels, and New York. I saw four attacks in different locations. So, there is yet another city to be put on the agenda. Another major East Coast city as part of that grouping wouldn't surprise me. These attacks are not being planned because America has missed the mark on the above-mentioned issues. These attacks are being planned because Satan is inciting growing anti-Semitism in the world. America just happens to be another part of the Semitic puzzle needing to be removed to install his evil kingdom.

Some said that if America strikes against Iraq we would suffer the reprisal of demons and Nations alike. We would see storms and wars for our boldness. However, my Dear Friends, the storms have been over the spilling of innocent blood in our own Nation, and simply because we are in the end of days. And the wars that are planned against America have long been planned and have nothing to do with the attack on Iraq or the dividing of the land of Israel, when in fact the land division does finally occur. The recent war against Iraq may be used as an excuse, but it is not the reason. There is an enemy named Satan who hates America because we are still standing vehemently against the developing One World Government and on the side of Israel through this Christian President. He will continue attempting to make serious breaches in our Divine protection in hopes of destroying America by nuclear war. (See my article on: Satan's Plans and Purposes for America.) Our hope rests in continued repentance and intercession over our Nation, and intercession over our President.

It is critical that we begin to support our Christian President with our prayers and our words. He may not do everything correct, but with our continued intercession he will do enough right to keep America safe for a while. If we do not support him in this manner, how will we stand against all the forces ranged against us? God alone will keep this Nation safe. No man in history has been called to stand against such Satanic Powers as our current President. Every Power I mentioned wants him out of the way. Satan has planned to take his life while still in office. Our prayers will keep him safe to fulfill God's will, thus enabling America to fulfill God's purpose in the earth. The Church holds the key. Will you use it?

Satan's plan or God's, the Church will decide!

Revival Of Emphasis On The Word

Paul Ekemezie

Nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com

A week before Smith Wigglesworth died in March 1947, he prophesied something like this: "The first move would bring the restoration of the gifts of the Spirit; the second would bring a revival of emphasis on the Word of God." He added that when the two moves are combined, "we shall see the greatest move the Church of Jesus Christ has ever seen."

It has become very clear, through numerous prophecies being poured out concerning the year 2004 that the second move of God prophesied by Smith Wigglesworth will commence this year. Some prophecies so far given concerning the year 2004 indicate that January to March will be a time of laying the foundation for the great move. I believe that the foundation to be laid is "a revival of emphasis on the Word of God". One particular writer who prophesied about 2004 mentioned something like that there will be special kinds of publications that will help to shift the people of God into the great move of God. Another writer wrote, "Access to the secrets of the Kingdom and hidden knowledge of God will be granted to His trusted friends."

Someone may easily ask, "Isn’t the Church already emphasizing the Word of God?" Yes, the Church has been emphasizing the Word, but we haven’t fully understood how to "uphold all things by His powerful word" (Heb 1:3). When we gain this understanding, there will come to be real emphasis on the Word. Today emphasis on the Word involves more of talk than of power (1 Cor 14:20).

As we approach the end of January, is there already any indication that some groundwork is already being laid, so that by Easter, as someone has prophesied, the long awaited great move of God will kick off? I am not sure if there is any visible groundwork yet.

Recently, I ran into Jay Snell’s book "How to Obtain Abraham’s Blessings, Vol. 4" in e-form on the Internet (Click Here for PDF Format.)

.Later I searched and got his website (www.jaysnell.org). In this book I gained a clear definition of "faith". Here is some excerpts from the book:

Faith is information that you receive from God for you to act upon. This information enables you to know in advance what God is going to do in the future concerning a given issue or cause of action. This information also enables you to know what you are to do in this course of action concerning this given issue.

Faith is a noun. It is information. It is something you have. Believe is a verb. It is something you do. You get a set of instructions or information from God, which becomes your faith and then you act upon that information. Your acting is your believing. You do not believe in the biblical sense without acting on your faith.

We have to know something. This something is the information we receive from God. Then, we have to do something.

There are a number of ways of getting information from God, but no information from God can deviate from Scripture. So, the Scripture is the chief source of God’s information. No Christian needs to bother so much about having or not having information from God; the Bible we have already contains so much. Where there is shortcoming is in the area of our "believing". What actions have we been taking concerning all the information from God that is contained in the Bible?

In some of my articles posted on this website last year I tried to bring out one truth, even though I may not have done the work skillfully enough: God has adopted us as His sons (Eph 1:5). We started out not knowing how to be a son of God, but Jesus says "Learn from me" (Matt 11:29).

1 Peter 2:21—To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

Jesus made us sons of God by His blood. By reason of His shed blood, we received our call to be sons of God (Rom 1:5). The way to be sons of God is simply to follow in His steps. From His exalted position as a spirit, He was transformed into fully man. Then He displayed how someone who is fully man can work his way right up to the fullness of God (Eph 3:19) or the divine nature (2 Pet 1:4). We have been called to also work our way right up to His position by following his steps.

Eph 4:10-15—He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.) 11It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, 12to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up 13until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

14Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming. 15Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ.

Unfortunately, most Christians don’t believe that they can grow up into Christ. "How can I grow up into being God," they ask. The Jews of old had an opposite problem; "We are not stoning you for any of these," replied the Jews, "but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God" (John 10:33). The Jews did not believe that God can descend to the level of man. Christians of today are ready to stone anyone who suggests that the kind of man God became is the kind of man somebody becomes today when he is born again.

What kind of man did God become in Jesus? He was without sin. What about a sinner that becomes born again today? He is justified by his faith in the blood of Jesus. His sins are forgotten or wiped away. He is without sin.

Rom 4:7-8—"Blessed are they whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered. 8Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord will never count against him."

Jesus brought us into this state by His blood. We are now sons of God. But we shouldn’t remain babies forever. We need to grow up into being like our Father in every way. As a human being, my greatest desire is for my son to grow up into at least my stature in the society. I even wish he would surpass me. I will die unhappy if my son grows up to operate at a level in society below where I have reached in my life. Why then do sons of God think that they are reverencing God by never claiming that they are growing up into being like their Father?

John 5:19-20—Jesus gave them this answer: "I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does. 20For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. Yes, to your amazement he will show him even greater things than these.

John 21:18—I tell you the truth, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go."

A matured son of God does nothing by himself; he does only what he sees God doing. What does this mean? It means that he lives on every word that comes out of the mouth of God. I learnt a great deal about what it means to live on the words of God from the book "How to Obtain Abraham’s Blessings, Vol. 4". A matured son of God cannot dress himself and go wherever he wants. No, he commits himself to only what God says.

Some people ask, what about specific things that may not have anything said about them in the Bible? The answer is that there must be some general references to it in the Bible. Begin by feeding on the general references. In John 5:20 Jesus says that the Father shows the son all He does, because He loves the son. Why does the Father love the son, and why doesn’t the Father show all sons of God today all that He does? I learnt from John 8:29 that the Father loves those who please Him. Heb 11:6 says that without faith (and believing) it is impossible to please God. The reason why we find it difficult today to receive information from God in every specific thing is because we have not pleased God enough in the information He has already given us. We have not acted enough on His words that form the Scripture. If we only we can believe enough to act on His word, Jesus says in John 5:20 that He will show us greater things. Remember someone’s prophetic word for 2004 that I quoted above: "Access to the secrets of the Kingdom and hidden knowledge of God will be granted to His trusted friends."

Jay Snell, in his book, contrasted between what it means to walk after the flesh and after the Spirit. Here are some excerpts:

"Walking after the flesh" simply means doing your own thing independently of God. It means charting your own course independently of God. It means making your own plans and carrying them out independently of God. It means living your life as though God had no claim on it at all.

The carnal Christian doesn’t base his life upon advance information from God. He, too, does his own thing, but with this difference. He couches what he does within a moral framework. He tries to avoid "offending God" by maintaining the morals of the Ten Commandments. He does his best not to steal, lie, kill, commit adultery or dishonor his parents, etc. He feels that if he can keep from "offending God" by keeping all the above moral laws, that God will at the very least, not be mad at him. In addition, the carnal Christian feels that he just might be able to get God to sanction and bless what he does as long as he is not getting God mad with him by breaking any of his moral laws. Consequently, the way a carnal Christian lives and the way an unsaved person lives is one of degree only.

To walk after the Spirit means to base your life on advance information from God and then "walk it out" by acting on it to the exclusion of all other activity. It means bringing all your desires and ambitions into line with this information. It means not doing your own thing but doing only God's thing. It means deliberately doing God's will and not your own will. It means "walking out" the information God gives you in advance.

Can you now see what made Smith Wigglesworth great? It was his ability to live on the words of God. But what is going to make the difference in this end time is "unity of faith" in the Church. What has obtained up till now is that other Christians call their leaders "Reverend". It is good for a son of God to be a reverend, like His Father; but why is it that majority of sons of God are not reverends like their Father? Beginning from this year 2004, every son of God must become reverend. This will not be a title-only reverend (a matter of talk but not of power—1 Cor 14:20), but reverend in deeds. In order to achieve this before Easter this year, church leaders must immediately begin to train their congregation the real meaning of "faith" and "believe". There must be unity in this knowledge. Time of individual champions is over.

Mal 3:1—"See, I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me. Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come," says the LORD Almighty."

Yes, the Lord is about to come to His temple, which is the Church. And He must fill the whole temple. That is why His messengers must immediately get the whole temple readied for the Lord. There must be unity of faith. When a whole congregation learns the true meaning of faith, it will be very easy for them to speak to any mountain and cause it to be removed and be thrown into the sea.

Release Of His Winds

zia6rg@msn.com

For most of yesterday and today the winds have been blowing furiously outside. As I listened to the howling it made at one point, the Lord spoke and said:

Just as you see the winds picking up speed in the natural, so it is in the Spirit. For My Winds are blowing and will carry with it debris that it has picked up from that which is not securely grounded. Are your foundations in Me, or have you sunk your roots in another place. For now is the re-establishing of My will upon the earth as it was in the beginning and was meant to be. I would have you let yourself go and allow My winds to take you to your intended destination into My purposes. You have been in this place long enough. It is time to step into the new order and plan that I am unveiling before you. My wind shall blow upon that which was dead, that which you deemed as ineffective, and bring it to life again. Do not resist My Winds as they blow.

A Call To Stand Firm
Musa Opiyo

March 17, 2004

Psalm 71:20 Thou, which hast shown me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths.

For many of God's children you have been hidden in the clefts of the rock where he has been preparing, reshaping and remolding you. This process has not been easy. Circumstances have been contrary to the hope and prophetic word that was spoken into your spirit. Many have felt abandoned by the Lord at this time and have allowed discouragement and despair to snuff out the joy and freedom that is rightfully theirs.

Many like Joseph, have been as it were, put in the pit for standing for righteousness and waiting upon the Lord (spiritually speaking). Though different for most people, the pit has caused many unrighteous seeds of hidden anger, resentment, unconfessed sin to surface. Many have at this time of self examination seen the state of their own soul and have thrown in the towel, declaring that they have missed God and are unfit to be used.

Yet the Lord is taking you through a refining process. He has placed a high calling on many who do not realise how high the price they have to pay in the form of death to themselves. The flesh in us must die if we are to advance without hindrance to the full purpose of God. Many still yet are going through a healing process in which the Lord is allowing suppressed hurts and unforgiveness to be revisited so that forgiveness and release can flow forth.

With whatever work the Lord is doing in you, his message today is clear, "DO NOT GIVE UP". When you are advancing into God's plans and making progress, you are a threat to the Kingdom of darkness. Expect attacks to come from all sides. But stand firm, girding the loins of your faith and with the armor of the Lord (Eph 6:10) Do not give up in the battle. For there is no victory without first a struggle. Walk in the authority of God through the grace He has given you through the shed blood of His Son.

Do not give up in yourself. The Lord called and fashioned you from out of the depths of his being. He did not do it blindfolded. He was, is and always will be the Alpha and the Omega who sees the end from the beginning. He saw your life; your victories and defeats, your trials and your times of joy. Yet in His holiness he has said, "With men it is impossible, but with God all things are possible (Mt 19:26)" He is depending on your ability but his ability and your willingness to submit to it to do his work.

Do not give up on your loved ones. Intercede and faithfully pray and stand in the gap for them, and watch as one by one, they all come to know Him and accept him as their personal Lord and Saviour.

For what many have endured this season, the Lord will give back double. The Lord has not given up on you. Let him be central in your vision. As you reach forward, he will take your hand and walk with you through this time of transition to your intended destiny (Prov 3:6, Ps 40:1,2)

PROPHETIC WORD

To you of My children who have remained faithful to My promises, I say do not give up. For the vision is yet for an appointed time. For you have tarried for it in this long season barely seeing the fruit of the promise, but I the Lord am faithful toward the words that I speak. Hold fast to that which I have revealed and promised you, for surely it shall come to pass in My time. Yet My Beloved Church I am refining you and polishing your surface until I see My reflection upon you. For I have given you My name and My anointing unto a people who will be faithful to proclaim and live the message of Christ and the cross. Your labors in Me have not been in vain. Your trials have not been for nothing for I am doing a cleansing and a purging that shall be for My glory. As you wait on Me, you shall run with hinds feet upon the paths I have chosen for you, says the Lord

The Seed And The Fulfillment

The Seed And The Fulfillment Of The Promise

-zia6rg@msn.com

March 20, 2004

The Lord is releasing the fulfillment of the promises he has made to his children in this day. Many of them have occurred almost as instantly as they have been spoken. Yet for many of God's people, you have waited long and hard and have wondered whether God really did mean what he said. Some have even doubted that it was God who spoke at all.

But the Lord says that many of these promises are likened unto a baby in the womb. Once that word was spoken and imparted, it was put in the belly to grow and mature. To the natural eyes it may have seemed that there was no outward manifestation. In fact, if anything, circumstances went from bad to worse. Supports and comforts that were once available are no longer there to sustain, and as the child of God gropes for support, they realise that there is One who has been their Rock and their Fortress the whole time, the Risen Christ, Jesus Himself

As they learn to trust in the Lord, their faith begins to rise and grow. Without faith it is impossible to please God. Faith causes God to act. As the faith is activated through the Word and through victory after victory won, that seed of the promise planted deep within begins to grow and form. As God brings more tests and trials, sometimes ones harder than the previous, God reminds his people of who HE is. He reminds his beloved of the inability of their strength and the supernatural power of his. As this promise grows after a period of molding, testing and the furnace, the time of birthing arrives.

Pushing, that last final advance before the promise is always the hardest, but God promises never to leave us nor forsake us. Forgetting those things that are behind and reaching forward toward the prize of the high calling of God, that child of God pushes past oppositions, voices of unbelief and circumstances that do not line up with their vision, and push forward. Like a bull in the ring that focuses on red, so the child of God focuses on the red crimson stream that flows from the cross to the throne of God.

He never said that it would be easy. But it is in the journey that he has formed himself within you. He could not have done it any other way. The are some aspects about the journey to the fulfilled promise that God chooses not to reveal because if he did, we would refuse to move forward and cause that growth to be stunted through words of unbelief on our part.

Be encouraged. The Lord has not brought you from one hellhole to let you rot in another. The only thing at this point that rots away as we behold him is our flesh which grows more corrupt everyday, but we arise in the new man who is built according to the design of God. If the road is narrow, you are on the right road. When you find mountains on your path that are insurmountable, that is God's opportunity of showing himself as the Almighty. When you find the words of mockery, rejection and slander come forth, rejoice for Jesus suffered the very same things.

Your wilderness time is over. It is a new day for the fulfillment of your promise. It is the day when the Lord is bringing many out of the caves into the battlefields. It is a day when he is bringing many out of the pits into the palaces. Do not give up now. God is getting ready to birth something new in the lives of those who simply say yes to him. It is the season and it is the time of transition from one place to another. Shut the doors of the past and go through the new doors he is forming for you.

Step in and do not look back. Keep your hand to the plough and activate those gifts and talents that God has place in you. Some are saying, 'I have no gifts and callings'. Pray and ask God to stir those gifts within you for the glory of his Kingdom.

"To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven"-(Eccl 3:1)

"For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.......Nay in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us"-(Rom 8: 18, 37)

"Nay but O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?"-(Rom 9:20-21)

Have you ever been forsaken in you hour of need? Now I need you to RELY ON ME as I take you from the wilderness to green pastures.

Rely on Me to bring the right people to your side, to your door. You have seen My hand of provision and now I will do more.

I am opening the door Beloved, I am opening the door. You have been faithful in little and now it pleases My Father Heart to bless you with much more.

As you take your first tentative step through the open door, I will be with you Beloved, I will be with you.

How pleased I am Beloved, in this hour to display My Champions, to parade My Holy Ones in the face of an unbelieving world.

I have labored and labored these many years to bring you to this place in Me Beloved, in this Holy place in Me.

I have said to you before to watch what I will do, and now see what I will do through you, My Beautiful Beloved.

Eye has not seen, nor ear heard what I have in store for My Beloved.. Hold onto your seat as I do this new thing. It is more than you ever dreamed, greater that your wildest expectation.

It will come soon now Beloved, for you are prepared. You are My righteous ones prepared for battle. It is the battle of the ages, but oh how GLORIOUS it will be now for Me, to parade My SONS OF GLORY!

My Beautiful Beloveds, so dear to My heart, so close to Me.

Be A Blessing Unto Me

My name is mentioned in this word, it is unusual, but I dare not change the word, but write it as it was given to me!

I have called you to be a blessing unto Me. Yes Beloved I bless you, but you are also to be a blessing unto Me. You ask how can I be a blessing unto You Lord? I will tell you how. A broken heart and contrite spirit I adore! O people who hear My voice, who can hear My implore!

Psalms 34:18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

This is an hour to walk very closely with Me, as I protect and carry you with Me, for without that, you will no longer be.

Be prepared to be succored unto Me, for I must consume your whole heart and make you totally free.

An hour is coming Beloved that only those totally in Me will survive to do great exploits in My name. This is no time for games, FOR YOU MUST TRULY KNOW ME, YOU MUST BE IN ME AND I IN YOU.

Let Me draw your heart My Bride, deeper unto Me, for TRULY ONE WE ARE TO BE.

Joh 17:21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

Dee has known what it is to be truly in Me; I lost in her and she lost in Me. She has known My awesome protection of her being totally in We Three. THIS IS WHERE I AM CALLING ALL TO BE.

Rumors of Reality
Rick Joyner

January 19, 2004
In the next verse of the Lord's discourse concerning the end of the age, He says:

"And you will be hearing of wars and rumors of wars; see that you are not frightened, for those things must take place, but that is not yet the end" (Matthew 24:6).

We must consider that the Lord says this right after He exhorts us not to be deceived. Because war is the worst of all judgments, the most terrible of all conditions that we can be caught in, it is hard not to think that war is the end of the world when it comes upon us. Just as He warns us here, our fear can mislead us and cause us to think this.

Immediately after the September 11 attacks, I was amazed at how so many major newspapers and news organizations called seeking a biblical or prophetic interpretation for what had happened. I was surprised by how many had at least a sense that this was somehow a harbinger of the end of the age, even though they did not know why. I do not ever remember hearing the Lord mentioned so often on the news, and with such respect. Attendance records were broken in churches across the country. This openness to the Lord may not have lasted long, but it was dramatic for a time, and many people did at least become more spiritually aware.

My point is that we are going to be having many wars, and many rumors of wars that will compel many to think that it is the end, wrongly. And, this will present many opportunities for the gospel, even though we do not want to be misled into thinking that these things represent the end, and we do not want to use them to mislead others. Many have already heard "it's the end" so many times that they are hardened against it now.

Regardless of this, at some point it will indeed be the end. So how will we know? How will we warn others when it is? Almost every generation of Christians at some point thought that they were the last generation of the age, and therefore all of these were deceived on this point. One way that I think we can help protect ourselves against this same deception is for our messages to not be overly focused on the end, but on the new beginning that it is. Our message is the ultimate message of hope-the King is coming! Our message is not a message of doom-it is a message of a new beginning!

For too long the church has been so focused on the end, and therefore its message so focused on doom, that we have not used the most powerful message that we were given-the gospel of the kingdom. This is the greatest message of hope the world has ever heard, and it will be preached throughout the world when the world needs it the most and is ready to hear it. I was sorry when the September 11 attacks happened that I was not more prepared for the opportunities for the gospel that came my way. I do not want to be so unprepared again.

There is also a factor that we need to understand about war. When I was in the Navy, because I was stationed for a time on a base where everyone was required to be a part of the ground defense force, I had to go through basic Marine Corp infantry training. A good part of this training was learning basic battle strategies and tactics. We were taught over and over how important a good battle plan was. Then, to our amazement, we were told that rarely in a battle were the plans followed. In fact, most battles are semi-controlled chaos. We were told simply that the one who could deal with confusion best would have the best chance to both survive, and win the battle. Fear and confusion usually cause people to shut down and become passive, so the one that overcomes this and takes action will win.

War is chaos and confusion for soldiers who are well trained for it. It is far worse for civilians who are caught in it. This is why the Lord tells His people in the exhortation above to "not be afraid." We should not be surprised by these things, and we should be prepared for them better than any soldier.

Regardless of what is happening in this world, if our lives have been built on the kingdom that cannot be shaken, we will not be shaken by what goes on in the world.

We were not redeemed and then left on the earth just to be blessed and have a good time. Every Christian that is still here is here for one purpose-to be a part of proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom. Neither are we to shut down because of any anti-Christ, as Daniel 11:31-32 declares:

"And forces from him (the anti-Christ) will arise, desecrate the sanctuary fortress, and do away with the regular sacrifice. And they will set up the abomination of desolation.

"And by smooth words he will turn to godlessness those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their God will display strength and take action.

So, when "wars and rumors of wars" come, we must heed to the Lord's command to "not be afraid." Fear will not only cloud our thinking, leading to deception, but it will also cause us to miss some of the greatest opportunities for the gospel. We must gird ourselves for action. The more confusing it gets, the more important it is for us be strong and be bold.

Regardless of whether the war that comes is the very end or not, war is the end for many people. If we find ourselves in any such conflict, we are there for a reason, and the reason is to take action. Christians, who are assured of eternal life, should always be the most courageous in the midst of danger. For this reason the Lord tells us in Revelation 21:7-8:

"He who overcomes shall inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be My son.

"But for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and immoral persons and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

Cowards have their portion with the unbelievers, as well as the "abominable and murderers..." Not having courage is not an option for the Christian. If we do not have courage in the midst of these times it is because we do not really believe. But for those who do rise up to overcome, He will prove to be our God, and we will be shown to be His sons.

The Deadly Enemy
Rick Joyner

January 26, 2004

In the next verse of the Lord's discourse concerning the end of the age, and after saying there will be "wars and rumors of wars" (Matthew 24:6) He speaks of the issue that will cause most of the wars and conflicts.

"For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom..." (Matthew 24:7).

The Greek word that is translated "nation" here is ethnos from which we derive the English word, "ethnic." He is specifically speaking of how increasing ethnic conflict will be one of the primary signs of the times, and one of the primary causes of the conflicts at the end. Even though ethnic conflicts seem to have been with us since the tower of Babel, it has been increasing at a dramatic pace just in the last few years. Not only are there more of such conflicts, but the brutality of them seems to be increasing as well.

As we have discussed before what the Lord said in Matthew 13:39,

"the harvest is the end of the age..." A harvest is the reaping of what has been sown. The end of this age will be the time when everything that has been sown in man, both the good and the evil, will come to maturity and be reaped. The ethnic conflict, the racism, is the cause of much of the death and destruction at the end because it is one of the ultimate evils of the human heart.

Racism is one of the ultimate evils because it is founded upon two of the most powerful evil strongholds that can grip the human heart-fear and pride. Racism is the result of one or both of these evils having influence in the way that we live and view life.

We will be a racist to the degree that these have influence over us. If it is pride, we become racists because we view ourselves as superior, and others as inferior because of the flesh or externals. If fear has a great influence over how we live and view the world, we will tend to become racists because we will fear those who are not like us. Of course, the worst forms of racism are the combination of both pride and fear. These can grow to the point where almost all that we do and think is controlled by them-which is the case with racists, which can themselves be any color.

When Luke records this discourse of the Lord concerning the end of the age, he adds:

And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars, and upon the earth dismay among nations (ethnos), in perplexity at the roaring of the sea and waves, men fainting from fear and the expectations of the things which are coming upon the world; for the power of the heavens will be shaken (Luke 21:25-26).

As soon as the Iron Curtain came down, many began to use their new freedom to attack their neighbors who were from other ethnic groups. The most cruel and devastating wars broke out over conflicts that were sometimes centuries old. Tribal conflicts in Africa seem to be unending. Of course, the oldest such conflict of all is in the Middle East. Worldwide, there are racial tensions that are only waiting for a spark which will cause an explosion of violence. As we proceed toward the end of this age this will only get worse. However, as the church is called to be "the light of the world," we are called to have the answers to the world's ultimate problems-and we do.

As the Lord Jesus said in Mark 11:17, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations'?" The Greek word that is translated "nations" here is the same word used in Matthew 24:7 quoted above-it is the Greek word ethnos. The Lord was literally saying that His house would be a house of prayer for all ethnic groups.

The God who so loves diversity that He would make every snowflake, every leaf on every tree, and every one of us different, will not be found in a house where the pressure to conform has stripped people of the uniqueness and individuality that He created them with. The God who never seemed to even heal people the same way twice will not be found in a house of stifling and boring uniformity. That's why His house must be a house composed of all ethnic groups.

The church cannot fulfill its destiny until it truly becomes a house of prayer for all ethnic cultures and peoples. It too will mature at the end of this age, and in place of pride and fear, the church will be filled with humility and faith that enables Christians to open their hearts to those who are different from themselves. This will be in stark contrast to the racial tensions that have arisen in the world, and will be a great witness to the world because of it. In place of fear and pride the whole world will see Christians loving each other regardless of race or cultural background. Therefore, let us resolve to live as the apostle Paul exhorts us to live:

Therefore from now on we recognize no man according to the flesh; even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know Him thus no longer.

Therefore if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come (II Corinthians 5:16-17).

If we are truly new creatures in Christ, we simply cannot be racists. The church, above all, should never judge others according to the color of their flesh, or their cultural background. We must learn to see by the Spirit, and judge only by the Spirit, just as our Lord did when He walked the earth.

Martin Luther King, Jr. had a dream that one day men would not judge others by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character. That is a dream which will certainly come to pass. For those who have truly had their minds renewed, who are the true representatives of the kingdom of God, this dream is already a reality.

The Great Deception
Rick Joyner

February 2, 2004

Our study of the end times is for the purpose of not only knowing what is going to come to pass, but to be prepared for it. For this reason we will seek to go a little deeper in our understanding of the stronghold of racism, which Scripture indicates to be one of the major forces bringing destruction at the end of this age.

To be prepared for this evil power, we must first become free of it. The first principle of true freedom is "...you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:32). Truth is our most basic commodity and most powerful weapon. The litmus test of all matters (to determine if they are in fact truth) is first found in their compliance with the Scriptures. If we are in fact truth seekers, and not just influence seekers, then the Scriptures are our compass to lead us to our destination.

Even so, truth is not just a compilation of facts-truth is a Person! Jesus is the truth. In all things we are not just seeking to know the letter of the Scriptures, but to hear His voice. We are not just seeking to hear the words of the Lord, but the Word Himself. Our goal is not just obedience to the letter, but obedience to the living God. To be prepared for the end times, we must not only know what is going to happen, but be abiding in the Lord, who is above all rule and authority and dominion.

There is a great lesson to be understood concerning this from the story of the two men on the road to Emmaus. It was immediately after the Lord's crucifixion and resurrection that this takes place. The Lord Jesus Himself joined up with two of His disciples who were walking on the road, and they did not recognize Him. In this story I think we have illuminated the primary reason why even His own disciples often fail to recognize Him. Believe it or not, to a large degree this has to do with the degree of racism in our heart.

After the Lord inquired about why these disciples were troubled, He went on to explain from the Scriptures, not only concerning the events that had just taken place in Jerusalem, but the things concerning Himself from the beginning of the Scriptures until the end. This may well have been the greatest teaching that He ever gave on the earth. Here we have Christ Himself teaching about Himself from the beginning of the Scriptures to the end. What could have possibly been greater than this? Yet, they still could not recognize Him! Why?

We are given the answer to this in Mark 16:12, when it says concerning this event, "...He appeared in a different form..." They could not recognize Him because He appeared to them in a form that they were not used to. This is still possibly the main reason why believers fail to recognize Him when He tries to draw close to them-He will almost inevitably come in a form that we are not used to, or expect.

Why does He do this? Understanding why is crucial for understanding how we will discern Him, His ways, and His purposes.

In Matthew 23:39 the Lord said, "For I say to you, from now on you shall not see Me until you say, "BLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD." If we are going to "see" Him, we must recognize Him in those that He sends to us. The Lord lamented over Jerusalem that she would have been spared the destruction which was coming (and did come in 70 AD), if she had recognized the time of her visitation. Knowing the time of our visitation is essential for us to avoid the coming destruction as well. Knowing and discerning the signs of the times is important, but recognizing the Lord, and those that He sends to us, is more important than knowing the signs. Of course, what we want to do is know both.

The two disciples could not recognize Him on the road to Emmaus because they only knew Him after the flesh, after His external appearance, and not after the Spirit. This same thing causes many to still miss the time of their visitation because they tend to judge by appearances, the externals, rather than by the discernment of the Spirit. This is the result of being shallow in vision and understanding, both of which will be very costly in the times ahead.

Those who are true seekers of God, true worshipers, will have a devotion to go deeper in their understanding of Him, but even more, they will be devoted to being close to Him. We are told in I Corinthians 2:10, "For to us God revealed them through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God." Therefore, we can also assume that those who are led by the Spirit will be prone to search for the depths of God, and they will go deeper.

Also, as we learn in the Parable of the Sower, one of the qualities of the good soil which will bear fruit with the seed that is sown in it, is that the seed can go deep, not being shallow like in the "rocky soil." One reason for this is that those who tend to want to go deeper are those who care more. When they hear things and they are moved by them, they will inevitably pursue a deeper understanding of them. What does this have to do with racism? A great deal, and we will see this soon.

There are also basically two ways that we tend to recognize others. The first is by their face, and the second is by their voice. Having been with my wife for more than twenty-seven years, she could use just about any disguise, but if she spoke I would know her voice immediately. In this way we should be able to recognize the Lord immediately when He speaks, regardless of the form in which He comes.

In this we are not talking about recognizing His voice because we know the physical tones, because the voice of the Lord is spiritual. Therefore, we must know Him after the Spirit. It is kind of like the way an art expert can recognize an authentic piece of work by an artist by the brush strokes, the colors, and nuances that other casual viewers of the art would not notice. Those who really know the Lord have this kind of intimacy with Him, and they know Him much more profoundly than just by hearing someone say, "Thus says the Lord." They know Him and His ways so well that they will recognize them quickly in anyone that He sends.

On the other hand, racism is the result of an ultimate shallowness, an ultimate selfishness, and an ultimate failure to understand the Lord, His purposes, and His ways. This is why the Lord Jesus explained that this was one of the primary things that would distinguish us as "sheep" or "goats" at the judgment. As He said in the parable of the sheep and goats, the sheep were those who fed Him when He was hungry, when He was thirsty they gave Him a drink, and when He was a foreigner they took Him in. By this we can conclude that our willingness to be open to the foreigner, those who are different from us, will be one of the determining characteristics of whether we are "sheep" or "goats" at the judgment (see Matthew 25:41-46).

It is also noteworthy that when Paul the apostle gave the qualifications for elders in the first chapter of Titus, one of these qualifications is that they are given to, or a lover of hospitality. The Greek word that is translated "hospitable" in this text is philoxenos (fil-ox'-en-os). The suffix here xenos is the root word for "foreigner" in the Greek. To more literally translate what Paul wrote would be that an elder had to be a lover of hospitality to foreigners.

Why would Paul say this? Because until we are not only open, but a lover of foreigners, and open enough to them to show hospitality, we are not mature enough spiritually to be a leader in the church. This is evidence that one has been delivered from the roots of fear and/or pride that would make one a racist, as well as one who understands how the glory of the diversity that God has made basic to His creation reveals His ways.

In Deuteronomy 10:18-19, Israel is commanded to love the foreigners who are in their midst. In Deuteronomy 31:12, they are told to "assemble the people, the men and the women and the children and the foreigner who is in your town, in order that they may hear and learn and fear the Lord your God, and be careful to observe all the words of this law." The Lord commanded His people to love the foreigners before He commanded them to teach them His ways. As we have discussed before, true spiritual authority will always be founded upon love. Love establishes a trust that will open one up to what we have to teach. Therefore, we will not be able to teach others until we love them.

It is because of this that racism, in all of its forms (and there are many), can be so devastating to the fulfilling of the Great Commission. It does this by setting up as a stronghold within those who are called to preach the gospel, preventing them from crossing the racial and cultural barriers that is to be preached to every nation.

We will continue our study of this devastating evil stronghold next week, seeking to be free of all of its influences in our own life, as well as laying a basic understanding of how this will be a force for evil at the end of this age.

Rosh Hashanah 2004

Timothy Snodgrass

The Significance Of Rosh Hashanah 2004

September 15, 2004

Today as I write this it is Tishri 1, 5765 on the Jewish calendar; the first day of the New Year. The foundations of the next three years are now being laid behind the scenes by a small remnant of people, and only intercession can tip the balance and alter the course of events which are about to take place in 2005, 2006 and 2007. There is an unprecedented urgency this fall to fast, pray and press through in intercession unlike we have never pressed through before, to intercede in the 'Garden of Gethsemane' as if our lives depended upon it, for indeed it does for thousands of us, and many cities and nations are being weighed in the balance.

I was taken on an unexpected journey on Elul 29, the last day of 5764 on the Jewish calendar, when I was taken in the Spirit and given an angelic tour of things to come if the nations of the world continue on their current path. In the midst of the next three years, I was shown a bridge over troubled waters, with severe warnings shaking the earth in 5765 (2004-2005), greater judgments beginning to unfold in 5766 (2005-2006), and as the angel guided me across the bridge into 5767 (2006-2007) I was shown fire and mushroom clouds rising over cities, roaring seas and great tribulation unlike the world has ever seen. Nations were in great anguish as unprecedented earthquakes buried entire cities underneath the sea.

Without angelic intervention, events will begin to occur so quickly during the days ahead that many Christians will be caught off-guard, drunk in the cares of the world, and will not have their lamps filled with anointing. Do not be caught off guard. The Lord's return is at hand, and great birth pangs are about to shake the earth. Everything which has been prophesied shall come to pass. From the state of Alaska, to Asia and the ends of the earth, volcanic eruptions and great earthquakes are just the beginning. The initial birth pangs will be a call to repentance, but if are not heeded greater judgments will follow.

The purpose of the above prophetic warning is to save lives, not destroy them; to call the Body of Christ to intercession, not evacuation. By expecting the worse, we often miss the best. If we try to fit prophetic warnings into our own eschatological backgrounds, end time scenarios and personal theories, we fall into the same pitfall the Pharisees fell in to two millennia ago, and may totally miss the heart of God. This does not mean that we should not study eschatology and end time events. But we must allow room for God's sovereignty, or we miss the opportunity for his grace. Intercession can change worlds, and God is sovereign to not only change the future, but also to erase the past. This is a season of repentance, change, and new beginnings. Much can be lost if we fall into slumber, but much can also be gained during the next three years if we respond correctly to the Holy Spirit. Time is running out to intervene and lessen the magnitudes of the initial birth pangs. Instead of a cataclysmic earthquake in Alaska which shreds the land into pieces, the Veil of Darkness could be shredded into pieces, and rivers of Living Water spring up from the earth; but the choice is ours. Who shall heed the warnings while they are yet small? At the time of this writing, a third hurricane is now crashing into the United States on Tishri 1, 5765 – these three storms represent three years of cleansing, which began today, September 15, 2004.

FOR CHRISTIAN LEADERS

Judgment must first begin in the house of God, and repentance first among those who are in leadership positions. Live a holy life, repent, humble yourselves, pray, for the time is much shorter than you think, and your people and perishing and need a deliverer, a shepherd, to lead them to a place of safety. Be a deliverer, a counselor, one who stands in the gap for your people, who will be a champion for your city and nation. A great cleansing is coming, and although some judgments are inevitable over the next three years, magnitudes can be lessened, wars can be averted, cities and nations can be saved. As national elections approach this fall, it is appropriate that you call your people to a time of prayer and fasting, not in a strict religious or burdensome sense; but as a leader that you build an atmosphere of intercession, a desire to press through for a breakthrough, releasing a spirit of hope instead of a spirit of death. Leave your people with a vision and goal for the future, a desire to change the course of history, and to move mountains and press through towards an impossible conclusion. God is releasing revivalists in this hour who will confront the Veil of Darkness over cities and nations head on and literally move worlds for the Kingdom of God.

Blessings,

Return Of The Prodigals

Return of the Prodigals: Our Father's Joy
by Victoria Boyson
www.boyson.org

The Lord spoke to me recently, and He said, "Prepare the church to receive the prodigals!" As He spoke this I saw in the spirit wave after wave of prodigal sons and daughters coming back into the church.

Many of those who have gone astray will return to us, but how will we receive them? We must prepare our hearts for their return or we may lose them again to the world. We must ready ourselves to move swiftly to touch them with the fullness of Christ; they must know intimately the love of our heavenly Father.

The Prodigal Son

In Luke 15:11-32, the Lord tells a story of two sons. The older son stayed with his father, faithfully serving him, but the younger son left him and went into the world. He was given his inheritance, but squandered it. He wasted his life on loose living and became entangled in all kinds of sin. He was left with nothing and was living in deprivation, eating with swine, when he decided to return to his father.

When he returned home, his father received him with open arms and was grateful for his return. He was quick to restore him to his rightful place as his son, but his older brother resented him for his sin. He resented his father's forgiveness and his restoration of his brother.

Instead of being happy for his brother's return and rejoicing with his father, he was unhappy and bitter. He felt he should "pay" for his sin. He did not realize that sin holds with it its own consequences. It is no fun living with swine!

They Will Go Where They're Accepted

Our Father receives great joy in the return of His prodigals, and if we love Him we will also love what He loves; we will rejoice with our Father that His joy is made complete in the return of the ones who have gone astray. And if it makes Him happy to restore them and bless them, then we should be happy that He has done so.

If we do not receive them warmly, or if we reject them because of their past, we run the risk of them leaving the church and becoming vulnerable to the enemy again. And our Father's heart will be deeply grieved by their leaving and even more by our lack of love. Most people will go where they are accepted and loved. If they are accepted at the bar more than at church, can we blame them for wanting to be there instead of with us?

Mercy-Seekers Will Lead Other Prodigals To Christ

God has sent many prodigals into our congregations seeking mercy for their sins. They left the church, but are wanting desperately to return. They come to us like prodigal scouts seeking a church that will accept them and show them mercy. But many Christians have rejected them as they have sought re-admittance into the family of God. Still they continue to try and become a part of the body of Christ.

These mercy-seekers are clearing a path for a multitude of prodigals to follow them and return to the Lord. If we can love them and show them we are a safe place, a refuge for those seeking shelter from the enemy, they will come and lead many others to our house of grace.

Prodigals May Hold the Key to Save Your Love Ones!

It is essential that we recognize these brave souls and serve them. We need to treat them as the kings and queens that they are. They may hold the key to your loved one returning to the Lord. They may not be easy to love, but if we don't, we will lose a measure of the harvest God desires to bring to us.

They will fail at times, and it may be very frustrating for us, but we must be patient with them and allow them time to mature. It is imperative that we respond to their failures with mercy, because they will see themselves through our eyes. And if we love them, they will be able to love themselves, but if we reject them, it will cause them to hate themselves.

Can't We Love All Whom God Loves?

The Lord's heart breaks when He sees one of His children rejected. He weeps when they are not allowed to become a part of our lives or not allowed admittance into our circle of friends. They are some of the greatest treasure we could find. Like refined gold, they have been sorely tried in the furnace of affliction.

They are so brave to come back into our churches, and they long to be accepted back into their Father's family. Must we, as their brothers and sisters, punish them for their past? Can we not rejoice with our Father at their return? Can we not love what He loves?

Throw Out Your Expectations and Assumptions!

I believe the Lord's heart is breaking, not only because of our rejection of those seeking mercy, but He also weeps for us. Inasmuch as we reject them, we have closed a door of grace that He wanted to open for us. He wants to bless His church, but we have not received His blessing because it did not come in the "proper package." It did not come as we had expected it would.

We have been duped by the enemy time and again because we have judged by appearance and not by the heart. We have welcomed wolves in sheep's clothing with open arms and have been devoured by them, while rejecting those who do not look righteous. Yet God has given them the keys to His kingdom.

Dear Church, let us stop seeking after the cups which appear clean on the outside, but let us look deep inside the unclean cups and discover the greatest treasure on earth (Mt. 23:25-26).

The Lord said in Matthew 23:37-38, "How often I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were unwilling. Behold, your house is being left to you desolate!"

Are You Willing To Receive Them As Jesus Would?

How the Lord longs to gather the prodigals to Himself as a hen gathers her chicks. The question has always been: Are we willing to receive them? And what will He do with them once He has brought them home? Where is the house that will make itself a refuge for the lost? Where is the family that will receive them? Will we welcome them? For the sake of our Father who loves us, we must!

"Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). Our Lord gave His life to save them. We must now lay down our lives to receive them.

By Loving Them, We Are Loving Him

We must become a refuge for them to shelter them from the attacks of the enemy. Satan will not give them up easily because he knows they hold the keys to his demise. We must see their value and fight for them. It only takes one person who will believe in them, love them and accept them, and then they will be able to fight their way back to their Father.

It will indeed be a battle for them, and we must be there to help them or they may not make it. No matter how many times they fail, we must be there to show them that God's mercy is new every morning (see Lam. 3:22-23). We must teach them that He renews His mercy for them every day, and that His mercy will triumph over the judgment (see James 2:13) that seeks to condemn them for their past. And as we show them His mercy, we will be renewing it for ourselves as well (see Mt. 5:7).

Our continued love for them will be a refuge for them. The enemy wants to make them hate themselves because of their past. We must be there to remind them that they are a new creation in Christ, and that all things are made new in Him (see 2 Co. 5:17). If we lay down our own ideas of what we think they should be and just love them instead, they will become all that God wants them to become.

Dear Friends, let us love them as our Father has loved us. Let us give our all for them as He gave His all for us. For by loving them, we are loving Him.

Reality Of The Supernatural

Reality Of The Supernatural

Key Bible Verse: ".even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), and raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus." (Eph. 2:5,6)

Lesson Objectives: Learn that the spiritual realm is as real as the natural realm. · Know how to walk and live in that supernatural reality. Receive revelation and impartation for supernatural living. Grow in faith that the Lord would open the eyes of your heart.

This lesson examines the scriptural foundation of the reality of the Supernatural-every-day walking and living in this realm. How many of you are hungry for an open heaven in your life? If you really want the supernatural to be natural and common in your life, this course and this lesson is for you. Is your heart's cry, "I want heaven to touch the earth. I want heavenly glory. I want to open up the windows of heaven and I want to live in the supernatural provision of God's grace, power and presence"? In my life and in the ministry of Fresh Fire, we have been living, on a daily basis since 1998, in the reality of the spiritual realm. Through this lesson I want to lay a foundation for understanding the spiritual realm. I want to raise our expectations of how much of God we can receive and walk in now. Let's grow in faith to encounter and experience God in ways that we have never encountered before. Let's get hungry for that spirit of wisdom and revelation to come upon our lives, for God to open up the windows of heaven.

1. Seeing Into the Supernatural (John 3:5-13; Eph. 2:5,6)

(John 3:5-13) 5 Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Do not marvel that I said to you, "You must be born again.' 8 The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit." 9 Nicodemus answered and said to Him, "How can these things be?" 10 Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things? 11 Most assuredly, I say to you, We speak what We know and testify what We have seen, and you do not receive Our witness. 12 If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13 No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven.

(Eph. 2:5,6) 5 even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), 6 and raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

In this lesson, I am just going to share with you very quickly just a few Scriptures the Holy Spirit has given me. I want to lay a foundation for the miraculous and the power of God. The Kingdom of God is not in word only but in power-we need to see the demonstration of the Holy Spirit and power. But more than that, as believers, we need to walk in God's power. I want you to encounter and experience the supernatural, to encounter and experience the reality of the spiritual realm. I'm praying that God is going to open up the eyes of your heart, of your spiritual understanding.

Recently, while I was in Salt Lake City, I had a prophetic experience. I was taken up into the spiritual climate over Utah and I saw what God was doing in Salt Lake City. I had an open eye vision, the heavens opened and I was taken up into a large vortex. It was like I was in the eye of a tornado or in a spiritual portal. It was if God had ripped open heaven and I was able to see that something was taking place in the spiritual climate of Utah and of Salt Lake City. I saw angels ascending and descending into the service-they were bringing eyes and wings into the meeting. "God what are these eyes?" I asked. "Todd," He said, "the eyes are for the seer prophet. They represent the seer anointing." Then the Lord told me that the wings are for the eagles, the prophetic people, anointed with fresh revelation, those He is gathering and releasing this year. This year God is releasing a fresh dimension of the prophetic anointing. This download will come in the form of prophecy that involves the emotions in a greater way-it's going to involve the spiritual senses. It's going to be more like experiential prophetic experiences-visions, dreams. Visions will become more graphic, involving various detail which will include emotions and even natural senses. After talking with other prophetic people, I realized we agree that this year the Body of Christ is ready, on a corporate level, for the kind of anointing that we have touched and seen hidden in back rooms until now-angelic visitations, dreams, trances and other third heaven realm experiences

From the beginning to the end of the Bible we see the reality of these supernatural experiences. I believe God wants to take the spook out of the prophetic and make it common place and available to all believers. In this lesson, I want to lift our expectations of how much of the supernatural we can walk in now. I want to lift your faith levels to believe for a whole new place of personal and corporate open heavens where the supernatural gates swing wide open. When the spiritual realm opens up, the power of God, favor and resources are released into our lives.

2. Only Believe (Mark 9:23; Luke 8:49, 50; Matt. 8:7-10) Jesus said to him,"If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.' Mark 9:23

While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher." But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be made well." Luke 8:49, 50

And Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him." The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only speak a word, and my servant will be healed. For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, "Go,' and he goes; and to another, "Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, "Do this,' and he does it." When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to those who followed, "Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel! (Matt. 8:7-10)

(This Centurion must have believed that Jesus had angels (servants) to carry out His word) Later, I will tell you about the angel that has visited me. However, first I want you to realize how important faith is. Once the Lord told me, "Todd, if you can get people to believe in the angel I will bring miracles." Now listen, it's not about believing in the angel in the same way we believe in Jesus. We don't put our faith in angels-they are agents through which Jesus works. But often we won't be able to receive and walk in what God is doing in His supernatural power until we hear testimonies of powerful works that God is doing and our belief in the unseen realm begins to grow. Testimonies aren't greater than Jesus, but scripture does tell us that the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of prophecy. That prophetic testimony releases faith if we hear with an open heart. The Lord has said to me: "Todd, if you can get people to believe in what I am now releasing by the prophetic power of my Spirit-the prophetic word , angels, dreams, the realities of the spiritual realm, the manifestation of heaven touching earth and people being healed and set free-then I can begin to fully release My power." It's the power of faith and believing. "Only believe," says Jesus. Believing is the door that opens up the spiritual realm and that brings heaven; it's the entrance through which heaven touches earth and through which miracles, signs and wonders come. God wants to challenge our belief system and our mind sets. He wants to challenge our levels of faith. God wants to make the supernatural natural and commonplace. Yes, He wants us to believe like the saints of old who we read about throughout the Bible.

a. Angels (Gen. 18:1-16; 19:1; Judges 6:11,12; Dan. 10:5-21; Gen. 28:10-12; Luke 1:26-30)

Angels are everywhere in scripture-whether it was angels coming over to Abraham's house for a meal or an angel showing up at the winepress with Gideon. Then there is Daniel who is taken into heaven he sees an angel who has just come from a battle with the Prince of Persia. In scripture there are so many prophetic experiences. There's Jacob who sees the ladder with angels ascending and descending, going into heaven, getting revelation and coming out of heaven. We read about Mary and Joseph being led by prophetic dreams. Angels appeared to them to bring direction and warnings. Here are some passages which describe some of these angelic experiences:

Abraham (Gen. 18:1-16) 1"Then the LORD appeared to him by the terebinth trees of Mare, as he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day. 2 So he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing by him; and when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them, and bowed himself to the ground, 3 and said, "My Lord, if I have now found favor in Your sight, do not pass on by Your servant. 4 Please let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. 5 And I will bring a morsel of bread, that you may refresh your hearts. After that you may pass by, inasmuch as you have come to your servant." They said, "Do as you have said." 6 So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, "Quickly, make ready three measures of fine meal; knead it and make cakes." 7 And Abraham ran to the herd, took a tender and good calf, gave it to a young man, and he hastened to prepare it. 8 So he took butter and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree as they ate. 9 Then they said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" So he said, "Here, in the tent." 10 And He said, "I will certainly return to you according to the time of life, and behold, Sarah your wife shall have a son." (Sarah was listening in the tent door which was behind him.) 11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age; and Sarah had passed the age of childbearing. 12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "After I have grown old, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?" 13 And the LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, "Shall I surely bear a child, since I am old?' 14 Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son." (Gen. 19:1) Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground.

Gideon (Judges 6:11, 12) Now the Angel of the LORD came and sat under the terebinth tree which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrimte, while his son Gideon threshed wheat in the winepress, in order to hide it from the Midianimtes. 12 And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, "The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor!"

 Daniel (Dan. 10:5-21) 5 I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, a certain man clothed in linen, whose waist was girded with gold of Uphaz! 6 His body was like beryl, his face like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like torches of fire, his arms and feet like burnished bronze in color, and the sound of his words like the voice of a multitude. 7 And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great terror fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. 8 Therefore I was left alone when I saw this great vision, and no strength remained in me; for my vigor was turned to frailty in me, and I retained no strength. 9Yet I heard the sound of his words; and while I heard the sound of his words I was in a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground. 10 Suddenly, a hand touched me, which made me tremble on my knees and on the palms of my hands. 11 And he said to me, "O Daniel, man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you." While he was speaking this word to me, I stood trembling. 12 Then he said to me, "Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard; and I have come because of your words. 13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; and behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left alone there with the kings of Persia. 14 Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days, for the vision refers to many days yet to come." 15 When he had spoken such words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and became speechless. 16 And suddenly, one having the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke, saying to him who stood before me, "My lord, because of the vision my sorrows have overwhelmed me, and I have retained no strength. 17 For how can this servant of my lord talk with you, my lord? As for me, no strength remains in me now, nor is any breath left in me." 18 Then again, the one having the likeness of a man touched me and strengthened me. 19 And he said, "O man greatly beloved, fear not! Peace be to you; be strong, yes, be strong! "So when he spoke to me I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me." 20 Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? And now I must return to fight with the prince of Persia; and when I have gone forth, indeed the prince of Greece will come. 21 But I will tell you what is noted in the Scripture of Truth. (No one upholds me against these, except Michael your prince.

 Jacob (Gen 28:10-12) 10 Now Jacob went out from Beersheba and went toward Haran. 11 So he came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took one of the stones of that place and put it at his head, and he lay down in that place to sleep. 12 Then he dreamed, and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

 Mary (Luke 1:26-30) 26 Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, 27 to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. 28 And having come in, the angel said to her, "Rejoice, highly favored one, the Lord is with you; blessed are you among women!" 29 But when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and considered what manner of greeting this was. 30 Then the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

b. Prophetic Experiences (Ezek. 8:3-4; Hab. 2:2; Obadiah 1:1; Acts 10:9-15; 2 Cor. 12:1-4; James 5:17,18)

Throughout the bible, we read about numerous prophetic experiences. Not only did all of the major and minor prophets have supernatural encounters, but just about every major bible character from the beginning of the Bible to the end had spiritual experiences. Men had trances, visions, visitations, dreams, supernatural chariot rides and other prophetic experiences. Ezekiel was taken out by the Spirit into visions of God; he was actually taken to physical places (into the river Shabar and into Babylonian captivity). Whether he was in his body or not, we don't know. Then, in the New Testament, we have Paul, the Apostle, caught up into heaven, into paradise. In the book of Acts, Peter has a trance, Cornelius has a vision, Peter gets out of prison with the help of an angel and John receives visions which he and the book of Revelation. Are you getting the picture that from the beginning to the end of the Bible, men and women had encounters with God? They were able to say that heaven had touched earth in a supernatural way with visitations, signs and wonders in the heavens and earth or with power, miracles, deliverance from demons, visions, angels, trances, dreams, translation in the Spirit, or visitation to heaven. Do you believe it? Elijah was a man like us and so was everybody else in the Bible. They were just men like us saints saved and cleansed by the blood of Jesus. Today, in heaven, there is a cloud of witnesses excited about the day that we live in. That cloud-Abraham, Elijah, Elisha, Daniel, Paul and Peter-are cheering us on.

These past saints are looking at our generation, at the last days anointing. They are looking at the last days army. It is our time, as end time saints, to shine with His glory and to take His love and power to the world. It's our time to pray like Elisha prayed when his servant's spiritual eyes were opened. That prayer opened up the second heaven, the realm of angels and demons. When I read that story, I believed that same experience could be mine. I said, "God that is going to be my expectation. That is going to be my experience." Why not? Why can't that happen to me? Why wouldn't I want to make myself available to the Lord to release the anointing of Ephesians 1:17 so the Spirit of Wisdom and Revelation would come upon me? We need to have these supernatural experiences with God because that's how He speaks. To grow in faith and relationship with God, we need hear his voice. Every relationship is built on communication. So we need to be open to every different manner that God speaks, whether it's through the still small voice or through visions or through angelic encounters. God reveals Himself in a multitude of ways.

3. Naturally Supernatural (Heb. 4:16; Eph. 6:12) (Heb. 4:16) Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

(Eph. 6:12) For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

As born-again believers, we are just as much a spiritual creation with spiritual senses as we are a natural being with natural senses. I want to touch, taste, smell, hear and feel the spirit realm which is available to me now. The kingdom of heaven is at hand and it is within us. That's why Jesus gives us an invitation to come boldly before the throne of grace. Come boldly! There is an invitation to come NOW-not just by faith, but in experience. Walking into the throne room by faith is great, but there comes a time when we know that we are there because we're there by spiritual experience. We begin to see the living creatures, experience the sensations and the thunderings and lightning's and everything else that goes on around the throne. We call it the throne zone. I've had encounters where I have been before God's throne in experience-seeing it, touching it, feeling it and hearing in the moment. I don't have to wait 40, 50 or 60 years until I am absent from the body and present with the Lord. It's available now. And the Bible encourages us to reach out in expectation that we can encounter and have what is in heaven now.

Now I don't go seeking after angels and get into prayer and go, "Oh angel come and visit me." I don't seek angels or trances or predetermine where I am going to go in a heavenly experience. I just make myself available by faith and with the understanding of how real the spiritual realm is. Why would Paul say we don't wrestle against flesh and blood but against demonic powers and principalities and spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places? He saw into that realm; he knew that there is a spiritual world that is more real than the world that we live in. And how do we touch the realm that we live in? You touch it with your natural senses that God gave you. We can also touch the spiritual realm with our spiritual senses.

Using Our Spiritual Senses (John. 1:1; Heb. 5:14)

(1 John 1:1,2) That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of life 2the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you that eternal life which was with the Father and was manifested to us.

(Heb. 5:14) But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

You can see, smell, touch, feel and sense in the spirit. We have spiritual senses. God created the heavens; He created the earth. I am going to live forever with God in heaven called Paradise, the abode of God. But I don't need to wait for the day that day even though I live in the natural. Often it's the natural that keeps you from the heavenly-it keeps us from the fullness of everything we have in God and which is promised in scripture. There will always be a war between your flesh and a war between your spirit. You know, it's just a battle, a constant battle-bills, life, marriage. But we still need to be reaching, by faith and with expectation, that we will experience the reality. That realm is not spooky, it's real. When someone begins to talk about many of the supernatural things that I am going to talk about tonight, people often begin to think, "Oh, I don't know about that. I know the angels came over to Abraham's house and they gave him a meal, but Todd, did they really come to your house?" Well why not? We need to ask God to free us from the ungodly rational thinking that hinders our spiritual walk with Him.

Heaven is Real (2 Kings 6:15-20; Matt. 7:11)

(2 Kings 6:15-20) 15 And when the servant of the man of God arose early and went out, there was an army, surrounding the city with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?" 16 So he answered, "Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them." 17 And Elisha prayed, and said, "LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see." Then the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha. 18 So when the Syrians came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Strike this people, I pray, with blindness." And He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. 19 Now Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." But he led them to Samaria. 20 So it was, when they had come to Samaria, that Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and there they were, inside Samaria!

(Matt. 7:11) "If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!"

Yes I know that the enemy wants to deceive. However, always remember, God's ability to keep me is greater than the Devil's ability to deceive me if my heart is right. If I am pursuing and loving God, waiting in the presence of the Holy Spirit and meditating on the Word day and night, God will keep me. The Lord doesn't want me to be deceived-I am a son. He's not just going to let me fall off the cliff if I am keeping my heart right and keeping my life right. I am also in relationship--plugged in, connected with people who can speak into my life. Yes, we need to test all things and hold fast to what is good.

But, at the same time, we need to protect our hearts and minds from the supernatural sceptiscism that afflicts the Western church that the minute somebody says, "Yes, I saw an angel last night!" When I start to share my experiences, I know that many people begin to automatically think, "Awwwww, c'mon, an angel Todd? Oh, you've had 12 visits this year have you Todd? There is an angel that manifests in your meetings called Healing. Well I don't believe that. Yeah, well, I believe that it happened to William Branham and maybe some others. But now you are going to start talking about a gift of healing and a word of knowledge involving your left arm because of a visitation of an angel?" Yes, I know that some of this stuff sounds a little spooky, but for me it's real. Heaven and supernatural experience is more real to me many people I interact with in the natural realm.

Let me tell you something. Miracles happen for our ministry almost on a daily basis. In fact, one disciple who had only been saved a year, after traveling with me for 6 months, he said, "If there is a day that we don't see somebody get healed, I say, 'God, what is wrong? What is going on?'" Can you imagine being a brand new Christian and your biggest struggle is that a day went by and something supernatural didn't take place? You know, we've seen miracles so regularly that they have become just natural events to us! Yet, when I have asked people in Fresh Fire meetings who had not been in a meeting before where they have actually seen a blind eye open up, 90 percent of them put up there hand to say, "I've never been in a service like that." The time is coming for many of us when we become concerned if a day goes by without some encounter or some supernatural manifestation of the reality of heaven touching earth.

In Fresh Fire, we sometimes have weeks in which hundreds of healings and miracles take place-the deaf hear, the blind see, the lame walk and AIDS victims are healed. We've seen God create a new eye in an empty eye socket, instantly restore a hydrocephalic child's enlarge head to normal size and heal every patient in a hospital ward for chronic tuberculosis patients. In each of these cases, it was just normal, everyday Christian men and woman praying for the sick. One woman we prayed for had no ear drums-it was impossible for her to physically hear in her right ear. We don't know if God created the ear drum or just opened up her ear, but she heard! It was impossible, humanly speaking. Let me tell you about three stories of blind people who saw at one meeting.

One man by the name of Scott Levine was in a limo drinking and doing drugs; he opened up a Champaign bottle and the cork came out, hit him in the eye and drove his eye right back into his brain. They pulled his eye ball out and did five surgeries over the course of several years-he was completely blind. He was in the meeting when I called out a word of knowledge and God healed him. Not only did God heal him, the Kansas City Star wants to pick up the story. Not only did he get healed, but he also got a report from the surgeon (which is documented) who said something like, "I don't know what happened but your eye is great. Nothing ever happened to your eye. I don't see any surgery here!" He had gone through five surgeries. The doctor was like, "You've got a brand new lens and everything." And he can see! Amen! That's a miracle!

Another woman in that same service, just that same morning, had tested completely blind at the doctor's office. After documenting her blindness, the doctor said she would need to have surgery. She came to the service that night and God healed her eyesight! There was another man in that service who could barely see from one eye-God opened up his eye too. By the time he left, his eye was clear and it didn't even look the same. That healing happened over the course of a couple of hours while he sat in the anointing.

At another meeting in Salt Lake City, the power of God fell on a boy, about nine or ten years old, who was legally blind in both eyes, documented. He came running to the front when, suddenly, he could see. He could even read a poster-completely healed. At the moment of his healing he was also saved! Nobody even lead him to Jesus. Next thing, he was lying on the floor, shaking and speaking in tongues. He got saved, healed and he spoke in tongues without anyone laying hands on him! Jesus came and touched him.

At some meetings in Kansas City, a man whose left side was completely paralyzed, came for prayer in a wheel chair. He had been diagnosed with tumors and cancer that caused epilepsy and the paralysis. The tumors were pressing on his brain. He got our healing CD, listened to it twice and got up and walked. By the time he came to the healing meeting the next time he was walking in front of 700 people. He even brought his electronic wheelchair to the service to show us.

All those healing stories-some blind eyes, several deaf ears, a crippled guy, paralyzed and in a wheelchair and many more-happened in just one week. I could go on and on about the numerous testimonies each night we pray for the sick. These miracles happen on a daily basis. That is how real heaven is. God wants to open up this kind of supernatural reality for each of you.

Do you know how real heaven is? I was ministering for the first time at the Toronto Airport Christian Fellowship years ago at a healing conference. God's healing power erupted and the Arnots booked me to come back frequently throughout the rest of this year, for week-long periods, to help them stir healing revival in the Toronto Blessing. There were so many miracles! We had about 500-700 miracles just in a healing conference. On some of the videos you will see up to 12 individuals partially blind or completely blind get their sight in one service. I mean we are talking about some people born blind. We had a woman carried into the service in November with MS. She was completely crippled-she could not stand, walk, or even move her toes. She got healed in that service. Not only did she get healed, but she began walking up two full flights of stairs at the airport church. There were just so many miracles, even creative miracles. People with paralysis of certain body parts-some had Bells Palsy of the face, or nerves that had been removed as a result of cancers and surgeries-were totally healed. Nerves don't grow back naturally. After a word of knowledge (people were going to be healed of paralysis, get their nerves back or parts of their body that were dead and didn't function were going to come alive) we heard testimony after testimony of creative miracles in bodies experiencing numbness or paralysis as a result of nerve damage.

A while ago when ministering in Minnesota, we had about a hundred cases of different levels of deafness. When I prayed against the power of the deaf and dumb spirit, the wife of the pastor coordinating the conference got healed of deafness she had ever since she was a little girl. She had deafness in one ear and had 59 years of dyslexia she was completely healed of both physical problems. At times she didn't even know her right from left-she even struggled driving the car. After 59 years God healed her. In that same service, as she sat in the anointing, a woman was healed who had her eye shot out by a bee-bee gun when she was a little girl. She had a silicone eye; a surgeon took part of an eye from a cadaver to make a fake eye. Get this-she went to the doctor and he documented that she could see! She had no eye ball-you can't see out of a silicone eye. So what does that mean? An eye ball grew into the socket where there was no eyeball. They sent her to the university staff of doctors in Minnesota and they said, "Nobody has ever done anything to this eye." She received a creative miracle!

You want to hear another great testimony! I called a guy named Daniel out by name and age through a word of knowledge in a meeting. He wasn't even in the service; someone knew him. After we prayed, he was healed of leukemia in his hospital bed! That is great testimony! Here is another one. One woman that we called out by a word of knowledge was healed of a degenerate arthritic condition in her neck and spine. But that was just the start. She didn't have a uterus and wanted to have a baby. Later she wrote me, excited that she was bleeding-she got a brand new uterus. Not only that. She wrote that she took a prayer cloth from that service to a child who was paralyzed in the lower part of the body, in the bladder area. She said when she laid the prayer cloth on the child, the child jumped up and did a jig and danced and yelled saying, "Mommy, I've got to go to the bathroom." The child was healed of Spinal Bifida.

These miracles are taking place on a daily basis. God is healing every sickness and God is healing every disease. The anointing is still tangible and the anointing is still transferable. And that is just a day in the ministry. I believe that such miraculous power can open up for us in a greater way when we begin to become more aware of the reality of heaven.

4. Set Your Mind On Things Above (Col. 3:1)

(Col. 3:1) If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God.

The Bible encourages us, in Colossians 3:1, to set your mind on things above where Christ is seated. Get your mind high up there. Get your mind heavenly minded. Get your mind thinking about how real it is in heaven and that that realm is more real than the world that we live in. It's so easy to get caught up in the temporal. But the Bible says we need to set our minds on the eternal. It's easy to set our mind on what the doctor said, our natural senses, what we are feeling and what we are seeing in the natural. But God encourages us to set our mind on the eternal-the things above. We don't wrestle against flesh and blood. There are demonic powers and principalities. The Devil is real and he really does want to kill, steal and destroy. We don't want to believe that there is a devil behind every bush. However, I would like to walk in the reality of the awareness of the supernatural, not only in the demonic, but the reality of the angelic. When I wake up in the morning, I consciously make a decision to be aware. Did you hear that? I consciously make a decision to be aware. I say, "Thank You God that there are angels here. Thank You God for the angels that are with me. Thank you for the angels that are ministering spirits that come to do your word. Thank you for the healing angels and for the harvest angels. Thank you for the angels that encamp around those who fear you. They lift me up, high above the warfare. I make a conscious effort to thank God for the reality of angels and that opens up the activity of angels in my ministry. I make this reality a part of what I do in my everyday life. While I'm in the shower I say, "Thank you Lord Jesus that the blind see, the deaf hear and the cripples walk. I thank you for miracles and the healings." I am constantly pulling that reality into my life; I'm constantly expecting the supernatural to invade my world. Sometimes I'll thank God for the heavenly realm and that I can see and travel in the spirit. I thank Him for trances, visions and dreams.

5. Hearing His Voice (John 10:27; John 3:13; John 5:19)

(John 10:27) My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.

I also like to thank the Lord that I can hear His voice. He says, "My sheep hear my voice." Even though I may not be having an angel visit me right now, or see someone getting healed right now, the supernatural God is with me. In the forefront of my mind I am setting my mind on things above. I am constantly looking for demonic powers and their strategies: "God what is happening in the service? What is the enemy doing? What is the hindrance God? What is the hindrance in the region God? I am also constantly pulling on that realm so that heaven opens up for me. Now let's look at:

(John 3:13): "No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven."

Did you hear that? No one has ascended into heaven-we are talking about angels ascending into heaven and coming down with revelation. We are talking about ascending into the place where God dwells. No one has ascended into heaven except for he who has come down from heaven. Where was Jesus when he said that? On the earth. And here He is on the earth speaking to human beings. No one has ascended into heaven except for he who has come down from heaven, who is in heaven. I believe He is saying that even though I am on the earth, I am really in heaven. That is the way that He lived and that is the way that He ministered. He ascended and descended and though he was on the earth, he said no one has ascended except for him who has descended. So even though He was here in physical form, He was still in heaven. Jesus is saying in the present tense that He is in heaven, even when He's on the earth. That is the ministry of Jesus.

Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner. (John 5:19)

Jesus uses the word "sees" in this scripture, which implies open vision-He actually watched what His Father was doing. He saw it prophetically then he went out and acted it out. Then, a long while before daylight, he got up on the mountain again. He often withdrew into the wilderness and prayed. Why? Because He only did those things that He saw. Like Jesus, we need to see. It takes time to listen and to wait. Though I am here in physical form, I am still the one who is in heaven because that is where I live in my mind. I live under an open heaven just like Jesus did after He came up from the waters of baptism and the heavens opened and the dove came down. The secret to success and power in ministry is living under an open heaven. One way that we live under the open heaven is by understanding the reality of the spiritual realm and walking with the expectation that it is accessible to us, to every believer. There is nothing different about those saints who went into heaven, or about the prophets that saw visions. It's not just the five-fold ministries who need prophetic experiences. I've had people ask me, "Todd, why do I need to have a prophetic experience? What's the purpose?" Well why can't it be just to be with God? Why can't it just be for the purpose of encountering God? Why can't it just be for experiencing what God has in the heavens now because I am His child, a full heir of the spiritual kingdom. I am just as much a spiritual being as I am a natural being. So I should be touching, tasting, hearing, seeing and feeling what is going on in heaven.

6. Heavenly Geography

Heaven also has geographical locations. Did you know that? Heaven is a geographical place and there are geographical regions in heaven. Heaven is big. If you actually studied how big heaven is you'd discover, perhaps, that it is like another world. Heaven also has its own unique characteristics as a distinct world or region. For instance, if I go to Hawaii, I find it has a unique location, climate and culture-it is very different from Alaska. It's also very different when I am in Florida as compared to when I am in Utah. Each place is distinctly different spiritually, culturally and in its physical characteristics of climate, terrain and scenery. We love places for their unique features. That is what heaven is like.

In Heaven, the saints won't always be around the throne 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. We will have journeys in heaven, friend. We will visit different geographical locations in this real world. There will be a whole new creation in heaven. Heaven will be similar to earth in many ways, with the absence of sin, sickness, disease, death and poverty. Isn't earth big; isn't earth beautiful; aren't there geographical locations on earth? Well, there are geographical locations in the spirit too. So, in this life, it's ok for me to say, "Holy Spirit, come, and let me touch with my spiritual senses, now, what is in heaven." That is where my mind and my expectation is. That is where my heart is. I make myself available for God to communicate with me on the basis of understanding the truth of what I am sharing with you today.

However, we need to have that scriptural foundation in our hearts that Jesus ascended into heaven and that no one has ascended into heaven, except for him who has come down from heaven, who is in heaven. Yes, although Jesus was on earth at the time, He was in heaven in His mind and in His spirit. He was seeing by open vision. As He said, "I only do those things that I see the Father doing." He was seeing it on the mountain. He was seeing it in prayer. He was seeing it in the wilderness. The Holy Spirit brought Him revelation and opened the eyes of his heart. Jesus was an example to us of the depth of communion we can have with God and of how powerfully the Father can manifest through a totally surrendered child on earth. Jesus was an example of prayer, an example of experience and an example of ministry. You know, I want to follow Him in each way He has demonstrated the life of abundance to us.

7. Made for Signs and Wonders (Isaiah 8:18, 19)

"Here am I and the children whom the LORD has given me! We are for signs and wonders in Israel."(Isaiah 8:18)

Let's examine this common passage of scripture. I've felt the Lord tell me that this year He was going to release the signs prophet in a greater way. God wants to put on us the anointing of signs and the anointing of the supernatural. This is our inheritance as His children. I believe that this scripture isn't just talking about signs and wonders involving healing of the sick and casting out demons. In addition to those acts, I believe the Lord is saying that He wants us to be prophetic messages. We are to live prophetic lives which speak to the world of God's great love. We are to be a people that, wherever we go- whether we are in the market, the Superstore, the restaurant, the church or at work-we are to be a message to the world. We are called to carry around us an activity of heaven that creates signs and shows manifestations of heaven touching earth. Those manifestations that God wants to accompany our lives include the changing of weather patterns, the cleansing of lepers, the raising of dead, the casting out of demons, the healing of sickness and disease as well as seeing of dreams and visions. The world will forget about psychics when we touch the supernatural realm and, as the church, begin operating in the prophetic and the power of God.

We are to be a sign; we are to be a living epistle. We are to be a prophetic message, a prophetic picture in the earth. God wants the supernatural realm to spill out of our lives and break into the natural realm everywhere we go. We are to be carriers of signs and wonders. God has called us to live in the place of "as it is in heaven" and to walk in the anointing of the spirit of wisdom and revelation. God wants to put that anointing on the body in a greater way so the world won't need Miss Cleo, the psychics or the gurus on Montel and other TV shows. Yes, it is time that we are for signs and wonders, so that our lives give the world a taste of a supernatural, powerful God. Look what happens, according to Isaiah 8:19, if we don't walk in signs and wonders:

"And when they say to you, 'Seek those who are mediums and wizards, who whisper and mutter,' should not a people seek their God? Should they seek the dead on behalf of the living." (Isaiah 8:19)

When we are not for signs and wonders, people go to wizards, mediums and dead gods. They consult the dead on behalf of the living rather than consulting the living God. If we truly live a supernatural life and understand the reality of the open heavens and heavenly glory, had we created, by faith, a landing place in the spirit where God could manifest, then the world would turn from demonic signs to the true signs. This year God wants to release the anointing for us to become signs to the world. He is releasing the signs prophets. Are you ready for that? Jesus wants us to begin living like He did in John 3:13:

"No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven."

Though I am down from heaven in physical form, I am a man who is in heaven at the same time that I am on earth. God is now releasing the supernatural. As I am talking about angels, I am actually prophesying so that someone can have an angelic visitation. As you read this lesson, signs and wonder are being released into your lives.

8. End-Time Release of the Supernatural (Acts 2:17-22)

17 "And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God, that I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your young men shall see visions, Your old men shall dream dreams. 18 And on My menservants and on my maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days; and they shall prophesy. 19 I will show wonders in heaven above and signs in the earth beneath: Blood and fire and vapor of smoke. 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD. 21 And it shall come to pass that whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved.'" (Acts 2:17-22)

Now what day is that when whoever calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved? Is that a day that is coming, or is that a day that is here? I believe we are living in the outpouring of God's spirit for the release of prophecy, visions and dreams and it is available to the body of Christ. He said He would pour these things out on all flesh. All flesh! All of us have opportunity to be a part of the release of this prophetic dimension which will bring signs and wonders in the heavens and the earth because we are for signs and we are for wonders. It is our destiny to carry that supernatural anointing and to walk in the reality of the spirit of wisdom and revelation. It is our inheritance. But it's even more than that. Look at Acts 2 verse 22:

"Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a Man attested by God to you by miracles, wonders, and signs which God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know--"

This passage is referring to the days of Jesus, the days when God confirmed and endorsed the ministry of Jesus with miracles, signs and wonders. We are just as much sons as Jesus was. John 17 even tells us that the Father has loved us just as He has loved Jesus. We are just as loved by the Father as Jesus was and just as much a joint heir. He has made us to sit in heavenly places with Him. The Father wants to attest and endorse ministry in North America today with miracles, signs and wonders-we need to reach for that! We need to say, "Thank you Lord that it's mine." The supernatural realm needs to become part of our everyday thinking. We need to think about open heavens, angels, visions and dreams. We need to talk about miracles, power and healings. We need thank God for angels and for the prophetic. Now let me tell you about an angelic experience I had a while back.

I first saw the angel called Healing Revival on December 5 of 2000 in Grant's Pass. The angel came to me again in Albany the next February. He stood in the church service with his body going through the ceiling of the church. Then the Lord told me the angel's name and that he was the same angel I saw in Grant's Pass earlier. God also revealed to me that this angel was involved in the ministry of John Lake (Africa and America), William Branham (America) and John Knox in Scotland. This angel, the Lord said, is from the North West Healing Revival and is manifesting again as a sign that God is restoring the Voice of Healing revival and opening up the ancient wells.

In our ministry over the last year, this angel has come frequently and on many different occasions. When He comes I get a gift-the ability to diagnose people's sicknesses with my left hand. At times this angel brings words of knowledge; I get very accurate details from God including people's first, middle and last names as well as nicknames, the year they were injured, the color of their vehicle and the state they are from.

I have been in meetings where I have been able to take whole rows of people and diagnose accurately what is wrong with their bodies. I'll sometimes go into trances and hear the doctor diagnose people's sickness-then they will pull medical documentation out of their pocket confirming what I just said. Many other people have also seen or had contact with this angel in the meetings. And whenever this angel shows up, the miracles go off the charts. Instead of a few healings, we'll get three blind eyes in one night or maybe a cripple will get out of a wheel chair.

I believe the angel showed up in Albany as a sign that God was endorsing what was taking place and that it was opening up a healing well. Everywhere I have seen this angel the miracles continue after I leave and a healing well is established in that church and in that city. When that angel visits, we have another John 5 Pool of Bethesda experience as God releases His approval. That is why God repeatedly visits Jesus throughout His life-to place His stamp of approval on every stage. After we start to examine this topic, it's easy to see how important angels were throughout Scripture.

When I was in South America, I'd pray for someone and the demon would come out and it would come on my left arm. It's like Paul, when he put his hand in the fire and the thing came out and it grabbed his arm and he shook it off. Well that happens to me sometimes when I lay hands on people that I can discern demonic presence or sickness and sometimes it will come off onto my arm. Then people will be instantly healed or delivered. I know when the gift is on because it will come over my arm. Initially I didn't know what to do with this. I said, "God what is happening to me." In some meetings in Grant's pass when the angel first visited, it was during one of my prayer times that I had a vision of a boy in the hospital in a coma. I discovered when I called out the word at the meeting that night that a man had come to the meeting on behalf of the boy's mother. I actually saw this woman in a trance telling me that her boy had come out of a coma; I then saw the newspaper headlines which read, "Boy Comes Out Of Coma." When we prayed for the man who stood in the gap, the boy was completely healed. I heard the testimony later and the headlines really exactly as I had seen. When this all started in Grant's Pass, I didn't think anything of it other than, "Wow, that was a great night of moving in the word of knowledge."

However, when I went to Albany in January and February of the next year (2001), the revelation and healing anointing really blew up. We had all kinds of incredible manifestations of miracles, healings, signs and wonders. In the middle of that season, I saw an angel in the pulpit that towered up to the ceiling of the church. I saw this angel open up a pool on the floor. Then I saw a hole open up in heaven, a shaft of light come down and an angel appear. When I saw this open vision, I didn't know what to do with it. The audible voice of the Lord came to me and gave me some instruction about imparting the anointing and the keys to pastors. Then He told me that this angel had been involved in three revivals in three different countries through three revivalists. He also told me that the angel's name is Healing Revival and that he is like the angel in John 5 that came to stir the waters of the pool of Bethesda. The angel is ranked one position below an arch angel. This angel doesn't deal with principalities over nations, but powers in cities-he comes to establish a regional healing revival, the same type of outpouring of healing that we read about in John 5 where and angel would come down at a certain season and stir the waters.

Then the Lord led me to ask the pastor's daughter what she was seeing." Before I told anybody about the angel, I went across the room to the pastor's daughter and asked, "Excuse me, what do you see in the service right now?" She said, "Todd, there is a large angel standing in the pulpit." Then the power of God came and Denny gives an invitation to the sick because I was so inebriated and under the weight of God's glory that I couldn't do anything. When people came to the front, nobody laid hand on them-they just started falling out under the power. People fell down like dominos, as if there was an invisible line that; when they crossed it, they were hit with God's power. A woman got healed in that meeting of a fractured neck.

After this incredible visitation of the angel, we had one of the most unusual meetings I've ever been in. I didn't think about the connection between the angel and the unusual manifestations until I started thinking more about the angel's involvement in a revival in Scotland with John Knox. Listen, I didn't even know there was a man named John Knox, and had never heard of revival in Scotland until the Lord spoke to me about them. Apparently, John Knox and William Wallace (of Brave Heart) are two of the greatest heroes of Scotland. John Knox was the Martin Luther of Scotland-a real reformer and revivalist who had visitations of the Lord that would last over 7 hours. A week after this meeting in Albany, I was in Portland where the Lord took me in a trance to Scotland. I visited three geographical locations including the memorial and the grave-the place where John Knox was buried. In the natural I didn't even know that he was buried in Scotland. In the experience, I was at some memorial for John Knox in Scotland walking around looking at the castle, the moats and the other landmarks around where this guy's grave was. Two day's later a prophetess friend of mine by the name of Catherine Brown invites me to Scotland. I eventually ended up in Edinburgh visiting the very places that I went to in the trance-I saw all the same details the Lord showed me in the trance.

Now when I had a visitation of this angel in Albany I didn't realize at that time it was the same angel that had visited in Grant's Pass. The Lord also showed me that the second revival and the second movement that this angel had something to do with was the healing revival with John Lake in Spokane and in Portland. Lake's powerful healing ministry first began during his ministry in South Africa. The third healing revival that the angel was involved in came through William Branham during the Voice of Healing revival in America. God also reminded me that, years ago, before I was in full time ministry, during my three-month soaking season of visitation, that I had a visitation of that same angel. Others were in my apartment at the time when the angel appeared, towering over me through the apartment ceiling. It was weeks after that first visitation of the angel that Patricia King called me out, anointed me, commissioned me, took up an offering and I was launched into full time ministry. The Lord told me that the day the angel appeared was the beginning of my ministry and the time when He called and anointed me to take healing revival to the nations.

The Lord explained to me that the angel's involvement in my ministry is why the Lord has launched me so quickly into international healing ministry. He told me that He doesn't just want me to just have a gift of healing; He wants me to help deposit, release and participate in what prophets have prophesied about the explosion of healing revival to come. Many of you reading this are going to be a part of this thing; a whole generation is still to come-we are only in the first fruits of what prophets have prophesied about the nameless, faceless generation. Stadiums are going to be filled with people gathered for healing revival meetings. Generation Xers will be many of the troops in this army.

Over time I've realized that the angel that visited, at these significant times and in various meetings, has been the same angel. I believe this same angel was a part of the whole Voice of Healing revival, was part of John Lake's healing ministry and was also connected to the anointing on John Knox in Scotland. It is very significant that these recent visitations took place in the Northwest. The Lord is opening up the ancient wells. And since those angelic visitations, many others have seen the angel including warlocks and children who knew nothing about the angel. These people will come up to me and say, "You have a visitor in the tent." Then they will describe the angel-how big he is and what he looks like.

My father, a recent convert with a powerful testimony, has been able to discern the angel as well. One of my disciples has, at times, also been able to discern the angel. The angel will manifest in meetings and stand two feet behind me on my left side-that is when the gift comes on my left arm. In Kansas City, when three blind eyes popped open, I saw the angel in the balcony on my left. Just after I saw the angel, my father asked, "Todd is your angel here? I think I just sensed him come into the room." I said, "He's here Dad." He even asked, "Is he up there in the balcony on the left?" That night the miracles increased far more than the previous meetings. Every time the angel comes he pushes back the warfare and the miracles increase-the blind see, the crippled walk and incurable diseases are healed.

Now don't get all excited about the angel-I believe that scripture strongly suggests that we all have angels (Matt. 18:10). I also believe that the Father has commissioned more than one healing angel;

He is opening our spiritual eyes so see.

God is uncapping the ancient wells so that we can again see into the spiritual realm. We are living in an exciting time! God wants to anoint you for prophetic vision; He wants to give you spiritual eyes and wings. As the Lord opens the eyes of your heart you will come into the reality of the spiritual realm. God wants to make you naturally supernatural. It's time for your launch into new realms of the Spirit.

Reinforcement Helpers:

Life Application:

· Ask the Lord to remove hindrances and mindsets that keep you from walking in the supernatural realm. · Ask the Father to show you what steps He wants you to take to walk into a deeper place in the supernatural.

Prayer:

Holy Spirit I ask for you to impart to me that supernatural anointing of eyes and wings-eyes to see what you're doing and the wings to go into the heavenly realm with you. Lord, please open up my eyes to the realm of angels, trances, visions and dreams! I ask that You would remove every thought and belief that hinders me from seeing into the heavenlies. Let the supernatural realm become totally natural for me. Oh Lord. Thank You that You created me for signs and wonders God! The lost don't need mediums, wizards or spirits of the dead-they need the living God! Let me be a supernatural testimony to the world. Make me be a vessel, a channel for signs and wonders in heaven and on the earth. You promised to pour out your Spirit on all flesh-here I am Lord; pour your Spirit out on me. I desire to walk in the reality of the ministry of Jesus on a daily basis-seeing into the heavenlies; healing every sickness and disease; casting out demons as well as preaching and teaching your word. Let me only want to do those things that I see the Father do. Lord, please fill me with the spirit of wisdom and revelation that my life would be a living testimony of the reality of the supernatural realm. AMEN

Revelation Of The Word

Henri Rising

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

God has so put it on my heart that this is the year that the word will become alive. If I were to pick one scripture to hold on to for this year it would be....

Luke 24:32 And they said to one another, "Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked with us on the road, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?"

I felt the Lord then say to me "If you walk as you really talk, you won't go far. If you walk as I talk, then I will take you far!"

The Lord searches our hearts because our spoken words do not always speak the truth that is within us. Desire to walk and listen to Him and then purpose in your heart that you will allow him to change those things deep within you.

I dreamed I was eating little packets of sugar. One after another, I would open them and just devour them. Someone, shocked at my behavior, asked, "What are you doing?" My reply seemed very simple and very much as a matter of fact........"The sweet things of God are coming!"

I am told that it is an old custom when teaching a child scripture to put a piece of sweet cracker in his mouth after each scripture taught. This way they will always associate scriptures with sweetness.

Psalm 119:103 How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth.

Listen, dear ones, seek His revelation on what you read and go as He leads this year.

Humbly submitted,
Henri Rising

Restoration of YHVH's Inheritance

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,
According to Scripture, the “Two Houses of Israel” are two separate and distinct entities. Each of them has its own specific prophetic destiny. But even though two, they are still bound to the calling which they have inherited from their forefather Jacob - that is, to be one chosen nation of kings and priests. However, in the course of their history YHVH divided the nation into two nation/kingdoms for His purposes and plans that are directly related to the covenant that He swore to Abraham.

Isaiah 8:14 presents the ‘Two House truth’: “He will be as a sanctuary, but a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense to BOTH the houses of Israel” (emphasis added). As long as these two continue to stumble and take offense over the One who is their Rock they will remain two distinct entities.

Many like to define the two groups as ‘Christians’ (Israel/Ephraim), and ‘Jews’ (Judah), as if they are made up of two religious sects. In spite of that we must realize that all tribes are represented in both houses, and that together they constitute multitudes of peoples, which make up many ethnic and religious groups. But for our purpose here, let us relate to them as nations. We have, then, the nation of Judah/Israel today, being made up mostly of Jews from Judah. On the other hand, because YHVH is true to His word, there is also the other house (Joseph/Ephraim), which YHVH has sown or mixed into many peoples in literally all nations: "Ephraim has mixed himself among the peoples” (Hos. 2:8), being the “fullness of the nations” (Genesis 48:19), even though most of them are unaware of their identity. The influence of the multitudes of Ephraim, on some of these nations, brought about blessings of multiplicity, military prowess and economic wealth (see Genesis 49:22-26). In the blessing to Joseph, through his son Menasseh, Jacob pronounced that they would become a great people. However, as a great people the descendants of the northern kingdom would not be able to connect their greatness to the fulfillment of the prophecies, as YHVH was going to blind them and cause them to forget their identity (which is indicated by the meaning of the very name “Menasseh”).

Judah never lost its identity

One of the keys to understanding the end time scriptures is to watch for Judah’s lead. The Jews have never lost their identity, but have been preserved by the Almighty: “Yet I will have mercy on the house of Judah, I will save them by YHVH their Elohim, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword or battle, by horses or horsemen" (Hosea 1:7). And: “He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts [or rejected ones] of Israel [Joseph/Ephraim], and gather together the dispersed [but preserved and recognizable] of Judah from the four corners of the earth” (Isaiah 11:12).

In Ezekiel 37 we see that Judah’s stick (nation) is gathered first (and indeed it was restored in 1948) and is also being ‘written upon’ (v. 16). Then, during the times of the “latter rain”, Judah is called as a nation to be “a mighty war horse in battle” (Zechariah 10:1,3). In the course of those days Jerusalem is restored to Judah (which was fulfilled in 1967), who is called to prepare for war against its surrounding nations (see Joel 3:1-2,11). In these self-same days the stick of Joseph/Ephraim is also to be gathered and to be ‘written upon’ (Ezekiel 37:16). Sometime later the two are to join together in the war with the surrounding nations (ref. Isaiah 11:13-15, Zechariah 9:13). These are but a few of the scriptural descriptions and references that have been and are yet to be fulfilled, in what are called the ‘latter days’.

Our day and age

The nations surrounding Judah and Jerusalem are hostile and belligerent at present. Their hostility extends not only toward Judah/Israel also toward some of the Ephraimite peoples who are supportive of the Jews, and who are aligned with them economically and militarily (such as the United States). With impending war and other potentially catastrophic world events, it is necessary to gain an understanding of the prophetic perspective. When we know that all of this has been predicted beforehand, and that in YHVH's strategy it is as good as having taken place already, we can rejoice, for our full redemption is drawing closer.

According to the prophets of old these days are marked with wars and great turmoil. Yeshua's words about these days also reiterate the same thoughts: "Take heed that no one deceives you. For many will come in My name, saying, `I am the Messiah,' and will deceive many, and you will hear of wars and rumors of wars'" (Matthew 24:4-6). Most us don't have any problems relating today's world situations to what Yeshua or the prophets said on the topic. YHVH has given us the scriptures, His Spirit and this wonderful world of communication as a tool to reveal to us the truths of His Word.

So why are the kingdoms of this world being shaken? Is it because YHVH so hates the world that He is bent on destroying it? That is far from being His motivation. YHVH's true motive is always based on His nature, which is, of course, unconditional love, righteousness and faithfulness. All that YHVH does revolves around possessing His inheritance, and establishing His kingdom here on earth. "YHVH's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance" (Deut. 32:9). YHVH sent His Son (Yeshua) to restore the House of Jacob (both houses) and set up His everlasting kingdom in and through them (Luke 1:31-33).

What then are these 'heavy-duty' judgments all about? Could He be acting now in the same manner that He did in the days when His people, our forefathers, dwelt in Egypt? At that time too YHVH wasn't just being vindictive, when He hardened Pharaoh's heart. He was not looking for a pretext in order to harm the land and people of Egypt. Neither was He trying to convince them that they had to repent from their ways and turn to Him (at least not directly). He was motivated by faithfulness to His word and compassion toward His people. He wanted to establish them and His kingdom according to His pre-ordained plan, so that Egypt and the rest of the nations would know that He was the Elohim of His people Israel. He never once called Himself the God of Egypt, or the God of Amalek, but He did say repeatedly that He was the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

YHVH says about Himself that He changes not. He is the God of Israel (both houses) and we still belong to Him, just as did our forefathers. We, who have come into the revelation understanding of our true identity, must face up to our history as His covenant people, His inheritance and to our relationship with Him, especially now that He has raised us from the dead spiritually and restored our lost national (natural) identity through the new covenant. One scripture that we have quoted over the years, along with other Two House teachers, is Acts 3:19-21:

"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that He may send Yeshua the Messiah, who was preached to you before, whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which Elohim has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began."
Shabbat Shalom

Recent Prophetic Meetings

Chuck Pierce

Prophetic Overview of 50 State Tour and Recent Prophetic Meetings

New Mexico was the last state to have our votes tallied for the presidential election. We were reminded of the dream given to Chuck Pierce on September 24, 2001 in which New Mexico was the last state to be put in place in a puzzled. During the 50 State Tour Meeting on January 19-20, 2003, a seer anointing was declared activated over New Mexico, a faith explosion, miracles, that the host of help that we have would be seen. New Mexico is a supernatural state, has a supernatural environment and a supernatural flow. God’s people will enter into a supernatural dominion in New Mexico like never before. Eyes are opening into a new dimension and the horses and chariots of fire will burn away that which is surrounding us and attempting to stop us from moving forward. There are those who will be apostolic leaders that are going to establish prosperity as opposed to poverty in New Mexico. These will have keen eyesight and a keen heavenly perspective. As poverty is surveyed, God will put within the apostolic the will, the understanding, the words, the knowledge, and the ways to begin to reverse poverty and cause this state to begin to prosper. The prosperity is for the extension of God’s kingdom and for the waging of the war for His purposes in the earth.

During the 50 State Tour meeting, Chuck Pierce prophesied, “I have called you as a protectorate to this. This is a season where I am mantling you with a watchman anointing. You will begin to watch, and you will begin to see for here in New Mexico there is a moving of My Spirit. I will declare the first fruits of the release of My Spirit here in the earth will begin to manifest in a new way in New Mexico. Welcome My Spirit for many spirits dwell among you bringing revelation, but I am the revelator. I am the God of revelation. I say from this day forth the prophets will be able to sound a clear trumpet in New Mexico. This is the beginning to set this nation on a course that it has never been on before.”

“Watch the winds that will be coming for they are a sign unto you. Many who have come into the supernatural but not moved by Me will now be coming into My Kingdom. I will blow those who have been with adverse winds into My Kingdom. Get ready church. I will bring in the witches and warlocks. There will be a great conversion in those that have experienced the supernatural dimension of the enemy. Put on your deliverance mantles for I will raise the prophets up out of your midst. There is a prophetic anointing about to be released in this region of the nation. This region is a supernatural region; New Mexico is a supernatural state. I am about to redeem that which has been defiled. I am about to resurrect that which was shut down. I have cleansed and I will continue to cleanse. I am about to break forth from the seed you have sown a new mantle of the supernatural; the ability to see; the ability to speak by My Spirit. Leaders will stand up and begin to speak their message, but the word of prophecy will come upon them. They will find themselves speaking their message, and they will find themselves prophesying for 30 to 40 minutes to an hour and never make it to the message because by My Spirit I am going to begin to release mysteries, revelation, and strategies to you.”

“What you have sought Me for has not broken through to you for even seasons of years. The Lord says they are going to begin to spring forth in a moment of time. I am going to show you by the strategy by My Spirit how to do in a short season what you have asked Me for, for decades. I am going to download the Spirit of Revelation upon you. You are going to arise from your sleep and know the strategy of the Lord for taking a city. Cry out now for the leaders of New Mexico to receive my prophetic mantle. Watch, watch and allow my prophetic anointing to take its order throughout this state. You will not have to force anything. I will visit the leadership in My Body in New Mexico during the night. They will not be able but to declare and decree what I am doing. You will hear your governor release prophecy across this land. I will control his tongue and will draw out a message that will surprise you and surprise this nation. My anointing and My wind of prophecy have blown upon you. We declare the eagle anointing that is on this state will be restored. Have faith for the pueblos of New Mexico. The Lord says I am going to invade the pueblos with faith; death and destruction has set in this land, but faith is coming to the pueblos.”

At the 50 State Tour Meeting in January 2003, Dutch Sheets also shared from Isaiah 35. “Lord, you have determined right now in this season the last shall be first. This state has somehow found favor with You, and You are about to move by Your Spirit. The desert is about to blossom. There is about to be a great breakthrough in New Mexico. Many seeds of intercession, of declaration, of tears, that have been planted in this region are about to burst forth with life in an extraordinary way as You begin to pour out Your Spirit on New Mexico. The Glory of the Lord is coming to New Mexico. Encourage the exhausted, strengthen the feeble. Say to the anxious hearts, take courage, fear not, behold your God will come with vengeance. The recompense of God will come. There is salvation coming to New Mexico. Go ahead and rise up; be refreshed; be strong; feeble of heart, rise up. You who have sown and seen no reaping, go ahead and begin to rejoice because it is a season where that which you have sown, you are about to reap. The eyes of the blind will open and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped; the lame will leap like a deer; the tongue of the dumb will shout for joy for waters will break forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert.

There is coming a great wind of heaven across the desert region of the nation. There is going to be a lifting of the veil that is about to take place where a great harvest is going to begin to come. There is an outbreak of the supernatural about to take place in New Mexico. This state will drink of that in a first-fruits way because signs and wonders are about to take place. The lame are going to dance. We prophesy miracles are about to take place in New Mexico. Miracles! Signs and wonders! Signs and wonders! Holy Spirit, You are welcome in New Mexico, in the governor’s house, in the schools, universities, local churches, businesses, hospitals and daycare centers. This state is going to surprise the nation. The nation is going to find out who you are. That which has been hidden is about to be revealed. There is going to be a very supernatural shift of the economy of New Mexico. God is about to uncover, in the sense of resources, either natural resources or something in the arena of human creativity that is going to produce great wealth out of New Mexico; not just ok, I mean wealth. This is the time of springing forth of fruit in New Mexico (Is. 42:9; 43:18,19).

Now, Lord, I ask You by Your Spirit hovering in this place right now to do a work in our minds, our brain, our soul, our emotion; put into us an ability to think differently, that somehow we would begin to think with You and get in pace with You, marching together. We are moving at yesterday’s pace and He’s saying, “Come on, come on, double time; get in step with Me!” We ask You for suddenly thinking, for gift of faith thinking, miracle thinking, signs and wonders thinking, hundreds to get saved. Suddenly! Suddenly! Now it will spring forth! This is the time! Now is the time for harvest, breakthrough, abundance, blossoming, miraculous, for the Word of the Lord, revelation, something new. The Lord says, “I’m doing something new; it’s a new day; it’s a new season; it’s a new state, new church, new way of thinking.” We are shifting into the new, moving into that new season. Scriptures are going to become new, fresh. Worship is going to become new, fresh, alive. Messages are going to have fire. Prayer meetings are going to have fire. You’re going to know how to pray, what to pray, tongues. This will be like when Jesus stepped on the scene; old ways of thinking would not let them step into the new. Everything had been slow gear…then here comes John the Baptist. Dare to believe that the fullness of time has come for our generation, that which we have been crying out for now is beginning to come forth. Dare to believe we have shifted into a fullness of time and the prophets are decreeing it just like John the Baptist. We can be in step with Him and not miss His hand off of the baton.

Lord, let something happen over the state of New Mexico that begins to break in the Spirit the old way of thinking. Shatter the mindset of the past, a stronghold of the mind. By the power of Your Spirit shift the thinking in the church of New Mexico. Break all unbelief, all lethargy, all stagnation, all complacency, and spirit of fatigue and weariness. We’ve been plowing and planting but we can’t move very fast. Lord, get us in step with You because we are going to need to run. You will no longer run with weariness. You will be refreshed supernaturally, renewed in the spirit of your mind and refreshed supernaturally. Let the wind of Your Spirit blow. Receive a reawakening; a resurrection of gifts that have been complacent; resurrect faith; resurrect zeal; the Spirit of Christ that we can run and not be weary; walk and not faith.

Pastor Jack Webb also shared at the 50 State Tour Meeting in January 2003, “And the Lord would speak over the pueblos in faith that He has a special place in His Heart for the First Nations people. He desires to release prosperity over this people that have been destitute. In the council of our pueblos, He is going to break forth and His council, the council of heaven, the wisdom of heaven is going to begin to come into the councils of the pueblos, and it will be a welcomed voice. The gambling and casinos have brought limited prosperity. It has an end and is about to run its course. It is about to cause them to fight one another. The Lord says, ‘I have a better word for them, a better economy. They will begin to build golf courses and five star hotels. They will begin to prosper in legitimate businesses and do things they never thought possible for I desire to bless this people in this land.’ They will be drawn by His Spirit in the councils and will begin to release a business plan and a business prosperity that will lift New Mexico from the bottom in poverty to a place of wealth and prosperity. The Lord desires to gain glory and to cause others to fear His council, to fear His wisdom. The Lord rejoices in taking the least and the last and placing it on high.

We declare the Church is going to receive a hearing ear; we shall hear the voice of the Lord. Then, we shall have a boldness to declare and to decree those things that You desire in New Mexico. We declare the First Nations shall begin to rise and glorify You, Oh God. They shall begin to hear the voice of the Lord, the prophetic voice shall be loosed upon the First Nations of New Mexico. Lord, You will begin to add many other voices to that voice. We declare the salvation of God to the First Nations of New Mexico. The Pueblos shall come in and listen and shall prophesy. They shall come with wisdom and knowledge that the Body has yet to hear and understand. We declare the hearing ear, and we will rule now from a heavenly realm. We bind that supernatural wandering, confusing spirit that causes men to seek psychics and spiritual powers of witches, shamans and other forms of the supernatural. We declare Las Cruces (the cross of Jesus) shall be lifted in New Mexico. We declare now that our mountains, the high places, called Sangre de Cristos (the Blood of Jesus) shall begin to echo throughout this land from the top of Canada to the tip of South America. I declare those who have been fearful of walking in the anointing of the prophetic shall shake off the chains of fear and begin to declare the Word of the Lord. We declare the church will begin to rise and move in the authority You have given for New Mexico and this nation; that hidden resource not only beneath the earth but resources of heaven in the shift of our mentality. Prosperity is going to begin to rise to Your Glory in the least of all places. God is going to delight to take the last and least and bring it to the top and glorify Himself in it.

On June 10-12, 2004, we hosted the Rend the Heavens Prophetic Conference. Chuck Pierce prophesied, “It is time for the river to become full and for the dryness in the atmosphere to change. As you see fire on both sides of the river during this time, I am not contending with the fire. It is time for you to recognize the dryness that is in your midst and to call forth the storm to brew over New Mexico. Do not fear the storm, but call it in so the river might become full. Call into New Mexico the storm that is brewing over this nation. When the rain begins to fall, you will know the river is rising and that a course from New Mexico that would be destructive to this nation will begin to change. Arise! Rise up! You will see the land begin to reveal My plan. It is my time for the dryness in your life to change. You are called here to break that dryness. I have called you here to allow the river to rise. Now is the time you will begin to see certain inhabitants being brought before national attention in days ahead. You set the course of the river. Do not allow the world and its workings that have joined forces with evil spirits in New Mexico to bring forth confusion in days ahead. Do not despise small things for it is the atmosphere of the nation that I have called to change during this time we are together.”

I looked very carefully where I was asked to be these three days in the midst of this whole dynamic of our nation. God says: “I’ve ordained you to be back here in New Mexico because I will bring forth a sound from heaven…” We are at a very peculiar place right now. All God is looking for are those that say “We’re moving on, not staying at the same place; we know He has promised certain things; grab hold and keep going.”

“It is time for my promises to start manifesting over this nation in a new way. I’ll start individually if you’ll grab hold of it and go. I’ll come back to the last place. I’ve called this place to be a seer in the midst of the wilderness. I’ll come back to this wilderness place as it seems to this nation. New Mexico is where the eyes of the nation will be activated. I'll cause you to see things that no one else can see from this land. I'll use a Midianite to be your eyes. I'll use them to be the seer of the future. In this prophetic state, the 'Land of Enchantment' is where every sort of revelation comes down. It is a revelatory atmosphere. You will see before others see; communicate before others communicate. You will be used to bring the entire nation out of the wilderness. I will break your wilderness first so you can see to bring others out of the wilderness. I am going to loose the seer gift. Just grab hold and say 'yes we will see and we will learn how to communicate what we are seeing from New Mexico'. "The wilderness spirit that we live in here, not only will we overcome it, but we will cause a nation to see its way out of the wilderness. You will develop the connection for communication from New Mexico. The communication of the seer gift will be activated NOW in New Mexico."

New Mexico Prayer Points

1. Pray for our work among our First Nations people. This includes but is not limited to the pueblos. As it is the winter season, many are in need, particularly those with addictive bondages. Salvation is coming to our host people. There is much work to be done in this harvest field.

2. As it has been prophesied, we will not give up until we see New Mexico as a praise and worship for the world. We anticipate God bringing people from all over the world to experience His presence. The body of Christ in Albuquerque needs to be able to receive those people.

3. New Mexico is known as the "Land of Enchantment;" pray that those involved in cultic power will be turned to know the true power of their creator, not looking to creation to fill the void or looking to deception of evil.

4. Pray that we would see an established prayer ministry in every church throughout our state that names the Name of Jesus. This includes a designated prayer coordinator in order to develop unity in prayer.

5. Join us in prayer as we declare the spirit of poverty, brought about by idolatry, will be broken. New Mexico is known as the last in many statistics. In the education sphere, we are the lowest in the nation. New Mexico contains one of seven cities in the United State to recently receive a statute of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The Queen of Heaven needs to be dismantled in our economy, agriculture, and education that affects our society. Church on the Rock, Albuquerque, has pledged with the Pastors Prayer Network to sponsor the Mozambique project of $4M over the next four years. We believe this step of faith will raise New Mexico's economy to a new level.

6. Join us as we pronounce judgment on the spirits of Ahab/Jezebel and the Queen of Heaven that will bring a Spirit of Jehu.

7. Pray to the Lord of the Harvest for Spanish speaking pastors and bilingual Christians to minister to the 50,000 people in our city who speak only Spanish.

8. Albuquerque, the largest populated area in the state, is known for a high rate of divorce and just recently found to be number twenty-one in crime in cities in America. NM has one of the highest rates in the US of grandparents raising children. It is known for "dead beat dads." Pray and declare that our land will be healed and that salvation will come when the hearts of the fathers are turned to the children and that domestic violence, division in our homes, our businesses, and our churches will desist when a spirit of unity and the bond of peace is declared.

9. Pray and declare that our highways, both the intersection of I-25 north to south and I-40 east to west going from coast to coast will be known as highways of holiness. Pray that the highways will not be used for drug and pornography trafficking, particularly child porn, and stolen property transported across the Mexican border.

10. We praise God that we have seen answers to prayer for natural rain! Our overall water table, though, still needs to rise. More than that, we need the rain of tears of repentance and brokenness in order that churches would come alive with revival. Only the Holy Spirit can bring this into the hearts of our people.

11. We are asking God for finances and provision for our churches to be expanded; this coincides with many of the pastors' visions and missions. We are also asking for release of finances for the laborers in the harvest.

NEW MEXICO HISTORICAL OVERVIEW

Pueblo culture was the first civilization in what is now called New Mexico. The Pueblo residents are still living in the areas where they were first encountered by Europeans from Spain. The Pueblo culture predates the Jamestown colony of 1607.

On April 30, 1598, Don Juan de Onate led an expedition of Spanish colonists into present day New Mexico claiming and officially taking possession of New Mexico for God, the Roman Catholic Church under the King of Spain, (a Christian king), Don Philip. History bears that Onate came across New Mexico in the name of the most holy trinity and the one and only true God declaring Him as universal shepherd of believers and unbelievers and as the universal shepherd of those who had not heard His voice and evangelic word.

New Mexico has the oldest recorded civilizations known in our nation, the oldest established seat of government, the oldest church building and the oldest house in the United States. Even though we were declared a state less than 100 years ago, in 1912, these monuments are significant to our nation's history and foundation. The first recorded bloodshed in what is now NM was of three friars killed after having been accepted by Indians and welcomed into their pueblos.

There is a rock formation near the Oklahoma panhandle which is named The Battleship. This was on the route traveled by explorers and settlers near the village of Folsom, New Mexico. This location is named after the Folsom man, the oldest trace of man in North America, discovered to have been in that area. Earliest residents of New Mexico and the United States include the Sandia people, Clovis people, Cochise people, Anasazi people, present day Pueblo people, as well as the Folsom people. We also have a town named Shiprock for the majestic rock formation located on the Navajo Nation Reservation. New Mexico contains nations within the Nation. Native American Nations are represented by the nineteen indigenous Pueblos, Apache tribes, Comanche tribe, Ute tribe and the Navajo Nation. The Native Americans in New Mexico are considered an un-reached people group by the U.S. Center for World Missions. We also have a very unique point geographically which is the four corners area bringing Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado and Utah together. Chaco Canyon was at one time was a thriving-native civilization which mysteriously disappeared.

As previously indicated, the Spaniards brought the Cross and made declarations to claim, as they documented, the heathen for Jesus Christ. Somehow, there was a mix of evangelism of Jesus and the native ceremonies which diluted true evangelism. The fact that New Mexico has the oldest church is significant that there was and still is a search for the supernatural, for prayer, for worship. Our mountains and towns have religious names signifying the Blood of Christ (Sangre de Cristo), the City of Holy Faith (Santa Fe).

The oldest house in the nation was built in Santa Fe. This represents the significance of family and a symbol of unity.

WEAPONS OF WAR

New Mexico had the first atomic bomb detonation. The detonation site is called Trinity Site. This explosion changed the world as to how war was fought thereafter. The development, building and detonation of the first nuclear bomb has changed the world forever. Los Alamos, New Mexico, or the "Secret City," is the location where the nuclear age was born. This location was only a post office box number. No one entered and no one came out. This community now holds some of the world's most advanced scientific people. White Sands Missile Range, a testing and development area for missiles and space shuttle operations, has been and is a significant part of the free world military operations. Kirtland Air Force Base contains the largest nuclear weapons stockpile in the free world. These are substantial elements to the military training and operations we now use. New Mexico contains deposits of uranium, oil, and gas. At the base of the San Andres Mountains is the Very Large Array (VLA), a mobile tracking station for all atmospheric activity.

Having the first known established seat of government in America is one of New Mexico's redemptive gifts. God is the Supreme moral governor of the universe. His kingdom is from everlasting to everlasting. "The Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our King; He will save us" (Is. 33:22). "Woe to those judges who issue unrighteous decrees and to the magistrates who keep causing unjust and oppressive decisions to be recorded; to turn aside the needy from justice and to make plunder of the rightful claim of the poor of my people" (Is. 10:1,2). We recently had our state chief justice arrested for possession of cocaine and DWI along with a state cabinet member who was appointed by the governor to higher education. We also had one of the county clerks issuing marriage licenses to same sex partners. Our school system gives full benefits to same sex partners even though they cannot be married.

SUMMARY: REDEMPTIVE KEYS OF NEW MEXICO

1. Divine government
2. True Christian faith
3. Home and family
4. Warfare
5.

Remain True To What I Have Told You

Susan Cummings

You must remain true to what I have told you. Do not allow the wind and the waves of opposition and pressures to sway you now. Stand firm. Do not give in to take the heat off of your back. Do not think that giving in will lessen the trial or the situation, but rather, it will only bring you into a place of separation from Me. For I am in control of your life, and it is My dealings that you are currently feeling. Nothing happens to you without My Knowledge.

Keep your eyes upon the task at hand, and do not look around, nor behind you anymore. It does not matter what others think, or do, or say to you. I am your God! I am the one who guides you, not the men who think they know. Can they tell you what I will bring next? No. Man has not yet seen what I will do, especially on behalf of My Own. Do not limit yourself by responding to the taunts and cares of those around you, but look unto Me.

Wait upon My Hand. For My Timing is perfect, and it will not be according to what man thinks, understands, or decides it will be. I am in complete control, and am working things out. Trust Me to do it. Do not move from your place till I tell you to. Do not work out your own solution without My direct word to you first. You don't know what I am laying up behind the scenes, and if you act out of My timing or will for you, it will undo all that I have arranged for you.

Not everything is as it seems.

The shaking is only beginning. If you cannot stand now, what will you do later?
Wait upon Me, and see what I will do. Remain true to what I have told you already. The vision is yet for the appointed time, and it will run, as I said. So, rest, and strengthen yourself IN ME, and gather yourself, for the days are numbered and will delay no more.

Be wise, and remain at My Feet.

It is there that you will see all that I have planned and all that I will do, and all that will be. For I have told you that I would show you, as you seek Me.

Nothing will remove you from My Hand, as you are firmly planted IN Me, but the only way you can be loosed from Me, is if you walk away now. Choose to wait, and see My Faithfulness, and My Sovereignity. For I Am Faithful and True to you. My Word is being revealed to those who are looking for it.

Restoring The Fallen Tabernacle Of David

Lishan Desta

The Tabernacle of David and the Endtime
Collected works

"On that day I will raise up The tabernacle of David, which has fallen down, and repair its damages; I will raise up its ruins, and rebuild it as in the days of old" Amos 9:11.

Reflection
By making the above verse to mean the 'restoration of the grace of worship in the church,' we are in the danger of missing the greater meaning of the verse. If we do, we will be losing an important aspect in what God is doing in our days to bring about the fullness of His Kingdom.

Here are some reasons why Amos 9:11 should not be limited to the idea of church worship per se, but be applied to events surrounding the Endtime manifestation of the Kingdom of God.

1). The tent of meeting where the Ark was kept and where much worship was conducted, was never called the tabernacle of David (cf. 2 Sam. 6: 17; 7: 1-3; 1 Kg. 8: 1-3; 1 Chr. 16, 21:29-30; 2 Chr. 1:3). For that matter, it has never been called the tabernacle of Moses, even after the first man who first set it up under God's direction (cf. Acts 7: 44-47; Heb. 3: 2-6; 9, 10).

2). If we suppose that Amos 9:11 refers to the Tent of Meeting as it was in David's days, then why associate David relationship with God with worship only? Does not the life of King David signify as many important virtues before God as worship? What about election by grace (the 1 Cor. 1: 30 principle), spiritual warfare, prayer, the disciplines of God, waiting upon God, the Messiah and His Kingdom, etc., all of which illustrate David's life? If so, what are our Scriptural basis to read only and primarily the restoration worship in this verse?

3). To place the above verse in the general context of the Book of Amos, first we have to know that the whole tone of Amos is a cry for political and economic justice for the poor, and for the return of Israel to their covenant relationship with God. Amos openly denounces ritualistic worship, which was devoid of true spirituality (Amos 4: 1; 8: 4-6). To him, true worship is not associated with a place or with a song, but with integrity of heart and justice to the poor (Amos 5: 4-5; 6: 5-6, 8:3).

4). So if not the above, then what is the true meaning of Amos 9: 11? In the prophetic books of the OT, David primarily stands for God's Kingdom. David is the chosen type of Messiah by the prophets (Is. 11: 1 -6, 16: 4b - 5; Jer. 23: 5-6; Ezk. 37: 22,24; Hos. 3:5). Therefore, the verse in Amos should be taken as God's promise to His people to restore to them a righteous government like that of David. This kingdom will ensure economic and political justice to all, and restore the fear of God to the land. It will also enlarge the borders of Israel by conquering the neighboring gentile nations (Ps. 77: 69-72). In Amos 9:11, it is the restoration of such a godly King that is in focus, and not as such the worship of God per se.

5). Why should we worry too much about how an obscure verse as Amos 9:11 is interpreted? Is not the meaning the verse is already assigned a worthy one - does not God commend worship? The answer is: Yes, He does (Ps. 29: 1, 96: 5-8, etc). However, we will miss a greater prophetic meaning in that verse if we close our minds to the true interpretation of the verse. The true interpretation of Amos 9:11 is found by looking first at other similar Bible verses, which speak of the restoration of David's kingdom (Ps. 88; Is. 11: 1, 16: 3-5; 52: 11-13; Zech. 12: 8, 13: 1). Only such verses do set us on the correct path to understand the meaning of Amos 9:11. In short, in its prophetic Endtime sense, Amos 9:11 is about overcoming a ruinous tribulation, being girded by the power of God, and finally being able to expand the Kingdom of God by inheriting the gentile nations.

Prophecy (1)

Why do my people say that when I say: I shall restore the fallen tabernacle of David and restore its ruins that they say, "Our God is going to restore worship in our midst"? As much as I want you, My people, to worship Me and bring Me your sacrifices of praise, however, the words I spoke through My Prophet Amos, are not about Me restoring the grace of worship among you.

Listen carefully, know this and understand it well. I have a strange work to do among My people in the Last Days. In the Last Days, I will make My people to partake of My suffering as I desire them to have fellowship with My cross (Matt 26: 29). I want My people to be conformed to My death, so that in the end they may know me not only through their minds, but also deep in their souls. As I made My servant, Paul, to carry on his body the marks of my suffering, so shall it be to my dedicated ones in the closing days of the ages.

I shall strip you off the glory of the Old Man by the deep workings of My Cross. And when I lay My Cross on My people in the Last Days, the world will be awe struck and cry out, 'What a destruction! What a humiliation! What a loss!"

When my cross works in your lives, My servants, you shall be like a city whose gates have been destroyed and whose walls have been burned down. Your life shall be in shambles - you will be like a city, which lies in ruins, to be plundered and ravaged by every passer by. You will look like a tree in the wintertime - a tree that has lost all its leaves, appearing desolate and dead to all onlookers. My vineyard, My Beloved, I shall give it up to be polluted and trampled upon. It shall become an abomination to gentiles, and the gentiles shall tread it under foot for many years.

As the world knows not of My purposes, neither discern My workings, therefore, those of this world will stumble, fall and be taken captive because of My strange doings among you, says your God. You shall be a sign to be spoken against by them.

But when My purpose is attained in you, and when I have completely formed My glorious Image in you, then I will open your graves and make you attain unto My resurrection glory. In that day, when I lift up My people in the eyes of the world, the most humiliated among My people shall be transformed to be David-like and God-like. It is in That Day, then, I shall raise the fallen booth of David and restore it to its former glory. In That Day, My tested servants shall march before My flock and lead them to conquest (Zech 12: 8). In That Day, I shall make you to inherit the gentile nations and make you to glory in their riches. In That Day, I shall stir up many saviors for Myself, and they shall come to My Holy Mountain, and the Kingdoms of the earth shall belong to Me, says your God (Obadiah 21).

As I have overcome My passions and the throes of death, and sat down at the right hand of My Father, to those who endure their Tribulation to the very end and overcome, I shall give them the power to sit with Me on My throne. Theirs shall be the rod of iron to smash the unruly, and to bring Me the obedience of the nations, says Your Lord.

“Give counsel, grant justice; make your shade like night at the height of noon; hide the outcasts, betray not the fugitive; let the outcasts of Moab sojourn among you; be a refuge to them from the destroyer. When the oppressor is no more, and destruction has ceased, and he who tramples under foot has vanished from the land, then a throne will be established in steadfast love and on it will sit in faithfulness in the tabernacle of David one who judges and seeks justice and is swift to do righteousness" Isaiah 16: 3-5.

I have given you the charge - hide, hide, hide My people, says God. Let my outcasts, the fugitives of My plan stay with you. Cover them with your shadows; enfold them with your wings. Be to them a cave, a hiding place where My prophets can take a cover in the days of their plight. Be for Me like the daughter of Pharaoh, or Obadiah, or Jehoshabeth and Jehoiada to hide My prophets and kings from the face of those who seek their demise. Or be like the desert of Midian or as the land of Egypt where My chosen ones will take sojourn until the oppressor is removed and a new day dawns.

Let no one know that My prophets are hiding with you; let no one know who they are and what I AM up to in their lives. Let them be fed with you, be protected by you. Let My chosen ones grow and mature hid with you. Stand guard over them, and let not your wings ever expose them. When I am finished making them, molding them, I will take them out and gird them by My power. I will set them on a throne, and give them the kingdom of David, their father. They shall execute judgment in the land, and the earth eagerly awaits their appearance.

Prophecy (3)

“In that day Yahweh will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of Yahweh before them “ Zech. 12:8.

A day is coming, says your God, that I will lift up the weak and strengthen the feeble. In all the ages it has been My chosen plan to reveal My boundless power through the weak and the despised vessels. Now watch me as I work through My servants, those the world has given no place. These I will gird with power; these I will turn into My mighty army. These weak vessels will be as mighty as David, as powerful and as divine as the angel of God, says the Lord. They might have been overthrown, their tabernacles mighty have been in ruins, but I am a God of restoration and resurrection. Yet, I shall clothe them with My Divine Glory and Name. They will march across the length and breadth of the earth, and they will bring the obedience of the nations to their God, says the Lord.

Prophecy (4) and Word

(a). "On that day a fountain will be opened for the dynasty of David and for the people of Jerusalem, a fountain to cleanse them from all their sins and defilement” Zech 13:1.

(b). "On the Big Day, a fountain will be opened for the family of David and all the leaders of Jerusalem for washing away their sins, for scrubbing their stained and soiled lives clean” Zech 13:1.

Though you may be defiled and filthy in their eyes, an outcast and a rejected one in their estimate, but in My eyes you are a royal priesthood destined for the throne. The enemy has caused you to be a curse among the people; it has made you to be regarded as a sinner. But in My eyes, you are a pure and unsullied dove. What the enemy has caused for your sorrow and pain, I will change and make it for your glory. The enemy thought this will be for your eternal dismay, but it does not know that I have destined it for the glory of the ages.

In that day, when I bring back your captivity, I will use a new way to bring your restoration. I shall use a fountain for a well of salvation to bring about the removal of your defilement. You shall be washed clean, scrubbed clean, from your stain by the virtue of the fountain, says your God. The day is coming, says the Lord God, when I will strip off your filthy garments and restore this humbled ruined tent of yours to a glorious stature. The world will wonder about your luster, because you shall emerge from your rejection shining with My glory. Every one will see your release and enthronement, and they will give Me praise for your sake, says the Lord.

(i). “Though you lie down among the sheepfolds, you will be like the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold” Ps. 68:13.

(ii). “Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the Lord, and Satan standing at his right hand to oppose him. And the Lord said to Satan, "The Lord rebuke you, Satan! The Lord who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?" Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the Angel. Then He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, "Take away the filthy garments from him." And to him He said, "See, I have removed your iniquity from you, and I will clothe you with rich robes." And I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head, and they put the clothes on him. And the Angel of the Lord stood by. Then the Angel of the Lord admonished Joshua, saying, "Thus says the Lord of hosts: 'If you will walk in My ways, And if you will keep My command, Then you shall also judge My house, And likewise have charge of My courts; I will give you places to walk Among these who stand here. 'Hear, O Joshua, the high priest, You and your companions who sit before you, For they are a wondrous sign; For behold, I am bringing forth My Servant the BRANCH” Zech. 3:1-8.

(iii). ‘Thus says the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel, the Holy One: To Him whom man despises, to Him whom the nation abhors, to the Servant of rulers: "Kings shall see and arise, Princes also shall worship, Because of the Lord who is faithful, The Holy One of Israel; who has chosen you" ‘ Is. 49:8.

Refresh The Ground And Persevere
Stephen Hanson

May 8, 2004

ISA 12:3 With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

ISA 49:10 They will neither hunger nor thirst, nor will the desert heat or the sun beat upon them. He who has compassion on them will guide them and lead them beside springs of water.

"Continue my people, in the faith that I have given unto you. Know that you are vessels to display my work unto the world. What is hidden will be disclosed. The time is running close to my soon return. "

The Lord showed me a tree that was ready to shed its leaves. I watched as several leaves fell to the ground. My attention was drawn to each one as they fluttered in mid-air. The first fell in front of me and then turned into a piece of parchment that was crumpled-up like a leaf. On it was written, "Be ready." I kept looking at the leaves as they fell from the tree. A second leaf fell in the same manner towards me and it had the message, "Persevere" written on it. Several other leaves fell to the ground from the tree, but these were the only ones that held a message. Then as I watched one fell and continued to fall, but did not fall to the ground. There was a cliff and on its edge it went into a chasm. One of the leaves continued to fall into this area. I saw what looked like a long scroll come forth from this single leaf and then the leaf/scroll changed its form. It now became a bucket that held water. Water was being poured into it from above. The bucket and water was then being raised and was filling other buckets. Finally, the bucket of water was tiled to spill its water onto the ground. The ground was parched and cracked like a desert.

"These leaves represent what you are to do to prepare yourselves for my soon return. I tell you that you are to draw water out from the springs of my Spirit; and then it will be poured into the dry places that need it. "

There Is A Drought In The Land
Stephen Hanson

May 1, 2004
HOS 4:6 my people are destroyed from lack of knowledge.

AM 8:11 "The days are coming," declares the Sovereign LORD, "when I will send a famine through the land-- not a famine of food or a thirst for water, but a famine of hearing the words of the LORD. AM 8:12 Men will stagger from sea to sea and wander from north to east, searching for the word of the LORD, but they will not find it.

"Many of my people are on the brink of starvation. They are on the brink of being starved of my word. There is a drought in the land and it is a drought of my word. Many go here and go there for a word from the Lord. Many seek out a prophet that they might get a word from the Lord, but I tell you, the word is near you, it is even in your heart. Why seek after these things when I am in you? Why go to this conference and that one when I have given you all things? I tell you that my people lack of knowledge. They seek after the spectacular. I tell you that this attitude is no different than the world's "

"Will I do the miraculous? Will I do the spectacular? I tell you that I will, but it is only when you seek after Me first. Seek after Me first and I will surely give you all things. Then will come the spectacular, but it only because you know Me. "

Rebuilding The House Of The Lord
David Orton

"…the Holy Spirit said, 'Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work…" Acts 13:2

GOD IS ONCE AGAIN CALLING OUT A REMNANT FROM THE CHURCH'S BABYLONIAN CAPTIVITY.

Just as ancient Israel, when the seventy years had expired, were set free to return and rebuild the temple, so too the people of God in this hour (see Jer 25:11-12; 29:10-14; Ezra 1:1-5).

THE PROPHETIC CLOCK HAS BEEN TICKING AND THE TIME FOR OUR RELEASE IS IMMINENT. But it is a release with a purpose – 'the restoration of all things spoken by the holy prophets' (see Acts 3:21) – to restore and rebuild the house of the Lord.

BUT WE HAVE MISUNDERSTOOD THE 'HOUSE OF THE LORD' – we have thought it was our 'paneled houses' – our 'local churches' – our franchise outlet for the latest so-called 'apostolic network', new movement, or historic denomination.

WE HAVE FORGOTTEN THAT JESUS SAID, "I WILL BUILD MY CHURCH" – that He is completely single-minded about the restoration of "one flock with one shepherd" (Jn 10:16) – the one church of the city. We have prevaricated by saying, "The time has not yet come for the Lord's house to be built" (Hag 1:2). But the time has come – the Lord is asking, "Is it a time for you yourselves to be living in your paneled houses, while this house remains a ruin?" (Hag 1:4).

WE HAVE WONDERED WHY IT'S SO HARD TO 'DO CHURCH' – WHY THERE IS SO MUCH 'BURN-OUT' – SO MUCH FAILURE AND FRUSTRATION – AND SO LITTLE GROWTH.

AND SO, THE LORD IS SAYING,

"GIVE CAREFUL THOUGHT TO YOUR WAYS. YOU HAVE PLANTED MUCH, BUT HAVE HARVESTED LITTLE…YOU EXPECTED MUCH, BUT SEE, IT TURNED OUT TO BE LITTLE. WHAT YOU BROUGHT HOME I BLEW AWAY. WHY?…BECAUSE OF MY HOUSE, WHICH REMAINS A RUIN, WHILE EACH OF YOU IS BUSY WITH HIS OWN HOUSE." HAG 1:5-9

THE LORD IS ABOUT TO STIR THE HEARTS OF HIS PEOPLE AGAIN. As they hear the prophetic sound of the Haggais and Zechariahs, Zerubbabel and Joshua, the apostolic builders, with a remnant people will leave their sectarian and selfish interests to return to the work – to the rebuilding of the city-church – the raising up of the dwelling of God by the Spirit (see Hag 1:12-15).

"NOT BY MIGHT, NOR BY POWER, BUT BY MY SPIRIT"
But because the status quo (building our ministry, movement, church, or denomination) is such an immovable mountain the word of the Lord will declare, "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit'…'What are you, O mighty mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become level ground. Then he will bring out the capstone to shouts of 'Grace, Grace!'

Then the word of the Lord came to me, 'The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this temple; his hands will also complete it...'" Zech 4:6-9

THE MOUNTAIN OF ENTRENCHED PATTERNS – TWO-THOUSAND YEARS OF RELIGIOUS TRADITIONS, STRUCTURES, AND SENTIMENTS – OF SELF-SEEKING AND SELF-PROMOTION WILL FALL BEFORE THE OMNIPOTENT SPIRIT. What is impossible to man is possible to God. All things that can be shaken will be shaken, so that only the unshakeable will remain.

THE RELEASE OF GOD'S PEOPLE AND THE RESTORATION OF THE CITY-CHURCH ARE IMMINENT. Its foundation will be re-laid, but it will be by the Spirit, not by any human might or power – there will be no twelve-step city-reaching strategy to pull it off!

THE FOUNDATION OF APOSTLES AND PROPHETS WITH CHRIST AS THE CHIEF-CORNERSTONE IS THE FIRST STEP. And it will only be re-laid through a deep work of the Spirit. False foundations – denominational, celebrity, and self-seeking agendas will be ripped up and discarded in this new move of the Spirit. A deep repentance will grip the hearts of many as they are called to "raise up the age-old foundations" (Isa 58:12).

ALL ACROSS OUR CITIES AND NATIONS THESE REFORMATIONAL FORERUNNERS ARE NOW BEING PREPARED FOR RELEASE.

THEY HAVE BEEN CALLED BY THE SPIRIT INTO PLACES OF OBSCURITY AND ANONYMITY. Just as those who, in debt, distressed, and discontented were called out from Saul's palace to David at Adullam (1 Sam 22:1-2) in preparation for the throne – for the third and apostolic anointing – so too, a remnant forerunner company for the restoration of the apostolic city-church. They will prove to be the embryo of a new wineskin that will harvest whole cities and regions of the earth.

TRUE SERVANTHOOD – "KNOWN, YET REGARDED AS UNKNOWN." AS 'NO-NAME' APOSTLES AND PROPHETS THEY WILL MAKE WAY FOR THE KING. They will be buried in Christ as the chief-cornerstone – hidden in God – obscured in the anonymity of true servanthood – "known, yet regarded as unknown" (2 Cor 6:9). A foundation is never visible, except as it is being laid. And so, for a short season there will be a re-emphasis of their role in the process of rebuilding and restoration. But as they are put in place, in Paul's words,

"…God has put us apostles on display at the end of the procession, like men condemned to die in the arena. We have been made a spectacle to the whole universe…we are fools for Christ…" 1 Cor 4:9-10

AS TRUE APOSTLES THEY WILL RECEIVE THE SENTENCE OF DEATH IN THEMSELVES – THEY WILL DECREASE, SO THAT THE LIFE OF GOD MAY INCREASE.

And so, again in Paul's words,

"For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ" 1 Cor 3:11

AND THIS FOUNDATION IS MORE THAN THE DOCTRINE OF CHRIST. It is not knowledge about Christ. Rather, it is being immersed in the knowledge of Christ – a union of spirit – the intimacy of bride and groom.

BURIED IN THIS KNOWLEDGE (THROUGH PROPHETIC WORSHIP, DECLARATION AND TEACHING), PROPHETS WILL PREPARE THE WAY FOR A NEW RELEASE OF THE APOSTOLIC ACCORDING TO THE ANTIOCH PROTOTYPE.

Run Towards Me Not Away

Yolanda Ballard

Jan 9, 2004
(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)
Many times when I draw My people to come close, I see that many run in the opposite direction and avoid coming into the secret place with Me. For this is the time and the hour where the enemy will do everything in his power to draw you away from coming into that place of intimacy with Me. For in this place I accept you as you are, and you are able to receive healing from all your hurts and pain. I will build you up and prepare you for battle. I will speak to you of My battle plan on how to defeat the enemy in your life. There is nothing to fear so draw near for I have defeated the enemy on your behalf.

I love you just as you are, and there is nothing you have to do to make Me love you any more than I love you this day. I loved you before you ever knew Me, even when you chose to live a life of sin. And now that you know Me I give you My kingdom authority, My name, and I call you to even sit with Me at the right hand of My Father, the place of power. Why do you shy away from Me? What do you feel you have to hide? Or is it that you just don't desire My presence for you have as much of My presence that you want.

Do not be afraid to come into that place where I examine your heart to bring conviction for that is a place of purity and freedom. You must delight in that place. Do not believe what the enemy says about coming into that place, for he is a liar and even the father of lies. All he comes to do is to twist the truth. Do not listen to anything he has to say even if it sounds like it makes sense.

This is the time and the hour where I will pour out My power, but you must draw close to receive it. Even draw close upon My lap and rest your head on My chest. Let Me hold you close to bring comfort and strength for many are so weary and battle fatigued. Give Me all your cares. Give Me all the battle. Don't try to fight it on your own in your own strength. Let go and let Me take over for you. Do not be afraid for I AM in control, and all things will work for your good. Just trust Me for I love you and care for you.

This is the final hour, and you must develop that place of intimacy with Me. Run to Me every chance that you can. Escape the cares of the world and the distractions of the enemy, and come sup with Me for I will fill you with that hidden manna to give you strength. Yes, I will strengthen your inner man as you pray in My Spirit. I will fill you with My strategies against the enemy to defeat him in every way that he tries to come against you. I will give you discerning of spirits and knowledge and wisdom. Yes, I will stir the gifts up within you, and show you how to stand even bolder in the face of danger for I AM making and calling you My soldiers of light and truth.

Come out of the darkness and come into My glorious light in My secret place. For I will give you joy unspeakable and fill you with My glory. I will cause you to delight in My word that it May be planted deep in your heart. I will refresh you by streams of living water that you may bask in My Son. Look forward to your times with Me, for this is the final hour, and you must make good use of the time you have. Take all opportunity to prepare, to draw near, while it is still day. For soon I will send you out like lambs for the slaughter. That will be the way it will seem in the day of persecution, but I will raise you up as mighty warriors, and every word that I will say through you will be like a mighty roar to defeat the enemy. For just because I have made you meek, don't think that you are weak for I AM mighty in you and through you.

I love you, My beloved. Come close this day. Listen closely to what I have to say. Rest in My presence for I AM faithful. I will prosper you. I will heal you. I will raise you up for I AM the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and I AM calling you near.

Stand Unwavering On My Promises
Yolanda Ballard

Jan 14, 2004
Stand on every promise that I have given to you in My Word. This is the day to take authority over every weapon formed against you, and decree them null and void and that they can bring no harm to you. For this is the day I call you to rise up to tell the enemy that this is as far as you go, no more, and that you are taking no more of his harassment and pain.

I have taken you through the fire and I have taken you through the rain, and you have remained faithful, fixed on My promise that I would sustain you and restore you to health. All that you have gone through you have never let go of Me, and now I will bless you and prosper you and restore all that the enemy has tried to steal from you. Yes, this is the day of restoration and for rejoicing. No, it is not time to let go but to hold on ever tightly for the manifestation of your loved ones and those things you have been believing for is at hand. Yes, you are right at the edge of a major breakthrough that will bring glorious change in your life. Reach out and decree that this is the day of salvation and the day to decree victory and to rejoice!

Count your blessings this day. Don't allow the enemy to rob you of them by having you to focus on the negative around you. Look past the circumstances, and keep your eyes on Me, and know in your heart that I AM faithful. I AM in control and am working all things for your good. Take this day and rest in My love and goodness and be lifted up in your spirit. Don't allow the enemy to bring discouragement and despair trying to get you to believe that there is no end to these trials. I AM sovereign and yes, I AM in control. The enemy can do nothing without My allowing it so in that aspect he is My servant, and he is under your feet.

If you are Mine, he can bring you no harm without good coming out of it. I AM teaching you and molding you into My image by the suffering that you go through in My name. If you are standing on My word and are struggling, then take heed to My word that it will not return to Me void without accomplishing what I sent it out to do. Do not look at the severity of the trial or the time involved in walking it out, that is not yours to be concerned with. All you need to do is stand unwavering knowing that I AM faithful. Don't panic in these last days and give up and run to the arm of the flesh.

Don't trust Me only when you can see the end, but walk by faith knowing My promise to prevail over the enemy. Whatsoever things you desire when you pray believe that you have them and the answer is yours. If it is according to My will, then I hear your prayer, and if you know that I heard you, the answer is yes and Amen. Secure yourself with the basics of your faith, and waver not in unbelief for these are perilous times, and you need to be able to trust Me so I can take you through in victory. Yes, I will sustain you. I will restore you to health and prosper you. Rejoice this day for you have the victory.

Remove The Occult Shield Of Protection

Rick Ridings

A Call to Remove the Occult Shield of Protection over three Men through Prayer-- B*n Laden, Arafat, and Yassin"
Mar 6, 2004
web: www.jerusalempraise.com

I believe the Lord wants me to sound a loud and clear call to prayer for the removal of the "occult shield of protection" surrounding Osama b*n Laden, Yasser Arafat, and Sheik Yassin (the spiritual head of "Hamas" in Gaza, and responsible for the terrorist deaths of scores of Jewish youth and children in Israel).

This direction in prayer has recently come strongly in our intercession and worship watches in Jerusalem. Having ministered over many years in several countries of the Middle East and North Africa, I know that the use of witchcraft and curses is very common in much of Islam. I sensed this strong use of the occult when I was in Iraq in the area that was eventually revealed as Saddam Hussein's hiding place. During the time before his capture, I felt led to pray that his "occult shield of protection" would be stripped away. Now I believe it is time to pray in the same way concerning these three evil men.

A Call to Fast

Tonight, I was awakened in the night with this phrase concerning Osama b*n Laden, Yasser Arafat, and Sheik Yassin: "The time for the removal of your occult shields of protection has come. The time of your judgment is swiftly approaching."

Even as those in Islam fast for power (but it comes from the wrong source), so I believe God is calling many who will receive this to fast and pray for the breaking of these men's occult defense, and for their full evil to be exposed. Some in our ministry in Jerusalem are already fasting 40 days and calling out for God to remove the demonic protection over these three men.

Praying Isaiah 47

The young man over our night watches in Jerusalem, Steve Hansen, received Isaiah 47 concerning this subject. I encourage you to pray the whole chapter, but especially significant are verses 9-11: "Both of these will overtake you in a moment, on a single day: loss of children and widowhood. They will come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and all your potent spells. You have trusted in your wickedness and have said, 'No one sees me.' Your wisdom and knowledge mislead you when you say to yourself, "I am, and there is none besides me.' Disaster will come upon you, and you will not know how to conjure it away. A calamity will fall upon you that you cannot ward off with a ransom; a catastrophe you cannot foresee will suddenly come upon you."

May God arise, and may His enemies be scattered!

Receive The Promises By Faith

Kathie Walters

2004 A Year To Receive The Promises By Faith

The Lord showed me yesterday and today that this is the year to receive the things that you have been promised, but many people don't know HOW to receive - or don't know HOW to really get into faith. So read and pass on, lets do some receiving together!
Kathie, how to receive your inheritance? (It's easier than you think).

Regarding your inheritance -

First of all, you have to be convinced that you DO have an inheritance. If I called you and said that your long lost uncle had died and left a few million dollars in an account for you in Switzerland, you would very likely find out as fast as you could how to get to Switzerland and access that account. But if you weren't convinced that you had an account, you would just go plodding along as usual. That is called a spirit of slumber. A spirit of slumber doesn't mean that you are lazy and don't do anything - it means that you are asleep to the relevant things of God.

It's a promise

First of all, the inheritance comes through promise, not works. (Gal 3:18) So, you can't earn it. It is a gift. The inheritance is eternal, (Heb 9:15) and it is sealed with the Spirit of promise. The Baptism of the Spirit is like an engagement ring, a sealing of the promise. This makes the Spirit-filled life our inheritance. (Eph 1:13,14) and the Life of the Spirit is meant to be normal for us.

The Spirit of God is powerful and supernatural, He is incorruptible and undefiled. God said that, when the Spirit came, we would prophesy and dream dreams and see visions (Acts 2:18). When Phillip went to witness and baptize the man in the chariot, its says that the Spirit afterwards "Caught Philip away, and the eunuch saw him no more" (Acts 8:39). God is not limited as we are. There is no time or distance in the Spirit. That is why when we are in the Spirit we can be taken to other nations and see things in the future and have revelation of things that are past.

We are joint heirs

We are called to the realm of the Holy Spirit - the realm where GOD dwells. We have "Been given the Spirit of adoption whereby we cry "Abba" (daddy) Father (Rom 8:15)." And the same "Spirit bears witness with our spirit that we ARE THE CHILDREN OF GOD, and if children, then heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ." (Rom 8:15).

Joint heirs - that means we can have what He has. What an awesome and powerful and incredible inheritance. When Jesus died on the cross for you, he did not say "Well I have purchased your eternal salvation and you are going to spend eternity with Me, but meanwhile, do the best you can." No, no He left you a powerful life in the Spirit, in order that you can live as He lived and be a witness to His mighty resurrection. "You will receive POWER after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you and you shall be WITNESSES TO ME" (Acts 1:8) The apostle Paul said, "I came to you not with words of man's wisdom but in demonstration of the Spirit and in power, " (1 Cor 2:4).

There must be a demonstration of God's power, that is why we are still here on this earth - our lives are that demonstration, that is why we need to receive our spiritual inheritance and all that God has provided.

So, now are you convinced about your inheritance? Did you realize that the religious spirit makes people feel as though they are somehow not "qualified" for this wonderful inheritance? If I ask people about salvation, they tell me, "Yes, we know we are saved though Christ and His death and resurrection, we have received it by faith and we know we are heaven-bound." But when I asked the same people "Do you know that the realm of the Spirit, the supernatural realm, the angels, heavenly visitations, are supposed to be a normal part of your life? Those same people who are sure of their salvation, will say they feel somehow they are not "qualified" for this supernatural realm. They feel "This is for sister Sue and Brother Pat, who are more spiritual than me. After all who am I to be having all these wonderful things?"

Don't listen to the devil's lies

A little old devil creeps up alongside and agrees with you. "Yes, who do you think you are to be talking about ministry and going to other nations and prophesying and having visitations from God.?" Don't listen to the lies of the enemy of your soul. It is in his best interest to keep you out of the supernatural realm for which you were born (again). Just think for a minute. You can't do him much damage in the natural - in fact you can't do anything at all. But when you get in your inheritance and that realm of the spirit, then his kingdom is going to shake and the devils and demons around you are going to shake and all kinds of evil things are going to have to close shop and move out of town.

This last weekend we had a "Mighty Young Warriors conference" in our town, Macon, Georgia. Kids came from all over and the power of God laid them out under the anointing, then they got up and started praying for people. There were some major miracles and deliverances that happened. I saw a major demonic stronghold LEAVE the area. Something the intercessors had been praying against for years - See the devil couldn't stand to see the power of God like that - especially on the kids!

Guess what - you don't have to "qualify" either

You see you don't have to qualify for this walk in the supernatural. If Jesus qualified you 100%, then how can you un-qualify for something you never qualified for in the first place? That's ridiculous! When I speak of angelic encounters, heavenly visitations, Gods chariots, people say to me, "Well it's OK for you - you have that kind of Spirit ministry." It grieves me when I hear that. We are all meant to have that kind of ministry.
Whether it's in teaching, prophesying, evangelizing, pastoring - it's meant to be supernatural. These are all supernatural ministries - given by God Himself. We are supernatural people - God's own people, bought with a great price, the precious blood of the Lamb.

Do you think Jesus died to leave you where you are? No! He purchased you to walk in His ways, in the Spirit. He has given you a new heart and put His spirit within you (Ezek 36:26). Don't you know the Lawgiver is IN you? That's why you don't have to struggle and strive to keep the law. If you walk in the Spirit you will not fulfill the lusts of the flesh. How come? - Oh, because you don't live in that realm of death anymore. You have been translated into the kingdom of God's dear Son. What a great salvation! What a wonderful privilege to be called the sons and daughter of God! Well you have to walk like a princess or prince and talk like one, and act like one. Live in your inheritance, be who you are - in Christ.

Good News - It's by faith

So friends, it is by faith that we access our inheritance. You see God cannot minister to our unbelief and our negativism. It is the opposite to His very nature. He is a God of faith. Did you realize that God believes in Himself and has confidence in His own power. If He does then why can't you? He believes in you too. So much so, that He put His own life within you, He has so much confidence that He placed the most priceless jewel in you - His Spirit.

Jesus said, " What things so ever you desire, when you pray, believe that ye receive them and ye shall have them" (Mark 11:24).
"Oh you mean, pray and wait and see if it happens and then believe it?"
"No believe when you pray, not when you see."
"Oh you mean believe BEFORE you see."
"Right you got it." Clank clank clank - brains disturbed!

We have to adjust to the Dove. As Godfrey Birtill sings "If you want to rise above the mountains you must adjust to the dove." (Awesome song by the way. From his CD "Fertile Ground")

You get what you say

Jesus said another interesting thing about receiving. He said (talking about moving the mountain) ".. and he does not doubt in his heart. But believes that those things which he SAYS will come to pass: he shall have whatsoever he says." (Mark 11:23)
"Oh Oh - it can't be that easy - don't we have to struggle and strive and work at it?"
"No you just have to believe and get rid of the doubt - If you want to please God, you have to operate in faith. And by the way, you will have what you say , so I would be very careful about what you say."

Whenever I went to New England in the winter time I would say "I always get a cold when I come to New England in the winter."
Well guess what? My faith and my confession worked. I got a cold every time I went to New England in the winter. So I quit saying that and believing that - now I don't get colds in New England I get health and a lot of joy."

Now I have another gem for you. Did you know that you don't have to ask God for more faith? He already gave you His faith. "To every man is given the measure of Faith," to do what God calls you to do (Rom 12:3) It's not your faith, it's His faith. Well faith works - you don't have to get more - you have to use what you have. That's the greatest faith in the world in you right now. The trouble is that a lot of people confuse faith with how they feel. Faith has nothing at all to do with how you feel - faith is what you decide to believe and stand in it. There are faith stories and angel stories in my book "Living in the Supernatural" if you want more encouragement.

Getting your family saved

Years ago we continually prayed for our family to be saved - David's (Jewish) dad, his Catholic mom and my very proper, but Godless mom. We complained to the Lord because we were in a revival and the power of God was falling everywhere and our parents were outside it all. Then the Lord said to us, "My Word says 'Salvation is for you and your house", so when are you going to believe they are saved, when you pray or when you see?" After some thought we said- "Oh I see pray and BELIEVE." So, we prayed one more time, and when we prayed we received their salvation - By faith I saw the names of our parents written in God's book. We treated them differently from then on - we just talked to them like they were as saved and as excited as we were. We didn't take any notice of what we saw with our eyes or heard with our ears! Guess what? within 6 weeks they were all saved. This is quite a story, it is in my book "Living in the Supernatural." David's dad met the Lord in his sleep - He sat up in bed, fast asleep with his hands raised in the air. David's mom told us He was sitting up with the his hands up in the air saying ? "Jesus, my Messiah." When he woke up he was saved - God can do a anything, but we have to release our faith - read on

There's nothing wrong with your faith - Get rid of the doubt

It's not your faith that is lacking, it's that fact that a spirit of doubt or unbelief can sit on your fountain of faith. I am going to tell you an animal story.

"Oh no, not another animal story"
"This is a great story it has a happy ending."
"Are you sure about this one?"
"Yes - just listen up."
"OK"

Well you know my kids always had animals of one kind or another. I was never very good with the animals, but my kids survived OK.

The fluffy bunny

Lisa had a big, white, fluffy rabbit. It lived on the porch (upper level) and ran around there. Apart from eating my wicker furniture, I didn't mind it. Well Lisa was going out of town for a few days. "Mom" she said, " Please would you take care of the rabbit?" she showed me how to do its food and water thingy. "No problem." Well, after a day or so I went to check on the rabbit and had this thought. "I bet that bunny would love to run around the yard (we have 3 acres) it must be really tired of that sun porch. Definitely it would enjoy a change of scenery."

I took it out to the yard and put it down on the grass. It hopped around a little nervously and then got excited and began hopping big time. Suddenly our dog, Shep, spotted the rabbit and came charging across the yard. The rabbit saw him and scattered real quick. They both disappeared and the dog came back empty handed, so the bunny had made a good escape. But I thought the bunny was going to come back. After all he knows where he lives, surely he knows a good thing when he sees it. I mean he lives here, he must know that. I waited for an hour and then came back and waited another hour for the rabbit to return. Well of course it must have liked its new found freedom and decided to stay put - wherever its "put" place was.

Unhappy Lisa

Needless to say Lisa was not happy and said she would never leave me to look after her creatures again, and for sure I would not look after her children whenever she had them!

Raccy - the Raccoon

A while later, a friend gave Faith (eldest daughter) a pet Raccoon. Raccy he was called. He had always been a house pet so was used to living inside. He was a cute little fellow. The girls led him around the house on a leash. But they had to leave for a few days to visit some friends. "Can you look after him, Mom?" Faith asked. She was more trusting than Lisa. "Sure thing" I replied.
When they were gone, I fed him and walked Raccy around. I looked out of the French doors in the kitchen and thought, "This little fellow has never had an opportunity to climb a tree. I bet he would love that experience." So, I took him outside and took off the leash and let him run up the tree. I waited for a long time for him to come back. Surely he couldn't be that dumb - he must know where his home is. Well I waited and waited and then realized he must have jumped to another tree and had no intention whatsoever of coming home. I thought he was an ungrateful little fur ball. Faith was mad and for some reason seemed to think I was somewhat lacking in common sense. She said she would never leave me with an animal again, and when she was married and had children, she would never leave her children with me in case I put them up a tree.

Fred the fish

Well things settled down and Lisa acquired a fish. One of those colored fighting fish. It was in a bowl in the kitchen. She was going to visit some friends in Atlanta. "Mom please can you take care of Fred (fish)? You can't run him up a tree or let him run in the yard, so he should be safe." She showed me how to sprinkle his food on the water. "Easy" I thought. The following day I realized that the dog had brought fleas into the house. " I will set off some flea bombs and go to the mall while I am waiting for it to 'take'", I thought to myself. So off I went, having set off 4 bombs throughout the house. I forgot about the little fishy happily swimming about in the bowl.

When I came home and guess what? The little fishy was still in the bowl - but upside down. I poked him and prodded him and prayed, but to no avail. He stayed upside down. Now quite honestly I have a hard time feeling a lot of compassion for fish, they are not like warm and cuddly creatures that snuggle up to you. No doubt some of you will think I am heartless - sorry. My main thought was what I was going to say to Lisa. I was sure she would never let me take care of her children (whenever she got married and had them) ever. I had a better idea. I went to the pet shop and bought another fish that looked just the same. I flushed the first little fish (after saying a "burial" prayer over him,) down the toilet and cleaned out the glass bowl and put the new fish inside.
Lisa came home. We sat in the kitchen with a cup of coffee, everything seemed OK. "Mom" Lisa looked up at me. "Yes?" - "What happened to the fish?"
"Fish?" I tried to look surprised. "Mom, it's a different color." No more to be said about that conversation, except that she reinforced the thing about taking care of her children.

Raja - the cat (good ending to this one). Thought I would say that in case anyone thought of writing me a mean letter

Well there is a point to this story. It concerns Lisa's cat. This is a beautiful Himalayan cat named Raja (means majestic). Lisa and Raja were staying at my house in Georgia. And Guess what? Lisa had to leave for a few days and had to leave her cat with me because the vet was too expensive. I had to make statements of faith concerning this cat before she left him with me.

I was doing well, but I had to leave also just for a couple of days. I asked someone I knew to put the cat in the laundry room where there was plenty of food and water and a lot of space. But when I returned they had forgotten and the cat was stuck in the bathroom for 3 days. He had spilled his water and consequently had no water for 3 days. We rushed him to the Vet who misdiagnosed his condition, so he was another day without proper treatment. When we took him back, the Vet said "His kidneys have failed, we can put him on a kidney machine but we can't really do anything. I have never seen kidneys start up again when they have failed like this." Oh you can guess how I felt - I did love this kitty - he was beautiful and I had bought him for Lisa. I felt so bad. I felt very down and discouraged and felt so sorry for the kitty and myself and for Lisa, who didn't know yet.

I couldn't even think about what I was going to say to her. As the next couple of days went by, I tried to pray but it felt like my prayers were hitting the ceiling. I felt such a heaviness, a great weight. Then on the Saturday morning the Vet called me. "Mrs. Walters," he said, " We can't do anything for the cat - this machine is costing you a lot of money and it is not going to do anything. I need to take the cat off the machine." I panicked then. "Oh, give me half an hour" I said in desperation.

I went into the bedroom and tried to pray and then I remembered something a prophet friend of mine, Bob Jones, had told me a few weeks before. He had said "There is a spirit of doubt trying to attack you." Then I remembered also that God had given me a Spirit of faith. No matter how I felt, it was the truth - that I had God's faith within me. I took authority over the spirit of doubt. I yelled at it to get off me and leave me alone. I began to declare that God's faith was functioning in my life, then I began to pray for Raja and speak to him (although he was still at the Vet's). I commanded him to live and not die. I commanded the kidney's to work - and rebuked the devil who wanted to steal him from us. I shouted and yelled all over the house. Then the phone rang. It was the Vet. "You will never believe this" he said. "Try me" I replied. "This cat is fine, it's kidney's started working on their own and now its off the machine and it looks fine. Can I keep the cat to observe it?" I have never seen this happen before." "No, I am coming to get it right now" was my response.

My faith is fine
You see there was nothing wrong with my faith. How can there be anything lacking in God's faith? But the enemy had tried to steal and bring doubt and discouragement so that I didn't ACT on my faith. I got too busy with how I FELT.

So now friends - start to believe what God believes - agree with Him. By faith you enter into His kingdom and live in your inheritance and be who God made you to be. You are His beloved, the apple of His eye.

Do you know there is no demon or devil that is stronger than your faith - because it is God's faith? Every stronghold has to break and bow under the power of your faith! It is linked to the Son of God and it is linked to His name! The Name that is above every name in heaven and earth. You can't fail. You have no time for feeling sorry for yourself. You have too much going for you. You are a winner - you are on the winning team and the captain of the team has already purchased the victory. Go for it!

Pray this,

"Thank you Lord that when Jesus died for me, He left me an inheritance. The realm of the spirit, the supernatural realm of God, the Angels, the visitations of God, Heaven - that is my inheritance and it is a normal part of my life. This I confess and I choose to believe, I receive in Jesus mighty Name - Amen - so be it.

Note: If you are interested - as of today (Jan 1st 2004) Raja lives with me as Lisa in Washington DC, he is fine and well although he often looks at me sideways and his hair stands up when I go to pick him up. I also have a lovely white Maine Coon cat who LOVES me, his name is "Snowball." Original I know but he TRUSTS ME -unlike Rajah.

Refreshing The Taste Buds Of God

David Scudder

17 May 2004

Refreshing the taste buds of God. (To the Church of Laodicea. Pt.2)

"I will throw you up!" (Rev.3) It is always important to note when God talks like that. He usually is extremely polite in conversation. Rarely does He use words that can't be used at the dinner table. So when He gets gross in His dialogue, there just might be some important issues being discussed.

My Dad rarely yelled. But when he did, my little ears got opened real fast. I did something baaaadddddddddd! Real bad. Repentance was just around the corner for me. Right after my deliverance from my sin. And repent I did.

If you read Part one "To the Church of Laodicea", and felt it applied to your situation; did you find yourself repenting. Since I had written that article, I have found myself hearing those words above, and doing what I have to, to avoid hearing them again. I don't like the idea of making God puke. I don't like the idea that in the condition of being "lukewarm", by not being a refreshing cold drink or a soothing hot drink to Him, I have caused Him revulsion. Especially when I know that His nature toward me is that He is totally in love with me. But my compromised ways and the customs of our Western mindset bombard God with a sulfuric lukewarm taste that constantly strains His ability to be intimate.

But being raised that way, thinking that my lifestyle of success, and my logical mindset is normal and to be expected in my Western setting, I now fight that deeply engrained way of doing things. And every now and then, God pukes. And then He pleads.

"Will you not throw it all behind you for just one moment of pleasing me?! Could you do without your comforts for just a moment to refresh my taste buds.?"

And my spirit says "Yes!" But my engrained way of thinking says "Not until I have enjoyed some of the benefits of my hard work. Not till I am secure financially. So that nothing can rock my world. Not till I have my 3 car garage full of the toys I like. Then I will think about giving more than 10%. And don't bring up that 100% stuff again. I am an American, and I live with needs, and they are expensive!"

And then I hear this gagging going on, and I fall to my knees so trapped within my desires to please Him and to meet my "normal way of life."

"God, I know You are not looking to hurt us. I know you are looking for our good. You are teaching us Kingdom Banking laws. How to store in Heaven for eternity what will in the long run mean so little in the temporal. But God, we are so stuck with our little everyday pleasures. It is not in our nature to do without. We are used to the pleasures of our life. We are taught by good honest God-fearing men to have money, to save money, and to be the best we can be. We are even taught to give to get. This is who we are. And yet for some reason it makes you sick inside. Deliver us from these habits so instilled in our way of life. And open our eyes to see that 'The Emperor has no clothes on!' That your Royal Priesthood is 'Naked and Wretched', and that you have a Divine plan to clothe us with the garments of heaven. Teach us this in the way that only You can. Give us ears to hear and eyes to see! So that we might refresh your taste buds once again."

May I make some recommendations to you to start you off this year. Some of these things might be too radical to imagine.

1)Take the money that you spend on luxuries. (Going to restaurants to eat, amusements, and other unnecessary pleasures) this week, and give them to something or someone that cannot reward you in turn. No tax write-offs or public recognition. An anonymous gift that can only be rewarded in Heaven.

And if you have a problem with any segment of society because of their "way of life;" i.e. bums, drunks, prostitutes, etc., give them the money. I know that it goes against the grain of your thinking. To reward bad living habits so that they can continue on doing the thing that is killing them. But God is not just after your money. He is after your heart to love the unlovable. He is not just after your self-sufficiency; He is after your time and attitude toward those who are opposite of you and your lifestyle. By giving time and money to the very thing you despise, you will begin the journey of being broken of your dependency on earthly possessions and self dependence. Your money will now be Gods money. You will have to trust Him who knows all with the thing that you thought was yours to control.

2.)Take your T.V. and put it in the closet until you stop hearing it call out your name every evening. Replace that time with prayer, fasting, and reaching out to your neighbors on either side of you. Bring them something special to eat. (Please do the prayer and fasting first so that there is some anointing on it.) Just be their friend. Give them a few weeks to get to know you before you "preach to them." Make it your point to begin having a normal relationship with the lost outside of just telling them to "repent!" Make sure they know you care about them first. Know their children's names before you remind them of their destination to hell. If they have special needs like the house needing painting or financial needs, be ready to respond. Make sure any money you give to this need is above and beyond the money you gave in Suggestion #1. That way, you will develop the habit of giving to the needs you see as you see them. The whole point is to make your money Gods money. Remember, besides doing all of this, we are meeting the needs of the storehouse God has placed us in. Housechurch or your local church that you attend. This is above and beyond the tithes you give there. If you say to yourself you do not have the money to do this, then may I suggest you read the first article I wrote "To the Church of Laodicea" once more. Please.

3.)Begin to store presents for Christmas for the needy even now. Make Christmas about giving and not receiving. Teach your children this. This is one of the major training programs for our way of thinking. We are drowned in the idea of receiving on that day. Years later, when we don't get what we want, we get all depressed over it. As children when we don't receive the toy we expected, we threw fits or we sulked about it privately. But if we grow up with the habit of giving only on that day, then we begin to grow up in the ideology of heaven. That to give is better than to receive. I am not against blessing your family with the gifts that parents love to give to their children. But recognize the damage being done if Christmas is about them, and not about Jesus. To undo it, do the radical. At the least make your budget much larger in giving to the poor that day. Take your children to the place of need, and let them participate in the giving. Encourage them to put away for others in anticipation of that day. Break the power of the "Spirit of Materialism" that is so encouraged on Christmas day. Train your children to love pleasing God more then themselves. And if you give to one another, make them gifts that time was put into. It allows for work and time so that it cost something more than money. It breaks the power of money over your way of thinking.

4.) Send your children to organizations like YWAM or other similar groups to get them out into the world where plenty is not normal. Let them see the truth about their way of life. And you go too. Go to a Third world country. You will see what you as a human being lives without everyday and somehow survives. And give till it hurts.

This will break you of your dependence of money and pleasure. And then you will begin to enjoy the money the way it was meant to be enjoyed. And you will refresh the taste buds of our God.

Recognizing The True From The False

Clay Sikes

Feb 28, 2004

We are living in a time in which there are many spiritual forces operating. As Satan's time draws near, so does the intensity of his attack, yet this intensity is not in simple destruction, for it is easily recognized as his work and can be resisted accordingly. No, the intensity of satanic attack that exists today is in the arena of deception - satan masquerading as an angel of light. With this warning we are given instructions from God's word.

"Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. This is how you can recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. THIS IS THE SPIRIT OF ANTICHRIST, which you have heard is coming and even now is already in the world. You dear children are from God and have overcome them, because the greater one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. They are from the world (meaning they still operate from the world's system influence) and therefore speak from the viewpoint of the world (or world's system), and the world (those who are influenced by the world's system) listen to them. We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood."

Deception caused by a lack of spiritual discernment will keep us from entering into the Holy of Holies, that place of divine inheritance. Today many of God's people are dying because of Spiritual ignorance - "My people perish from a lack of knowledge."

Where we are in our journey into the Holy of Holies will determine how quickly we can recognize the Spirit of truth. Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life (John 14:6). Our journey begins in the outer tabernacle (our salvation), into the holy place (being filled with the Spirit), and then into the holy of holies (being led of the Spirit).

As our spiritual growth brings us into a greater spiritual awareness, we become aware of a new spiritual barometer (THE CONSCIENCE OF GOD IN US). When we get to a point that we allow no man or circumstance to violate THE CONSCIENCE OF GOD IN US, we are on our way to spiritual maturity.

What is meant by "the conscience of God in us?" The conscience of God is what God has put in us (foreordained) – our vision, destiny, dream, and purpose, our appointed spiritual relationships, our revelation (understanding,) - those things that God has foreordained and placed in us by His Spirit.

When we begin to walk in the revelation of the following paragraph we will soon begin to separate the TRUE from the FALSE.

A true prophet will point you to Jesus – Jesus' vision and purpose THAT HE HAS PUT IN YOU! A false prophet will point you to himself; his vision, his purpose, his ministry, his church buildings, his desire for you etc., The vast difference between the true and the false is that the true will always confirm the Jesus IN YOU - your calling, your ministry, your purpose, and your destiny, while the false will always violate the Jesus in you, by pointing you to his vision. The TRUE can point you to nothing but Jesus, while the FALSE can point you to nothing but man. The false will always leave you empty, while the true will always leave you full.

So as to avoid confusion, it is important to note that God will, from time to time, marry us to the vision of another; yet the key to understanding this is the witness of the Spirit within us. There is a great difference in God marrying us to another man's vision, and man marrying us to his vision.

Understand this important statement: We are all capable of being both the TRUE and the FALSE in other people's lives in the same day. That is why we must hear what the Spirit is saying to us at all times - Jesus only said what He heard the Father say. We must avoid the temptation of manipulation and coercion from our own personal agendas, stemming from the root of selfishness. We see this world's system characteristic in operation in corporate America, in politics, business, our personal lives, and yes in our own families and Churches.

How are we able to separate the true from false, spiritual from carnal, real from unreal, Christ from the antiChrist? The Word tell us that a great delusion will fall upon the Church, that were it possible the very elect of God would be deceived. How do we avoid this deception? BY COMING INTO AN AWARENESS (THROUGH DISCERNMENT) OF HOW AND WHERE THE ENEMY OPERATES; and understanding that he operates through the World's System. If we are not able to discern the World's System, we must seek God for the gift of spiritual discernment.

We have been given the capability of discerning anything that violates what God has put within us. It will cause our spirit to leap, grieving God's Spirit within. In our flesh we often feel violated and offended, but these feelings emanate from our soul. Our challenge is in recognizing our soul from our spirit. When true spiritual discernment is operating as it should, we will not only recognize the difference in the soul's leading and God's leading, but will quickly recognize what violates God's Spirit within.

Each of us is unique and "wonderfully made." "For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, WHICH GOD PREPARED IN ADVANCE FOR US TO DO." The word "workmanship" is a Greek word, poiema that means "handiwork" or new creation. God prepared each of us differently, yet we are his handiwork designed (IN ADVANCE) to perform a specific duty in the earth, and that duty is our destiny. It is of great importance to note that God put his purpose in us IN ADVANCE, before we were born. "For those he foreknew he also predestined…and those he predestined, he also called; those he called he also justified; those he justified he also glorified" (Romans 8:29,30).

From this we can deduct that God designed us in advance for a specific purpose; we were predestined, called, justified, and glorified. Our calling is steadfast and sure, so if we fail to attain our calling it is not because we lacked the purpose of God in us; it is more accurately reflective of our unwillingness to accept this call by refusing to break with our own traditions and mindsets.

"Many are called, few are chosen." The steps of a righteous man are ordered by God," but do we take those ordered steps, or simply continue to do things our way. The path of destruction is wide and will be traveled by many, yet the path we are called to walk is narrow and will be traveled by few. Here is where the rubber meets the road! Even though we possess this divine purpose, which resides in our spirit, in order for it to be acted upon it must rise up and into our conscience being (into our minds) and action must be taken. In other words, we must mentally know and accept these specific callings, which call for specific acts. Faith without works is dead!

If we recognize "false" when we see it, we must ask God why He has shown it to us. Many today are seeing the "false" and fail to ask God why am I seeing this, and what do you want me to do about it? Things are revealed to us for a specific purpose; hence the importance to seeking God for answers.

Let us all endeavor spiritually to understand what we are seeing and hearing.

Rise Up My Valiant Ones

Dee Hoetmer

21st April 2004

deeconsultancy@absamail.co.za

Rise up My valiant ones, for this is the day of your release.

My mighty ones of valor, you have been tried and tested in a long season of loneliness and persecution from even those closest to you. You have understood My heart and they understood it not, for they know Me not. They know Me through their intellect but not in spirit. They know not My heart of love and compassion, of longsuffering and patience. In this time I have given them, they sought Me not, but continued in their ways, despite My calling through My prophets and My calling to their hearts.

The doors are closing, it is time for My vengeance, time for Me to vindicate My faithful ones, the ones who truly know My heart. ENOUGH OF UNJUST JUDGMENT, ENOUGH OF OPPRESSION! There is a separation coming saith the Lord, from those who truly know My heart and those that know Me in their intellect only. Oh they think they know Me, they know My Word backwards, but they never got to know MY FATHER HEART for they would then not do and act as they do.

I am sending My ministering angels to separate the wheat from the tares, for no longer will My valiant ones, My valiant ones who have stood through all these years despite the rejection and oppression, be subject to their torment!

Now awaits your reward, My mighty ones of valor. Now awaits your promotion for I will exalt those who have humbled themselves. I am a faithful Father, I will not let injustice go unrewarded and neither will I let your faithfulness go unrewarded.

Matthew 16:27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.
Matthew 13:30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.
Matthew 23:12 And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

AMEN!

A Season Of Lack-A Season Of Good And Plenty
Dee Hoetmer

19th April 2004
Be glad, rejoice oh My people, for the day of your release has come. It has been a hard season, a season of lack, a dry season. This has been a season of testing your heart, of testing your stewardship of that which I have given you, of that which I have placed within you.

Know you not that I will arise on your behalf, that I will bare My Holy Arm on your behalf. YOU HAVE DONE JUSTICE AND RIGHTEOUSNESS, NOW SEE THE SALVATION OF THE LORD. I will promote you, I will set your feet on high places.

You have been faithful in little and now I will give you much. I will reverse your lack by My Mighty Right Arm. I will give you honor and favor above your wildest dreams and expectations. You have given Me honor and now it is the delight of My Father's Heart to honor you.

Now comes a time OF GOOD AND PLENTY, for every good work, saith the Lord. Ask and YOU SHALL RECEIVE, knock and it SHALL BE OPENED UNTO YOU, Oh Faithful ones. I have tested your hearts a little further, I have released a little to test your hearts, NOW I WILL RELEASE THE FLOODGATES.

Come up here, to heavenly places and I will reveal My storehouse to you. I have much to bless you with. It was stored up until your were approved in your good stewardship. Those who have been faithful in little, I will bless with much for I have seen your heart before Me, a heart that will give Me all the praise, honor and glory, NOW I RELEASE THE FLOODGATES.

While seeking the Lord's face on the word He gave me, the Lord reminded me of this word and I have included it herein for confirmation. March was a month of assessing of stewardship!

WORD OF THE LORD FOR YEAR 2004 Part 1
by Pastor Miles Ford
(CorpPrayResource@aol.com)
Bethel Harvest International, Arlington, Texas , Excerpt only

MARCH: .....I have set you in a place, oh My sons that you could not have gone to on your own. I have placed you in positions that only I could have accomplished in your lives and I will require of you in this time and in this month an accounting of your stewardship says the Spirit of God. For I have not forgotten the place from whence you have come, and I will not forget the reward, which I have promised. But this shall be a season and a time of assessment says the Lord. I will assess those things which have been going forth and going on. I will cause there to be an accounting of your stewardship, and not of those things in the natural only, but those things in the Spirit as well. .....

Waters Have Broken

The Waters Have Broken, The Baby Is Being Brought Forth

23rd April 2004

The baby that many have been pregnant with, has been birthed. You have been in labor, you have been in travail and now it is birthed.

That which your heart has longed for, those desires I have placed in your heart, are being birthed. Things will just start to flow now, things will just start to come together.

THE DOORS ARE OPENING, I am sending you forth into your destiny; that which you were born for, the things ordained for you, since before time began.

You have been feeling a pushing from behind; that was I, assisting you in labor, the waters have broken, the baby is coming forth. What you have been pregnant with is My Glory being shown forth as the waters cover the sea.

You have desired to see My Glory being made manifest and I will do so, through My chosen vessels.

The waters have broken, the baby is coming forth. That which you have desired to see, you will see. That which you have desired to do, in My Name, is coming forth. The baby’s head has broken the waters and is even now coming forth, saith the Lord.

You have been faithful during this time of travail and birthing and now it is time to be brought forth. Watch and see as My Glory goes forth, to fulfill My purposes upon the earth. You have brought forth in travail and long-suffering, and now see what I will do, My Beloved, see what I will do.

THE MOST HOLY FATHER.

Receive Understanding

Barbara Lynch

joshua2000@delaware.net

Word of the Lord.
Date: Sep 24, 2004; 2:19 AM

Father, I come before the throne of grace and I seek your face for understanding of the times.

There is no time like the present to be looking unto Me, the author and finisher of your life. I have spoken through My prophets since time began, and I am still speaking through My prophets. I am also speaking through My word, and through the Signs in the sky. Look around about you. What do you see? Wars and rumors of wars. Fighting on every front. My people running to and fro seeking understanding and finding none. Is it not time to stop running to and fro and begin to sit at My feet and receive understanding from Me. After all, it is I that created this earth and it is I that is going to bring My son back to this earth. The peoples are looking unto themselves and they are forgetting about Me, the true and living God. What a shame. My people perish from lack of knowledge and there is no excuse for it, for My Word is full of knowledge and understanding. I have given My people eyes to see and ears to hear, but they are not seeing nor are they comprehending what I am saying at this given time.

It is exposure time and I am exposing all that is darkness throughout this land. It is revelation time and I am revealing Myself to all that desire to know more of Me. It is heart-rendering time and all who rend their hearts and not their garments, I will in no wise cast out. Many teachers, but no truth. I am demanding truth to be spoken to My people and all those who will not reveal the truth of My Word to the peoples shall be done away with. For I will have My truth preached throughout this land.

There are many perishing, and where are the teachers of truth? Are they in some obscure place, where no one can hear them? No they are right before your very eyes, but My church has hardened her heart to the truth and they will not receive the truth. But the day is coming and is now upon the land, where My truth shall prevail all across this land. Lightning and thunder shall proceed out of the mouths of My prophets and they shall surely declare the day of the Lord is at hand. Sorrow after sorrow is upon My church, but they shall prevail, for I have brought My Sword and I am cutting all that binds My church. You shall see Joy and Laughter break out in My church once again as the truth of My Word is given forth, for My Word brings life to the very bone and Joy to the very heart. Do not slumber and sleep, but keep your ears tuned to My voice church and look up, for surely your redemption doth draweth nigh, saith the Lord.

Run To Me!

Angel Dahilig

July 14, 2004

"My Dearest Child,

I've seen your faithfulness, and your struggle to hold on,
when you feel weak and sorely tested [tempted].

Yet, you've persevered.
Yet, you've endured.
Yet, you've been faithful.

But, you have thought that it was enough, that it shouldn't go on anymore.

But I tell you, that this has been for your practice, for your training,
and for your preparation,
to stand firm to the end!

Be Strong! Be Courageous!
And wait upon Me!

When you are feeling weak;
When you are wanting to give up;
When you are tempted to run away and to hide...

Then turn and run to me!

Run to the safe and abiding arms of My Love!
Underneath the shelter of My Wings!

There, I will hide you.
There, I will keep you.
There, I will SAVE you!

Love,
Your Daddy"

Psalms 27: 5-6, 14:
5 For in the day of trouble he will keep me safe in his dwelling;
he will hide me in the shelter of his tabernacle and set me high upon a rock.
6 Then my head will be exalted above the enemies who surround me...
14 Wait for the Lord; be strong and take heart, and wait for the Lord.

Psalms 37:34
Wait for the Lord and keep his way.
He will exalt you to inherit the land;
when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

Psalms 91:1,4, 14-16
1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
4 He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge;
his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.
14 "Because he loves me," says the LORD,
"I will rescue him;
I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name.
15 He will call upon me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble,
I will deliver him and honor him.
16 With long life will I satisfy him and show him my salvation.

Revelation Vs. Fact

Stephen Hanson

April 23, 2004

There are many facts that we can know about the world around us. There are scientific facts and events that we know from books and from history. The academic community builds itself upon previous discoveries and learning from the past. Knowledge is something that is continually being redefined and expanded. Those that discovered the atom and its nucleus built upon the knowledge learned from men and women who had begun their search for these things before them. What earlier was begun by Copernicus, was later changed by Issac Newton, and was found to be true. For we now know by certainty that the earth is not the center of the universe, but rather it is the sun. We've explored the moon and have sent probes and satellites into our solar system. The last region, it has been said, is the human mind. This is perhaps the last great frontier of discovery.

What we know about the world around us is in the area of facts. These are the things that we've learned about and that we can "see" with our eyes,, and "touch" with our hands. When it comes to knowing about divine things and God, then those things that we can see and touch no longer are relevant. We have to see with the eyes of our spirit.

Eph. 1 [17] I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better. [18] I pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, [19] and his incomparably great power for us who believe.

Then the eyes of our heart are enlightened and the words that we speak and the things that we say, are those things given to us from the spirit. Revelation is not something that we plan and teach from study, but rather, they "come forth" as seeds of thought that will be planted in the souls of man to cultivate the spiritual man.

1 CO 1: [12] We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us. [13] This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words. [14] The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. [15] The spiritual man makes judgments about all things, but he himself is not subject to any man's judgment:

1CO 2:16 "For who has known the mind of the Lord that he may instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

You see, there are "words" that are given to us from the spirit, and these words express spiritual truths that the world cannot understand. It does not "see" nor does it "touch" these things. However, we understand them, for when we then understand them, we can then implement them into actions that have been given birth through the seeds that were planted in us from the spirit.

Resolving What Is Unequally Yoked

Sandy Warner

Nov 3, 2004

Many of My children have been unequally yoked in teamship, marriages, business partners, jobs, ministries, class mates, families and callings. Dear ones, I have heard your cries. I have many creative ways to bypass your years of obstacles. You have experienced the pain from unequally yoked faith. I have a new plan in mind and I want to tell you before it happens. May your eyes be opened so that when it comes, the torch in your soul will flame intensely with joy and receive My work to the full.

You see, My beloved ones, faith is only a part of the puzzle. Passion is My calling card. No man comes to Me except that I first draw him. I know exactly what it takes to draw the one you are yearning over. Trust Me. This is going to be a joyful time when I begin to draw and woo your loved one up and out. You think the torch in your own heart flames brightly, just wait until you experience the joy of seeing Me light the one for whom you have been praying. Passion, red hot passion… for My love, for My touch, for My ways, for My voice, for My power, for My healing, for My deliverance, for My heavenly clash upon their yearning heart! Rejoice for the flame of heaven is lit. Let it come, even as you have prayed, let it be done on earth.

Song 8:5-7 NLT

"I aroused you under the apple tree, where your mother gave you birth, where in great pain she delivered you. Place me like a seal over your heart, or like a seal on your arm. For love is as strong as death, and its jealousy is as enduring as the grave. Love flashes like fire, the brightest kind of flame. Many waters cannot quench love; neither can rivers drown it. If a man tried to buy love with everything he owned, his offer would be utterly despised."

A Unique Recipe, Candid Talk

Sandy Warner

Nov 1, 2004

There are times to beat around the bush and there are times to press through to completion. You have been beating around the bush too long, dear heart. It is time to press in. Tell it like it is. Speak it forth. Don't hold back. Go for it. I have called you to be My witness of what you have seen and heard. It is now the time when your God of Justice will back your words with the power to change lives. This is not for the timid part of your soul, but for the other part of you that I have been building within you for a long time.

Knock, knock, knock. I AM knocking on the shell of your past timidity and calling you to just say it like it is. Be yourself, be transparent, be candid, and do not hold back when My unction is upon you to speak.

Acts 4:29-30 NKJV
Now, Lord, look on their threats, and grant to Your servants that with all boldness they may speak Your word, by stretching out Your hand to heal, and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of Your holy Servant Jesus."

What Do You Store?
Sandy Warner

Nov 5, 2004

Within the framework of your home is a certain measure of space allotted for you. It is within this space that you place your life and all that matters. What you value in your life is what you store. Open your cupboard doors, look upon your shelves, open the boxes and peer into your closets. What do you find? Moving day is coming and all that you have stored shall be reassessed for use or discarded for trash. Even as your home collects memories and treasures based upon what you deem important from beliefs and fears, so it is that I clean and purge as I move you into new places. It's time to clear out and start packing.

"Remove the dross from silver, and the sterling will be ready for the silversmith." (Proverbs 25:4 NLT)

Release Your Passion
Tommy Tenney

Release Your Passion;
Loose the Arrows of Prophetic Destiny

We are too quick to assume that God would never deal with us in the same way He dealt with King Joash. That is a dangerous assumption based more on lowered human expectation than on the eternal principles of God's Word.

Mark 10:13–16

Jesus Blesses the Children

[13]One day some parents brought their children to Jesus so he could touch them and bless them, but the disciples told them not to bother him. [14]But when Jesus saw what was happening, he was very displeased with his disciples. He said to them, "Let the children come to me. Don't stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these. [15]I assure you, anyone who doesn't have their kind of faith will never get into the Kingdom of God." [16]Then he took the children into his arms and placed his hands on their heads and blessed them.

The disciples act as deputized passion police and try to stop the children who come to Jesus because they disturb the me-centered "big-people" service.

Many Christians have a very unbiblical picture of Jesus as a mellow, laid-back, and nonconfrontational spiritual guru who always kept His passions at an even level. To make matters worse, they often model their lives after this passionless picture of their Redeemer—with predictable results. The Bible paints a totally different picture of the Savior of the world.

Jesus was the fulfillment of the prophetic phrase "Zeal for Your house has eaten me up," the day He physically overturned the money changers' tables in the temple. It is true that Jesus never lost control of His passions, yet His bold confrontations with the scribes and Pharisees provoked some of them to plot His death, and His love for people led Him to lay down His life on the cross. By any definition, Jesus was a passionate man. How would you define your life?

All too often, we allow our destiny to be sabotaged by the passion police roaming the halls of worship . . .

If the people ever realize that they hold the arrows of prophetic destiny in their passionate praise and fervent worship, I suspect the sleepiness would vanish and apathy would give way to a thunderous display of passion. The enemies of God's people would scatter even faster than the shamefaced passion police as God Himself rushes to the scene of the act of passion to personally respond in kind.

The Word of God declares, "Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered." Do you want to see God arise in your home, in your church, and in your city or region? Praise Him, worship Him. Build a tabernacle of praise for His habitation with your adoration.

Prayer

Lord, I repent for all the times I held back my passion or compromised my convictions to calm the discomforts of people. You are my Audience of One, You are my First Love, and the only One I care to please. I release my passion for You right now as if it is an arrow in flight. Lift us into the heavenlies with You that we may pursue our divine destiny in Your kingdom.

The Choking Church Requires Cosmic CPR
Tommy Tenney

The church is choking on the larger-than-life servings of man-driven religion, and it is time to perform a heavenly Heimlich maneuver to dislodge the flesh blocking our inspiration. I pray God will perform cosmic CPR and impart the life-saving breath of His presence to the fainting church.

Once we all come back to the dinner table again, things will have to change. Frankly I'm tired of talking about man. We need to talk about Him. He said, "I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

Scripture Reading

Mark 7:6–8, where Jesus rebukes religious critics for focusing on the outward appearances common to man-centered religion instead of worshiping God in obedience to the Word and from the heart.

Across North America God sees millions of lips moving but far too little passion moving through human hearts to His. Praise of the lips without motivating praise from the heart is vain and hypocritical at best. The spiritual choking crisis is virtually universal ..... it happens in churches of every description, size, and condition. The cure is a divine encounter with the only true Object of all praise.

There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him."

It seems that at least one Pharisee and elder of Israel among the many was a desperate man. Nicodemus was choking on the man-made system that was rejecting Jesus, and he risked the extreme disapproval of his peers to visit Jesus by night.

The next time we hear from Nicodemus, he is speaking up on behalf of Jesus in the face of his fellow Pharisees, and was honored to be cursed as a "Galilean" along with Jesus.14 In his third and final appearance in the Gospels, this desperate man demonstrates the passion of a soul beginning to be cleared of the fear of man. He dared to join Joseph of Arimathea and prepare Jesus' body for burial.15 What happened to this man? Nicodemus's encounter with Jesus initiated a gradual Heimlich maneuver of the spirit that was setting him free from religious bondage and the fear of man.

Are you "choking on larger-than-life servings of man-driven religion" that block your ability to praise and worship God freely? Ask God to force that blockage out of your life with an emergency procedure of the Holy Spirit. Your destiny could be at stake . . .

Prayer

Lord, dislodge every fleshly obstruction blocking my inspiration from Your presence. Perform cosmic CPR if necessary to impart the lifesaving breath of Your presence to me, to my family, and to my church family. I've made up my mind to keep my eyes on You and pursue You on the winds of fervent praise and worship.

Refrain Your Tongue From Evil

Dorothea Montague

Mar 3, 2004

My precious people, I would say unto you today....

He who would love life and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips from speaking guile ; Let him turn away from evil and do good; Let him seek peace and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their prayers; But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil. (1 Pet. 4:10-12)

Consider what I am saying to you today, according to this Scripture. Of utmost importance to your walk with Me is the words that come forth from your mouth. I would say unto you, that if you wish to have a good life then you must "refrain your tongue from speaking evil" especially of others. If you desire to have good days you must "prevent your lips from speaking guile (deceitfulness)" The words that you speak forth from your mouth are what you are speaking into your life, be it a blessing or a curse. I say unto you, "guard your tongue" in all the words that you speak....

Even so the tongue is a little member and boasts great things. See how great a forest a little fire kindles! And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. The tongue is so set among our members that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire by hell. (James 3:5,6)

My people, I tell you, if you proclaim sickness in your bodies your words spoken forth can bring sickness upon you. Rather, speak forth healing in your bodies and your words of faith shall bring forth healing. And it follows as you speak forth negative words what you are saying shall become reality.

The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom, but the perverse tongue will be cut out. The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, but the mouth of the wicked what is perverse. (Prov. 10:31,32)

Beloved, build up your faith in Me by studying My Word. Determine to speak only faith filled words and you shall see wonderful things begin to happen in your lives. Speak only good of those who cross your path and you shall see good things come into being in their lives. Speak forth healing in those for whom you pray and for yourself and you shall see miracles of healing.

And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins he will be forgiven. (James 5:15)

O, My people, I need each of you, in these days of turmoil to go forth, speaking only total truth and see how many hearts will be touched for Me. They will know that you speak truth and they will desire to walk in that truth. My little ones, time is marching on and many need to be brought into My kingdom ere I come for My own. Go forth, My beloved children, and touch hearts wherever you go, always speaking forth My truths and as you do many will begin to seek for Me as they hear My truths come forth from your mouths.

Go forth, My precious people, with My power and anointing upon you, speaking forth the words I shall give you.

Straining To Bring Forth
Susan Cummings

Straining to bring forth. That is what I am doing within you. That is what you are doing. That is what we are accomplishing. My Will. I AM coming forth out of you. I AM bringing forth My Purposes in you and through you.

Stop striving to push harder. I know the pace that I have set. I know the issuing forth, and the hour of your delivery. Many have given birth, and many follow on your heels, but all of Mine, are bringing forth.

Do not compare yourself with others. For all of Mine walk according to My design and Timing. Do not look at the others progress, or labors. Look only at Me, for I bring you through, at your pace, and with My Grace.

I see your struggles with your flesh. I see your struggles with your mind. I see your struggles with your understanding of My Word. Do not forget that I know all things, and have designed your growth accordingly. Resist the temptation to push, and relax under My Hand. I am bringing adjustments to you, as you take each step.

I am fine tuning your life. I am making each adjustment as you yield to Me, and embrace My dealings with you. When you struggle and try to do things in your own wisdom and strength, then it ties My Hands, and I cannot help you. Remember, that no man can change himself, but all men must come to Me, and embrace Me. When you can rest under My Hand, then I can finish your birthing.

I see your cries and your labors. I know the pain or your rejection, and your hurts from your brothers. I see your confusion from the misunderstandings and the turmoils that have swirled around you, but remember, that I allowed it for My Purposes. I am in the storm. Cease from striving and look. It is I, in your trial. I am the Wind that chafes at your flesh. I am the rains that beat at your mind. I am the fire that sears your heart. I AM.

I am doing My strange work in your midst, and though you do not understand it now, you will rejoice and be thankful for the labor and the delivery to come. For I do all things well, and am right on time concerning you. Rejoice in this. Rejoice, child. The time is right.

Quiet your mind and your flesh, and rest. Strengthen yourself in Me. Cast all your cares upon Me, and I will give you rest and confidence. I AM your Peace. I AM your Healer. I AM your Provision. I AM all that you need or ever will.

Forsake all of the temptations that war in your mind. Cast down the vain imaginations that captivate you in the night. Throw them at My Feet, and see them defeated in your life. Stand and see your enemy and your Savior and see the victory that I have for you. Walk on, and be not entangled anymore, but know that you are right on time.

Great is the day before you. Great is the destiny that you are birthing forth, and will see. All that I have told you, and have shown you, will come forth. I have prepared you. I have been faithful to you. It will be as I have said, as you walk with Me. Press forth, now. Do not linger anymore, but break forth, and move on.

Much awaits you, as you trust in Me.

Storms For A Season

Becky McLendon

Here in Texas this past week we have had violent storms announcing the arrival of JUNE. I have also been the subject of a media storm (TV and newspaper) of false accusations from a vindictive parent of one of my students. God has given SUPERNATURAL peace (HIS SHALOM) and a direct word: DO NOT TAKE THE BAIT OF SATAN. DO NOT TAKE OFFENSE at this woman's actions. I WILL VINDICATE. That direct word, by the way, is for the people of God, and I have a feeling more will follow on that. Do not take offense at what you see coming at you and surrounding you in these trying times.

Also, I SEE IT ALL AS the preparation for what the LORD has shown me for this East Texas area and subsequently world wide!!! He is gathering an election, building His house (without the sound of a hammer, by the way) and has prepared a place for HIS OWN to be BORN TOGETHER as His Body, perfectly fit together, a place for Christ to REST HIS HEAD!!! Praise the LORD.
His glory WILL fill the earth: right on schedule and just as He said it would.

Speaking of storms: Let me share what a colleague of mine shared yesterday. They own horses, and she said that night before last when the worst of the storms hit us, she saw the horses all standing and FACING the 80 mile per hour winds and the tremendous thunder and lightning. They were telling Destruction: " Go on and give it your best shot, we will still be here when you have blown yourself out!! " They were also demonstrating: " HEY we know God and we will endure this thing and REMAIN by His grace! " Selah!

Shalom,
Becky

Stand and Be Still

Jane Larsen

The truth is not hidden under rocks, nor blown by the wind. So why do people chase these things and follow these ways? Be on the lookout. Different beliefs are pouring upon the earth. Different teachings are being taught and many are following in this way. They are led astray and wonder the earth searching and following. One will choose one way, another will choose a different way. Their choices will come from what they want to hear, but this will not be the way of the truth.

I have said, there is only one you should worship in Spirit and in truth and I am not elusive and I am not carved. I am not hard to hold, I will not force, I will not lead you astray. My way is clear and is before you. Many teachings will be heard, and many will be followed. This is a time to recall all that I have promised you, to recall the words of truth that have been planted in your heart, and to beware of the voice of the enemy who will try to tell you different.

Those who are standing and are still, are standing in Me, rooted to the truth. When false teachings pour across the land and entice with their false promises, their eyes and their hearts are focused on Me. They know My voice and they wait for Me, despite what others are doing. Follow Me, despite what comes your way, follow Me and know that I am aware of the movements on the earth, I am aware of the leading astray, I am aware and I see, and there are some that will go one way and some that will go the other way, but as for you, follow Me.

You will know when these things happen. You will hear My voice saying "This is the way, walk in it." Do not look to the left or the right and do not be tempted. Remember, you will not be tempted beyond your endurance and you will be given a way out. The way is through Me. Stand firm in what you know, and do not be swayed. Be rooted in My word and lean on Me and trust in Me, for I have you in the palm of My hand and I have called you by name.

Stand firm in the turmoil and be still. I am with you in hard times and in good times. I am always with you. Do not become complacent, be on your guard and stand ready, for a battle will come and you have the armor to withstand all the darts of the enemy. Many will fall, you will stand because I will enable and strengthen you.

Shine Forth

Jane Larsen

I had a vision of a flower. It started as a bud and the underneath petals seemed to be orange. Then the petals started to open and they were a bright and beautiful yellow. They opened wide and strong. The flower had its face raised to the sun and seemed to be drinking in the warmth. Then the Lord laid this in my heart:

You have waited for a time such as this. A time to open your heart and reveal the work that has been going on inside you. You have been still, in a quiet and almost inactive time, but now you shall break forth and your beauty shall be seen.

Everything around you is about to change. There is a shifting taking place, a great movement, and you will be moved from this place to the place where I want you to be. I will throw open the doors and nothing will stop you. You are moving now in power and in My will. Do not worry and do not panic, for this is My will concerning you and I have arranged all that is about to pass. You are ready and prepared for all that is before you. Good things are before you. Do not listen to the enemy who will now attempt to distract you. Remember him, remember that he is the distracter. This is the path I have set you on and this is the time to come forth.

I have made a day and I have called it TODAY. Today is the day to move forward and watch as the doors, all the doors that were shut for so long, open before you. Nothing is too hard for Me. I hold all the keys in My hand. I unlock all that was previously barred. Do not worry about this or about that, for I will make the way and I will make it clear and plain.

You shall shine forth as the one that I have prepared. The time of waiting is over. The time has come. Shine forth. You no longer need to hide, but shine.

Springtime And Harvest
Priscilla van Sutphin

Sept 15th, 2004

Zechariah 10:1 NIV Ask the LORD for rain in the springtime; it is the LORD who makes the storm clouds. He gives showers of rain to men, and plants of the field to everyone. 2 The idols speak deceit, diviners see visions that lie; they tell dreams that are false, they give comfort in vain. Therefore the people wander like sheep

Luke 8:14-15 AMP And as for what fell among the thorns, these are [the people] who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked and suffocated with the anxieties and cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not ripen (come to maturity and perfection). 15 But as for that [seed] in the good soil, these are [the people] who, hearing the Word, hold it fast in a just (noble, virtuous) and worthy heart, and steadily bring forth fruit with patience.

Springtime is a time of sowing seeds and there is a reaping for what has been sown. In the fall comes the harvest. What has been planted will come to fruition and be sold and consumed. Planting abundantly brings abundant harvesting. So it is with My Kingdom. What have you planted as seeds My beloveds ? For if you have sown love where there is hate, and prayer for the lost, and sown seeds of forgiveness towards those who hated you and despised you, then you will reap a harvest. If you have sown time into other peoples lives, so I will sow into your life My time, and bless you with My presence !
If you have blessed when you could have cursed…then you will reap blessings.
If you have been merciful when it would be natural to despise, then you will surely reap mercy. If you have helped the outcast and downhearted, and sown what you could to those who are unlovely, will you then not reap more mercy and love yourself ? If you have given when it was hard to give, then surely I will care for your needs. If you have been suspicious and stingy and meager in your giving, then surely you can expect to reap also what you have sown. If you have given your least to those who are poor, then when you are in lack, will you not also reap what you have sown ? If you have judged, will you not be judged ?

I admonish you to buy from me gold refined in the fire for I am coming with a heart to bless and to bring harvest on the earth. If you have been willing to go for Us, when others choose to stay comfortable in their homes, then surely you will reap more for all you have risked and sown ! If you are willing to go to the dark areas of your city and bring life to those caught up in darkness, I will expand your boundaries and bless you with more.

If you have been willing to forgive those who have disdained you and put you in shackles, even when they were wrong and cruel, then you surely will be set in charge over many to teach and to heal, to pluck up and to pull up, to pull down, to reign and to demonstrate My glory. The law of sowing and reaping the harvest will be demonstrated in your lives in manifold ways. I am not a man that I should lie, nor a son of man that I should change My mind !

If you have traversed near impossible odds to maintain relationship with me under duress and opposition from the enemy, and remained faithful, even when life's storms have pummeled you and made you weary, then you also will reap a great reward ! For I AM coming and I will bring with Me, great reward for all that's been sown.

It is not a matter of counting ! Counting numbers means NOTHING ! What I look at is the heart. How much damage was done to it, and how much have you overcome, that you are able to give out in spite of it ? How much are you able to love despite not receiving love ? THAT is what I look at ! I count the rejections, the abandonment, the cruelty done, and watch and see the reaction, and how much you are thirsty for ME - How much you desire of ME !

I am arising in the earth and the earth will know that there is a GOD IN HEAVEN. THERE will be no excuse for the rebellion and hatred. BE MY WITNESSES ! BE MY AMBASSADORS OF LOVE ! The whole of life is to learn to LOVE as I loved. What do you believe of My love ? What do you know of My GRACE, that you can share with others. THINK ON THAT !
How much of My love do you reflect to them ? For the days ahead will surely challenge the best of you. Will you praise Me, when you no longer have your beautiful homes ? Will you still praise ME if you lose your beloveds ? Will you learn to love those who hate you ? Will you learn to pray and fast for those who pray against you ? How deep is the love you have learned and received from Me. You can only receive it by coming into My presence. I AM THE SOURCE OF ALL LIFE !

Come into the shelter of My wings My beloveds…the storms will only increase.
The opposition of the enemy will grow more fierce and the testings more intense. So come to ME, the AUTHOR and FINISHER of your faith ! I AM LOVE ! I AM MERCY ! I AM COMPASSION ! I AM GRACE ! I AM TRUTH !

1 Kings 18:46 NKJV Then the hand of the LORD came upon Elijah; and he girded up his loins and ran ahead of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Acts 8:26-30 NKJV   Christ Is Preached to an Ethiopian   (cf. Isa 53:7,8)
Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise and go toward the south along the road which goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is desert. 27 So he arose and went. And behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasury, and had come to Jerusalem to worship, 28 was returning. And sitting in his chariot, he was reading Isaiah the prophet. 29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and overtake this chariot." 30 So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

1 Sam 17:17 NKJV Then Jesse said to his son David, "Take now for your brothers an ephah of this dried grain and these ten loaves, and run to your brothers at the camp.

" I am stretching out My hands to some that I will make long distance runners! I am calling you to do mighty feats in My name. And you are looking at your own ability and thinking, "how can I do that Lord ?" But what I give you to do, I enable you to do. Elijah did not run by his own strength. David did not run by his own strength. Sampson did not overcome many more Philistines by his own strength ! Phillip did not catch up and overcome the eunuch by his own ability. I granted the grace and angelic intervention to do what I called them to do !   What I give you to do, I grant the GRACE to do it ! I did not call you to STRIVE to be something you are not. Then it would not be supernatural but merely your own strength, and it is in WEAKNESS, that I AM made STRONG !

I will do great feats in the days ahead with YOU as the conduit. You have but to rest in My arms NOW, that I can fill you with love and confidence in My ability to sustain and provide for you all you need. I am the ALL-MIGHTY ONE ! So rely on ME more and more. That is My plan ! If you could do it all by yourself…then what would you need ME for ? I have not called you to independence but to dependence on ME. So come and let me share with you, the plans I HAVE for you ! Listen to the still small voice in your heart and allow me to share with you My secrets, My Beloveds !

I know the times are scarey ! I know the times are intense. But I have a most wonderful surprise awaiting you if you will but come to ME and allow ME to share My love and power with you ! Be not too busy to listen to ME. In the days ahead, I've told you that your LIFE may depend on it. In actuality, every day depends on it…and many lives that you may affect depend on you listening to ME ! They hang in the balance, awaiting your maturity and empowerment, that they may be affected by what I do in you !

I want to heal your wounds and transform you into My image. I know the hurts that are still there, and the pain that is still inside of you ! You have but to yield to My Spirit's wooing. So listen My friends, for the still small voice and don't ignore it, thinking in lines with self doubt. The enemy wants to make you think it's not ME. The enemy wants you to doubt and feel disqualified, and self-disparaging, but I am WITH YOU. I AM EMMANUEL, God with you ! I am speaking and I'm going to be speaking more to you. As I can trust you NOT to break the bent reed, then I will release the secrets of men's hearts so that they will know that I do know them, and know every thing they have thought or done. You will go forth knowing and discerning in ways you have not experienced before ! Keep in My WORD…EAT THE SCROLL…for it brings more discernment.

Know that I love you so much, I will not put you in harm's way by allowing you to do things you are not prepared to do. I will not allow you to go prematurely ahead of me. Just as you would not allow your child to cross the street without you when a toddler or school age…I will not neglect keeping you in My sights. I will always do what is best if you will lean into ME. Some of you have been on hold because the spirit of violence and hate, and antichrist in the world is arising, and I need you to be shored up more on the inside before confronting such darkness. Your FAITH needs to be stronger, and your vulnerability smaller. I love you as no other loves you, and I will always do what is best. Put ALL of your trust in ME, My beloveds, and I will NOT disappoint you ! I AM FAITHFUL !"

Gen 49:22-26 NKJV
22 "Joseph is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough by a well; His branches run over the wall. 23 The archers have bitterly grieved him, Shot at him and hated him. 24 But his bow remained in strength, And the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the Mighty God of Jacob (From there is the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel), 25 By the God of your father who will help you, And by the Almighty who will bless you With blessings of heaven above, Blessings of the deep that lies beneath, Blessings of the breasts and of the womb. 26 The blessings of your father have excelled the blessings of my ancestors, up to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills. They shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.

Self-Appointed Judges
Helen Pollack

In these days there seems to be an increasing number of those who believe they are the judges of God's people. They speak out with venomous tongues that have no love and attempt to beat the sheep into submission. They may be found in the pulpit, on the television, on the radio, in magazines and on the Internet. They have forgotten the very truths that are spoken throughout the New Testament. Many perceive themselves as Old Testament prophets; yet, the power of God is not in their words. The true prophets of God experienced much at the hands of the Pharisees as did Jesus. Jesus never minced words with the Pharisees, but He spoke with the authority and tongue of His Father.

We must be careful not to judge because not even Jesus judged when He was on the earth. Judgment is now given to Him because He has been raised and found worthy. We are to judge actions, but not people. When we judge actions, we are to be certain our own hearts are clear before we judge other's actions for if they are not, we are found guilty of the same things.

Let us see what some of the teachers given to us in the scriptures say.

Paul wrote: Rom 2:1-4 2:1 You, therefore, have no excuse, you who pass judgment on someone else, for at whatever point you judge the other, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgment do the same things. 2 Now we know that God's judgment against those who do such things is based on truth. 3 So when you, a mere man, pass judgment on them and yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God's judgment? 4 Or do you show contempt for the riches of his kindness, tolerance and patience, not realizing that God's kindness leads you toward repentance? NIV

Rom 2:5-11 5 But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God's wrath, when his righteous judgment will be revealed. 6 God "will give to each person according to what he has done." 7 To those who by persistence in doing good seek glory, honor and immortality, he will give eternal life. 8 But for those who are self-seeking and who reject the truth and follow evil, there will be wrath and anger. 9 There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile; 10 but glory, honor and peace for everyone who does good: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. 11 For God does not show favoritism. NIV

Jesus Said :Matt 7:1-5 7:1 "Do not judge, or you too will be judged. 2 For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

3 "Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? 4 How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye. NIV

James wrote: James 4:11-12 11 Brothers, do not slander one another. Anyone who speaks against his brother or judges him speaks against the law and judges it. When you judge the law, you are not keeping it, but sitting in judgment on it. 12

There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the one who is able to save and destroy. But you-who are you to judge your neighbor? NIV

Paul said again: Rom 14:4 4 Who are you to judge someone else's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand. NIV

We may speak truth to someone else concerning them, but in our heart we hate that very thing in ourselves. Our anger comes out at our brethren.

We are warned in many places that God is the judge of our brethren. There are a number of people today who are self-appointed judges of God's people. God has not sent them to judge for all judgment is given to Jesus. If someone needs correction it must be given in love. It is not our responsibility to change them, we are not to get angry and upset when they don't change. If the word that we have given is powered by the Holy Spirit, He will do the work. All other spoken "truths" are according to the law and rules of men. Jesus was anything but kind to the Pharisees for this behavior. He loved them but hated that they were leading God's people away from God, using Levitical rules that God did not write.

Jesus said "Love one another as I have loved you". With the love of Jesus we can love one another and build each other up in the faith and cause each other to grow in the admonition of the Lord.

When A Man Believes in Me
Helen Pollack

John 12:37-38 37 Even after Jesus had done all these miraculous signs in their presence, they still would not believe in him. 38 This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet:

"Lord, who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?" NIV

John 12:39-40 39 For this reason they could not believe, because, as Isaiah says elsewhere:

40 "He has blinded their eyes and deadened their hearts, so they can neither see with their eyes, nor understand with their hearts, nor turn-and I would heal them." NIV

John 12:42-43 42 Yet at the same time many even among the leaders believed in him. But because of the Pharisees they would not confess their faith for fear they would be put out of the synagogue; 43 for they loved praise from men more than praise from God. NIV

John 12:44-46 44 Then Jesus cried out, "When a man believes in me, he does not believe in me only, but in the one who sent me. 45 When he looks at me, he sees the one who sent me. 46 I have come into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in me should stay in darkness. NIV

John 12:47-13:50 47 "As for the person who hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save it. 48 There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; that very word which I spoke will condemn him at the last day. 49 For I did not speak of my own accord, but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say and how to say it. 50 I know that his command leads to eternal life. So whatever I say is just what the Father has told me to say." NIV

Jesus gave some strong warnings in this passage. John 9:39 39 Jesus said, "For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind will see and those who see will become blind." NIV When Jesus was on earth He gave the foundational teachings that were meant to lead us to follow Him. At this time, God, His Heavenly Father was the judge of those, who did not receive the words that He spoke. Not only will those who did not believe in the words be condemned, but at the time they do not believe, they become blind to the truth they have refused. With each unbelief they move into deeper darkness and blindness. Ultimately this leads to eternal damnation. On the other hand, those who believe the word and walk in it begin to see. The light to them increases each time they believe in His words.

Those who know they are blind receive the words and those who believe they see and know reject them. Those who are blind see and those who see become blind. God is the judge of our response to His word.

He has said, My word will not return unto Me void. We often believe that this means only the bringing of good fruit, but in fact it means the judgment of God that comes on the listener be it unto light or unto darkness. If we refuse to believe in Jesus and walk in Him we will walk in darkness.

May we all learn to listen, and hear His voice and believe and walk in what He says. Let us not reject truth because it is something that we do not want to hear.

In His Abundant Love,

Helen

Sanctified Imagination
Joni Ames

One of the things the Lord has been speaking to me about lately is "sanctified imagination." Imagination is the creativity of God at work in the human mind and spirit, but it needs to be washed with the blood of Jesus and the water of His Word, and sanctified by the power of the Holy Spirit of God in order to be used by Him and not the enemy.

One of the things I love about where I grew up in Hollywood, California, is the abundance of creativity there. There is such LIFE in that! But the amount of unsanctified imagination that also runs wild there is what causes problems. That's why you end up with truly gifted people doing "bad" things with their gifting, or on drugs or alcohol to try to shut out the conviction of the Holy Spirit and/or the condemnations - either from their own conscience or from the enemy - that comes as a result of being out of God's will with the gifts He gave them.

Some Christians have a LOT of trouble with this. (Imagine that!) Having a "mixture" in the life of a called person is more difficult than being a "blatant sinner" who doesn't know any better. Why? Because they are in DELIBERATE sin and KNOW BETTER and are thus responsible for their actions, and live in self condemnation over it, instead of submitting to the conviction of the Holy Spirit to change them.

SALVATION AND SANCTIFICATION

Salvation and sanctification go hand in hand. We need BOTH.

People with a creative imagination who experience unsanctified thoughts not only need salvation, but also the sanctification of the Holy Spirit to take place in their minds, hearts and gifting(s). For that to occur, we just need ask Him, and He will do it. However, like having a dog on a "choke chain collar," we have to also CONTINUE to redirect our mind and gifting when it tries to "run away" towards "the unsanctified sin stuff."

As the Word says in 2Co 10:5, We need to be, "Casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ."

We need to RENEW our mind daily, through reading the Word, spending time in worship and in prayer, and keeping our minds directed in a Godly path.

Col 3:1-2 - 1 If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. 2 Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth.

Php 4:8 - ...Whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy--meditate on these things.

Ro 12:2 - "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God."

Tit 3:5 - "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit."

The enemy can try to plant ungodly thought-seeds in our minds, but we do not have to encourage or act upon them. The pastor of the church I grew up in once said, "Any bird can land on your head; it's up to you whether you let it make a nest or not. You have the choice AND the power to tell the ungodly thoughts to "GO!"

The fact that an ungodly thought comes to you isn't a sin. The enemy can send them. What we see in a magazine or on TV can incite them. It's what we DO with those types of thoughts that matters. That's a "moment of decision" in which we can (a) Tell it to "GO, in Jesus' name!" or (b) Invite it further in by dwelling on it, and thus allow it to "make a nest."

IMAGINATION DEFINED

The dictionary defines IMAGINATION as: 1. the act or power of forming a mental image of something not present to the senses or never before wholly perceived in reality 2a. creative ability b. ability to confront and deal with a problem c. the thinking or active mind; interest <stories that fired the imagination> 3a. a creation of the mind; especially an idealized or poetic creation b. fanciful or empty assumption

The dictionary defines SANCTIFICATION as: 1. an act of sanctifying 2a. the state of being sanctified b. the state of growing in divine grace as a result of Christian commitment after baptism or conversion

SANCTIFY means: 1. to set apart to a sacred purpose or to religious use: consecrate 2. to free from sin; purify; to make pure, as a. to clear from material defilement or imperfection b. to free from guilt or moral or ceremonial blemish c. to free from undesirable elements; to grow or become pure or clean 3a. to impart or impute sacredness, inviolability, or respect to b. to give moral or social sanction to 4. to make productive of holiness or piety <observe the day of the Sabbath, to sanctify it "Deut 5:12 (Douay Version)

CONSECRATE: to make or declare sacred; especially to devote irrevocably to the worship of God by a solemn ceremony; to devote to a purpose with or as if with deep solemnity or dedication

In other words, it's up to us to let our imagination be sanctified, purified and used by God, or become counterfeit by being used by the enemy.

THE RESTORATION OF CREATIVITY IN THE CHURCH

This is a day and hour in which creativity is being restored to the Church at large. We now have dancers, painters, actors and actresses, musicians, singers, poets and other skilled artisans, doing what they are skilled to do, IN the Church! What a wonderful thing! When we worship and are before the throne is when the awesome and beautiful creativity of God flourishes and flows! It is a time when the Lord releases great revelation and creativity and says, (ref. Rev. 4:1) "Come up here and I will show you of things to come!" - A time when witty inventions, business plans, medical breakthroughs and other creative ideas come from Heaven to Earth to those who will "Hear what the Spirit is saying!"

But let us beware and guard our hearts and minds with all diligence, and be aware of the enemy's plots to take what is good and pervert it. In that, let us be sure that no unclean thoughts or plans be let in to flourish as well.

2Ch 29:5 - "Hear me, Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, sanctify the house of the Lord God of your fathers, and carry out the rubbish from the holy place."

BRINGING BALANCE AND UNDERSTANDING

There is a call to holiness - not legalism, but holiness - in this hour that we cannot ignore if we want to experience true revival.

This isn't about the clothes we wear, whether we chew gum in church, our hairstyle, or any other religious-spirited, Pharisee-like judgment or junk. It's about the attitude of our heart and our relationship with the Lord. When we truly love Him, we want to "clean up our act" and get free from sin. And we are miserable until we do!

HOW IMPORTANT IS SANCTIFICATION?

The Bible tells us that we cannot stand before our enemies or experience the ark of His Presence until we are sanctified, but that, when we sanctify ourselves, He will do wonders among us.

Jos 7:13 - Get up, sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says the Lord God of Israel: "There is an accursed thing in your midst, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the accursed thing from among you."

Jos 3:5 - And Joshua said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you."

1Ch 15:12 - He said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it.

HOW IS SANCTIFICATION DONE?

So how do we "GET" sanctified?

(1) Through the blood of Jesus. Heb 13:12 - "Therefore Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate."

(2) By choosing His ways. 1Pe 3:15 - "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear."

(3) By abiding in His Word. Joh 17:17 - "Sanctify them by Your truth. Your word is truth." And Eph 5:26 - "that He might sanctify and cleanse her with the washing of water by the word."

(4) By cleansing our spirit, soul and body from sin. 1Th 5:23 - "Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." - AND - Isa 55:7 - "Let the wicked forsake his way, And the unrighteous man his thoughts; Let him return to the Lord, And He will have mercy on him; And to our God, For He will abundantly pardon."

(5) Through prayer. 2Ch 7:14 - "If my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

THE BOTTOM LINE IS...

The bottom line is (and this is something we don't like to talk about), there is a Heaven and there is a Hell, and we have a choice about which one we end up going to. And it's time to talk about the fact that we could go to either one.

The Bible says: Zep 1:12 - "And it shall come to pass at that time That I will search Jerusalem with lamps, And punish the men Who are settled in complacency, Who say in their heart, 'The Lord will not do good, Nor will He do evil.'

Jesus said, Lu 6:46 - "But why do you call Me 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do the things which I say? - AND - Matthew 7:21-27: 21 "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 22 Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!' 24 "Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock: 25 and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock. 26 But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand: 27 and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall."

PRAYER

Praying the scriptures back to the Lord is a powerful thing, so let's do that...

Psalm 26:2 (NKJ) Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; Try my mind and my heart.

Ps 119:10 - With my whole heart I have sought You; Oh, let me not wander from Your commandments!

Ps 119:11 - Your word I have hidden in my heart, That I might not sin against You!

Ps 119:34 - Give me understanding, and I shall keep Your law; Indeed, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

Ps 119:36 - Incline my heart to Your testimonies, And not to covetousness.

Ps 119:80 - Let my heart be blameless regarding Your statutes, That I may not be ashamed.

Ps 27:8 - When You said, "Seek My face," My heart said to You, "Your face, Lord, I will seek."

Psalm 19:7-14 (NKJ): 7 The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple; 8 The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes; 9 The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. 10 More to be desired are they than gold, Yea, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. 11 Moreover by them Your servant is warned, And in keeping them there is great reward. 12 Who can understand his errors? Cleanse me from secret faults. 13 Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins; Let them not have dominion over me. Then I shall be blameless, And I shall be innocent of great transgression. 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer. Amen.

Sing A New Song

Becky Mclendon

Revelation 7:17 for the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life: and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

Rev. 5:9, 10 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth

There is something about the New Song. The seven-sealed book can only be opened by the Lamb. Only the election can say He alone is worthy to open it. Others are trying to force open the seals with their private interpretation. Only the Word by His Spirit can properly interpret the words of this book, and only those who read it and UNDERSTAND, through acknowledging the absolute worthiness of the Lamb to reveal all things, will be a part of this. The seals will be opened only to those who have the understanding; who keep His words. They are sealed to religious scholars and debaters. They will never open to the self-righteous. It is a people who say of the Lamb: "NO MAN is worthy to open the book." It is a people who do not even LOOK thereon...no man is able to begin to perceive the contents of that which was sealed up with Daniel until the time of John on Patmos, and then sealed again for such a time as this.

ONLY Christ can reveal CHRIST to His people! Under the OLD Song we based our "knowledge" on what some man has taught. That man was taught by some man who was taught and on and on! Notice it says NO MAN IS WORTHY to open, to REVEAL Christ. Only Christ can reveal Christ. Let this so settle in our hearts today.

The book can be fully opened to us only when we believe the Lamb who can open it. Wearing it on a bumper sticker or tee shirt is NOT understanding it. Quoting chapter and verse and entering into the "protracted wranglings" of debates and discussions is NOT understanding it. The book remains sealed until the Lamb who alone is worthy to open it appears standing and ready to open it.

We are entering a world framed by God Himself where NO MAN'S preaching is allowed. We won't quote the experts or the scholars or the great name preachers any more. We will not rely on old warmed over sermons with a little extra seasoning to "spice it up" and keep the numbers up. We won't rely on yesterday's bread when He serves FRESH bread daily.

The NEW SONG in Revelation 5:9 completely shuts down the Old Song. It says: THOU (Oh Christ) art worthy to take the book and open the seals thereof, for thou were slain and redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred and tongue and people and nation, and hast made us unto God KINGS AND PRIESTS AND WE SHALL REIGN ON THE EARTH.

Those that sing the new song, God "hath made us unto our God kings and priests and we shall reign on the earth." Rev. 5:10.

Let us pray that we be counted among the worthies to sing the new song.

Amen and amen.

Becky

A Portrait Of The Spirit Of Self-Righteousness
Becky McLendon

There are no compromises in the Lord's plan for anybody's righteousness, except that of Jesus. We are going to lose the ability to speak or think carnally. We are going to cease acting carnally if we are going to be the righteousness of God in Christ.

Romans 10:3 says, “For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.

This is what we see so much. There is a self-righteousness that is hard to endure. And the hardest are those who assume they are righteous and act like hell. Then there are those who assume they are righteous and act like judges, and others who act like murderers.

Self-righteousness is a spirit. It tries to have unity. It tries to have holiness. It sets to achieve those things of God's spirit in its own strength. It tries to build a kingdom of "god," and boasts loudly, “Oh I am holier than thou, and I can prove it with chapter and verse. ”Self-righteousness is the contradiction of sinners set against the righteous. It’s working on making its own Jesus. Self-righteousness must have a Jesus that fits its own agenda. There is much talk about having Christ’s nature. However, there is no death in his nature, and since self-righteousness is death, Christ’s nature is not to be found in the self-righteous.

May the Lord show us teach us what putting on the Lord Jesus would be. We could say to the self-righteous, “if you have put Him on, why are you still looking for Him?” There is a difference between looking for Jesus and looking unto Jesus.

Our minds must be that way. We must say, “I have come to do thy will, and that’s it.” We do not believe in what we can do. It’s what He can and will do. Jesus said, “Where I am in God, there you may be also.” People can give you money but it’s the Lord that anoints you. It is not money you need. It is the anointing. We think about money, but he is lord; he is the manager.

We will just be what we are by the grace of God. We will quit all our works. We cannot add to or take away from what the Lord is doing.

Jesus said, “You will know the truth.” Sometimes I have asked myself, “Would it be sin if I did? Would it be sin if I didn't?” Then the Lord told me, “if you don't know what to do, don’t do anything.” He is not the author of confusion. So instead of our fretting over whether to “do” something or not, be at peace and do nothing till you hear His go ahead or His check. Self righteousness frets and usually acts thinking it is "serving God."

Confusion comes from the devil’s agenda. So does self-righteousness. However, the devil’s agenda is predestined to not prevail. Jesus says, "ok devil give it your best shot...you have to fulfill all things!! You know your end...I spoke it to you in the beginning of time that the seed of the woman (man child) would crush your neck."

There is a greater meaning to this. We live, we move, we breathe in him. We have our being. The life we live in the flesh is lived by the faith of God. Not by our own "faith." His faith produces an unstoppable and never ending oneness in a people. This is the generation God has desired.

Devils know they cannot devour this man-child. But yet they are predestined to try so that they can be soundly and forever defeated. Can you imagine what a oneness the election will be? This love doesn't need any fixing. It’s a perfect love that will never see death. That’s why it is not our love but his love. So let the accuser accuse his love. In that love, we will be transformed anyway. Self-righteousness will never see this love.

Transfiguration is for those who will go all the way: the spirit of Moses and Elijah with Jesus in the midst.

Submission is Jesus and we being one, ceasing from our works; shutting everything down, and then saying, “Jesus now you can work.” Religious men have tried and tried through the ages with the help of the enemy, to manufacture the promises of God. But he has said wait for the promise of God.... Carnal men are incapable of waiting. In their lack of waiting, they become self-righteous. But in this time of waiting, our carnality is burned off and the nature of Christ is put in to us.

It is when man takes over in his inability to wait for the promise of God that he steps out where the enemy can hear him. They have not gone into the ground to die, so they abide alone. We taste death for every man, and that’s every generation. Oneness wears the same shoes at the same time. Oneness is being in the same body together with Jesus.

In the Bible it says the prayers of a righteous man availeth much. Yet Paul said there is none righteous. No not one...therefore it is the prayers of Jesus that availeth much, and he is praying through us. He is the prayer of faith that heals the sick. So when his faith prays in us we are healed. He has said, “ upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell will not prevail against it. I am going to build a church, and the gates of hell cannot keep me from doing it.”

Matthew 13:47-50 says: “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but the bad they cast away. So shall it be in the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the righteous, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.” Sounds like some are going to be lost

Self-righteousness is always looking back to yesterday’s manna or looking for future manna, never getting today’s. We don't look back; we are interested in what's next; what’s for this day? We don't cling to yesterday...we want this day. I can just see the people in Jesus' day when God made a this-day declaration...they looked at yesterday and said this isn't God. It’s not like yesterday.... They looked at tomorrow's Jesus and said its not time...He is not the way they say He is going to be.........so they did not believe. To many it is blasphemy to believe. The self-righteous think this.

The foolish virgins of the parable of the ten virgins would be the blind that the Bible speaks of: their eyesight has gone out. When they beheaded the wise it took their eyesight from them. It took those who could see out of their midst...so now there is no sight for them. You know a prophet is one that sees, a seer; and when the see-ers are beheaded...no one can see. . All that’s left is outer darkness. Self-righteousness busies itself with beheading Jesus and replacing the head with their own heads. Jesus wept over self-righteous, blind Jerusalem and then decreed their destruction and desolation. He decreed it would remain desolate until they "SAW" once again, and that by accepting the Head, which is Christ, rather than the many headed ANTI-christ.

Self-righteousness is pride, pride and more pride. However the good news is this: the Lord has beheaded Leviathan with his sword.........Leviathan the king of the children of pride. With that one strong man out of the way, Jezebel; Absolom and Saul are wide open for destruction. The harvest is great. The man-child has not been devoured and will not be devoured. The self-righteous have sung how great thou art with out knowing any thing about the man-child. And man-child love prays for those who hate his righteousness and for those who despitefully use his righteous ones.... And persecute them until the Lord says, “pray no more for these.” The godhead is a powerful number. It’s the many brethren number

The net is full of fish. Throwing out the bad heals His people. The bad fish is the cause of sickness. As we look at past revivals we can see how they separated a people from a people, always leaving some behind while moving some into a greater knowing and the rest into greater darkness. That is coming upon us again, soon and suddenly. Let us watch and pray that we will be counted righteous in Christ and worthy to go on in.

Amen.

Separation And Sifting

Rosemary LaVigne

Separation And Sifting A Word For 2004

As I was asking the Lord for what he has on his heart for the coming year, I had to stop for a moment and look back on the past year and see how the Lord has brought us through some pretty rough places, physically for some, financially for others. Bringing us always through into an enlargement of himself through the adversity and trying circumstances we have all encountered in this past year. In different ways and through the hard circumstances he has brought us through to another year in Him by showing us His grace is truly sufficient and it is.

Our God has shown us that he cares about every detail of our lives and we must stop and look back and say with a grateful and appreciative heart...Thank you Lord for who you are and for how you have watched over us and have been ever so faithful and a true and loving Father to your children even when we don't deserve your love.... I am sure all of us reading this can say yes to these words.

As I think about and ponder upon the days of this past year and the critical happenings and the sorrow that many families have had to deal with lost loved ones, lost homes and possessions, because of this war in Iraq, the terrible fires in California and the recent horrendous earthquake in Iran in the Middle East, I know and many of you know that the Lord Jesus is the only genuine comfort that these need who have had to face the hardships of these times or lose and sorrow. He our heavenly Father and His Son Jesus Christ by and through the Holy Spirit are reaching out to fill that void that was left after these tragedies occurred. If we let Him come into our hearts and lives he will be there as our great physician and heal us and make us whole in Him.

Our world is changing rapidly and we must stand true to our convictions to be ever strong in the Lord and the power of his might. Throughout the world there is much fear, turmoil and unrest, but we were told that the days before Christ's coming again would be like this. The love of many is waxing cold and those who see with the Father's heart can know that the time is running out for this world of sin and corruption. I can't help but see that the prophetic scriptures written and preserved for us in our Father's Holy Word are being fulfilled daily so we can discern the times in which we live. It would be only a foolish man that would say this is not so. There is no time to waste. All of us need to keep ourselves in the love of God and to seek even more diligently the sobering keen and holy mind of the Lord in the days to come for perilous times are before us.

These days will become very difficult for those in the coming year who have not learned to put their total trust in the God that made them. Sin will be flaunted before the righteous in an even more flamboyant way with a greater distortion and perversion of the true gospel. Evil will continually be spoken of as good and good as evil. Those who know the Lord will have the needed godly discernment to see as he sees and to willingly shun all appearance of evil, walking alone if need be.

There will be many changes on the world scene and the affairs of governments to bring even more restrictions and control on the freedoms of the people of American and the world at large. There will be a more intense desire in the hearts of the Father's own for the Lord to rise up in judgment and to bring his ways of righteous justice in order to vindicate his own for the wrongs that have been done to his children and the victims of war and unnecessary shedding of the blood of the innocent. The Father is mindful of all that is transpiring behind the closed doors of men in high places and sees what will bring his verdict of judgment to this dying world without Christ and to his wayward church that has not heeded the Lord.

The Lord says he will begin to bring to light the secrets of the heart and expose those who are only pretending to be something they are not. This will increase and will be reported even more in the religious realms of fallen Christianity that names the name of Christ but has no power to produce His life in those held captive in the cold and lifeless edifices of man and its wayward and carnal leaders, some who are ever learning but never coming to the knowledge of the truth. These leaders who are yet resisting the moving of the Holy Spirit to bring recovery to those who are bound by lifeless religion with its lifeless forms and traditions will be dealt with by the Lord.

Those who have been prepared through much tribulation and have been groomed by the strict hand of the Lord for this coming day will be sent to speak as the Father's oracles. They will be sent with the Father's words as his mouth with the eyes of him that will uncover the secret sins. Men who try to hide from the eyes of him to whom we all have to be accountable will literally find themselves face to face with the fire of God, the burning penetrating fire of God whose eyes and convicting words burn into the soul of man revealing the secret sins in the hearts that only the Father knows. The fear of the Lord will begin to fall once again progressively as it did in the days of Ananias and Sapppira. The Lord says he is not going to be mocked much longer and what man has sown behind closed doors will be revealed openly and the shame will be seen on the faces of these who profess to know him, but have not been willing to repent and humble themselves to say they have been wrong in dishonoring the Lord with their wayward actions. No man is exempt from the Father's penetrating eyes as flames of fire.

He is going to rise up more noticeably in those he can trust who have been refined and tested greatly to do his bidding. These will begin even more in this coming year to glow with the glory of God on their countenances as it will be the Lord himself manifesting his shekinah presence in them as they come under the total control of the Holy Spirit and speak the words of wisdom that come from above and the knowledge that comes through time spent in the Father's presence. Both men and women old and young will be sent ahead to set the righteous standard of the Lord once again in and among a people of this wicked and perverse generation. Their words will be the Father's words and men will know that they have seen and been with Jesus in that secret place of intimacy, getting to know his thoughts, purposes and ways.

As we move into the spring of the new year and approach the time of the Lord's later rain, we can expect to see more and greater favor shown to the Lord's called out remnant, these who have fully committed their ways unto Him. They have paid the price of rejection by family members and even brethren who have misunderstood many of the Lord's children and misjudged them for their desire to be separated unto the Lord.

The words separation and sifting come to my mind, and a culling that will increase with those who are lukewarm, and a drawing even closer in intimacy with the Father by those who truly mean business with their God and His Son the Lord Jesus the Christ.

The Lord will to continue to bring in the backsliders and those who have been wounded by life's cruel circumstances; they will be healed and made new in ways never dreamed possible. Our God is a merciful forgiving God and even now tugging on hearts grown cold toward him in the past because of hurts and wounding through misunderstandings.

The Lord tells us to fear not turbulent and unusual weather changes, fires and increased diseases and more unrest that will continue to shake the foundations of man's governments of the world and modern day Christianity with its marketing methods and man's ways of doing things that should be of the leading and control of the Holy Spirit and is not. Those who continue to refuse the Lord's wise counsel in the form of correction in their lives will also be dealt with as they have been rebellious in their hearts to turn from their iniquity which is lawlessness in the eyes of the Father. The Lord says he has sent messengers to them repeatedly and they know, but are self-willed and will pay for this in time. The Lord does not do this willingly.

While there are many walking as if they have a whole life ahead of them to do as they please, the Lord is going to intervene in the lives of these whom he knew before the foundation of the world to be conformed into his image. Sons and daughters will yet turn and come into the fold of the Lord as faithful mothers and fathers have prayed and God is mindful of the desires of the heart of these who have stood in the gap for many years, and their work shall be rewarded. These sons and daughters in the natural and rebellious to God's love will come (Jeremiah 31:16-17).

Be patient he says and hold fast to the promises he has made to you. Remember the enemy of your soul is always ready to bring accusations to discourage you and the mind is the battle field. But know that you are never alone and the Lord is there even when you feel no one cares, He is there. Do not forget this.

I see an increase of the Lord's own coming out of the organized, man- centered churches scattered throughout the nations of the world. This people has the Father's heart and desire his will and none else. This is what the Lord is doing. It will increase as the Father's flock realizes that the Lord Jesus Christ is to have preeminence. No other will satisfy the hearts of these whom the Spirit of God is wooing and drawing unto Himself. For far too long man has controlled the reins of Christianity in a formal leadership never meant to be over the Father's heritage. The Father's divine and ultimate purposes for his people will begin to be seen as his people who seek Him will know they are about to enter into a new day and new and exciting circumstances to grow into maturity in Jesus Christ. This coming out of the systems of man's religion will free a number of the Lord's saints from the control of man and set them on solid ground to walk and learn of him as they seek him one-on-one. This will be a sign of the second modern day exodus and the appointed time has been prearranged by the Lord himself. This is that season, for the waters of Religious Babylon are soon to dry up for many to walk across their own personal Jordan on dry ground.

Drastic change in the field of cybernetics and new technological devices to track every movement of men will increase tremendously in the coming six months. People will awaken to this change and join themselves to others having the same vision, and hearts will be knit together in a unity that cannot and will not be controlled by man. The Lord will not allow this to exist any longer. There will be greater divisions but at the same time many precious joinings and a genuine love for one another as it was in the early church when persecution was greatest. The persecution of the true church of Jesus Christ scattered throughout the world will bring believers together. Though much will not be in the physical sense, it will come by the means of the Holy Spirit's joining. These relationships will last and will be by the Spirit for the edifying of one another in love and caring.

If we stop and think, many of us have gained a greater knowledge and capacity this past year to trust in the wonderful faithfulness our God has shown in so many ways. Indeed we are a blessed and grateful people learning more and more to lay aside every weight that so easily besets us and to run the race that is set before us with a single eye and a circumcised heart. May we hear him and be encouraged to know that our Lord has never lost a battle and never will.

Let us meditate on the goodness of the Lord and how he has provided for us so wonderfully in the past and will continue to provide. My heart is full of gratitude to him and to all of his people scattered throughout the nations of the world who know and love Him for the light that shines through them. You are appreciated and loved.

We face another year a little wiser and larger in our understanding of the knowledge of God and his righteous ways with us, to be able to discern with godly discernment, to be able to judge with righteous judgment the things that are coming from the heart of our God, and to see with clearer vision what the Lord has been showing us. Growth has been accomplished that has pleased the heart of the Father, so let us each one reading this keep the vision and not lose sight of our goal which is God.

There will be more of him in 2004 so make room in your hearts for the King to rule--Amen

Storms And Thoughts

Joni Ames

Dear Friends,

This past year as I've been traveling, I've been telling people that I felt that the natural disasters that were about to occur would be very serious.

I sent out an earlier email, but had some more thoughts to add regarding the storms we are presently experiencing in the nation. I've put it all together in the email below....

Hurricanes Frances, Ivan & Matthew

I had an incident happen Friday morning, Sept. 3rd when I awoke...this isn't a prophetic word - I'm just running it by you all for prayer.

I heard, "Frances is just preparing the way for the "I" and the "M" because I am the I AM." I felt it referred to the hurricanes that began with the letters "I" and "M." - - So decided to send this on to you all for prayer.

Anyhow, "Frances" means "freedom," and on the hurricane list, "I" would be "Ivan," which is derived from John and means, "God is merciful." - "M" would be "Matthew," which means, "Gift of Yahweh/God."

My thought is, if these are prophetic signs of judgment coming, let's repent for any wrongs and pray for mercy so that the mercy and gifts can come without judgment and destruction.

Unzipping Alabama & the midst of the Nation

I really do believe the Lord IS speaking through these storms, and the names. One thing the Lord had shown me before was He would come up through Alabama like a "zipper" and unzip the state of Alabama AND the midst of the Nation, a sign of the Lord freeing them up for His purposes.

A few years ago, I had a prophetic experience in Mobile, AL, when I was supposed to drive over a bridge to Dauphin Island - I had to pull over! - I couldn't even drive over it! - It was as if I was INSIDE THE MIDST OF A HURRICANE THERE that was VERY destructive.

Another day, when I drove (in the natural) over a bridge from the Florida side into Mobile, I saw (in the spirit, but so REAL that it SEEMED real!) a HUGE monster and heard the word, "Leviathan." - Leviathan is a spiritual demon that loves to twist communications and bring division. (Job 41:1-2, Psalm 74:13-15, Psalm 104:25-27, Isaiah 27:1-2)

A year later, I had a dream that there was a hurricane that was coming into Mobile, AL, but people didn't believe it was coming. They were having a hurricane party and mocking it. So, in the dream, I got out of the city and was watching TV from afar, and I saw the entire city of Mobile under water, with the bridges ripped off their foundations (the ones that go over the water), and only the very tops of tall buildings showing.

This latter dream was 2 or 3 years ago. A prophet friend was in the dream I had, so I later asked him about it all.

WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID

Bob Jones has said that sin opens the door to destruction. He told me he's been saying for some time now that he saw that there would be a "category 10" that would rip into Mobile Bay in Alabama. (He knows the scale only goes to 5, but says it would be worse than any other recorded, unless prayer changed it.) He said a "Jubilee" (fish jump out of the ocean to their death in droves) would be a sign it was coming, and that when the Category 10 would actually come, it would finally un-seat the spirit of Leviathan that has been there in Mobile Bay for years, and bring revival. - By the way, the original name of Mobile Bay was Bay of the Holy Spirit! - Anyhow, Bob Jones has ALSO made it clear that PRAYER CHANGES THINGS. And friends, that is scriptural reminder that, "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land." (I Chron. 7:14)

Last Wednesday at a meeting, Bob Jones also said that we are coming into a time of much flooding, and this winter the weather would go to extremes. He said, after the hurricane season, south Florida would be a good place to be.

MONTGOMERY ALABAMA

Montgomery is straight up from Mobile, at I-65 & I-85, and there, the 10 commandments were put into a closet and Chief Justice Roy Moore, who had placed them in the court system building, was removed from office. When that happened, I felt it opened the door for judgment and maybe that "Category 10" to happen and hit Alabama, unless repentance came.

HOPE IN THE MIDST OF STORMS

Frances means "freedom." Prayerfully, these storms are a sign in the natural of what God is bringing in the spiritual. That would mean that Frances is a sign that God is bringing FREEDOM and that Ivan is a sign of God's MERCY coming to this nation, right in the HEART of this nation, for God's purposes to flourish here!

IVAN

Ivan is quite large, and heading into the gulf. Let's pray that we "get the message" without the storms, and remember that God is merciful and His Mercy triumphs over Judgment. Whether it is presently "Ivan the Terrible" or not, PRAYER CHANGES THINGS.

LET THE READER UNDERSTAND

Now, when I put an email like this, there are those who do not understand and send me nasty emails or write nasty stuff on their websites about me. They can have fun in doing that if that is the way they get their kicks, but I am NOT saying that THE STORMS or the NAMES of the storms are what BRINGS the mercy or hope or whatever. GOD is the only GOD, and NOT a storm or storm name! But often, if we will watch what is going on around us, God can and does prophetically speak to us THROUGH THINGS. To those who don't believe that, fine. And if they don't want to be on this list and are currently subscribed, they are (obviously) free to remove themself:

STORM NAMES

Surgery And The Storm

Sandy Warner

Jul 30, 2004

I have already called My forerunners to walk through the surgery of spiritual circumcision. This has been a cutting away of the fleshly appetites for the world and its entertainment. They have learned the hard way that entertainment truly does detain entrance into My Presence. They have also come into a safe place away from the barrage of the enemy. It is a walk of holiness. It is a place of separation. They are walking in this safe place before the world wide storm. These are my priests who are holding back the floodwaters of principalities so their loved ones can pass by safely. My circumcised forerunners will be examples for the next group who have yet to come through this surgery of the heart.

There are many who have been plundered by giants. who will walk this path, and will finally accept that, according to My Word, righteous living is the only standard. The very nature of the storm will draw many into My bosom and prepare them to receive comfort only from Me. They shall be My sons and daughters and I will be their Passion.

"And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty." (2 Cor 6:16-18 KJV)

Spend Your Trials Wisely

Sandy Warner

Jul 28, 2004

Dear ones, all of time has waited for this hour when the fruit of the earth overtakes the plowman. All that is fruit will receive its reward, whether to be burned or preserved. Your fruit is a product of everything you yield to. Yield to Me and I AM the Merciful One Who will tear the weeds from your life and nourish My good plantings.

As you come to your destiny's door, the spotlight will shine upon your assets that have been bought and won by passing your tests and by My blood. It is not too late to close the wrong doors in your life. Do you need more grace in this late hour? Dear one, repentance will buy you more then enough.

Rev 12:10 KJV
And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

1 Corinthians 3:12-15 NKJ
Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is. If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

Saved
Becky McLendon

This morning I have been seeing before me, like a movie the past 36 years, actually 38 years of my life with my courtship, my marriage and our child rearing years. This has never happened before. It’s like a review of what has been It is a review of the memories...and it is all good. None of the "bad" is in it. And I suppose it is God showing me that the "bad" times are forgiven. It’s been a part of my journey. I will take with me the "good" of it, as I continue down the path. My children are good memories. They are so precious to me. They are part of my harvest too.

I think what God has done is He has plucked the tares out of my "garden of memories" and has left the wheat. . The wheat of it is good. But I feel a change in things going on...I will not be left with regrets over this life I have had. There will be no weeds in God’s garden. God is telling me that this present life has been as "good" as it could possibly be; given the fact it has been a life lived in the flesh. Now, we are ready for a life lived by the faith of God. He does the believing, and when we let him believe through us, great salvation is gained.

We stand on the banks of the river...the waters will part. He tells us many of the “bad” things will not be remembered again. It will be all sunshine, or rather Son-shine.

I thank him for that...He is wiping away the tears of nearly 40 years of my adult life. I am getting a healing. No bitterness left. And no hatred left.

I want that for my kids...for them to be rid of their bitterness against their dad and me and their peers for the "bad"...for God to erase that from them too

I want my husband set free of all the "bad opinions" of people over the years.: all the misunderstandings he has suffered, the rejections from people, including myself and my children. I want him healed. And I want God to erase those sayings from my kids ...as He is erasing them from me. I want all the rejections and sting of hurtful words erased from my family. He is revealing to me there are no dysfunctional or co-dependent families in the kingdom of God.

The tears are just flowing...but I am not crying...a healing is going on. He is pulling the weeds out of this garden. And He is saying to us today:

We will be left with nothing but a pure heart.

Healing is going on in me. Lord heal my children this way too...This kind of salvation we will take to others.

He truly wipes away our tears.
Our heartaches and grief.... He bore them. He really did!

I am experiencing salvation. This day is a salvation day. We are not converted until these things happen. Take away the sting of those hateful, spiteful words from our hearts Lord. Something is happening. I am truly getting saved. Salvation is touching me

A shout will be there as soon as the river of tears has stopped flowing. He has given me a new heart A clean heart was given this day. Now Lord let it begin in our children. And the nations

The leaves of this tree are for the healing of the nations. I must give this to my students. This salvation will weep for nations begging them to repent. We are getting so close to being ready to be sent out. Thank you Jesus, I can say I am saved!!
We are being left with His mind

This is something that all believers need to hear...they are truly going to be saved. As they cease from doing 666 things and desire 777. They will be saved. As they get out of God's way, they will be saved. That is what repent means...get out of God's way. We cease working from a “faith” that was not delivered to us. When nothing is left we have the mind of God. To be saved the carnal has to be gone. The "self" has to be dead and death has to be conquered. And only the spirit of God...the anointing can break that yoke. We cannot "do" it.

Can we say, the kingdom of God has come upon us this day? For what happens in me happens in you too.

I can say beyond a shadow of a doubt: bitterness, anger, hatred, filth, strife and all manner of evil cannot inherit the kingdom! It is the gospel. Repent and be saved. Believe and be saved. Be baptized in Him and in His character. Repent, for the kingdom of God is at hand. I can now say I am saved by grace, for His grace drew me into this, and His grace will lead YOU into it also.

Repent means the whole field has to be plowed. Perfection is at hand. We are perfected by grace. We are: predestined and prepared for perfection. By His grace we obey Him while He does the believing. And do not "try" to obey what he has not anointed.

Our pure and holy desire for him will lead us into all righteousness. We quit washing our selves. We will not even get dirty in a land where there is no water, because we have risen up and met him in His sanctuary. His water cleanses us. We have a well within us.

We quit looking for some thing to cover our selves with. He has clothed us. And the garment never gets soiled. There is no flesh to soil it. That is why the woman with the issue of blood could be healed by just touching the hem of His garment. It was not soiled by the flesh.   He was clothed in the anointing. So shall we be clothed. People will be healed touching our garments too. However, others may be destroyed trying to "lay hold" of our garments to try to remove them.

There is no healing in what people cover their sins with. Their garments are spotted and wrinkled. Yet has god not said he will have a glorious church without spot or wrinkle? We are to hate even the garment stained by the flesh.

Many people are fighting religion and covering themselves with religion at the same time. They are fighting the garment that they themselves are wearing. Why? Their garments are filthy rags. And it is impossible to overcome filthy rags with more filthy rags.

Remember Joshua? In the book of Zechariah, God removed that filthy garment in one day, and removed his iniquity with it. He saved him..

In Isaiah 25 the Lord speaks of removing the veil of wickedness, and it shall be so!

We are a part of that number if we cease from our labors and rest in His works. We have joined the fellowship...of the saints. We have joined the church this day. Saved!!!

I know he has called to me...come up hither, for heaven is open. The spirit and the bride say come! Cease from doing 666 and rest in 777. Get out of God’s way; stop toiling and spinning and fretting religiously to try to win the race. Get out of God’s way. Repent and be saved!!!

God is giving us His energy. People are hung up about needing more energy. But this energy thing is not about workouts   it is being translated out of what we have known into what he is! We will have his energy and speed. It is a weightless energy that has no end to it. It is salvation!!

When we get out of God’s way we can say   “if you have seen me you have seen the father.” Oh religionists won’t like it, they never do. They killed Jesus for it, remember?

HE IS REVEALING TODAY. I also saw myself as a tree. The "old leaves" had fallen off and new ones were appearing. iI saw and HEARD in huge block letters: BEGINNING!!

TODAY IS THE DAY OF SALVATION.

Surprised By Suffering
Ron Wood

If you're not drafted into God's army, don't volunteer without first counting the cost. You may find the "suffering clause" a bit too much to bear.

When Paul wrote his letters to young Timothy about three decades after Jesus' resurrection, he was Paul the aged. He had been imprisoned by Rome once before, he had been beaten with rods, lashed with cat-o-nine-tails, jailed in a cold dungeon with his feet in wooden stocks, been shipwrecked, often driven out of town, and was continually hounded by Judaizers who wanted to stone him to death to protect their religious traditions. (The spirit of murder is quite happy in a religious disguise.)

As he wrote, Paul was under house arrest in Rome awaiting trial before Caesar, as we see in the setting at the end of the Book of Acts. By now all the other apostles among the Twelve, except for John, had already been killed for their faith. The church had been persecuted by the Jews but now the pressure had started coming from Nero as the followers of Jesus refused to worship the Emperor. (Malcolm Muggeridge, the famous British atheist philosopher, now deceased, was converted to Christ as he studied history and found that thousands of Christians died with joy in the Roman arena, having believed that a Man named Jesus had really come back from the dead.)

Reading Timothy, especially the second letter, you get the poignant sense that Paul is passing the baton to Timothy. It is very personal and has eternity in view. He obviously loves Timothy like a father loves a son, yet he encourages Timothy to keep the faith and be bold despite great personal risk. Paul says to him, "Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus." (2 Timothy 2:3) At the end of his letter, he repeats it again: "…endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry." (4:5)

This expectation of suffering for a young apostle trying to fulfill his vocation is in stark contrast to the fame or ease or fortune being glamorously promoted by some ministries today. You would think the mark of success is measured in budgets or buildings or billboards… or ads in Charisma Magazine.

Listen, the Spirit of Jesus wants me to warn you-- this is a terrible time to volunteer for the ministry. It is an especially tough job market if you are hearing a call to apostleship. If you can get out of it, run!

I mean, I thought being a prophet was tough: hearing voices, seeing visions, having dreams, discerning things, always being out of step with the present and pointing to things not yet, never seeming to fit in with the status quo. But a little misunderstanding isn't bad compared to what apostles have already suffered and will yet endure.

The job description of most of the early apostles included being killed on the job! Apostles were KIA, "Killed In Action," which meant being martyred for the sake of the gospel. How would you like to apply for a job which included the probability of death?

Yet Jesus says to pray to the Lord of the Harvest to send forth (an apostolic term) laborers into the fields (Matt. 9:37-38). The call from Jesus to become an apostle (one able to be sent; able to be dispatched, or able to be deployed under Christ's authority) has fine print in the contract. Are you willing to die?

Don't think you can escape this clause, for every real apostle's calling and commissioning includes this hidden feature. Without a willingness to die doing the will of God for Jesus' sake, there is no genuine apostleship.

Some modern apostles have already sacrificed in a similar way. Don't be surprised by their suffering. You can't have the true grace of apostleship without something of our humanity suffering. History has overlooked many of the apostles of China, India, Africa, Latin America, and other non-western people groups where the darkness has been driven back by servants of God who died on the battle field. In America and Europe, we have better records.

For example, John Wesley, the apostle who founded Methodism, said that every Methodist preacher should always be ready to preach, ready to pray, and ready to die. Pioneers always pay a dear price, a price which those who follow later may not be able to fully appreciate. Methodists in America once paid dearly to be Christians who lived a sanctified life.

Years ago, I prayed with fellow pastors in an old Methodist church in south Texas that was founded by a circuit riding preacher who rode himself into the ground and died young bringing the gospel to America's frontier. (Most such Methodist preachers never married and died early by age thirty.) I spoke in another old but splendidly well-preserved Methodist church in Florida where I experienced the Holy Spirit's power coming upon me (and surprising me!) as I stepped behind the pulpit to speak. Suddenly, I was aware that people had been praying for whoever should happen to stand behind that pulpit for many, many decades.

My burden for the Methodists has often led me to travail in prayer. My ancestors on my mother's side—the Christenberry clan—are famous for being Methodist pioneers in North Carolina. North of Charlotte and east of Lake Norman, my family and I once visited an old cemetery behind Asbury Methodist Church and looked at headstones honoring my ancestors. The old Bible in the pastor's office, preserved under glass, commemorated the Christenberry man who gave the church its first land. In those days, if you were converted to Christ in that county, they mocked you and said, "You must be a Christenberry!"

Christians were ridiculed for believing you could be saved and know it, and for practicing their faith by following Wesley's methods which included weekly gatherings in one another's homes to pray, to study the Bible, and to confess their sins.

Besides believers being misunderstood, those called as leaders of the church often faced major opposition in sharing God's word and pointing people toward Christ. In the Bible, the decision to follow Jesus for the Twelve meant they left their nets—their vocational security—and they also left their reputations behind and risked their future welfare. They should have been concerned: all but one of the first Twelve died a terrible death because they preached the kingdom of God without compromise.

The good news is that on the other side of suffering, if we handle it right, is maturity and glory.

Jesus suffered more than any of us ever can or ever will. For this, He was crowned with glory. "…we do see Him… crowned with glory and honor…." (Hebrews 2:9) I once heard the Lord say to me, "Every crown in its first appearing is a crown of thorns."

Your suffering in serving Christ is the gateway to experiencing God's glory in your life and ministry. Why? Because when you keep your faith despite it all, God gives more grace as reward. Grace precedes glory. This is the promise made in 1 Peter 4:13-14. Notice, glory is commensurate and it is proportional: to the same degree. God is precise in His measurement of glory upon His saints. It exactly fits the degree of faithful endurance displayed before angels and men. More suffering equals more glory. So, rejoice!

This past weekend, I heard the Spirit say this phrase to me, "…eyewitnesses of His majesty." (2 Peter 1:16) I knew what God meant by that word. For weeks, I have also been intrigued by the imagery of the Book of Revelation as it describes the Appearing of the Lord Jesus upon His return. He will arrive in His resurrection glory! Another scripture has kept reverberating in my mind also, "the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ." It is as though we, while in our fleshly existence as humans, can not fully take in the true extent of the brightness of the glory of God, so God keeps "stepping it down" so we can receive some of it, be blessed and transformed, yet without being killed.

From the face of Jesus Christ, God steps the revelation down by degrees to mere glory. From glory, God steps it down to mere knowledge. From knowledge, God steps it down again to mere light. Too much too soon, and we would be raptured!

We get the light of understanding on some of God's truth, and from that we rise to knowing the Lord. From knowing the Lord (which is more than just information about God), we taste the transforming glory of God by means of the Spirit of God displaying His majesty and holy presence to us. From touching the manifest glory, we go to the highest and greatest manifestation of God on earth, which is the face of Jesus Christ. He is the express image of God and the brightness of His very presence.

I believe God is going to give many faithful soldiers of the gospel, men and women, an opportunity to be a eye-witnesses of Jesus' majesty, His post-resurrection glory, not only in heaven, but even now, in the present day, here in the flesh while we are on the earth.

This past weekend at the church where my wife and I make our home base in North Carolina, we were blessed by the home-going of a beloved man. He was 82 years old, had been a banker for thirty-eight years, and was a pastor on staff at The Rock of Wilmington for the last twelve years of his life. Aubrey Johnston was survived by his wife, Eva, who is also a minister of God's power and truth like her husband was.

Aubrey died as he lived, in quiet confidence in the faithfulness of God. He had seen God's power manifested in delivering people from demons, in healing people of diseases, and in filling many Christians with the gift of the Holy Spirit. He and Eva would often mentor people into a steady walk with Jesus based on God's Word and into ministering the gifts of the Holy Spirit for themselves.

Aubrey's humor never left him even while he died. Oh, how God's grace makes even our redeemed humanity to be cherished! He told one nurse, "I've never had such a good time dying before in my life!" His death was marked by the testimony of God's manifest grace and glory.

On his last night on earth, as he lay dying in a hospice bed last Friday with only his wife and adult children around his bedside, the ceiling lights began to dim and flicker. Outside in the hall, all the other lights were bright with no power problems. A mist began to rise from the floor until it enveloped the bed and his frail body. A light appeared over his head. For forty minutes, everyone stood speechless and silent in the manifest glory of God. Then, Aubrey, who hadn't spoken for two days and had hardly moved, turned his palms upward from the bed and worshipped, and his spirit peacefully left his body. Then the lights came back up and the mist disappeared.

I tell you, to endure the sufferings of this present world which will surely be inflicted upon God's holy apostles, to manifest the life of Jesus in our mortal bodies, to be finally rid of all the fear of death, we must touch the glory of God. This is why, I believe, apostles have to have seen their risen Savior in order to be truly fearless in the face of opposition or death.

How can you be afraid when you've seen the One who has eternal life and gives it freely to those who believe in Him? How can death intimidate anyone who has seen the Risen Lord? What of the grave is there to fear?

Suffering pales in the light of God's glory. Everyone who has been brought back from the dead after seeing Jesus and the beauty of heaven is eager to go back to be with Jesus and ready to depart the drabness of this material world.

This is the hope of the church and the secret ingredient of the perseverance of the saints. The reality of the resurrection and our privilege to partake of Jesus' eternal life is the armor of apostles who face death without fear and defy God's angelic enemies or human rebels without backing down.

Serving By the Heart of God

Serving by the Heart of God: Part-Timers vs. Full-Timers

The Spirit of the Lord showed me two groups of people.
Both groups of people were Christians, believers in Christ.
Both groups were "serving" the Lord.
The first group, He considered them "Part-Timers"
in their service and dedication to Him.
The second group, He called them "Full-Timers".
You may be surprised at how God sees our service to Him.
For God's ways are higher than our ways, and His thoughts are higher than our thoughts (Isaiah 55:8-9).
Man looks on the outside, but God sees to the heart (Psalms 44:21).
I hope, and pray, that I am growing as a "full-timer" in Him.

"The Part-Timers"
First, I saw a group of people who pay their tithe, faithfully.
They go to church, regularly.
Some are very active in the church and in their service to God.
Some are pastors and ministers.
They even pray and read the Bible.
They are "good" Christians.
By all appearances, they are righteous and faithful in keeping their Christian obligations to God and man.
Yet, the Lord called them "Part Timers".
Then, I saw that they distinguish, and divide, between "God's" and "mine".
Their money is separated into a portion (tithes) to God, and then the rest is theirs to do with according to their own desire.
They do not want to make their portion available to God to do with as He would direct, because it may mean that they would have less.
It didn't matter if they tithed 10%, or 20%, God saw them as "part-timers", because in their heart they held back, even a portion, from God.
I also saw that their time was divided between "God's time", and the rest was "their time".
They went to church, and were active in various church activities or ministries.
But they distinguished between the time they gave to God, and they held in their heart "their own time".
I was shown this example, as an analogy... it's like going to work, clocking in, and serving 100% while you are there at work. But when the work day (or obligation) is over, you clock out, and the rest of the day is yours to pursue your own agenda.
In man's eyes, we call this "full-time" work.
But in God's eyes, he looks at the heart, and he calls this service to Him, "part-time".
The part-timers' relationship to God is based on legalistic Christian obligations.
"Do's" and "should's" ... Expectations.
They know the LETTER of the WORD of God,
but they don't know the HEART of God.
They think they are "full-timers", but they are really "part-timers" in God's eyes.

"The Full-Timers"
The second group of people that I saw, did not have any such "rules" or "laws" or "obligations" that they used to measure their service to God. They were not under the law of "tithe", nor of any other obligitory law.
They didn't need these laws.
(Jeremiah 31:33-34; 2 Cor. 3:3)

For they do not "own" anything for themselves.
For ALL that they had was God's...
God's to direct at any moment.
They made no distinction between God's money and their money.
They made no distinction between their time in service to God and their own time.
They don't consider themselves to "own" anything.
In their eyes, it is ALL HIS.
(1 Peter 2:9; Deut. 10:9)
And they had a joy and a FREEDOM that was not known by the "part timers".
(2 Cor. 3:17; 2 Cor. 3:9)

These were the ones that God called "Full Timers".

Although they do not have the law of obligation to rituals, or tithes, or a list of "do's" and "shalts",
They end up giving more than the "part-timers",
not because they have to,
not because of any obligation,
(2 Cor. 9:6-7)
but because they hold NOTHING back from God.

The "full timers" do not hold back a part of their time for themselves;
they do not hold back a part of their money for themselves;
they do not hold back any part of themselves,
nor of their heart,
nor even of their very lives.

These have hearts that follow after the heart of God.
They live by the Spirit.
(2 Cor. 3:6)
Their lives, and all that they are, and have,
are offerred as living sacrifices to God.
(1 Peter 2:5, 9; Deut. 10:9, 18:1; Joshua 13:14, 13:33)
By man's eyes, or standards, they might not look special.
In fact, they may be misunderstood and misjudged.
For, much of their giving is done in secret, without care for reward or recognition.
(Matthew 6:1-8)
Much of their praying is hidden from the watch of others, not just at prayer or church meetings.

Much of their serving is without glory or hidden, mundane and often seen as lowly by others,
known only by God (and perhaps a few scattered here and there).
But in God's eyes, these are His "Full Timers".
- - - - - - - - - - -
Proverbs 21:26
... the righteous give without sparing.
Acts 2:44-45
All the believers were together and had everything in common.
Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need.
2 Corinthians 9:6-7
[6]Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. [7]
Each man should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.
Mark 33:12
And to love Him with ALL the heart, and with ALL the understanding,
and with ALL the soul,

and with ALL the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself,
is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.
Matthew 19:30
But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first.
Jeremiah 31:33-34
..."I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts.
I will be their God, and they will be my people.
No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest," declares the LORD.
2 Corinthians 3:3
You show that you are a letter from Christ... written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.
2 Corinthians 3:17
Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is,
there is freedom.
2 Corinthians 3:6
He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant - not of the letter but of the Spirit;
for the letter kills,
but the Spirit gives life.
1 Peter 2:9
But you are a chosen people,
a royal priesthood,
a holy nation,
a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.
Joshua 13:33
But to the tribe of Levi [the priests],
Moses had given no inheritance;
the LORD , the God of Israel, is their inheritance,
as he promised them.
(see also Deut. 10:9, 18:1; Joshua 13:14)
1 Peter 2:5
you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

Saved By The Life Of Christ
Yolanda Ballard

(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)

The pleasure of sin is but for only a moment, but the effect of the Cross is eternal. Take the opportunity today to decide who you will serve. Will you be slave unto sin which brings forth death or will you choose the Cross of Christ and live?

This is the message. It has always been the same, but many have watered it down and preached another message. Yes, a false gospel of justification of sin. Not true justification, but one that says it is all right to sin since it is just a weakness of the flesh. Yes, just an infirmity that you overlooked brought on by your forefathers. Many justify sin by just saying that it is the effect of a chemical imbalance, but what it really is but the effect of a lack of discipline, a lack of subjecting the flesh to the lordship of Christ.

Do not become blind to the enemy's tactics. Do not settle for second to the best for the crucified life is one of constant contentment and victory, one that is totally free to serve the will of God and not Satan. The life of the Cross is full of the resurrection power of Christ. He who by His own life overcame the power of sin, how much more now that we are His friends are we able to overcome by His life.

Our Character as a Christian
Yolanda Ballard

Feb 24, 2004

Blessings to all! You can tell them by their fruit. One who patterns their life after Jesus, the only One full of grace and truth. Because we love Him, we want to be like Him.

Here's a great check list to view and adjust by the grace of God our own life. We all know that good character is more valuable than anything. The test of good Christian character is more precious than gold. And that is why the Lord by His love purges us with His fire so that all the dross will be brought to the surface to be removed and all that will be left will be His character.

I pray great grace upon you! And that you will prosper and be in health as your spirit soars in Him!

Scotland

Karen Frith

I had this picture of the land of Scotland, couldn't see much on the soil, then all of a sudden and in a rush of life and activity, various places around Scotland were filled with new green leafy shoots breaking through the soil. Then the increase was so fast my eyes could barely take it all in.

I was aware that the shoots were verdant and green and very strong and robust. Then I observed that they were Crocuses.

I heard the Lord saying "Spring is coming to Scotland!! Spring is coming."

I felt God was showing me through this that the land is fertile and that all the prayers, outreaches, tears, toils and prayers and labours over many years will see fruit this spring in abundance.

Scroll of Prophecy

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

In Ezekiel 2 and Revelation 10 the bible talks of a scroll being given to Ezekiel and John. The scroll was prophetic and contained the mind of God. They were told to eat them. They both ate it and they got the same reaction after eating it. After that they started to speak that which they had eaten before multitudes.

The Word

The scroll can likened to the word of God. It is engrafted in our hearts being written on the walls of our heart. We proclaim it for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. We speak them and we are made prophets of the word as the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

End-time Mysteries

The scroll is also a hard copy given to prophets. They contain the mind of God concerning the future and mysteries that are hidden from man. The prophets are to declare it to the church and to the nations of the earth.

In this end-time a lot of people are being given this prophetic scroll that they may proclaim him who sits on the throne. A lot of people are being given revelations of the mysteries of God and the mind of God is being shared. His fullness is being revealed and the mystery of God would soon be finished. Selah

The Mystery of Tongues

Bayo Omoyiola

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

The Beginning and Now

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth. He made tongues too. He created the tongues of the angels and the tongues of men.
Before man was created the angels used to sing together on the earth. They spoke one language until division came when lucifer wanted to be like God. He and his angels rebelled and fought against God and were cut off from his presence. Tthey lost their glory, their estate and their tongue. There seemed to be a memory loss. They dont seem to remember the language they spoke then. That explains why satan and his angels cannot understand us when we pray in tongues.

When man was created he had his own tongue and he could interact freely with fellow man kind until division came when man wanted to become like God as he tried to build a tower and city whose top reached unto heaven. That language was lost and man started speaking different languages and tongues.

The Mystery

When a man becomes born again and filled with the Holy Spirit he starts to speak the tongue of angels, a language he does not understand and never learned before. With that same anointing that teacheth us all things he could speak and understand any of the earthly languages he never spoke and understood before.

When the angels speak the earthly man do hear them speaking his own natural language. The angels could therefore speak any of the earthly tongues and understand them. This is because live in the presence of the all knowing God and they have his presence always.

The End

In the world to come, the redeemed man would be speaking only one language as there would be unity of tongues. We would all understand one another for that which is in part would be done away with when that which is perfect is come. We would all be in one accord speaking a pure language - the language of heaven which is the tongue of angels and all things would be clear to us because the veil of carnality would have been removed.

For now we speak only in part and see these things only dimly having received just a token of the powers of the age to come but we have a sure hope that one day when that which is perfect is come we would speak in full and see fully. Selah

Sharing Christ With Yasser Arafat

R.T. Kendall

Arafat to R.T. Kendall, "I saw the Virgin Mary holding Jesus. I kissed Jesus," -- while he was confined to his compound. "It has been revealed to me that Jesus Christ is very important to you," R.T. Kendall told Arafat. Arafat replied: "Very, very important."

WORLD NEWS: Bible Teacher Issues 'Call for Conversion' to Arafat
December 2, 2003
An American Bible teacher recently shared Christ with Yasser Arafat - the second time R.T. Kendall has witnessed to the Palestinian leader in the last year. On Nov. 20 [2003], Kendall, an internationally known speaker and author, met with the 74-year-old Palestinian president at Arafat's compound in the West Bank town of Ramallah.

"Rais [the Arabic word for president], there is something I want you to think about," Kendall (minister at famed Westminster Chapel in London for 25 years until his retirement last year) recalled telling Arafat. "It has been revealed to me that Jesus Christ is very important to you." Arafat reportedly replied: "Very, very important."

Kendall, who began praying for Arafat daily in 1982 after hearing cross-carrying evangelist Arthur Blessitt talk about his visit with the head of the Palestinian Liberation Organization, said he knew that Arafat had dreams about Jesus.

Arafat told Kendall that he had a dream last year when the Israelis took over Arafat's compound and bombed most of it. "On the third day of the siege...a lamb led me to Bethlehem," Kendall recounted Arafat saying. "There I saw the Virgin Mary holding Jesus. I kissed Jesus. When I woke up I was so moved that I ordered a lamb to be slaughtered and taken to the priests at the Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem for them to have a feast."

Kendall then said: "I want you to confess that Jesus actually died on the cross for your sins. Not that he was delivered from the cross, but that he actually died." However, a translator interrupted Kendall, objecting to his "call for conversion." "But Arafat lifted his hand to the translator to suggest that it was all right for me to continue," Kendall said.

After he explained to Arafat the benefits of becoming a Christian, Kendall noted that the translator objected again to his call for conversion. "I replied, 'I am only trying to get him to go public with what he already believes,'" Kendall, 67, noted. "I said to Arafat, 'Nothing else has worked. Peace [in the Middle East] will not come through a military or political solution.'"

Traveling to Iraq

Later, Kendall asked Arafat: "Will you do me a favor? Will you consider this?" Arafat said that he would. Kendall, who first shared the gospel with Arafat in July 2002, told Charisma News Service that he prayed for Arafat and gave him a copy of his book, "Total Forgiveness."

"Whether I did any good on my two visits to this torn, frail but unusual leader, I don't know," said Kendall, whose meetings with Arafat were arranged by the Rev. Andrew White, a canon of the Coventry Cathedral in England and archbishop of Canterbury's envoy to the Middle East. "I only know I never tried so hard in all my life to lead a person to Jesus Christ."

During his visit to the Middle East last month [Nov 2003], Kendall also became the only American minister -- other than military chaplains -- to preach at Saddam Hussein's Iraqi palace in Baghdad during a Sunday morning service on Nov. 23.

"I was invited to preach to a group of American military and civilians," said Kendall, who is based in Key Largo, Fla., from where he continues to write and travel to speak. "I stood before the gathering, literally three feet in front of Saddam's throne to proclaim: 'Jesus Christ is Lord of this nation.'"

http://www.tvbn.com/index.html?http://www.tvbn.com/Charisma/CharismaNewsUpdate20031202.html

Some people are still surprised that God has given me what I can only call a special relationship with President Yasser Arafat and also certain Palestinian leaders. Some sincere Christians misunderstand this, and people I don't know write letters of warning. One person who surely meant well angrily finished his letter 'May God have mercy on your soul,' because of my times with President Arafat. My preaching responsibilities and television appearances have given me opportunity to ask Christians in America to pray for Yasser Arafat. The consequence of this has been an overwhelming response on the part of believers from all over the world who have thanked me again and again for reminding them to pray for Palestinians as well as Israel. Almost without exception they hadn't even thought of it!

I have invited a number of well known Christian leaders in the past two years to join Canon Andrew White and me on trips to Israel and Palestine. Andrew White, Canon of Coventry Cathedral and the Archbishop of Canterbury's envoy to the Middle East, is probably the only man in the world to maintain a relationship with both Israelis and Palestinians. I have said often -- including many times when I am on television -- that Canon White should receive the Nobel Peace Prize. I hope he will be so honored one day. Most of these high profile leaders I have invited have declined, mainly because it would not help them with their followers who would misunderstand their having contact with Israel's foes. I understand their position and I would never criticize them. I only know that I have chosen to walk in doors I never dreamed of opening.

I would not be so pompous or pious as to claim to be like Jesus, but I know one thing for sure: Jesus would go into Ramallah and visit Yasser Arafat. When Jesus went to Jericho and gave special attention to Zacchaeus he was criticized by the religious people (Luke 19:1-9). Zacchaeus was a 'short man' and I have wondered if he and Arafat are about the same height!

Being the Love of Jesus

I began praying for Yasser Arafat daily over 22 years ago -- never expecting to meet him but because the Holy Spirit laid him on my heart and gave me a love for him. That love has not changed. I don't know whether Yasser Arafat has ever felt unconditional love from many people, especially from the West, but I want him to feel it from me. I have had one goal: to be Jesus to him.

John Wesley used to say that God does nothing but in answer to prayer. I don't mean to be unfair, but if Christians in America had spent as much time praying for Yasser Arafat and Palestinians as they do praying for Israelis and Jews -- which can only be right, I believe the situation would be vastly different in the Middle East at the present time. Jesus loves both peoples equally. He would not be political however, he would only demonstrate his love for them.

Recently Dr. Michael Youssef, the minister of the Church of the Apostles of Atlanta and of the TV and radio ministry 'Leading the Way' accepted my invitation to visit Israel and Palestine.. During the first week of September Dr. and Mrs. Youssef and their son Joshua and I journeyed to Israel -- mainly to meet President Arafat and the Chief Rabbi of Israel.

Yasser Arafat had his 75th birthday only days before we saw him on September 2nd. I brought in a Bible -- in English and Arabic -- which he seemed very pleased to receive, and we gave him also some crystallized fruit that I knew he loves.

Dr. Youssef said to him: 'The prince of peace was born in this part of the world . . . and we know He is the only one who can gives us peace . . . it is our prayer that He may give you wisdom to achieve peace.' President Arafat was pleased to receive this word.

I felt led to share with President Arafat the verses that always govern me when I go into Ramallah: for example, when you are before governors and kings 'do not worry about what to say or how to say it. At that time you will be given what to say, for it will not be you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you' (Matt.10:18-20). I told him I believe God gives me the words I say to him. I have always sensed the unusual leadership of the Holy Spirit every time I am with President Arafat. On at least two occasions -- when I presented the Gospel very strongly to him -- I felt I had as much anointing as in any pulpit. But each time afterwards I also feared I would never be invited back. But he has invited me back three times -- even to have lunch with him. We had over an hour with him on this occasion. I read Psalm 91:14-16, asked him permission to anoint him with oil and pray for him.

We were not able to have lunch this time however; all the PLO were fasting in deference to certain men in prison who had gone on a hunger strike. They apologized profusely to us that they could not serve us lunch. Dr. Saeb Erekat, the brilliant and respected Palestinian statesman, who was at my side as I spoke with President Arafat (translating if needed), invited us instead to Jericho where he arranged for a delicious Arabic meal to be set before us. It was fantastic. We were particularly delighted to have well over an hour with Dr. Erekat. Dr. Erekat is highly regarded in the West but also by the Israelis. When the lunch was over we were photographed with him in front of the Catholic school in which he was educated (from age 3 to 12) -- then we were photographed together in front of a Sycamore tree that is known to be 2000 years old, just possibly the very tree Zacchaeus climbed!

The Chief Rabbi of Israel

During our time in Jerusalem Canon White introduced us to a number of religious leaders, among them the Greek Orthodox Patriarch in the Old City. We then met the Syrian Orthodox Patriarch in the Old City of Jerusalem and had lunch with him and some of the monks there. This took place in what is actually the oldest known church in the world. Later in the day we had coffee and refreshments with the Bishop of the Coptic Church (Egyptian) in the Old City. We also spent time with the Rev and Mrs. Tony Higdon, old friends of mine, the vicar of Christ Church (Anglican) in the Old City. We were privileged to see holy sites seldom if ever seen by tourists.

It was an honor once again to meet the Chief Rabbi of Israel. We had lunch with him back in March when Lord and Lady Carey, former Archbishop of Canterbury, were with us. He remembered me and greeted us kindly. We had a good dialogue with him. Dr. Youssef said to him, 'We pray for the peace of Jerusalem . . . for after all we worship your Messiah . . . and we pray for His peace to reign in this land.'

At that meeting was Rabbi David Rosen, the Jerusalem based International Director of Interreligious Affairs of the American Jewish Committee. I was thrilled that he not only remembered me but said, "Hi, R.T." without being re-introduced when we walked in. When we were with Lord and Lady Carey back in March, Rabbi Rosen treated us to a Shabbat dinner in the Mount Zion Hotel. On that Friday evening Rabbi Rosen and his wife and two daughters went through the ancient liturgy for us. It was most moving and brought us to tears. I did not dream that we were in the embryonic phase of what appears to be a significant relationship.

Pray For these Important Connections

What happened was this. When Rabbi Rosen had spoken warmly about Pharisees at this Shabbat dinner, I was surprised. To make sure I had not misunderstood him, I asked, "Am I to believe that you see yourself as a modern Pharisee and are not ashamed of it?" He answered that was absolutely the case! I explained to him that nearly all of what Christians know about Pharisees is not very complimentary! He knew this. I told him that I was in the process of writing a book and intended to devote one or two chapters to Pharisees. A few days later he sent me some information on Pharisees. He hoped I would make a distinction between those Pharisees Jesus is recorded as addressing as opposed to most Pharisees -- then and now.

Therefore when we met in Jerusalem recently we agreed to spend more time together. He came early for breakfast the next day. I had just completed my latest book (to be published shortly in England) called "Out of Your Comfort Zone -- Is Your God too Nice?" I told him I had referred to him but not by name lest I embarrass him. He wanted to see what I have written. As we discussed this I came up with an idea. What if we did a book together? We would begin by his criticizing my own interpretation of Pharisees and then I would answer him. He replied, "Let's do it." We have since been in dialogue by email and it now appears certain he and I will do a book together. He also gave me permission to mention him by name.

I want to thank God and also Canon Andrew White for introducing me to important people in the Middle East. Without him I would never have had access to these strategic people. Please pray for him -- for his health, wisdom and safety. And pray the same for me as doors continue to be open to me in that troubled spot on our planet.

I made another trip to Israel March l7-21, partly official and partly private. The private part -- though it was made public by the Palestinian press who were allowed in and took pictures -- was that I was invited by President Arafat to have lunch with him and watch Mel Gibson's film The Passion of the Christ. I regard this visit as pastoral but I can reveal a few details.
Dr. Saeb Erekat, the respected Palestinian statesman and Cabinet Minister, translated the subtitles. Dr. Erekat asked me afterwards if I noticed that President Arafat wept a number of times as he watched. I could hear him weeping but did not look at him except to whisper a few comments about the film as it proceeded. He watched the entire film along with about thirty members of the PLO and Cabinet. At the end of the film I asked President Arafat if I could pray with him. After all in the room left, except for Dr. Erekat whom I asked to remain, I prayed with him. He made it clear he welcomed this. My sole motive in showing the film was pastoral and evangelistic. I have stressed to Arafat again and again that Jesus DIED ON THE CROSS -- was not delivered. I felt that Mel Gibson's film was therefore a potential vehicle of the Holy Spirit to drive this home.

In my prayer (during which he took my hand and held it tight) I said, "Heavenly Father, I thank you for the high privilege of showing this film to President Arafat. I pray that you will apply the truth of this film by your Holy Spirit. Make both of us thankful that Jesus died on the cross for our sins," among other things. We had lunch, he allowed me to pray for all the PLO, walked me out and kissed me good-bye.

My total time in Ramallah this time was three hours and a half. Oliver Scutt, Andrew White's aide, stayed with me (next to me in the photo) and accompanied me afterwards to join others (see paragraph below) in Hebron. Many present, among them Hanan Ashrawl (often seen as a Palestinian spokesman on television), remarked about my friendship with Arafat and his love for me. Why? I am not sure that I know. I would appreciate your prayers for me. I realize I have been misunderstood by some of my friends as well as some political leaders. I know this much: if John Wesley is correct -- that God does nothing but in answer to prayer, this meant that somebody prayed for Saul of Tarsus before he was converted; secondly, Paul used the word 'envy' or 'jealousy' twice (Romans 11:11,14) as a motive to wake up Israel and lead to their blindness being lifted. This is my own 'strategy' if I may use that word. Please pray for me. And pray for Yasser Arafat. I have reason to believe that if Christians had been praying for Arafat and Palestinians as much as they pray for Israelis and Jews over the years that things could be a lot different in the Middle East at the present time. A political and military solution is not the answer; the issue is theological.

God is Moving in the Middle East

I want to thank Canon Andrew White, the Archbishop of Canterbury's Envoy to the Middle East, for introducing me to President Yasser Arafat and allowing me continued access into the compound in Ramallah. I could not have done what I did without Andrew's support. Andrew is one of the most remarkable men I have ever met. I pray he will one day win the Nobel Peace Prize.

This brings me to the official part of my recent trip to Israel. My main reason for being in Israel this time was to be with Dr. George Carey, formerly the Archbishop of Canterbury, and Andrew White. The architect of the Alexandria Peace Process, Lord Carey, led a tour of British and American leaders (two of whom I had the privilege of choosing) to meet Israeli and Palestinian leaders during March l7-21. Dr. Richard Land, president of the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention and Dr. Ravi Zacharias, the well-known Christian apologist, joined Lord and Lady Carey, Alan Bell (my friend who has accompanied me twice before into Ramallah), Christopher Long, former British ambassador to Egypt and advisor to Lord Carey and the Very Rev James Diamond, dean of Christ Church Cathedral of Cincinnati, Ohio, in visiting a number of leaders. Most of these spent a few moments with President Arafat (see photograph), then called on Sheik Tal El Sider in Hebron, a co-rounder of Hamas but who since broke with them and has renounced violence.
During these days we met with the former Israeli Prime Minister Shimon Peres in Tel Aviv, as well as both the American Ambassador to Israel, Dan Kurtzer, and the British Ambassador to Israel, Simon McDonald. We also met with members of the Knesset when we sat in on a meeting with the Christian Allies Caucus at the Knesset. We had lunch with the Chief Rabbi of Israel and enjoyed a Shabbat meal on the Friday evening with Rabbi David Rosen and his family. We also met with various leaders of the Greek, Syrian and Coptic churches in Jerusalem including the Anglican Bishop of Jerusalem. It was a very full week. Some of us met with Baroness Elizabeth Symons of the Foreign Office in London on March 22nd. Not all the photos have been developed but will hopefully be put up soon.

It was a great honor and particular delight to spend time with Lord and Lady Carey. I felt deprived that I did not get to know them well when I was minister of Westminster Chapel in London and he was Archbishop of Canterbury. But "all's well that ends well' and I have made two delightful friends. It was great to be with Richard Land, an old friend; we did our doctorates at Oxford the same time. I felt a wonderful bonding with Ravi Zacharias and so honored to have him with us for nearly all of our meetings. The other members of this tour have become new friends and I have reason to believe we shall all be together soon, probably in the Middle East.

Seven Days of Stillness

Seven Days of Stillness: A Prayer Focus to Renew Your Spirit"
Date: Sep 2, 2004
Web: http://www.glory-of-zion.org/

Dear Victorious Warriors:

Psalm 46:10-11 is one of the most important scriptures to embrace in the midst of warfare today: "Let be and be still, and know (recognize and understand) that I AM God. I will be exalted among the nations! I will be exalted in the earth! The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our Refuge (our High Tower and Stronghold). Selah [pause, and calmly think of that]!" (AMP) This was a scripture that came burning into my spirit (heart) at the end of July. If you will remember, I sent the following word out to for us to ponder:

"Find your place of STILLNESS for 7 days and the Jericho that seems invincible in front of you will fall, and you will move into the next level of war to unlock the best that I have for you. Yes, I say it is time for you to go into your next war and the enemy would love to hold you in the warfare that you have been in. Be still and watch Me seat you in a place to laugh at the enemies that have been in your path. I am preparing a release of joy for My people. They will laugh at their last failures and blockages. This release of joy from stillness will give you a strength to overtake the enemies that you have been battling."

When the Lord spoke this, I was on the verge of completing two major assignments He had given me. Many of you have walked faithfully with Dutch Sheets and me in prayer, giving and attending the 50 State Tour meetings. I knew that assignment was coming to an end the first week of August. I also knew I was going to Spain for the international worship gathering at Santiago de Compostela, and then visiting the nation of San Marino. This was the last of 64 nations in the 40/70 Window for a recorded prayer team to go into. Therefore, that assignment was coming to completion as well. When God said to find seven days of stillness, I had to get out my calendar to see how He was going to do that in my life. I realized that at the end of my European trip I actually had seven days set aside before I had to begin traveling again.

The Principle of Stillness

When I entered these seven days of stillness, I expected quietness, restoration and peace. But instead I found I was in tremendous warfare. I was contending with something and I wasn't even sure what it was. But then I began to study the principle of stillness. To be still is to keep silence or to be quiet. Psalm 4:4 in the Amplified says, "Be angry [or stand in awe] and sin not; commune with your own hearts upon your beds and be silent (sorry for the things you say in your hearts)." Therefore, I knew it was a heart issue God was dealing with in those seven days. If I would allow Him to quiet and purify my heart from the past season (no matter how good the past season had been) and calm my anxieties over certain circumstances and fears over the future, then I would SEE God. I wanted to be able to hear that still, small voice that is talked about in 1 Kings 19:12, the voice Elijah heard after running from Jezebel. I wanted to feel the anointing beside the still waters. I wanted to sit by the waters until their motion appeared still to me, and I had no fear of the waters overtaking me.

In the mist of all the turmoil around us personally and throughout this nation, the Lord is looking for those who have a contrite spirit. He is looking for those who operate in a spirit of meekness. Meekness is strength under control. People who operate in meekness yield the moment the Lord asks them to make a shift. Meekness is the opposite of stubbornness and hardness. A meek spirit has no idolatry but is filled with worship. The Lord is also looking for those who have a "cool" spirit. Proverbs 17:27 says, "He who has knowledge spares his words, and a man of understanding has a cool spirit" (AMP). When the thoughts of our mind are not in order and aligned with God's mind, our spirit becomes unsettled. The enemy desires to cause us to go astray and lose contact with the Holy Spirit. This is a season for confusion to be removed from our mind and spirit so that we have great authority to advance into our future.

Seven Days of Waiting

The Lord began to show me what He was doing during the seven days, and I do not want you to miss this blessing in your own life. He first took me to 1 Samuel 9-15 to read the life of Saul. I was amazed to find this verse: "Then he waited seven days according to the time set by Samuel. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal and the people were scattered from him." This was in the context of Samuel asking Saul to wait at Gilgal until he got there to sacrifice before they went into war with the Philistines. Saul moved out of his sphere of authority at the end of those seven days, made an illegal sacrifice, and lost the continuation of his kingdom. What this really displayed was that Saul did not have a heart fully after God but was entangled with his own purposes. I knew that I had to begin this seven day time by waiting until I felt the Lord bring me into a new place of worship. I knew that waiting these seven days was very, very important in the heart of God so that we could move forward into our future.

If you remember, at the beginning of the year I wrote an article about doors. September is the transition month during which we begin to prepare to establish ourselves for the future. The word "future" is not used in the original King James Bible. We find the words "expected end". I heard the Lord say that I am attempting to make your latter or "expected end" greater than the former. Wait until you receive a new anointing before you move forward.

Dangerous Emotions and Jericho Stillness

The Lord began to speak to me and gave me two promises to pray for His people. He said, "My people are filled with dangerous emotions. I want to settle their emotions so that their mind will think the same way that I think. Unless they allow Me to deal with their dangerous emotions they will miss many blessings that I have for the future. Many will end up striking the rock as Moses did out of a dangerous emotion instead of speaking to the rock and miss their door of entry for this season. Tell My people to be still."

Then He also began to clarify and refine what He previously shared on stillness: "I am calling for a Jericho stillness. This warfare call is important for the future of My people. If they will come before Me for seven straight days and allow Me to still their hearts and quiet their spirits, that which has been invincible in their past and has kept them from moving into their future will fall before them. Tell MY people to still their hearts before Me."

The Enemy Doesn't want your Spirit Still and Quiet

All of a sudden it dawned on me: it wasn't that we were not to do anything. Rather, this was a type of fast. I began to see this was the fast God had chosen to help us make our transition into the "expected end" that He has for us. It wasn't that we were to do nothing, but we were to capture every thought and emotion that would hinder us from our future. We were to take those thoughts before God, get them upon His altar, and watch Him begin to work in a new way. That is why I was in such warfare! The enemy did not want my spirit still and quiet before God. He knew that I would then enter into the best the Lord has for me.

Below are seven days of study helps and scriptures that will help you still your heart and ready yourself for the expected end that God has for you.

Day 1: Read Psalm 23 and 46. Sit beside the still waters until you feel the new anointing begin.

Day 2: Read Hebrews 11. Let Faith arise. Elevate and establish trust in a new way. Let God show you one of the people of faith that He wants you to model after and understand at this time.

Day 3: Read Leviticus 8. Let God consecrate your heart and life in a new way.

Day 4: Read Ezekiel 3. Receive the prophetic voice of God into your life and allow Him to establish His presence.

Day 5: Read Exodus 12-15. Remove any sin in your life and ready yourself to advance forward QUICKLY.

Day 6: Read Joshua 3-5in the AM , Joshua 6 at noon, and Joshua 7at night. Define your Jericho. Ask God to establish your walk in such a way that you surround your enemy.. Ask Him to develop a new sound in you. Let the shout of the Lord rise up and watch your Jericho fall.

Day 7: Read 1 Samuel 11-13. Cry out for deliverance and tell God you will wait as long as it will takes to see things change and breakthrough come. Ask him to give you a pure heart to see and fully obey Him.

Other wonderful chapters to study regarding seven days include Genesis 50, Exodus 29, Leviticus 23, Judges 14, Isaiah 30, Ezek 43-45, Ezra 6, and Acts 20, 21, and 28. You are no longer to be on an emotional roller coaster ride. God is ready to make the crooked places straight. Steady your feet and prepare for your latter to be greater than your former. I decree that at the end of these seven days your spirit will be renewed. Declare all staleness to be broken from your spirit: stale attitudes, thoughts, teachings, philosophies. Let the Lord bless your spirit with a fresh, new, wind and word. "Bless the Lord O' my soul and ALL that is in me!"

Blessings,
Chuck D. Pierce

Second Visitation

Peter Tan

I have not been able to write the newsletter the past two months because I had a second visitation from the Lord on May 10th 2004. I was in the Spirit from about 7pm on May 9th and did not sleep the whole night. By the time I was coming out of the Spirit and I had looked out the window, it was the morning of May 10th (which was a Sunday) and I had to go to preach in church that morning.

I went to church half drunk in the Spirit and could not stay for the fellowship because I had to get back into the deep presence of God. During the first visitation in January 1986, the Lord Jesus appeared to me and talked to me about the Anointing of the Holy Spirit. During this visitation, He talked to me about the Anointing in the business world. It would probably take me a year or more to understand everything that He talked to me about. I can share some of the things but other things can only be shared in the year 2006, after certain events have taken place.

During the visitation, the Lord showed me His hands and anointed me afresh. I noticed the nail pierced hands and a light coming forth from His hands. Amongst the many things that He talked about, the following stands out this year:

1. There is wave of grace and favour that will come upon God's people.

It is the intention of God to show forth in the church His manifold wisdom not only to the humans on earth but also to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places (Eph 3:8). Inclusive in this wave is the placing of God's people in places of authority and rulership. And also positions of great wealth.

There are many of His people who have wealth and power but they are not using them to establish His kingdom. Their wealth and power will be taken away from them and given to those who will be faithful. And as God raised David to from shepherd to king, so will God raised many of His humble people to positions of authority and power.

2. There will be a quick work of God and some things would seem to happen overnight.

In one day, Joseph was promoted from prisoner to Prime Minister (Gen 41:14, 41). In one day, Babylon fell to the Medes and Persians (Dan 5:30, 31). There is an acceleration of things taking place because the price of waiting has been paid. There are many who have waited on the Lord in their nests and will suddenly rise as eagles into the sky (Isa 40:31).

3. Many that resist the Spirit of God will be judged in the year 2005.

The Spirit will not always keep striving with the flesh (Gen 6:3; Gal 5:16-17). There are many Christians who persecute their own brethren (those who are born again) who seem to get away with it for the past years but they have only this year to get their lips and their hearts and lives cleansed by the fire of God. They have one more year of grace during which the Spirit of God is working repentance in their lives. I saw a vision during this time of two waves that look like diametrically opposing sine waves. One was on an up curve while the other was on a down curve. Both waves intersect this year in the month of May and the differentiation is only going to get more and more extreme as time passes. Those who love God will receive more and more grace and promotion. Those who resist will receive more and more judgment and demotion.

4. The glory of God will be more greatly manifest and more greatly visible among those of His church and His servants.

It is the Will of God that His glory shall be in His temple. God's temple today is His living church where His glory abides (Eph 1:23). There is a danger of over familiarity with God's presence and glory that one does not respect God. However, this is not in the sense of self-righteousness which some people display; rather it is the gentle and meek Spirit which Moses displays (Num 12:1-3). For some, God has allowed them to be persecuted more than others so that the Spirit of glory may rest upon them (1 Pet 4:14). To many of these saints who have suffered much from the scourge of the tongue and physical abuse, be encouraged for God has especially trained you for the last days. To those who have only wanted all to speak well of them, they will be shown as false prophets (Luke 6:26).

There are many other things that the Lord has shown that can only be shared a little at a time. Revelation like vitamins need to be taken in the right doses a little at a time to be beneficial.

Just keep loving the Lord with all your hearts, minds and souls and love everyone who is your neighbour, especially those of the family of God. Guard your heart, your thoughts and your tongue from iniquity. May God grant each of us great grace and mercy.

His Nail Pierced Hands

Peter Tan

During the second visitation of the Lord on May 10th 2004, I did not see His face as I did the first time. Instead, He showed me His hands. The print of the nails was in His palms and there was light coming out from where the print of the nails was. After the visitation I looked up the Bible in John 20:24-19. I realized that many modern scholars assert that the nails has to go through His wrist as it was the only point to carry the weight of His body. However, it is possible that the hands were tied to a rope which carried most of the weight of the body and that the nails were pierced through the palm of His hands.

As in many things historical, I can’t prove or disprove people’s theories and assertions, I can only speak of what I saw in my vision. As long as it does not contradict the written Word of God, I am willing to accept the truth of what I saw in a vision. There were several thoughts that went through my mind after the vision, especially on the reasons why He showed me His nail pierced hands. Although I have always accepted what the Bible said about His nail pierced hands, I did not give much thought, prayer or research into this. With many tears, prayers and study, the following are some of the things the Holy Spirit has helped me to understand on His nail pierced hands.

1. Jesus retained the nail pierced hands to let us know that all things in this life and in the next life are made available to us only through His redemption of the cross. God is able to heal all the physical wounds and loss of physical body parts in the resurrection. Thus when one is physically maimed in this life, in the resurrection (and in the spirit body) one is perfect with all spiritual body perfect lacking no limbs or eyes or ears. Ravages of sicknesses in the physical body or which end in death would all be removed. Accidents or cuts or destruction of the physical body would all be removed in the resurrected body. Why then did Jesus retain the nailed pierced hands? Surely, God is able to restore all the physical body of Jesus in His resurrection and removed every wound and scar. Then I realized that Jesus intentionally retained the print of the nails on His hands in His resurrected body for all eternity. It is a symbol and reminder of all that He has done for us on the cross throughout eternity. Even after spending hundreds of thousands of years in eternity (in earthly measures of time), the print of the nails on His hands will still be as fresh as the day of His resurrection on our behalf. Each time we looked at Him in eternity, we will be reminded perpetually that everything we have is through His atonement on the cross. I wept and cried when I realized that He has chosen not to have the wounds on His hands removed in His resurrected body but to retain it for us to understand the great price He paid for our salvation. O that we would understand that the rest of our existence in eternity is only made possible by the suffering He bored for us on the cross of Calvary! Everything that we have in this life - for our spirit, soul and body - and in the next life in eternity is made possible only through the cross that Jesus took for us.

2. Jesus retained the nail pierced hands to have a reminder for the rest of eternity of how much He loved us. From earth’s point of view, we think we understand how much He loved us. It is only in the light of eternity when we constantly see the reminders of the cross He bored for us that we will have a greater understanding of how much and how greatly He has loved us. Paul declares that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, nor powers, nor things to come nor height nor depth, nor any created thing shall be able to separate us from the love of God (Rom 8:38, 39). He prays that the Ephesian church would be able to comprehend what is the width and length, and depth and height, to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge (Eph. 3:18). In this life, we barely understand how much God really loves us. It will take all of eternity to even begin to comprehend the greatness of the love of God for each of us.

3. Jesus retained the nail pierced hands to let us know that He is as much a part of the redeemed human race as He is a part of the Triune Godhead. In eternity, when we have left our finite mind and physical imperfections of the earth behind, we will then begin to see more of the greatness and the power of our Lord Jesus Christ. He is truly God in all His glory, might and power – creator of the universe and the beginning and the end. It would be so easy in eternity to be reminded of His Godhead. But in His great display of love for the human race, He has chosen to be one of us. He is as much a Son of man as He is Almighty God. Should we ever be held in wonder and gasp at the greatness of His Godhead and power in eternity, we have only to look at His nail pierced hands and know that He has also chosen to be representative of us, the human race – made a little lower than the angels but exalted by His grace and redemption to the highest positions in heaven (Heb. 2:6-8). O the greatness of His love for puny humanity that He should so identify with us. A thousand million songs and praises in eternity would not express His love in exalting the fallen race of Adam to be seated with Him in the heavenly places. Now and through eternity, He is not ashamed to call us His brethren (Heb. 2:11).

In the light of what the Lord spoke to me about the anointing for the business world, the power of the anointing would be dependent on the above three factors:

a. His provision is through His atonement and not just through what we sow (but rather what Jesus sowed for us) (2 Cor 8:9).
b. His blessings will not be because we are strong, mighty or talented but rather because of His love for us (Deut. 4:37, 38).
c. His dominion through us in the power of wealth will be through us reigning with Him (Rom. 5:17).

Two Systems, Two Kingdoms
Peter Tan

There exist today two opposing kingdoms on the earth: one is the kingdom of God and the other is the kingdom of darkness. All the rule and authority of men (and systems of their invention) are under the kingdom of darkness. One day the rule and reign of Jesus will be firmly established on the earth (1 Cor 15:27, 28).

When the Lord spoke to me about His anointing for the business world, He showed me the two contrasting ways in which the two opposing kingdoms worked. To understand this we need to go back to the beginning of creation. There we see that God created man to enjoy all the fruit of His provision. Man was to keep the garden of Eden but it was only when man fell into sin that he has to toil all the rest of his life and eat bread by the sweat of his brow (Gen 3:17-19).

Ever since then, the world system evolved to be independent of God. Today's world system of working 9am to 5pm five days a week and for many individuals even more than these and at odd times, too is not part of the perfect plan of God. While it is clear that laziness should never be condoned as Paul says if a man does not work let him not eat (2 Thess 3:8-12), a large part of toiling has occupied mankind in the daily toil for food, clothing and shelter - which all passes away. And while it once took the one spouse to earn a living, now it takes both spouses to earn a living to bring in sufficient income.

Life is more than food and the body more than raiment (Matt 6:25). Note that the birds of the air neither sow, nor reap, nor gather into barns yet our heavenly Father feeds them (Matt 6:26). Jesus was pointing to a higher dimension of living which is not just for those called to fulltime ministry. His death on the cross was for the redemption of every one of us from the curse of the law (Gal 3:13). It is possible to seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and have everything we need in this life added unto us (Matt 6:33). In the last days, as the world gets darker and God's army has to bear witness to His Word, there will be supernatural provisions for God's people so that they can give all their time to sharing the Word of God and bearing witness to Jesus before the end of this age. Every one who is a part of the army of God will have their provisions provided for.

How does one move from the worldly system of provision to the supernatural provision of God? Jesus outlines the steps in His Sermon on the Mount.

1. Money must not be our God (Matt 6:24). God will test us to see how attach we are to money. If a person cannot even be faithful to the simple laws of tithing and giving, it is doubtful that the person can be free from the god of money. Whatever justification a person uses to hold on to their tithes, all a person succeeds in doing is just keeping or controlling the money for themselves. (Note: we never can give our tithes, we pay our tithes for it never belong to us in the first place – Malachi 3:8-10). In the law of giving, it is God who many times gives us extra to sow and not to keep. God supplies the seed for the sower and bread for food and He supplies and multiply the seed sown (2 Cor 9:10).
2. Trust in the Lord for His provision and rely not on our own carnal works or self-effort but on spiritual works and grace. This includes giving up our own “cleverness” or “wisdom” for all the wisdom of man is as foolishness to God (1 Cor 1:19). Part of trusting in God is being diligent and dependent on spiritual principles for His provision. As the birds of the air have to fly to wherever the Father provides food, so do we have to fly on the wings of prayer to the grace of God’s provision. Trusting in God is not being lazy and simply lying around waiting on God. It involves the hard work of hours of prayer and persistent diligence in the seeking of God. Those who come to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him diligently (Heb 11:6). Many people who claim to be faithful to point one above fail in this area. They do not spend time with God. Notice that Bible people like Joseph and Daniel are diligent in seeking and trusting the Lord and God put all the wealth of the world in their control. Although there is effort and work in seeking God, it is not our works but His working in and through us in prayer and spiritual diligence (Eph 2:10; 1 Cor 15:10).
3. Let the peace of God rule in our hearts and mind. In a short passage from Matthew 6:25-34, we are admonished “not to worry” six times. The cares of this life has the ability to choke God’s word – both spoken and written - out of our lives resulting in an inability to hear God (Luke 8:14). It is very important to develop the ability to hear God, to know where He wants us to be, what He wants us to do in order to tap upon His supernatural provision. Only when our hearts and minds are garrisoned by His supernatural peace can we receive His supernatural provision (Phil 4:6, 7). It is after all, the God of peace who will put Satan under our feet (Rom 16:20).
4. Put God’s kingdom and His righteousness above all else on the earth (Matt 6:33). This includes forsaking all sin and unrighteousness. As the Holy Spirit convicts you of any areas of sin and righteousness, be willing to give them up and allow Him to fill the void in your life with His presence. The seeking of God’s kingdom has to be our ultimate pleasure and goal. This also includes giving up all our self-righteousness and walking in humility before Him. Pride is the greatest of all sin and will lead to your downfall. And pride hides in all manner of subtle ways. Watch what you say and how you are saying it in your relationship to others – is there a hidden pride somewhere deep inside? God opposes the proud and exalts the humble. The meek (not the proud) shall inherit the earth.
5. Rely on the Holy Spirit – His leading and His power. The blessings of Abraham will come to us through the Holy Spirit (Gal 3:14). Every time there is a paradigm shift in the Bible, there has always been God’s supernatural provision for the new move. In the move out of Egypt, God provides Egyptian gold abundantly for the Israelites to build a nation (Gen 15:14). In the establishment of the kingdom of Israel in David and Solomon’s time, there was so much gold that silver was considered worthless (2 Chron 1:15; 9:20). In speaking of the restoration of Israel (which in dual fulfilment applies to the last day church), the Lord promises abundance and the wealth of the Gentiles (Isa 60:5). And it will all be accomplished not by human might, nor by human power but rather by the power of the Holy Spirit (Zech 4:6).

Can you imagine what the last days will be like? Will the believers of God still be toiling away 9am-5pm on their daily jobs up to the very last second before His coming? Will we be like in the days of Noah still marrying and giving in marriage, buying and selling? Or will we be like the army of God, supernaturally provided for and gathered in teams moving to and fro upon the earth proclaiming the great and mighty coming of the Lord?

The Lord has revealed to me His great desire to see this last day army raised and ready for His use for the last days revival. Be faithful to where you are and what you have at present. But enlarge your faith for the supernatural provision of God as the end time draws near. The kingdom of God is at hand!

The Word Of The Lord
Peter Tan

There were many things that God showed me in His recent visitation, many of which I do not understand yet.

1. Ever since His church was empowered on the day of Pentecost, there have been many waves of the move of God. The Lord said that every move has always attracted a counterfeit move by the devil. This is a cause for great concern because we have never really watch out for the counterfeit but have always been carried forward by each move of God. Many times we have always accepted everything that goes on in every move without separating the wheat from the tares. In the Old Testament time of prophets, there were false prophets who challenged them (1 Kings 22). In the New Testament time of the apostles, there were false apostles (2 Cor 11:13). In the Pentecostal move, the Charismatic move, the faith movement, prayer movement, etc. in the past years, there are things that were genuine and there were things that were not both in methods and doctrine. We need to always return to the written Word of God for both the doctrine and the correct methodology.

2. In the last days, the Lord will be sending forth His labourers two by two throughout the world as a final witness before His coming. They will be provided for supernaturally as were those sent two by two throughout the towns in Israel in one final witness before His crucifixion. (Matthew 10; Luke 9). I saw a glimpse of the end times. Many were travelling to and fro proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ. Although no one knows the day or hour, everyone who was in Him seems to know that the time was near. Some were travelling by conventional means while others were carried about by the Spirit like Philip (Acts 8:39). There were very great and mighty signs following the preaching of the Word. At the same time, there was great persecution from some quarters. Those who were travelling to and fro seem to be dedicated to that purpose. They have all given up their day jobs and were consecrated to the task of the preaching the gospel. Some of them were fed supernaturally while others were provided for by those who had abundance. There was no poor or needy among them for those who had abundance was sharing everything they had to get the message of the gospel to the world.

3. There is a separation taking place among those who were of the light from those who are not. There is even a separation from those who were cold from those who are hot. Those who love the Lord and make Him their Lord from those who merely give lip service to Him. Those who have shunned the world and all that is in the world from those who love the world and all the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is NOT in him (1 John 2:15). Although they may not have broken the Ten Commandments, those who love the world and the pleasures and luxury of this world will not be able to bring their call and gifting that God give them through His engrafted Word into fullness (Mark 4:19).

Many of those who have received the good things in this lifetime will be tormented in the next life while those who have been tormented will be comforted (Luke 16:25). God is not against a person being wealthy in this life but He asks that those who are wealthy share with those who are poor. If you have faith to believe God for millions of dollars, don’t spend it on yourself.

Be like Jesus and help the poor and your reward shall be great in heaven. If you are very rich, would you choose to live moderately and humbly? Jesus did! He chose to be born in a manger! A thousand years ago, being like Christ was being married to poverty (St Francis of Assisi). A thousand years since that time, modern Christianity thinks that being like Christ is being very rich. Somewhere in between is the balance. Let’s find it before Jesus comes for His bride the church which He has predestined to be conformed to His image (Rom 8:29).

As we look forward to another new year, let us ask the question, “Have we become more like Christ?”

Some Words From The Lord
Peter Tan

A Word of the Lord for Singapore

The church of city of lions has reach maturity. It is time for the lions to leave their dens and be sent forth. Many have already been sent willingly. But many others will be sent unwillingly. They will be shaken and circumstances shall compel them to move on. The fivefold are being called to go forth by the voice of my Spirit. There are those who hear the call and have obeyed. Those who disobey will become as a dry and stagnant river. It is a time of reckoning - to choose to go left or to go to the right. If they choose right it shall be a time of greatest glory and destiny for the church. If they choose left, it will be a time of difficulty and suffering.

The phases of Singapore
1965 to 1975 - The seed was planted.
1975 to 1985 - The young sapling has grown.
1985 to 1995 - The plant has matured.
1995 to 2005 - The plant has produced fruit.

It has reach a time of destiny and has two roads to choose 2005 to 2015 - The fruit will be spread throughout the world or 2005 to 2015 - A time of great difficulty and many compelled to spread the fruit throughout the world.

My comments:
We have seen the greatest church growth in Singapore from the nineties to the present (2004). No doubt the pastors who have large churches today have been obedient and faithful to their gifts and calling. Hopefully, they will not forget that it is the Lord who has added to the church (Acts 2:47). The largest church in Singapore in the eighties is no longer carrying the banner - others are now carrying the banner in the past ten years. Please be sensitive to the phases of destiny. I, myself, was not obedient to fully obey God to move on and was compelled to move on. {Since I move on in 1997 - the Lord has revealed to me that my personal destiny has various phases: 1976-1986 A period of the Word, 1986-1996 A period of the Spirit, 1996-2006 A period of the Blood (A period of great difficulty & experiencing of the cross of suffering - I was not fully obedient to move on in 1996 but circumstances move me on in 1997), 2006-2016 Another new phase which the Lord has revealed some things of which I have resolved to be more obedient}. Not all who are in the frontline will be commanded to leave the nation of Singapore (During the great persecution in Acts 8:1, the apostles remained behind). There are those of various fivefold ministries that will be called to move on to spread their wings to other nations of the world. My greatest concern for Singapore is that unlike South Korea, there is not a very strong force of constant church corporate prayer that is backing up this recent period of great church growth. Since all growth and revival has its roots in prayer, I believe that this period of growth has ridden on the backs of unknown individuals and small prayer groups here and there who have paid the price of intercession for Singapore (And of course the individual ministers who have paid their own personal price to tap on this period of the grace of God for South-east Asia). May God bring the church in the nation of Singapore to its greatest period yet from 2005 to 2015.

A word of the Lord for Malaysia

Malaysian churches have always been strong in prayer. There have been many prayer movements that God has raised within the nation. The phases of the church in Malaysia have been measured by its Prime Ministers.
Tunku Abdul Rahman 1957-1970 - The first wave of missions and church planting
Tun Abdul Razak 1970-1976 - The second wave of Bible schools and Bible training. Many locals were trained and launched.
Tun Hussein Onn 1976-1981 - The third wave of visitation. Many local spots of revival and visitations.
Tun Dr Mahathir 1981-2003 - A time of church planting, church growth and fivefold development.
Datuk Seri Abdullah 2003-present - Like Singapore, the time has come for sending forth of fivefold throughout the world.

My comments:
Something interesting is happening in South-east Asia. We have three very moderate and friendly leaders of the three nations of Singapore (Brigadier Lee), of Malaysia (Datuk Seri Abdullah) and of Indonesia (Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono) leading these nations into the next phase politically.

A word of the Lord for Indonesia

Like Malaysia, the phases has flowed with the changes in political leadership.
Sukarno 1945-1967 A phase of seeding the gospel in difficult circumstances.
Suharto 1967-1998 A phase of revival and church growth amidst persecution in some areas.
Habibie 1998-1999 A time of great change and turmoil - A call to prayer.
Wahid 1999-2001 A time of intercession and prayer.
Megawati 2001-2004 A time for sending forth of missions to the world. Indonesians ministers reaching Indonesians worldwide.
Yudhoyono 2004-present A time for sending forth of the fivefold ministers. A time of preparation for persecution - the church would have to prepare for times of persecution on the horizon.

My comments:
Indonesia, Malaysia and Singapore have always had their destinies tied together. The church of Indonesia has always faced the greatest difficulty but has had the grace of God's visitation and revival. In the spiritual realm, it is the Christians of Indonesia who have held against the tidal wave of the enemy forces against the church in South-east Asia. If Indonesia falls, Malaysia and Singapore will fall. The three nations are like a three-fold chord. If one weakens, the pressure will be on the other two.

A word of the Lord for USA

In the last 100 years, the church in US has been in the forefront carrying the work of God and pushing the borders of the kingdom of God in US and throughout the world. From the Azusa street revival to the extremes we see in televangelism in the late twentieth century, the American church is typical of the Laodicean church. Its emphasis on money, its method and its justification of this emphasis will be judged. No doubt there are many good people and good ministries who are aware of this wrong and are trying to correct this. While the European church espouses the doctrinal extreme of their view of money after the first millennium of Christianity - St Francis of Assisi (about 1200AD) considered himself married to poverty - the American church has moved to the opposite extreme side of developing doctrinal strains and methodology espousing wealth in the second millennium of Christianity. In spite of all these extremes, God has continued to work with the American church mightily. While many would only see a message of doom for USA, God's grace will still sustain those who are genuinely of the Lord and whose hearts are pure in His sight. However, the church in USA will no longer have the influence and world dominion that it has before. It will be a difficult time for the genuine because they are going to live in the midst of Sodom and Gomorrah. Where sin abounds, grace will even more abound for those who love the Lord living in such difficult times. God will remove the proponents of Laodicean wealth who have a mighty voice in the nation until they are but a whisper. Instead, He will raise on high voices of moderation and purity in the land of the free - the great nation of the USA. For those who seek holiness, their garments will shine bright and visible throughout the world as they seek to raise a standard of light in the darkness that confronts them. We all should be grateful to the American church which through its freedom has been able to experiment (sometimes to the extreme) various methods and doctrinal understanding of which many of us have been blessed. All who have been blessed should not adopt all the methodology and styles of the American church but rather develop their own from their understanding of the Scriptures.

A word of the Lord for United Kingdom

Throughout the 1800s and early 1900s it has been the bulwark of Christianity. United Kingdom will be an important pillar that preserves darkness from completely taking over the European Union in the 21st Century. Although the work of the Anti-Christ cannot be prevented in the future formation of the Revised Roman Empire, the witness of the gospel of Jesus Christ shall be greatly borne throughout Europe by the church of the UK. Many will return to the roots of the great revivals that have swept through UK and Europe in the past centuries and rediscover the fires that never really died. They were like pilot lights holding on until the fresh breeze of God provides the fuel to fan the flame that will give Europe a fresh wave of refreshing. While the American church wrestle with wealth and sins of the flesh, the church in Europe will wrestle with powers of ecclesiastical pride and organization that seeks to stifle all that is spiritual. Once again the intercessors will take their place to stand and wrestle with forces of darkness like the generations of intercessors of a previous generation. Although the determination and permission of God for the anti-Christ government to arise cannot be prevented, the pure and genuine in the faith shall find places of refuge that will constantly challenge the forces of darkness. The church in Europe will have an important linkage to the nation and church in Israel. Its influence there will exceed that of the American church. While the church in USA will be like the pure living in Sodom and Gomorrah, the church in Europe will be like the pure living in Babylon.

A word of the Lord for Australia

Australia was proclaimed the “Southern land of the Holy Spirit” by Pedro Ferdinand de Quiros on the Day of Pentecost, 14th May, 1606. In the year 2006, Australia will complete four hundred years after this proclamation. Like unto the four hundred years of incubation that Abraham and his descendants had before they rose out of Egypt and became a nation (Gen 15:13-14), the church in Australia will arise into their fullness four hundred years after this proclamation. There will be also a going forth with great possessions as Australia takes its place in between the shift of the centre of gravity of world influence from USA to Europe. The Holy Spirit will work in marvellous ways and the word of God will prevail mightily. Working together with the church in Asia, the church in Australia will move forth in sending forth fivefold ministries throughout the world in a great and final wave of revival before the end time finale in the work of God in Europe and Israel.

Seek No Other God

Revelation 13:12-14

There are signs in the heavens
Signs on the earth
Declaring resurrection
New life, new birth
Each season brings change
But there is one sign of great worth
Which yields the fruit of salvation
Bears evidence to His Word
It occurs when God’s Spirit
Moves upon a child’s heart
Declaring this one belongs to Jesus
This one will be set apart.

Oh, the mysteries of heaven
God’s love revealing truths once unknown
Of life, love, resurrection
Gifts from God’s eternal throne.

There are signs that claim man’s attention
That turn him from the living God
Signs of illusion create false perception
Which will not release man from the fall.
Flee from the shadows of deception
Run to the Father’s loving arms
When you direct your passion
Toward the Father of Creation
The day is sure to break
Upon your tired, weary soul.

Seek the kingdom sent from heaven
And righteousness that flows from God’s holy throne
Let your life be a sign to this generation
Let the mystery of God’s love be made known.
Jesus has prepared the way
So you would boldly claim
How wonderful is the living God
Who holds you in His arms and lifts you up
And sets you high upon His mountaintop
Where you partake of the spices of frankincense and myrrh.

> “And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, and deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.”

>
> "If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul."
> Deuteronomy 13:1-3

God's Spirit is a sign to this generation, a living testimony to the power of the resurrection of the Holy Savior, Jesus Christ. The greatest miracle that man will ever encounter is when God's Spirit moves upon his heart in power, taking authority over his thoughts, emotions and desires that were held captive to unbelief. When darkness gives way to light, when a man's world is set in place, turned upright, then will he appreciate and give sincere praise to the longsuffering, patience, and power of the living God.

A child of God, born "not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God" will perceive the leading and direction of the Spirit. Through personal relationship with the Father, he will learn to praise God in all situations, in circumstances that are familiar and comfortable, and circumstances that are unfamiliar and uncomfortable. Having had God's great love shed abroad within his heart, a man will be awakened to the understanding that God uses all things to bring about His good purpose within a man's life.

Through the maturing of faith, a man's spiritual vision is fine tuned so that he gains clear perspective of God's hand of mercy and kindness moving upon his life. Faith is what raises up a standard so that a man is guided perfectly and correctly by the voice of God through all situations. For a season, those called of God may have endured many difficult days, which unexpectedly tested their faith beyond what they would have expected from a merciful and loving God. But men who do not turn back from the battle, who follow after God's Word, knowing it to be the way of escape from out of the darkness, will be enlightened so they gain entrance into a greater realm of understanding relationship between man and God. Their understanding will be enlightened so they are able to perceive clearly that God literally uses all things, for those who love Him, to bring them into a closer, more intimate relationship with Him.

So that a man is a sign and testimony to what he has partaken of, God will be faithful, to train him in the way of righteousness. The Holy Spirit, who sheds God's love abroad within a man's heart, will be a faithful teacher who will train up a man in the ways of God. He will reveal to a man's heart the truth, that God is able to use all things to bring about His good purpose within a man's life. The Comforter, the Holy Spirit, will speak encouragement to help a man hold on to God's Word, no matter what situation he encounters, no matter what conflicting thoughts may be impacting his emotions.

A man's body, which was created to contain God's Holiness, so that he becomes a living temple that houses and is influenced by the Holy Spirit, must be established upon a proper government. A man's body, his earthly temple, will have at one time, in varying degrees of understanding, heralded vain tradition, knowingly and unknowingly subjecting himself to the bondage of men who have not been dealt with by the hand of God. Many will even follow after false and perverse teachings, which bring dishonor to the holiness of God. For the body to be a temple that not only contains the holiness of the Lord, but also pours out the living waters of God's resurrection power upon the lives of others, the temple that houses a man's thoughts and emotions must be set in proper order according to the divine nature of God.

A man's body, when filled with the Holy Spirit, through faith in Jesus Christ, must go through a period of time when all false understandings, desires and emotions are torn down and destroyed. The old building bricks of pride, unbelief, hatred, and perversion of any kind will be torn down as the divine, holy nature of God is steadily and securely raised up within a man's life. The fire that danced upon the altar of man's worship, when man gave himself over to the lusts of the flesh, will be put out, never to burn unwholesome incense again, as the living waters of God's holiness moves in power and strength within his life. A man will never go through his time of restoration, the tearing down and building up, alone. Through the teaching of the Holy Spirit and the testimony of the Word, a man will be upheld so that he gains a greater understanding in the ways of God.

Within the man's temple, raised up according to the power of Jesus Christ, a new altar will be constructed. This will be a holy altar where the sacrifice produces the sweet smelling aroma of frankincense and myrrh, the spices that bring honor to the life and death of Jesus Christ. As the old nature, desires, thoughts and emotions that were formed in the darkness, are subjected to the Spirit and to the Word, they will be destroyed, crucified so that man's identity will no longer be aligned with the realm of unbelief, but within the domain of God's kingdom of mercy, righteousness and truth.

> "Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savor of his knowledge by us in every place. For we are unto God a sweet savor of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish: to the one we are the savor of death unto death; and to the other the savor of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ." 2 Corinthains 2:14-17

"Who is sufficient for these things?" Who is worthy to proclaim to this generation that through Jesus Christ, eternal life, abundant life, will be found and experienced? Who is sufficient? A man who has partaken of Jesus Christ's death and resurrection, having had his thoughts and desires crucified by God's Word and the Holy Spirit, so that he speaks with a sincere heart, the intentions of God. A man, who finds that his identity, nature, desires, and focus in life is aligned with Jesus Christ, will be a man who will be used of God to bring forth life in those ready to enter into resurrection life. His life, having been crucified with Christ, will be used to bring forth the truth of God's purpose for man in the honor and holiness worthy of God's name. He will be used of God to set the captives free from their carnal, self-focused, beastly nature.

The man whose identity is found in Christ, having had "the flesh with its passions and desires" crucified through the revelation of the Word and the Spirit, will place no other gods before the Lord of all creation. As the Spirit and the Word moved in power upon his life, putting to death thoughts and desires aligned with the darkness, all other gods, along with false idols were dissolved. God has become his first love. In God he stands faithfully obedient. To promote an idol or any false god would be contrary to his nature. He will not put the name of Jesus Christ to an open shame by living contrary to the truth that has been revealed to him, through the Word and Spirit of God.

> "Nevertheless man being in honor abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish." Psalm 49:12
> "Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself. He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light. Man that is in honor, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish." Psalm 49:20

A man, whose nature; thoughts, emotions, and desires have not been crucified by the hand of God, is a man who needs to repent of any prideful, self-seeking, self-justifying behavior. Until he understands the need to repent of living life according to the carnal, earthly mentality, he will remain in bondage to sin and the sin nature. A man who claims the name of Jesus Christ, but finds satisfaction walking according to the carnal nature, the earthly, worldly nature, must seek God until He appears in his life in resurrection power. Whosoever seeks Him, will find Him. God will be faithful to reward those who seek Him with all their heart and soul. To those who seek Him, the kingdom assembled according to the plans and purposes of God, will be made available.

A man whose thoughts and emotions have not been crucified by the hand of God, who does not understood the importance of turning away from the carnal, earthly nature, will find it natural to take unto himself the honor that belongs to God alone. Because his desires are still aligned with the darkness, he will find it is easy to walk according to the nature of the prince of darkness, who wears a crown made up of pride and wickedness. Any man who feels comfortable wearing a crown of pride, taking the glory due God alone unto himself, is a man whose heart has already, or will soon, grow cold. A man, whose heart grows cold, is a man whose heart will become hardened to the good purposes of God. A man, whose heart becomes hardened to the goodness of God, will find it is natural to lay claim to the glory that belongs to God alone.

Any man whose heart becomes hardened to the purposes of God, who exalts the idols of self above God, is a man who can be compared to the beasts of the field. Like the beasts of the field, he lives to satisfy his own selfish desires and needs. He feels no need to give honor unto the Lord of all creation, because self has become the god that he exalts and worships in his life. The Holy Spirit, that is sent to crucify man’s desires and to lead man into the realm of God’s holy kingdom of light, is of no value or importance to a man who exalts self as a god over his life.

A man, whose nature is earthly, carnal, who determines in his heart that self is the god that he will worship and give all praise unto, will find satisfaction in others also giving praise and honor unto his name. He does not consider the truth that, while he may receive honor and glory while alive, upon his physical death he will not be welcomed into God’s eternal kingdom of light and glory. All honor, glory, or wealth he may have received while alive, will not redeem his soul from the grave. If the seed of God’s Word has produced no resurrection life at all within a man’s human vessel, then he will find that his eternal home is in the grave of darkness, where “death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning.”

> “For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.” 2 Corinthians 11:13-15

God uses all things to test and mature children in the ways of Jesus Christ. For God to allow false apostles and deceitful workers to walk among those seeking purpose according to Jesus Christ, means He is able to use even the wickedness of men to accomplish His plan in children’s lives. God is able to use even deceitful men to reveal the heart and mind of those who claim they desire a close personal relationship with Jesus Christ. The desires of a man’s heart will be made known by the things he cherishes and reverences. If he seeks after signs and wonders, so that the desires of the flesh are exalted and not crucified, then God is able to reveal to this man’s heart that he is being led astray from the purposes of Jesus Christ.

God desires man to worship Him above all other gods. He desires man to appreciate the value of holiness, righteousness, and the simplicity that is found in knowing Jesus Christ. If a false apostle can easily turn a man’s eyes away from the living God, so that he worships deceiving gods that cater to a self-focused, earthly nature, then this man must seek God for understanding. He must seek God to help him walk the narrow path that leads to righteousness. If any man, a false apostle, or teacher, or counselor is able to turn a man towards other gods that cater to the lusts of the flesh, then he must assess his relationship with God, before he too is led astray.

> “And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, and deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the best; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.” Revelation 13:12-14

The beast who rises up from the earth includes all men who profess the name of Jesus Christ, but whose thoughts and nature are earthly, carnal. They are those who desire to be lord over their lives and the lives of others, deciding and dictating what is truth and worthy of pursuit. They have not experienced the sanctifying, purifying power of the Holy Spirit, and have no desire to do so. Though they are able to perform miracles in the sight of men, the miracles are not used to give glory to God, but instead are used to deceive men into worshipping idols. They are false witnesses to the purposes of Jesus Christ. The miracles they perform in the sight of men are used to stimulate the desires and lusts of the flesh, which is contrary to the plans and purposes that God has prepared for His children.

The beast who rises from the earth, those whose thoughts and desires are aligned with the carnal, earthly nature, find it natural to pay honor and tribute to the beast who rises up from the sea of mankind's unrepentant, un-dealt with emotions. The beast who rises up from the sea represents those who proclaim that relationship with God is found by looking to the law. They look to an outward appearance of sanctification, where they obey rules and traditions, but their hearts are not conformed to the desires of God, to the image that Jesus Christ exhibited.

They forsake the witness of Jesus Christ, which testifies that through faith in Him, man will walk with God in the kingdom of Light, in resurrection power, which is found when walking with the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit who, when moving upon a man's thoughts and emotions in holiness and truth, will bring about a change of heart, an inner sanctification, so that the outward body is changed according to the new nature, the new heart that gives all praise unto God.

Those, who follow the nature of the beast who rises from the sea, blaspheme the Holy Spirit by denying His power and authority. They are those who do not understand the purpose of the Holy Spirit, and so continue to resurrect the law to a position of authority and power over their lives. They do not understand that it is through grace that man is welcomed into God's kingdom of holiness. They do not understand that it is through faith that they will receive their inheritance, the Holy Spirit, which seals them unto salvation.

Not realizing that they distort the message of what Jesus Christ accomplished through His death and resurrection, those who live according to the mandates of the beast who rises up from the sea, continue to think that by making the outside of their vessels clean, they are living in right standing with God and men. According to their understanding, to live in subjection to rules, traditions of men and laws, is to live in agreement with God's purpose for mankind. But though the outside of the cup, their vessels, may appear to be clean; inside their emotions and thoughts have not been transformed by the sanctifying presence of the Holy Spirit. They continue to live as subjects in bondage to sin and the sin nature, suffering for unrighteousness sake.

> "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things." Romans 1:20-23

All of creation declares the handiwork of the Lord. To those who have eyes to understand the goodness of God, they will be faithful to give Him all glory for what He alone has created. They will not profane His holy name, by seeking to take the glory that belongs to God unto themselves. But for those who have not, as yet, partaken of the heavenly nature of God's Holy Spirit, who have not been sanctified so that they live wholly unto God, they do not understand that they continue to walk in the vanity of their own imaginations. And that to be led according to their own self-righteous ideas and opinions will cause them to pervert the message of Jesus Christ.

To fashion idols, images that cause man's heart to give glory to man, does not seem to be a serious offence to those who do not understand the holiness of the Lord. Those in submission to the beast's earthly mentality do not understand that to give place to idols is to allow a root of perversion to gain a foothold within their lives. God desires to severe all untruths that would hinder a man's growth in his knowledge of Him; but the beast, the carnal, earthly nature that seeks nourishment in the waters of self-focused existence, continues to dictate the thoughts of a man, seeking his own existence apart from God's call to holiness.

The Lord is able to use all things to test the intentions of a man's heart. To reveal a man's heart, God allows situations to occur, so that all that is not of Him is brought out into the Light. When a man is tested, and he perceives and understands the depravity that his own thoughts and actions are still entangled to, God asks him not to hide away, but to come out into the open. When God calls out, do not turn away, but come near to the Father, and all that is revealed as refuge in life, lay upon the altar of sacrifice. God asks His children to lay their burdens down, and to allow Him to consume all that is not of Him. God is able to refine His children so that they walk as living epistles who exhibit the glory and goodness of the Lord.

> "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits, do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them." Matthew 7:15-20

Self-Discipline

Mary Clark

12/23/05
(A Prophetic Exhortation)
I want to talk to My children about self-discipline. I want you to know that it is a good thing to apply your self control. It is a good thing to tell yourself “no” about certain things. I want you to know that I practiced self discipline when I walked the earth. I practiced it many, many times, and I believe that I conquered many things that tried to get a toehold on My heart. Yes, I tell you that self discipline is GOOD – very good!

But let Me tell you something that is not good: What happens when you fail to follow the edicts of your mind? What happens when you fail to say “no” to yourself? Do you simply say, “Lord, I am sorry that I did not practice self-discipline on this occasion?” Or do you beat yourself up with words of derision and disgust? What do you do?

I will tell you what I would have you do when you fail in your endeavor to practice self discipline: I would have you recognize what you did, ask My forgiveness, and then go on from there, not looking back. I would have you speed away from the thought processes that follow an act of lack in self discipline, not looking back, but moving forward, looking ahead to what your Beloved has planned for you.

I am not a God Who delights in seeing His dear children beating themselves over the head with words of hate and ridicule. I don’t use them against you, so don’t you use them against yourself!

Now! That is what I wanted to say about this thing called self-discipline. That is all that I am going to say on this subject tonight, but I want you to know, beloved: I take delight in you – much delight, and I want you to take delight in the work that I am doing in you. One day you are going to realize that the thing that was plaguing you is gone – all gone, and for that who will you have to thank? You will have Me to thank. That is Who. So thank Me now for what I am doing in your life, and rely on Me to move you to those greener pastures of delight for which you crave. I said that I would do it, didn’t I? Then trust Me to perform My expertise in your life. Trust Me, beloved, to take you to those green pastures where you will feed on the lushness of My word and drink from My refreshing stream of delight. That is what I have planned for you. That is where I am taking you.

So don’t beat yourself up when you fail. Simply say, “Father, I failed again in this endeavor, but I thank You that you are moving me out of this place of failure and into a place of success. Thank You, dear Lord, for removing that thing that besets Me and giving Me a new freedom to express My heart to you as I go about your work – your wonderful work – here on earth, of speaking your truth. You are my God, and I trust Your deliverance for me in the only way that You deliver it – totally, completely, and without a single hitch. Thank You, dear Father, for that knowledge, and thank You for working Your wondrous will in me!!!”

That is it, beloved. That is what I wanted to say on this subject of self discipline. Look forward to seeing My will manifest in your life and know the perfect peace that lies therein. I am your God. I love you, and I take much delight in you. I want you to know that one who follows My lead is never disappointed. One who follows My lead reaches his destiny, and that one I am certainly proud to call My very own. That is the gist of My feelings on this subject, dear child. Now, I want you to be free, for the one the Son sets free is free indeed, and that, beloved, is YOU!!!

Separation – A Sign Of The Times!

July 17th, 2004

There are significant physical signs happening in the earth today. Are these events truly signs or simply part of the global landscape? If one is susceptible to the belief that certain happenings in the earth are indeed a part of Biblical prophecy, then likely what is written here will prick some level of spiritual conscience. If not, this will appear as more mumbo jumbo from the often-weird prophetic community.

In looking at the New Testament prophet, ONLY those issues pertaining to the foundation of the Church have prophetic relevance, simply because those with prophetic inclination have little authority to speak to anything else (Ephesians 2:20). To that end, any entity formed for God's work that is not connected to the prophetic ministry will end up under the foot of man. I make no apologies for the previous statement, as it is my deepest conviction of order and truth!

If these signs mean anything, and I think they do, what are the significances of certain current events with respect to the times in which we live, particularly as it relates to the Church? God chose the times and places in which we live (Acts 17:26), and He made us spiritual beings with spiritual understanding; so like the sons of Issachar who understood the times, we too should pray to understand the events of our day.

Let us examine one such event in context to what Jesus called the "End of the Age." As we examine this event, let us be careful that our traditional thoughts not block God's ability to speak. Let us search the word that it may plow the hard ground of our hearts with prophetic truth. When 'truth' faces opposition, man's traditional thinking is not far behind. "The traditions of men make the word of God to no effect" (Matthew 15:6).

What must we embrace to fight our own inbred traditions? The answer is simple - an openness and willingness to take another view! Anything growing will change; it is both a natural and spiritual phenomenon, so let us be willing to embrace a changing mindset in our view toward what is happening in the Church right now, particularly with respect to the fact that all judgment has BEGUN in the house of the Lord (I Peter 4:17) – Past tense! We can escape judgment when we hear and embrace truth.

God's word says there will be a great separation among His people at the "End of the Age." I know this contradicts the traditional thoughts of many, but let us examine the word of God for truth. There has always been a remnant (Romans 11:5), a people set apart, but as we approach the time of Jesus' return this remnant "will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father" (Matthew 13:43). They will be a light to a dark world as they walk in the Kingdom of their Father upon this earth. This set apart remnant is the real church, the ecclesia, which means "called out ones" or the literal words, "out called ones." All who carry the seed of God have been "called out" of something as we are all being "called out" of various states of Babylon in our lives, but do we all take that deeper step into God's Kingdom?

The remnant, by grace and choice, is beginning to gather as a separate entity or group apart from what we corporately call the Church. This gathering is not in big buildings, denominations, or even large groups, but gathering as Sons (and Daughters) of God, who in unity, are hearing God say the same thing. This gathering is not nearly as much physical as it is spiritual, yet it is definitely set apart in the eyes of God.

When people begin to spiritually think alike, have singleness of purpose and alignment, it matters NOT whether they are physically gathered, but from a spiritual perspective they are united in God's sight. Let us not attach our human tendency to 'group' only what we can see with our naked eye, for in the eyes of the Spirit a great worldwide gathering is now taking place.

While there is obviously a separation between the saved and unsaved, let us further examine a different perspective as we also see yet another separation between God's people, particularly between the spirit filled and the spirit led. Separation within the Church is nothing new, for during much of the last 30 years we have seen a great move of Pentecost as the Spirit-filled separated from the non-Spirit filled. Many left main line denominations for the sanctuary of Spirit-filled churches, and it was in these environs that we cut our teeth on the gifts of the Spirit, Word of Faith teaching, laying on of hands, healing, etc., but now, for many there is a deeper stirring of the Spirit and a yearning for much more. Many are no longer satisfied with the simple wonders of Pentecost, initially thinking something must be wrong with them, only to find that they are in much company. This company cries out, "I want more and this is not cutting it!"

This is due in part to the fact that the Church today, for the most part, has reached a Laodicean like state of contentment in being spirit filled. Many have stopped their journey with God in being satisfied with simply being spirit filled. This is called "being stuck in Pentecost." Some are content, some are not.

This false state of contentment can present more of a hindrance to our journey into destiny than the devil himself. We will never find true Sonship in this state (Romans 8:14), nor will we attain the full purpose of our destiny. "Those that are led by the Spirit of God ARE the Sons of God." Recognize the correlation between a true "Son," and being led of God's Spirit. Recognize the vast difference between being Spirit filled and being Spirit led. Spirit led means intimacy with God, time with God, communication with God, direction and purpose with God – DESTINY!

Here is where the rubber meets the road. WE HAVE A CHOICE! We can go deeper, or we can remain the same - spiritual stagnancy being the greatest alarm or barometer in man's inventory of spiritual self-analysis. We know who we are and we know who we aren't – spiritual stagnancy or lack thereof is our indicator! Are we stagnant or are we moving forward?

Do we have a choice? Absolutely! "As many as received Him, to them gave He the power to become sons of God." We are given the power to become sons, but are we using it? THE POWER IS CHOICE, which ushers in the grace. Once we have heard 'truth' we then become accountable to our choices. Choice reveals humility, and humility draws the grace of God like nothing else. Our choices dictate the path we take (Deuteronomy 30:19). While I cannot argue that our lives ARE predestined for His purpose and plan, choice plays an important role in getting there. God orders our steps, but do we always take them? These 'called out ones' "will be without spot or wrinkle," who chose to go deeper with God.

Those who tend to over emphasize grace in this process are slow to grasp the importance of 'choice.' They tend to teach that it is all by grace, and to some extent that is true; the importance of grace can never be diminished, but grace generally follows decision, not the other way around. We have constantly been given a choice, even from the beginning of our salvation, when we chose to say "yes" to His invitation (John 15:16). As we seek to go deeper into the things of God, we will continually have to say "yes Lord." We must, however, for discussion purposes, be careful to balance the scales between 'grace' and 'choice,' as one teeters on man having no responsibility in destiny's equation, the other teetering on 'works.' Only the Spirit can reveal this balance to us an individuals.

In conclusion to our brief discussion on grace we know all are called to true Sonship (being led of the Spirit), BUT ONLY A FEW WILL WALK IN IT (Matthew 7:13/Matthew 22:14). Yes, it is by grace that the invitation is given, but yes again, we must accept the invitation – it is a matter of choice! The acceptance or 'choice' is the divider between the "few" and the "many."

As a sign of "The end of the Age" we are beginning to see a prophetic separation among God's people (Matthew 13:24-30/37-43 - Matthew 25:1-12). It is interesting to note in these scriptures that those with the "oil," symbolic of Spiritual anointing, are separated from those without the oil. It is also interesting to note in Matthew 13 the words "out of his kingdom" in verse 41, which gives us a clear indication of a SPECIFIC SEPARATION within the ranks of God's people. There are many other scriptures that reveal Jesus' prophetic words relative to this phenomenon and its relative place in time, but for sake of brevity I chose to leave them out. Please do not conclude from this writing that I am advocating a division, or even saying that those on the other side of the 'remnant divide' will not see heaven. I am simply relating an event in time that signifies the times in which we are living. Judge this word.

We are presently experiencing what many are calling a mass exodus from the Institutional Church. This phenomenon is happening worldwide, and what was at first a trickle, is now an identifiable flow as significant numbers are now "coming out." Why is this exodus-taking place? What motivates it? And why is it happening now? These questions address a move of God that can no longer be deemed insignificant; not simply because of the numbers of persons leaving the Institutional Church, but of greater importance, the level of spiritual maturity in those leaving. It has become increasingly difficult for the spiritually mature to be led by the spiritually immature. Those who have never experienced true Sonship are placed in positions of being Spiritual Fathers when they themselves have never learned to be Sons (being led of the Spirit of God) – this is causing chaos and disorder, which will only increase with time.

As the separation continues, there is also a gathering as remnant saints begin to connect worldwide. What is the purpose of this separation you may ask? God has always had a remnant as an ensemble or example for the rest of the Body of Christ, and just as God has used individuals as examples in our lives, now is the time for A CORPORATE EXAMPLE for the corporate body. God is moving a remnant (Joshua/Caleb Company) into the Feast of Tabernacles, the Holy of Holies, whose purpose will be to lead those still living in Pentecost, the Holy Place, religious Babylon into the promises of God; but first they must have the goods to bring back as proof. God's favor, coupled with an abiding spiritual anointing, will provide this proof (Matthew 13:11,12).

As we lose our traditional mind-sets and allow God's Spirit to direct us, we will first be separated then joined to those we are called to be joined to. We must recognize God's Spirit as we are drawn away from some, and to others. The true ecclesia is answering the Revelation 18:4 mandate, "Come out of her…". As earlier stated, the separation now taking place is a sign of "the end of the age" (Matthew 13:39).

If separation is a sign, what exactly are we commanded to come out of? Obviously, the answer is Babylon, but what is Babylon? What is the distinguishing characteristic between those in Babylon and those who have come out? The great difference lay in the fact that one group continues to use intellect, logic, and reason, while the other has learned to hear God and obey. One partakes of the fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, confusing good works with God; the other eats from the tree of life in which there is a free flow of communication between man and God. One has great confidence in his ability, while the other has none (John 5:30). One pursues good works that garner the praise of men; the other does the will of the Father (Matthew 7:21). One works for personal gain, the other for the glory of God. One builds with bricks and mortar, the other builds living stones.

When Jesus said, "I will build my church," he had something very different in mind from man's traditional mindset of bricks and mortar, organization, structure, denominationalism. He was speaking of building a people into Christ to be the habitation of God by the Spirit! "I will build my church" speaks of bringing forth spiritual maturity in the sons of God! The Body of Christ is "built up" by spiritual growth, not by adding more numbers to our membership roles. Oh how our traditional mindset misdirects God's real plan in our lives.

A few years ago, in an attempt to awaken me from the slumber caused by my own traditions, the Lord said to me, "Ignorance often comes disguised as tradition." These profound words continue to reveal the spiritual ignorance caused by my own traditional preconceived mindset. In short, our traditions are often our enemy in escaping the world's system (Babylon), and hence, graduating into the ways of the Kingdom. In order to gain the Kingdom's Way in our lives we must forego the ways of the world. In modern parlance, "we need to think out of the box." While there are a litany of contrast between the ways of the world and the Kingdom's Way, there is but one central focus, one simple step that will cause us to "come out of her" (Babylon) and settle ourselves into kingdom life.

While we will all acknowledge that we are "called out," to be a separated people, and that we are to be separated people from the ways of the world, we have lacked understanding of the SINGLE MOST IMPORTANT STEP that separates us from the ways of men and places us into the ways of God. The answer, as always with the gospel, is simple – transformation from being spirit-filled to being spirit-led. Only "Sons" walk in the Kingdom, and no one is called "Son" lest the Spirit lead him. "Those that are led by the Spirit of God ARE the sons of God" (Romans 8:14).

Many of us considered 'escaping Babylon' when we came out of a dark world into the Kingdom of light through our salvation, and to some extent we did. Still others of us have thought of escaping Babylon in leaving organizations and Institutional Churches; but what I submit to you here is the final and most critical step in coming out of Babylon - Complete submission to the Holy Spirit. What we are truly called to 'come out of ' is ourselves – self-rule, selfishness, self inspired motives, intellectually based reasoning and logic, fear of man, etc., What we are called to separate from IS the inner nature of man, as God desires to separate soul from Spirit (Hebrews 4:12).

We must continually say, "yes" to God to continually go deeper in God, and flesh must die. We erroneously have thought that in leaving certain places, certain people, and certain practices that we had left Babylon far behind, but the fact is, Babylon remains as long as we sit upon the throne of our own heart. The most dangerous obstacle in me doing the will of God IS ME! My ways, my thoughts, my patterns, my ideas, my preconceived notions all translate to my traditions; and the word is clear, "The traditions of men block God's ability to speak to man."

If we are not hearing God as we should, perhaps the walls of our traditions are too thick for His voice to penetrate. Perhaps a Jerico march would launch us into the promises of God – "The foolish things of this world always confound the wise." Ai – man doing his own thing, explains the powerlessness of the church today and perhaps our own powerlessness.

To put it in simple terms, how can we have faith for something we have NOT HEARD GOD SAY? Faith can only come from having heard God; anything that is not faith is sin. How can we justify 'our goodness' and great works apart from having heard God. That is why the Bible tells us that our works for God, apart from having heard God, is sin (Matthew 7:21-23). This rankles the religious establishment, but let us digest the prophetic words of Jesus –

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord, will enter the Kingdom of heaven, BUT ONLY HE WHO DOES THE WILL OF MY FATHER who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, "Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles? 'Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you, away from me, you evildoers!"

Many are going to be shocked "on that day" when called "evildoers." Out great buildings, T.V. ministries, programs, popularity, etc., apart from God's specific instruction to us is PRESUMPTION, and presumption is the lowest form of human knowledge and evil in the eyes of God. We are living in a time in which the very elect would be deceived were it possible (Matthew 24:24). What is being separated now is carnal Christianity (man doing his thing) from spiritual Christianity

("BUT ONLY HE WHO DOES THE WILL OF MY FATHER").

The prophetic community is shouting it from the housetops – "There is a choice, you can go deeper with God and avoid the sins and plagues of Babylon" (Revelation 18:4).

Recognize the times in which we are living as we continue day by day to draw to the "End of the Age." Let us not be caught, like the foolish virgins, with no oil in our lamps. There is time to cry out to God for His presence, His communion, His grace, His mercy, His Spirit…to become a true SON of the most High God, led of His Spirit, walking within the boundaries of His assigned parameters in our lives; our destiny. RECOGNIZE THE TIMES!

Blessings to ALL in the Name of our Lord JESUS CHRIST!

I see my pen (keyboard) as a spear. Unless I use it to share what God has been showing me, I can't move forward.

At the end of January and into the first of February, God had me meditating on the word divide. He divided the darkness from light, the waters from the waters, the land from the waters. He divides the cell to create a person. Divide to create; it is more like multiplication in His kingdom. He divided the land up for the tribes. One of the definitions of this word is to share. and on and on and on and on...

February 2, I received Chuck Pierce's message titled New Doors in 2004. http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Rivermail_list/message/7720 God had him look at #4. He says, Four marks division. Four is the first number that can be evenly divided by a number other than one or itself. Therefore, this will be a year that we see division in order to bring about a completeness of God's purposes.

February 6, I received Ron McGatlin's (openheaven.com) message entitled Entering the critical mass stage. http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Rivermail_list/message/7736 The Lord told him we were entering the critical mass stage. Critical mass is the amount given fissionable material necessary to sustain a chain reaction or the amount necessary or sufficient to have a significant effect or to achieve a result. Fissionable means the act of cleaving apart or splitting into parts (DIVIDE).

Ron goes on to say that there is a time of fissionable material being poured into a mix causing division or separation until a massive chain reaction begins and is accompanied by a release of energy.

On February 13, I asked the Lord how I can fulfill the plan He has for me today. He said, Walk in loneliness.

This seemed out of the character that I thought was His. But He wasn't talking of a physical place necessarily, but of a spiritual place. I then asked Him if He has a scripture for me to back this up. He said, Roget's Thesaurus. How funny, I never used the thesaurus in my quiet time.

What I found has impacted my life profoundly and I hope I can share this with you for the tasting... :)

The title for loneliness was, 89. UNITY (state of being one). Unity is one of my favorite words. Jesus' prayer for us was to one with the Father and HIM and one with each other. UNITY is HIS heart and my GOAL! The power and presence of God engulfed me like a flood as I entered into this loneliness with HIM. I never understood we could get unity when we were divided... alone!

The words to follow in the thesaurus are: aloneness, loneness, loneliness; privacy, solitariness, solitude; separateness, aloofness, detachment, seclusion, sequestration, withdrawal; alienation, standing or moving or keeping apart, isolation, ... etc.

I realized I had always hated this aloneness feeling. Solitary confinement was never my idea of pleasure. Even though I take my share of alone time with God and know that is where HE is, I haven't truly rested in this place. This is the place were HE IS!

We can take this place with us where ever we go, who ever we are with. As I studied each of these words I found He was giving me the perfect plan for abiding in Him.

Most of us know to be aloof is wrong... right? Well the root of this word is luff - it means to face the wind. What's up with that? How does that correlate to aloneness? To face the wind may scatter us, separate us... blow away the chaff. The wind is the Holy Spirit, Jesus' Spirit. When His wind blows we may find ourself alone... with no sin warring in our members, no distraction, no needs other than HIM.

When we are separate unto HIM in a spiritual sense, only then can we come into unity with each other. SOME of us need more closet time.... most of us need more closet time in order to get to this place. I believe that is what the LORD is saying for this time.

His Spirit is wooing us deeper and closer to Him. Taking away the fear of loneliness and presenting it to us as the place to be...

From the list above, Sequestration - the root of this is - sequent, which means to follow. Consequent.

In this place of solitude in HIM, we will follow HIM. The root of solitude is sole - base, ground, bottom. The foundation of our walk in HIM, is in this place of solitude.

Truly knowing Him in this way will bring about the result of energy that will cause the chain reaction of HIS Glory to be seen in the earth!!!!!

I hope this blesses you.

I love you and may the LORD keep you in unity with HIM and each other.

Servant Leadership

Servant Leadership And A Burden For The Nations
(celebratetrumpet@juno.com)

Prophetic Word Through Greg:
My people I am drawing you closer to Me with a fresh zeal to serve Me. The harvest fields are white with the harvest of souls, and truly it is plentiful, but the labourers are few. Many of you have backed down when I have called you to be 'fishers of men' because of what I would require of you. Many cower away at the thought of decreasing as I increase in your lives.

Beloved, for those of you desiring to be in ministry; are you willing to pay the price to be anointed vessels that I work through?

Many jump at the idea of a missions trip, yet are you willing to intercede for these nations?

Even so, do you not see your own nation in turmoil and sin, with the enemy having an upper hand?

Yes, I will send labourers into the field, but I am sending out those I have prepared in the wilderness, those that have abandoned themselves to My work, the work of the Spirit changing them and forming within them godly character.

My people ask for the nations. As My Spirit is moving to restore that which was stolen and to rally peoples from every tongue, tribe and nation to gather before Me, I am looking for those who will stand in the gap, those who will agree and call those things that were not as thought they were.

I am calling for My children to place themselves on My altar and give their all to Me. This indeed is true worship.

Prophetic Word Through Abby:
Come just as you are, and place yourself in My hands and know that I, the Alpha and the Omega, have all under My control and I know what I Am doing. Only I know the many tears you have shed and the heartache you have endured.

Aye, but through every ordeal and hoop, I saw you through. Through the trials you have endured I have taught you thanksgiving and trust.

Beloved, it is not how you "look" before man that matters, but that My anointing and power is evident in you, and how else except you be tried and tested and stripped of YOU as My character is forged in you.

When you are ready I shall release you into areas of service. You shall serve your brethren in power and mercy and the glory of the Lord shall be seen by all through you.

Many of you whom I have anointed to be leaders need to understand servanthood. For you cannot lead unless you serve.

Humbleness is not a weakness but a pure strength that submits to one another in love. Serve and love one another even as I did on the earth and have done for you, and watch as your wall of unity shuns the enemy and places him under your feet.

Be renewed in your mind with My word as you are washed with the pure doctrine of what I have spoken through the ages. Be ye not unwise, but understanding what My will is.

My will is to bless you and to give you abundant life. My will is to correct you when wrong and teach you wisdom and understanding. Is there anything I cannot do for you?

If not, then come. And I will fill you to the overflowing with a double portion of My Spirit.

Come, and I will give you rest as you rest in My presence and be refreshed.

Come, My people, simply come.
Blessings to you in Him,
Greg and Abby Myers

Year 2004 - Severity

Those that call themselves Christians and don't obey Me are soon going to be thrown into the fire for the purpose of bringing them to repentance, to become the chosen of the Lord (Isa. 48:10). How can you obey My Word if you don't read it? If you love Me you will obey Me. You do NOT love Me because you do not obey Me. Why is that so? Ah, but you know not My Word.

The time will soon be that My disciples will once again shake the dust from their feet against you/cities that refuse their message of warnings and repentance, bringing a curse upon yourselves/cities. My people perish for lack of knowledge because when I sent My sons/daughters unto you to bring My correction and knowledge, you rejected them. Know ye not what a dangerous thing this is that you have done? I shall also reject you sayeth My Word (Hosea 4:6). There are those of you who aren't even offended by the ones that don't obey My scriptures. You are even yoked with them, but My scriptures say not to be unequally yoked; no, not to even eat with such a one that calls themselves brethren and are fornicators, covetous, idolators, railers, drunkards, extortioners (I Cor. 5:11; 6:14-18). How can I be a Father unto you? Ah, but you know not My Word. A little leaven leavens the whole lump. No more time to mince words â€“ now the boldness of the Holy Spirit will come forth out of the mouths of My sons and daughters of the Most High. (See study In His Image.) They will say it like it is, whether it is received or rejected, they shall speak. Even though you would try to hold back the rebuke of My Word, it will come forth as living waters from your inner most being. A sword cutting asunder the works of the flesh; exposing the works of darkness. Yes, the spirit of prophecy is subject to the prophet, but this is a work of the flooding of waters that will flow easily out of those prepared vessels; a living stream to bring forth repentance and a sword of judgment for those that won't repent. Those that have been in My refining fires, those that have been alone with Me in the wilderness, those that have been in preparation chambers of the prisons, those are the ones that I will bring forth as My sword.

Wives don't honor their husbands (see study Wives); husbands abuse their wives; the lifestyle of lesbians and gays don't offend you (Rom.1:23-32; Lev. 18:22), you even yoke yourselves with them, not caring for their lost souls, bringing them to repentance and deliverance; there is nothing gay about this lifestyle, sodomites they are called; idolatry is rampant among those that call themselves Mine (see study Idolatry) and because of these idols you will not win your battles against the dark ones in this coming evil day; you are not grounded in My Word (working out your salvation with fear and trembling; forming a solid foundation); some live in fornication (I Cor. 5:1-13; Gal. 5:19), you will not inherit My kingdom. Some are unclean, for they wash not themselves in My Word; defiled they are to Me. They have polluted My house, of which your body is (I Cor. 6:19). Have I not commanded that you must not make provision for the flesh (Rom. 13:14)? Then why do you live in the flesh and not the Spirit? The traits of the flesh are written within My scriptures. Ah, but you know not My Word. Severity, severity to those that live by the dictates of the flesh. I beseech thee, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. (Rom. 12:1)

Your symbolisms of Christianity are offensive to Me. YOU are to be the symbol that represents Me, the light in the midst of darkness, drawing the predestined ones (Eph. 1:5,11; Rom. 8:29,30) to Me. Where do I tell you to wear or display symbols? Ah, but you know not My Word or you would not display such a thing. You need no more symbolisms. You will know My disciples by their love/fruit, not by their symbolisms.

A year of severity for those that do not obey Me; individually and as a nation. A further dividing line will be implemented, heed My Spirit as He directs further separations, grace has been extended for a season. Now will be chastisement, for My love for you is great and I chastise those I love. There is no time to waste. You are to pray and help some through these fires but some you are not to pray for (Jere. 7:16), for they have hardened their hearts against Me. They shall be left to My discretion.

(January 1, 2004) As you see your city (Phoenix) covered with dark clouds on this, the first day of your new year, so shall it be for the coming date I have selected to shake your nation to its roots. Even those of darkness will be shocked at this demonstration that comes from My kingdom. Shaken you surely shall be! I am going to take this nation in My hands and I'm going to shake it so much that even the realms of darkness will be surprised. They think they are in charge. Ha. I'm going to demonstrate My powers. Hang on, you're in for a ride. From top to bottom, from side to side, you shall soon see My hand of shaking upon your defiled nation, but I will keep at perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Me (Isa. 26:3).

Those that are faithful to Me shall finally see the other side - the long awaited promised land - establishing My kingdom amongst the darkness of the earth. Many challenges await My family, blessings on one hand, challenges on the other. Remember My promise to see you through. No more time to waste. I'll soon bring forth demonstrations of power and strength. Gird yourselves up, make preparations for that day. Do not hesitate. No time for party and play.

Spiritual Fruitfulness

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

Recently the Lord was speaking to me on fruitfulness. I had been barren for so long and he was trying to make me fruitful. Oh glory to God I am fruitful.

He drew my attention to 2 Peter 1: 5 - 8 and made me know that the keys to spiritual fruitfulness is diligence, faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, kindness and charity.

These are the 9 things we have to have in our lives to make us fruitful. God says its a year of fruitfulness. Its also a year of faithfulness. As you give diligence to what God has placed in your hands then he will make your way sure.

As you prosper spiritually so shall you blossom physically & materially and every area of your life shall be filled with his glory. God is going to fill you up to speak his word prophet. He is going to make you bold. God is going to give you boldness as a soldier of the Lord. He is going to make your way clear. Don’t do it for money. Don’t do what God has called you to do for money.

Ebenezer, up till now the Lord has been faithful. He cannot deny himself. He abideth faithful. As you keep my word he says I will give you plenty. I will make your way prosperous. Alleluyah. Amen

Sins Forgiven and Forgotten

Terry Suggs

I Peter 1:19,23
But you were purchased with the precious blood of Christ the Messiah, like that of a sacrificial lamb without blemish or spot.

You have been regenerated (born again) (re- "gene"-rated), not from a mortal origin (seed, sperm), but from one that is immortal by the ever living and lasting Word of God.

II Corinthians 5:17, 19, 21
Therefore if any person is ingrafted in Christ the Messiah he is a new creature altogether;

The old previous moral and spiritual condition has passed away. Behold, the fresh and new has come! The old spirit in us has died. The Spirit of Christ brought to us His new life.

It was God personally present in Christ, reconciling and restoring the world to favor with Himself, not counting and holding against men their trespasses but canceling them and committing to us the message of reconciliation of the restoration to favor.

For our sake He made Christ virtually to be sin Who knew no sin, so that in and through Him we might become, made (endued with, viewed as being in, and examples of) the righteousness of God (what we ought to be, approved and acceptable and in right relationship with Him, by His goodness.)

II Corinthians 6:16
What agreement can there be between a temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in and with and among them and I will walk in and with and among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

Hebrews 1:2-3
But in these last of these days He has spoken to us in (the person of a) Son, Whom He appointed Heir and lawful Owner of all things, also by and through Whom He created the worlds and the reaches of space and the ages of time (He made, produced, built, operated, and arranged them in order).

He is the sole expression of the glory of God (The Light-being, the out-raying or ridiance of the divine), and He is the perfect imprint of and very image of (God's) nature, upholding and maintaining and guiding and propelling the universe by His Mighty Word of Power. When He had by offering Himself accomplished or cleansing of sins and riddance of guilt, He sat down at the right hand of the divine Majesty on High.

Colossians 2:9-10, 13-15
For in Him the whole fullness of Deity, the Godhead, continues to dwell in bodily form giving complete expression of the divine nature.

And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life in Christ you too are filled with the Godhead-Father, Son and Holy Spirit-and reach full spiritual stature. And He is the Head of all rule and authority o every angelic principality and power.

And you who were dead in trespasses and in the uncircumcision of your flesh (your sensuality, your sinful carnal natural), (God) brought to life together with Christ, having freely forgiven us all our transgressions, having cancelled an blotted out and wiped away the handwriting of the note (bond) with its legal decrees and demands which was in force and stood against us (hostile to us). This note with its regulations, decrees, and demands He set aside and cleared completely out of our way by nailing it to His cross.

God disarmed the principalities and powers that were ranged against us and made a bold example of them, in triumphing over them in Him and in it (the Cross).

Isaiah 41:10-13
Fear not there is nothing to fear, for I Am with you; do not look around you in terror and be dismayed, for I Am your God, I will strengthen and harden you to difficulties, yes, I will help you; yes I will hold you up and retain you with My victorious right hand of rightness and justice.

Behold, all they who are enraged and inflamed against you shall be put to shame and confounded; they who strive against you shall be as nothing and shall perish.

You shall seek those who contend with you but shall not find them; they who war against you shall be as nothing, as nothing at all.

For I the Lord your God hold your right hand; I Am the Lord, Who says to you, fear not; I will help you!

Isaiah 53:3-6
He was despised and rejected and forsaken by men, A Man of sorrows and pains, and acquainted with grief and sickness; and like One from Whom men hide their faces He was despised, and we did not appreciate His worth or have any esteem for Him.

Surely He has borne our griefs (sicknesses, weaknesses, and distresses) and carried our sorrows and pains (of punishment), yet we ignorantly considered Him stricken, smitten and afflicted by God (as if with leprosy),

But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our guilt and iniquities; the chastisement (needful to obtain) peace and well-being for us was upon Him, with the stripes (that wounded) Him we are healed and made whole.

All we like sheep have gone astray, we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord has made to light upon Him the guilt and iniquity of us all.

Isaiah 54:17
But no weapon that is formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment you shall show to be in the wrong. This (peace, righteousness, security, triumph over opposition) is the heritage of the servants of the Lord (those in whom the ideal Servant of the Lord is reproduced; this is the righteousness or the vindication which they obtain from Me (this is that which I impart to them as their justification, says the Lord.

Jeremiah 31:34
And they will no more teach each man his neighbor and each man his brother, saying know the Lord, for they will all know Me (recognize, understand, and be acquainted with Me), from the least to the greatest, says the Lord.

For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will seriously remember their sin no more.

Titus 3:5
He saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but because of His own pity and mercy, by the cleansing bath of the new birth regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, which He poured out so richly upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior.

Hebrews 8:12
For I will be merciful and gracious toward their sins and I will remember their sins, deeds of unrighteousness no more.

Ephesians 2:5-10
Even when we were dead slain by our own shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ; He gave us the very life of Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for it is by grace His favor and mercy which you did not deserve that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation).

And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together (giving us joint seating with Him) in the heavenly sphere (by virtue of our being) in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

He did this that He might clearly demonstrate through the ages to come the immeasurable (limitless, surpassing) riches of His free grace (His unmerited favor) in His kindness and goodness of heart toward us in Christ Jesus.

For it is by free grace (God's unmerited favor) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation) through your faith.

And this salvation is not of yourselves (of your own doing, it came not through your own striving), but it is the gift of God.

Not because of works (not the fulfillment of the Law's demands), lest any man should boast. (It is not the result of what anyone can possibly do, so no one can pride himself in it or take glory to himself).

For we are God's (own) handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, born anew that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us (taking paths which He prepared ahead of time), that we should walk in them (living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live.

John 5:24
I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, the person whose ears are open to My words (who listens to My message) and believes and trusts in and clings to and relies on Him Who sent Me has (possesses now) eternal life. And he does not come into judgment, (does not incur sentence of judgment, will not come under condemnation), but he has already passed over out of death into life.

Galatians 3:26
For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God through faith.

Galatians 4:6-7
And because you really are His Sons, God has sent the Holy Spirit of His Son into our hearts , crying, Abba (Father)! Father!

Therefore, you are no longer a slave (bond servant) but a son; and if a son, then (it follows that you are) an heir by the aid of God, through Christ.

Ephesians 2:19
Therefore, you are no longer outsiders (exiles, migrants, and aliens, excluded from the rights of citizens), but you now share citizenship with the saints (God's own people, consecrated and set apart for Himself); and you belong to God's (Own) household.

I Peter 2:9-10
But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a dedicated nation, God's Own purchased special people, that you may set forth the wonderful deeds and display the virtues and perfections of Him Who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

Once you were not a people (at all), but now you are God's people; once you were unpitied but now you are pitied and have received mercy.

I Thessalonians 5:24
Faithful is He Who is calling you (to Himself) and utterly trustworthy, and He will also do it (fulfill His call) by hallowing and keeping you).

Ephesians 4:5-6
There is One Lord, one faith, one baptism.

One God and Father of us all, Who is above all (Sovereign over all), pervading all and living in us all.

Jeremiah 29:11-12
For I know the thoughts and plans for you, says the Lord, thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome.

Then you will call upon Me, and you will come and pray to Me, and I will hear and heed you.

Romans 8:1, 14-17
Therefore there is now no condemnation, no adjudging guilty of wrong, for those who are in Christ Jesus, who live and walk not after the dictates of the flesh, but after the dictates of the Spirit.

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

For the Spirit which you have now received is not a spirit of slavery to put you once more in bondage to fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption (the Spirit producing sonship) in (the bliss of) which we cry , Abba (Father)! Father!

The Spirit Himself (thus) testifies together with our own spirit, (assuring us) that we are the children of God.

And if we are (His) children, then we are (His) heirs also: heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ (sharing His inheritance with Him); only we must share His suffering if we are to share His glory. Fellow heirs means: one for Jesus and one for me, one for Jesus and one for me ….

Romans 8:31-39
What then shall we say to all of this? If God is for us, who can be against us? (Who can be our foe, if God is on our side?

He Who did not withhold or spare even His Own Son but gave Him up for us all, will He not also with Him freely and graciously give us all other things?

Who shall bring any charge against God's elect (when it is) God Who justifies (that is, Who puts us in right relation to Himself? Who shall come forward and accuse or impeach those whom God has chosen? Will God, Who acquits us?

Who is there to condemn us? Will Christ Jesus (the Messiah), Who died, or rather Who was raised from the dead, Who is at the right hand of God actually pleading as He intercedes for us?

Who shall ever separate us from Christ's love? Shall suffering and affliction and tribulation? Or calamity and distress? Or persecution or hunger or destitution or peril or sword? Even as it is written, For Thy sake we are put to death all the day long; we are regarded as sheep for the slaughter.

Yet amid all these things we are more than conquerors and gain, surpassing victory through Him Who loved us.

For I am persuaded beyond doubt (am sure) that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities, nor things impending and threatening nor things to come, nor powers,

Nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 10:11-13
The scripture says, no man who believes in Him (who adheres to, relies on, trusts in Him) will ever be put to shame or be disappointed.

The Lord is Lord over all of us and He generously bestows His riches upon all who call upon Him in faith.

For everyone who calls upon the Name of the Lord (invoking Him as Lord) will be saved.

Hebrews 9:12
He went once for all into the Holy of Holies of Heaven, not by virtue of the blood of goats and calves by which to make reconciliation between God and man, but by His Own blood, having found and secured a complete redemption (an everlasting release for us).

Hebrews 10:14,17
For by a single offering He has forever completely cleansed and perfected those who are consecrated and made Holy.

He then goes on to say, and their sins and their lawbreaking I will remember no more .

Philippians 4:13
I have strength for all things in Christ Who empowers me (I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him Who infuses inner strength into me; I am self-sufficient in Christ's sufficiency.

Hebrews 8:12
For I will be merciful and gracious toward their sins and I will remember their deeds of unrighteousness no more.

II Corinthians 2:14
But thanks be to God, Who in Christ always leads us in triumph (as trophies of Christ's victory) and through us spreads and makes evident the fragrance of the knowledge of God everywhere.

I John 3:1-2
See what an incredible quality of love the Father has given (shown, bestowed on) us, that we should be (permitted to) be named and called and counted the children of God! And so we are! The reason that the world does not know (recognize, acknowledge) us is that it does not know (recognize, acknowledge) Him.

Beloved we are even here and now God's children; it is not yet disclosed (made clear) what we shall be (hereafter), but we know that when He comes and is manifested, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him just as He really is.

John 3:17-18
For God did not send the Son into the world in order to judge (to reject, to condemn, to pass sentence on) the world , but that the world might find salvation and be made safe and sound through Him.

He who believes in Him (who clings to, trusts in, relies on Him) is not judged (he who trusts in Him never comes up for judgment; for him there is no rejection, no condemnation-he incurs no damnation);

but he who does not believe (cleave to, rely on, trust in Him) is judged already (he has already been convicted and has already received his sentence) because he has not believed in and trusted in the Name of the only begotten Son of God. (He is condemned for refusing to let his trust rest in Christ's name).

Acts 17:28
For in Him we live and move and have our being: as even some of your own poets have said, For we are also His offspring.

John 14:12-14
I assure you most solemnly I tell you, if anyone steadfastly believes in Me, he will himself be able to do the things that I do; and he will do even greater things than these, because I go to the Father.

And I will do (I Myself will grant) whatever you ask in My Name as presenting all that I AM, so that the Father may be glorified and extolled in (through) the Son.

Yes I will grant (I Myself will do for you) whatever you shall ask in My Name (as presenting all that I AM).

Colossians 3:17
And whatever you do (no matter what it is) in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus and in (dependence upon) His Person, giving praise to God the Father through Him.

John 3:16
For God so greatly loved and dearly prized the world He (even) gave up His only begotten (unique) Son, so that whosoever believes in (trusts in, clings to, relies on) Him shall not perish (come to destruction, be lost) but have eternal (everlasting) life.

God wanted the salvation He provided for us to be perfect and complete, so God Himself made us perfectly accepted, justified, loved, and redeemed. God was in Christ Jesus reconciling the world to Himself.

John 6:37
All whom My Father gives (entrusts) to Me will come to Me; and the one who comes to Me I will most certainly not cast out (I will never, no never, reject one of them who comes to Me).

Matthew 28:18-20
Jesus approached and breaking the silence, said to them, all authority (all power of rule) in heaven and earth has been given to Me.

Go then and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the Authority (Name) of the Father and of the Son and the Holy Spirit,

Teaching them to observe everything that I have commanded you, and behold, I Am with you all the days (perpetually , uniformly, and on every occasion), to the very close and consummation of the age. (Amen) so be it.

God is 100 percent honest, 100 percent pure, perfectly trustworthy, 100 percent faithful and true. There is no deception or falsity or misleading in Him.

Psalm 103:12
As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.

God has given us His righteousness. He imputed righteousness to us. He bestowed it upon us. We are righteous in God's sight.

Matthew 7:1-2
Do not judge and criticize and condemn others, so that you may not be judged and criticized and condemned yourselves.

For just as you judge and criticize and condemn others, you will be judged and criticized and condemned. And in accordance with the measure you (use to) deal out to others, it will be dealt out to again to you.

Matthew 7:12
So then, whatever you desire that others would to and for you, even so do also to and for them, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.

I Peter 4:10-11
As each of you has received a gift (a particular spiritual talent, a gracious divine endowment), employ it for one another as (befits) good trustees of God's many sided grace (faithful stewards of the extremely diverse powers and gifts granted to Christians by unmerited favor).

Whoever speaks, (let him do it as one who utters) oracles of God; whoever renders service, (let him dot it) as with the strength which God furnishes abundantly, so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ (the Messiah). To Him be the glory and dominion forever and ever (through endless ages). Amen (so be it).

I Peter 5:1-4
I warn and counsel the elders among you (the pastors and spiritual guides of the church) as a fellow elder and as an eyewitness (called to testify) of the sufferings of Christ, as well as a sharer in the glory (the honor and splendor) that is to be revealed (disclosed, unfolded):

Tend (nurture, guard, guide, and fold) the flock of God that is (your responsibility), not by coercion or constraint, but willingly; not dishonorably motivated by the advantages and profits (belonging to the office, but eagerly and cheerfully;

Not domineering (as arrogant, dictatorial, and overbearing persons) over those in your charge, but being examples (patterns and models of Christian living) to the flock (the congregation.

And then when the Chief Shepherd is revealed, you will win the conqueror's crown of glory.

God says do not judge men that are made in His image and likeness.

Your Faith is Equivalent to God's Power
Terry Suggs

Your faith is equal to God's power to create what you are believing for. The dynamic, active faith that we use or exercise is equal to God's creative, healing, and restoring power.

Hebrews 4:12
For the Word that God speaks is alive and full of power (making it active. Operative, energizing and effective; it is sharper than any two edged sword, penetrating to the dividing line of the breath of life (soul) and (the immortal) spirit, and of the joints and marrow (of the deepest parts of our nature), exposing and sifting and analyzing and judging the very thoughts and purposes of the heart.

Psalm 119:89-90
Forever, O Lord, Your Word is settled in Heaven (stands firm as the heavens).

Your faithfulness is from generation to generation; You have established the earth, and it stands fast.

John 1:1-4, 14
In the beginning (before all time) was the Word (Christ), and the Word was with God, and the Word was God Himself.

He was present originally with God.

All things were made and came into existence through Him; and without Him was not even one thing made that has come into being.

In Him was life, and the Life was the Light of Men.

And the Word (Christ) became flesh (human, incarnate) and tabernacled (fixed His tent of flesh, lived awhile) among us; and we (actually) saw His glory (His honor, His majesty), such glory as an only begotten son receives from his father, full of grace (favor, loving-kindness) and truth.

James 5:15
And the prayer (that is) of faith will save him who is sick, and the Lord will restore him; and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.

Mark 11:22-24
And Jesus replying, said to them, have faith in God (constantly) or have the faith of God.

Truly I tell you, whoever says to this mountain, be lifted up and thrown into the sea! And does not doubt at all in his heart but believes that what he says will take place, it will be done for him.

For this reason I am telling you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe (trust and be confident) that is granted to you, and you'll get it.

Matthew 17:20
He said to them, because of the littleness of your faith (that is, your lack of your firmly relying trust). For truly I say to you, if you have faith (that is living) like a grain of mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, move from here to yonder place, and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you.

Jeremiah 1:12
Then said the Lord to me, you have seen well, for I Am alert and active, watching over My word to perform it.

Habakkuk 2:4
Look at the proud; his soul is not straight or right within him, but the (rigidly) just and the (uncompromisingly) righteous man shall live by his faith and in his faithfulness.

Romans 4:21
Fully satisfied and assured that God was able and mighty to keep His word and to do what He had promised.

Luke 17:6
And the Lord answered, if you had faith (trust and confidence in God) even (so small) like a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, be pulled up by the roots, and be planted in the sea, and it would obey you.

Luke 6:38

Give and gifts will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will they pour into the pouch formed by the bosom (of your robe and used as a bag). For with the measure you deal out (with the measure you use when you confer benefits on others), it will be measured back to you.

II Cor. 4:13
Yet we have the same spirit of faith as he had who wrote, I have believed, and therefore have I spoken. We too believe, and therefore we speak.

II Cor. 5:7
For we walk by faith (we regulate our lives and conduct ourselves by our conviction or belief respecting man's relationship to God and divine things, with trust and holy fervor; thus we walk) not by sight or appearance.

Galatians 2:16
Yet we know that a man is justified or reckoned righteous and in right standing with god not by works of the Law, but only through faith and absolute reliance on and adherence to and trust in Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One). (Therefore) even we ourselves have believed on Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the Law (for we cannot be justified by any observance of the ritual of the Law given by Moses), because by keeping legal rituals and by works no human being can ever be justified (declared righteous and put in right standing with God.

Galatians 2:20
I have been crucified with Christ (in Him I have shared His crucifixion); it is no longer I who live, but Christ (the Messiah) lives in me; and the life I now live in the body I live by faith in (by adherence to and reliance on and complete trust in) the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself up for me.

Galatians 3:11
Now it is evident that no person is justified (declared righteous and brought into right standing with God) (the just, the righteous) shall by and out of faith and he who through and by faith is declared righteous and in right standing with God shall live.

Colossians 2:10-12
And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life In Christ you too are filled with the God-head – Father, Son and Holy Spirit-and reach full spiritual stature. And He is the Head of all rule and authority (of every Angelic principality and power).

In Him also you were circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, but in a spiritual circumcision performed by Christ by stripping off the body of the flesh the whole corrupt , carnal nature with its passions and lusts.

Thus you were circumcised when you were buried with Him in your baptism, in which you were also raised with Him (to a new life) through your faith in the working of god 9as displayed) when He raised Him from the dead.

I Thessalonians 5:24
Faithful is He Who is calling you to Himself and utterly trustworthy, and He will also do it (fulfill His call by hallowing and keeping you.)

Hebrews 11:1, 3
Now Faith is the assurance (the confirmation, the title deed) of the things we hope for, being the proof of things (we) do not see and the conviction of their reality (faith perceiving as real fact what is not revealed to the senses).

By faith we understand that the worlds (during the successive ages) were framed (fashioned, put in order, and equipped for their intended purpose) by the Word of god, so that what we see was not made out of things which are visible.

Hebrews 10:23
So let us seize and hold fast and retain without wavering the hope we cherish and confess and our acknowledgement of it, for He Who promised is reliable (sure) and faithful to His word.

Isaiah 55:10-11
For as the rain and snow come down from the heavens, and return not there again, but water the earth and make it bring forth and sprout, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater,

So shall My Word be that goes forth out of My mouth; it shall not return to Me void (without producing any effect, useless), but it shall accomplish that which I please and purpose, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.

Hebrews 10:14
For by a single offering He has forever completely cleansed and perfected those who are consecrated and made holy.

II Timothy 2:13
If we are faithless do not believe and are untrue to Him, He remains true (faithful to His Word and His righteous Character), for He cannot deny Himself.

Whosoever believes can do the miracles that Jesus did.

God perfected salvation for us.

He Himself made us perfect in Christ. He Himself made us perfectly justified, perfectly glorified, perfectly accepted, perfectly redeemed and loved.

II Corinthians 19
God Himself was in Christ Jesus reconciling Mankind back to Himself.

The only place we are 100 percent accepted is in Christ. Our only existence is in Christ after we accept Him as Lord and Savior.

Proverbs 18:21
The faith that we use is the same as the power of God or equal to the power of God. In the tongue is the power of life and death.

Faith is more powerful than any sickness or disease or situation that we encounter.

Mark 4:38-40
Jesus rebuked His disciples because of their lack of faith when they were caught in the storm on the sea. He let them know that they could have stopped the storm.

Mathew 12:36-37
But I tell you, on the day of judgment men will have t give account for every idle (inoperative, nonworking) word they speak.

For by your words, you will be justified and acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned and sentenced.

Here we see the power and the emphasis on, and the importance of our words. If it is only by our words that we will be judged, then how should we speak?

Faith that is rooted in the Word of God, which is rooted in us, is a creative faith.

The just shall live by Faith. This sounds like this is the only way we are to live.

Stay Focused On Truth
Yolanda Ballard

(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)

Stir up the gifts that are within you. Don't let any of them to lie dormant for this is the time for war. Every power and principality in the heavenlies have been charged to pull you down, but you must rise up and be determined to allow My Spirit to pull them down by you continuing to worship Me and keeping your focus on My truth alone.

Do not allow the enemy to sway you by the severity of the circumstances surrounding your life. You must rise up and believe that no weapon formed against you shall prosper. Keep believing that I AM faithful, and that I am in control, and that all things will work together for your good. Keep your armor on. Make sure that each piece is securely attached, and be determined to take your stand on My promises no matter what the enemy tries to say to you. Do not listen to anything that doesn't line up with My word.

You must walk in My light and My love. Don't allow any darkness quench the flow of My Spirit in you. Examine your heart to see if you are really ready to rise up and overcome. Have you allowed anything to stand in your way, or have you settled for less than My best for your life?

Watch your confessions when you are walking out physical trials. Never say that any illness or infirmity belongs to you, because I redeemed you from the curse of the Law. I have set you free by the power of My blood so that you may have an abundant life full of health and prosperity.

So when the enemy tries to attach to you his infirmities, do not receive them. They don't belong to you. And for those who have walked faithfully with Me but still have had to battle the enemy's tears upon your life, just know that these trials will end if you keep My promises close to your heart. You do have the victory, and My word is true no matter what your body says.

This is the day of the latter rain outpouring, and I AM preparing My bride. Everything you are going through is working in preparation for your stand in My army. Yes, I AM making you mighty warriors, and I AM using your trials to strengthen you and to purge you of all that would hold you back. I've called you My overcomers, and you will rise up against any hindrance the enemy puts before you, and you will continue to press in because you know My truth. Yes, I have called you to overcome all the snares of the fowler.

I've called you to truth and light and love. Put on your garment of praise. Do not be defeated by despair because things seem to be getting worse in the natural. Stay behind your shield of faith and use your sword to tear down the strongholds. Let out a mighty shout for the walls are beginning to fall. Be ready for it is beginning to rain, and My river will flow and mightily through My people for I AM faithful.

Follow A Godly Example
Yolanda Ballard

Come unto Me and let Me share with you My heart concerning what is going on concerning Clinton, the former recognizable president of the United States. For I have given My wisdom to President Bush concerning what has taken place concerning the vandalism and theft in the White House. I have prompted him to let go of this and not give into the snare of the fowler and the spirits of vandalism and theft for this is the plot of the enemy to trip My people up by having them draw attention to the works of the enemy.

For My ways are not your ways nor My thoughts your thoughts. The way man would handle this is to prosecute and to draw attention and drain tax payers money on court trials that would only continue to give My people a bad name around the world. Let it go is My cry and My will. Start anew and start fresh with a new view on how to tackle the affairs of the country and how it will effect the world.

Seek My face and not My hand. Share My love. Seek ye first My kingdom and My righteousness and all these things will be added unto you and that is wisdom and understanding and knowledge of My will and ways. Forgive your debts, forgive those who trespass against you. Cover over the sins of your brother with a blanket of love. Seek only to edify and not to judge or tear down. Do good to those who despitefully use you and bless those who curse you.

Be My light in this world of darkness. Follow the example that I have placed in this mighty man of Mine. Yes, President Bush is a mighty man of high stature in My kingdom. I know him well. He is My friend and yes, I do commune with him often. So rejoice for the battle is Mine and, the victory is yours but maintain it, My children, by keeping My beloved, President Bush, covered with prayer.

Intercede with Me often for him for he needs to stay covered for these are treacherous times, and the enemy is looking for a way in to bring harm and to deter My plans. So keep him on your heart and pray for this is the time and the hour for war. Do not let down your guard. Seek to draw close to Me and always be willing to obey My will, says your God.

Return To My Safe Place
Yolanda Ballard

(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)

Why do you keep insisting on wandering away from My intimate presence? Why is it that you do not stay by My side? Don't you know that when you walk close to Me that you are in a place of protection? Those who dwell in the secret place of the Most High are those who stay in a place of refuge and safety and are strengthened with My power and wisdom to do exploits. Those who are strong are those who stay in the center of My perfect will and that is in a place of close communion with Me.

I know that the enemy keeps attacking you with busyness and complacency, but you must rise up and overcome, and return to the place where you belong and where you long to be. I know that you are most blessed in your heart when you delight yourself in My presence. Yes, this is the place where you long to be. So I want you this day to be determined to not allow the enemy to rob you of those things that truly strengthen you and refresh you. Do not allow him to rob you of that secret place that you have with Me.

This is the day of salvation......the day where you need to make the choice of whether you want blessings or curses, life or death. For outside of the true vine there is no life. There is no life in that place of independence for truly it is a place of stubbornness and rebellion, a place of control, manipulation and idolatry.

So I AM calling you close and blessing you with the gift of repentance if you are ready to turn from your wicked ways. Yes, I AM coming on strong, but you need to know the way it truly is. You need to call things what they truly are. You need to return unto Me and delight yourself in My will.

Yes, refresh yourself by the streams of My living water. Refresh yourself in My word. Build yourself back up by praying in My Spirit. Worship Me in the beauty of holiness. You have no time to waste. Do not allow the enemy to overcome you, but rise up this day. Shake off the chains of bondage, and examine your heart for any unforgiveness or bitterness or any door the enemy can enter.

I love you, My children, but you must return. Don't allow the enemy to fool you by making you think being busy in things that appear Christlike is being in My will. Anything that is outside of spending time close to Me is outside of My will. I've called you to worship Me and to commune with Me. Return to your place of safety and that is under My blood dwelling close to Me in My secret place.

Shelter From the Beast

Revelation 13:5-6

Jesus, You are my abiding place
You are my shelter from the storm
As I look to You
I know my heart will be safe
In You I'll be kept safe and secure.
As winds take flight
Stirred up by the night
In Your arms I know
I'm safe from the storm.

Hold me, my King
Remain here with me
Safe in Your love
Forevermore.

Jesus, upon my heart You dwell in strength
You rule upon my every desire
For Your names sake
You cause the heavens to shake
Removing all that keeps us apart.
Tender mercies
Arise from the deep
As You move in power
Upon my heart.

Hold me, my King.
Always, You proclaim
You will stay with me
Forevermore.

> "And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven." Revelation 13:5-6
> "Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! For the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent." Revelation 12:12-14

If a man should find himself walking down a darkened street, unsure of his destination, confusion and fear setting his pace, if this man should call upon the name of Jesus Christ, God will be faithful to answer his call. Weakness and uncertainty are no match against the merciful, delivering presence of the Lord on high. God, who is faithful, stands ready to answer the man who calls upon His name for deliverance from out of suffering and torment, which has been brought about by unbelief, fear or lack of understanding.

A man, who would call out to Jesus Christ for deliverance from the destructive bondages that entangles him to fear and helplessness, does not need to trek across the country in hope of hearing from the One true God. He does not need to travel across vast oceans and barren deserts in hope of finding the One who is able to save him from emotions that cripple his ability to walk in wholeness of life. He does not need to go into the secret chambers in hope of looking upon a physical manifestation of God, so that he gains strength to look beyond his own shortcomings, and to see into the realm of God's power and majesty. Man does not need to look outward in hope of receiving and experiencing the glory and love of God. Today, God has made it possible for His holy presence to be established upon a man's heart, through faith in His beloved Son; "faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

> "Our fathers worshiped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." John 4:20-24

The man, who has called upon the Lord most high, will receive through faith, the Father's gift of eternal life. Through the obedience of Jesus Christ, the Father sent down from heaven the Holy Spirit, the eternal gift of life, which will birth forth the righteousness of Christ within a man's life. The Spirit, which births forth God's life within the child, will reveal God's kingdom of glory and majesty, truth and righteousness. The Spirit of God will teach man how to live in humble appreciation of God's eternal kingdom of light. God's love, when shed abroad within a man's heart through the sanctifying presence of the Holy Spirit, will help man to understand the depths and heights of God's great love and longsuffering toward them. The hour has arrived where men proclaim the joy of worshipping the Father, no longer just in name, but in Spirit and in truth.

There is no mountain that God requires man to climb before man can partake and experience God's heavenly, divine holy presence. The man, who has been born again into God's eternal kingdom of holiness, did not do so through works of his own self-righteousness. The origin of man's new birth into the kingdom of God came, not through obedience to the law, but through the "hearing of faith". Man is welcomed into the kingdom of God's righteousness, not by standing under the shadow of the law, but through calling upon the Lord of His salvation. Faith that births forth eternal life is not built upon the law, but upon the solid, immovable foundation of Jesus Christ. To be positioned within the shelter of God's mercy and love, His "light", is obtained not through physical performance, obedience to the law, but through faith in the beloved Son of God, Jesus Christ.

> "Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, the time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." Mark 1:14-15
> "Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son." Colossians 1:11-12

"The kingdom of God is at hand." The unshakable, immoveable, kingdom of righteousness, love, mercy, holiness and truth is at hand. The sanctifying presence, God's breath of life, God's Holy Spirit, cannot be changed. He cannot deny Himself. God's truth cannot be shaken, rearranged or reconstructed; His truth will always reveal truth. But, unbelief, fear, worry, torment, discouragement, self-righteousness, all enemies to the goodness of God, can be shaken loose from their hold over a man's thoughts and beliefs. As the Holy Spirit moves in power within a man's life, these enemies must be shaken loose from their position of power, if the man is to live at peace with God. This is not to harm the man, but to strengthen the man, to help the man, so that the man may walk in holy obedience to the Lord on high, knowing and appreciating God's goodness.

To hear and believe in the message that Jesus Christ has spoken is to turn from the authority of the prince of darkness to the King of light, who is merciful and longsuffering. To believe in the message of the Messenger is to repent of trusting in the world of darkness, which is governed by the voice of unbelief, the devil. To believe and walk in faith is to turn away from walking in pride, whose foundation is built upon self-centeredness, which causes man to look away from God and His purpose for mankind.

In the fullness of time, God sent to the earth His only beloved Son to deliver man from believing in the vanity, of his own self-focused ideas. Jesus Christ came to deliver those who proclaimed they were as God, who think to determine and declare what will bring purpose, contentment and hope into their lives. Jesus Christ was sent in the fullness of times, to turn man "from the darkness to the light." To turn man from the darkness of unbelief, to the light of God's power, glory and love. In the fullness of time, God sent to earth the breath of heaven, the kingdom of light.

> "So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ he is none of his. And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness." Romans 8:7-9

Thoughts and desires, which had been fashioned and formed within the night, are what guides men of unbelief in their journey through life. Before they hear the Word of God and believe, they walk unrenewed in spirit. They will walk alive, according to man's definition of human existence, but dead, their hearts hardened, unenlightened to the goodness, mercy and love of God. When a child hears the Word and believes, then God releases His heavenly nature, His breath of life, His great and unending love, the Holy Spirit, into their lives. Through the leading and teaching of the Holy Spirit, God will begin to reveal truth to the man's heart and mind. God will reveal the truth of His desire and purpose for man. Through the leading of the Spirit man will come to understand that righteousness is of God, and not of themselves. Their captivity to unbelief, mistrust, hatred, and unforgiveness, will be cast far from their thoughts, as God continues to reveal His holy nature to them.

> "What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Man, whose body houses the Father's heavenly nature, the Holy Spirit, is set apart for the Father's good purpose. Through the Holy Spirit, the fullness of God's purpose for man is released into the heart and mind of man, revealing the holiness, love and longsuffering of the Father. Man, who has been chosen of God, has been predestined to walk in holiness, as the Father is holy. Holiness will bring peace into a child's life, clarity, and strength to help others that God would lead them to.

Each man has constructed within his mind, ideas and opinions, which were not founded upon the nature and example of Jesus Christ. But when a man has partaken of the heavenly nature, love that surpasses the natural explanation of man, he will understand the importance of having all that is contrary to God’s nature removed and destroyed. As God begins to reveal His holy nature, His abundant love in greater depth, then man’s desires and opinions will undergo much reconstruction. He will become a new creation in Christ, whose nature reflects the holiness, longsuffering, forgiveness and mercy of God.

> “Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.” John 14:19-20
> “That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.” Ephesians 3:17-19

A man of faith, who through hearing believed the message of the gospel, will be filled with “all the fullness of God.” The Spirit of God, which dwells within the inner man, upon his heart and mind, will reveal the great love that God has extended toward His creation. Those who live in Christ, as Christ lives within them, will live according to a heavenly pattern. He will leave behind the old, the thoughts established in the darkness, as he learns the ways of the Father. He will leave behind the old ways, as the Father’s Holy, heavenly Spirit, guides him in newness of life, upon His path of righteousness.

To desire to know God’s purpose for mankind is to understand the foundation that has been laid through faith in Jesus Christ. It is through faith, that man will please God, and receive His abundant riches into their lives through the Holy Spirit. It is through faith that the fullness of God, the Holy Spirit, will come and establish God’s kingdom rule upon a man’s heart. It is through faith that the looming mountains of doubt, rejection, and fear will be cast out of the kingdom that God desires to establish within His children’s lives. It is through faith that a man will hear God’s voice speaking to them, “this is the path I desire you to take”, and be endowed with strength to follow.

> “And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.” Revelation 13:5-6

The beast, who rises up from the sea of mankind’s unrepentant emotions, has obtained his power and authority from the dragon. His message does not reflect the purposes of God. As he rises up from the sea exhibiting his seven heads, which is to declare that he speaks the fullness of God’s message to mankind, God continues to counter this understanding. God continues to proclaim, that this message does not originate from His Spirit of holiness and truth. The dragon thinks that, by exhibiting his ten horns, he will be able to convince man that all power and authority belongs to him. And the ten crowns, upon his ten horns of self-important authority, sum up the foundation of the beasts “truth,” which is, that relationship with the Father is through obedience to the law, and not through faith.

The beast looks upon God’s Word, limited in his ability to understand what is being said, because of worldly focus. He continues to look to the earth, which is governed by the dragon, in interpreting the Word of the Lord. This limited vision causes him to disregard the message that, through faith in Jesus Christ, a man will be filled with the holy, heavenly fullness of God. The beast cannot understand the ability of God’s Spirit to transform a man’s desires so that he lives in holy obedience unto the Lord. In his determination to establish order for the good of the whole, he disregards God’s message that the law made no man perfect.

The beast continues to look to the law to keep man in subjection to his truth. Yet, the beast’s version of truth continues to deny the purpose of Jesus Christ. The beast’s message of sanctification according to the law, requires man to sit in judgment of man, placing man in subjection to rules enforced by man. Yet God proclaims, He alone is good. And it is when a child receives the inheritance of great worth, God's Holy presence into his life, that a man will undergo the sanctification process. The beast continues to ignore the message that the heavenly breath of God is able to accomplish what the law could not, align a man's inward thoughts and emotions to the nature of the living God.

The beast cannot understand the value of the Holy Spirit moving within a man's life. He continues to discount this treasure of great worth, the Holy Spirit, and looks instead to a temple built by the hands of man. Within this physical temple, he has established his definition of what is of worth and what is not. He worships what he can see, and not what is unseen. To teach that a man who houses the holy breath of God, God's heavenly nature, could be considered a temple of more value than one made by the hands of worldly-focused man, is not a message of any great worth to the beast. To proclaim that the treasures that are stored up upon a man's heart could be of greater value than the gold laid upon the altar, in which the beast gives all honor unto, is, to the beasts worldly thinking, a message spoken by a fool. So the beast continues to confidently speak blasphemous words of contempt against the idea that a man's body could, by the breath of God, be fashioned into a temple of great worth.

Through disregarding the message of the Holy Spirit's sanctifying presence, His authority to teach, edify, and lead man on the path of righteousness, the beast speaks contempt, against the living God. The beast blasphemes God and his children, who are the living temples who house God's heavenly nature, as he disregards the message of salvation through faith. And for a season in each of God's children's lives, those whose eyes have been opened to the majesty of God's kingdom of righteousness, the words spoken by the beast will bring suffering into their lives. It will bring suffering as they are led of God, able to see His majesty and glory in all of life, yet through the Spirit, they are given a greater awareness of the suffering in which others are walking as they live under the authority of the beast.

Those chosen to partake of God's kingdom of righteousness and glory, understand that God has made a way, where man can dwell at peace with God. They also understand that the beast uses great swelling words to draw all importance to a truth, that places more importance on man, than on God. The beast, who mocks the idea that God has made a way for children to walk in honor and subjection to His eternal kingdom of righteousness, led of God's Spirit while they are alive upon the earth, has no problem with man bowing down and giving him their full honor and obedience. All men who are being conformed into the image of God, and hear the beast mock a relationship with God, where man is led of God's Spirit, will suffer. Suffering will be brought about as man listens to the voice of the beast discounting personal, spirit led relationship between man and God. But, God promises this is just for a season. As the fullness of God dwells within them, God will be faithful to lead them to their position in Christ, where they will receive peace for their souls.

The beast, who casts accusation against children who walk according to the kingdom of truth and righteousness, has a period of time when he will be able to bring suffering into a child's life. But one understanding of great worth has been placed upon the child's heart who walks according to God's Spirit - they must give up their desire to control their lives, and trust the Father to lead. They may not understand what it is that God is bringing to pass in their lives, but they have come to realize they must live in obedience to His leading. They have come to realize with every breath within them, that in God lies their only hope. If there is to be an end to what God has placed before them, if they are to receive full understanding of God's message to them, then they must follow Him. It is no longer possible for these children to walk in any form of obedience to the words spoken by the beast. God has called them, and they must obey.

Through faith in Jesus Christ, the fullness of God's purpose for mankind is received into a man's life. Yet each man, who is to receive their reward while alive, and to walk led of God's Spirit, must endure for a season, suffering. In each person's life, each child, who is to continue on with the Lord until the end, must endure his season of spiritual adjustment. There is a spiritual season of adjusting to the greater realms of God’s Holy Spirit, and suffering will be involved. But to suffer for righteousness sake, to be loosed from all that would bind a man to earthly desires, so that he can be wholly led of the Spirit, bears many eternal rewards. As man suffers for righteousness sake, he will more wholly place his life within the hands of the living God.

As children gain ability to walk in the fullness that God, in His mercy, has bestowed upon them, God will be faithful to protect them. During their season of adjustment, as they learn to live according to the Spirit and not to the flesh, God will become their safe habitation. They will find that as they turn to Him, they are protected from the beast. While those in submission to the beast may not understand a relationship with God through the Spirit, those who walk within the kingdom of God’s righteousness will discover a friend in God. God will become their faithful friend, who leads them to refreshing streams where their souls are nourished. There is now no condemnation for those found dwelling in submission to the leading of God’s Holy Spirit. And though the season of adjusting to the leading of the Spirit, may seem to continue on beyond a man’s ability to stand, in this season man will gain much wisdom. He will learn not to lean on his own understanding, but on every Word spoken by the living God.

> “For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.” Galatians 2:19-21

Straight From The Father's Heart

Yolanda Ballard

(A Refresher in the Basics)

Apr 12, 2004Once again I draw you near and explain to you that it isn't what you say that is important and powerful, but the faith behind it that is powerful. Words are just empty if it doesn't carry the power or the "dunamus" that brings the thing said to pass. That is only in certain situations though. Because on the other hand if you speak in the negative of My promises, then the enemy automatically adds his power to your spoken words and brings them to effect. So I say to you this day to watch your spoken words!

Life and death are in the power of your tongue. So speak life and add My power to it by adding faith, and believe that what you say will come to pass. I know these are basic terms, but you need to be reminded. Faith is not just a formula, but true faith is a relationship with the One who died and rose again and now lives forever. Reach out and touch the hem of the Father's garment, because He longs to touch you and heal you and set you free. Bow down and worship the One who gave His life for you that you would reign victorious with Him.

Don't allow the enemy to defeat you and rob you of what is yours. Believe that the enemy is under your feet and that all My promises are "yes" and "Amen" to you. Have you ever wondered how your trials will ever come to an end when in the natural it looks like an impossible situation to complete? Well, that is My business to consider. All you need to do is to look to Me, the author and finisher of your faith. Just look to Me for I will keep My words to you. If what you prayed is according to My will, then I have heard you. And if I heard you, then you know that you have the promise that you requested.

In the meantime between the asking and the waiting, I want you to rest and believe that you have already received the answer. Now that is a pretty simple formula, but when the fire is added in the middle of the trial, you start to panic and why is that? Because the fire is sent to purge and purify My holy vessels. Its a good thing. So rest once again in Me.

This is the day of salvation. This is the day to count the cost and examine your heart whether you are walking in all the light. If your heart does not condemn you, then do not receive the enemy's report. Do not listen to his lies. Cast down the vain imaginations that are sent to destroy your faith. I said that you are to prosper and to be in health as your soul prospers. And if you spend your time delighting in My presence and walking in My will, then you will overcome in the onslaughts of the enemy. Yes, he has come to destroy you, but I have come to give you life. So stay on My side and keep My commands, and you will truly reign victorious in Me. For I have truly said it and I will bring it to pass.

It is interesting how the enemy attacks are coming swiftly now and are increasing in its intensity ... With each one of us is different, but it comes from the same place ... Hell itself ... My eyes are wide open to the Kingdom Reality, perceiving the reason behind it, understanding the Time and the Season, and I can't help but rejoice.

With our hearts set firm on the things above, our vision is clear, our mind is sound and our ears are open to His Voice.

What is going to happen here, and IS already happening, beginning deep within us, is so awesome, and it lacks the words to describe it; for our God is indescribable ... The destinies of His people are being revealed, the true Purpose of Heaven's Realm is being manifested, and just having a glimpse of it makes me want to shout into the heavens.

And maybe, just maybe, we should ... Let our shouts of praise and victory reverberate through out the earth and into the sky and space, and all the way to the gates of hell itself ...

What if our shouts shake the gates of hell from its hinges? What if our shouts produce the resonating sound that is carrying the power of Holy Spirit to destroy every yoke, to set all those captives free, to bring the liberty to those that are bound by the power of the enemy ...

Have we ever thought of that???

To be so drunk of the New Wine, be so drunk on the power of His love, that the only way we could express it is to shout for JOY, shout in victory over ALL of our enemy!!!

Just maybe that is what the world needs to hear ... Just maybe that is what angels are waiting for ... Just maybe the CORPORATE shout of victory of His Body, of His Generation, is what will bring down and destroy the power of evil over our cities, over our regions, over every place that our voice is touching ... By shouting and declaring The Word, by speaking the Truth and Life, by loving even unto death!

The LOVE always triumphs and is always victorious - "...many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it ..." SOS 8:7a

As God is illuminating and bringing understanding of His Love, He is simultaneously binding our hearts with cords of that love that can never be broken. The Unity of His people is taking place and it is by His Spirit, and not by the futile attempts of the flesh, that we are coming together - the awesome Army of The Most High God is assembling and the enemy trembles .. For he knows that the Time is SHORT!

Have we ever thought of that???

SHOUT!!!

Jasminka

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; He hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord." - Luke 4:18,19

Seeing Him Who Is Unseen

The Lord asked Elijah, "What are you doing here?"

And he said, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken Thy covenant, torn down Thine altars and killed Thy prophets with the sword. And I alone am left; and they seek my life, to take it away." 1 Kings 19:10

It can be a crushing experience to give your very best and still fall short. Elijah had been discouraged with God's people. Thinking he had failed, he fled Jezebel and begged God to take his life.

The Scripture tells us that "hope deferred makes the heart sick" (Prov. 13:12). Elijah desperately wanted to see the nation awakened in repentance, but he did not understand the role God would have him play. Perhaps Elijah's main mistake was that he was personally shouldering the burden of Israel's revival. Not knowing his own place, he assumed the place of God.

When the heart becomes sick with disappointment and discouragement, it is easy to lose perspective. We must remember, apart from the cooperating work of the Holy Spirit, no man can truly change another person's heart. Much of Elijah's discouragement came from the false expectations he had placed upon himself.

In his dejection, alone and hurting, Elijah withdrew into a cave on Horeb. For us, self-pity can also become a spiritual cave. It can trap us in a dark hole of loneliness and pain. In this place of isolation we fail to hear the encouragement of God; all we really hear is the echo of our own voice magnifying and distorting our problems.

Calling Elijah out of the cave, the Lord told him, "Go forth, and stand on the mountain before the Lord" (v. 11). As Elijah stepped out of the cave's darkness, an awesome event occurred.

The Lord was passing by! And a great and strong wind was rending the mountains and breaking in pieces the rocks before the Lord; but the Lord was not in the wind. And after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake. And after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of a gentle blowing. 1 Kings 19:11-12

A New Revelation of God

There are times when the Lord must expand our understanding of His will, actually liberating us from the container of our previous experiences. The Lord was passing by, but He was not in the wind, the earthquake or the fire, all of which were familiar symbols to Elijah. The Lord who caused these mighty manifestations was not in them.

For Elijah, mighty manifestations had been signs of God's approval. But something new was at hand that required a fresh submission to the living God. A new anointing - a "double portion" - was coming! This new work of God would eventually end the reign of Jezebel and destroy Baal worship. The distinguishing characteristic of this new anointing would not only be seen in supernatural manifestations but in greater wisdom and compassion.

As the last of the signs ended, we read, "After the fire a sound of a gentle blowing" (v. 12). This sound was not the voice of God; it was the prelude to God's Presence. Elijah recognized the holy silence and "wrapped his face in his mantle" (v. 13), lest he look upon God. Perhaps it was near this very site that Moses, 500 years earlier, hid when the Lord passed by. Now it was Elijah's turn. Entering this eternal stillness was the Person of God.

Seeing Him Who is Unseen

Earthquakes, fires and storms - the signs which accompanied Elijah - are the signs of our times as well. But to enter this new level, we must recognize God's nearness when there are no "earthquakes" or "storms" to capture our attention. He demands we enter a more refined relationship with Him - one that is based on His love and whisper of His word, not merely the issues of our times.

Thus, we must learn to hear the voice of Him who rarely speaks audibly and observe the actions of Him who is otherwise invisible. Elijah would gain the courage to endure Jezebel's wrath the same way Moses faced the rage of Pharaoh: "He endured, as seeing Him who is unseen" (Heb. 11:27).

We also endure by seeing Him who is invisible. But, before we can truly discern the Presence of God, we must recognize the gentle blowing that precedes His Presence. What is this spiritual phenomenon? It is the Holy Spirit subduing the activities of earth in preparation for the Lord's approach.

If we are to attain the power needed at the end of this age, we must learn to detect, without great signs, the still small voice of God. He will not fight for our attention; He must be sought. He will not startle us; He must be perceived. It took no special skill to "discern" the earthquake, the fire or the great storm. But to sense the gentle blowing of God, our other activities must cease. In our world of great pressures and continual distractions, the attention of our hearts must rise to the invisible world of God's Spirit. We must learn to "see" Him who is unseen.

A New Beginning

In the quieting of Elijah's heart, the Lord appeared. Again the Almighty asked, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" (1 Kings 19:13) Elijah repeated his former answer: "I have been very zealous for the Lord . . . and I alone am left; and they seek my life" (v. 14). Restoring Elijah's perspective, the Lord assured him there were 7,000 Israelites who had not bowed to Baal.

A new commission was about to come. The Lord told Elijah to anoint Hazael as king over Syria and Jehu as king over Israel. He also was to train Elisha, who would be his successor (1 Kings 19:15-16). At Horeb, God released a "double portion" of spiritual power. Although God gave the anointing to Elijah, it would be Elisha who would walk in it.

Indeed, under this powerful new anointing, Elijah's successor, Elisha, would do twice as many miracles (2 Kings 2:9-14). More than a prophet of judgment, Elisha's works would actually resemble Christ's. Elisha multiplied bread (2 Kings 4:42-44); he captured an enemy's army with kindness; he established peace between Israel and the bands of Aram (2 Kings 6:14-23); he healed Naaman, a Syrian general (2 Kings 5:1-14); and anointed Jehu to destroy Jezebel and Baal worship in Israel (2 Kings 9-10). He also presided over the closest thing to revival the northern ten tribes would ever experience (2 Kings 10:28, 30).

Elijah did not personally bring national restoration. Yet, he did receive a greater understanding of his place in God. His call was to "go before" and prepare the way for greater things to come. Many of us are destroying ourselves trying to bring revival. Perhaps our call is more to prepare the ground for that which is coming after us.

Elijah was so successful at "preparing the way," his spiritual anointing was apportioned to John the Baptist as a herald to both Christ's first and His second coming (Mal. 4:5-6; Matt. 17:11). Ultimately, God brought Elijah to heaven in a flaming chariot and a whirlwind, which were familiar manifestations to Elijah's heart.

As this age ends, God's promise to us is that, like Elisha, we too shall receive a "double portion" (Isa. 61:7; John 14:12). What can this mean but that the Lord is going to reveal Himself to us in glories we have never known before. But first He must stop our unanointed activities and the striving of our flesh. He must bring us to the end of our strength and the beginning of His. As we cease trying to take God's place, we shall, instead, find our place in Him.

Even though the spirit of Jezebel has been blatantly manifest in our world, its days are numbered. Our task is to be still and know that Christ is God. He shall triumph over all His foes. He will be exalted in all the earth, and to abide in Him is to dwell in the Stronghold of God.

Oh, Master, how easily I fall into dead religious habits and spiritual dullness. Lord, I long to know Your ways, to have eyes that really see and ears that clearly hear. Teach me, Lord Jesus, the intimacies of God. Remove the mystery surrounding Yourself, that I might truly know You.

Forgive me for looking for signs instead of listening for Your voice. Oh, God, how I long to truly know You as Moses did, to abide in Your glory. Restore to Your church the double portion You have promised and guide us into the fullness of Your power. In Jesus' name. Amen.

The Great "Pressure"

Jesus gave the last hours of this age a poignant headline. He called this period "The Great Tribulation." The word rendered "tribulation" meant "grievous affliction or distress; pressure or burden upon the spirit." As we move closer toward the end of this age, catastrophic distresses and pressures upon man shall increase.

If you are one who has stood unyieldingly against the increasing darkness, you know how intense and multifaceted the battle is. Whether you are fighting to heal your city's wounds or warring against abortion and pornography, barely do you make headway against one evil before it seems that ten others storm in.

Many Christians on the front lines are weary. A number are just going through the motions; still others have stopped fighting altogether. Daniel warned of a time when the enemy would "wear down the saints of the Highest One" (Dan. 7:25). To emerge victorious from this day in which we live, we must discover the stronghold of God that He has prepared for us.

Elijah: A Man Like Us

Elijah was a man with passions like ours, fighting in a war like ours. In his battle for the soul of Israel, he stood against the wiles of Jezebel and Ahab. Yet, his most intense battle was against personal discouragement.

As bold as Elijah was, he lived as a fugitive, moving in and out of places of hiding. Jezebel had murdered nearly all of the Lord's prophets, replacing them with the satanic priests of Baal and the Asherah.

A new initiative, however, had come from the Lord. Both Elijah and the prophets of Baal were to build altars to the deity they each served. The God who answered with fire would truly be Lord. King Ahab and all Israel came to the confrontation.

Try as they might, the priests of Baal could draw no response from their god. But when Elijah prayed, fire immediately fell upon his sacrifice. This was Elijah's greatest victory, and when the Israelites saw the display of God's power, they bowed to the ground saying, "The Lord, He is God; the Lord, He is God" (1 Kings 18:39).

But the Lord was not finished. After Elijah had the priests of Baal destroyed, he prayed, and the Lord brought rain, ending a terrible three-year drought. On this one day, both fire and rain fell from heaven! If this tremendous day had occurred at virtually any other time in Israel's history, the nation would have repented, but it did not. Baal worship should have ended, but it continued. Nothing changed. In fact, instead of a revival, the opposite occurred: An enraged Jezebel vowed to kill Elijah, and he fled until he sat exhausted and discouraged beneath a juniper tree in the wilderness. There, the prophet prayed, "It is enough; now, O Lord, take my life, for I am not better than my fathers" (1 Kings 19:4).

Have you said, "It is enough"? Perhaps you were frustrated by your own inability to truly affect positive change in your family, church, or society. Possibly you gave your all, but found little success. Disheartened and weary, like Elijah, you wished to die. You said, "It is enough! I have done all I know to do!"

Elijah laid down and slept; as he did, an angel touched him and told him, "Arise, eat." At his head were bread and water. Elijah, weary with life itself, ate and withdrew back into sleep. Once more the angel touched him, "Arise," he said, "eat, because the journey is too great for you" (1 Kings 19:7).

For all our visions, plans, and programs, God's will cannot be accomplished without His strength. The journey before each of us is also "too great." We need the strength that only comes from the touch of God.

Return to Your Beginnings

"So he arose and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the mountain of God." 1 Kings 19:8
The Lord gave Elijah strength, not to send him back to battle, but to bring him back to basics.

If, in seeking to fulfill the task God has given us, we sacrifice our daily devotional life, our lives will soon become dry and desolate. To restore our souls, the Lord brings us back to the essentials of our faith. He reminds us that our first and highest purpose is not to save our nation but to give Him pleasure. Without this focus we lose touch with the Presence of God; we are outside the stronghold of God.

Elijah was led to "Horeb, the mountain of God." In Hebrew, "Horeb" means "desolation." The barren environment mirrored Elijah's soul. This was not the first time the Lord guided a servant of His to Horeb. It was here, five centuries earlier, that the Lord appeared in the burning bush to Moses. In his zeal, Moses had tried, but failed, to liberate Israel from Egyptian oppression. He also had fled to Horeb. As a fugitive from Pharaoh, Moses lived forty years in desolation.

When the Lord brought Moses to Horeb, it was for two reasons: to reveal Himself to His servant and to initiate a new beginning based solely upon God's sustaining power. In the eyes of Moses, Horeb had been a time of desolation. To God, however, Horeb was a place where He prepared His servants for new beginnings. As the Lord had met Moses, He now would meet Elijah.

How Did You Get Here?

Perhaps Elijah's greatest virtue was his zeal. Indeed, we shall see that twice in his communication with God. Elijah speaks of having been "very zealous" for the Lord. But zeal, unattended by wisdom, eventually becomes its own "god"; it compels us toward expectations which are unrealistic and outside the timing and anointing of God.

To remain balanced, zeal must be reined in and harnessed by strategic encounters with the living God. Otherwise we become frustrated with people and discouraged with delays. We step outside our place of strength and spiritual protection.

Elijah had come to Horeb and lodged there in a cave. Soon, the Word of the Lord came to him: "What are you doing here, Elijah?" (1 Kings 19:9).

This is one of the most important questions God will ever ask us: "What are you doing here?"
He may ask: "How did your service to Me become dry and desolate? When was it you left your first love?"

Stop and Look!

It is especially true in our times. We can become so consumed with the deteriorating condition of the world that we fail to see the deteriorating condition of our own soul. In His love, the Lord stops us and demands we look at our life. Is this existence which I now live the abundant life promised me from Christ?

We can be honest at Horeb. We have nothing to prove and no need to pretend. Here, at Horeb, the internal mechanisms of defensiveness and pride crumble. If we are disappointed, we are free to express it; if frustrated, we can admit it. We must simply and truthfully evaluate, without rationalization, our heart's condition.

In our transparency, the Presence of God draws near our hearts. Is not intimacy with God the very thing we have neglected? And is not the Lord alone our source of strength in battle? If the enemy can distract us from our time alone with God, he will keep the power of God from accompanying our efforts.

You will recall the story of Joseph and Mary after the Passover in Jerusalem (Luke 2:41-49). Supposing the child Jesus was with them, they journeyed home. But Jesus was neither with them nor with their relatives. Three days later they found Him in the temple.

Likewise, many of us have become so consumed with our battles that we fail to notice Jesus is not with us on our journey. Jesus' parents returned to where they had last seen Him; so also must we. To renew us, God is bringing us back to our most recent encounter with the living Christ. He is bringing us back to basics.

Yesterday's Anointing is Not Enough

As the pressures and warfare of this age continue to intensify, it is imperative we realize that yesterday's anointing will not suffice for today's battles. Like Elijah, we must return to the sacred mountain. Indeed, in order to fit us with a new mantle, God must dismantle our confidence in the flesh. For Elijah, the Lord was about to use the "loner" Elijah to mentor another prophet's life. The new anointing would ultimately release a "double portion" of power to his protégé, Elisha. Under this new anointing Jezebel would be destroyed and Baal worship crushed!

To reach this same place of breakthrough in our own times, God is bringing us back to the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ (2 Cor. 11:1-3). What seems like a time of desolation is more truly a time of preparation: A revival of great proportions is coming to our land! God has prepared a new beginning for you. Beloved, it is not time to despair, but prepare. When you return to the battle, you shall go with a double portion.

Lord Jesus, apart from You my life is dry and desolate. Forgive me for trying to do Your will without Your Presence. I desperately need You, Lord.

This day, I commit my heart to return to my first love. Teach me, Lord, to consider intimacy with You the greatest measure of my success. Let me see Your glory; reveal to me Your goodness; guide me, O Holy Spirit, into the Presence of Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Converting Power of True Holiness
Francis Frangipane

One of the most common verses in the New Testament reads, "and great multitudes followed Jesus." The gospel of Matthew alone mentions over twenty distinct instances when vast numbers of people traveled great distances to be with Christ. People saw in Jesus meekness, unlimited power, and perfect love. If we would win souls, people must see in us this same Jesus.

When People Saw Jesus

"And Jesus called His disciples to Him, and said, 'I feel compassion for the multitude, because they have remained with Me now three days and have nothing to eat.'" Matthew 15:32

There were two occasions when Jesus fed the multitudes. The first event occurred in a desolate region of the Judean wilderness, and it lasted one day. During the second event, the multitudes had been with Jesus for three days without food on a hillside near the Sea of Galilee.

The impact Christ had upon the local Jewish society was unprecedented! Their entire economy stopped. No one picked over or sold vegetables in the marketplaces, goats were not milked, gardens were left untended, and relatives watching little children did not know when the parents would return! For three days nothing at all was normal.

These local communities left all when they heard Jesus was near. Without forethought, without packing a donkey, without so much as taking extra food or telling those who remained at home when to expect them, four thousand men, plus additional thousands of women and children, spontaneously followed Christ to a "desolate place." Perhaps ten thousand or more people left their villages, but we read of no one complaining that "the service was too long," or "the weather too hot" or "the message was boring." Whatever they lacked in comfort and convenience was overshadowed by the glory of being with Jesus!

How wonderful it must have been to be with Jesus! The first time Christ fed the multitudes, the people were so overwhelmed they conspired together to "take Him by force, to make Him king" (John 6:15).

Such was Jesus. But a problem exists among many of us. People who do not really know God's Son seek to represent Him to others. Instead of testifying of His wonderful works, they testify only of their religion. The unsaved do not see Jesus. They hear about church, they are told sin is wrong, lusts are evil, and drunkenness a terrible shame, but they do not see the wonder of the love of Jesus. Yes, these things are wrong, but people must meet the love of Jesus before they will abandon their love of sin.

Plainly, Jesus called a number of people to silence concerning Himself. There were some whom He told, "See that you tell no one" (Matt. 8:4, also 9:30, 12:16). Others He outright forbade to speak, even though what they spoke was truth (Mark 3:11-12). Still others He warned would be doing great works, yet He neither sent them nor spoke to them, nor did He ever know them (Matt. 7:22-23). Indeed, there were even those of whom He warned whose zeal for converts took them over "sea and land," yet their proselytes became "twice as much a son of hell" as they themselves were (Matt. 23:15).

It is not our goal to discourage any from witnessing, especially when the need is so great in our society. Still, we must realize that what we are routinely - in attitude and deed - is a living testimony that, without our premeditation, is "known and read by all men" (2 Cor. 3:2). A "witness" is not just that which is "said"; it is that which is seen. If we will draw men to Christ in heaven, they must be eyewitnesses of Christ in us. But, if we have flagrant sin or self-righteousness, our witness is non-effective.

Let Your Light So Shine

Light, in the Scriptures, symbolizes the outraying purity of the Holy God. When our hearts and subsequent actions are pure, the light of God's Presence shines through us into this world. It is with this in mind that Jesus tells us to let our light shine before men in such a way that they see our good works and glorify the Father (Matt. 5:16).

If good works glorify the Father, then bad works bring Him dishonor. Paul tells us that the "name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles" because of the sins of those who fail to represent Him (Rom. 2:24).

King David was a great witness of the Living God to his generation, but when David sinned his witness became a reproach. In the 51st Psalm, David's prayer reveals the right attitudes necessary to truly witness for God. He prayed, "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. ...Then I will teach transgressors Thy ways, and sinners will be converted to Thee" (Ps. 51:10-13).

You see, the credibility of our witness is lost when sin rules in our lives. The world has heard too many Christians give testimony to a life they are not living. They cause multitudes of people to think Christianity does not work.

How to Know When to Witness

"But sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you...for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence." 1 Peter 3:15

Many Christians are told to witness for Jesus. Again, we would not discourage your witness for Jesus; rather we seek to encourage you to live for Him as well! Let people see Him in you before you testify. There are Christians who publicly sin in the work place: they lose their tempers and do bad work, they are often late or heard complaining about management and job conditions. Yet, they feel compelled to give their testimony. They profess to know God, but by their deeds they deny Him (Titus 1:16). A "voice" in their minds compels them to "witness for Jesus." Sometimes that voice is the Holy Spirit, but more often it is not. Undaunted, they are sure it is from heaven, since they feel "guilty" until they witness and feel "good" afterward.

There is one sure way to know if the voice urging you to witness is from God: If the voice speaking to you is the audible voice of someone who has seen your good works and is asking about your way of life, that voice has been inspired by God. When people see Christ in you - in your patience when wronged, your peace in adversity, your forgiveness amidst cruelty - they will ask about your hope.

The Seed of Reproduction is in Your Fruit

If your conversion is genuine, you found a love for Jesus that is, in itself, a witness of His life. Unfortunately, we often seek to lead people into our religion instead of to Christ. How often we seek to convert our family and friends into a particular church structure. People must be led to Jesus, not merely to church.

Let us always remember, Jesus wants to reach people, not drive them away. How does God expect us to do that? First, let us make sure our conversion is real, that we have truly given over our lives to Jesus Christ. Then, determine to bear the spiritual fruit of love and humility in your life.

In the Garden of Eden the Lord placed trees with "seed in the fruit." Remember, beloved, the seed that has power to reproduce life is in the fruit. If you would like to see the life of Christ reproduced in your loved ones or friends, walk in the fruit of the Spirit. For the power of reproduction is in the seed and the seed is in your fruit. The fruit we must display comes from the Tree of Life, which brings "healing of the nations" (Rev. 22:2). It is not in the tree of knowledge of good and evil - legalistic laws, judging what is wrong in people.

Should you sin or stumble before them, which we all do at times, repent both to God and to those you have sinned against. A sincere repentance to an unsaved person is a sure sign that God is both real and in control of your life!

Parents: do you want your children raised for Christ? Do you want your words to impart eternal life? Walk in the fruit of the Holy Spirit. As your children are nourished by the fruit in your life, the seeds within your fruitfulness will reproduce in your family the same qualities. Would you convert your spouse? Your parents? Your friends? Walk in the fruit of the Spirit, in love, joy, peace, patience, and kindness. Those who know you will find your life very attractive, for through your life they will see the holy life of Jesus.

Sonship Is More Important

John Lallier

The Lord gave me a clear vision last week, the Lord finally spoke to me,

In this vision someone came to me trying to sell me a diamond and telling me its worth a lot of money, I looked at the diamond and it was a real diamond and large and cut proper, but looking into the diamond it wasn’t worth as much as I was told.

It was only worth $300 dollars and not thousands of dollars, then the Lord told me sonship is more important, having that quiet time in him and being led by his spirit. I get at least two dreams and visions every day and all day long the Lord directs me to someone and I tell people what the Lord is saying to them.

Sonship is leading people to Christ and showing others how to hear from God and be led by his spirit. Jesus said that we will receive the Holy Spirit and he will teach us and God would put his law in our minds and we would know him and be led by him.

We are at the end of the church age. For two thousand years God had the five fold ministry for the perfecting of the saints and to establish the church, and make disciples.

Now that after two thousand years of church the church back slid [apostasy]. A remnant was called out of the church unto him [Jesus] and that remnant are to be sons of God led by his spirit and doing the will of the father and only doing what the father shows them, sonship not five fold,

God will poor out his spirit one more time and draw many to him [Jesus]. The churches will get shut down and Satan will take over the churches and the remnant will be in the wilderness.

Remember the vision the Lord gave me of the church. I saw the sink hole and in the bottom of the sink hole I saw a building and nothing was salvageable. I saw a bulldozer and the bulldozer took the building down and the hole was filled with dirt and a new stone set on top of the dirt, a whole new foundation

Jesus said we will be priest and kings and rule and rain with Christ, the next move of God will be priest and kings and sonship which was founded on the five fold ministry, most of the true believers and overcomers will be in home cell churches and they will be led by the spirit and hearing directly from Jesus and being led by his spirit. there will be many saved by the sons of God and the book of acts will be played out all over again. But this time the believers will be chased by Satan and the Lord will lead them to places of safety in the wilderness. In the wilderness Jesus will be the head and the priest and kings will be in control being led by the spirit.

Paul said to Tim, that at the end of the church age the church will fall away and go into apostasy. Why will God restore something that didn’t work? During the 1000 year rain it will be the priest and kings and not the old church order that will be in control. The Holy Spirit will be in every one and Jesus will be the head and the Holy Spirit will be the teacher. Read the end of Eph 4, the five fold will be for the perfecting of the saints, Eph 4 13 is next and then 14 and 15. Eph 4 11 started two thousand years ago.

Now John 16 13 is happening. Jesus is doing a new thing we can't hold onto the old we must move on. I want to be a son of God and be led by his spirit, I'll spend 3 hrs in him every day and do what he shows me and be spirit led [that's sonship]. The babes still need to be shown the way. No new churches will be established, sonship will be established. The eaglets will become eagles and no more chickens pens telling them they are chickens and can't fly and the rooster lording over them]. How many people in your bible study dropped out because they didn't agree with you. If we spend more time showing people how to get connected to Christ and how to hear from God themselves, then they can be led by the spirit.

I have been under at least 5 apostles and they all believe they are right and even the apostles don't agree on all things, [confusion]
Read the book of acts. There was more dissention amongst the apostles, Peter was a trouble maker some apostles wouldn't go with other apostles. Isn't it the same today, how could God restore a mess unless he does a new thing and knocks it down and fills in the hole sets a new foundation stone, [priest kings, feast of tabernacles] A new age 1000 year reign with Jesus being King of Kings and priest and kings along side of Jesus,

We are about to enter into the tribulation. The Lord showed me the bible pages turning very fast, Satan is about to enter this world and set up his church and the true saints will scatter and be in the wilderness. God will do exploits thru his called out ones, the church age is almost over, let us all be part of the greatest move of his spirit and lead many to Christ.

Let's not come under disagreements and argue over some petty doctrine, trying to prove we are right, causing division. A house divided will not stand. Do you know how many apostles, prophets, evangelists, teachers and pastors are waiting for God to poor out his spirit so they can get rich and famous, and have the largest following, full of greed, pride?

The real apostles and pastors and prophets and evangelists and teachers will wash peoples feet and become servants and lead all to Christ. They will not draw attention to themselves and will become priest and kings and will be rewarded by Christ and not by the people. I will sit at his feet and spend that quiet time in [Christ] and only be led by his spirit and only do what the father shows me and become a son of God.

Know Christ hear his voice and become his servant. Move when he says to move, sit when he says to sit and walk when he says to walk. Stand on the rock [Jesus] get your eyes off of man and put them on Christ. That is the purpose of the five fold ministry, so men and women can become sons of God and not pew warmers, Romans chapter eight,

Stand In My Joy

My word is simple and it is true. My word goes forth and accomplishes all it said it would. This is My Word to My Faithful ones. Beloved, I have called you into a calling that only you will fulfill. You have answered the call, you have been obedient and I WILL fulfill My call on your life. I will do as I said ... Many are called, but few are chosen - I have chosen you.

Lo, My Beloved, I have not allowed a day to go by without a witness to you. I have used many avenues and ways in revealing My love for you and My hand has been upon you. My Word is true ... I will never leave you or forsake you. I AM a faithful God - faithful to My promises. I could have called anyone but I chose you!

Listen to your heart. Think not that it's your imagination. Know that it's the Spirit of your God speaking to your heart. You have asked to hear My voice, listen to your heart. You have said "Lord, time is passing by" but I say unto you it is not passing. I AM accumulating the time for time is in My hands.

You have said "Please, could I at least have something?" Beloved, you will be an example of one who waits on the Lord, does not try to exalt yourself but allowing your God to place you. Now you will see what your heavenly Father can do with a heart wholly yielded unto Me. I have more for you than you can ever imagine. The scepter has been granted. I WILL draw you forward ... I WILL anoint you ... and I WILL place you!

There is a new and fresh anointing flowing forth touching those I have called. It is an anointing that will empower you to accomplish all that I have called you to do. It is flowing from the throne and it is flowing with grace. My grace must accompany any word or ministry performed in the Name of Jesus. It is by My grace that all things will be accomplished. The time is nigh that you will go in My love, in My power, in My grace and In MY Name!

My Beloved, you have experienced things you never thought you would experience. Through it all, I have been preparing you to walk the path that I have prepared for you. This path is prepared for you but you will never walk it alone. I will be with you always just as I have never left your side through the preparation time although many times you felt I have. You are and you WILL experience this move of your God, one that none have ever known before. I will be glorified in this move and great and mighty things will be done by Me and you will be My instrument many times. You have taken up your cross to follow Me and the load has been very heavy at times, but I AM your portion and your help.

Seedtime and harvest. I AM harvesting the seed I have sown in your heart. You have watered and plucked the weeds that have tried to smother out the harvest. The weeds have been many, but you have been My faithful gardener through it all and now you will be the harvester and reaper. You will bring in the harvest from My barns. I have sown the seeds, now you will harvest.

Celebrate, I say celebrate! Celebrate the new beginning. The new beginning of a new life. I say celebrate the birthing. Make known to all around this new beginning. I AM calling forth a celebration. I AM bringing you out of your isolation and calling you to walk forth as a mighty warrior of God. Stand tall, My beloved, stand strong In Me. I want those around you to see My Glory in you. Many say, "Where is your God?" They feel that I AM not moving in you let alone bringing you forth. But those around you and the world and the church, will see that I AM alive and that I have placed My Glory and My Love upon you. You shall step out of hiding, so all can see Who I AM and what I can do. Though many have appeared to have forsaken you, will I forsake you now? NO ... so Rejoice, My child, I say rejoice. This is your time, you hour. You shall see the fulfillment of My plans for your life, the fulfillment of My promises. Open your arms and receive, do not allow anyone to dissuade you. Open your arms and open your heart to receive all that I have spoken and promised you. Beloved, there is no lack or slack in the promises I have for you. Open wide your arms and your heart for the bountiful, I say the full blessings that I have for you.

The day is dawning when all I have promised is fulfilled. You have waited and trusted. You have stood in times of rejection, even though your heart was breaking, still you stood In Me. Beloved, as the sun rises on the horizon, so is the fulfillment of My Word. I AM honoring your patience. I AM honoring your love for Me and your willingness, if necessary, to leave all for Me. The day is dawning, allow MY peace to be your substance. Now see Me move in a mighty way. Joy cometh in the morning and morning is here. I will fill you with My joy for it cometh and I say it cometh in the morning. No more shall you stand in uncertainty, no more shall you stand in the shadow of others. Stand, My Beloved, STAND IN MY JOY for marvelous are the works I AM doing in your life. STAND IN MY JOY, My Beloved, it is morning.

Expect My Word To Be Made Manifest

Great and Mighty is the Lord your God and I AM doing great and mighty acts in your behalf! The I AM has been bridging the gaps with all the unknowns being bridged for you. There is no area of your life or calling that I have not moved in ... Now you will see each uncertainty becoming a certainty. You will see a moving as never been seen before as My plan unfolds before your eyes. All is being set in motion and the quicklies are beginning. Know that I AM in control and My Spirit has made all the preparations, therefore, EXPECT MY WORD TO BE MADE MANIFEST!

Have I not said it? Have I not proclaimed it? I have sent forth a proclamation on your behalf, sealed with My signet ring - therefore - it must be done! I have called forth My messengers and decreed all that I have proclaimed and all that I have declared on your behalf shall come to past and be accomplished. It is time for you to come forth and take your rightful place.

Be not afraid of what anyone may say... You are My child and you know My voice. Because someone cannot or does not receive what I give to you to speak does not invalidate that word. You have been faithful to speak what I have given you and those who could or would receive it did so... Beloved, know that there will always be those who will oppose you but conversely there will always be those who will receive. Even now, the accuser continues to try to dissuade you from what I have for you. Use the sword that I have given you and press on even when it is dark knowing always that I AM there with you just as I promised.

To My Beloved daughters, so many of you feel like a destitute woman in so many arenas. My child, you are not a destitute woman but a woman of power and authority and My wisdom and My Spirit are in you. Therefore, draw on My wisdom and hear My Spirit as I instruct you in ALL your ways. I AM giving you wisdom concerning your finances, I AM giving you wisdom on which way to move, hear My Spirit for your time of ministry is here. My Spirit is revealing things and instructions to you...listen to My Spirit, you are not destitute.

My daughters know that there is a revolution, an overthrow taking place in the heavenlies on your behalf. The King of Kings is in the foreground. He is rousting out the demon assigned to pull you down and to put you down. This one has been lying saying that you have been falling, going down but My truth says that you are going up and forward. The King of Kings has said enough is enough. Know that I will not let your life get out of My plans. You see promises and blessings as delayed but now you will see the results of what I said I would do in your life. I will not delay for I have the timetable in My hands. Take courage for My hand is upon you and My eyes have never left you. All else may fail in the world but I will never fail or forsake you. Listen to the Word of the Lord, your God. Speak the word ingrained in your heart and see My plan for your life come to past. It WILL be fulfilled for I have spoken it. The windows of heaven are opening, be prepared for the pouring out, this is your season and it is the season for My daughters to arise! EXPECT TO SEE MY WORD BE MADE MANIFEST.

To all of My Faithful Ones, the hand of your Almighty God is going before you... You do not see My hand or feel My hand but it is there. You walk by faith and not by sight and you proclaim my word. Beloved, I cannot lie. I MUST keep My Word to My covenant child. You will not go down but will be on top. This is also the way of faith. The I AM has been and is strengthening you in this walk. It lasts for just a moment and the test of your faith will bring forth the harvest, far above all that you can comprehend. Be prepared to receive the abundance coming your way into your hands. There are abundant blessings coming in all areas. Be prepared to receive!

It is time for breakthrough. I AM breaking through the walls, the strongholds, the devices of the enemy to keep My plan in your life from coming forth. As with Job, the enemy requested My permission to put your through the fire. He said you would deny Me and abort My plan for your life. Although you were weary, although you were tired, you never denied your God or lost the vision I had given you for your life and as Job you will receive back double for all you have lost for you remained faithful.

The Spirit of God is moving across this nation and across the world in a mighty way. I AM calling forth My mighty men and women of valor, those willing to give up all for My Kingdom and purposes. My call has gone out for Davids to face Goliaths. I have chosen you and have given you MY heart. Uncompromising hearts willing to hear ME and follow My instructions. You, My Beloved, have answered the call. A people to take a stand in these days. Willing to stand on My principles as though in a revolution as in the early days of your nations. Those who are willing to fight and stand for My principles, those willing to go as revolutionary soldiers.

My Beloved, get ready for your day. It is coming forth. Do not be consumed with the hour, concentrate on ME and the now. Follow the leading of My Spirit, follow the promptings in your inner most being as it is Me. I will take care of the hour - you follow the leadings. "There is a Quickly in this word" - This is the day that I have made .... rejoice and be glad in it and EXPECT THE WORD TO BE MADE MANIFEST!

Signs Of Restoration

Terri Jordan

The Restoration of David's Tabernacle

The transition has been long, but now I will do a NEW THING!

The old is truly gone and the new has arrived. This is more than stepping into a new season. This is restoration.

A better picture being that of seeing an old house restored to a new state. Having the same foundation, but so beautiful when restored.

Know that I am near and about to do something incredible. This year is just the beginnings of the restoration of many things. My tabernacle, (dwelling places) in the earth being the first and the foremost.

This work is the work of My hand and only I will do it by My Spirit.

The Restoration Of Relationships.

I will restore many relationships this year. Many that the enemy destroyed, and many that I chose to separate for seasons and even years gone by.

A Repositioning Of My army

This is a year of repositioning of My army. Much shifting is about to take place. Many things are about to happen in churches to reposition My people. A shaking and a moving . Some churches that have been full will be almost empty and some that have been almost empty will be full. My angels have been released on a mighty assignment for this to begin to take place. They are going to and fro making ready for changes. As I have already spoken to you that the changing of the guards has only just begun with well-known men , for many more that are finished in this earth will begin to be called out.

Double Portion

It is time very soon that the double portion anointing will be made manifest. Double, Double. Look for it! Believe for it! Double in the natural for my purposes to be fulfilled and double anointing, and many will be healed. It has already been released, and soon to be seen. My Bride is crossing over into her promised land. She must now completely consecrate herself, for tomorrow I will do signs and wonders. She will gird up her armor and become My warrior fire bride.

Prophetic Praise Released!

I am calling you into a higher level of Praise. The enemy even now is beginning to tremble because he is about to be forced to move out of the way as heaven invades earth. The first phase of release of jubilant rejoicing is about to be released. Praise as never before been on the earth. With this praise there will be a pouring out of new wine and the oil of gladness. Sorrow and sighing will break off of my bride. An increase anointing will rest on drummers and percussionist as they hear the new sounds that are about to be released from heaven. You will become violent for the Kingdom. The violent will take the land by force.

Prophetic Dancers Released!

The dance is also about to be restored. It will be the victory dance. The dancers are about to be released by My Spirit in full force. This is going to be such a big thing, and many will not understand, and will be appalled by what they see and unfortunately will judge wrongly. This year was a marked sign of the end of the years of Saul (Saul representing the old system of religious structure and bondage , the control of man, the quenching of the Holy Spirit.) and the beginning of the restoration of David's tabernacle.(David's tabernacle representing My radical, passionate lovers worshipping Me in freedom and joy as I dwell in them and manifest My presence among them. Just as David danced with all of his might before the Ark of My presence to bring it out of captivity, so will by bride dance as the Ark of My presence is even now once again returning. So lift up your heads and your hands that hang down, and praise Me as My presence is ushered in.

1 Samuel chapters 4-7 The Ark of God's presence was taken into captivity and ended up at Kirjath-jearim and for twenty years it stayed there. After the death of Saul , David returned to bring the Ark back with him , his first attempt angering the Lord because it was not done correctly, thus he returned a second time doing it the LORD"S way. 1 Chronicles 15:28-29 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the horn, with trumpets, with loud-sounding cymbals, with harps and lyres. And it happened when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and making merry and she despised him in her heart.

Acts 15:14-18 And with this the words of the prophets agree, just as it is written, After these things (which was taking among the Gentiles a people for His name) I WILL REBUILD THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID WHICH HAS FALLEN, AND I WILL REBUILD ITS RUINS, AND I WILL RESTORE IT, IN ORDER THAT THE REST OF MANKIND MAY SEEK THE LORD, AND ALL THE GENTILES WHO ARE CALLED BY MY NAME, SAYS THE LORD, WHO MAKES THESE THINGS KNOWN FROM OF OLD.

Restoration is the process of restoring and or Something being restored by rebuilding . Restore means to give back something taken or lost. To return to a former or normal state, position or use. Tabernacle in the Greek is Habitation. John 1:14 The word became flesh and dwelt or (tabernacled) among us. This is what our wonderful God still desires to do with us. Come Awesome Father God, Come Lord Jesus, lover of our souls, and come Sweet Holy Spirit. Have Your way.

Standing In The Victory Of Christ
Arlette Pollard

Revelation 15:2-3

In a world aligned with darkness
Who will raise God’s banner high
Rejoicing as they sing of His righteousness
While walking on troubled seas stilled by His voice.
In a world aligned with vengeance
Whose eyes will stay upon the Light
So that mercy and forgiveness
Bears a song to pierce the night.

Great and marvelous is the King
Whose message of truth forever rings
Upon the hearts of those redeemed
From the perilous depths of unbelief
Through the promise of God’s eternal love
Found in His beloved Son.

In a world distressed by worry
Who will claim peace in the Lord
Who will be released through God’s mercy
From the misery of grief raised by discord.
In a world violently tossed to and fro
Who will find comfort in God’s Holy Word
In whose life will Christ be known
As the trumpeter of truth who has been heard.

Great and marvelous is the Lord
Whose voice like a two-edged sword
Divides asunder spirit and soul
So thoughts hidden in darkness are made known
Bringing forth men equipped for the kingdom’s call
Who will walk in God’s strength and not their own.

> “And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.” Revelation 15:2-3
> “O sing unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvelous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.” Psalm 98:1

Great and marvelous are the works of the Lord; just and true are all His ways. God’s righteous works can be known when a man looks toward the Light of the world, God’s beloved Son, Jesus Christ. When a man looks toward Jesus Christ, he looks upon the righteousness of God. In Jesus Christ dwells the justice and truth of God’s mercy and longsuffering toward mankind. God’s beloved Son is a marvelous demonstration of God’s great and perfect work.

Though all men are born of the corruptible seed of Adam, God prepared a way for imperfect men to experience the righteousness of God, through faith in His beloved Son. Through faith in God's Son, Jesus Christ, the righteousness of God is shed abroad upon a man's heart and mind, so that God's truth and justice extends to the uttermost depths of a man's soul. Through faith in Jesus Christ, God breathes His Holy Spirit of divine righteousness upon a man's soul, so that a man is awakened to God's truth and justice.

Through faith in God's beloved Son, the Spirit of eternal life is given, which will transform a man's heart and mind, so that his thoughts and desires are aligned with the righteousness of Jesus Christ. A man born of the corruptible seed of Adam stands overshadowed by death and darkness, in servitude to the voice of the deceiver. But a man whose faith is turned toward Jesus Christ, the Word of God, will be born again, of incorruptible seed, into the kingdom of God's righteousness. The incorruptible seed, God's Holy Word, is planted upon a man's darkened heart, then watered by living streams, which is the Holy Spirit released from the throneroom in heaven, so that death, darkness and unbelief is swallowed up by life.

A man, who has heard God's trumpeting voice calling to him through the hearing of the Word, will be awakened unto righteousness, which is found in God's beloved Son. Jesus Christ who has been purposed of God to be the, "author and finisher of our faith", is prepared to move upon a man's thoughts, so that lies and accusations spoken against God are cast off the throne of a man's heart and mind. Lies and accusations against God were accepted by a man as he lived his days under shadow of darkness, in servitude to the deceiver. But as the Word is established in righteousness upon a man's heart, God's divine justice will be implemented within a man's life, so that freedom from the deceivers voice of accusation is obtained.

Each man who has placed his faith in Jesus Christ is to undergo a transformation process, whereby God's breath breaks asunder the chains that hold a man captive to the realm of darkness. Step by step, from glory to glory, the Spirit will continue to reveal greater depths of God's desire toward the man, so that he will understand the importance of his having no participation in the "unfruitful works of darkness." Jesus Christ, who is the Light purposed of God to bring life into the lives of men, will shine the truth upon a man's heart, so that he is awakened in his understanding of God's desire and purpose toward him.

> "For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light." Ephesians 5:8-14

Each man is born of the corruptible seed of Adam, and walks under shadow of darkness, influenced by the voice of the deceiver. Each man is born according to the Adamic nature, so that his thoughts are influenced by carnal desires, which seek to satisfy and comfort the flesh. A man who walks according the first Adam, born of corruptible seed, looks upon life through eyes that have not been awakened to the righteousness of God. Men, who walk according to the Adamic nature, will naturally be influenced by carnal desires, so that they live their days seeking to find purpose in life by satisfying the lusts of the flesh.

The carnal nature can be compared to the nature of a beast in the field, which looks to the earth in satisfying his needs and desires. The beast of the field is not able to conceive of a relationship with God, through the Holy Spirit, which is able to usher him into a realm where God's glory satisfies his needs and desires. A man who walks according to the carnal nature will not understand finding peace with God, in regard to his position in life, or with his neighbors near and far, until the day the Holy Spirit floods his heart and mind with God's love, mercy and truth.

The beast in the field cannot ascend to any greater height than what his natural five senses conceive as reality. A man born of the corruptible seed of Adam is similar to the beast, in that he cannot conceive of any greater realm of existence, where his needs and desires will be satisfied, than in the earth and all that it provides.

The beast of the field was not purposed of God to ascend any higher than in seeking to satisfy his physical needs and desires. But God did purpose that a man ascend beyond the beastly realm of earthly, carnally focused existence. God did purpose that, in turning toward Jesus Christ in faith, a man would find purpose in life so that he could look beyond the realm of darkness, past thinking that in satisfying the lusts of the flesh he would find happiness and security.

God did purpose that through Christ man could ascend into the realm of Light, where God's Word would shed truth into the inner recesses of a man's heart and mind, so that, like Jesus, he would realize that fulfillment and purpose in life is obtained when walking according to the will of the Father. A man was created to be filled with God's Spirit, which was released from God's throneroom in heaven, so that he could live his days led of the Spirit, and not of the flesh.

Though all men are born bearing the image of the first Adam, it is God's desire that men be born again of the Spirit, so that they bear the image of the second Adam, Jesus Christ. Men who bear the image of the first Adam, who are led of the flesh, and marked for the grave, if they should turn toward the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the second Adam, who became a life giving spirit, they will never taste of death. The grave will have no hold over a man's soul that bears the mark of the Holy Spirit, which has sealed him unto the righteousness of Christ, so that forever he will walk with the Lord on high.

Those who bear the image of the first Adam are counted among the number of those who have no inheritance within God's eternal kingdom of righteousness. Because they do not bear the seal that marks them unto righteousness, they do not understand entering into God's Sabbath day rest, which is found in Christ. They do not understand that "the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost." (Romans 14:17) But those who bear the mark and image of the second Adam, the seal of promise, God's heavenly divine Spirit, appreciate having entered into God's kingdom of righteousness, found in the Holy Spirit, while walking in mortal, fleshly bodies.

Those filled with God's divine nature, which is the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven, understand the value and importance of Jesus' words, "the kingdom of God is within." (Luke 17:21) The eyes of their hearts have been opened to understand the majesty and power of the Lord, who stands over the heavens and the earth. And when it is the time that their physical bodies, which are made of dust, are ready to return to the dust, the life giving, life transforming Spirit of God, shall ascend with them on high with the Lord over all creation.

A man, in whom the Light of glory has not yet opened his eyes to understand the power and authority of God's heavenly Spirit, will find it natural to judge according to the carnal nature, which seeks to protect its own. Because the righteousness of God has not opened the eyes of their hearts to understand that all men have sinned, and that it is only by God's grace that any man can be considered righteous, he will judge the world around him according to the truth perceived through his natural mind.

But a man who has partaken of God's Spirit, will understand the significance of God's mercy in pronouncing judgment unto righteousness over his life, through his faith in Jesus Christ. His eyes will be opened to understand that he did not deserve judgment unto righteousness, yet God in His mercy, extended His righteous right hand, and pulled him out of the pit that he had, in his blindness, called home. He will understand the intent behind the message that Jesus spoke, in which He proclaimed, "Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again." (Matthew 7:1-2)

A man born of the Spirit will be given a new nature, a new heart aligned with the purposes of God. And with the new nature will come the blessings of spiritual sight. A man born again of the Spirit, judged by God unto righteousness, will look upon others through the eyes of Jesus Christ. Their desire will be that others obtain salvation through Jesus Christ, as they have. They will cease from desiring vengeance according to the flesh. It will be their desire not to hinder any man from entering God's kingdom of righteousness by placing a stumbling stone of offence before them.

Those born again of the Spirit will come to understand that Jesus is the true, righteous judge. They will understand that Jesus is able to accurately determine another's relationship with the Father. They will come to realize that Jesus knows the beginning from the end. He knows who will turn toward Him in faith, and who will not. Those born of the Spirit will come to understand it is Jesus Christ who knows that today, a man may walk under judgment of condemnation, as they deny the power and authority of God, but that at another point in time, this same person will turn toward Him in faith, and in doing so will receive judgment unto righteousness.

> "Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased; I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall show judgment to the Gentiles. He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets. A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory. And in his name shall the Gentiles trust." Matthew 12:18-21

Behold Jesus Christ, God's beloved servant, in whom God is well pleased. God placed His Spirit upon Jesus Christ, so that judgment unto righteousness would be made available to the Gentiles. God placed His Spirit upon Jesus Christ, so that He could demonstrate God's power over sin, and that that through His life, death and resurrection, God's hand of salvation could be offered not only to the tribes of Israel, but also to the Gentiles, who formerly had no right of inheritance into God's kingdom of righteousness.

Jesus Christ, "was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin." Jesus Christ, the spotless lamb without blemish, was purposed to take upon His righteous shoulders God's punishment toward sin. God's judgment against sin was death. But through the perfect obedience of Jesus Christ, a way was made available to men so that they could receive forgiveness of their sins, and triumphant victory over the world.

Through faith in Jesus Christ, God now sends forth judgment unto victory. Men deserving of death, when they turn toward Jesus Christ, receive forgiveness and an eternal inheritance in heaven. Through faith in Jesus Christ, victory over the beast, and his image, and his mark, and over the number of his name, is obtained. Victory over the beast, the fleshly, carnal nature, cannot be accomplished through works aligned with darkness, nor through obedience to rules and regulations, but only through faith in Jesus Christ. It is through faith in Jesus Christ, that man obtains the life transforming power of the Holy Spirit, who is able to awaken a man unto the righteousness of God. It is the Holy Spirit who breaks the chains that hold men captive to the earthly, carnal, beastly nature.

Through faith in Jesus Christ, victory is obtained as God's love and truth, released through the Holy Spirit, moves upon a man's heart and mind, so that a man's needs and desires are satisfied. Through faith in Jesus Christ, the troubled seas from which the beast rose up will be stilled. Through faith in Jesus Christ, God's Spirit will overcome thoughts aligned with unbelief, so that a man is able to live at peace with God. The troubled seas, the waters polluted by beastly, carnal desires that flow through a man's life, overwhelming his soul so that he falls into condemnation, will be quieted as God's voice continues to lead him into all truth.

A man whose soul has been stilled, as God's voice moves in power through the Holy Spirit upon his once polluted, troubled waters, will give thanks unto the Lord for His mercy, goodness and love toward him. He will give thanks as polluted waters are healed and restored within him by the Deliverer's touch. He will sing praises that the beast who rose up from the sea, has been brought into submission to the voice of God, who moves in mercy and love upon his heart and mind. A man's heart, when aligned to the goodness of God, will sing praise that the fires of condemnation and hell have been put under the feet of Christ, who dwells within them through the Holy Spirit.

The man who stands upon the seas stilled by the voice of God, will sing of the good work that God has done in his life. The man, who is able to stand upon seas once polluted and troubled by the beast, will give praise unto God for the victory that is his in Christ. He has been awakened to understand that all power and glory belongs to God. What man could not accomplish, in that the flesh was weak, is possible with God. Those who reach a position of faith, where they understand the depravity of their own flesh, and how victory over the flesh is only obtained through Christ, will sing of God's marvelous love and desire for them.

A man not awakened unto righteousness, does not understand that his emotions, which have been polluted by the enemy, continue to wash upon his soul, overwhelming his emotions so that he feels lost and dejected, and stands as easy prey for the deceiver's accusing voice of condemnation. He does not understand that in Christ is victory over the beast and over the fires of hell. Until he turns toward Jesus Christ in faith, he will continue to be overwhelmed by his emotions aligned with the beastly, carnal, Adamic nature.

Blessed are those who come in the name of Jesus Christ, bearing the gospel of peace to those overwhelmed by the despair fashioned by their own emotions. Blessed are those who continue to extend Jesus Christ's righteous right hand to those drowning in a sea of hopelessness and misery. Blessed are the feet of those who walk in the righteousness of Christ, who continue through all seasons, speaking of the mercy, love and truth that is found in Christ.

> "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth." 1 John 5:4-6

Straight Is The Way
Susan Cummings

Straight is the Way and Narrow is the path that I have called My People to walk upon, and few have chosen to walk upon it and to remain upon it. It is indeed a narrow path and it is available to every man, woman, and child. But few walk faithfully to remain upon it.

Many turn away from the path because it is not popular to walk against the flow of the world.

Many turn away from the path because it is too costly to their flesh.

Many walk away from the path because it is easier to go with the crowd than to fight the criticism and personal attacks that come with the narrow path.

Many choose to compromise their position to save their lives rather than lay their lives down for Me, and they settle for a stolen portion.

Many cannot die to their desires, and end up being enslaved by them.

The price for your redemption was paid, at great cost, and the price of your obedience is also paid by great cost. I loved you enough to die for you, and yet do you love me enough to die to everything of the world for Me?

The call has gone out.

The alarm has been sounded.

The response has been weighed and measured.

The Path is set.

I Have Stationed You At Your Post
Susan Cummings

I have stationed you at your post. I have set you upon your watch and have established you upon the wall. There is nothing that you need to maintain your position, but to remain at your place. I have fully placed you in your place and will keep you in it.

Do not be weary of the assignment that you are currently in. You must remain watchful, for great change will begin to affect your area, and you must be alert. Do not think that it is as it will always be, for nothing will remain the same. I am shaking all things, and what currently is, will now be changed and removed from it’s place, and rearranged to My purposes.

Do not take this current situation lightly, or take it as final, as both are only an illusion of the temporal realm. It is always mans ways, to think they are permanent and set in stone, but nothing is forever. I alone, am eternal and forever. Everything else is as I choose and determine. Men must make choices in their lives in accordance to their seeking My Face.

Do not fix your eyes upon the situation or the events happening around you. Many get caught up in the trials and fail to look to Me and trust Me in them. There is much rearranging to come, and few have My Plan for their circumstances. This is not the end, but only the shaking and the beginning of the release of the woes that have been determined upon the nations. This is the time to watch and pray and seek My Face.

Do not listen to the bad reports. What have I told you? Stand upon My Word!

I have given My Plan to My Own, and they will not fear, but will be faithful in the storm, and they will stand and proclaim My Word in the midst of the woes. Walk in My Word! Keep the Word ever before you, and stand IN it! For it is your foundation. My Word is True, and will preserve My Own, for I Am Faithful!

Do not think that calling yourself My Own, will make you My Own, for I require holiness, and sincerity of heart, and absolute faith and trust in Me. No one who comes to Me, will remain in Me, unless he gives himself fully to Me, and walks with Me daily in accordance with My Word. I desire relationship, not lip service. The woes that now come, will totally and finally divide those who are Mine from those who are not. This will be the full and complete separation and will set into order My House. I will fully sift the complacent and the idolatrous. With this separation will also come the full transformation that I have been bringing them into.

All things are in My Order and schedule. I have things ordered according to My Word, and it will break forth as I have decreed it, even as I declared it from the beginning. Justice will be established once again upon the wall. For I will remove the unfaithful ones and bring down the liars and deceivers, and truth will once again be declared in My House. The wicked will remain outside the camp and in their place of darkness that they have chosen to trust in.

Woe to those who are not found to be IN ME.

Sinless In Seattle

Bob Brasset

Sinless In Seattle
New Worship Revival Impacts The City Of Seattle
River Glory Church – Seattle, Washington
Speakers: Bob And Sue Brasset, Extreme Healing Ministries
January 9-11, 2004

This past weekend in Seattle, January 9 –11, Jesus did what He does best. He forgave peoples sins! He also healed peoples' bodies and He released people from demons. Sinners came to the meetings and Jesus made them sinless, spotless, pure and without defilement in the Father's eyes. Jesus did this by the working of His precious blood and " by the working of His mighty power which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand.."(Ephesians 1:19, 20)
Someone commented, "These ones that have accepted Christ and are now "Born Again"…they are now "SINLESS IN SEATTLE."…(only by the power of the cross of course).
What an amazing operation. How wonderful to see people go from death to life, from the kingdom of darkness to the kingdom of God's dear Son!

A Cleansing Pool

Friday night, Bob prophetically designated a pool of cleansing, in a particular part of the church. This pool of cleansing was like the pool of Bethesda (John 5:1-9) where the "angel stirred the waters and people received healing." This "pool" became available for cleansing from shame, guilt, defilement, bondages, sin and sickness. People soaked, laughed, danced, wept and saw visions. They saw angels...They also experienced what looked like gold dust, diamonds, rubies., Oil flowing from their hands and glitter. This phenomena began to show up everywhere including on people, in the hotel where Bob and Sue were staying and in restaurants.
Some people have "collections" of these "diamonds". One man had one of his assayed by an expert diamond appraiser. The appraiser stated that the diamond, although small, was worth about $500.00..

Unusual Outpouring

What an amazing, glorious outpouring of worship and healing, miracles, salvations and cleansing from sin! It has a revival intensity. It continued non-stop all weekend. Deafness, partial blindness, crippled people, degenerative diseases, incurable diseases, functional illnesses, all these and more were the object of God's healing – delivering power. One woman with a broken back and a broken neck, on strong pain killers, came to the pool and for prayer. Jesus healed her –just like that. No fanfare , no hype –just a complete restoration. Then Jesus healed her husband. He had a chronic foot condition with great swelling and pain. Instantly delivered and healed. What amazement on his face as he realized that his shoes were much too small for him now.…
Another woman with 5 diseases including CREST syndrome, Systemic scleroderma, Raynauds Disease, Esophageal Dysfunction etc. What a delight to see her expression as the symptoms disappeared , her body change before our eyes and to hear her testimony of healing the next night. Thank you Jesus.

Worship Opened the Door

Around October of 2002, a respected, accurate prophet was in North Seattle. While there, he prophesied that a new sound in worship would emerge in South Seattle. This worship impetus would grow into an actual worship revival. It would be simple, humble, joyous, anointed and would bring God's glory, which would dwell and remain. It would then go to the nations.

We feel that this prophecy has now come to pass at least in it's beginning stages. It is actually happening at River Glory Church in South Seattle area…a most unexpected place…. The worship is so pure, simple, intense, unsophisticated, God-honoring and joyous that the glory presence and glory cloud comes. The , the sanctuary, the people, the leaders are all enjoying this new level of God's power and presence.

Resurrections

On Saturday night Bob preached on Jesus power over death. It was prophetic and it was powerful. He gave numerous examples of present day resurrections – some from his own ministry, Extreme Healing Ministries. Here are three of the many:

1. Emtee Baatuma – Marshall Islands. It was a funeral and the casket was in the front of the church. The solemn ceremony was in progress. Emtee Baatuma walked to the front of the church, interrupted the preaching, stood in front of the open coffin and said, "Arise – come to life" in a loud voice. Nothing happened. Emtee put his head back and laughed a booming laughter. He reached out, took the dead woman by the hair, and shaking her head, said, "I said, arise – get up."
She rose up and got out of the casket…alive and well. People, terrified, screamed and ran out of the building. All gave glory to God.

2. A team from Dennis Brown's(A friend of Bob Brasset's) church in Grimsby, England was present at the Conference in Africa. Friends brought a corpse to the conference intending to get the team to pray over the corpse and raise it back to life. When they arrived they discovered it was the lunch hour. No one was present in the auditorium, not even the worship team. Everyone had gone to lunch. The friends left the corpse on the platform and went to lunch themselves. When they returned the 'corpse' was sitting on the platform, a little dazed, but quite alive! Someone said, "The anointing in the room was so strong, the worship had been so powerful there was enough anointing to actually raise this man from the dead even without anyone being there to rebuke death and command the person to come back to life. God did it anyway!."

Another conference – another corpse. Again, friends brought a corpse to the meeting for resurrection prayer and ministry. (Resurrections are expected in some parts of Africa – the revival fervor is that high.) The leader of the particular meeting met the friends carrying the corpse. He said, "There is an important teaching going on right now. I don't feel we should interrupt the speaker to do the resurrection. Your faith has made this man whole. Do what I say. Get a taxi, put the corpse in the back seat between you. Tell the taxi driver to take you to your address. Then, as you drive, every traffic light you come to, ask the corpse, 'are you hungry?' They obeyed. The driver's eyes were wide as saucers as they asked the corpse the question – are you hungry. You guessed it, after five times of asking him if he was hungry, he replied "yes!" He came back to life. The rigor mortis left and warmth and flexibility returned. They presented back to the parents a healthy son!

Jerry Kibarabara is from Nairobi, Kenya. Jerry graduated from the University of Export in London, England. He became a Christian businessman. His business began to grow and thrive. Married with a beautiful wife and children, he felt on top of the world. Little did he realize that world was about to come crashing down!

He was in Europe on a business trip when the news was brought to him. Your wife developed a sudden illness and most unexpectedly died. You must return at once! Jerry flew back on the first available flight. "Hours later", he said ,"I found myself in our bedroom. My wife's lifeless body lay on the bed. Her eyes were sunken in her head.

I gained courage and reached my hands toward heaven, "God of the living...precious Jesus!" I cried. Then I was in the spirit worshipping Jesus in spite of the circumstances. Twenty-five minutes later I came to myself. At that same moment my wife's spirit charged back into her body-Whoosh! I heard her sigh.
Then immediately her lips began to prophesy! "I have a word to you from the Lord: "Son, I am going to send you to many parts of the world. You are to tell everyone, without compromise ,that sanctification is not done when you get to heaven, but right here on earth."

I stared at my wife. Her soft voice held such power. Was God speaking through her even while she was dead?

She spoke again, "Son give my testimony. You will tell, without fear, that I am a God of miracles and that I can do anything for anyone."

My wife came back to me, totally healed, restored, as I had always known her. What happened to her, that day, caused me to lose any fear of death and to know, without any doubt, that the same God who raised Jesus, and my wife, from the dead is able to meet any need.

Conclusion

Jesus is the stronger of two men and Jesus continues to defeat the strong man through the glorious Gospel of the Kingdom. We heard it proclaimed with power this weekend. Someday satan will be totally banished from planet earth.(But that day is not yet.)

Between now and then you and I have a job to do.
We truly thank Jesus for what God is doing in River Glory Church in Seattle and through Bob and Sue Brasset's Ministry-Extreme Healing.

Slow Down And Live

Becky McLendon

We plow we break up our fallow ground, so there is ground for the sower to feed. We are unseen but we are plowing. It is a life that takes its time in the Lord, and does not get ahead or thrust itself. He who waits on the Lord and KNOWS that is what he is doing is subject to the persecution of a beast system who shouts, “HURRY UP! HURRY UP! Be on the CUTTING edge of Christianity and HURRY UP.”

The unsaved get in a hurry. The unsaved cut short the plan of God in their own lives and in the lives of others. This brings death. No matter what judges say, if every woman really got saved, it would stop abortion. For that matter, if all who call themselves Christians and part of the church really got saved, there would be no SPIRITUAL abortions. By the grace of God we have survived spiritual abortion. That dragon is ever breathing right in the man-child’s face to either abort him or devour him. Jesus said, “If a man keeps My saying he would never see death.” So, if you keep His saying without aborting any of it, you will never see death.

There is much power in quietness and confidence. When He was reviled He reviled not again; He did not “get even.” We must not let reviling take away our quietness. Quietness brings on the anointing. The anointing makes Jesus lord in every thing. So, those that know their Lord shall be strong and do exploits. These will know to discern the times, the TIME to be still and KNOW Him, and the TIME to go ye therefore into all the world! They know the reality of "You shall go out with JOY and be led forth with PEACE."

There is a peace like a tree it grows and grows. In quietness and confidence this peace flourishes. There is much competition in this world and carnal ministry, but in Jesus it is life-drinking life from Jesus.

Haste makes waste; so don't be in a hurry about any thing. Therefore, in slowness i wait. Slowing down in HIM is trusting in HIM. He sends His angels ahead to accomplish what our HASTE messes up.

The Lord says, “you have forever, so slow down.” Slow down and LIVE! My, what a reward of waiting; the great anointing that comes from it! Think about foreknowledge of God and waiting for the promises of the Father. That waiting is the foreknowledge He has given us. I remember one time He said "Everything that happens from here on is in my foreknowledge.” Even the things that seemed "bad" that happened, He foreordained it to happen to bring us into His foreknowledge. So we slow down and LIVE.

The Lord could be saying, “slow down I want some one to do this with me", and we are saying to Jesus, "I will wait until we can do this together as one". It’s not enough to have His spirit on us. We must have His spirit in us and as a part of us, lest we be like the moon with no light of our own. Slowing down gives us rest, and when we rest we walk in his light. Slowing down puts the moon under our feet and causes us to be clothed with the sun, or better yet, clothed with the Son.

You know the old story where they preach: “our time is short, so we have to get out there and work, work, work, and fret, fret, fret, and beg for money to help us ‘get the job done as quickly as possible’ for God! However, without the Lord's help, they have to make a business out of it. Perfection wants what JESUS wants and quits there. Do we love the Lord enough to QUIT our "stuff," drop it, and love Him? Can we truly slow down and LIVE?

Blessings and shalom, Becky

Spiritual Miscarriage

Ryan Wyatt

I recently had an incredible prophetic experience with God where I believe He clearly spoke to me about one characteristic of the times we are living in. He was telling me that His eyes are roaming to and fro throughout the whole earth looking to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose hearts are completely loyal to Him (2 Chronicles 16:9).

Immediately after hearing this, a hand came from the heavenlies, pulled me upward, and sat me down right before the throne of God. I looked, in astonishment, at Father God sitting upon His throne, totally engulfed in the most brilliant flame. Hebrews 12:29 was immediately quickened to me, "For our God is a consuming fire."

The Father reached His hand out from the fire and began to caress my face. He began to speak to me about holiness and setting our lives apart unto Him.
For those who will set their lives apart unto Him in intimacy, He will experientially open up the heavens over their lives and manifest His glory upon them and through them. In this atmosphere of God's fire, the heavens truly did open and the whole atmosphere changed.
I wept for over an hour as waves of His glory came rolling through the RV I was traveling in. As I left the RV, I told the worship leader there was an open heaven in there and if she would just step in she would immediately enter into a visitation with God, and it happened!

We are in a time where God is looking for those who will lay their lives on the altar and let themselves be consumed by His fire. Only God can truly set us apart unto Him and make us holy. As we completely set ourselves apart unto Him then He will open up the heavens over us and show Himself strong upon this generation through awesome miracles, signs, and wonders.

CHRIST WITHIN

God is speaking clearly in these times to His people. God is looking for a remnant of people who are totally in love with and consecrated to Him that He might place His glory upon them and see Heaven brought to earth.

Earlier this year, I released a word about how to "Birth Manifestations of the Realm of Heaven on Earth," and since that time, God has brought more clarity to me on this subject. In that word, I spoke about how Mary was chosen to bring forth the Son of God into the world in human flesh. The Holy Spirit overshadowed her and Jesus Christ was conceived within her womb.
Jesus Christ was a living, breathing, move of God. Every place he went heaven was brought forth on the earth. The Kingdom of Heaven was truly "at hand" when Jesus was on the scene. A young, virgin girl was chosen to bring this move of God forth.
In the same way Jesus Christ was conceived within Mary, He was also conceived within every born again believer at the moment of salvation, and we now have a move of God living within us.

The task and challenge of the hour is for the people of God to come into a place of such union and intimacy with the Lord that "Christ within" is released and the Glory of God is spread on the earth.

A SPIRITUAL MISCARRIAGE

One day, while brushing my teeth, of all things, I began to ask the Lord, "If we truly carry Jesus Christ, 'the greatest move of God,' within us, then why is He not being brought forth through the lives of His people?"
Holy Spirit immediately answered me and left me standing at the sink, motionless, with my toothbrush still in my mouth. I stood there for quite some time as the Lord began to download revelation into my spirit.

The Lord responded with this: "It's a miscarriage! My people are suffering a spiritual miscarriage."

"But why, Lord?" I said.

CHROMOSOMES OF HEAVEN

He responded by telling me about chromosomes.
It takes 23 chromosomes from a man and 23 chromosomes from a woman to produce a baby. A miscarriage is where something in the chromosomes is off or maybe there is not a perfect number of chromosomes, and therefore the baby is not born successfully.
In Mary's situation, she had her 23 chromosomes within her womb, but Jesus had no earthly father, so where did Jesus' Father's chromosomes come from? THE VERY DNA OF HEAVEN! The DNA of Father God, Heaven's 23 chromosomes, was implanted within Mary when the Holy Spirit overshadowed her and the Christ Child was conceived!

So, if God's people are having a spiritual miscarriage, then somehow, spiritually speaking, there is a bad mixture within the chromosomes. I remember Bobby Conner saying one time that the Lord spoke to Him audibly once and said,

"I will pour out My Spirit without measure when I have a people without mixture."

This is one of the biggest problems facing God's people in this day. God was using the analogy of chromosomes to speak to me about the mixture within the Body of Christ.

GRACE AND POWER + CONSECRATION AND YIELDED-NESS

I've already stated that Christ was also conceived within our spirit at salvation in a spiritual sense, and He now lives within us. In a spiritual way, the very DNA of heaven has also been implanted within us, and our mission is now to bring forth the Son of God on the earth and reveal His glory.
This is Authentic Christianity: to live in intimate union with the Lord and, out of that relationship, destroy the works of the devil and manifest the realm of Heaven on earth daily.

I would liken heaven's DNA, or chromosomes, to "Grace and Power" from on high. All grace and power has already been made available to us and, in fact, already lives within us.
I would liken our chromosomes to "Consecration and Yielded-ness." The only difference between Jesus Christ in His earthly life and us is that He was completely yielded and consecrated to the Holy Spirit. When you have a perfect mixture of "grace and power" from on high and our "consecration and yielded-ness" then you have a worldwide move of God!
But instead, the church today is consumed with a mixture of the world and its systems in the midst of our relationship with God. If we can get the mixture of the world out and have clean hands and a pure heart then we will see the Lord and reflect His glory!

THE PRIESTHOOD

Many of us want to rule and reign as "overcoming kings" but, first, we must learn to be "consecrated priests."
The King is the one who administrates and wields the power and authority of the Kingdom. This would be the anointing for miracles, signs and wonders, and powerful decrees that shift and change things in the heavenlies and the natural realm. However, before we operate in the anointing of kings we must first learn to function as priests of the Lord.

The Bible says that we are both priests and kings.

1 Peter 2:9-10
"But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light; for you once were not a people, but now you are the people of God; you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy."

Revelation 1:6
"And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen."

I want to focus on the life of a priest for a moment, because I believe this is where the mixture is coming in.
The priests in the Old Testament were from the Tribe of Levi. The whole Tribe of Levi was called out and set apart by the Lord to serve Him as priests. The life of the priest was to look totally different from the lives of other people in Israel. When an Israelite came across a priest, they knew right away because their lives were so totally different.
We are now the royal priesthood of God, and our lives, in a spiritual sense, should line up with those of the Old Testament. I'm not saying we are to follow all the forms and rituals that Old Testament priests followed, but I do believe we are to have the same heart as the Old Testament priests.
The heart I'm speaking of is one of total abandon to the Lord, with no mixture of the world.

NO MIXTURE OF THE WORLD

The priests were to have nothing of the world in them. Their lives were to stand for "Holiness Unto The Lord."
Do you know what holiness means? It means set apart. We also are to have nothing of the world in our hearts.
Now, obviously, we live in this world every day so it's impossible not to be a part of it; but what I'm saying is that nothing of the world should have a place within our hearts and our relationship with God.
Look at this scripture:

1 John 2:15-17
"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
"For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever."

Notice this verse mentions three major sins: The lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life. I believe you can fit every sin of the world in one of these three categories. In the scripture above, John lists these three categories of sin as being totally of the world.

MIXTURE CAME IN THE BEGINNING

Before the fall, Adam and Eve were enjoying 24-hour God-consciousness in the Garden of Eden. They were living in the place of face-to-face relationship with the Lord. How awesome is that?
What did the devil do to come and ruin it all? He tempted them with mixture. Adam and Eve were totally satisfied with the Lord and His presence, and then Satan came in the form of the serpent and offered them some of the fruit of the world. He tricked them into taking part in the three sins of the world, mentioned in the scripture above in 1 John.

Let's read it in Genesis 3:6;

"When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took from its fruit and ate; and she gave also to her husband with her, and he ate."

Eve saw that the tree was "good for food" which is the lust of the flesh. She saw that it was a "delight to the eyes" which is the lust of the eyes. Finally, she saw that the tree was "desirable to make one wise" which is the pride of life.

As soon as they took of the fruit and ate, the mixture of the world came in, and they lost their close fellowship with God. This is what is happening in the Body of Christ today. We want to rule and reign as overcoming kings with the power of God, but we haven't learned to live a life of intimacy, consecration, and yielded-ness as consecrated priests. We have too much mixture.

The priests were called to serve God with their entire life. They were not to wrap God around their lifestyles. God was to be their lifestyle!

TENDING THE FLAME

The priests were called to do many things in the daily duties of the temple and serving the people, however, I only want to focus on one of those things right now.
The priests were called to "tend the flame":

Exodus 27:20-21
"And you shall charge the sons of Israel, that they bring you clear oil of beaten olives for the light, to make a lamp burn continually. In the tent of meeting, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall keep it in order from evening to morning before the LORD; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout their generations for the sons of Israel."

Leviticus 6:12-13
"And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it. It shall not go out, but the priest shall burn wood on it every morning; and he shall lay out the burnt offering on it, and offer up in smoke the fat portions of the peace offerings on it. Fire shall be kept burning continually on the altar; it is not to go out."

Tending the flame is significant to us as the priests today, because I believe that, prophetically, it symbolizes tending the flame of our relationship with God daily. The two scriptures above speak of tending the lamp and tending the fire on the altar. Every morning the priests were to put fresh wood on that altar to ensure that the flame didn't weaken in any way but continued to burn bright. They were to keep the lamp burning continually and never let it go out.

This is part of our problem in the church today. Many Christians only tend their lamp and stoke their fire on Sundays when they go to church. But we're supposed to be tending our lamp and stoking our fire every morning and all throughout the day. This is the difference between wrapping God around our lifestyle and God BEING our lifestyle!

ELI VS. SAMUEL

God is raising up a people who will be totally consecrated and yielded to Him with their entire lives. The people of the world are yearning and looking for something real and supernatural in their life. The problem is that the people of the world are not coming to the church to experience it. They are throwing their money away to psychics and fortune-tellers just to fill that desire to hear and feel something from the supernatural realm. Every person on the earth was born with what I call a big, "God-shaped hole" in their heart, and people will search their entire lives to find something to fill that void. We were born with a desire to see the impossible in our lives be made possible.

We, as the Body of Christ on this earth, must take hold of our inheritance and share it with the world. Our inheritance is none other than God Himself (Ezekiel 44:28); and when we rise up and begin to live as true priests, with God at the center of everything, then we will begin to rule as kings and become carriers of God's glory!

The church today reminds me of the days of Eli and Samuel in 1 Samuel 3:1-4:

"Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD before Eli. And word from the LORD was rare in those days, visions were infrequent. And it happened at that time as Eli was lying down in his place (now his eyesight had begun to grow dim and he could not see well), and the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD where the ark of God was, that the LORD called Samuel; and he said, 'Here I am.'"

In the days of Eli, the word of the Lord was rare and there was no widespread revelation. In other words, the priests were not hearing from God and therefore neither were the people of Israel.
Why were the priests not hearing from God? Because the mixture of the world had crept into the lives of the priesthood. Let me be blunt for a moment: Eli's sons were sleeping with the women of Israel right outside God's temple and Eli did nothing about it (1 Samuel 2:22).

All throughout the Old Testament we see God saying to Israel, "'You have played the harlot with many lovers; Yet return to Me,' says the Lord." (Jeremiah 3:1b)
We are to have only one Lover in our life and that is to be Jesus Christ! Yet, today, we still have the same problem as Israel did in the days of Jeremiah. God's people are settling for "lesser lovers" rather than fully embracing the One Supreme Lover of our souls!

MIXTURE CAUSES A FAMINE OF THE WORD OF THE LORD

This issue of mixture in the church is causing a famine of the word of the Lord in the Body of Christ. However, just as in the days of Eli, God is raising up the Samuels of today. There is a remnant of people who are not letting their lamp grow dim nor their fire go out. They are fully embracing the King of Glory as their one Supreme Lover and stoking that fiery love in their hearts everyday!
In 1 Samuel 3:3 it says that the lamp of God was just about to go out, and that is the reason why Eli was no longer hearing God. He had become desensitized to his relationship with God as a priest, called to keep the fire of love burning.
Samuel was just a young boy, but his life symbolized consecration. His mother, Hannah, made a vow before Samuel was ever conceived in her womb, that if God would give her a son she would offer him to the Lord to serve in the temple all of his life. God granted that request and raised up for Himself a man who would be totally consecrated as a priest, and, therefore, throughout Samuel's life, God let none of Samuel's words fall to the ground (1 Samuel 3:19).

God is again, today, looking for that remnant that will fully consecrate their lives to Him, in love. This remnant of overcomers will come into such a place of union with the Lord, that when they speak and declare a thing, it will be established and God will let none of their words fall to the ground because they are speaking His words. This is where God is taking us!

"CHOOSE THIS DAY WHOM YOU WILL SERVE"

I believe there is a clear "distinction" that God is bringing to what I call, the "institutional church." My definition of the institutional church would include every denominational and non-denominational church anywhere in the world that claims to worship Jesus Christ as the Son of God.
I believe that within the institutional church there is a remnant of people that are truly born-again and serving the Lord. Many others have either never heard the gospel, because it's never actually preached in their church services, or they are just nominal people that believe they are going to heaven simply because they go to church on Sundays, or even just on Christmas and Easter -- or maybe just because their Grandma went to church!

There is a challenge being issued from the Throne of God in this hour much like Elijah's challenge on Mount Carmel. The challenge is: "Choose this day whom you will serve!"
The darkness and evil in the world is getting darker, so therefore the glory of the Lord and the light of Heaven on the earth is going to get brighter! God is pouring out His glory and power on that remnant of faithful overcomers who press through the spirit of the world and truly touch God in supernatural ways.

We see this illustrated in Ezekiel 44:10, 13:

"But the Levites who went far from Me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from Me after their idols, shall bear the punishment for their iniquity. And they shall not come near to Me to serve as a priest to Me, nor come near to any of My holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed."

In the scripture above, we see a group of Levites, which were the priests, who had left the Lord's side. Actually, the truth is, these priests probably never truly served the Lord with their whole heart, because as soon as tribulation came, they went astray. And God says of these priests that they will not come near Him or near His holy things, nor into the Most Holy Place. Why? Because their hearts were far from Him.
Those who are not truly serving and living for the Lord in their hearts, but rather just living a life of lip service, will never actually touch the holy things of heaven.

ZADOK PRIESTHOOD

What are the holy things of heaven? Face-to-face encounters with the Lord, heavenly experiences, the presence of God, wisdom, secrets and mysteries of heaven made clear, the peace of God, and the power and glory of God resting on our lives, and much more...

However, during this time in Ezekiel's life, there was a remnant of priests, or Christians, that did not stray from the Lord but continued to press in and tend the lamp of God in their lives. These priests were called the priests of Zadok:

Ezekiel 44:15
"'But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary when the sons of Israel went astray from Me, shall come near to Me to minister to Me; and they shall stand before Me to offer Me the fat and the blood,' declares the Lord GOD."

God says that these priests will be the ones who come near to Him, minister to Him, and partake of the divine nature and the holy things of heaven. This is the distinction that God is bringing to His "Body" on the earth.
In these times, it will become more and more evident who the true followers of Jesus are, because their hearts will be awakened and a renewed passion will come upon them to seek God's face and touch Him afresh.

Look at what's available to these faithful priests:

Ezekiel 44:16, 24
"They shall enter My sanctuary; they shall come near to My table to minister to Me and keep My charge...And in a dispute they shall take their stand to judge; they shall judge it according to My ordinances. They shall also keep My laws and My statutes in all My appointed feasts, and sanctify My Sabbaths."

Zechariah 3:7
"Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'If you will walk in My ways, and if you will perform My service, then you will also govern My house and also have charge of My courts, and I will grant you free access among these who are standing here.'"

These priests are granted free access into the courts of the Lord. Where are the Courts of the Lord? God's courts are in heavenly places before His throne. For those who will overcome the spirit of the world every day and press into God, He will grant that they come into the courts of the Lord. Revelation

4:1 is a "now" word for these times as God is telling us to "Come up here" and meet with Him.

When we spend time standing in the council of God, in heavenly realms, we can then bring that atmosphere of heaven back with us and impact the people of the world with God's glory.

PRIESTS MINISTER PRECIOUS THINGS OF HEAVEN

Why does God grant free access to His throne to the priests who truly serve Him with all their hearts? For no other reason than to experience intimacy with Him! However, out of this heavenly lifestyle of intimacy with God, we get to carry the atmosphere of heaven to others that they might experience Him.

Ezekiel 44:23
"Moreover, they shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean."

The presence of God that He wants to pour out on His people will convict others of their sin and draw them to Him. Only those who truly encounter God can teach others how to encounter Him.

THE FLOW OF HEAVEN MUST NOT BE HINDERED

God says that we, as His priests, are to teach others the difference between the holy and the profane, but he gives a condition with those instructions.

Ezekiel 44:21
"Nor shall any of the priests drink wine when they enter the inner court."

Leviticus 10:8-11
"The LORD then spoke to Aaron, saying, 'Do not drink wine or strong drink, neither you nor your sons with you, when you come into the tent of meeting, so that you may not die -- it is a perpetual statute throughout your generations -- and so as to make a distinction between the holy and the profane, and between the unclean and the clean, and so as to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them through Moses.'"

Prophetically speaking, I believe the wine symbolizes the numbing effect of the world. I am not talking about the natural drinking of wine or whether I believe that's acceptable for Christians or not. I'm not even sharing my opinion on it but rather pulling out what I believe is the prophetic meaning. I believe "wine" here speaks of anything of the world that would numb us to the presence and voice of God.

God says not to drink wine, or in other words, "Have no mixture of the world in your relationship with Me, because it will numb you to My presence and My voice and therefore hinder heaven's flow in your life."

THE FIRE OF GOD

I am prophesying that in this next year and in these end-times God is going to send a mass baptism of fire upon His people. We will come to understand God's fire in a whole new way. We need the fire of God! In Hebrews 12:29 our God is called a God of consuming fire. God, in His very nature, is a consuming fire. When we touch God or are touched by God we are also touched by His fire.

God's fire comes in two forms: the fire of purging and the fire of love. You cannot have one aspect of His fire without also getting the other.
Believers have a really hard time understanding the God of the Old Covenant as opposed to the God of the New. In the Old Covenant we see this God of judgment and anger, but then we are supposed to see this God of love and grace in the New Covenant. We have to understand that, in the Old Testament, God never intended to bring anger and judgment upon His people, but rather upon every "lesser lover" that hindered our love with Him.

God sees us as His wife, and when we choose the lesser lovers of the world, His judgment will come. If my wife were sleeping around with all the other men of our town, then I would want to bring judgment upon all those other men that distracted my wife from my love. This was always God's heart in the Old Testament.

We need God to touch us with His fire so that all our lesser lovers, secret sins, and idols would be consumed and all that would remain is a burning passion for Him!

FIRE OF PURGING

When God's fire comes it comes to purge out everything that hinders love.

Malachi 3:1-3
"'Behold, I am going to send My messenger, and he will clear the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple; and the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, He is coming,' says the LORD of hosts.
"'But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap. And He will sit as a smelter and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present to the LORD offerings in righteousness.'"

We say we want God to touch us but "who can endure the day of His coming?" Our God is truly a refiner's fire and He's coming to purify the sons of Levi. Who are the sons of Levi? You and Me!

But, OH, how awesome it is when God's purging fire touches our lives. Look at the benefits:

Isaiah 4:2-6
"In that day the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth will be the pride and the adornment of the survivors of Israel. And it will come about that he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy -- everyone who is recorded for life in Jerusalem.
"When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and purged the bloodshed of Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and the spirit of burning, then the LORD will create over the whole area of Mount Zion and over her assemblies a cloud by day, even smoke, and the brightness of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory will be a canopy. And there will be a shelter to give shade from the heat by day, and refuge and protection from the storm and the rain."

When we allow God's purging fire to touch us, He will place a covering of glory over our lives to protect us from the spirit of the world. There is a protection when we "live" in God's purging fire!

FIRE OF LOVE

The best part about God's fire is His fire of love. When we are touched by His fire, He not only purges the dross out of our lives, but He also consumes us with the fire of holy passion!

Song of Solomon 8:6
"Put me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm. For love is as strong as death, Jealousy is as severe as Sheol; its flashes are flashes of fire, the very flame of the LORD."

This verse tells us that the fire of love is actually the very flame of YAH! Oh, how I cry out from the very depths of my heart to be enflamed with the very flame of YAH! I tell you, there is NO LIMIT to how much of God we can have and experience if we will just let Him consume our lives with His fire. God is looking to pour out His glory on the people that are consumed with one desire:

Psalm 27:4
"One thing I have asked from the LORD, that I shall seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to meditate in His temple."

Song of Solomon 1:15
"How beautiful you are, my darling, how beautiful you are! Your eyes are like doves."

Do you know why the King in the verse above praises the shulamite? She is praised because she has Dove's eyes. Do you know what is so special about dove's eyes? A dove has no peripheral vision. A dove cannot see anything but what is right in front of them. Jesus was praising the shulamite because she had nothing in her vision or heart but Him and Him alone!

The people that let God touch them with His fire will be a people of ONE THING. This army of overcomers will press through the blockades of the enemy and take hold of their inheritance and manifest the power and glory of God on the earth!

EYES OF FIRE

In Revelation 1:14 Jesus is described as having eyes like flames of fire. I believe the Lord's eyes of fire are scanning the body of Christ right now. He is looking for those whose hearts are open and turned toward Him. We are in a time of 2 Chronicles 16:9:

"For the eyes of the LORD move to and fro throughout the earth that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His."

It's the little foxes that spoil the vine (Song of Solomon 2:15), and God is looking upon those who will offer their lives afresh on the altar as a pleasing sacrifice to Him. He wants to come and burn up all the things in His people that hinder love.
You might not be involved in what people like to call "major" sins, but you might have some idols in your life that steal your time and fellowship with God. It might just be an issue of your time, schedule, or priorities. Maybe you could just start giving God a tithe of your morning or a tithe of your evening.
Or maybe there's some stubborn secret sin in your life that you have not been able to defeat for years.

I believe we're in a fresh season of God's fire and there is a grace of God that is available if we will embrace His fire and begin to live on the Highway of Holiness. Place your heart before God now and let His eyes of fire begin to search your heart and your life. Offer up to Him everything that He reveals to you. Offer up to Him everything in your life that hinders love.

HOW DO I BECOME A PERSON OF "ONE THING"?

You don't become holy by obeying a set of rules. You become holy, or set apart, by drawing close to our God who is a holy, consuming fire! By His grace, He will burn up all the junk and all the filth of the world and set you on the Highway of Holiness. He will put you in a place where you can lift up your head without shame so that the King of Glory can come in. The King of Glory comes in on the Highway of Holiness!

Do you want to receive and minister the precious things of heaven? Do you want to rule and reign as a king, carrying the power and anointing of the Kingdom of God? Then you must first become a faithful and consecrated priest! Don't allow the move of God within you to be miscarried. Set yourself on God's altar today and allow yourself to be consumed by His fire of Purging and His fire of Love!

Father, we place our lives before you now. Search our hearts with your eyes of fire and reveal to us everything that hinders total consecration and love in our lives. Reveal the areas where the mixture of the world has crept in. Come by your fire and burn out all the little foxes that spoil our vine. Burn out all the secret sins and burn out all the lesser lovers. Ignite us afresh with the very flame of YAH! May we burn for You. Set us on fire that we might run with the glory!

James 4:5-7, "Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously"? But He gives more grace. Therefore He says: "God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble. Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you."

Aug. 16, '04, In a dream/night-vision: At the first I saw a depiction of Holy Spirit as a human-like-figure,,, Facing me. Behind Him was a glorious white sand beach and a large blue sea beyond that. He lifted His right Arm and then pointed in * no uncertain terms of most serious concern*, directing me to 'look and see' this scene off to His side - which I then did with some trembling wonderment, due to HIS serious demeanor.

Here then, I saw many persons wearing sailor type watch-cap's of heavy wool, navy colored knit, but instead of simply protecting and warming these persons heads, these caps were unfolded, fully pulled down covering their whole faces, head, ears, eyes, mouths... even their breathing seemed labored due to this muffling of their noses and mouths.

These God' watchmen and women (wearing watch-caps) were all milling about on an outdoor veranda of a large beach house; A great large three sided deck, opened wood rail, which overlooked that beach and whole seascape (depicting: the place of prophetic vision) - but none of these persons could 'see', nor 'hear' clearly, nor 'speak' clearly, for their heads were completely covered up by their thick knit caps!

I saw so very many of these people there, packed together almost like sardines on this veranda. I say 'almost' like sardines, because each one had some small space where they milled, taking tiny blind uncertain steps this way and that, then turning and confused, mumbling quietly, trying to catch breaths through the hats pulled over their face, bumping into each other softly and then turning or spinning another direction all over again - almost like carnival 'bumper cars', I thought then, but a very sad softer version of confused humans milling and blind -- Sensory deprived they were, of all but their seemingly keen 'feeling'.

For me, it was too disheartening to see their small shuffling and bumping 'going nowhere' baby-like steps and useless milling on this deck of God' Vision .... HE made me to understand this scene; so too I was allowed to feel some of the serious Care of The Spirit of God Who knows the very Heart of God and searches men as well, as I gazed upon these sad useless ones, these watchmen and women….
"...; For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God." - I Cor. 2:10
Later, in my prayers and sad concerns due to this vision, and in my pondering with Lord I asked Him,

' Oh, Lord,,,,I am sick of heart to see this depiction of Your watchmen and women. Please tell me, is this You've shown me like the scriptures where You stopped the ears, and covered the eyes of Your prophets ...?'

The Lord answered me in this way: 'Yes, and No.'…… Yes, this was "like" those recorded biblical events, but I was to know that this depiction ,,, of "some" of HIS watch-persons present dilemma was NOT being done by HIM -- He spoke this clearly to me. Rather this, the 'pulled down hats', has been done by others not of HIS prophetic flock, Not of His' Spirit ,, done by ones of wrong spirit and of enemy spirits. Done also by some of HIS' own prophets, prophetic people, watchmen and women, doing this very wrong thing to one another, and some were even doing this……to themselves. - Wearing hats 'pulled down'.

Christ' enemy is "Pulling the wool" over some of HIS' prophets and prophetic people, over eyes and ears, mouths, noses, over faces and the whole heads (as depicted); Thus stopping hearts from being enabled to hear HIM, see what HE is doing, and to speak HIS' oracles and messages. This is being done and accomplished of enemy agencies.. .
The Lord's great concern in showing me this scene is the muffling of some of HIS' beloved friends, watchmen / women, by the enemy……
God is not pleased with this condition of some of HIS' watch persons. This is what I hear The Lord speak concerning this,

"Some of My friends, My watchmen, must now choose to loose yourselves from these improper hats that have covered and bound your minds and faces.,,,, You must choose to tear out and away from enemy thick veils, even with force by My Spirit Who empowers you, and My Word of Truth. Come out and breath afresh. Time is short and I will move on soon. I have always given you choice -- I desire you to come with me.

See and recognize this thick veil that has been laid over your head by Our enemy.
Then, as you come and ask of Me, I will deliver you by My right Arm. I will loose your head and face and open your hearts again;
Culminating in your unveiled face restored, looking upon Me Your Lord to Live, breath and have being; To minister My Word and vision in health, My Health,,,,, enabling you to give out to the many who need to hear Me.

I ask you, will you tear this enemy cloud off your heads ? Will you loose and then step into this renewed restored health of My Spirit? ... Coming with Me into open Holy Spirit air of fresh breathing ?... Becoming once again My unpolluted voices of great heavenly gains delivered to men.

Heed Me, unto Our benefit and the benefit of My flock.
In My strong compassions I am jealous over you. Choose to come out from under this thick enemy misappropriated and mis-worn head-dress.
Come with Me, for the vision is large, and time is now even shorter than it was in your yesterday.
Hear Me, My watchmen, for I soon move on and I desire you to be with Me, following with Me as I move and go.

In My Love and by My Hand ,,, caste off the enemy-cloud, thus being enabled to see and follow My Cloud presence with OPEN FACES.

My watchmen hear this; I Love you. My flock and those coming in are in need, therefore servant friends, humble yourselves, loose yourselves, come into My health, follow Me in obedience. I move on soon. ”

Mt. 18:4 “Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven”. -v. 12, “And whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted”

Luke 4: 17-22 (Matt. 13:54-58; Mark 6:1-6)
“…; And He (Jesus) was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written:
"The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me,
Because He has anointed Me
To preach the gospel to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives
And recovery of sight to the blind,
To set at liberty those who are oppressed;
To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."
Then He closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him.
And He began to say to them,
"Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."
So all bore witness to Him, and marveled at the gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth. “

South Africa

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 15th, 2004
South Africa, my beloved, I have blessed you again and again, but in the blessing, you grew fat like a stall fed calf and you have feasted on the souls of others. Now I will make you lean. You have had your fat years like Egypt did. But now there will be winds of adversity as you have never known, because you have hardened your hearts against MY will. It is MY will, that you repent of the wickedness of enslavement, rape, control, murder and thievery. Yet you would not return in humility. Instead, you continued willfully in your own ways. You have deafened your ears to the plight of the poor, so now I will turn a deaf ear to your pleas for help, unless you repent.

Some have prayed and repented, but in order for ME to bring the GRACE I want to pour out on you, I need you to humble yourselves and pray in UNITY that I might have mercy and RESTORE this nation. So I will bring famine and pestilence as you have not seen. If you want to see relief, you will have to come to ME and repent of the wickedness your ancestors have done and you continue to imbibe in, even these days.

Witchcraft is still exalted in the land and freemasonry has reigned. BUT I THE LORD YOUR GOD WILL REIGN AND RULE WITH A ROD OF IRON in the days to come. I have had My fill of debauchery and selfishness. I will not stand idly by any longer. You thought I would, so you are filled with apathy and complacency and content with your comforts. But I am NOT content when I see my children starving and dying, with no one to take compassion on them. You have enslaved, so now you will be the slaves of your own willfulness!

If you want blessing on the land, then you must HUMBLE yourselves and pray and repent of your wickedness, that I may come and have mercy on you. My mercy endures forever. But it is not given to the PROUD. They who humble themselves will be spared from My judgment. But the proud will be made stubble. My desire is to bless you.

Rev 3:17-22 NKJV
17 Because you say, 'I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing' — and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked — 18 I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. 19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent. 20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me. 21 To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. 22 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.""

Dan 4:27 NKJV Therefore, O king, let my advice be acceptable to you; break off your sins by being righteous, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps there may be a lengthening of your prosperity."

Dan 4:28-33 NKJV   Nebuchadnezzar's Humiliation
All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar. 29 At the end of the twelve months he was walking about the royal palace of Babylon. 30 The king spoke, saying, "Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for a royal dwelling by my mighty power and for the honor of my majesty?"
31 While the word was still in the king's mouth, a voice fell from heaven: "King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: the kingdom has departed from you! 32 And they shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. They shall make you eat grass like oxen; and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He chooses."
33 That very hour the word was fulfilled concerning Nebuchadnezzar; he was driven from men and ate grass like oxen; his body was wet with the dew of heaven till his hair had grown like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

Ezek 21:26 NKJV thus says the Lord GOD: "Remove the turban, and take off the crown; Nothing shall remain the same. Exalt the humble, and humble the exalted.

Zeph 3:11-12 NKJV In that day you shall not be shamed for any of your deeds in which you transgress against Me; For then I will take away from your midst those who rejoice in your pride, and you shall no longer be haughty in My holy mountain. 12 I will leave in your midst a meek and humble people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

James 4:6 NKJV But He gives more grace. Therefore He says: "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

James 4:10 NKJV Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

Quench Me Not
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 13th, 2004 www.upstreamca.org tearsofthefather@comcast.net

So many of My loved ones are finding a time of quietness and not hearing as much from Me and wondering what is going on in the spirit realm. I am training many to sit and wait, because many have been so busy. And for some, you are sitting and not hearing much, but it is doing something in the spirit that is opposite to all the busyness in the church. You are willing to wait on ME. You are willing to wait and wait and to stand in faith.

This is My will My beloveds, as there are so many who do not wish to hear from Me. There are many who shut Me up when I try to speak through My own. They want their order. They want only enough of me to make them feel good, but not enough of Me to have to change. Many don't want to hear My words spoken through you, because they are content with the status quo and not having things brought up that make them feel uncomfortable. So don't think that this waiting and resting is accomplishing nothing. It is accomplishing MUCH.

You know that true prophecy is from MY heart of love for My children.

Amos 3:7-8 NKJV Surely the Lord GOD does nothing, unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets. 8 A lion has roared! Who will not fear? The Lord GOD has spoken! Who can but prophesy?

Rev 19:9-10 NKJV And I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "See that you do not do that! I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

I have said, if you love Me, then obey Me. If you oh church will not listen to ME through whom I send to you, then HOW may you obey Me? Do you think that I don't see your hearts' motivations? Do you think I don't see the lack of reality in what you speak vs what you do? Do you think YOUR ORDER is more important than MY ORDER?

Do you think that I will do nothing forever? Have you become complacent in your hearts? You say, NO Lord, not us!? Yet you don't realize that your backsliding has brought you to deception. A backslider will be filled with his own ways! Just what does that mean to you?

Prov 14:14 NKJV The backslider in heart will be filled with his own ways but a good man will be satisfied from above.

He who chooses to go his OWN ways will be given to deception and eventually great delusion, for he has made himself God. Surely you know the foolishness of this fate, when I have provided such a free gift by which you can make all things right!

Many of you will be so grieved by the losses you will see and witness in the days ahead. I want you to grow STRONG in My WORD and in the knowledge of ME and MY love and mercy, that you will also understand that My judgment is my love, greatly provoked to jealousy. Choose this day Whom you will serve, Me or mammon / self. For the love of many has grown cold, and escalation of lawlessness is evident is it not?

NT:3126 mamonas (mam-o-nas') or mammonas (mam-mo-nas'); of Aramaic origin (confidence, i.e. wealth, personified); i.e. avarice (deified): KJV - mammon

Matt 6:24 NKJV You Cannot Serve God and Riches "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

I, Your Lord will arise with HEALING in My wings and many will come to the brightness of My GLORY. So keep your eyes open and your ears tuned to the still small voice. Surely goodness and mercy will follow you all the days of your life if you will put the whole of your TRUST in ME!

My ways are higher than your ways, so open your ears My Sons and Daughters and shout from the rooftops, what you hear in your ears! Do not be ashamed of My voice, or I will be ashamed of you. Fight the good fight of FAITH, so that when I come, you will not be found wanting. For behold I come quickly and My reward is in My hands. I am eager to do My unusual work.

Trampling on Injustice

Dan 7:7-8 NKJV "After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.
8 I was considering the horns, and there was another horn, a little one, coming up among them, before whom three of the first horns were plucked out by the roots. And there, in this horn, were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking pompous words.

Job 5:15-17 NKJV But He saves the needy from the sword, From the mouth of the mighty, and from their hand. 16 So the poor have hope, and injustice shuts her mouth. 17 "Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects;
Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.

Jer 22:13 NKJV "Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness and his chambers by injustice, who uses his neighbor's service without wages and gives him nothing for his work,

Mal 4:1-2 NKJV The Great Day of God
"For behold, the day is coming, burning like an oven, and all the proud, yes, all who do wickedly will be stubble. And the day which is coming shall burn them up," Says the LORD of hosts, "That will leave them neither root nor branch.
2 But to you who fear My name The Sun of Righteousness shall arise With healing in His wings; And you shall go out and grow fat like stall-fed calves.
3 You shall trample the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I do this," Says the LORD of hosts.

Men with certain influence have their agenda, but I have MINE. It has begun, and there will be more escalation in the process. I will use you to trample on injustice and all the wickedness of the world will tremble at My great army of warriors. I am making you strong as horses in battle, that have no fear. You will not back down at facing your enemy when I am through with you, because you will know the greatness of Your Lord, not just from the Word, but from experiencing My Might.

Those who are proud will be stubble, but those who humble themselves before Me and are willing to be changed will be robed in GLORY and will do great exploits for ME. Many will come to the Light of My glory. You will be overcome in your church halls, and homes at the numbers. So get your hearts ready for a great HARVEST. And fill up your storehouses with training materials…You will be overcome with demand. NOW is the time to prepare.

The greatest preparation I'm doing is in YOUR HEARTS My beloveds. The wicked one is coming soon, and I want you strong. So again I say, come and let me fill you with MY LOVE…MY compassion and MY ideas about JUSTICE.
Let me fill your mouth with TRUTH from My WORD, that you will be transformed and guided into preparation for what is to come. The time is short, and your rest needs to be in ME. GRACE, GRACE, GRACE will be given you. GRACE upon GRACE in order that MY will be fulfilled. I have called you and I will fulfill My promises. I am not a man that I should lie, nor a son of man that I should change My mind. I AM FAITHFUL AND TRUE.

I will pour out strategies through words of wisdom and understanding for the days coming, if you will take time to spend in My presence. Do not take our relationship for granted. Any husband wants attention from his bride.
He does not want to be kept at a distance! I have passion for My bride and I want to kiss you with revelation of My plans, and My love for you, that you may be as enraptured with Me as I am with you My love.

The coals are being stoked and I am turning up the heat, so that all will be fulfilled. Ask for grace to do what I want, and you will get it. You have only to ask. I am increasing your FAITH My beloveds in MY ability to be MORE powerful to bless you, than the enemy's will to curse you and steal from you.
I am standing up. I WILL perform My great and awesome act. The supernatural is invading the natural, so expect wonders! Expect great deliverances! Expect great healing and miracles! Expect provision for the building of MY Kingdom! Expect Me to give you witty inventions and wisdom for earning money! Expect FAVOR for humility! For I have made a determination to bless those who will pay the cost and who have paid the cost. FRET NOT! WORRY NOT! Scoff at the enemy's taunts. Tell him, you are MY BELOVED and there is nothing I won't do for you. Do NOT allow him to intimidate you anymore. SPEAK MY WORD and it will be established.

Lev 19:15 NKJV 'You shall do no injustice in judgment. You shall not be partial to the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty. In righteousness you shall judge your neighbor.

Re: the Levites
Mal 2:6-9 NKJV The law of truth was in his mouth, and injustice was not found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and equity, and turned many away from iniquity. 7 "For the lips of a priest should keep knowledge, and people should seek the law from his mouth; For he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. 8 But you have departed from the way; You have caused many to stumble at the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi, "Says the LORD of hosts. 9 "Therefore I also have made you contemptible and base Before all the people, because you have not kept My ways but have shown partiality in the law."

True Moxie
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 14th, 2004

Main Entry: mox·ie Pronunciation: 'mäk-sE Function: noun
Etymology: from Moxie, a trademark for a soft drink Date: 1930
1: ENERGY, PEP
2: COURAGE, DETERMINATION
3: KNOW-HOW, EXPERTISE
I heard this true moxie and I had forgotten the definition, though I thought it had to do with courage. And I think it is sort of the English equivalent for chutzpah. Then the Lord began to speak:

"It will take moxie to forge ahead in the days to come. You must have determination and you must have COURAGE. I will give you the Spirit of Might if you ask for it! It is MOST necessary for you in the days ahead. For many will come in My name. Many pretenders will spew out false wisdom and false interpretations of what is to come. The antichrist spirit is already strong in the land. I have not given you a spirit of fear, but of power, of love, and a sound mind! [2 Tim 1:7] You are NOT to rely on your own courage, or your own determination and know-how, but to rely on ME to give you anything you need. I Am the Source of wisdom, understanding, knowledge, might, strength, patience, love, peace and joy and so much more."

Jer 15:19-21 AMP 19 Therefore thus says the Lord [to Jeremiah]: If you return [and give up this mistaken tone of distrust and despair], then I will give you again a settled place of quiet and safety, and you will be My minister; and if you separate the precious from the vile [cleansing your own heart from unworthy and unwarranted suspicions concerning God's faithfulness], you shall be My mouthpiece. [But do not yield to them.] Let them return to you--not you to [the people]. 20 And I will make you to this people a fortified, bronze wall; they will fight against you, but they will not prevail over you, for I am with you to save and deliver you, says the Lord. 21 And I will deliver you out of the hands of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the palms of the terrible and ruthless tyrants.

Hab 3:19 AMP The Lord God is my Strength, my personal bravery, and my invincible army; He makes my feet like hinds' feet and will make me to walk [not to stand still in terror, but to walk] and make [spiritual] progress upon my high places [of trouble, suffering, or responsibility]!

"Fear immobilizes you. It brings in heaviness and depression, defeatism and discouragement as well. Then will come complacency and apathy. So DO not give in to the fear of the days ahead. They will be glorious days for you if you will TRUST in ME and understand that YOU ARE THE APPLE OF MY EYE! Nothing can separate you from My love. Nothing can cause My Holy Spirit to leave you. My love is unconditional. I have asked you to lay down your life and pick up MINE however. This is a requirement for all who follow Me. If you want to follow self and all it has to offer, then you will be in opposition to My will.

I stand at the door and knock. I am ALWAYS there with you. I await for the door to be opened, that I may be asked in. But if you only allow Me to come in on your conditions, how can I be your Adonai? Am I not the Master of the Universe? Am I not He Who created the heavens and the earth. Did I not create everything you see around you? Do you not tremble at My name? When I come down the mountains tremble. If even the mountains bow at My presence, how much more should man who is made in Our image bow to the One Who created him, since he has intelligence and ability to think that other creatures do not all have?

Will you give your pet times and things you want to do, over to ME? Will you give up even that? Will you let ME order your day, your evening and your nights? Do you want to walk with ME? I am longing to be that closely heard and regarded! This generation of youth will walk with Me like Enoch did. Do you also want this privilege? Then you must give up YOUR WILL and be willing to do Mine.

Many will mock you for living and walking with Me. They mocked Enoch, and they mocked Noah who also walked with Me. So do not be discouraged or dismayed that they will mock you! They hated Me, so they will also hate you the more like ME you become! I only did what the Father showed Me to do. Are you willing to submit to Him, the way I did? Are you willing to lay down your life, that you can have My life within you more?

The only way you will be able to do this is by MY intervention. You cannot do it by your own efforts. You cannot be holy without My presence working it into you. I sanctified the first temple with My glory and I will sanctify the temple which is YOU, also with My glory. I am restoring the Tabernacle of David, so come and worship Me in Spirit and in Truth. and I will sanctify you with My glory. Lay down with ME and receive of My love and peace and all I want to pour into you."

Ps 108:1-5 NKJV Assurance of God's Victory over Enemies (Ps 57:7-11; 60:5-12) A Song. A Psalm of David. 1 O God, my heart is steadfast; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory. 2 Awake, lute and harp! I will awaken the dawn. 3 I will praise You, O LORD, among the peoples, And I will sing praises to You among the nations. 4 For Your mercy is great above the heavens, And Your truth reaches to the clouds. 5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens, and Your glory above all the earth; 6 That Your beloved may be delivered, Save with Your right hand, and hear me.

"There is a reward to those who overcome the self life in them. There is a reward to those who continue to seek Me so that they may share in My glory."

To him who overcomes: Rev 2:7 AMP To him who overcomes (is victorious), I will grant to eat [of the fruit] of the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God. [Gen 2:9; 3:24.] Rev 2:11 AMP He who overcomes (is victorious) shall in no way be injured by the second death Rev 2:17 AMP To him who overcomes (conquers), I will give to eat of the manna that is hidden, and I will give him a white stone with a new name engraved on the stone, which no one knows or understands except he who receives it. [Ps 78:24; Isa 62:2.]

Rev 2:26-28 AMP And he who overcomes (is victorious) and who obeys My commands to the [very] end [doing the works that please Me], I will give him authority and power over the nations; 27 And he shall rule them with a sceptre (rod) of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, and [his power over them shall be] like that which I Myself have received from My Father; [Ps 2:8,9.] 28 And I will give him the Morning Star.

Rev 3:5 AMP Thus shall he who conquers (is victorious) be clad in white garments, and I will not erase or blot out his name from the Book of Life; I will acknowledge him [as Mine] and I will confess his name openly before My Father and before His angels. [Ps 69:28; Dan 12:1.]

Rev 3:9-12 AMP Take note! I will make those of the synagogue of Satan who say they are Jews and are not, but lie--behold, I will make them come and bow down before your feet and learn and acknowledge that I have loved you. [Isa 43:4; 49:23; 60:14.] 10 Because you have guarded and kept My word of patient endurance [have held fast the lesson of My patience with the expectant endurance that I give you], I also will keep you [safe] from the hour of trial (testing) which is coming on the whole world to try those who dwell upon the earth. 11 I am coming quickly; hold fast what you have, so that no one may rob you and deprive you of your crown. 12 He who overcomes (is victorious), I will make him a pillar in the sanctuary of My God; he shall never be put out of it or go out of it, and I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the new Jerusalem, which descends from My God out of heaven, and My own new name. [Isa 62:2; Ezek 48:35.]

Rev 3:20-21 AMP Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears and listens to and heeds My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will eat with him, and he [will eat] with Me. 21 He who overcomes (is victorious), I will grant him to sit beside Me on My throne, as I Myself overcame (was victorious) and sat down beside My Father on His throne.

Showers of Blessings

Mary Clark

September 9, 2004

I am sending showers of blessings to My beloved. I am raining down My loving power on those who are My own. Watch for this deluge of blessings, beloved. Watch for this wonderful display of My love as it floods your hearts, offering to you a new hope for your tomorrows.

I am beseeching My beloved to follow the course that I have set before you. I know that you are weary of waiting for the arrival of My wonderful promises, but know that I am making progress. Things are advancing for your good – for the good to My will to shine forth in your lives.

Let Me tell you something, beloved: The powerful demonstrations that are coming to you will be sent according to My will at the appointed hour. You will see the wonders of your God on display, and you will stand in awe at their magnificence. But know this: You are being prepared for that day by the work that I am doing in your hearts. This is a heart work. This is a heart work that will ready you for all that is coming your way. So be patient with Me. Look forward to all that I am bringing your way, and know deep within that I have made a proposal of sorts to you, and you have accepted. Now, beloved, look forward to seeing the fine work that is coming forth due to your willingness to comply with your God, accepting His proposal, and advancing into the things of your Beloved.

I want to tell you, beloved, that showers of blessings are coming your way. Prepare your hearts to receive by coming to Me in full surrender with thankful hearts for all that I am bringing forth in your midst. Prepare your hearts, and know deep within the joy that your Lord God Almighty has for one who waits patiently and willingly for Him to fulfill His will in that one's life. And know, beloved, that the showers that are coming your way will offer a new abounding hope that will enable you to display My goodness and openly declare your knowledge of the One Who was, Who is, and Who is to come. Shout, "Come, Lord Jesus, come. Come into our midst and display Your goodness – display Your wonders – display Yourself – that all may come into a realization of Who You are and what you have planned for those who willingly offer their services to You unabashedly!!!"

Gibberish

Mary Clark

September 10, 2004
gibberish – nonsense, rubbish, gabble, claptrap, baloney, garbage

In a vision, I saw someone scribbling. Then I heard the Lord say "gibberish." Here is what He has to tell us about this word "gibberish."

I am the Lord God Almighty. I sent My living Word that you might walk in newness of life. In these days, many are taking words and speaking them out in a way of authority. They are using words to confuse. They are using words to offer doubt to believing hearts. They are using words in ways that I consider nonsensical.

I want My dear children to listen to ME! I want you to NOT doubt My words of truth. I want you to declare My truth. I want you to turn aside from those who speak gibberish continuously and stand proudly as they do this in order to convince the hearer of their worth. Those words are rubbish in My eyes. Let them be rubbish in your eyes too. Pay those words no mind. Do not open your heart to them.

They can do damage even to a believing heart. They can open old wounds that I have closed. They can open old wounds that caused you much heartbreak. Pay those useless words no mind – no mind at all!

You ask Me, "Father, what kinds of words are you speaking about? Just what is it that You consider gibberish?" I will gladly tell you, beloved.

I consider words that are spoken over another person that would be detrimental to that person's walk rubbish.

Anything spoken of another that does not build that one up is rubbish to Me.

You see, beloved, I speak with a loving heart. I care about even those the world would look on with an eye to criticize – an eye to harm – an eye to deplete that one of his God-given right to draw close to the living God.

Any words spoken over another that are hopeless, I look on as gibberish.

I look on words that are used to hurt another in ANY way as rubbish. I want My children to use My words. Speak words to build up another. Speak words to encourage. Don't speak words to hurt or harm another. Speak words that will build up and encourage. Is this too difficult?

Be hearers of My truth. Embrace My truth. Listen to words that you KNOW are the truth of the living God. Others will have their own opinions, but I want you to pay their opinions no mind. I want you to know what I would say about another.

Ask yourself: Are these words true, honorable, right, pure, lovely, and of good repute?

Is there any excellence or anything worthy of praise in these words that I am hearing or saying?

Ask yourself these honest questions and then decide, beloved. Are the words that you are hearing or speaking good words that will build another, helping another in his walk? Then you decide? You decide if these are words that you wish to speak or hear. I will be watching and waiting to see what your decision will be. I will be waiting, beloved, to see you walk in truth – My truth – with the ease of the righteous.

I am eager to see how My children will handle the gibberish that is spoken in their hearing. I am eager to see My own turn away from speaking or hearing this kind of talk. I am eager to see you speak words in love and truth. If you do, beloved, you will know a deep, peaceful contentment in your heart.

But if you don't, you will know turmoil deep within, and this is not what I desire for you. This is not a part of My plan. Don't let the enemy hinder you in this way.

Give him back his words of rubbish, and seek to speak and hear My words of truth. They are everlasting gems.

They are eternal words that will live forever. They are words that will continue to encourage and protect those about whom they are spoken. They are words of truth that will enable that one to rise up strong in the things of the living God.

So follow My lead. Speak only those words of truth of which you have been endowed, and know deep within the peace and contentment of speaking those words. Know that My idea is to bless all. Let that be your plan too, beloved. Let those words sink into your heart, and know deep within that one who speaks the words of truth that I have offered will know a deep, abiding success and contentment.

That one will know Me better too, because one who speaks My words draws closer to Me, as he comes into agreement with Me. And that, beloved, is the place you want to be – in agreement with Me – in tune with Me – in harmony, as you lift your eyes of love to your Creator, knowing that He has spoken words of loving concern over you, and that He delights in hearing you follow His lead.

That is what I am asking of you today, beloved: Follow My lead on this issue and know My peace. For deep, abiding peace comes to one who speaks My words of truth – deep, abiding peace that will give you the stamina that you need to face each new day!

Insolent Words / Words of Life
Mary Clark

barnabessie@earthlink.net

September 8, 2004

insolent – rude, cheeky, disrespectful, audacious, impudent, impertinent, impolite,

I want to speak to My beloved about words – words of life and words of death. Hear Me now, as I make Myself clear on this topic:

In this hour, I am hearing many of My dear children using words that I would call insolent. You did not hear these words from Me. Then where did you hear them? I will tell you: You are listening to the enemy. He is speaking these insolent words. He is speaking hurtful words and you are listening. I want you to know, beloved, that he seeks to harm you and those that you love. He seeks to see you defeated, while I seek to bless you, and bring you upright into the design of My will.

So hear Me this day, and know that the words that I speak to you are wonderful words of life. He is speaking words to harm. He is speaking words to defeat you. He is speaking words in your hearing to which you are listening and repeating. Many of these insolent words come forth from the mouths of My children and wreck their progress.

These words hurt and hinder the birthing of wonder that I am bringing forth.

Know this day that I am calling for a cessation of those insolent words – those disrespectful, rude and audacious words that are coming from the mouths of My dear children. Hear Me and know that they hinder My work in you, and in that one to whom the words are aimed. See them as I see them – destructive and ugly. Hear them as I hear them – disgusting.

And realize, dear child, that I have called you to come into a place of wonder in Me. I have called you to participate in a wonderful hour when you will rise up strong and see the enemy defeated soundly. Don't give him any ground in your life, dear child. Don't give him any ground in anyone's life by speaking words of gloom over that person.

Speak only the design of My will. And what is that? Blessings, beloved! Blessings! Blessings, blessings, and MORE blessings. That is the way I would like to see you handle this situation. That is the way to correct this barrage of words that are being spoken and rendering many hurt and wounded. Blessings, upon blessings, upon blessings. Yes! That is the answer. Yes! That is the remedy for this situation!!!

Something Big

Joseph Keesling

Aug 27, 2004
jkeesling@sbi-tech.com

"I am doing something BIG! The weight of it is so BIG! It's massive. It's an earthquake. I am about to shake EVERYTHING bringing all to their knees.

Get on your knees! It is SO BIG what I am about to do. The world hasn't seen anything like it. I am answering your prayers. Make room in your life for Me!

Wait on the Holy Spirit and obey! Give My Spirit time. He is opening hearts.

My Spirit is bringing in the unchurched. The devil will be kicked out. Get on your knees! The water is waiting to break like a pregnancy; like a balloon heavy to burst, waiting for My Son Jesus to open your hearts.

My Spirit is bringing in the unchurched. People are coming into church that we thought impossible. You will burn with passion for those who don't know Me. Get on your knees!"

Look to this Fall look to Yom Kippur! It begins at sundown 9/24. He is really about to blow our minds with what He is doing! The power switch is about to be thrown. It hasn't been to date because we haven't been grounded properly.

But we are becoming rooted and grounded in love" [Eph 3:17].

We will shortly be moving from repentance through this current time of cleansing and soaking in His precious Spirit to a time of demonstration of His marvelous power. The church is just about to move into the fullness of His calling:

"And as you go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give." [Matt 10:7-8]

These are the baby things we're to do. He says in John 16:12: "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now." I believe He has much more in store than we can think or imagine. Like Paul [1 Cor 2:4], no longer will our speech and preaching be with persuasive words of human wisdom.

With what He is about to do, our speech and preaching will be in DEMONSTRATION of THE SPIRIT and POWER! Hallelujah! Signs and wonders are breaking forth even now as we write! Hallelujah!!! Praise His glorious NAME!

"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father." [John 14:12] Hallelujah!

Sources Of Blessing
Susan Cummings

Child, even the roughest of places is the source of blessing, if you will see Me in them. I am always with you, and everywhere you go, is in My Purposes for you. So, look closer, and see the true purpose for why you are here.
Not everything is at it seems to you. I do all things well, and I know just how to weave all things together for you, so that you will both grow through this, but benefit and prosper. Nothing is ever without a reason. I won't always tell you why, but I will be with you, and share the process with you. For I have already walked it for you, before you ever arrived here.
So, I know what you will encounter, what will happen to you, how you will react, and what the result will be. So, trust Me. The chafing and rubbing you are feeling is only the polishing and positioning I am giving you. My Light is shining clearer through you than ever, because you have been responding to Me, along the way. Don't stop now.
Don't worry about the darkness, the roughness of the path, and the unclearness of the vision, just keep going. I am working it out as you take the next steps in obedience to Me.
I AM a continual source of Blessing for you, for out of Me, comes rivers of LIVING WATER to refresh you along the way.
My Grace is a Fountain that never runs dry, or becomes stale. I AM always fresh and new for you. So, drink deeply of Me, and partake of Me, and feed upon Me daily. I will sustain you and nourish you for the Journey.

Sin is Sin, and Holy is Holy
Susan Cummings

Today, the Lord has spoken to me, "sin is sin." Tonight he again said to me, "sins is sin….. and holy is holy"
Here is what He said to me about this:
Sin is Sin, and Holy is Holy. My people will either be Holy or they will remain in their sin. There is now no other option to remaining in Me. They will either serve me fully, or they will not be Mine. I cannot look upon sin, nor will My ears be open to their prayers anymore. For I will not allow sin in My House anymore.

Black is black and white is white. For too long, My House has been full of lies, half-truths, and false teachings, and deliberate misquotes of My Word.
It is time for the Truth to once again be seen, and heard, and taught, and lived, in My House- by My People. No more will My Word be tainted and defiles by men and their flesh. My Word is a Living Word, and it is Holy!
It will not be Manipulated.
It will not be controlled.
It will not be marketed and merchandised.
It will not be mixed and polluted.
It will not be handled by the unclean.
It will not be used with irreverence.
It will not be used to beat my sheep.
It will not be mocked by the wicked anymore.
For I AM the LIVING WORD!!!
My Name will no longer be used for personal gain, power, or control.
It is Mine, and it is Holy!!!
My Word will judge all men, and expose their hearts, and they will give an account, and will reap as they deserve. For I have returned to My House and have taken MY Place among My Own, and will now be seen, and heard, and it will be known that there is a God in the Earth, and I AM now come!
I have started in MY House, and when I am finished it will be Holy, as I AM Holy!
Woe to those who come against Me, and My Word, and My Name, and MY People!
I Have Returned.

Sound Of Glory

Debra Westbrook

Aug 03, 2004
2 Chronicles 20:21-30
After consulting the people, Jehoshaphat appointed men to sing to the LORD and to praise him for the splendor of his holiness as they went out at the head of the army, saying: "Give thanks to the LORD, for his love endures forever." As they began to sing and praise, the LORD set ambushes against the men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and they were defeated.

The men of Ammon and Moab rose up against the men from Mount Seir to destroy and annihilate them. After they finished slaughtering the men from Seir, they helped to destroy one another. When the men of Judah came to the place that overlooks the desert and looked toward the vast army, they saw only dead bodies lying on the ground; no one had escaped. So Jehoshaphat and his men went to carry off their plunder, and they found among them a great amount of equipment and clothing and also articles of value-- more than they could take away. There was so much plunder that it took three days to collect it.

On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, where they praised the LORD. This is why it is called the Valley of Beracah to this day. Then, led by Jehoshaphat, all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned joyfully to Jerusalem, for the LORD had given them cause to rejoice over their enemies. They entered Jerusalem and went to the temple of the LORD with harps and lutes and trumpets. The fear of God came upon all the kingdoms of the countries when they heard how the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel. And the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, for his God had given him rest on every side.

It is clearly revealed that the sound of war resides in the mouths of the true worshippers of the Most High God. Out of the overflow of the heart, the mouth surely speaks and in the declaration of the grandeur and splendor of our God, there resides a shout that will displace and dismantle demonic interference that seeks to destroy the people of God through confusion, unbelief, lack of trust and sure vision. Sing aloud to the King of Glory! Sing aloud and declare with sure prophetic words of declaration and in the singing there shall come the force of heaven released to back up the words from the throne of God!

In the singing, there shall come a release of spiritual ambushes set against the forces of hell that have come against those seeking their Lord with passion and purpose. This is the day and the hour to see clear strategies of warfare that reside in the purity of worship deep within the heart of the army of the Lord. Sure defeat in the plans and strategies of the enemy comes through the proper positioning of worship in each of our lives.

Psalm 149 tells us that the high praises of God are in our mouth and a sure edged sword in our hands. The high praises are those upon which God enthrones Himself and vindicates His people in His glory. The high praises agree with what is being said in heaven and what has been established in the Lamb that was slain before the foundations of the world.

Isaiah 42:10-13

Sing to the Lord a new song and His praise from the ends of the earth.
You will go down to the sea and all that is in it. You coastlands and you inhabitants of them!

Let the wilderness and the cities lift up their voices, the villages that Kedar inhabits.
Let the inhabitants of Sela sing.
Let them shout from the top of the mountains.
Let them give glory to the Lord, and declare His praises in the coastlands.
The Lord shall go forth like a mighty man;
He shall stir up His zeal like a man of war.
He shall cry out, yes, shout aloud,
He shall prevail against His enemies

The release of a new song, a song birthed in the eternal realm shall come forth from the hearts of true worshippers. This song, when sung, shall capture God's heart and capture His affection and attention upon His children. He shall go forth, on the sound of heaven coming from the mouths of worshippers, like a mighty man of war, to vindicate and act in justice on behalf of His people. We shall prevail against our enemies when the eternal sound of heaven comes from our mouths, eternal words, the Living Word, being sung in songs lifted up with a redemptive sound of glory that resonates on eternal notes in musical form.

Can anything be better than this? Whole services resonating with eternal songs from the throne room. We have yet to see this to the capacity that God desire us to see and participate in this but it is here surely as we enter a NOW revelation of worship.

About 7-8 months ago, God gave me a vision. I may have mentioned it once before, but it bears repeating. The heartbeat of Rivers of Eden is focused on worship and intimacy with our Lord. One day, while in worship, I saw song sheets on the heart of the Father, filled with prophetic songs still to be sung by those whom the Lord chooses who will simply respond with a willing heart. As the hearts of people were turned to worship, the song sheets were being ripped from the heart of the Father, by the Father Himself, and He was throwing them down to earth, where two or three were gathered in the name of Jesus. These people were in one accord, standing on the banks of a huge wide flowing river.

As they entered into worshipping atmospheres, people began to reach heavenward for the songs and as they did, they grasped the song sheets, lost their balance, and fell into this wide mighty river of God, releasing all control to be surrounded by the pure anointing of Holy Spirit. The current was seen flowing through the midst of God's people as song after song was being sung. As people responded to the anointing of the Holy Spirit, and opened their mouths, these songs began to be sung, originated and initiated in heaven and the atmosphere got thick with the glorious presence of the Lord. Words brought life, healing, deliverances, miracles and the very atmosphere of heaven.

So sing, people of God. Reach up and grasp the songs that are resident in the heart of God to bring forth victory in your lives and those around you.

In Christ

G'Day Diggers,
There are two articles in this post. In the first article, "Sonrise", I am sharing a prophetic revelation given to me by the Holy Spirit very recently. This revelation came on many levels - as a picture, as a sound, and as a deep "knowing" as I sat with the Holy Spirit and allowed Him to impart to me what He desired me to understand about the current prophetic season. It is not so much a "word" as it is a proclamation. I am interested to know if this revelation witnesses in others and would be glad to hear from you if "Sonrise" also resounds in your spirit.

The second article is a repost of a message we sent out on Diggers on January 19th sharing details of a profound vision received around that time by one of our eldership here at GSLM. I am posting both these articles together, because I believe both these prophetic revelations are connected.

As a third installment of this prophetic trilogy, over the next few days I will be sending out a teaching article on the Revelation of the Sons of God, which the Holy Spirit has laid heavily on my heart this week.

My prayer is that the sharing of these will both encourage and edify all those who love His appearing.

Sonrise!

Received 4 - 7 June, 2004
The Spirit broods over the earth. He is calling to the sons of God: "Awaken, Arise". A key word for this hour is "emergence". A season of emergence is proclaimed, as the sons of God awake to the Voice of the Spirit and begin to emerge upon the face of the earth. Those who discern the hour and are watchful of the seasons of the Lord are even now discerning with their spiritual senses a new and marvellous thing breaking forth. They are alerted to a changing of season.

It is a season that comes with little fanfare or celebration, yet it comes in the perfect timing and complete power of the Father. It comes like the rising of a new dawn on the earth; it comes with the brilliant light and glory of a newly created day emerging on the eastern horizon. As surely and as silently as the morning sun sends out her rays to kiss the darkened earth, so surely and silently does this season dawn with the Kiss of the Son upon the earth's weary, weeping face. And as certainly as each new day brings expectations of change, so this new season comes with expectations of great changes whose appointed times have come, and which will not be held back or delayed any longer. Yet few will notice, and few will comprehend the significance of this hour for which creation has yearned and Heaven celebrates.

Yes, the long-awaited Word has gone forth, determined from the dawn of time in the secret council of Elohim - flowing forth from the Son, approved by the Father, to be birthed by the Spirit - now carried forth by angels and declared with power. And once again, the Spirit hovers over the face of the waters. The waters are of nations, tribes and peoples, but these do not know or hear the song He sings. The song He sings over the earth in this hour is a song that brings forth a mighty awakening and stirs a growing restlessness deep within the spirits of those to whom it is sung. It comes even as a sudden gentle wind on a still day, fanning into flame the smouldering embers of fires long thought dead. It comes as a new, yet ancient tune, strangely familiar to those who will now be compelled to play it, sing it and dance to its beat. It comes from the deepest longings of the Father's heart, having been bathed in His own holy tears. It comes with a fearful shout of victorious triumph from the lips of the Son, startling His enemies into a frantic and final escalation of unparalleled wickedness.

And as this song of emergence, this creative call to resurrection life, arises in the spirits of the very sons of God, now and in the days that come, a responding sound will begin to rise from the earth. It is simultaneously the sound of war and the sound of heaven, appearing among men. It is the sound of resolute marching; it is the sound of clashing swords; it is the sound of many voices united together by the Spirit of Adoption, by whom they cry out as one "Abba, Father!". It is the sound of two kingdoms colliding on a scale not ever before witnessed by mankind!

And as this awesome revelation of sonship reverberates throughout all creation, the King's enemies will flee powerless and confused before those who carry it forth. Powerless, because death cannot defeat those who have already died. Powerless because there is no demonic strategy in the face of truth proclaimed by the Spirit of Truth. Powerless because as one mortal body is destroyed, many more shall arise in that one's place. Powerless because men, women and children will now walk the face of the earth in the stature and image of that Firstborn Son whose exploits are forbidden even to be spoken in the darkest, vilest haunts of hell.

And powerless because these ones know who their Father is and therefore know who THEY are! Having come forth from the dust of the earth, they have followed the Firstborn into their eternal realm, quickened by the Spirit and no longer bound to the earth from which they were formed. They have obtained the heavenly inheritance of joint-heirship with Christ and are declared to be the sons of God with power!

And so shall be the manifestation of the sons of God to all creation, the season of which we now enter. Let him who has ears to hear, hear what the Spirit decrees. It has begun!

G'Day Diggers,

This vision was experienced by one of our team members during worship here at Great South Land Ministries on 19th December, 2003. The person who saw this in the Spirit wishes to remain anonymous, but is well known to me and extremely reliable prophetically. In seeking the Lord for further understanding of this vision, He gave Romans 8:14-19

"For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, "Abba, Father." The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs-- heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God." NKJV

I could hear a sound in the spirit; it was coming closer and closer. I couldn't quite see who it was at first. At the same time I heard the Lord say, "In the beginning the Spirit hovered over the waters, now the Spirit is hovering over all nations of the earth." And as I looked I could see the Spirit hovering over all the nations of the earth in a brooding sort of way. Like an eagle sitting on a nest suddenly standing and gently flapping its wings to cool the young chicks on a really hot day.

I could still hear the sound in the spirit. It was a sound of someone calling, it was getting louder and louder and seemed to fill all the earth and spirit realm. I suddenly knew it was the Father calling out over all the nations of the earth, and at the same time I saw that all the nations of the earth seemed to be covered with what looked like fairly large oval egg like shaped things which were grey like in colour, translucent, yet not. There were millions of them covering all the nations, even the little tiny Isles. They all looked the same. Everywhere I looked I could see them. As I was looking at this amazing scene I could hear the Father's call coming closer and closer. The strength and the authority of the call was absolutely awesome. The Father was calling out over the earth saying, "Arise, arise." It was a sound, yet I could hear the words. As the call intensified, some of the egg shapes appeared to be cracking open but not all of them. There were only a few in small groups which were starting to crack. There were quite a few of these small groups scattered over each of the nations, both small and large. All the other egg shapes stayed totally unresponsive to the Father's call. Suddenly the Father started speaking, and at the same time all the egg shapes which had cracks in them opened up and there were people standing covered in blood. Each person had a scroll, although I don't know how they got the scroll. Each scroll was specific to each individual and was given from the Father. Each scroll had instructions and strategies on it for each person. Then each person stepped forth. The blood could no longer be seen, but rather each person was dressed totally in white which seemed to shine brightly. Each small group stepped out in perfect unison together, even though they had separate scrolls. It was the Father who called them out of the egg shapes and it was the Father who sent them forth. END

In after thought the word "shroud" came to me in trying to explain the egg shapes. Although I could hear and understand what the Father was speaking after the people rose up, I can no longer remember what was said.

The Revelation Of The Sons Of God
Cheryl Mcgrath

[Part One]
Jun 12, 2004

Note: The words "son", "sons" and "sonship" in this article are used in the spirit of Gal. 3:28. In other words all references to "sonship" here are references to the Father-child relationship between God and His children, regardless of gender, race or age, and do not refer specifically to the male gender.

For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. Romans 8:19

He that overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he shall by My son. Rev. 21:7

For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone, the flowers appear on the earth, the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land. Song of Songs 2:11-12

The Call to Sonship

There are many in the church who aspire to mature sonship, but there are many less who have learnt the secrets of walking in it. All who enter the Kingdom are called as sons of God, but few are willing to meet the cost of becoming MANIFESTED sons. For those who object: "but sonship belongs to ALL believers at the new birth", I would agree and disagree. It is one thing to enjoy the TITLE of son and heir and the privileges that come with that position. It is quite another thing to submit oneself to the school of obedience and unjust suffering that produces within us the character of the Firstborn Son, to whose image all other sons are to be conformed. (Rom. 8:29) A wise father recognises all his sons as his sons, but also marks and celebrates the day of maturity when a son can be trusted with the responsibilities of a functioning heir. It is at that time that the Father's endowment of authority in that son becomes apparent to the world.

So we are talking here not simply about the inheritance of sonship through faith, but more specifically about the unmistakable MANIFESTATION of that sonship, here on this earth and in this mortal life, that must be witnessed by creation. Those who, in the coming days, will be revealed to all creation as "manifested sons" of God will be those who have yielded to the Spirit's training in ALL aspects of sonship, which includes the Father's discipline (Heb. 12:6-8), and the embracing of the Cross.

There is no mysterious exclusion zone surrounding this event the scriptures refer to as "the manifestation of the sons of God" (KJV). We should not be deceived into believing this company of sons who will be revealed are an elite group of super-saints, endowed with a level of holiness not available to the average believer. On the contrary, the invitation to walk as one of these manifested sons, whom the scriptures say the whole of creation is longing to see, is an open one, available to all born-again children of God. The scriptures also make abundantly clear, however, that attaining this measure of mature sonship will involve significant cost to the flesh for those who sincerely seek to respond to it.

For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For both He who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified are all of one, for which reason He is not ashamed to call them brethren... Hebrews 2:10-11

What form will this manifested sonship take when it appears? What nature of people are this company of believers we are told creation waits for with"anxious longing"? There is one thing of which we can be certain - as the revealed sons of God they will bear an uncanny resemblance to their elder Brother, the Firstborn Son!

In the World but Not of the World

That you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world.... Philippians 2:15

As has already been stated, we are dealing here not just with the concept of sonship, but with MANIFESTED, or REVEALED, sonship. A contemporary dictionary definition of the word "manifest" is this: "clearly apparent to the sight or understanding; obvious."

Jesus manifested His Sonship whatever He did and wherever He went. He didn't have to work at being different - it was clearly evident to all who crossed His path that He just WAS. His connectedness to Something or Someone outside the common understanding of this world was glaringly obvious and unquestionably uncomfortable for many. People were either drawn to Him or repelled by Him. His manifested Sonship flowed directly from the depth of His unbroken communion with His Father.

So shall it be with all those whose sonship will be revealed as they walk the earth. Who they are may not be understood or acceptable, but that they are not of this earth shall certainly be MANIFESTED in ways that are clearly and unmistakably obvious. Certainly signs and wonder, miracles, powerful delivery of the Word, great grace, joy, holy lifestyles and diversities of gifts and functions will accompany them. However, even more significant than these, manifested sons will EXPOSE peoples' hearts, motives and intentions. As the glory of the Father, the grace of the Son and the holiness of the Spirit are increasingly revealed in and through them, their very presence will expose all that is of a different spirit, and for this reason they will be severely persecuted. People will either be drawn to the glory residing in them, or, by the working of the antichrist spirit, they will intensely oppose them.

Prophetically Proclaimed, Yet Obscure

Just as the coming of the Firstborn Son was prophetically proclaimed, yet of humble and un-notable circumstances, so can we expect it to be with those who walk in mature sonship. Prophets had foretold the coming of Jesus and His birth was marked by heavenly signs which were observed by star-watchers far to the east. Yet, apart from the oriental Magi, some Hebrew shepherds close to Bethlehem, and probably some animals sheltered in a stable, few alive in Israel at the time of Jesus' birth were aware of the momentous significance of the time in which they lived.

John the Baptist was sent in the spirit of Elijah as a forerunner to herald this long-awaited manifestation of God's Son on the earth. For his efforts his life was cut short and his message silenced. Similarly, for some years now prophetic voices have been prophesying the imminent appearance of what has been called a "faceless, nameless" generation of holy people, who will move in the Spirit's power yet seek no glory for themselves. As with the Firstborn Son, the rising generation of manifest sons will arise from seeming obscurity and unexceptional beginnings. There will seldom be anything about their physical appearance, personality, or reputation that would cause them to draw the world's attention. In fact, we should expect the most notable aspect about them, according to worldly standards, to be their ordinariness! (1 Cor. 1:27-29). They will truly be examples of God choosing the weak and foolish to bring to nothing the wisdom of the world.

I believe that another reason these walking in manifested sonship will be "nameless and faceless" is because there will simply be too many of them for the world to create a celebrity class from them. Though the world may attempt to impose it's fame on some, they will shun worldly recognition and all that comes with it, just as Jesus did (see John 6:14-15). Their only motivation will be to be about their Father's business while walking as living witnesses of His love.

This is not to imply that men and women walking in manifested sonship have not been raised up by the Spirit at other times. Many names could be listed of those who have embraced this costly calling throughout Christian history, including more recent examples like John Wesley, Mary Slessor , Smith Wigglesworth, Maria Woodworth-Etter, Sadhu Sundhar Singe, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and countless others. However, these have been individual forerunners, making way for a greater company of manifested sons to be revealed by the Spirit when the appointed time arrived and creation's yearning should be fulfilled.

Driven into the Wilderness

We can expect that those walking in manifested sonship will have known times of deep loneliness, testing and hiddenness, or what is commonly called the wilderness experience. Jesus the Firstborn Son was not spared this experience, nor will His brethren be (Luke 4:1). They will most certainly have wrestled with the temptation to follow a more comfortable and rewarding life-path by the world's standards than the narrow, unrecognised path they've chosen. They will have experienced firsthand the pain of being misunderstood, misrepresented and written off by church associates, friends and even family. But they will also have learnt the secret of overcoming in such trials through the power of the Spirit and the grace of Christ. Therefore they will not display a victim mentality, whatever persecution or hardship they may endure. Though they may be dressed in rags, they will walk in the holiness of priests and the authority of kings which shall not depart from them.

Belonging to the Fellowship of Suffering

The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs--heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together. Romans 8:16

The reality of the Cross and the fellowship of the suffering of Jesus will be more than theoretical concepts in the lives of these manifested sons of God. The scriptures leave us in no confusion or doubt over the fact that the path to glory and resurrection life leads through the Cross, not around it. Therefore they will know Jesus intimately in the place of suffering as well as the place of power. It is precisely because they have yielded to the application of the Cross in their lives that they shall be granted the authority of resurrected sons.

These manifested sons will engender great fear in Satan's kingdom because the fear of death will not have any hold on them. At the same time each one of them will be a living revelation of the reality of God's grace keeping and sustaining His own. All those who suffer for and with Jesus have a special kind of fellowship, not only with their Lord, but also with each other, that is unknown to those believers who choose to circumvent the Cross. This too will be a mark of these mature sons - they will know each after the Spirit, and not after the flesh, and consequently their fellowship with one another shall be deep and rewarding in a way the world cannot comprehend (2 Cor. 5:16). For this reason they shall be granted the sacrificial grace of the Firstborn, enabling them to lay down their lives for one another.

Naturally Supernatural

So it is written: "The first man Adam became a living being"; the last Adam, a lifegiving spirit. The spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual. The first man was of the dust of the earth, the second man from heaven. As was the earthly man, so are those who are of the earth; and as is the man from heaven, so also are those who are of heaven. And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so shall we bear the likeness of the man from heaven. 1 Cor. 15:45-49

Manifested sons will have shed the Adamic earthbound nature of the man of dust and will therefore bear the image of the last Adam, the heavenly man Jesus, without any sense of shame. They will have truly become sons of heaven and will demonstrate through word, deed and lifestyle, the supernatural power demonstrated by the Firstborn. Many will display, when required, authority over nature and the created elements. They will fulfil the command given to Adam and Eve, to "subdue the earth" (Gen. 1:28). Having died to the earthly nature of the man of dust (or earth), with its natural limitations, and "put on" by faith the Heavenly Man, they will no longer be bound to the laws of nature that govern the earth. Rather, having indeed become raised up together to sit in heavenly places in Christ, creation will recognise and submit to them, even while they walk in mortal bodies.

Part Two to follow.

Sons! Why Your Prayers Are Hindered

Carla Rickard

February 17 2004
See Here! The time has come for the sifting of faith. Some of you have already experienced the sifting while others have yet to experience it. Some of you are experiencing it now. I AM calling you to attention. There is no work that you can do that will please Me unless it is mixed with faith. I AM not a respector of persons but I AM a respector of faith. Faith works by Love. I have shed abroad in your hearts Love when I brought you into the new birth. You have all you need to walk in faith and love. I hear the frustration on the earth of those who feel they are not seeing the fruit of their faith.

When you pray I have said for you to pray in faith and forgiving anyone who has trespassed against you that your prayers in heaven will be heard. Husbands you have wondered why your prayers have been hindered. I have spoken clearly as in times passed, that if you do not honor your wives your prayers would be hindered.

1 Peter 3:7
Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

I AM the God of Joy! I laugh! But how grieved I AM when I hear the poking of fun toward wives by husbands in the name of humor. How grieved I AM that this continues in my church. Marriage as ordained as holy and sacred unto me is being profaned by this activity. I command it to end now that your prayers may not be hindered. Wives do not retaliate with unedifying jokes toward husbands. These jokes bring division between you. It is not honor! It does not bring Joy! It is a trap set to bring hurt and division by the enemy. Why is there a need to poke at one another in this manner? Take note of your hearts

Luke 6:45
A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

In all your speech be holy!
Colossians 4:6
Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.
Do not fall into this device of your enemy. It may seem harmless and light hearted but it is not My Will for you. Build one another up. Let your speech be an honor to me and to your spouses that the glory of Your Lord may shine upon you.

Psalm 51:10
Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.
I speak this to you now that you may have understanding. I see you as One Flesh, as I and My Father are One. Would I speak of My Father in this manner? Would I jest? Come to the knowledge of Me and let me heal your disappointments. Let me heal those childhood wounds. These are not Who you are in Me for you are righteous in Me. Come now and let us reason together for the sake of My Kingdom on earth. You are my ambassadors. Faith works by Love. You will see the work of faith, the unfruitful prayers turn around as you do My Word to you in this day. I have plans for you, I have things to accomplish in you, yield this day that I may do this work quickly through a willing vessel. Sons, if you hear my voice today, do not harden your hearts.

Titus 2
[7] In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,
[8] Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

Sons Of Glory

Shirley Lise

Sons Of Glory Shall Walk In Resurrection Power That Overrides The Power Of Death And Deterioration

Great grace is upon you, grace that will carry you through. I have designated much to you. I have set aside much for you. Run the race undaunted. Do not bow down to the enemy and his attempts to side-track you. Do not give in to his schemes. I have called and destined you to walk with kings, to be instrumental in bringing in a harvest. I have called you to forewarn the people of My coming, to prepare the way for the King of Kings. This is no small task. I have, indeed, called many, but few are chosen, yet the few who have stood the test will carry the mandate forward.

I have assigned jurisdiction to you over multiple areas of influence and I am walking you into them one at a time. Do not be concerned that time is ticking on. Do not concentrate on the issue of time. Soon time shall be no more and its hold will be gone, so look to Me, the author and perfecter of your faith, and you will see marvelous things come to pass, things you never dreamed possible, and certainly not at your age!

I will "turn back the clock." I will increase stamina within you on par with a youth. I shall take your "older" body and revitalize it. What age has done will be turned back. I will prove to you, that I am over and above time and its effects, that I can, indeed, burn back the effects of age. You ask why would I do this? I am determined to have a witness in the Earth of My power, resurrection power.

This will become evident through the "turning back" of time. It will reflect the ability of the Lord to recreate. Though many have slighted Me as their creator, they will stand in awe when they see the revival that takes place amongst My Own. They will stand in awe when they see that the years the locusts have eaten are restored back to those who diligently seek Me. They will see and recognize that the Lord God has power over life and death, that He is able to recreate and reestablish, that it is not a difficult thing for Him to bring life abundant to those who fully turn to Him.

You ask why this mystery has not been revealed earlier? It is because the world has not been ready to receive it. But, in this day, the revelation will be released, and the promises of God will come to pass regarding these things. Understand that God is immortal and that He created man in His image, to live forever. And yes, it has been appointed once for man to die, yet in the restoration of all things, there will be no death, for life will flow forth, for the curse shall be lifted off of mankind and all things shall be restored to their former state. There will be no crying, nor sorrow, for these will flee as I take My Own into life abundant.

Yes, the healing virtue flowed from My Son, and multitudes were healed in His presence. How much more will His healing presence restore as He dwells within you? Unless a man has a revelation of Christ, he will perish. But the revelation will prompt him into receiving the truth. It was because of the fall into sin in the Garden of Eden that man was cursed with death, but I am removing the curse and man shall live a full life, for I am restoring all things to its original state.

You ask how I might do this, when, and what things will look like? Follow My word. It gives instruction in the process. Turn back to the books of the prophets and you will see that such a time was spoken of through the prophets, a time when all creation shall worship at the Lord's feet, when the whole Earth shall be filled with His glory.

When will that be and how will this be accomplished you ask? I have a plan to bring the nations into repentance. I have a plan to lead the people out of deception and into the truth. I will send My Son back one more time, and the whole Earth shall acknowledge Him.

How shall I do this you ask? I will come to those who are willing to forsake all to follow Me. I will anoint their eyes with eye salve and they shall see the truth. I shall impart within them the power to walk in authority over every enemy of the cross, and I am at work, even now, to bring these sons to glory, to bring these into the fullness of My Spirit. They shall walk upon the Earth in such authority that those around them will recognize that they have been sent from God.

The light and life of Christ shall freely flow from these and the hearts of men shall be turned to the Lord, for they shall walk in resurrection power that overrides the power of death and deterioration. They shall be brought into wholeness, health, and vitality. They shall exude the countenance of the risen Christ.

I Challenge You To Keep The Faith
Shirley Lise

Distance yourself from stress and distress. Rise up to greater heights. Rise up above the storm clouds. Come up high above the turmoil. I will take you up into the Heavenlies, into realms of glory. I will lift you up. Those things that rise up against you will be made null and void.

Haven't I promised you many things, great victory in a day of trouble? Haven't I birthed into your spirit hope of the future, life and liberty in My Spirit? Haven't I confirmed to you My word? Well, I am triumphing forth in this day to take down the kingdoms of men and to institute My kingdom in the Earth. False witnesses, false teaching, doctrines of men and demons shall be smitten as I come in glory to expel the lies of the enemy and to reveal Myself to those who would seek Me.

Vicious is the enemy, but I shall smite him and destroy his plans to hinder My people from moving forward into their calling and destiny. I will completely destroy the works of the enemy in your midst. I will dethrone him and establish My throne. Because you are willing, I shall come to you and assist you. I shall hear your cries of intercession and bring liberty. This is the day promised to you. This is the covenant that I have made with you. This is the promise fulfilled that you and your household shall be saved.

The power of God is able to destroy the work of the enemy and to bring the house into order. Do not doubt. Do not say it can't be done. I will do it. I will work a work in your midst that will cause you to stand in awe. I will move sovereignly to line things up with My heart's desire.

Your household shall experience the resurrection power of God. No longer will the enemy hold sway. I am breaking the strongholds of the enemy off your household. Trust Me to do those things promised you. Trust Me to keep the river flowing in your midst. Trust My every word to you, for I shall perform all those things I have spoken of. Timing is important. At the right time I shall release these things to you.

I challenge you to keep the faith, to keep believing everything spoken to you. I challenge you to be confident that it is I who has spoken. I will do such a work in your midst, you will know that I have moved in to take over.

Spirit Of Prophetic Praise And Worship

Lillis Boyer

I saw a large winged figure, maybe like a seraphim, hovering over the sanctuary. It had many chiffon like wings that gently moved in time with the beat of the music. It was multi-colored, brilliant, …constantly flashing different colors in different areas, very, very beautiful. As we entered into high praise the colors would become more intense and brilliant. As various believers in sanctuary entered into high praise this Spirit would illuminate that worshipper with a color. Not all worshippers in the congregation would be illuminated with the same color. Some were a brilliant purple, others a different color. Those who were not worshipping were not illuminated. Every so often the creature would open his mouth and exhale a colored incense. I couldn't smell this incense but I felt the Lord tell me that this incense had a lovely fragrance, perhaps only the Father could smell it. The Lord told me that wherever His people are gathered, engaging in prophetic worship, this beautiful holy seraphim type spirit hovers over them.

Season Of The Rain

Bill Burns

People of God, arise! Come forth into My presence, for this is the season of My glory, says the Lord, and I come as the rain upon you. I am now bringing the water of life to you. Drink, I say, drink and be full. In the drinking of My water you shall be refreshed. Your times of refreshing come from My presence. As the refreshing comes to you, then out of your innermost being that which has come upon you will come out of you, and you will be a refreshing stream to those around you. You will be a refreshing stream to those who are dead and dry, and an abundance of life will come forth. I, the Lord, have spoken; this is the season of the rain and the coming forth of My Church in faith and in glory, says the Lord. Come!

Marsha Burns
November 29, 2004: I speak to those who have been in the pit so long that you accept your position as normal living. But, I say, stop sinking into the mire of self-pity and condemnation. Look not to your circumstances as any measure of your worth or ability. Look up and behold My face, for I will draw you up and set your feet on a level path and give you new hope. Your worth is far above rubies, and you are precious in My sight. Trust Me, and I will deliver you from the enemy's hand that is stretched out against you, says the Lord. Exodus 14:13 "Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord."

Signs Of The Times
Joe Long

Pilades07@yahoo.com
Do you not recognize the signs of the times My people? You can look at the sky and say it is going to storm, or it is going to be a hot day, but do you not see the signs of My coming judgments? I have said, "As it was in the days of Noah" people marrying and giving away in marriage, but they did not see the coming judgment because of their sin... Even so, shall it be in the days of the coming of the Son of Man! Do you not see the signs? States removing the godly judges from the bench, the TV industry okaying the use of the "F" word, blatant sexual perversion on the TV, the disintegration of the old line churches, the gradual encroachment of government in the guise of peace and safety. This people have stated their case against Me and have said that they do not wish to have anything of Me in the govt., and though My people fight to some degree, this thing must be, "For It Is Written; Every Word that I have spoken shall come to pass and not one jot or tittle of it shall fall to the ground, for My Word will go forth and accomplish that which I have purposed that it shall do... My beloved ones, this not only encompasses the many mighty promises that I have made to you, but it also encompasses the Words that I have spoken concerning judging the sin that is in the world!

Sin must reach its fullness just as Grace must also reach its fullness, then shall I come and set up My kingdom which is an everlasting Kingdom, without end! Yes, My people, you shall reign victorious with My Son! So rejoice and look up for your redemption draws near, but do not stop what you are doing which is to occupy till I come! Give no quarter to the enemy! I AM coming in My glory and splendor, but first, I AM coming in My people! Stand ready to receive Me into yourselves in a way that you have never experienced before! It will be a short work, a quick work, then shall I appear and the earth and all who are therein, shall moan and weep for they shall see the one who was pierced and crucified, and they will try to hide their faces from Me whom they rejected, but there shall be no escape for them! Rejoice My beloved ones, for you shall be with Me! FOREVER! Amen! So Let It Be!

A Work In The Youth
Joe Long

pilades07@yahoo.com
Even today this word is now coming into it's fullness saith the Spirit of Grace. Yes, it has already begun just as I spoke it through MY prophets in time past! I AM doing a work in the youth of today that is eclipsing any that has been seen by man since the beginning of time. A move that will utterly astound, dumbfound and make jealous those who have been hanging back and not moving as I have commanded and encouraged in days gone by. Yes, even as MY prophet Malachi wrote in the in time past, I will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, I AM even now bringing this into its fullness saith the Spirit of Grace! Many are saying that you do not have the experience that we have, so you must grow as we grew, and go through that which we have in the years past... Behold! Did I not say that I would perfect praise from the mouth of babes? Did I not say that in the last day that I would do a short work and a quick work? Do you think that I am limited by time??? I exist outside the realm of time and further more time exists in ME! Those that are looked upon as too young, not good enough and not from the right bloodline I AM picking up and I AM cleaning them up and putting robes of righteousness on them just as I did with MY High Priest Joshua! Yes, these are the brands that I have personally plucked from the fire and have made them MY messengers saith the MOST HIGH! Prepare yourselves, gird up the loins of your mind, receive those that I have raised up for they are of ME, they have MY anointing upon them, they speak MY Words and do MY Will and they have no fear of man for they have been born of MY Spirit and are totally sold out to ME! I AM sending them into the highways and byways and into the gutters and slums that man doesn't desire to go and they will bring in those whom I have sent the invitation to, to come and fill MY House saith the One who is Faithful and True! Yes, this is the time when the last invitation is going forth and the time of the second invitation is at it's completion!

Yet not all of these are the rejects but they are all who have a heart to know the Truth and wish for the Truth to set them free! They will be discipled by those whom I have foreordained to groom to MY specifications, while others I will simply anoint and they will go forth in the Faith of their Redeemer, even with the faith of a child! Many who are engrained in the "old system" will not receive these but this will not deter them from the mission that I have put within their hearts! I would say to those who have walked with ME for many years, to receive these I send their way and do not turn them away for you will be turning ME away! Even as it is written that you entertain angels unaware, so will you be turning ME away unaware when you turn one of these away!

This is the time to be led by MY Spirit and be MY Sons saith the HIGH and LOFTY ONE! Receive them, take them in, feed them, cloth them, and give them a drink of cool water and you have so much as done the same to ME! I AM YAHWAH!!! I AM THE YAHWAH ELOHIM OF ABRAHAM ISAAC AND JACOB! I AM THE YAHWAH ELOHIM OF THE LIVING!!! I AM YAHSHUAH HAMASHIACH!!! I AM THAT I AM AND I AM WHO I WILL BE!!! BEHOLD I COME QUICKLY AND I BRING MY REWARD WITH ME!!! AND THE SPIRIT AND THE BRIDE SAY "COME!"

Song Of The Thunderstorm
Lois Wauson

lois.wauson@juno.com

This, my dear friends, is what the Lord is telling me this day, June 29th, 2004.

My husband, Eddie, who as some of you know, has Alzheimers, wandered in this morning to my office and said he just wanted to sit down with me. It touched me, and I asked him if he would like for me to read my devotional to him. He beamed and smiled, and said, "Yes, I would!".

First I read Isaiah 41 and that chapter really touched him, and he kept saying, "That is sure just for us today isn't it?" He especially liked the verses about "So do not fear, for I am with you. Do not be dismayed". and "I am the Lord your God who takes hold of your right hand an says to you, Do not fear, I will help you", because we have talked about his and my fear of the future with this disease he has right now.

Then the parts that talk about "I will make rivers flow on barren heights and springs within the valleys, I will turn the desert into pools of water". oh he loved those verses and kept commenting on them being just what God wanted to say to us today (It has been raining for days in Texas and we are again under a flash flood watch here in the North Texas area).

Then I felt I was to read Psalm 29, since today was the 29th. When I read this, it just amazed him.... and me too!

Mainly it was because we were sitting there listening to thunder in the distance and watching the morning become darker and darker and then rain began to fall outside the window. He sat there, teary-eyed, saying, over and over, "God is so amazing. He just wanted me to hear that today! God is really talking to us, isn't he?".

Later he left the room and he was all quiet and calm and comforted. So was I.

When I looked up Ps. 29 in different translations it was so interesting. I never knew it was called the "Psalm of the Thunderstorm" or the "Song of the Thunderstorm" and also, "The Psalm of Seven Thunders": "the voice of the Lord" is repeated seven (7), it is so wonderful how God speaks. So if you are in that storm, then God is in it! And listen, because God may be speaking to you.

BUT, ALSO, YOU WILL SOON BE OUT OF IT AND YOU WILL HAVE PEACE!

Below is a short explanation of Psalm 29 taken from one commentary I read. It was the best one for me today!

BLESSINGS, LOIS

David's twenty-ninth psalm has been called "The Song of the Seven Thunders." Nothing else among the psalms, nor in all of Scripture, for that matter, quite matches it for drama. So intense is the feeling that the description of this wild landscape leaves the reader almost breathless. So vivid is the imagery that one virtually hears the thunders-"the voice of the Lord. . . full of majesty," (Psalm 29:4)-as they come in a series of seven explosions.

We track the progress of the storm. It sweeps in from the sea. It crashes through the trees, The whole mountain shakes. Then, as suddenly as it appeared, the storm roars on out into the wilderness.

The poet begins this glorious song with a call to worship the Lord of the storm.

After the tempest passes over him, David comprehends even more of heavenly power. Enthroned on land and sea, God will strengthen and "bless his people with peace." (11 RSV)

While we often refer to His speaking with the "still small voice," we also need to be ready to hear Him in the voice of thunder. Herein, however, lies an amazing, divine paradox. The God of the thunderstorm is the one who brings His people peace!

God of the thunders, grant that I may account the storms in my life simply as manifestations of Your power to deliver. Herein, I pray to find Your peace.

Ps 29:1 ¶ <<A Psalm of David.>>
Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.
2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.
3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters.
4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars; yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.
6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.
7 The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.
8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.
9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.
10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.
11 The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

State Of The Union

Don Hawley

One of our best-known historians is Arnold Toynbee who wrote the acclaimed 12 volume A Study of History. He once declared, "Of the 22 civilizations that have appeared in history, 19 of them collapsed when they reached the moral state America is in today."

The shocking revelation is that Toynbee made this statement way back in 1975!

Would you agree that our nation's morality has significantly worsened since that time? My personal conviction is that our demise is long overdue.

However, for those who perceive correctly what the Bible has to say about conditions just prior to the Lord's return, this is a time of great hope:

In our day, the bad news is good news!

Those who now declare "peace and safety"--and that likely includes most Christians--are the ones who will be tremendously shaken by impending events.

Strikes On The USA

Mike Tucker

Major U.S. Explosion
05/2004 I dreamed the following:

I saw a woman talking on a phone. She was wearing pearls around her neck and a Southern style sun-dress. While she was looking out the window, an explosion went off in the distance. Her eyes were filled with terror at what she saw then her skin quickly melted and peeled away from her face (I could not bear to see more of this dream scene, somehow I was able to close my eyes).

Then I was taken to where the bomb went off. I stood next to the actual bomb and saw it sputter once (as if it might not go off) but then it fully exploded and formed a thin but high mushroom cloud. All around it, oil refineries and huge storage tanks went up in the explosion and added to the explosion.

Then I was taken to a warehouse at a port loading dock. I saw several cargo boxes being loaded at different times. In them, I was made to know that the parts of the above bomb were contained and concealed. And this is how it entered into our land.

Then the visual part of the dream ended, but this name was spoken three times with increasing volume and intensity, "Abu Muwahbe... ABU Mu-wah- be... ABU MU-WAH-BE", and the last name was clearly pronounced syllable upon syllable. Then I woke up.

Meaning: I believe the bomb was in fact a nuclear device placed near a major oil installation. The mushroom cloud and great care taken to smuggle the bomb in suggests it was not conventional. The woman was clearly in Southern attire and suggests that a Southern port city with oil refineries is the intended target.

I beg my Brothers and Sisters in Christ to pray that this event be put back and this Abu Muwahbe be revealed or captured.

A Foreign Ploy

08/2004 I dreamed I saw a map of the Western U.S. coastline stretching from Alaska, Canada and to the continental U.S. coast. On the British Columbia coastline, I saw a large exclamation point.

The next scene I was taken to that specific point on the map. Several men were unloading something from a boat. As I looked at the men, I was made to know that they were Russian (though they wore nothing to signify such a thing, they were quite ordinary looking). They unloaded a black raft with green camo covering it. As I looked at the raft and the bulk beneath the camo, I was made to know something very sinister was in the raft.

I believe this dream indicates that a Russian force (may or may not be government backed) will unload a deadly weapon in the U.S. through the Canadian border. The type of weapon was not revealed, but it was extremely deadly (Biological?).

The Lord God operates under love and mercy. These events do not necessarily have to be allowed. Let us pray this nation will turn from her ways and the church will wake up from its slumber before the day arrives.

Jesus is the Ark!

Stirring of the Waters
Mary Clark

I am about to stir the waters, beloved. I am giving them a good stir. When My beloved feels the stirring of these waters, you will be lifted up to a new place in Me – a new place of protection. Look forward to this occurrence, for it is surely on the way. It is most certainly just around the corner.

What do I mean when I say that I am stirring the waters in your vicinity? What good could it possibly do for Me to stir the waters? I will tell you: I am offering a new hope to those who will comply with My message. I am offering something that money cannot buy. Will you receive, as I do My masterful stirring in your vicinity? Will you receive the wonder of My most able hand?

Let Me tell you something more about the stirring of the waters that is coming your way soon. Just as in the days of old, I am opening new and wondrous vistas where you will see a certain wholeness shine forth in your life. You will know with a certainty that you have been touched by the loving hand of the Almighty One. You will identify this touch, and worship the Giver of good gifts. You will know a release deep within your heart that will enable you to move into a place of wonder in Me where you will see My most pronounced glory shining through your life to others.

I am taking all who will come into a new place. Presently, I am rolling up My sleeves. I am going to plunge My hand into the water in your vicinity, and begin a swirling motion with My hand. This swirling motion is going to pull those who are seeking after the Beloved into a new place. Come into My pool of love and delight, and know the goodness of the living God as it shines forth wondrous possibilities for your enjoyment.

I am about to swirl the waters, beloved. I am about to show the devil what for. He is anxiously wringing his hands, for he sees Me rolling up My sleeves. I am going to plunge My hand deep into the waters of your vicinity. Wholeness – a place of wonder – is coming the way of My beloved. A wondrous hour is going to take the place of the boredom. You are about to be caught in the swift current – the swelling current that is bringing all who have taken the plunge into the deep waters of My love.

The time is right! The hour is upon us, beloved. Know that the wonder of wonders is surely on the way. It is surely coming by the power of My Spirit to your vicinity, and when it does, beloved, relax and go with the flow. Just relax and enjoy My presence, knowing that I am touching you deep within your heart, and making you whole – making you sound in the face of the evil one's antics, and placing you securely in the river of My love. Let it wash over you, and know its sweetness, beloved – know its peaceful flow as it engulfs you – know the wonder of being caught up with Me in the rapture of My love. Know this – all of this – and take that walk of extremes in the path of My choosing. For truly, this is a time to move forward, and what better way is there to begin an adventure than being doused in the sweet, fulfilling presence of My love – being doused in the wonder of My power, and knowing deep within the loving touch of the One Who is Mighty – the One Who is Wondrous – the One Who is Love – Love at its finest.

The unequaled love of the Beloved! Who can fathom it? Well, beloved, you are about to understand a little more about it. You are about to receive a wondrous, loving touch from the Almighty, and when you do, kindly share this phenomenon – kindly share the wonder of this touch in order that others may decide to take the plunge into My river also – into the flowing, swirling river of My most exotic love. It is for you. It is for them. It is for US!!!

Pastel Envelopes
Mary Clark

In a vision, I saw a letter holder hanging on a wall. It contained a few envelopes.
They were pink, yellow and blue pastel. What was in these envelopes, Lord?

Those envelopes contained words for a later date. Those envelopes contained words of love that I am longing to say to My beloved, but they will have to wait for a later day. You would not understand My language of love today, beloved. These words are for later after I reveal some things about My heart to you. So wait patiently for them to be delivered, and know that when they are delivered they will delight your heart and soul. They will delight the depths of your being. And sending them will be a delight to Me, too, beloved. Oh, yes. I am eager to send them to you. But I am a patient God, and they will just have to wait. They will just have to wait to be sent at the correct time. You know, timing is essential in everything, and this instance is no exception.

So let it be enough to know that I have some letters for you, written in a language you would not understand at this time. But the time is dawning when you will understand, and when you do, I will send them. I will send them, and let them thrill your heart as they thrill Mine. Just knowing that the time has come for Me to write them and keep them safe until that wondrous hour is wonderful for Me. I know that the time is almost here when I will send the letters to My beloved, and this thrills My heart. It thrills My heart knowing that the time is coming when My beloved will read these letters written in a language of love that will be most satisfying to read just as they have been most satisfying to write.

I say again, beloved. These letters will have to wait until the appropriate hour. But be that as it may, I would have you think on this promise – the promise that they will be forthcoming. Knowing this should thrill your heart, and offer you a new hope for tomorrow. And that is just why I am telling you about these letters – to give you another sign of hope for your tomorrow.

They will soon be delivered, beloved, and when they are, look up and know that your Beloved is coming for you soon. He is coming to take you to your heavenly home soon, and this is a fact that you may ponder also – the letters and My return. Now that should keep you busy – pondering those two events. Yes! That should give you something worthwhile to do until My return. And as you ponder, beloved, talk to Me, and tell Me that you are excited about My work, and oh so happy and excited about My return, because you will be echoing My thoughts, beloved. That way you will be echoing the thoughts of your Beloved.

Mountain of Fire
Mary Clark

In a vision, I was looking up at a mountain that had carvings of huge heads like Mount Rushmore. I was looking at the heads, trying to identify them, when my vision zoomed in on the one at the very top that was silhouetted against the blue sky. It was a lovely face. I believe it was Jesus. In the next scene, I was exploring the rocky mountain. There was an outcropping of rock and I peered around and looked down a corridor-like indention. I could see a natural window in the rock at the end of the corridor, and a glowing fire was burning in the room behind the window. Why did You show this to me, Lord? What significance do these visions have in your plans for our future?

I am building My church. I am the head of My church. There is none other who qualifies for this position. Know this is a truth, spoken by the mouth of the living God – the One Who made you, and is taking you into a new place in Him. Let Me tell you about this new place:

This place is alive with the fire of the living God. The fire blazes high, lighting the way into the finest of hours. I want you, My church, to identify My will and walk in it with all that is in you – with all that I have put in you. I have certainly equipped you. I have certainly marked out your destiny on My very own blueprint – My faultless plan.

Listen to this wonder of wonders that I am about to tell you, beloved, and identify it as coming from the One Who made you and is seeing to it that you arrive into that place of wonder that is found in Me: I have established you in a place of My goodness for this coming hour. I have signaled to you My intent, and I have moved you in the direction of My will where you may look on the beauty of My face. You may see Me just as I am. You may identify My will, following after the way that I have laid before you. You may walk into a place of My supreme knowledge being made known to your heart.

Look on the power and majesty of the Almighty King, and know with a certainty that one who follows after Me – who follows after My truth – will never be disappointed. I am taking you into a glowing, new region. This region is HOT with My presence. My very presence in you will burn away the dross that has built up in your heart. My very presence will light the way into a future in Me where you will see My beauty up close and announce to others the wonder of the living God simply by the lives that you lead, the words that you speak, and the actions that you take on My behalf.

I am doing a red hot work in you, beloved – a RED hot work. Look on this fiery work and know that I intend to move you closer into the realm of My wondrous glory shining through you, and lighting the way for others to come into the realization of My truth.

I am turning the tables on the enemy. He thought that he had you in a headlock, telling you lie after lie after lie. But he is soon to see that the Almighty has him in the headlock, and I am about to cause that same fire that is burning the dross in My beloved to ignite the enemy’s coattail. He is not going to like it one bit. You see, this fire of Mine can either serve man or it can burn man. Man can be burned alive and made holy or man can be burned to death by this fire – this unquenchable fire.

I am calling to My beloved children. I want you to see Me up close. I want you to gaze on My beauty from a region you have yet to visit. I want you to behold Me and all of My majesty. I want you to know that I am moving you into a delightful new territory – a territory rich with My presence. I want you to know that I am doing a new work in your heart when you arrive into this fiery territory. I am burning away some things that have gotten in the way of My work in you. I am burning away some things that have hindered your growth in Me. Realize that this is a good thing – an eternal thing – a thing that is going to give you a BIG boost. But the enemy – now he is a different matter! I am going to burn him. I am going to burn him with an unquenchable fire, and send him scampering off into a region of deep misery.

You, beloved, will see as you arrive into this holy place of burning that I have singled you out for this hour to bless you mightily. You will see that My intent toward you is always fine – it is always My intent to bless you mightily. You will see that the work that I am doing in your heart is taking on a new life in Me – a new life of great wonder, and I am pronouncing on each of you something that can only be viewed from up close – up close to My face. So know that this is promotion – a gigantic promotion. You see, beloved, I am taking you to the top of the mountain. My holy fire burns brightly there. The air is rarefied there. The air is sweet and My presence is most pronounced.

So when you feel your ascent into this domain of wonder, call out to Me your wishes to advance into this place of holy burning, knowing that the hour has come for you to see – to view Me – with an eye of love and devotion you have yet to experience. Know that this giant promotion is brought to you by your Lord and Savior, and it is a final step into the virtue that I am offering My devoted believers.

Spirit Of Unworthiness

Spirit Of Unworthiness, Failure And Suicide - High On Hell's Agenda For 2004!
(blowtheshofar@juno.com)

In the Spirit I sense that the enemy for the past several years has been working strategically and patiently to wear down the saints. But he is not planning to stop there. I sense his past work is only to unleash something far worse this coming year. I sensed as this new year came in that he has unleashed something horrific against pastors and leaders.

In the Spirit I heard a heavenly decree going forth throughout the earth heralding a cry for intercession to increase immediately to fortify pastors and ministers. I saw a caution light flashing from the book of Nahum 2:1 "He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily!"

I sense many discouraged pastors who are considering giving up on their call and ministry will now be in for the greatest battle of their life - the will to live! Satan is now releasing a flood of unworthiness to convince many that they have failed the Lord and it would be hypocritical to try to continue on.
Hell's best offer will now become thinkable on the heels of depression - "suicide."
I then heard a cry from the battle field... "another soldier down!"
Do you know where your pastor is? Hug your pastor today and don't let go!

Signs Of What Is To Come

Stephen Hanson

May 29, 2004

LK 21:25 "There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars. On the earth, nations will be in anguish and perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. [26] Men will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken. [27] At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. [28] When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

2TI 3:1 But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. [2] People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, [3] without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, [4] treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God-- [5] having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them.

"Out of the west will come a wind that will blow. This wind will stir up many things. I tell you that there will be atmospheric things seen in the skies. For this earth is going to be going through birth pangs. What are those birth pangs? I tell you that they are signs of my returning Son. "

These are the signs that you would observe:

1. Drought in some areas of the United States.
2. More fires reaping havoc.
3. Tornadoes and high winds
4. Lightning storms
5. Buildings collapsing
6. An earthquake of great magnitude
7. Tidal waves upon the coastlines

"I tell you that the signs in the natural come first; then the spiritual comes afterwards. There will be an "unsettling" of many people. For many will look to other beliefs at this time. The ancient practices of other religions will become prevalent. For they think that they will have found their answers there. These are the signs that will follow. Lean unto the rock of your salvation. Deep dig and you will find your resources in Me. "

SPAIN - THE ANGEL AND THE BOULDER

"'The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone; the Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes.' Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit. He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but he on whom it falls will be crushed." Mt 21:42-44

GOD MOVES ON THE KINGDOM OF SPAIN

In prayer I recently saw a massive angel standing on a mountain in Spain. The angel was standing by a huge boulder, and suddenly a shout came from Heaven, and the voice of God said, "MOVE."

The word thundered, and the angel released the boulder. The boulder represents Christ as the capstone of the Church and points to the next move of the Holy Spirit in Spain. When the Lord spoke, His word released Dunamis power, and a massive spiritual shift occurred. God's glory began to break over Spain, releasing the Kingdom of God on the earth as it is in Heaven, transitioning the kingdom of Spain into revival.

ACCELERATION AND VISIONS OF GLORY

"I am about to release a move of my Spirit in Spain, which will have a massive spiritual impact on the nations. This next move of my Spirit will crush terrorism and religious facades. The continuum of my Spirit will birth a revival in this land. My word to Spain is 'ACCELERATION.' Rise up out of despair into your destiny. Rise up out of weariness and despondency. Rise out of passivity into passionate pursuit of your King and put on the garment of praise. I am on the move, and I am releasing an anointing upon your land to move with my Spirit. You will experience a quickening in your hearts as your ears are opened to this trumpet call from Heaven. And I say to you there is fresh grace in this hour to obey my Spirit and to run with the visions I will place in your hearts. Visions of glory, visions of fruitfulness, visions of reconciliation, and visions of peace.

RE-LOCATION TO SPAIN TO RECEIVE KINGDOM MANTLES

"For some time now I have been preparing your hearts, especially those who will lead this next move of my Spirit. This next move of my Spirit is a tri-generational move. Even now I am sending people into Spain to co-labor in the harvest. I am physically re-locating those who will help spearhead this move of God in your land. Some of them are traveling to be with you even now, and they will receive the fullness of their mantle when they touch down on Spanish soil. Receive them in love and resource them, for they hold keys to unlock the harvest.

24-7 PRAYER TEAMS SEED A PRAYER REVIVAL

"Those who are in their twenties will be highly impacted, and they, in turn, will impact Hispanic people across the globe. Watch out for the seeds of 24-7 prayer movements, blossoming with a suddenly. That which has been sown in love, will burst forth with a demonstration of my power. Prayer houses will continue to multiply at an ever-increasing rate. This is a direct result of those who have gone on summer expeditions and who have sown worship and prayer, many of them in the hidden place. The Lord honors those who have stayed behind to prepare a seed bed of sacrificial prayer and praise. The harvest is coming.

21st CENTURY ARTISANS WILL CLUSTER IN SPAIN

"There is an unconventionality to some aspects of this next move of my Spirit, for this next move of My Spirit is a mold breaker. With the new wine I am releasing fresh ideas. Do not fear the creative ways in which the Gospel will be spread. Some of what you see with your physical eyes will stretch your boundaries, but there are many ways to connect with lost souls, and I am creatively inspiring a new millennium artistic wave of wonder that is also a part of my harvest nets. Twenty-first century Christian artisans* will cluster in Spain. New centers will be built for artistic expression of worship under a powerful prophetic anointing. These creative labors of love will speak to and reach the lost and will break down barriers in societies, both within and beyond Spain. In Brazil, in Guatemala, in Honduras, in Argentina, and in many other places within central and southern America, I am going to seed creativity into my people and birth a body of prophetic artisans. For some this will be their tent making provision. Bless the work of the hands that serve me. I am calling for Christian marketplace ministers to help facilitate Christian business start-up schemes which embrace these artisans. This will break poverty on many of my people. I will give the necessary network connections and strategies to these modern day Josephs.

[*artisan - a skilled worker who makes things by hand]

"There is a bridge to be built through artistic expression business start-ups into Israel, and a connectedness with Israel that I desire to increase. I am calling for Spanish Christian leaders to bless Israel and build a bond of peace and trust.

VICTORY IN THE VALLEYS!

"There has been a stirring of your hearts and much has been done in the area of intercession and of demonstrating my love. You have shown willingness to be servant-hearted and to take my love out onto the streets. There are even those of you who have prayed in the valleys like Ezekiel."

The Lord would say to those who have labored in intercession, "You are weary, precious children, but you are not forgotten."

To those who have prophesied to the dead bones and heard the shifting and the rattling of the Body coming together, the Lord says, "Do not give up in your faithful intercession, for breakthrough is very near. I am sending you reinforcements from around the nations to stand with Spain in this hour of my glory and see revival birthed in this century. The next two years are crucial in the birthing and nurturing of revival in this land.

A DANIEL ANOINTING ON THE JACOB GENERATION OF SPAIN

"I am going to affect the students of this nation. I am bypassing man's intellect to reach straight into the heart, and this next move of My Spirit will be known as a revolution of love. Once hearts are won for my Kingdom, I will use their intelligence to my glory, for there is a Daniel anointing that I desire to pour out on the Jacob generation of Spain. With this anointing will come great favor, great wealth and resources, and a tremendous revelatory anointing, accompanied by wisdom and understanding. Like Daniel, you will know a fear and reverence of your God. Places of spiritual learning will be established. Swathes of training and equipping centers will rise from Spain. Even a tented community will be seen as a place of My presence and a place to meet with me as Joshua met with me in the tent. Expect the fire of my presence, for my fire is a place of refining and holiness. Trials will come to test your faith. Fear not, for the pure in heart will shine as their faith comes forth like pure gold.

SPIRITUAL INTELLIGENTSIA TO MENTOR SPAIN'S NAZIRITE ARMY

"Indeed, I have been preparing Christian spiritual intelligentsia to mentor this next move of young converts in Spain. These spiritual leaders have been seasoned in my virtue and will gird new converts with truth and wisdom. They have been anointed with my governmental authority and compassion. Indeed, some have already walked upon your land and released my decrees. Still more will come to your land as salt and light. I am raising up spiritual mothers and fathers for this generation of radical young men and women that will do great and mighty exploits for their God. They will volunteer to parent you, many from other nations. Conscription in Grace to the army of God is a call that will be heard in your land. It is a last-days calling for an army of Nazirites in Spain.

TURNING THE TABLES - SALVATIONS AND SIESTAS!

"For so long many have come to Spain to party and partake in the spirit of the world. But I am turning the tables, and I declare the Church will celebrate, and the world will take notice, and the partying on earth will be to a new tune and will be an echo of my angels in Heaven as they celebrate salvations. There will be a harvest of souls. People will come on holidays with no agenda for salvation, but instead they will have profound encounters with Me. I am going to meet with them, and the message of the woman at the well, John 4, is a promise for Spain. Signs and wonders will accompany the preaching of my word. The gift of the word of knowledge will operate in the public arena with tremendous accuracy and blessing, as will the gift of healing.

"There are many time-shares in Spain. I am going to touch a modern day Cyrus in this hour, and he will give a time-share complex for my Kingdom, and people will come and be refreshed and revitalized. This first-fruits offering will be seen in Torremolinos.

OPPOSITION OVERCOME THROUGH ADORATION

"This next move of my Spirit will be confrontational, for it will take place much of the time on the streets of Spain and also in seats of learning. Evil will be confronted in my goodness, and my Word will prevail. There will be opposition from within the Church as well as from without, but do not bow to intimidation, for I am raising a war cry in the heavenly realms against the false god of religion. I am causing this to topple and fall as my people come to worship and adore me.

"Seville is carrying an anointing for vitality in the Kingdom. I am releasing the sound of the pipes and the drum and the tambourine, and I am causing a coming together of the Celtic nations and the people of the Basque region. The sound of worship is being restored in, around, and for Spain."

THE GIDEON VICTORY SHOUT BREAKS THE YOKE

God calls the Church to release a great victory shout which reaches unto Heaven. This shout will release an anointing to break the yokes of the enemy. The Lord says, "Let your ole' (bravo) be unto the glory of My name, and I will shake the heavens and the earth and release my glory. You will feel the earth physically tremble under this anointing."

The Lord calls for repentance and reconciliation on the borders of Spain. Spanish, French, and Basque believers will gather to petition the Throne of Grace for mercy. This is necessary and a pre-emptive, strategic, intercessory assignment which must take place for the full weight of the anointing to be released on the victory shout.

To those who have been faithful with little, the Lord says this, "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness. (Mt 25:21) Great increase is promised for those who are faithful to the King of Kings, and Portugal will share in the blessings."

Father we agree with your word and bless our beloved brothers and sisters in Christ, and we join our hearts to theirs and cry out for the next MOVE of your Spirit in Spain. We receive this revival of love and prophesy the fulfillment of Kingdom-destiny for Spain in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Something Precious Burning

I Think I Smell Something Precious Burning...

There was a shipwreck at sea and the soul survivor was a man who swam to a nearby deserted island. He took as much of the food from the wreckage that could be salvaged and put it in a pile and covered the food with the mast of the ship. He knew that when the food ran out, he would soon perish.

One day he took a walk to the other side of the island. As he was returning back, he saw huge flames shooting up out of the pile of food that was stored. He got so angry, he began beating his fists into the sand and started cursing God. As he was cursing God, he heard a sound... a foghorn in the distance. He looked up, and there was a big ship on the horizon of the waters. He watched as men began to climb down off this big ship into small boats and started rowing towards the shore. The first small boat to reach the shore had the Captain of the big ship in it. The Captain stepped out of the boat and walked up to the man on the island. The Captain said, "Mister, if you hadn't lit that fire ... we would never have found you! If you hadn't lit that fire... "

I sense there are many of God's people right now that for some reason the Father has allowed some precious things, relationships, and things you thought you couldn't live without to go up in smoke and flames. I sense many are bewildered and angry. The enemy is trying to convince many to blame God for what you have lost and turn away from Him. Many are so angry and bitter that they cannot really hear God at all right now. But I hear something for you. Listen very carefully. This is what I hear... mmmmmmm, mmmmmm. I hear a 'spiritual' foghorn in the distance... Jesus is very near!

The enemy is telling you to look at what you are losing. Jesus is saying, "Look at what you are about to gain! If you have lost something that you believe is God's will for you to have, then He is able to bring it back in His timing. Things that we think we can't live without are often very frail and combustible.

Fire often helps us to surrender those things that we are unable to give up on our own. God gives beauty for ashes.

Oh, Father, if You call us to the fire, You will not withdraw your Hand. We'll gaze into the flames and look for You!

I think I smell something precious burning...

The Statue Of Liberty Changing Her Apparel -- Look Out Spider Man!

In the Spirit I saw the abbreviation of the state of New York - 'NY' lighting up, standing for "Now Yeshua!" It was as though Yeshua was coming 3-D technicolor to New York City! I saw a huge tallit (prayer shawl) coming down over the head and shoulders of the Statue of Liberty. She looked a little Jewish! I sensed the Lord saying. "This prayer shawl over her head and shoulders represents the urgent call for intercession for America and Israel.

I then saw the Hand of God replacing the torch in her hand with a shofar!

The Lord seemed to be saying. "The Spirit of Liberty that seems dead within this woman is being resurrected again and up out of her innermost being will come forth the very breath of God and this lady will blow the shofar and the blast of Liberty will be sounded and heard throughout this land bringing a release to America and touching Israel at the same time!"

I believe praying for Israel is going to pay huge dividends of favor from Heaven to America. We are going to start reaping from those prayers we are sowing and crying out for the Peace of Jerusalem.

Dear Spider Man, "Yeshua is still number one in New York City and America... Job 8:14 "Those who forget God, their hope shall be cut off, whose trust shall be a spider's web."

Revelation 3:19

Those whom I dearly and tenderly love, I tell their faults and convict and convince and reprove and chasten. I discipline and instruct them.

So be enthusiastic and in earnest and burning zeal and repent (changing your mind and attitude. Listen means to obey in the word.

Zephaniah 2:1-3

Collect your thoughts, yes unbend yourselves in submission and see if there is no sense of shame and no consciousness of sin left in you. O shameless nation (not desirous or desired).

The time for repentance is speeding by like chaff whirled before the wind!

Therefore consider, before God’s decree brings forth (the curse upon you), before the time to repent is gone like the drifting chaff, before the fierce anger of the Lord comes upon you-yes, before the day of the wrath of the Lord comes upon you.

This is about the laws of this nation as well as our own decisions Concerning abortions and same sex marriages. The unborn babies Cannot defend themselves or speak out to say “you are hurting me” Or “don’t do this to me, I want to live”. They can’t call for their Mommy or daddy to help them. This abortion thing is very satanic.

Seek the Lord (inquire of Him, and require Him as the foremost necessity of your life), all you humble of the land who have acted in compliance with His revealed will and have kept His commandments; seek righteousness, seek humility (inquire for them, require them as vital). It may be you will be hidden in the day of the Lord’s anger.

Is this the kind of message that comes when men or a nation does not please God with their decisions and life styles? Is this something that we need to Seriously consider when we have partial birth abortions and same sex Marriages? If the law of the land is contrary to the word of God, then God will do what He says He will do in correcting the wrong decisions.

Luke 17:26-32
And just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the time of the Son of Man. People ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, right up To the day when Noah went into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed Them all.

So also (it was the same) as it was in the days of Lot. People ate, they drank, They bought , they sold, they planted, they built; But on the very day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. That is the way it will be on the day that the Son of Man is revealed. On that day let him who is on the housetop, with his belongings in the house, not come down and go inside to carry them away; and likewise let him who is in the field not turn back. Remember Lot’s wife.

These words are given in a most solemn warning to those that it applies to.

The Importance and the Power of Prayer

The disciples were watching Jesus every day. They noticed how He prayed alone and always early in the morning before daybreak. They noticed that He never prayed for sick people to be healed. He simply spoke to them saying be healed or touched them and they were healed or they touched Him and they were healed. They saw how it only took seconds to get them healed or to cast demons out Or work miracles.

Now they understood how He had this kind of power. They knew that it was Because of His prayer life. He prayed a very long time every day. But each Miracle or healing only took seconds.

They said to Jesus, Lord teach us to pray. They did not ask Him to Teach Them how to do miracles, healings and cast out demons. This is the key to every one's Christian believer's life being made full And Enables us to do the works of the Lord.

Luke 6:17-19
Jesus came down with them and took His stand on a level spot With a great crowd of His disciples and a vast throng of people from all Over Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to listen to Him and to be cured of their diseases-

Even those who were disturbed and troubled with unclean spirits, and they were being healed (also).

And all the multitude were seeking to touch Him, for healing power was all The while going forth from Him and curing them all (saving them from severe illnesses or calamities.

Power was constantly flowing from the Lord during His earthly ministry.

This power was dynamic, moving, active, reviving, restoring, healing, creating, flowing, doing, gloriously resurrecting the dead and was always Available to those that reached out by faith.

When we have a prayer life similar to the life that Jesus had that power will Manifest in us as well. I can tell you this by my own experience.

It is real and it does happen. Miracles happen. Healings happen. All the glory goes to the Lord Jesus. It is not us but The Spirit of Christ in us.

Another Wave is Coming!
Terry Suggs

The movie the passion of the Christ is being released on video. The kind of impact that this will make is phenomenal. A great tool for evangelism has been given to us.

I see a wave of new Christians coming out of this release as well as a number of individuals seeking answers. Pastors, teachers, evangelists please be prepared.

Natural Disasters and Shakings
Terry Suggs

Prepare now for the shaking that is about to take place. You must be prayed up and completely ready this time. It could possibly be much worse than I'm saying right now.

There is a great shaking coming soon. People of this world are already suffering in different places around the world. Now, it could get worse for them.

Please pray as if it is happening right now. Pray like you are in the middle of the worse disaster right now, because some of us don't pray for God to intervene until something major happens. Prayer can change everything.

Look Higher! Look Deeper!

Look Farther!

Jesus In Us

Terry Suggs

Because of the way we were taught the Word of God in the years gone by, we have a consciousness of inferiority and weakness and uncertainty. But Jesus spoke to us by His word and His life. He (Jesus) (the Son of God) lived as a man filled with the Holy Ghost, and born of God. As a man filled with the Holy Ghost Jesus came to restore the earth and the people of the earth. His acts of restoration were demonstrated in the times when He healed everyone that was sick. As a man filled with the Holy Ghost He opened blind eyes, He healed lepers, He raised the dead; as a man filled with the Holy Ghost, He walked on water and spoke to storms and made them cease. Jesus did everything by miracles or by just speaking. He spoke the Word only.

His words did the work. When He raised Lazarus, He spoke the word.

Before satan stole our position as the ones with authority over all the earth, Adam was doing the same thing. Adam did everything by speaking.

Jesus has restored us to our position.

Jesus always talked and operated on a higher level than man. His faith was perfect.

He spoke with authority and whatever He spoke came to pass.

He said to Peter to come to Him on the water, when He did this, He was saying: “you see what I’m trying to tell you. I want you to see that you are in authority and dominion over the earth. I’m here to show you that you can do what I am doing. I’m here to restore the position of man that Adam lost to satan. “When you are Mine and in Me, all things are possible; just believe.” As a man that knew Who He was and filled with the Holy Ghost, and full of power as well as anointed, and overshadowed with glory and honor, He healed the deaf and dumb, the crippled.

When Jesus lived as a man, He could only be in one place at a time.

Jesus said, “ I must go away to the Father, so that the comforter of Holy Ghost can come and live in you.”

In the last days I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh. Now Jesus (all of God in His fullness) lives in the body of Christ. Jesus said; the just shall live by faith. Jesus said, if you have the faith as a grain of mustard seed, (speaking the word in faith is the same as sowing a seed in the ground), you can speak to a mountain and say be plucked up and removed and be cast into the sea and not doubt, you shall have, you shall have, what you say, what you say believing. The mountain will obey you.

Since now faith is the substance and the evidence, then today is the day for what you are expecting. You have it now, today.

Eternity is a place without time. It is the eternal now.

Whatever you are believing for is right now in the eternal now.

God’s word is His life. His word is spontaneously creative.

By His stripes you were healed. Believe in your heart and confess with your mouth and you shall be saved. Jesus and Peter were not limited by gravity when they walked on the water, because Jesus word was spontaneously active and Jesus had authority over gravity and water.

Jesus was not limited by weather conditions, by time, by space, or by man-made traditions. These boundaries were not boundaries to Him.

Jesus used two fish and five loaves to feed thousands and afterwards there were left- overs.

Jesus was not bound by anything in this physical world. He was not bound by natural laws.

Jesus was not bound by anything in this physical world. Jesus spoke with authority when He spoke to the tree saying: No man shall eat your fruit from this day on. Jesus words carried so much power that what He said manifested spontaneously. If Jesus had spoken in the middle of the night and said let it be daylight, the sun would have been shining in that instant.

Jesus is telling us that all the things He did, we will do and even greater works shall we do, because He went to the Father.

Faith dispels fear, faith makes you whole, it produces righteousness, faith justifies, it heals the sick and faith grows. Faith knows no defeat.

Jesus is operating in perfected faith. He has absolute confidence in His own power or being.

Jesus did not come to make you sick or condemn you. He said have Faith in God. Faith manifests substance and evidence. The faith of God is what Jesus used. He said to the disciples and to the believers, have the faith of God. Believe like God believes and have what God would have.

Nothing by any means can harm you. No weapon formed against you shall prosper. The enemy will come one way and flee seven ways. The word will never return empty. It will obtain and manifest what it was directed to and sent to do. He sent His Word and healed them.

Take no thought for your life; what you will eat, drink or wear. It is not by power or by might, but by My Spirit says the Lord.

Jesus is 100% honest, faithful, 100% trustworthy and pure in every aspect of His Being. Jesus is perfect love. Jesus is telling us to do the works that He did.

We have been restored to the Father’s household. We are the inheritors of all things. He held nothing back from us. If God spared not His own Son, how much more with Him shall He also freely give us all things.

Do you see what you were restored to? The kingdom of God has no boundaries. Jesus came that we may have life and have it more abundantly. Jesus came that our joy may be full.

In His Kingdom, that now is at hand, there is all faith, all healing, all grace, all love, all power, all wisdom, all spiritual blessing, all light, and all victory.

For the whole creation (all nature) waits expectantly and longs earnestly for God’s own sons to be made known (waits for the revealing, the disclosing of their sonship. That nature itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and corruption (and gain and entrance) into the glorious freedom of God’s children. We know that the whole creation (of irrational creatures) has been moaning together in the pain of labor until now.

When we pray or talk to God the Father we are talking to the Creator of the universe and everything that lives in it.

When His Word is spoken it is like a missile launched to a target. Nothing can prevent it from reaching its intended result or accomplishing its objective. God fills all things and upholds all things with the Word of His power.

Look farther! Look deeper! Look higher! God is unlimited. Time belongs to Him. History belongs to Him. The universe belongs to Him.

God is in us as born-again Christians. We have the more than a conqueror living in us. Greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world. He is our righteousness, our wisdom, our provider, our refuge, our peace, and our strength. He is all and in all. Everything that there is in existence came out of Him. He is sovereign. Our inner man is now the Spirit of the Lord Jesus making His home in us. We are filled with the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

In the book of Ezekiel the 36th chapter, Jesus spoke of a new spirit that He is putting in us. Our old spirit has been replaced with the spirit of Christ.

It is Christ in you. If any man is in Christ, He is a new creation. We are being changed from glory to glory. We are delivered from being subjected to infirmity, from sickness, from diseases, from poverty, from bondage, from fear, from uncertainty, and the control of satan in our media, our political system, our judicial system, our business world, and the corporate world. The kingdom of God is at hand. The kingdom of God is in you now.

As a man thinks in his heart, so is he.

Every empire that dominated the world outside of God’s control has failed and will fail.

They are designed to fail.

God’s word declared and established that, of the increase of the kingdom of God, there shall be no end. The kingdom of God is fail proof. It will never fail.

The gates of hell cannot stop or hinder the body of Christ as we operate in Jesus authority.

With God there is no time, so whatever you are saying in faith and expecting already exists. Like healing, and miracles.

We carry the same power and same spirit that Jesus carried on earth. We operate in His authority in this present world. His disciples demonstrated this in their lives after Jesus left.

We live beyond natural means of support.

God had us in mind when He gave His Son Jesus. The enemy doesn’t want you to know this. God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son. Even the people that insulted Him, accused Him, beat Him, mocked and laughed at Him, God had them all in mind.

We are put in a position now where we are all facing the same principalities that Michael fought against in the book of Daniel.

We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against demons of spiritual rulers of t he darkness of this world. There are principalities over cities and nations. In the book of Daniel Michael was one of the chief princes of God. He was one of many.

He was withstood or with it stood by another that was a prince over Persia.

For this reason we are to wear the whole armour of God. And we are to trust in the God of the armour. In Ephesians 6, we are individually wrestling against principalities and wicked spirits or chief rulers of the darkness of this world. We are all individually opposed by chief demonic spirits. We can move these principalities with the armour of God and with our faith. The flesh profits nothing. The only effective method is by following the spirit of God.

Let us not cheapen true Christianity by not living in the fullness of what is given to us freely by faith through the grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Some are standing on the outskirts of the real life of God. They are content in just looking at the truth from a distance. Maybe in Jesus day, some of the people were watching Him from a distance and were really not getting the message that He preached.

Let us not forfeit God’s best given to us.

Look Higher! Look Deeper! Look farther!

When we look into the scripture, we are looking into a spiritual mirror, we are seeing our inner man. The inner man is the very image and likeness of God.

Look to the hills from which comes our help.

Deep calls unto deep.

Set your affections on things above.

If you make your bed in hell, He is there. If you went to the uttermost or deepest part of the universe, He is there.

We are only at the edge of the glory. But it is beyond comprehension now. In this time in our human history, God is releasing a great increase of knowledge and glory.

Jesus said in John 16:33:

I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have (perfect) peace and confidence, In the world you have tribulation and trials and distress and frustration; but be of good cheer (take courage; be confident, certain, undaunted)! For I have overcome the world. (I have deprived it of power to harm you and have conquered it for you).

Terry Suggs

The New Creature
Becoming the Word of God
Terry Suggs

Look into God’s mirror (His Word) and see who we really are and what we really are. Look at Jesus’ life.

When It says that God finished His work in the book of Genesis. The only work that It describes was God speaking things into existence. By the creative word He brought everything into existence. Adam did everything by speaking. Jesus did the works of God by speaking and acting in the Father’s authority. We are doing the works of God by speaking to our circumstances and situations and diseases in the authority of Jesus.

Lean not to your own understanding. Go by what God says about you.

You are a new creation. The new creation came from God. Jesus was the first born of many brethren of this kind. We are born-again by the Holy Spirit entering our spirit after we receive the Lord Jesus as our Savior and Lord. We are also sealed by the Holy Spirit.

The new creation is superior to the devil in every way. The devil wants to deceive and blind us to this truth. Greater is He that is in you than He that is in the world.

There is no separation between God and us. We are seated in heavenly places in Christ. That is why we can lay hands on the sick and they recover. That is why we can cast out devils in the name (authority and character) of Jesus.

That is why we can speak to a mountain and it can be moved.

We are eternally new creatures with the ability of the Holy Spirit operating in us.

In Jesus life on earth He showed us what a new creature looks like. He said, these works and even greater works shall you do because I Am going to the Father.

Jesus raised the dead, healed every kind of sickness and disease. He cast out spirits of infirmity and demons that had possessed individuals.

Jesus talked to weather and changed it, and walked on water, having authority over the natural elements. He spoke to fish and animals and they obeyed.

I believe that God created Adam with everything that Jesus demonstrated. The first Adam lived in flesh, the second Adam (Jesus) lived in flesh.

Jesus multiplied food when there was not enough physically to feed thousands. Accept His Word as truth and act on it.

Jesus said that He that has seen Me, has seen the Father. He said I Am the vine and you are the branches. In these words, He tells us that we are connected to the Godhead. There is no separation between us. The world needs to see us as God made us to be. The world may be laughing at us while we are following manmade traditions, ceremonies, and having Sunday programs, but when God gets into church (body of Christ), then the world and the devil will stop laughing.

Don’t stop at where the senses and the natural stops. You can go beyond the natural and get resources that are not seen. You can get healing and miracles that are not seen. But they are there in the spiritual realm. Cause them to manifest by standing in faith and in the word.

Terry Suggs

Spiritual Abuse

Joseph McMaster

> The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, But fools despise wisdom and instruction. Proverbs 1:7
> The lips of the righteous feed many, But fools die for lack of wisdom. Proverbs 10:21

The religious and political leaders of Jesus day were quite educated but Jesus still called them fools and blind ones (Matthew 23:17,19). In other words just because a man is educated doesn't mean he is not a fool especially if he doesn't acknowledge that "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge." Unfortunately for them even many of God's people are fools because they despise wisdom and instruction from others. They feel their special position as pastor, preacher, church leader, choir member or church usher has made above reproach and they are accountable to no one but God. Dietrich Bonhoeffer put his finger on one of the greatest dangers to the modern society including the church.

Every personality cult that is concerned with important qualities, outstanding abilities, strengths, and the talents of someone else—even though these may be thoroughly spiritual in nature—is worldly and has no place in the Christian community. Indeed, it poisons that community. The demand one hears so often today for . . . "powerful personalities" springs too often from the spiritually sick need for the admiration of people, for the erection of visible structures of human authority, because the genuine authority of service seems too unimportant (Life Together, p. 108).

The word of God encourages us to have the the attitude in ourselves Christ Jesus had including that nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind we are each to esteem others better than ourselves. And we are to look out not only for our own interests, but also for the interests of others. God's word is unchanging:

Therefore if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, fulfill my joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others. Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Philippians 2:1-11

Many seek the ruler's favor, But justice for man comes from the LORD. Proverbs 29:26

Spiritual abuse is quite common in many churches in America. When spiritual abuse takes place in any congregation it is time to go. No one should ever be spiritually abused. We all know of pastors who abuse and we know a lot of pastors who are emotionally and spiritually abused by congregations. And many righteous ones with the wisdom that God has given them have protested about spiritual abuse and the rights of the sheep such as Rev. Jack Cascione, The Voters' Assembly Is Invested With Authority from God, who stated:

'Thus writes St. Paul (1 Cor. 3:21-23): 'Therefore let no one glory in men. For all things are yours: whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come- all are yours. And you are Christ's and Christ is God's.' From this [passage] we learn that all things that even Paul and Peter had were only treasures from the jewel room of the believing Christians or of the church." ("Church and Ministry" C.F.W. Walther, 1851, CPH 1982, page 50)

"However, this equality of believers is abrogated and the church is changed into a secular organization if a minister demands obedience not only to the Word of Christ, his one Lord and Head and that of all Christians, but also to what his own insight and experience regard as good and suitable. As soon, therefore, as adiaphora or things indifferent, that is things that are neither commanded nor forbidden in God's Word, come in question in the church, a minister may never demand absolute obedience to what merely appears to him to be best" ("Church and Ministry" C.F.W. Walther, 1851, CPH 1982, page 312)

"It follows from these statements of Scripture that the congregation of believers enjoys a sovereignty under Christ which are not to be restricted or limited in any way. Christians may not be made subject to a minister or a priest, because they are all ministers and priests in their own right who have the privilege of approaching God directly. " ("The Abiding Word", Alfred von Rohr Sauer, Volume III, CPH 1947 page 306)
"As such they (congregations) possessed all the gifts and rights of the Church which Christ has bestowed upon it. Specifically, the function of the Christian congregation is to administer the means of grace in its midst and to serve in this world for the conversion of the sinner to God. This is nothing else than the administration of the keys of the Kingdom. (Matt. 18:17-20; "Tell it to the church"; Matt. 16:19, John 20:22-23, "Whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.")....The church, therefore functions as the administrator of the office of the keys of the Kingdom." ("The Abiding Word", Richard Klan, Volume III, CPH 1947 page 383)

Yes, Christians may not be made subject to a minister or a priest, because they are all ministers and priests in their own right who have the privilege of approaching God directly. In the eyes of God and in the words of Jesus we are all brethren and no one except the Lord has the right to rule over another Christian. Chuck Swindoll, author, pastor, seminary president, once talked about the six traps in ministry being:

1)Authoritarianism is the lack of a servant’s heart. This is when the leadership has gone wild with a tyrannical, oppressive pride. Don’t suppress God’s people. Respect them and encourage them to be all God wants them to be. Don’t abuse God’s people. Christ is Lord, not the pastor or anyone else in His church.
2) Exclusiveness is the “I (or we) alone are all right.” “Only we have the truth, or the best program.” It constantly stresses the idea that we are the only people God uses. No one else is as good, doctrinally correct, blessed of God, filled with the Spirit, etc. God has blessed me, or our group as the elite Christians. The emphasis is on our distinctiveness, denominational pride, selective doctrine, a special revelation or anointing from God, etc. The leader promotes a clannish, cultic following, clicks, etc. The truth is in God’s grace there are no favorites. God does not play favorites with anyone. We are saved by grace alone. There are no second-class citizens in the Kingdom of God.
3) Greed is the money crazy theme. How much do you harp on money? What is your motive? Even building yourself a name for a church with a big budget falls prey to this abuse. As a pastor I don’t handle money. Let someone else do it. The church assigns a group of people to count the money, the treasurer writes the checks and an audit committee checks the books. Don’t even find out who gives the most or how frequently they give in your church. How do you handle money that people hand to you and say use it were the greatest need is? Do you continue asking for money after you know you have all the funds you need for a certain project?
4) Rationalization is the effort to justify wrong with a defensive spirit. Are you quick to gloss over personal sin, make excuses or lie about it? Are you over emphasizing or underemphasizing some area of purity? What areas and why?
5) Sensuality is how I handle sex. Treat all women in all purity. Stay away from any compromise or even the smell of smoke. Don’t become too familiar with the opposite sex, or your own sex. Stay away from all appearance of evil. Live a pure life.
6) Unaccountability is the idea I answer only to God and no one else. As a pastor and a member of my church I am always accountability to someone. I am accountable to the deacons, the deacons are accountable to the church, and the church is accountable to one another. Beware of the secretive, “I am accountable only to God and I answer to no one else.” No one is above accountability. Receive the confrontation of friends and mentors and remind yourself that only observed behavior changes.

The apostle in Philippians 2:5-11 is stressed the remedy to spiritual abuse in modern society. His emphasis was on the character of God that is seen in selfless service and obedience to Christ and others. Jesus Christ is our perfect example of obedient service. His attitude runs counter to the human tendency to dominate and control others for personal gain. “Think in this way,” Paul says, “just as Jesus Christ thought in this way.” That is the best safeguard we can have in the way we handle life. Follow the example of Christ’s selflessness, humility and obedience. On various occasions Paul has used Christ’s behavior as an example for believers’ lifestyle (Rom. 15:3-9; 2 Cor. 8:9; Eph. 5:1-2; Col. 3:3ff; 1 Tim. 6:13-16). Paul normally puts the emphasis on living the Christian life in the believer’s union with Christ and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit (Rom. 6:1-14; 1 Cor.6:11-20; Col. 3:1-4; Rom. 8:1-17; Gal. 2:16-20; 5:16-26). But here he tells us not only to imitate the model of Christ. But “Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus.” We need to yield and submit to Christ and the wonderful Holy Spirit daily so that the life of Christ might be lived out through us and not our life.

J. Hudson Taylor English missionary to China and founder of the China Inland made the English term "exchanged life" popular through his testimony of how God made him a new man. (Hudson Taylor's Spiritual Secret, page 154.) The word "exchanged" is used to signify that God has made it possible for us to exchange our total insufficiency to live the Christian life for Christ's total sufficiency to live it through us. He did this by exchanging our old identity in Adam for our new identity in Christ and by uniting our newborn spirit with His (I Corinthians 6:17; Galatians 2:20). The term "exchanged life" is related to the believer's discovery of his identity in Christ: that is he is a new creation, one born of God, that he is not what he was before. It is time that we rediscover and practice the truth that “I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.” Yes, we are to let Christ live His life in and through us and we will not be foolish ones who die for lack of wisdom. God’s word is unchanging:
I now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up in my flesh what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ, for the sake of His body, which is the church, of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, the mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, but now has been revealed to His saints. To them God willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Him we preach, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. To this end I also labor, striving according to His working which works in me mightily. Colossians 1:24-29

Spiritual Springtime
Francis Frangipane

I know many in the Protestant and non-Catholic world viewed recent scandals in the Catholic Church as a consequence of God's wrath. Indeed, the judgment of God certainly did expose perverse and deeply entrenched sin among certain leaders in the Catholic Church. While this exposing of sin is not yet over, the Holy Spirit has also been speaking to me about a special visitation that is about to fall upon many in the Catholic Church.

As I have known the Lord, His judgment upon what is sinful is linked to the release of mercy upon the righteous. Even in my personal life, when the Lord judged areas that were wrong in me, He hemmed me in so He could release me spiritually. I can say like the Psalmist, "We went through fire and through water; yet Thou didst bring us out into a place of abundance" (Ps 66:12). When I consider the dealings of God in my life, I can sincerely say, "It is good for me that I was afflicted, that I may learn Thy statutes" (Ps 119:71).

On a larger scale, the Lord exposes, judges and destroys the work of the enemy so He can reveal awesome wonders of His grace among the righteous. Indeed, Christ came to do two basic things: "to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God" (Isa 61:2). The outcome of divine vengeance is "comfort [to] all who mourn . . . giving them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a spirit of fainting" (vs 2, 3).

Thus, what was a clear expression of God's anger toward certain Catholic priests was, at the same time, an act of mercy toward those oppressed by the sin of those in leadership. Additionally, those sincere Catholic leaders who have truly loved God are about to receive a visitation of mercy. This outpouring will bring healing and a unique sweetness of spirit among those Catholics who truly love the Lord. Indeed, the tenderness of God's love will bring a new spiritual beginning for many. Those who felt helpless and afflicted by sin in the church are about to enter a spiritual springtime.

"For He has brought low those who dwell on high, the unassailable city; He lays it low, He lays it low to the ground, He casts it to the dust. The foot will trample it, the feet of the afflicted, the steps of the helpless . . . Indeed, while following the way of Thy judgments, O Lord, we have waited for Thee eagerly; Thy name, even Thy memory, is the desire of our souls.

At night my soul longs for Thee, indeed, my spirit within me seeks Thee diligently; for when the earth experiences Thy judgments the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness" (see Isa 26:5-9).

Such has been the cry of a growing minority in the Catholic Church. God has heard and He is drawing near.

The Signature of This Revival: A Deep Love For Jesus

I do not think this move of God will fall upon the entire Catholic community; in my view, it will be limited to local churches in various cities. But where people are praying for healing, it will come. And it will be a true outpouring from the Holy Spirit that will touch thousands of congregations. Catholics will not cease being Catholic in a denominational sense, but the Lord will look past the doctrinal concerns many Protestant Christians have with Catholicism and, as the Spirit of God always does, He will see and respond to the cry of human hearts.

The centerpiece of this revival will not be signs or wonders; although there will be genuine miracles. Instead, the preeminent characteristic of this visitation will be a deep overflow of love for Jesus. God will raise up many among the Catholics whose lives will truly manifest the maturity and substance of Jesus Christ.

Many of these revived Catholic churches will be instrumental in reaching the poor and forgotten in the inner cities. Additionally, anointed Catholic priests will be accepted into many citywide church events that, in the past, were deemed off limits to both sides of the Christian divide. A new sense of unity, born of love for Jesus, will spread, even revitalizing churches that have no organic connection with the Catholic community.

I believe it is time to accept Christ's passion for all of His sheep, and to begin a focused prayer advance for the Holy Spirit to touch Catholics around the world. Surely this move of God will ignite Catholics from many nations. Yet, the Lord emphasized to me that this visitation would touch the Catholic Church in America in a unique way. As the passions of God are restored to His people, the Holy Spirit will use many fervent Catholics to change this nation. The impact will spread around the world.

As always, our call is to pray. Let us seek God, and join with those in Catholicism who are praying for a great, sweeping outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Let us also war against the sense of betrayal and confusion that seeks to imprison many Catholics, especially warring against discouragement in those in leadership positions.

The Lord said that if we would intercede for a spiritual springtime to fall and refresh Catholics, He would include us in it when it comes.

The Bible tells us that every word should be confirmed by two or three witnesses, and it should be presented publically and to let the others judge. I know that many sincere Christians believe that God has shut the door on Catholicism. By way of reminder, the above witness is about prayer, not doctrine; it's about the mercies of God, not theology. Yet, we would like to hear your comments. Write us at comments@frangipane.org and tell us your thoughts, some of which we will post on a web page for others to read. We will not post your email address nor your full name.

Spiritual Warfare
Doug Fortune

Jul 15, 2004
"For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places." -- Ephesians 6:12

May I suggest that we redefine our understanding of spiritual warfare? However, in order to bring clarity of definition in spiritual warfare, we must bring clarity of definition of the 'spiritual realm'. The word translated as "heavenly places" is epouranos in Greek. There is another word translated as "heaven" which is ouranos in Greek. You will notice that the difference between these words is the prefix epi, meaning superimposition or above. Keep in mind that when contrasting the second heaven (ouranos) and the third heaven (epouranos), this really has nothing to do with geography or physical altitude. Paul describes this as being outside of our physical time-space oriented thinking; "I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven..." (2 Corinthians 12:2). At any rate, we know that the third heaven supersedes the second heaven, it is a higher realm (not necessarily in physical altitude). So, what on EARTH does this have to do with spiritual warfare?

It all has to do with location (not physical) or spiritual authority. Ephesians 1:20-23 speaks of this as it says; "Which He wrought in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead, and set Him at His own right hand in the heavenly places (epouranos), FAR ABOVE all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: And hath put all things UNDER HIS FEET, and gave Him to be the head over all things to the church, Which is His BODY (the Body has feet!), the fulness of Him that filleth all in all." So here we see that in spiritual authority, the third heaven (epouranos) is FAR ABOVE all governing principalities, powers, might and dominion. It is extremely important to note where WE are in this equation; "And hath raised US up together, and made US sit together in heavenly places (epouranos) in Christ Jesus:" (Ephesians 2:6) My friend, WE are FAR ABOVE all principality, power, might and dominion. We are seated in the third heaven, above the government of the second heaven.

Spiritual warfare is NOT a matter of us standing on the earth, our praise ascending to the heavens and piercing the spiritual darkness, casting out governing principalities and powers! Rather, it is much more a matter of US descending, bringing the GLORY of the third heaven to invade the second heaven, therefore DISPLACING principalities and powers!

I believe that at this point it may be helpful to gain a basic understanding of what I'm referring to as the 'third heaven'. We speak of the first-day experience, the Outer-Court, the first feast (Passover), and the first heaven; these are all symbolic of our initial salvation experience. We are now under the blood of the (Passover) Lamb, Christ Jesus, free from the sinful bondage of the 'earth realm', the emphasis on sacrifice and offering, and have gained a heavenly perspective (if nothing else, hoping to GO TO heaven someday). Then there is the second-day experience, the Holy-Place, the second feast (Pentecost), and the second heaven; these are all symbolic of our moving into the realm of the 'gifts' of the Spirit, prophecy, praying in tongues, the illumination (golden candlestick) of the Spirit, and becoming very aware of the governing principalities and powers of the second heaven. Then comes the third-day experience, the Holy of Holies, the third feast (Tabernacles), and the third heaven; these are all symbolic of our moving into the realm of GLORY.

In this realm it's not about US and our sacrifice and our salvation (first day, first heaven), it's not about US and our gifts of the Spirit and our revelations (second day, second heaven), it's ALL about HIM and His GLORY. The primary manifestation of the glory of God is His character, His nature, and the place His glory is manifesting today is IN US; "To whom God would make known what is the riches of the GLORY of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ IN YOU, the hope of GLORY:" (Colossians 1:27). The third-day experience, the third heaven is all about becoming ONE with Him, His nature, His Life manifesting THROUGH us... it's really all about INTIMACY. "...and they two shall be ONE FLESH. This is a great mystery (remember the 'mystery' of Colossians 1:27?): but I speak concerning Christ and the CHURCH." (Ephesians 5:31-32).

Now let's pay close attention here, if we can grasp it I believe this truth will transform our spiritual warfare: Just as the epouranos supersedes the ouranos, just as the third heaven supersedes the second heaven, INTIMACY supersedes second heaven government. I'm going to be redundant for the sake of emphasis; just as the third heaven supersedes the second heaven, INTIMACY supersedes second heaven government!

Let us explore a beautiful prophetic picture of this truth found in the book of Esther: * "Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus... That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom... In the THIRD year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:" (Esther 1:1-3) For our purposes here, Ahasuerus serves as a type of Jesus Christ seated upon His throne. Jesus Christ is in the THIRD millennial year of His reign, and has prepared a banqueting table for US (His princes) in the presence of our enemies (the power of Persia), the second heaven government of principalities and powers.

* "Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus. On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded... To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on. But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains:" (Esther 1:10-12). In Biblical symbolism, the woman is symbolic of the emotions or the soul. There is a 'queen' in Churchianity today that is 'fair to look on', at least she looks good on the outside, but she is too busy feasting in the SOULISH things of religion, 'a feast for the women'. Indeed, the King's heart is merry in this seventh millennial day, for this is a season of His favor, but she is too busy with religious activities and false humility to come before Him in royal apparel.

* "Vashti shall come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another that is better than she." (Esther 1:19) - Good news for the 'Esther Company' that God is preparing, bad news for the religious system.

* "And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful;" (Esther 2:7). Hadassah means myrtle in Hebrew. Myrtle speaks of the Feast of Tabernacles as Nehemiah 8:14-15 says, "the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written." The Bride that is being prepared for our King has experienced Passover and Pentecost and is experientially entering into the Feast of Tabernacles. Like the priest Melchizedek, this 'Esther Company' has neither father nor mother, in other words, like Melchizedek she has stepped into the Life that is not bound by natural heritage or natural limitations.

* "Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)" (Esther 2:12). The 'purifying of the women' speaks of the purifying of the SOUL (mind, will, emotions). "Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ENGRAFTED Word, which is able to SAVE your SOULS." (James 1:21)

Twelve is the symbolic number of apostolic order, and apostles are calling the Church to maturity, to lay aside the soulish life of carnality. Myrrh was used as an intimate perfume and used in embalming, six is the symbolic number of man, of carnality. The women would soak themselves in oil of myrrh, which was quite fragrant and made the skin soft to the touch. So when we read of 'six months with oil of myrrh' this speaks of the carnality of the soulish life being intimately exposed, reckoned dead, and 'embalmed'.

We then read of 'six months with sweet odours', which is incense. Gina Tanner describes this so well as she states; "In this time period, women would build a small charcoal fire in a pit in the floor. Incense would be placed in a cosmetic burner and heated in the fire (purification). The woman would crouch naked (totally exposed) over the burner with her robe draped over her head and body to form a tent (booth, tabernacle). As she perspired (ridding of self), her open pores absorbed the fragrance of the oil (Christ). By the time the fire burned out, her skin would be thoroughly perfumed! This is an incredible type of the purification of the Bride until it is no longer 'our' fleshy odor, but the very fragrance of Christ emitting from our being!" It is also important to note that in the Tabernacle, the incense played a very instrumental role. When burned it emitted a cloud of fragrant odor that provided an atmosphere for the presence of the Lord to DWELL; "...and he shall put the incense upon the fire before Jehovah, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy-seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not." (Leviticus 16:13) We are now His Tabernacle, and as our lives are heated in the fires of purification, we become a 'cloud' (remember the cloud of witnesses?) in which He dwells!

* "And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath." (Esther 3:5) Ahh yes, the story would not be complete without Haman. We too have a 'Haman' that is full of wrath, seeking to kill, steal, and destroy. Our 'Haman', the prince of the power of the air, operates in the governmental second heaven through principalities, powers, and rulers of darkness. Here we find Haman, just like the 'accuser of the brethren' (Revelation 12:10), involved in lots of 'political' jockeying with accusation and decrees against the people of God. This is where much of our energy in spiritual warfare has been focused. For the most part, we have engaged ourselves in the struggle of the second heaven, mapping, identifying and strategizing to deal with accusation and decrees against us. It seems there are so many 'prayer directives' focused on US DOING something to affect the second heaven government. I believe we may see a higher way in Esther chapter five.

* "...and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this? Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer... so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish." (Esther 4:14-16). There is an 'Esther Company' that is preparing for the King, knowing that they have 'come to the Kingdom for such a time as this'! Just like Esther, some are beginning to recognize that they have a personal destiny to affect the corporate destiny of nations, and have laid aside all self-interests understanding that 'if I perish, I perish'!

So, here we have it... the people of God are in a major crisis, things appear to be going from bad to worse, it seems that the second heaven government (Haman) has prevailed through "the handwriting of ordinances that was against us (them), which was contrary to us (them)." (Colossians 2:14). However, let us look closely at their strategy to overcome. They didn't involve themselves in that second heaven governmental arena at all.

* "Now it came to pass on the THIRD DAY, that Esther PUT ON her ROYAL APPAREL, and stood in the inner court of the king's house... And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained FAVOUR in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden SCEPTRE that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom." (Esther 5:1-3) My friend, we are living in the THIRD DAY and there is a prepared 'Esther Company' that is putting on her royal apparel; "...as many as were baptized into Christ - into a SPIRITUAL UNION and communion with Christ - have put on, CLOTHED yourselves with Christ." (Galatians 3:27 Amplified Bible) Like Esther, we must press in to 'the INNER court of the King's house' into the Holy of Holies, the place of intimacy where we bid the King to 'into-ME-see'. This is the place of FAVOR.

What happens then is so incredible, for the King extends to us the golden sceptre. Gold is symbolic of the divine, and a sceptre is symbolic of sovereign authority, the use of the sceptre originated in the idea that the ruler was as a shepherd of his people. So the golden sceptre speaks of divine sovereign authority! When we come before our King, as a Bride who is prepared and focused upon intimacy (into-me-see), I believe He will declare, "What is thy request? it shall be even given thee!" This is what my friend Wade Taylor calls Divine Intervention. Wade says, "Intervention is a state in which the Lord brings forth a condition or experience in the recipient through Divine sovereign power, which is independent of any ability that the individual may possess, to contact the power of God in order to bring these things to pass."

Can we grasp the difference between a spiritual warfare that is fought in the realm of governing principalities and powers of the second heaven, and a third heaven intimate relationship that bypasses warfare through Divine Intervention? This is US descending with the golden sceptre extended toward us, bringing the GLORY of the third heaven to invade the second heaven, therefore DISPLACING principalities and powers! Just as the epouranos supersedes the ouranos, just as the third heaven supersedes the second heaven, INTIMACY supersedes second heaven government. Intimacy splits the heavens wide open where warfare can have limited effects. This is the 'air assault' whereby governmental second heaven principalities and powers are displaced.

In saying this am I reducing intimacy to a mere 'strategy' whereby the enemy is defeated?... certainly NOT! Intimacy with Him, the one-flesh face-to-face relationship IS our VERY LIFE, not a mere 'strategy'. "I count everything as loss compared to the possession of the priceless privilege- the overwhelming preciousness, the surpassing worth and supreme advantage- of KNOWING Jesus Christ my Lord, and of progressively becoming more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him, of perceiving and recognizing and understanding Him more fully and clearly... And that I may actually be found and known as IN HIM... For my determined purpose is that I may KNOW Him- that I may progressively become more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him, perceiving and recognizing and understanding the wonders of His Person more strongly and more clearly..." (Philippians 3:8-10 Amplified Bible) "And He ordained twelve, that they should BE WITH HIM..." (Mark 3:14).

My friend, it is time to heed the call to 'come up higher' than the 'second heaven view'! It is time to 'come up higher' to the third heaven! It is time to enter into another realm through the "door standing open in heaven." (Rev. 4:1) It is time to change our focus from sin and the church in the earth, and focus upon the Throne of God and the Glory of God. It is time we begin "Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done..." (Isaiah 46:10)

Spirit Lands; Begins To Move

Joni Ames

The headlines quickly caught my attention, "SPIRIT LANDS; BEGINS TO MOVE." As I read the article further, it described how the spaceship named "Spirit" had recently landed on a hill on the planet Mars. The HOLY Spirit began to tap on MY spirit that there was something of significance in prophetic parallel and led me to Acts 17:17. Interestingly, the number 17 had been burning in my spirit for some time.

In Acts 17:16, we find Paul waiting for Silas and Timothy at Athens, and his spirit was grieved when he discovered that the city had turned their hearts to idols. Then in Acts 17:17 it says: "Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the Gentile worshipers, and in the marketplace daily with those who happened to be there." - Thus began Paul's famous sermon at a place (GET THIS!) called MARS Hill

GREAT MARKETPLACE OUTPOURING

I believe the Lord has truly been (and is) speaking about a great outpouring in the Marketplace. Many are recognizing this - I'm certainly not the only one! Bishop Bill Hamon of Christian International (www.cimn.net) has written an awesome book about it. So - what exactly is the "marketplace?"

The dictionary describes it as: "an open square or place in a town where markets or public sales are held; the world of trade or economic activity; the everyday world."

That's right - conveying to others and helping them get to know the God of EVERY day life personally; not just Sunday church! There are many who have caught the vision for "Marketplace Ministry" and have been seeking the Lord for their part in this.

In times past, there have been those with a tremendous Joseph/Daniel marketplace anointing who have ALSO felt the call to ministry, but argued with themselves because they thought they would have to give up one to do the other. On one hand, they couldn't justify tossing aside proper support of their family to do ministry, because the Word is clear that those who do so are considered to be "worse than a non-Christian." However, their hearts could not justify forsaking the call of God on their lives to spread the Gospel either! Therein lay the dilemma - "Business or ministry?" - "Ministry or business?" - And the answer is, "BOTH!"

The truth of the matter is, even as far back as this account in the book of Acts with Paul, the Marketplace has always been used as a means to pour out the Gospel. Take a look at most any great metropolitan city in our nation, and you will find a city where there has been a mighty outpouring. Even as recently as Toronto and Pensacola! And yes, Kansas City, too - where, praise God, "things" are beginning to take place once again!

Not that God has to "make sense" - after all, He is God! - But it stands to reason that we aren't going to reap much of a harvest of souls INSIDE the church walls, any more than we could catch any fish if we cast our fishing lines INSIDE of a boat!

The good news is, our God is about His business in this day, bringing forth a new "Gospel Ship" of LeaderShip that will look MUCH different from what we've so far known

I believe the Lord is speaking to the Church, just as He spoke to His disciples in Luke 5:5-6:
(5) Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net."
(6) And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking.

The Lord is speaking to us now - in PRESENT time and language - that it is time to "cast the net on the other side!" - In other words, OUTSIDE the church walls, and INTO the Marketplaces - the every day places - of the world.

By doing this, we WILL catch that "big haul" we've been promised was coming! To expect it to come INSIDE the Church walls is ridiculous! This truly is a time when the Lord is sending forth the "hunters and fisherman" to gather in the mighty harvest! - "Behold, I will send for many fishermen," says the LORD, "and they shall fish them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks." Jer 16:16 (N KJV). Truly, a bountiful, net-breaking harvest IS beginning to emerge!

LET US BEGIN TO INTRODUCE THE "UNKNOWN GOD"

During the most popular Christian holidays, many people sing the songs of the season, and repeat the prayers they are led to speak. But as in Paul's day, they speak to an "Unknown God." They know "of" Him, but do not KNOW Him, intimately and personally.

Even on a daily basis, many seek "God" through a variety of "things." Of note about most any great metropolitan areas in these days is the tremendous amount of humanism, intelligence, philosophies, and a variety of religions and belief systems, from New Age to Old Age - Eastern religions to witchcraft and other cults! - With the birth of so many awesome cities having begun in the power of the Spirit, why would we try to turn to the flesh once established? This was the dilemma Paul faced at Mars Hill.

The philosophers and artisans of Paul's day were great "thinkers" and debaters, always looking for another "bright idea" to follow after. This was to Paul's advantage that day, for they were "ripe for the picking" to hear what he had to say. However, this following set of scriptures very well could be written and told about the day and time we currently live in! Our cities are full of ancient and New Age philosophies - all being sought after and researched as Mankind continues to try to "find themselves" or "find their way" in today's society. - As Paul did, let us help them to find their purpose and destiny in JESUS in Acts 17:

(18) Then certain Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, "What does this babbler want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he preached to them Jesus and the resurrection
(19) And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak
(20) For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what these things mean."
(21) For all the Athenians and the foreigners who were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

Notice that Paul did not "put them down;" rather, he met them on their ground, on a level where they could receive:

(22) Addressing the Areopagus Then Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious;
(23) for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Therefore, the one whom you worship without knowing, Him I proclaim to you:
(24) God, who made the world and everything in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands.
(25) Nor is He worshiped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He gives to all life, breath, and all things.

(26) And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and the boundaries of their dwellings,
(27) so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us;
(28) for in Him we live and move and have our being, as also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.'
(29) Therefore, since we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, something shaped by art and man's devising.
(30) Truly, these times of ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent,
(31) because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by raising Him from the dead."
(32) And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, while others said, "We will hear you again on this matter."
(33) So Paul departed from among them.
(34) However, some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

A TIME OF RESPONSIBILITY

In this day and age the Lord has given to us a space of time to reach and save the lost. There will come a time, as the Gospel gets spread throughout the earth, when we arrive at a place of "no excuse," as it speaks of in Rom 1:20 to Rom. 2:1. But let us use this time as the Spirit of God is prompting and giving us this kairos moment, to bring in a mighty harvest!

PRAYER

Father, help us in this, your moment of anointing, when yolks are being broken and doors opened at the same time, to utilize what you've given us to give YOU to others. Amen

Super Bowl 38

Joni Ames

JONIAMES@aol.com
Jan 19, 2004

Well, the Panthers won in the playoffs and are headed towards the Super Bowl! - YAY! - I say that as a happy Carolinian! - However, please note in advance, this "word" is not to make football into a god; it is simply meant to convey a means in which the Lord spoke to me prophetically through a natural event.

"38"
As you know, this is Super Bowl #38. Through it, I felt that the Lord had given me a word this past week through Rev. 3:8, which was written to the Church at PHILADELPHIA - and as you know, the playoff was held in Philadelphia , PA, this past Sunday. Philadelphia is called, "The city of brotherly love."

Rev. 3:8 says: "I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name." (Rev 3:8 NKJV)

Interesting also is that the player who did most of the work to win the game for the Panthers was number 17!! - And the Lord has kept on showing me 17!! - The Lord gave me these two verses regarding the number seventeen:

"....in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened." (Gen 7:11, NKJV)

"Then the ark rested in the seventh month, the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat." (Gen 8:4, NKJV)
The number seventeen in these verses shows both the severity and kindness of the Lord. The first scripture was the beginning of the flood, and the next speaks of a time of coming to rest on dry land. So whether you need an outpouring to get rid of your enemies or a safe landing on dry ground, He is the God who can handle it for you!

INTERPRETATION

One of the things I felt the Lord told me was that we (The Church - HIS "City of Brotherly Love") are coming into a time of restoration and open doors before us that no man can close. I believe when we realize that God really is ON OUR SIDE, we will realize that we CAN "win!" God loves us and has GOOD plans for us! (Jer. 29:11).

I believe there are also some lessons we can learn through the events of Super Bowl time. One is, "Don't be religious!" - Gathering together around a football game or similar activity can be more "spiritual" than attending a "religious activity!" Relationships can be built, the love of Christ shown, and bonding occur. - What an awesome tool of evangelism to invite our unsaved neighbors or co-workers to "huddle" around our TVs together than to "be religious spirited" about it and "trash" them for watching the game instead of going to church?! - In fact, what an awesome tool of evangelism for our churches to hold their own Super Bowl parties where the love of Jesus is shown!

There are also lessons the Lord can teach us through the TEAM-work that goes on in football. I don't 'totally' know the game, but below are some things I felt the Lord has shown me over the years that we can learn through football that I'd like to share with you....

THE WORD TEAM

I saw the word "TEAM" spelled out like it is below, and felt this was the Lord's heart for us to be doing these things as HIS TEAM in the Body of Christ:

T = Touching and Teaching

E = Encouraging and Evangelizing

A = Activating and Accentuating

M = Mentoring and Moving

TIME TO HUDDLE

I felt the Lord said that He loves for us to get in a "God huddle" with Him so that He can speak to us and reveal His thoughts, plans and desires to us and lead us into victorious "touch downs" in Him!

"For I know the thoughts and plans that I have for you," says the Lord, "thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome." (Jer 29:11, AMP)

TIME TO GET SIGHT OF THE GOAL

Some of us have loss sight of the goal, and it is time to LOOK UP and focus on Him and get sight of them once more!

Some have not even set goals. For you, He gave me Habbakkuk 2: 2 & 3, "Write the vision and make it plain that they may run who read it...though it tarries, wait for it: Because IT WILL SURELY COME and will not (forever) tarry." - Since we are supposed to "Press towards the mark," it might be good for us to first find out what that means so that we can better position ourselves to move towards it. (Phil. 3:12 & 14)

Let's set ATTAINABLE goals, find and get into our proper position, and play like it is the playoffs! Life is an ACTION word, and to get something out of it, we must put ourselves into it! - Having both faith AND works! (James 2:14-26)

TEAM WORK NEEDED

Just like football, we need team work in life.

Someone once said that it takes a village to raise a family. - - But it takes the CHURCH to raise up the village! It is time to get off the bench and be a WORKING, LIVING PART of it! - As the Lord told me, "It's time to do more than just survive; It's time to TRULY LIVE!"

Ephesians 4:16 says, "...the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love."

We NEED each other and what EACH ONE brings to the Body is IMPORTANT!

I Cor 12:12-27: 1 Cor 12:25-27
(25) ...there should be no schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.
(26) And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.
(27) Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually.

One of the neat parts about football is the teamwork involved. I love what happens when a game is won and a player is being interviewed! They always say something like, "Man we couldn't have done it without everyone working together!" - Then they begin to name the other players and talk about how great each one is and the awesome things they did! This is the type of attitude the Lord wants us to have about each other in His Church!

HEALING AND STRENGTH FOR PAIN

Some of you have had injuries in previous "games," and have had losses or fumbled and made mistakes. You got benched. Then you got comfortable on the benches. To you, He says, "It is time to rise, be healed, and get back into the game of life!"

Some of you have gotten the wind knocked out of you. Something hit you and knocked you down, and you feel like you just want to be hauled off the field on a stretcher. To you He says, "Lift up the hands that hang down, straighten the feeble knees, make straight your path!" (Hebrews 12:12 & 13) - And He doesn't say that with a pointed finger! - As He says that, He is lifting your arms, massaging the legs and setting you on a lighted path! - And reaching forth His Hand to help you up, just as He did to Peter when He lifted him from the sea, to walk on the water with Him once again! (Matt. 14:29-31)

Then He whispers to you as He strokes your hair, "Be only strong and very courageous!" (Joshua 1:9) - Again, He does not do so with a pointed finger! But as He says, "Be strong!" He puts a handful of strength into your belly! And as He says, "Be courageous!" He puts a handful of courage within you! - For we can do nothing without Him!!! (John 15:5)

Remember, "Not by might or power, but by His Spirit!" (Zech. 4:6)

One of the things that bugs some of us women about football is that the clock can say there is only one minute left, so we think we'll soon get the remote back - but then it can take nearly an hour to play that one minute!

Through that, I felt that He showed me that there are those of you who feel that you have messed up so bad and so long that you don't feel that you have the time left that you need to accomplish what you were meant to do.

To you He says, "I will restore to you the years that the locust and worms have eaten!" (Joel 2:25)

Remember, a day with the Lord is as a thousand years and a thousand years as a day! (2 Peter 3:8) He can take your remaining time and fit it all in! And He can even extend your time as He once did for a King. (2 Kings 20:6)

"FALL FORWARD"

I have heard it said that, When we fall, we (like football players) need to learn to "fall forward," gaining a few yards in the process. I feel that there are many of us that also need to see that we HAVE done that, and to get off our own backs about our mistakes and fumbles.

QUESTIONS

Have you...

* Lost sight of the goal?

* Not made a goal?

* Been hurt in the game?

* Gotten the wind knocked out of you?

* Lost a game?

* Does winning look impossible?

He wants to huddle with you - to have tabernacle time - and to release to you His healing, hope, peace, joy, strength and victory!

"Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." (Rom 15:13, NKJV)

PRAYER

Father, in Jesus' name, I lift these up those who this may mean something to, and I ask that you touch them with your love and renew a right spirit within them. Please give them healing, hope, strength, courage and encouragement, and show them their spot! Let this year be their year to win THEIR "Super Bowl." As their bowls of incense - their prayers - come up before you today, may they be a sweet savor to you and may this be the day they come out from behind; their day of turning, restoration and victory!

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Shepherd's Rod 2005
Joni Ames

I awoke from a dream on Saturday, September 25, 2004, and through that, as well as several other things He spoke to me throughout the week before and after, felt that perhaps the Lord had given me a Shepherd's Rod this year. I kept it to myself, just praying about it, and seeking the Lord about it. Then on Wednesday, Sept. 29th, 2004, had a meeting with Bob Jones, and he asked me if I'd had a dream, and what the Lord had been speaking to me, and confirmed to me that I'd been given a Shepherd's Rod for 2005. Part of it was personal, and is not contained, but the other is below:

DON'T GIVE UP ON THE BRINK OF YOUR MIRACLE
I heard the words to an old gospel song from the 80's being sung, and the Lord showed me that there are many who have been going through much, and have been ready to "give up." However, what they didn't know or see is that they are right AT the turning point; on the verge of breakthrough and victory. If they quit now, it would be tenamount to the Israelites stopping just before going into the Promised Land.

Heb. 3:15, "...Today if you hear His Voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

Ezekiel 12:21-28:

(21)
... The word of the Lord came to me, saying, (22)
"Son of man, what is this proverb that you people have about the land.... which says, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails'?
(23)
Tell them therefore, 'Thus says the Lord God: "I will lay this proverb to rest, and they shall no more use it as a proverb..." But say to them, "The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision."
(24)
For no more shall there be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel.
(25)
For I am the Lord. I speak, and the word which I speak WILL come to pass; it will no more be postponed; for in your days, O rebellious house, I will say the word AND perform it," says the Lord God.' "
(26)
Again the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
(27)
"Son of man, look, they are saying, 'The vision that he sees is for many days from now, and he prophesies of times far off.'
(28)
Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God: "NONE of My words will be postponed ANY more, but the word which I speak WILL be done," says the Lord God.' "

It is NO mistake that you have gone through what you have experienced. You have been building areas of authority that no demon can defeat. Satan is defeated by the Blood of the Lamb and word of your testimony (Rev. 12:11), and you will comfort others with the comfort the Lord has given to you (2 Cor. 1:4). This is NOT a time to back down or give up, but a time to PERSEVERE.

To PERSEVERE means: to persist in a state, enterprise, or undertaking in spite of counterinfluences, opposition, or discouragement. Remember, "He who endures to the END will be saved!" (Mat. 10:22 & 24:13, and Mark 13:13)

This is a season when we will see that those who have persevered and entered into the rest of the Lord, trusting Him to fulfil what He has promised, will experience a remarkable thrusting forward, in the midst of seemingly "impossible" times and circumstances. But it is also a time of great tribulation. Therefore, we must remind ourselves that, although the going may be tough, we need to BE tough and GET GOING.

CAN YOU HEAR ME NOW?
Just as there was a Hurricane Ivan, and two Kings named Ivan - there was an Ivan the GREAT and an Ivan the TERRIBLE...Truly, this Day we are entering into is both a "great AND terrible" Day in the Lord.

As I saw the many recent storms, I heard an audible voice say, "CAN YOU HEAR ME NOW?"

Last year the Lord spoke to me that "There are some "bad" things I sense, such as in increase regarding severe natural disasters - earthquakes, tsunamis, hurricanes, tornados, volcanoes, etc., because the earth itself is groaning for the sons (i.e., male AND female) to take their rightful place (Romans 8). Additionally, the enemy is escalating as well. However, God is greater, and this newsletter will focus primarily on what I sense the Lord doing."

(Excerpt from: "WHAT'S AHEAD FOR 2004 (Part 1 & 2)" - Joni Ames
Dec 30, 2003 at http://JoniAmes.InJesus.com). I sense that this is a continuing word for the coming year as well.

Many have been looking for what the Lord was speaking through the recent barrage of storms, and truly there is a sensing among most that it has been the blowing of the winds of the judgment of the Lord. This is very true. But God's judgment IS merciful - it comes to expel the enemy. And He spoke even through the names of the hurricanes - Frances, meaning "freedom" and Charley, meaning "manly" were led on a path over areas where gay pride and fantasy have been saluted; Ivan, meaning "God is merciful" and Jeanne, meaning "God is gracious" both made circles in order to totally get to where they were sent.

I saw Florida as a big foot, at the base of the nation, and that the Lord was washing the feet of our nation, and then on up the Eastern Coast - Eastern Gate - of our Land, with His judgment, cleansing, mercy and grace, preparing her for what lay ahead. The judgment, mercy & grace of the Lord is entering our Eastern Gate.

And NOW, as the winds have calmed, THIS is a time for each of us to listen for the small, still voice of the Lord, as in I Kings 19:11-13:

(11) Then He said, "Go out, and stand on the mountain before the Lord." And behold, the Lord passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; (12) and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice. (13) So it was, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. Suddenly a voice came to him.... (I Kings 19:11-13)

Let each of us, His Sheep, hear His voice during this time. "And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice." (John 10:4)

REPENTANCE
As I awoke one morning I heard:

(1) The Body of Christ can no longer negate the nudges of conscience. It is a time to respond to the nudges of correction the Lord brings, so that we can go forward into the maturity that The Church needs to walk in during this time in order to effectively minister to and bring in the Harvest.

(2) The days of a passive aggressive, high maintenance church are over.

Passive-aggressive is defined as: displaying behavior characterized by expression of negative feelings, resentment, and aggression in an unassertive passive way (as through procrastination and stubbornness)

High-maintenance is means: costly and time consuming to keep up.

The sensing I got was that the Lord is insisting on our maturity.

"THE CHALLENGE: TRANSFORM OR DIE"
As I walked out of the post office, the headlines jumped out at me: "THE CHALLENGE: TRANSFORM OR DIE."

This is a time when we can no longer negate the promptings of our conscience, and a time when we must take to Him ALL that is not of Him and which does not glorify Him in our lives.

TIME TO PERSEVERE

It is time to PERSEVERE! - And NOT negate the call of God upon our life!

Throughout the year the Lord has said, do NOT acquiesce! Acquiesce means to " to grow quiet, without a fight and to accept, comply, or submit tacitly or passively."

It is time to pursue the passion of the Lord that He has placed within us, with every fiber of our being, and to make our lives count for Kingdom purposes.

NO PARKING SIGN

I saw a NO PARKING sign in the spirit, in front of a church and I heard, "Let this be a sign to you....NO PARKING!" - NO parking INSIDE the Church - it's time to GO TO THE STREETS! I saw an ARMY being sent to the streets to bring in the lost. The Lord is bringing in the long talked of "Dread champions" who will lead MANY to the Lord and into dynamic relationship with Him. Get ready to see those you have been crying out for to come in, and to do so FULL THROTTLE! And believe me, they will not park inside the church! They will take the Kingdom by force! "....The kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. (Matt. 11:12)

"MY HUSBAND"
Hosea 2:16: "And it shall be, in that day," Says the Lord, "That you will call Me 'My Husband,' And no longer call Me 'My Master.'

Women - including single mothers and grandmothers - who have learned the true meaning of these verses will emerge as dynamic forces to be reckoned with! Count on it! And there will be no holding them back by religious yolks of bondage that some like to put women in. They need to read, "Ten Lies The Church Tells Women" by J. Lee Grady from Charisma magazine.

"GET YOUR PASSPORT"
I heard, "GET YOUR PASSPORT," and sensed the Lord was saying that He will be opening up the Nations for our inheritance this year, and opportunities will come as "suddenlies."

"Ask of Me, and I will give You The nations for Your inheritance, And the ends of the earth for Your possession." (Psalm 2:8)

THE INCREDIBLE JOURNEY
The incredible journey has begun. Be a part of it.

"The whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love." (Ephesians 4:16)

EVERY part is needed. We must not acquiesce and deny someone else of THEIR destiny by not fulfilling OURS to reach them!

PRAYER
Lord, help us to do and be all you have paid for. In the power of Jesus' name, and blood. Amen.

Shepherd's Rod 2005
Bob Jones

Shepherd's Rod 2005
By Bob Jones and Paul Keith Davis
Day of Atonement — September 25, 2004

Part One— Blood and Fire

These are incredibly pivotal days! A clear biblical and strategic blueprint for this season of the Spirit is emerging from God’s heart. This year, as in prior Shepherd's Rods, our intent is to convey the insights that were given in a clear and concise manner.

Much elaboration could follow the revelations. However, we have resisted the propensity to include substantial teaching and limit this booklet to a prophetic outline.

We have always been greatly encouraged at the many reports that we receive from pastors and leaders who take these revelations and broaden the base of understanding through their spiritual gifts.

These insights include much allegorical and symbolic language. Many of the things the apostle John saw in his revelations were prophetic portrayals of great spiritual truth. The Lord Jesus also utilized parables to convey the message of the kingdom; those anointed with spiritual eyes to see and ears to hear could readily apprehend His message. It seems the Holy Spirit continues to utilize this means during the revelations that come on the Day of Atonement.

Theme for 2005— Blood and Fire

The church is entering an age of militancy and spiritual confrontation. The "end of days" is characterized with great conflict. The struggle between "light" and "darkness" will escalate. We are entering days that will introduce amplified revelations of God's kingdom and Heaven’s spiritual economy. The Bible plainly foretells this battle as violent and spiritually bloody.

The Kingdom of Heaven truly suffers violence and God’s army must take it by force. As was prophesied, “the Kingdom of Heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful men lay hold of it.”

Our adversary will not willingly hand-over his influence in this earth without conflict. We may as well come to an understanding of this reality and accept it as a part of our generational calling.

Redemption was purchased in a most violent way. The shedding of the Lord's blood was brutal and unattractive to the natural eye. Nonetheless, it was the greatest demonstration of divine love ever expressed.

The innocent blood of Abel cried out from the ground with a prophetic voice of recompense. Jesus is the mediator of a new and better covenant; His blood speaks better things than that of Abel.

No generation has yet entered the fullness of the new covenant. We have only seen isolated forerunners who introduced the more excellent way. A new day is upon us! This divine Life is in the blood of Jesus; our quest is for a more comprehensive apprehension of its power.

Moving to Maturity

The victory has already been won; it is now our place to appropriate it. This process is necessary for our spiritual development and maturation to rule and reign with Him as priests and kings. It would be quite simple for the Lord to eradicate every evil influence standing in our way. However, it is His desire to achieve it through us in a series of victorious battles that bring us to spiritual maturity.

These will be days of "blood and fire." Greater appreciation of the redemptive virtue of God's blood and fiery conflicts between good and evil will prevail in coming days. Something truly noteworthy has been imparted into the spiritual DNA of this generation who qualify as overcomers— they are jealous for God in a militant way.

The Lord is a Warrior and those joined to Him share in His warlike attributes. His ministers are as a flame of fire and the angelic host assigned to co-labor with us are as winds that fuel the fire. This anointing will begin to address the “lukewarm” condition prevalent in much of the Western Church.

Great warriors will emerge in this hour. The Holy Spirit is preparing a body of people to expose spiritual gates and open everlasting doors that the King of Glory may come in. He will reveal Himself as the awesome man of war Who is strong and mighty in battle.
(Psalms 24:7-8)

Many of them will be young worshiping warriors and powerful praying women. This company will be ferocious in the spirit...holy terrors identified by Zechariah 1:21,

Then said I, What are these horns and smith's coming to do? And he said, these are the horns or powers that scattered Judah so that no man lifted up his head. But these smith's or workman have come to terrorize them and cause them to be panic-stricken, to cast out the horns or powers of the nations who lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it. (Amplified)

Substantial authority will be given to this warring band to sever the head from spiritual influences that have successfully stolen the inheritance of God's people. According to Psalms 74:14,

You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces, and gave him as food to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

When this victory is achieved, the very influences that had stolen our birthright become the “sustenance” to release us into greater measures of anointing.

Many gifts of God have been delegated to this generation but never sanctified. Someone may possess a tremendous gift of music but utilize it for selfish gain or spiritual perversion.

Once that person is saved and the gift sanctified, then it becomes "food for the people of the wilderness." The gift then provides a source of spiritual nourishment as it was originally intended. This will be a common pattern in the coming days.

God intends to retrieve His precious gifts and the vessels to whom they are entrusted. These days will see many who are leaders of wickedness become vessels of light and righteousness. This is true in both the natural and spiritual arena. God is able!

This year will see substantial spiritual and natural fire. Intercessors must take authority over the natural fires that will be evident in the coming season.

A Salvation Army

Part of the mandate for this generation is to recapture and restore to the Church our lost heritage. Many forerunners and pioneers obtained a testimony from God and blazed a spiritual trail that left an indelible mark upon their generation.

There were Heavenly commissions given that carried the authenticity and weight of Heaven. Many of those mantels and mandates can be recovered today.

One such individual was William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army. This distinguished organization is quite different today than its early history. The beginning years were marked with supernatural power encounters and waves of evangelism.

Great healing evangelists such as Smith Wigglesworth discovered God in awesome ways during the late 19th century through the Salvation Army.

In the 1885 publication "All About the Salvation Army" it is written that—

"General Booth became a minister of the Methodist New Connexion and traveled in a great many parts of England, seeing great success in winning souls, until the year 1861, when he resigned his position as a regular minister, and gave himself up, with his wife, to evangelistic work. After this their labors were very largely owned of God, thousands being received into the various churches as the result. In the year 1865, Mr. Booth was led, by Province of God, by no plan or idea of his own, to East of London, where the appalling fact that the enormous bulk of the population were totally ignorant and deficient of real religion, and altogether uninfluenced by the existing religious organizations, so impressed him that he determined to devote his life to making these millions hear and know God, and thus save them from the abyss of misery in which they were plunged, and rescue them from the damnation that was before them.

The result of this vision was the East London Christian Mission, which in 1978 became the Salvation Army. At the meeting where the change took place, Booth and his colleagues announced—

The Christian Mission has met in Congress to make war. It has organized a Salvation Army to carry the blood of Christ and the fire of the Holy Ghost into every corner of the world."

This commission echoes the heart of God that has been released during this Day of Atonement revelation. The Lord is looking to enlist an army to carry the His salvation through the proclamation of His blood and blazing Holy Ghost demonstrations of power.

Without the shedding of blood there would be no forgiveness of sin or end-time plan of redemption. (Hebrew 9:22) This empowerment will likewise be carried to the four corners of the earth. They will be a "salvation army."

The enthusiastic preaching of Christ's shed blood will be recaptured in the Church. Great revivalist in the order of John Wesley and George Whitefield will emerge. Pastors and teachers will discover notable anointing on messages that stress the importance of the Lord's sacrifice and the great price of redemption. The movie, "The Passion of Christ," is only the first in a series of forums to once again bring this truth to the forefront of the Church.

God is about to download, through his governmental design, messages that teach and preach Calvary's cross in profoundly powerful ways. The Body of Christ has scarcely touched the great redemptive truths of the cross; these will prepare the bride for her union with the Bridegroom.

The Lord is coming with the now "opened" book of redemption in His hand. We are called to "eat it" and prophesy great mysteries of the Kingdom to every nation, tongue and people. (Revelations 10:8-10)

As in all wars, liberty and freedom are acquired at a cost. These realities will be imparted to those willing to consider the cost and pay it freely. We pay the price by allowing the pruning of the Holy Spirit so we may know Christ, the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings. There is power in the blood of Jesus Christ.

There is Power in the Blood

Would you be free from the burden of sin?
There's power in the blood, power in the blood;
Would you over evil a victory win?
There's wonderful power in the blood.

There is power, power, wonder working power
In the blood of the Lamb;
There is power, power, wonder working power
In the precious blood of the Lamb.

Would you be free from your passion and pride?
There's power in the blood, power in the blood;
Come for a cleansing to Calvary's tide;
There's wonderful power in the blood.

There is power, power, wonder working power
In the blood of the Lamb;
There is power, power, wonder working power
In the precious blood of the Lamb.

Would you be whiter, much whiter than snow?
There's power in the blood, power in the blood;
Sin stains are lost in its life giving flow.
There's wonderful power in the blood.

There is power, power, wonder working power
In the blood of the Lamb;
There is power, power, wonder working power
In the precious blood of the Lamb

Would you do service for Jesus your King?
There's power in the blood, power in the blood;
Would you live daily His praises to sing?
There's wonderful power in the blood.

There is power, power, wonder working power
In the blood of the Lamb;
There is power, power, wonder working power
In the precious blood of the Lamb.

Part Two— A Call to War

A Man Called David

In his visions, Bob saw a man called David who appeared to be just under 30 years of age. This young man was obviously a great lover of God with notable tenderness for God and His Spirit; yet, he also bore a continence of resolve and tenacity. This prophetic image was a representation of David, the son of Jesse, in his younger years.

It was clear that he had not yet been recognized as king of Israel. This symbolic portrayal represented the days immediately prior to his coronation as king. It was the season while he and his band of mighty men sheltered themselves in the cave of Adullam. That is presently where a spiritual army is stationed today.

Adullam was a town of the Canaanites allotted to Judah lying in the lowlands, southwest of Jerusalem. Adullam means, "justice of the people." It is interesting that the name Laodicea also means “peoples rights” or “justice of the people.”

The day in which we now live can appropriately be called the Laodicean age identified in Revelations 3:14-21. Sadly, this is a far cry from the justice of God. While the spirit of this world declares human rights first, Heaven declares divine justice and the Biblical rights of God. A great confrontation between these two spirits is under way.

It is impossible for justice to be rendered by mere human hands; the heart of humanity is exceedingly evil. The Laodicean church age completely counters the Lord’s justice He desires to demonstrate through His people. God overflows with equity, impartiality, and truth.

However, there is an absence of true fairness in the heart of humanity, except when the Holy Spirit imparts it. Almighty God is perfect in His justice, while the god of this world is the epitome of injustice.

The analogy of David and his brave warriors in the cave of Adullam portrays the mighty army of spiritual warriors who have been hidden in the midst of the Laodicean church age. Now is the time for them to surface and begin to execute God's agenda for this generation.

This company will not be able to tolerate lukewarm Christianity; their passion will be burning hot. They will not be content to simply remain in a justified state. Their destiny is to achieve spiritual maturity. They will demonstrate the Kingdom of Heaven on earth and fulfill the promise of John 14:12. It would be awesome if all God's people become mighty warriors for His sake!
The attributes we find in Scripture involving David's hidden years, also provide insight as to where we have been in God's preparation. Righteous decisions he made in the wilderness sowed into his future as king.

David honored God and His anointed vessels despite their failures and misguided perspectives. He demonstrated spiritual and personal integrity that qualified him as God's champion.

Birthing Supernatural Wisdom

In the prophetic vision that Bob saw, David was holding a baby boy over his chest. It was his desire for the prophets to pray for the young lad. David also desired prayer for his company of mighty warriors, signifying a commissioning for battle.

The young boy is representative of birthing a new generation anointed with the spirit of wisdom. Solomon was the son of David endowed with a special blessing of favor because of the faithfulness of his father. God gave Solomon supernatural knowledge, wisdom and very great discernment.

This portion of the revelations centered around God's desire to release special bestowals of grace and favor upon today's "Solomon's." The spirit of wisdom has never been more needed. We simply cannot accomplish God's purpose in this generation without supernatural impartations.

Gifts of revelation and power must be apprehended for the temple to be built according to the Heavenly model. (We will address this arena more extensively in our elaboration of Psalms 105:17)

In addition to the young boy, "David" also requested prophetic blessings upon his mighty band of warriors. Clearly, in this analogy David is indicative of the Son of David. The "mighty men" portray the militant army being assembled in this generation who are fully yielded and loyal to their "David." They love not their lives even unto death.

A special emphasis was also placed upon the word "band" in reference to these warriors. It was literally pointing to a special and greater anointing that is now accessible upon praise and worship "bands".

Many of David's "mighty men" will be musicians and singers. Worship teams will see a militancy enter their music in the coming days. An anointing of power and authority will come upon fully yielded vessels that will open the heavens and displace God's enemies usurping the land of promise.

The Heart of David

The "heart of David" will be imparted this year to awesome worshiping-warriors who are totally abandoned in their extravagant devotion. Notable prophetic anointing will come upon this company to declare the times, seasons and strategy of Heaven.

This band will consist of mighty men, women and young people who do warfare with the enemy. Many in the visions were children under the age of 15 who are to be powerfully anointed with the Spirit of God that rested upon David.

The "Samuels" of this day, representing the apostolic/prophetic offices, will release horns of anointing upon this new breed. The Scripture declares that Samuel, > took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the > Lord came mightily upon David from that day forward. And Samuel arose and went to Ramah. — 1 Samuel 16:13

In 1973 abortion was legalized in this nation. Every Christian born since then has a unique calling that can be depicted by David and his mighty warriors. Naturally, this quality is not limited to any specific age group; nevertheless, that season marked a notable transition into the release of this generation’s "deliverers."

David was a man of blood. He was a warrior wholly devoted to the Lord. He eradicated the enemies of God and His covenant people.

The church can no longer afford to be a "bloodless" affiliation. We cannot escape the redemptive virtue of the Lord's blood and our call to spiritual militancy. Our conflict is not with flesh and blood, but with spiritual influences in heavenly places that hate God and His people.

In this day we must preach and teach, with renewed vigor, access granted to the Holy Place by the blood of Jesus. A fresh and new perspective of the Lord’s sacrifice and the shedding of His blood will emerge.

Any individual or fellowship unwilling to preach the blood of Jesus could disqualify themselves from participation in God's end-time army.

Through sin man was driven out of God's Presence and away from intimate fellowship with Him. Now, through great mercy, His blood has inaugurated a way to restore the broken fellowship once enjoyed in the Garden of Eden. That is the full message of the cross and the complete power of redemption.

We are to draw near and contend for this place of habitation. It is the high calling of Heaven—the place where God dwells. The tabernacle built by Moses under the old covenant was a natural sanctuary for worship; whereby, we have access to the Heavenly Mount Zion under the new covenant.

Baptisms in Fire

John baptized in water but the Greater One who followed him baptizes in the Holy Ghost and fire. (Luke 3:16) This will be the season of "baptisms in fire” The Spirit of Holy Fire will come to the church and especially first nations people. There will be a pronounced admonition for the prophetic church to confront false spiritual influences, as Elijah did at Mt. Carmel.

Answer me, O LORD, answer me, that this people may know that You, O Lord, are God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.
Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood and the stones and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, "The LORD, He is God; the LORD, He is God." —1 Kings 18:37-39

The emerging spiritual army will be anointed with boldness and courage to challenge spiritual atrocities. This will be especially true among those with “first-nations” heritage. This unique group will be anointed to address ancient diabolical strongholds that have deceived many generations.

It is the year of the warrior. First nations people have a heritage as great warriors. The Lord will anoint that generational attribute.

The Spirit of Truth will visit these meetings with power to enlighten our eyes and dispel fogs of deception and confusion. False fire will become clearly apparent in the atmosphere of those anointed with Holy Fire.

The counterfeit is always made evident when exposed to the genuine. As Elijah admonished the covenant people of His day, “If the Lord is God, follow Him.”

Isaiah 22:22 Company

We recently released our latest book entitled, "Books of Destiny", in which I share many of these perspectives involving the uniqueness of this generation and its revolutionary calling. Special and greater capacity for God is being allotted in the hearts of those responding to this call. I will include an excerpt from the book in hopes that it will further explain the message we perceive the Holy Spirit releasing in this Atonement season.

From Books of Destiny—

Secretariat's twenty-two pound heart could prophetically represent the generation soon to emerge with a commissioning from Isaiah 22:22:

Then I will set the key of the house of David on his shoulder, When he opens no one will shut, When he shuts no one will open.

The key to the house of David signifies a governmental people who, like King David, will be anointed as both worshipers and warriors. David is regarded in Scripture as a man after God's own heart. He possessed a special capacity in his heart for God and His Kingdom revelation.

So shall the emerging generation of radical worshipers and warriors, who in a day unprecedented in history will champion fresh standards of excellence and victory.

David's heart prophetically portrays the nature of the Lord’s army of champions. The forces of darkness dread them because of Christ’s victory that they convey— they are God’s dreaded champions. As the Psalmist recorded:

Once you spoke in vision to Your godly ones, And said, "I have given help to one who is mighty; have exalted one chosen from the people. I have found David My servant; With My holy oil I have anointed him.”---Psalm 89:19-20

God gave David the power to become a champion of Israel and exalted him as a hero chosen from among His people. The Holy Spirit anointed him with holy oil. David was a conqueror for Israel foreseen and identified by the prophetic voice of that day. We are called to be more than conquerors through Him that loves us.

There have been forerunners and prototypes in years past; but now an entire body of people is being groomed for this lofty purpose. This great and weighty mystery is the hidden truth of godliness. In the Lord Jesus, God was made visible in human flesh, vindicated through the Holy Spirit and preached among the nations.

The Living Word or Bread of life once again desires to be made flesh through a body of people joined with Him in a holy consummation. As we live not by natural bread alone but by the living Word proceeding from the mouth of God, the bread of abundant life, even so the hidden truth of godliness will become part of our spiritual DNA.

Eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, nor has yet entered into the human heart, the great blueprint of Heaven, the Lord desires to reveal to His people.

Mysteries reserved deep in the heart of the Father, locked away in the mind of Christ, and dispersed by the Spirit who searches the deep things, await the passionate embrace of a latter-day company of overcoming, holy, victorious ones. Abba, His Spirit, and the Bridegroom say, “Come.”

Color for This Year—Crimson/Red

The color for this year is Crimson/Red. This is a representation of God’s dual desire for us to apprehend greater understanding of the Lord’s sacrifice and the full redemptive power of His blood. It is also a symbolic portrayal of a present call to spiritual war. The “promise land” must be contended for.

A greater understanding of the divine life provided through the Lord's blood will be deposited in this army. We have scarcely touched the redemptive virtues provided through His sacrifice. The spirit of revelation will be imparted to this company, not only to understand, but also embody spiritual excellence.

They will be the virtues of the overcomers.

And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even when faced with death. — Revelations 12:11

Victory is achieved through the blood of Jesus and the application of it to our spirit, soul, and body. Clearly, our adversary does not understand the mystery of God. If he had, he would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

Now, there is to be an army of people who embody the same life that the Lord Jesus demonstrated in His earthly ministry. Life is in the blood! Our Lord has provided a new and living way to reconcile the breach that has existed between God and man since the Garden of Eden.

Our testimony is derived from what we both see and hear. We can only testify of our personal experience through the Lord's redemption. A true testimony is given from what our eyes see and our ears hear. Anointed eyes and ears comprehend the Truth.

When we fully yield our will to the Father, we in essence demonstrate total selflessness; we die to our own ambitions and agendas. In these days greater comprehension of our citizenship in heaven will be realized than our natural life on earth. That is how the fear of death relinquishes its hold on this company.

The ones who experientially apprehend this reality will be a dangerous army typified in Joel 2. That is the mystery of God that our enemy did not comprehend through the Lord's death, burial and ultimately His resurrection. A grain of wheat went into the ground and perished—the Lord Jesus. Multiplied grains of wheat like the original seed will now be harvested— Joel’s Army.

This reality is what our enemy has so ardently opposed and attempted to keep veiled from the eyes of God's people. The Holy Spirit is releasing revelatory insight into this destiny and its end-time resolution.

There is a more sure and excellent way to access this prerequisite. It is through sharing in the Lord's love for people and ministry to the poor and lowly. Both of these ministries will become a priority initiative and integral part of our commission.

Pure and undefiled devotion in the site of God consists of care for widows and orphans and separation from the corruption of this world. (James 1:27)

Naturally, we cannot accomplish this directive without initially achieving the first commandment to love the Lord with all of our heart, soul and strength. This is the great and foremost commandment. Then we are able to love our neighbor even as ourselves. From this perspective are we able to minister with a Kingdom mind-set to overcome and be victorious.

Red War Horses

One of the symbolic meanings for the color red is to communicate war or spiritual conflict. The Lord is exceedingly jealous for natural and spiritual Jerusalem and Zion. The prophet Zechariah was given a prophetic vision portraying the Lord's heart for His people, following 70 years of Babylonian captivity.

The Lord expressed His anger at the nations who were at ease while he was only a little angry with his people; but they furthered the disaster. (Zechariah 1:8-14)

As a consequence, a spiritual confrontation is the result. In the Lord's jealousy, He will wage war against the forces that have attempted to overrun His people. Power and authority will be given to this army to overcome the spiritual pressures attempting to prohibit the fulfillment of God's plan.

Matthew 13:41 recognize angels that gather out of God's kingdom every stumbling block that stands in the way. There are special angelic assignments coming in this hour to help us in the removal of every hindrance and obstacle prohibiting the full revelation of the Kingdom mandate.

This extraction will take place by spiritual conflict through the apostolic government coming to its place in the Church. They will both pluck up and destroy the false while planting and building the Kingdom pattern. (Jeremiah 1:10)

Daniel prophesied of a future generation of strong spiritual champions who would know God by observing and experiencing Him and will do mighty exploits to His glory. (Daniel 11:32)

This prophetic portrayal is very powerful in the Hebrew language. It means to be strengthened with might in order to prevail. It conveys the manifestation of supernatural endowments to be strong and courageous with a resolute countenance.

In ourselves we do not possess these qualities. God’s courageous and warlike attributes come by spiritual impartation, through spending time with Him in personal fellowship.

The promise for this season of the Spirit is a release of Heavenly virtue to empower us in this way. Our call is to humbly present ourselves with emotional and spiritual integrity. This will begin to qualify us to be enlisted in this army.

Part Three— Spiritual Integrity

Minutes Before Midnight

At 11:55 p.m. on the Day of Atonement the Lord spoke and said, "integrity is vital.”

Possessing integrity applies to both the arena of the soul and the spirit. The soul consists of our mind, will and emotions. Exemplifying integrity in this dimension comprises a personal sense of "wholeness" derived from attributes of honesty and uprightness of character.

The integrity of the spirit is derived through the promise of 2 Peter 1:4 and our access to the divine nature and holy character of Christ. In this place we are free from the corruption of this world and its lusts. According to Peter the Lord has granted to us,

His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust.

Maintaining these qualities will be essential in the days ahead. On the night of the Lord's crucifixion, He announced to His disciples that the ruler of this world was coming to Him but had nothing in Him. (John 14:30)

This meant there was nothing in the soul of Jesus that agreed with the nature of Satan. There were no seeds of corruption in Him into which the adversary could sink his hooks.

For this generation to fully achieve its mandate we must be endowed with substantial deposits of Heavenly power and authority. History has proven this virtue can corrupt if the issues of the soul and spirit have not been properly dealt with at the cross.

We must be free from the seeds of corruption so there is nothing in us that agrees with the god of this world. We die to self and live to Christ!

We have been given an opportunity over the last several years to allow the nature of Christ to be developed in us with the extraction of the tares of our soul that can corrupt. Our daily prayer must be for the continual overshadowing of our nature to become compatible with the Lord's.

A Call to Change

This aspect of the revelations was a very unusual admonition. It is dealing with the development of character in God's people who received as beneficiaries, ministries or churches from their forefathers.

Some who inherited their spiritual forum from their parents, whether natural or spiritual, but never grew in character are being called to evaluate their leadership style and allow a Christ-like standard to prevail.

The guidance and oversight of a New Testament church should not require the use of a control spirit or manipulation by leadership for it to function. These are in direct contradiction to the standard of the Holy Spirit.

People will follow character. Leaders are called in this day to lead by example. In that place, control, manipulation and political spirits are not needed or welcome.

An impartation of God is coming to help us in this regard. All of us as part of God’s leadership need His help. David was mightily supported by God as we need to be. The Bible declares that the Lord, chose David His servant and took him from the sheepfolds; From the care of the ewes with suckling lambs He brought him to shepherd Jacob

His people, and Israel His inheritance. So he shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them with his skillful hands.
— Psalms 78:70-72

We must contend for the faith that was once and for all delivered to the saints. Many ministries are built from the ground up through forerunners and pioneers mightily anointed of God. Others are handed down through spiritual forefathers as benefactors. Very often when this happens the life and vitality of the church is lost in the transition.

Ultimately, many who are handed their inheritance squander it for lack of character. In many ways, this has also transpired in both the natural and spiritual arena. The Lord desires to remedy this. Our prayer should be,

Vindicate me, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity, and I have trusted in the LORD without wavering. Examine me, O LORD, and try me; test my mind and my heart. For your lovingkindness is before my eyes, and I have walked in your truth. —Psalms 26:1-3

For the sake of the faithful forefathers, God desires to restore the glory of the prominent years. He will visit places that once experienced notable expressions of His Presence and power if the people will build a platform for Him. There will be a recapturing of promises that were once given but have seemingly been lost. He will do this in those places, but He is requiring integrity and uprightness of heart.

Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you. Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles. — Psalms 25:21-11

The Holy Spirit is addressing the character issues resident in those who inherited that kind of ministry so that He can revisit them and bring restoration. The Lord is simply identifying this as an area of emphasis in order to recover the lost vision and also carry them to next level of anointing that is coming.

As we travel all over this nation, we encounter fellowships that once experienced wonderful demonstrations of revival that were somehow lost. Most are desperate to see it return.

We are living close to “midnight.” There isn’t much time left but we have much to accomplish. A redemption of time will become evident. We will see in these days an escalation in divine purpose.

Even so, integrity and personal character are a prerequisite.

Integrity in the saints will deliver them from much evil. Even through extreme difficulty, Job maintained his integrity. Joseph endured incredible oppression through his prison experience; yet he sustained personal character that qualified him for the throne.

Build According to the Heavenly Pattern

At 3 AM the Holy Spirit announced, "'SEE', that you build according to the pattern of Heaven." The emphasis on this portion of the revelations centered on visionary clarity! There is no place for the “leaven” of human reasoning in the fresh revelations proceeding from God’s heart.

The Spirit is searching the depths of God to unveil the mysteries of the Kingdom that will prepare and purify the bridal company. (1 Corinthians 2)

There is a pure and perfect pattern in Heaven that we are to emulate on earth. Even as Moses was challenged to carefully build according to the Heavenly pattern, so are we. God, not man, is the architect. We dare not alter His example in even the slightest way or perceive that it can be improved upon.

The End-Time church is to be built after a specific pattern. There is a message and ministry that is divinely given. We depart from His plan only to our peril. The apostle Paul and the early disciples introduced the New Testament standard. They were a seed generation...we are now called to maturity and the harvest of all seeds.

Those embracing standards of personal integrity and righteousness will be allowed to “see” more clearly the Kingdom model to be demonstrated on earth. Part of the “redeeming of time” will be the economy of scales derived from doing things according to God’s ways.

We have been so captured by "doing" things for God that we have not functioned according to the efficiency of Heaven. Admonitions involving our personal and corporate destinies are being commissioned. We must first see clearly then begin to do what we have seen according to the Heavenly strategy most appropriate in the achievement of that destiny. The spirit of revelation is mandatory to accomplish end-time mandates. Our directive is to “SEE” then “BUILD.”

The message proceeding from God’s heart is directly related to the spiritual need of the hour. To be relevant in our generation we must present “meat in due season” that the Holy Spirit deems appropriate.

This is not the time for mechanical and repetitious articulation of doctrines and precepts that have little or no pertinence to this generation’s needs. Our call is to “come up here” and apprehend the blueprint of God. As we are informed in Hebrews 8:5-6,

But these offer service merely as a pattern and as a foreshadowing of what has its true existence and reality in the Heavenly sanctuary. For when Moses was about to erect the tabernacle, he was warned by God saying, see to it that you make it all exactly according to the copy (the model) which was shown to you on the mountain.

But as it now is, He (Christ) has acquired a priestly ministry which is as much superior and more excellent than the old as the covenant
(the agreement) of which He is the Mediator (the Arbiter, Agent) is superior and more excellent, because it is enacted and rests upon more important (sublimer, higher, and nobler) promises. — Amplified

If Moses was instructed to meticulously follow a specific pattern in establishing the tabernacle that was a mere type and shadow, how much more are we in the new and more excellent covenant!

This covenant was not secured with the blood of bulls and goats, but by the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. We dare not alter His perfect standard! Thy Kingdom come Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

Pure Revelatory Perspective

Personal ambition and human agendas are the leaven that can distort our revelatory clarity. Our earnest prayer should be for the deliverance of our own perspectives in order to embrace His. Only from this posture can we fully apprehend the model that is in Heaven to be emulated on earth.

Our perfect pattern is the Lord Jesus Himself. The Father still seeks pure and unbridled obedience. Much of what is to come has not even entered into the heart of man. Therefore the spirit of revelation is essential for it to be birthed. We will do what we see Him doing and say only what we have heard in the Heavenly realm.

We are the beneficiaries of a new and higher covenant. Yet the directive is the same as the one given to Moses. We must see behind the veil to apprehend the blueprints of God. The strategy room of Heaven is now open for individuals, fellowships, cities and regions to apprehend the divine design for fruitfulness in the Kingdom.

There has been a very deliberate orchestration of spiritual outpourings over the last 100 years. God does nothing without a cause. There have been incredible supernatural expressions of God on the earth that are of biblical proportions. Much of this has been hidden from the awareness of the Church.

Nevertheless, there is another great awakening on the horizon to bring an army out of the wilderness. Their eyes will be illumined and their hearts enlightened to comprehend God’s strategy and apprehend the model of Heaven designed for the "latter days."

Daniel saw this in his visitation and wrote of it. However, His words and insight have been sealed from that day until this. The book is now open! The capstone generation is being prepared to be released with shouts of "grace-grace!"

Part Four— A Kingdom Standard

Uproot and Plant

This portion of the revelations continued with the theme of Heavenly justice. In many ways the scales have been unbalanced towards wickedness and human agendas. The governmental anointing now emerging will uproot many of those attributes! In its stead, the Kingdom of Heaven will be planted and established.

As I have watched over them to pluck up, to break down, to overthrow, to destroy and to bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant," declares the LORD —Jeremiah 31:28

At 4:35 AM the Lord stated, "I'm going to uproot and I'm going to plant." The spiritual authority that is been delegated will have a twofold application. Not only will it uproot and destroy things sponsored by realms of darkness but also build and plant from the Kingdom of light. John 4:35 states,

Do you not say, "There are yet four months, and then comes the harvest'?
Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look on the fields, that they are white for harvest.

Sowing righteousness will reap a harvest of salvation. Our call is to sow spiritually in uprightness; that is from a posture of right standing with God. In so doing, we will reap according to mercy and lovingkindness. We are entering a season of harvest. It will be a harvest of “harvesters.”

What and how we sow will determine our harvest. We are to break up uncultivated ground.

Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, bearing seed for sowing, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

— Psalms 126:5-6

This is a call to go into previously uncharted territories. Like Elijah, a holy jealousy for God will overshadow God’s army. They will not be afraid to challenge the “prophets of Baal” who are deceiving many.

This will result in a wonderful harvest of gifted people who will be very fruitful in the Kingdom. They already have a zeal for spiritual things, it only misguided. Once they discover the truth, all their devotion and enthusiasm will be for Jesus.

Much prayer and sacrifice has already been invested in this day. Many seeds of revival and spiritual outpouring have been sown. We will now become the beneficiaries of a great spiritual inheritance, eating from vineyards that we did not plant. Even so, those who sow and those who reap will rejoice together.

A great company of spiritual champions who have blazed a spiritual trail surrounds us! They have sown into this day as righteous testifier’s waiting for us to become heirs of our prophetic destiny. In that, we will share the Lord's victory.

It is now a time to seek the Lord and inquire favor of Him until He rains righteousness upon us. Then the full measure of His salvation will be our inheritance. (Hosea 10:12)

The Object of Our Focus

We are entering a very dangerous season of Church and human history. We must be very careful about the object of our focus; the Kingdom of Heaven or the spirit of this world? Have we devoted our attention to the desire of God or the pursuit of our own ambition?

These are the pressing questions that must be truthfully confronted! We cannot afford distractions from the adversary; distractions can lead to destruction.

The highway in this season that will see considerable spiritual activity is— "Highway 435." There will also be a spiritual emphasis on the area surrounding the natural Highway 435.

John 4:35 will be a primary focus of the Kingdom mind-set. Many layers of understanding will be derived through teachers inspired by revelatory insight involving this important passage. A spiritual and natural harvest is at hand. The church is being poised to bring in a "harvest of harvesters." The Lord is symbolically stating that this "highway" will carry us to the place of our destination.

We have now entered a season of spiritual harvest. Seeds sown in prior generations have come to a place of maturity. Commissions, mantles and spiritual gifts can be apprehended that were previously worn by pioneers and leaders of the past.

The Lord, in this harvest age, will remember the prayers and sacrifices of prior generations. (We discuss this principle much more extensively in our book entitled Books of Destiny. See www.WhiteDoveMinistries.org)

The Power-Saw

We are promised a release of power from Heaven on an escalated scale. The purest form of harvest is through a demonstration of the Spirit and His power. In the visions, this release of power was illustrated through a tool called a "power-saw."

Carpentry work has been incredibly simplified since the days our Lord was a carpenter in the region of Nazareth. Modern tools, such as the power-saw, have made this difficult work much easier. Lumber and boards can now be processed quickly and efficiently with this mechanism. However, in the hands of careless and inexperienced laborers it can also become very dangerous.

The Holy Spirit is using this analogy to paint a prophetic portrait that can be readily understood. Workmen operating a power-saw carelessly or presumptuously can sometimes lose their fingers and hands. Prophetically, the hand is representative of the fivefold ministry.

The early apostolic church modeled God's design for unfolding the revelation of His Kingdom. What had previously seemed an impossible task, is made attainable by the Lord's power imparted through His resurrection. The Bible records that, with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all. — Acts 4:33

We cannot fully achieve our mandates without the spiritual government of God in its place functioning with authority. If used wrongly, the power of God can cut off our ministry. The hand of the carpenter only holds the saw in place.

History has clearly proven, the careless handling of God's power results in shipwreck. This once again points to the need for great integrity and personal character resident in us.
God will not share His glory with anyone. Our ministries must be galvanized with charity and cloaked in humility. The "power-saw" or power of God, will be utilized to tear down and to build. This is a duel commissioning. (Jeremiah 31:28)

In the hands of an experienced builder, the "power-saw" functions efficiently and beautifully. Gifted carpenters have great respect for the tools of their trade. Their livelihood depends upon it. Likewise, we are wholly dependant upon the Holy Spirit and should exercise extreme care in handling His gifts.

This is both an admonition and a warning. The Lord is letting us know that greater power is available and much needed. However it comes with a condition—proper stewardship. Presumption and distractions will results in grave danger.

The Blessings of Jacob

At 5:35 AM the Holy Spirit gave Psalms 53:5-6—

There they are in great fear where no fear was, for God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you; you have put them to shame, because God has despised them. Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When God brings back the captivity of His people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

It will be a very dangerous time to attempt to withstand God's hand. We have entered a "fullness of time" juncture of church history. There will no longer be delay for many of the purposes destined for this hour. To stand in the way of these mandates could be extremely hazardous.

When the day arrived for Israel's liberation from Egyptian bondage, the enemy could not prohibit the decree of God. Decrees from heaven are issued through angelic "watchers" that carry authority from God. Not even the Red Sea was able to stand before the achievement of that decree. Pharaoh's army was annihilated under the weight of this command.

So is it today! We are living in a day of restoration. The fortunes of God's inheritance are being replenished. Great will be the rejoicing of those ascending Mount Zion to experience the awesome spiritual blessings ordained for this day.

The Favor of El Shaddai

In Bob's experience he was informed that the "blessing of Jacob" is being released in a pronounced way. This was a very unique and supernatural experience that launched Jacob into his divine destiny. There is a profoundly significant attribute of God identified in this impartation of favor and grace. The Lord appeared to him as God Almighty— El Shaddai.

May God Almighty (EL Shaddai) bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, that you may become a company of peoples. May He also give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your descendants with you, that you may possess the land of your sojournings, which God gave to Abraham. — Genesis 28:3-4

There are many divine attributes of the Father, all of which are revealed in the Person of the Lord Jesus Christ. He is the express image of God and the exact representation of His nature. However, there presently seems to be special emphasis on His eternal quality as El Shaddai.

This descriptive expression depicts the Father as our “all sufficient One” providing all that we need. It oftentimes depicts Him as the “many breasted One” symbolized by a nursing mother providing all that an infant needs for growth, maturity, and protection.

In like manner, as we draw near to Him and rely upon His sufficiency, we will actually be drawing the very tissue of God into ourselves transforming us into an overcoming army who embody His qualities and attributes.

The Blessing of Jacob

In the book of Genesis we discover the Lord revealing Himself to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as El Shaddai. In each case, there was the impartation of this specific divine attribute essential for the patriarchs to become fruitful, multiply and occupy the land of their sojourning.

The Lord released this divine blessing upon Isaac. The result was so profound that the enemies of Isaac desired to enter into a covenant of peace with him because of the obvious favor of God.

In Genesis 26 we observe Isaac re-digging the old wells of Abraham. On the day that Abimelech chose to approach Isaac with a proposition of peace, a well was discovered that remains to this day. The well is called "The Well of the Oath" or Beersheba.

In December 2001, Wanda and I, along with a few close friends, had the privilege of spending an afternoon of prayer and proclamation at this well. It was a profound time to stand upon the very spot where so many significant biblical and historical events have taken place. We had an incredible encounter with the Lord while there.

It was the very place where Jacob received the blessing that opened the heavens and introduced a visitation from the Lord.

The Visitation of Jacob

Immediately following the release of this blessing upon Jacob, a subsequent open heaven experience was granted to the patriarch. The experience unveiled to him his divine destiny and that of his people. Upon departing Beersheba he traveled toward Haran. Desiring to rest he placed a stone under his head and encountered the Lord in a penetrating revelation of Kingdom purpose.

Presently, there are many who have been prepared by the Holy Spirit to encounter the Lord in such a way that Heavenly objectives are being revealed and imparted. Out of that we become fruitful and multiply and begin to occupy the land of our sojourning.

Jacob watched as angels ascended and descended a "ladder" linking heaven with earth and listened as a Heavenly promise was given.

Your descendants will also be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and in you and in your descendants shall all the families of the earth be blessed. Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.

Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it. He was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.” — Genesis 28:14-17

There is something significant about the release of the El Shaddai blessing and the subsequent experience of Jacob announcing his covenant destiny and divine promise.

Likewise, as the Holy Spirit continually unfolds to us this aspect of the Divine attributes, we will begin to see open heaven revelations of our spiritual destiny and promise to become expressions of His Kingdom. Seeing His plans for us will cause us to begin to occupy, on His behalf, the land of our sojourning.

This blessing opened a gate of Heaven. Many storms and cataclysmic events have been occurring in recent days. We believe this is highlighting a place in which the Lord desires to open spiritual gates and everlasting doors. (Psalm 24:7-10)

Although we appreciate the understanding given to us by many authors concerning the definition of El Shaddai as "the all sufficient One" or the "many breasted One." We must also consider what many Jewish writers have suggested concerning this divine attribute. They find the name to be much more far-reaching than our present understanding discloses.

As one Jewish scholar put it “It (the blessing of EL Shaddai) belonged to the sphere of salvation, forming one element in the manifestation of Jehovah, and describing Jehovah, the covenant God, as possessing the power to realize His promises, even when the order of nature presented no prospect of their fulfilment, and the powers of nature were insufficient to secure it. The name which Jehovah thus gave to Himself was to be a pledge...”

Divine Intervention

One of the most profound promises in the New Testament is the precious and magnificent promise that we can become partakers of His divine nature and Holy character. This endowment of Heaven empowers us to escape the corruption of this world and its lusts.
(II Peter 1:4)

When this work is complete, we can then be entrusted with the power and authority of His kingdom to make it known in the earth and become the awesome army prophesied in scripture.

However, the fulfillment of this prophetic mandate seems distant and impossible from the perspective of our strength and ability. Like Abraham, Issac and Jacob the realization of our promise requires divine intervention to become reality— the intervention of El Shaddai.

The manifestation of God as El Shaddai overcame the deficiency and weakness of Abraham to do what he by nature could not. So is it with us. He is able to do through us what we are incapable of producing on our own. As we yield ourselves to Him for the extraction of the seeds of corruption from our soul, we then begin the journey to become partakers of His nature and escape this world’s impurity.

A Call to Maturity

The Holy Spirit is calling us to maturity. We must move beyond the elementary principles and become the mature sons and daughters who bear His image and express His power. By virtue of His impartation to us as El Shaddai, as was given to Jacob, we will begin to bear fruit that is recognizable and provide light and life.

There has been a divine discomfort that has been imparted to the body of Christ. In times past many have been content to sit in the pews of our churches and allow leadership and ministry teams do the work of ministry.

This year we will see a tremendous hunger imparted to the body to be prepared to fulfill Ephesians 4:12 and see the miracles, signs and wonders for themselves. This aspect of our development must take place to accommodate the great harvest in the years to come.

Those who will come with humble and sincere hearts will see notable spiritual fruit being developed within their nature and character. This will be necessary so that we can be entrusted with the power and gifts essential to do this all-important work.

The revelation and impartation of the blessing of Jacob will equip us to begin to occupy the land and become fruit-bearers with kingdom attributes. As we rest in this aspect of His divine name, we also draw virtue from Him as our High Tower and infinite source of strength.

The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous runs into it and is safe. — Proverbs 18:10

We have come to Mount Zion that is the city of the living God. In that place there are multitudes of angels along with the Church of the Firstborn who are registered as citizens of Heaven. In this place we discover God in his Justice and the spirits of the righteous and redeemed made perfect. (Hebrews 12:22-23)

These revelations will deliver many from their "comfort zones" but it will also release great spiritual inheritance ordained for the latter days.

Leaving the Comfort Zone

Dealing with our spiritual "comfort zone" will be a primary emphasis of the Holy Spirit in the coming season. This principle will be applicable both individually and corporately.

The Lord intends to develop maturity in a body of people to whom He can delegate substantial spiritual authority and power. For this to be accomplished, we must eliminate the parameters we have built around ourselves. During these days we will be challenged out of our “comfort zone” and into the place of supernatural faith. In this arena we will discover the "faith of the Son of God."

Individuals being groomed for positions of leadership will, by the Holy Spirit's direction, move out of the positions of their greatest comfort. Many are is a post that may presently be fruitful; but a greater place of fruitfulness and authority can be achieved that requires the supernatural realm.

God’s cloud is moving. His plan is unfolding. Our ultimate objective is to develop Kingdom credentials to faithfully steward what is to come.

Likewise, churches and fellowships may also find themselves extending their tent pegs and broadening their mandates for spiritual challenges from God. The Holy Spirit will identify the places in which He is genuinely Lord as opposed to man-made leadership following human agendas.

Another word for comfort zone is "lukewarm." The Lord has clearly defined His thoughts concerning lukewarm Christianity. He hates it!

So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of My mouth. Because you say, "I am rich, and have become wealthy, and have need of nothing," and you do not know that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked. – Rev. 3:16-17

Many individuals and fellowships may perceive they are blistering hot for God. That is the dilemma the Bible predicts for the latter days. However, we must see things from His perspective. In the coming season, the Lord will send teams of people who are genuinely on fire for God to places that are living in a lukewarm atmosphere.

The zeal and affection for heaven these possess, will become infectious and expose places that are under the “lukewarm,” Laodicean spirit. Their burning passion for God will melt cold formal religious mind-sets.

The ones being challenged to leave their "comfort zone" are the very ones being identified for substantial spiritual impartation. Spiritual bravery and individual courage must characterize the emerging army of God.

Israel was directed to leave God’s Shepherding provision and care that they enjoyed following deliverance from Egypt. In order to possess the promise, they had to cross the Jordan as a militant army and contend for their inheritance. The Lord is admonishing us as He did Joshua saying,

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not tremble or be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.
Joshua 1:9

Pastors and the leaders will be challenged to speak God's truth with boldness and conviction. This will be true even if the message is seemingly hard and different from present understanding of doctrinal issues. There is fresh revelation coming from the heart of God. Man-made traditions will be eradicated through this emerging army.

Political correctness will have no place in the churches anointed with the mandate of Heaven. Only spiritual correctness will be the governing standard. The church will be challenged to take a stand to address socially difficult issues. Homosexual marriages, flagrant abortion and other such issues must the confronted. The church cannot remain silent. We must become the salt and light of this world by setting a lofty standard.

Outcry for Righteousness

For those willing to leave their spiritual comfort zone, a divine impartation will transpire. A holy desperation for the righteousness of God will be birthed in them. It will result in a divine disdain for the spirit of this world and the corrupt standard it flaunts.

Many Christians will find themselves offended at wickedness. Even those things seemingly tolerable in the past will no longer seem acceptable. We will come to hate those things that He hates and love those things that He loves. That will be part of the Bridal paradigm.

In a spiritual vision given to Bob, he was shown scales of justice made from that brass that descended in front of him. On one side were "wickedness" and the other "righteousness." Brass is commonly understood as an emblem of judgment. The altar of burnt offerings was constructed of brass/bronze pointing to the Cross, upon which the Lord sacrificially offered Himself.

The Justice of God is approaching. With it will come blessings and judgments reflecting both the kindness and severity of God!

From the appearance of the scales it was clearly evident that wickedness had exceedingly prevailed; corrupt standards were being exalted and righteousness was being mocked. However, a bestowal from God is being released to balance the scales.

The righteousness of God manifested through His people will begin to balance the scales with the justice of God. It is a time for righteousness to be heard in lieu of wickedness. The Lord is also promising that the righteous will be abundantly fruitful even in their old age.

According to the Psalmist,

The righteous man will flourish like the palm tree, He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon. Planted in the house of the LORD, they will flourish in the courts of our God.

They will still yield fruit in old age; they shall be full of sap and very green, to declare that the LORD is upright; He is my rock, and there is unrighteousness in Him. — Psalms 92:12-15

Those unwilling to compromise their standards of righteousness will flourish like a tree planted in its native soil; however, the wicked will be cut off in their prime. These are the dual qualities of divine justice.

A multi-generational mandate is being issued from the heart of God. A notable promise is being offered to those willing to embrace it. The young can develop maturity at an unparalleled rate while the old can enjoy the strength and vitality of youth. Both come by the resurrection power of Christ!

Many secrets involving communion and the impartation of divine life will emerge in these days. Our spirit, soul and body will be fully sanctified as we enter union with Christ; these relate to our mind, will and emotions as well as our physical body.

For the righteous it will be a season of harvest. However, it will be a very dangerous time to flagrantly sponsor things contrary to the nature of God. A season of repentance will be offered; if perpetually rejected, a measure of judgment will be released. While in the prime of their lives, many of the unrepentant wicked will find themselves at great risk during this season.

It is always our hope and expectation to present encouraging messages that are a blessing. However, to be wholly honest and forthright we must also state that the justice of God has judgment in it as well. Justice will be blessings upon the righteous and judgment upon unrighteousness.

Incredible grace has been and will continue to be offered for repentance. As the apostle Paul challenged young Timothy, we should with gentleness and courtesy bring spiritual correction. It is our hope that perhaps God may grant repentance to the wayward leading to the knowledge of the Truth.

In this way, many will come to their senses and escape the snare of the adversary that has held them captive. (2 Timothy 2:25-26) Even so, correction must come but from the right spirit.

However, the continually unrepentant will be separated according to the parable of Matthew 25:32-40. The faithful sheep will be promoted to a place of blessing and favor. This will be accomplished through principles of the kingdom highlighting the Lord Jesus as the Just judge.

In recent days it has been apparent that many with evil agendas have been exalted while the righteous have been humbled. Now that spirit of humility has been established in a body of righteous believers, that trend will be reversed.

The righteous will now experience seasons of divine favor while many of the wicked will come under discipline. Evidence of this is already at work is portions of the national media.

Beams of Light

Different places in this nation will be identified as "lighthouses" of God. From them great beams of Light will extend to the nations of the earth. This impartation will be distinguished with great spiritual insight and divine revelation. God’s truth will begin to deal with false influences among His people. According to the prophecy of Isaiah,

Come, house of Jacob, and let us walk in the light of the LORD. For you have abandoned your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled with influences from the east, and they are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they strike bargains with the children of foreigners.— Isaiah 2:5-6

Secrets and mysteries of God are poised to be released into this generation. Although three specific locations will be inaugurated in the coming days, this invitation is also extended to many others. Willingness to leave our comfort zone and embrace the impartation of Heaven will qualify those seeking to become God's lighthouses.

Many of the locations for this release will be totally unexpected. The Lord promises to visit whosoever is willing to humble themselves before Him. There may be spiritual streams that are entrusted with this endowment that will be quite surprising to many people.

In the vision, it was apparent that the beams of Light were coming from many different directions. However, three of those locations seemed to be significantly more brilliant. There will be three “hubs” raised up by the Holy Spirit to be delegated end-time "Light."

To these places, spiritual and natural provisions will be afforded for multimedia outlets. Radio, television and various mediums will be utilized to distribute the spiritual Light entrusted to them.

This directive was clearly presented as an invitation. Individuals and fellowships willing to respond to God's qualification can be utilized in this purpose. In a general way, it was clear that hubs were located in at least three places—the southern Gulf Coast region, the Northeast and the West. An emphasis was placed on the phrase "at least" three places. There can be more depending upon our responses.

We are called to be the light of the world. From our innermost being will flow rivers of living water that will be expressed as Light in dark places! A great responsibility will be placed upon the prayer ministries moving in revelatory prayer. A delegation of spiritual authority will come as “light” is shed upon ploys and schemes of the adversary.

Prayer can change things and expose devises of the evil one, including nuclear weapons enemies of God and this nation would like to discharge in America and Israel.

Part Five— Insight From Psalms 105

Psalms 105

In this year's revelations, it seems that Psalms 105 provided prophetic directives that characterize this era in God. As a result, we will simply present the insight that the Holy Spirit shared through prophetic "bullets."

Verse 1-3

We enter His gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise. John 13:31 and John 14:13. Let the heart of those rejoice who seek the Lord, for they will be contented. This will be a season for those who truly seek the Lord to find contentment.

Hope deferred makes the heart sick! There have been many heart-sick people in the church. However, we are now approaching a season in which promises, some of which were given many years ago, are about to be fulfilled. Hope will displace hopelessness.

Verse 4.

We have spent far too much time seeking the Lord's hand and not enough seeking His face. If we have His presence we have all that we need. Without question, the Lord desires to release to us His gifts and anointing. However, the main objective for this generation is to walk in the manifested Presence of God.

This is a season that we can ask of the Father and receive when we ask from a pure heart.— Matt. 7:7; Psalms 138. Luke 11:9-13

Verse 5.

The quality of our testimony is vital. The book of remembrance is being opened to inscribe the testimonies of the faithful. Malachi 3:16.

The Book of Remembrance contains the names of those who walk before the Lord in reverential awe and weep over the abominations being committed in the earth.

This sacred book is held dear by the Lord! It contains the names of those who faithfully join themselves to Him and carry His heart for their generation. According to the prophetic promises in Scripture, the end-time generation is identified as the harvest of the ages.

We are to carry the Lord's dominion over demons, disease, and death. Many names will be transcribed in the Book of Remembrance in this day; such people will enjoy the benefits of Heaven itself.

Verse 6-8.

The year of the blessings of Jacob. Abraham is the Father of faith. The faithful will receive the blessings of Jacob. (See section on — The Blessing of Jacob)

We are entering a season in which righteousness will be learned through expressions of God's justice and discipline. (Isaiah 26:9-10) (Much of this portion of the outline has already been addressed in prior sections of the Shepherd’s Rod)

Verse 9-10.

The Lord honors His word above His name. (Psalms 138:2) When God gives His word, He honors it. A promise was made to Abraham to deliver his descendants from the bondage of Egypt. When it came time for the promise to be fulfilled, a deliver was sought and found in Moses.

The Lord is searching now for "deliverers" through whom He can fulfill promises made in His word and to our spiritual forefathers. (Hebrews 11:33)

We are not yet Israel but we are at the river Jabbok where transition and transformation takes place. Jabbok means “emptying out.” We are being emptied of our own agendas, ambitions and opinions in order to acquire His. (See —The Blessings of Jacob.)

Those who overcome will be granted a white stone with a new name written upon it to reflect their change of character. Many saints are poised to have their name changed and inherent covenant promises. Upon them, angels will ascend and descend as they walk before an open heaven.

Verse 11-15.

The commissioning of Joshua was one of war. The land of Canaan is taken only through confrontation. Our inheritance is secured with violence. Our spiritual blessings are in Heavenly places. That is the same domain of the principalities, powers and rulers of darkness. Therein lies the conflict. In order to obtain the fullness of our inheritance we must overcome. We must contend for our birthright.

The remnant seed will be sown for harvest— sowing in the spring and reaping in the fall. Twelve spies ventured into the land of promise but only two returned with favorable reports. Each had equal opportunity to remain faithful to the Lord. Nevertheless, only a devoted remnant conveyed loyalty to God.

At the present time, there are only a few in number who have pressed through great difficulty to overcome. However, a wave of harvest is imminent to introduce this dimension to the corporate body.

Much of what we sow during the early months of next year will be harvested in the latter half. Those who seek will find and those who perpetually knock, to them it will be opened.

This passage is a representation of our call to the nations. Truth and power that is birthed in the coming season will be taken to the various regions of the earth.

Those who receive a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive the prophet's reward. A childless woman was kind to the prophet Elisha and received him as a representation of God. For that faithfulness, she received the desire of her heart -- a son. (2 Kings 4:13-17)

The prophetic voice will be speaking profoundly in the coming days. Those that embrace the Lord's message will receive rewards of favor.

It will also be a dangerous time to reject, ridicule and persecute the hidden manna that will be proceeding from behind the veil. The apostolic/prophetic voices will be sent to the places in which their words will be profitable.

Genuine prophetic messages will begin to emerge over the next several months and years. It will draw a line delineation that is easily recognizable between the Lord's voice and a counterfeit. Both the Church and the world will recognize this prophetic anointing resting upon God's people.

Verse 16.

At the present time we have not have a famine of revelation but of spiritual understanding. There has been a wave of revelatory insight that has come but very little perception has been joined with it. Comprehension of our revelations is as important as obtaining the revelation itself. Daniel received insight WITH understanding.
(Daniel 9:22)

There will be much stress in the world, both naturally and spiritually. Those separated from Christ and His canopy of protection will find a famine of peace and security. We will either have an abundance of faith, which separates us from fear, or a famine of faith, which amplifies fear.

Verse 17.

Many of those with the Joseph calling will now be elevated from the dungeon to the throne. The Joseph message has been heralded extensively throughout the last several years. There will now be a measure of release for this company of people with a very unique responsibility.

This season will mark the end of waiting for many. Their years of difficulty and hardship have prepared them for the notable authority and provision they must steward.

There will be great diversity inherent with the "Joseph" calling. It will be both spiritual and natural. This anointing will carry many people into the financial, political, marketplace and spiritual arenas. God's influence will be felt in each of these dimensions.

Anointing for creativity for this select group will flourish. The imaginations of this company will be anointed with the virtue of the Creator. These attributes will touch the arts, science and engineering. Many are already seeing by divine revelation new architecture and efficient building designs.

There will be a tremendous release of divine inspiration into the souls of this company. (Daniel 1:17) The word of the Lord has tested them and prepared them for this special calling. Both Joseph and Daniel portray extensions of this special mission.

This dimension of the Shepherd’s Rod revelations were also addressed extensively in “Books of Destiny.” We will include another portion of it with the hope of bringing clarity and understanding.

From Books of Destiny—

Supernatural Endowments

In many ways, Daniel and his three friends are representative of the manner in which the Lord will equip His people for the special assignments set before us. The Babylonian captivity of the Jewish people provides a prophetic portrait of the Body of Christ's condition and a hint of the Lord's promise of spiritual deliverance.

Daniel 1:17 describes the special empowerment from Heaven imparted to the former.

God gave them knowledge and intelligence in every branch of literature and wisdom; Daniel even understood all kinds of visions and dreams.
The Lord gave them revelatory knowledge and intelligence in various matters of writing and literature; bestowing by spiritual transference the blessing of unique knowledge and exceptional capacity in literature and all manner of written work.

The Lord quickened in them special skills to apprehend and articulate spiritual understanding and heavenly wisdom. Daniel was notably gifted with supernatural perception into all manner of visions and dreams. God had empowered them to excel in governmental scholarship.

This pattern will also apply in this day when the Lord discovers devoted obedient hearts of the spiritually strong. Then vast storehouses of revelatory insight and supernatural knowledge concerning Scripture, creation, science, the arts, and many other subjects will be entrusted to believers who follow the model of Daniel and his three friends.

These four young men provide a prophetic standard of those who know their God intimately and accomplish great exploits.

These friends of God will engage the revelatory realm of Heaven. They will be marked by their excellent spirit and granted acute perception and understanding to interpret dreams and visions, clarify revelatory experiences, and solve difficult and enigmatic problems.

They will be people who receive insight from the throne room and respond to God's invitation to be shown future secrets.

During a prophetic experience I had a few years ago the Lord told me that Daniel 1:17 was spiritually linked to Ephesians 1:17. These are parallel passages offering the same promise with different time frames. One is from the old covenant and outlines God's dealings with humanity during difficult times, pointing to a future day of supernatural intervention in the world. The other, expressed in the new covenant, records the heritage of believers.

Despite our perceived personal limitations or lack of educational opportunities, the Lord is a quickening Spirit. As our legacy, He has promised to impart life to our mortal bodies and to grant us the spirit of revelation to access mysteries, secrets, and revelatory knowledge.

In Roland Buck's throne room experience, two thousand Scriptures and references were immediately imprinted on his mind. Buck reported that the Scriptures were written on his heart and mind in a split second as a printing press inscribes information on paper. Numerous other testimonies exist of individuals who were supernaturally granted the ability to recall the entire Bible from memory.

Many who attended Maria Woodworth-Etter's meetings were caught up in the Spirit to experience visions and revelations from the Lord. In these supernatural encounters with God, some would be commissioned as missionaries to foreign lands; they would emerge from their vision capable of fluently speaking the language of the nation to which they were called.

The Father enjoys revealing His Kingdom to us and performing awesome deeds only He can accomplish. It was a small thing for Him to rejuvenate the bodies of Abraham and Sarah and quicken them with strength.

Even after Sarah's death, Abraham, well over a century old, continued in the strength imparted to him and bore many more sons by Keturah (Genesis 25:1). The Lord is more than able to equip us with the supernatural gifts needed to access the unfathomable treasures hidden in Him

As the Bible also promises, the Holy Spirit knows what is hidden in darkness and exposes deep and secret things. Light dwells with Him, bringing illumination to what has been set apart and reserved for the generation of destiny (Daniel 2:22).

God promised He would give us the treasures of darkness and the concealed riches of secret places so we would know it is the Lord who calls us by our name. (Isaiah 45:3)This divine promise supplies both the riches of revelatory insight as well as the natural provisions essential to fulfill the mandate of this kairos moment.

Even now, individuals are engaging the revelatory realm of Heaven and receiving downloads of insight into physics, light, sound, and spiritual colors. The apostle John's visit to Heaven's throne room outlined awesome sights, sounds, and vibrant colors surrounding God's seat of dominion and victory.

The more understanding we have of that realm, the greater our ability to cooperate with Heaven in demonstrating the Kingdom on earth.

Those being awakened to this realm and seeking understanding in science, physic, and the elements of creation are not super-geniuses with great scientific minds. Most are ordinary Christians who are tapping into God's heart as He releases His mind to the bride.

Much will be spoken and written in the coming days involving this dimension of our heritage. As with Einstein, an insatiable desire to understand creation and the Creator will flourish in the hearts of many Christians. Access to the spiritual books of Heaven will be granted in order to provide divine wisdom, revelatory knowledge, and supernatural strategy.

End Excerpt from Books of Destiny—

Verse 20-21

Unsaved people in positions of authority will recognize the favor of God upon this company and seek their counsel. Even more than that, these leaders and executives will ask for a blessing from this company. Heads of corporations will seek these "Josephs" for leadership positions to direct the future of their businesses. Though they will be in the world they will not be of the world!

The kings of the earth will recognize Heavenly wisdom and prophetic insight resting upon the overcomers of this day. They will embrace these specially prepared ones as Pharaoh embraced Joseph and Nebuchadnezzar exalted Daniel.

Many wealthy people will hire Christians so that their companies will prosper. In the coming days Zechariah 8: 20-23 will become a living reality.

Righteous will be delegated the power to bind and loose according to heavens design. They will bind ploys of wickedness and release standards of righteousness.
Matthew 16: 19

Verse 23.

As the justice of God becomes more apparent it will become increasingly important to be hidden in God. Egypt is a representation of the world while Babylon is a representation of spiritual confusion. Both of the natural and spiritual arenas will come under the justice of God. The righteous must be hidden in Christ as a form of Goshen to receive His canopy of protection. Isaiah 26: 20-21.

We must be hidden in God while indignation runs its course. It will be a stressful year but not for those in Goshen.

Verse 24

This is a portrayal of power evangelism. Judgment will always open the door for the release of righteousness and a wave of harvest.

Verse 25.

The carnal and liberal mind-set will mock Christians and hate them because the spirit of this world will not control them. The lifestyle of the righteous will be a reproach to the wicked. 1 John 3:13; Matthew 15:18.

The liberal political camps hate our current president because he stands for righteousness. It seems to stir something deep within the core of the unredeemed when a leader takes a stand against carnality and unrighteousness.

We should not be surprised or confused when we are hated to the wicked.

If the Church will take their stand and pray for our president then the liberal political machine will not have its way this election. The resulting backlash will be greater disdain for the Christian community and the conservative agenda.

Verse 26-27

Moses was a representation of God's government and Aaron was the appointed priest. It is now time of the apostolic leadership to emerge. Likewise, there will be a fresh and powerful anointing upon

God's people as a royal priesthood. The veil to the Holiest Place is now open for the royal priesthood to access; in that sacred place, discovery will be made of the hidden manna reserved for this day.

There will be great revelatory inspiration resting upon divinely appointed teachers called to fulfill their priestly role. Truth will be in their mouths and there will be no unrighteousness found upon their lips. The Lord's priests are called to guard and present, in purity, the knowledge of God. People should seek instruction from their mouths, for they are the messengers of God. (Malachi 2:5-7)

This will be a consolidation of governmental offices— the prophetic office combined with apostolic authority and inspired revelatory teaching. A new standard will be established by those entrusted with this duty. That is why the past season of preparation has been so intense. The calling is great!

The signs and wonders are to draw the unsaved in power evangelism. The time of debate concerning the validity of the apostolic office is over. It is now the appropriate timing for them to the revealed. This will introduce a fresh and powerful day for the Church.

This will be a time of darkness and a time of light. These days will be marked as a season of enlightenment. There has been a testing of the faithful; for them it will be a season to emerge in revelatory truth and spiritual power.

Verses 28-36— The Ten Plagues

The Holy Spirit has directed us to once again outline the ten plagues of Egypt as it relates to the spiritual climate of this day. We were first instructed to do this in 1998. A seven-year season has come to a completion. A renewed emphasis is emerging.

For us, Egypt has always been a representation of the spirit of this world. Babylon is a portrayal of spiritual confusion. One depicts the natural and the other the spiritual adversaries set against the covenant people of God and the harvest of souls.

Clearly, natural and spiritual indications can be readily discerned through our news media and the various reports continually being put before the people. Plagues, viruses, natural disasters, solar flares and other celestial events along with many other such occurrences all point to this generation of destiny. We must be awakened.

The Bible clearly announces that those without spiritual understanding will have the seed of destiny snatched away by the fowl of the air. Those with understanding will become fruitful fields producing thirty, sixty and hundredfold harvests. (Matthew 13:16-23)
